On Bill No. 1154. I realize that everybody enjoys the Zoo. I'm really using this vehicle as a message to the County that they've got to consider two thirds of the people using the Zoo, Aviary and Conservatory are non-City residents and that I see no reason why City taxpayers should pick up the deficits every year, and of course, I'll vote no on that.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 1170, I don't know how accurate my information is but someone told me the Austrian Choir is coming here and the German Community is sponsoring it. It's getting the Stadium under the contract with one of the Universities grabbed it. And I think someone raised the question about the City having to pay to have it tested. Does anybody know anything about that. Bill you raised that issue.

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, in reference to the Convention Center.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes. I understand that this is a contract with the University and that they are getting it for nothing. Why don't we?

Mr. Robinson:

As I understand it, there is a standing policy that was passed by the Auditorium Authority Board in 1978 indicating that there would not be any states provided free of charge. At that time, the Convention Center itself was not open, but I assumed that that board policy extends to that facility as well. I have no knowledge of specific situations.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I ask why they are going to the Convention Hall where they had such a small group of people. That's what helped to pack a lot of people in. Why would you want such a big place just because it's free? Let me get the information to you, and you check it through.

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, the bill that relates to Mr. Paul McDermott, I believe should read 180 days. The City Clerk said 100 days.

The Chair:

It does read 180 days.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question. Could you please tell me the number of the bill in regard to the appointment?

Mr. Perry:

File No. 716, Bill No. 1187.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm for all the bills with the exception of No. 1187 and the reason that I am opposed to it is because I am opposed to any non-city person receiving a job with the City. I believe that all of our offices are more than inundated with applications for employment and it seems that the only way, or the only exception that we ever have is those that are sent from the Mayor's Office and I resent that and I feel that it is an elitist practice.

Michelle Madoff:

I think that whenever possible we should certainly hire City people, Councilman Flaherty, but we have a bond advisor in the Mayor's Office, people who do not live in our City. There were bond people in the City, who live in the Suburban area who give us ten dollars a year —

Mr. Flaherty:

They are not on the City payroll.

Michelle Madoff:

What do you think they get paid with? —

Mr. Flaherty:

Are they receiving fringe benefits? Are they full-time employees?

Mr. Stone:

We're on the vote, aren't we?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes. I believe we're on the vote. The bill is passed the point of debate, Michelle. I think the appropriate time for your remarks is when you're called upon to vote. I'm not going to get into a debate with you on the issue. It's passed the point.

Michelle Madoff:

You had your turn and I'll have mine.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well you can state it when —

The Chair:

No more dialogue between you two. Address the Chair. Both of you.

Mr. Woods:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman. We already started taking the vote. Mr. Flaherty said what he had to say when he voted. It's Mr. Givens' turn to vote.

Michelle Madoff:

On the bill, Mr. President, I agree with Councilman Flaherty. We should keep City residents but sometimes what we're looking for is some very highly qualified people and there isn't anyone available in the City. I don't know, Councilman Flaherty, whether it's correct or not; whether we should go for someone in the City. I know this gentleman personally; I know his qualifications. He brings a great deal of expertise which might help save the City a lot of money in overruns. It's conceivable that we could have gotten somebody else in the City.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, I raised the issue last week about whether or not Council should vote up or down the waiver for Mr. McDermott and I suggested that if we were going to give him a waiver, we put a specific time period on that waiver. That waiver is 180 days; I assume that 180 days will start running as of the time this bill is signed by the Mayor. If Mr. McDermott does not move into the City within 180 days, I think it's fair to assume that he's no longer employed by the City of Pittsburgh. If there's some other understanding of this legislation, then I think those comments should be discussed at this point.

Mr. Givens:

I think the intent of the bill was that the Mayor said on a month to month basis and as was depicted on the Wednesday's Finance Committee debate on that, that could go on forever. The Council felt that it should have some type of limitation. It's 180 days. At the end of 180 days, he no longer works for the City of Pittsburgh. However, it is nothing to say that this Council cannot then act on another piece of legislation and will not give him another month to month or 180 days. I think we have to be reasonable when we approach this particular bill and I think we're in times right now that many people are having great difficulties in trying to either buy a home, because of financing, or to get rid of a home, because the market is not out there.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, my vote on this bill is for Mr. McDermott to have 180 days to become a resident of the City of Pittsburgh. If he does not become an official resident of the City of Pittsburgh in 180 days, I will not support any resolution to extend his time period. With all due respect to Mr. McDermott and his personal problems, and all due respect to the Administration in attempting to find people of quality to do the jobs necessary in the City of Pittsburgh, I think that the laws of the City of Pittsburgh can only be bent so much. And I think 180 days is all the bending that we should do for Mr. McDermott and his family.

The Chair:

If I read this bill correctly, we're voting on a month to month basis not to exceed 180 days. Obviously, each month, up until the sixth month, we're going to have to approve of his waiver. Unless I'm reading it incorrectly. On a month to month basis not to exceed 180 days.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, the fact that this is in my particular committee, I've asked for a monthly progress report on how this is coming about. I do know, from asking this already, that the individual has dropped the cost of the particular home some five thousand dollars. Hopefully, this will stimulate it. Our Chief Clerk has just gone through a dramatic change, I think in this, in his own community, and noting that in the Pittsburgh paper over the weekend, and it can be done, but the price has to be right. Right Mike?

Mr. Stone:

I'd like it very clearly understood. I have nothing anti-Mr.

McDermott, nothing personal. It is purely for one reason and one reason only. For the last ten years, I have never voted for a non-city resident to take a City position, whether that be as an employee, whether that be as a Board Member or Commission Member, and I will not change that philosophy now and for the rest of the time I sit on this Council.

Mr. Woods:

I'm going to vote for it this time, but if he comes six months from now and says he doesn't have a home or residency in the City of Pittsburgh, I will not support any other legislation to keep him on.

The Chair:

I share the sentiment of Mr. Stone. I'd like to waive my principles, but at the same time these are some rather unusual circumstances. But I don't want to see it become a habit. And if it does become a habit, I'm going to vote against any other waivers.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff presents

Bill No. 1272 WHEREAS, it is the aim of this Council to keep abreast of all fiscal matters affecting the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, the issuance of bonds and notes by the City is one area that should be studied intensely by Council before making any decision in this matter; and

WHEREAS, it would be in the best interest of the City of Pittsburgh for this Council to obtain the services of an independent bond and fiscal officer.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby hire an individual to serve Council as advisor in matters relative to bonds, notes, and other financial concerns relative to the operation of City government.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I have some very brief statements that I would like to make in reference to this. I'd like to point out that today on my way I was almost late because I bumped into a familiar name, Pete Flaherty. I told him about my resolution today. He pointed out that this is not a president study, but there has been dividers of Council. As a matter of fact, on the original Stadium Authority there was a divider from Singer, Dean and Schriver. He believes they now merged into another entity.

Because of the escalating debt service and projected rise of bond indebtedness so Council can make sound monetary judgments on the complex fiscal matters that are besetting the City of Pittsburgh, I'm introducing a resolution today to hire an independent fiscal expert as an advisor to Council. And as I've just stated, it's not the first time it's happened.

I believe that the advice of an unconstrained expert is imperative to Council members since Council is the legislative body that approves all expenditures and addresses every financial issue.

Surprisingly to me, Ronald Schmeizer, Director of Finance, before a reporter with two witnesses present, told me that he would welcome such a move by Council as long as the expert had the proper credentials.

Like all northern cities, Pittsburgh's infrastructure is rapidly deteriorating: i.e. sewers, waterlines, highways, bridges, etc. Compounding this problem is the City's Unfunded Pension Liability of $355 million and Workmen's Compensation of $40 million. Council needs sound advice from its own, I repeat, its own, fiscal expert on important financial issues, such as, the Stadium contract that is presently before us, and any future taxes that may be proposed.

I solicited a Capital Project Display of charts and graphs by the Department Heads of Public Works, Parks and Recreation, and Water (greatest impact on Capital Projects). I've done this so Council and the Public will be able to see what we are getting for the proposed increase in bond indebtedness and to review the following:

*What percentage of the original $70 million bond we voted on last year was actually used for Capital Projects?

*What percentage of the proposed $55 million bond would be used for needed Capital Projects?

Even after the visual presentation, however, it will be difficult for Council to vote intelligently on these weighty, fiscal matters without the advice and counseling of an independent expert who knows what questions to ask, and who understands the fiscal world and can offer Council sound fiscal advice so they don't vote in a vacuum.

Mr. Schmeizer has publicly, before this Council, stated that the City is reaching the limits of prudent borrowing. Yet, the Administration is seeking an additional $55 million bond in addition to the $10 million and $70 million borrowed. Where will this all end?

The debt service for 1984 alone is $74 million. And the $70 million borrowed at last year's interest rates takes $207 million to pay off. By borrowing dollars to roll-over this debt, we are only borrowing from Paul to pay Peter; we are only postponing the day of reckoning.

Many local bond experts have privately told me, and I mean many, that I am right on target even though they would not admit this publicly because they have a vested interest: either they have a piece of the bond pie or they want a piece of the pie.

I strongly urge my colleagues to support this resolution for an independent fiscal advisor so that they can vote, and we can all vote, and that includes me, I've had one year of business college and I've dealt with fiscal matters in the environment but I certainly don't consider myself able to look at all the ramifications, and we need to vote more responsibly and not in a vacuum.

I hope that this Council would concur. If Ron Schmeiser says he welcomes one, if it has been done before, and certainly with the hundreds and hundreds of bills, we're not computers, our minds are not computers and with some of our members considering running for Controller, I can't believe this Council as a body would not want to vote to have some good fiscal input.

Some of us have some expertise in certain areas, some have it in other areas. But we really need not to just rely on Mr. Sam Katz from New York and from the people who are the bonding people who have gone out and done it on a contingency basis because eventually they'll get paid; I want to know some of the right questions and some of the right areas to look at. I don't consider my self such an expert.

The Chair:

I have just one important question. I'm wondering where the money would come from if it's passed because there's no money allocated in the budget.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, the same place the money is going to come from to take a $70 million bond, $110 thousand. I'm not proposing we hire someone full-time.

The Chair:

You're talking about money coming out of Council's budget and there's no money allocated.

Michelle Madoff:

We have funds that are not allocated and it is such an important matter that we'll find the money. If it is the will of this Council. We're not talking about a great deal of money. We could probably find somebody as an advisor as needed. We don't have to worry about pensions, we don't have to worry about liabilities or whatever. If it is the will of this Council that we really care, we can't say we don't have that money.

I want to put this Council on notice that if it fails, you have my pledge and my word that if I'm re-elected, and I don't know that I will be, I don't believe that we should be getting $32,000.00. I will use $5,000.00 of those dollars. I will talk to my accountant. I will pay for that person myself. That is my point.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. There always tends to be a desire as we go on where, with City Council we, by asking for duplication of personnel, we get pretty close to almost having two cities within the City. The City administration, relative to this matter, it's within their province and their responsibility and their obligations to engage in the daily operation. This matter of fiscal consideration is of great concern to the City and that's why the City has hired a fiscal expert in the man, Mr. Katz. I've had the opportunity to work with him and I never thought that he was a Mayor's man or the Administration's man, but the City of Pittsburgh's man, and he was working for the interest of the City. Some of us would like to have our own lawyers, our own fiscal advisors. Pretty soon we're going to be having our own this and our own that, and as I've indicated, we're going to have two cities within one.

I think that there has been, and the problem more so than anything else, is while we're attacking the City, we do not realize that we are causing great concern to the City's ability. Some of the quotes that were made here today are a far cry from what I have heard speaking to those same individuals. In fact, when I spoke to Mr. Schmeiser and Mr. Katz, there was great concern in New York about what they felt was undue influence from a certain member of this Council on the New York market which was causing us problems in the bond area. And I think that it would behoove anyone if you want to vote intelligently and to vote responsibly in this City, that they'd be better off exerting their efforts at this Council table with meaning and merit than attempting to do something on their own in New York which is upsetting our possibilities of carrying on a bond venture which we need.

Going out on bonds, nobody wants to go on bond, and I don't know that the Mayor has said that would be the hallmark of his Administration. But, nevertheless, the Mayor did say, and we did vote for, that rather than sit and do nothing and have our capital projects go to pot, that we had to do something and that was the concern.

Relative to the move that was made here, if they were able to get off with it, in my personal opinion, it turned out well. Some would like us to turn on, as I've said before, neon lights and say, "Hooray, we're now going on a bond issue." It just doesn't happen that way. But the ability to look ahead, as was projected here, in my personal opinion, was a very important thing and showed a knowledge of the problem because I just read somewhere where the United States Government is going out on a major borrowing project. In the event that they do that, and it looks as though they will after this budget is closed, that then would dry up the market and come '83 there may not be funds available.

So I think instead of chastising the Administration and it's present fiscal officer, Mr. Katz, we should be commending them for what almost was a good movement in this particular time. If we're going to talk about voting intelligently and responsibly, then I think we ought to be thinking of that during budget time when we vote for debt and are irresponsible by not voting for the revenues that are necessary for it.

Obviously, I'm telling you that we don't need what we're proposing here. All we're attempting to do here is to create a fanfare and attack that what someone else is doing and this time seems to be doing responsibly. I, obviously, will be voting against it.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I've been very critical of the Administration and some of their bond issues going back several years and I still continue to be critical in this particular area. Sometimes it's nice to go back to our Home Rule Charter and see what the responsibilities of Council are. And I might read here that Council is given sufficient priors to perform; both the leadership role and the check and balances role in City government.

312 of this indicates that the Council is expected to conduct frequent and careful investigations of City problems, that's leads and opportunities, so as to be well prepared at all times to assist effectively in making wise and progressive policies.

313 and 314 indicates that the Council is expected to keep the public well informed of all of its activities.

I'd like to submit that Michelle has a very unique here. One thing that, I think, all of us in this Council has been asking more and more for, Mr. President. I feel that you can never have enough information and if you continue in on this, it so indicates that we do have a strong form of government. And if the Mayor has the same responsibility that we have to keep the people informed as to where we're going —

Something that is very unique, if you continue to look in here, that on the Controller of the City of Pittsburgh, on Section 405 and 409, these additional prior and requirements provide further protection for the safeguard of the public resources. It so indicates in here that the Controller has a definite responsibility in administering his office that he look, also, at these resources. And the fact that he gives us all the information data that we need in order to make intelligent judgments on the day in, day out problems of our City and of the budget itself. But uniquely, to the Controller, is the only person in this City, the only elected official of this City, that has a liability. Otherwise, if we go out on bond, if we extend ourselves beyond our own resources, that the City and its residents cannot pay back, it's only the Controller of the City of Pittsburgh that could go to jail if there is an irresponsible act, for example, going out and borrowing too much and not having the ability to pay back. I will submit to Michelle that if this City Charter reads the way I am interpreting it, that the Controller then would be this likely person of an elected nature to come before this Council and explain to us exactly what is the fiscal responsibilities of this particular Council. Where are we? Where are we going? Uniquely, as responsibilities look into resources, programs and projects, do what we do. But I think the uniqueness of his particular office down there is one where he can — he is the checks and balances between the legislative and also of the executive branch of this Government. And I would wholeheartedly submit that we ask the Controller of the City of Pittsburgh to come forward with a report as to our financial indebtedness and see if that might help our situation in making more in-depth research on these great financial problems that are confronting all cities in the northeastern quadrant and more so to get an unbiased opinion as to are we going down the right avenue.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I need to respond. You know, there's an aura of collusion here. And I say that from observing, and one has to only go back and read the transcripts of hearings starting back in the days when I got here. The first year I was here all the votes were 8-1 in favor of the Administration with my vote the only dissenting one. Now things have seemed to go completely 180 degree circle. They've gone right around. Things that go around, come around. I cannot believe that this Council would, in any way, not want to have an independent person when the Director of Finance, Mr. Schmeiser, says, A) he welcomes it, when they go out on a bond and they don't tell this Council and the Finance Chairman is aware of it, does not bother to tell this Council because old Michelle Madoff is so powerful she's upsetting Wall Street. If you think the people are that easily fooled, Mr. Stone, you're wrong. Because they know Michelle Madoff saying, "Are you going out on a bond?" to somebody when I'm buying a pair of shoes in New York, and they tell me about it and I said, "What?" and I find out inadvertently. I'm not upsetting Wall Street or the Market and anyone that would believe that is going to be ridiculing the person who made that accusation.

Furthermore, you're right on target, Mr. Stone. When we get to budget hearings, we don't know what we're voting about. And we do not know what we're doing. And the reason we don't know is we don't have the proper input because it gets railroaded through like a Chinese auction, like a tobacco auction, and when does that happen? Right after the election. We go into budget hearings the following day, day and night, and we don't have an outside input, and we have to rely on our own acumen. And I don't think I'm that smart, and you know what? I don't think you are either, Mr. Ayatollah.

Mr. Givens:

We don't need those side remarks in this Council, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

I resent the implication that I'm upsetting the welfare of this City.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I just have to say to Michelle, more power to her if she is shaking up Wall Street, because it's important to keep in mind that the bond — who was hired as a bond counsel for the City is not hired by City Council. It is hired directly by the Mayor's Office. And I view this issue, not so much as two cities, as some may see it as two cities competing against each other, I see this issue as a chance for Council to reaffirm its constitutional balance. And as Councilman Givens has pointed out, we are the legislative body and they are the executive body. And often times, out of conflict, comes public good. Not out of unity. I don't buy that. Especially on an issue of the magnitude of the bond that we are talking about, especially on the issue of the Stadium.

And so I wholeheartedly support Councilwoman Michelle Madoff on this issue, but more importantly, I think this Council should bind together and support itself and not just be the errand boy and the rubber stamp of the Administration.

Mr. Givens:

I'm voting no and I would ask that the City Clerk to send a letter to the Controller and see if, in fact, he can't help us out in this point of decision.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm voting aye and if this bill goes down to defeat, I hope there's somebody out there in the public that will volunteer their services gratis. Or I'll be happy to give them a small stipend out of my salary.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Michelle Madoff

AYES 2 NOES 7

(MR. GIVENS, MRS. MASLOFF, MR. O'MALLEY, MR. ROBINSON, MR. STONE, MR. WOODS AND MR. DEPASQUALE VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the bill was defeated.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I have a statement that I wish to make that I believe is in the same line, coincidentally, of the resolution that we have just discussed. And it is also along the lines of the balance of power and it seems to me that this Council as of late has been bombarded, not just from the executive branch, but more importantly, from the judicial branch. I'm referring to an article that was in the Post Gazette yesterday, the title of it saying, "Judge Fears Tinkering With Stadium Deal." I believe that, as a member of Council, personally as a member of Council, but also from a professional standpoint, I viewed this article in a most unfortunate light. And I think that this is something that this Council should discuss in its combined wisdom. Perhaps it should send a message to Judge Del Sole, who I'm sure we are all aware presided over the fourteen months of negotiations concerning the principles on the Stadium Agreement.

But what I am extremely critical of is, publicly three members of Council has already expressed serious reservations concerning the proposed agreement. And I believe that those criticisms are very legitimate and they certainly address needs of our constituencies. But more importantly, what I am concerned about is, it seems to me, and I have the article in front of me, that the Judge is over-stepping his boundaries and he's getting into politicking on a very sensitive issue; one that I don't believe that and judge should be speaking on. The Judge's role was to be a mediator; to be as objective as possible. I do not question his integrity in that role. I do question, though, the practice of trying to lead the public, of trying to lead Council, to the conclusion that if Council does not accept this deal, then God forbid, we are going to be in deep problems. There's quotes such as that if this agreement will not survive, if changes are made, it's such a thoroughly integrated agreement, that one thing hinges on so many others. You change one thing and it's like the dominoes - it all comes down.

And then he says that Council's action will be absolutely decisive. And unless he has a fortune ball, I don't know how he can come out and say that.

So, I have had my problems, as I expressed here two weeks ago, concerning the actions of Judge Del Sole when he attempted to try to gag this Council. And we allowed him to gag us and now, I don't we should sit by and let him hand us a trickled down theory as to what was decided upon in those secret negotiations. If there is information or minutes from those secret negotiations, then let them be released so members of Council can weigh them objectively and without the shadings of any judge. I believe this is very important. But more importantly, I just feel that's it's inappropriate for any judge to be trying to influence the legislative body about the merits of a settlement that he presided over. It would be uncalled for, for example, if we were to hear a Supreme Court judge extolling the merits or the virtues of their decision to Congress. It would be uncalled for. And unfortunately, it's right in the public view here because, I guess, we have a tradition in this Council and this City, of not trying to understand what the essential divisions of power are between the executive, the judicial and the legislative branches of government.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I was shocked to hear what I heard last week, and now I'm doubly shocked. First of all, all of us received an order from a Court which we read before we got any disclosures. And it was indicated that we would accept it, read it and we were responsible of agents of the City to abide by it. Some comments were made last week. I thought they were ridiculous last week, and now we're close to the sublime.

I would like to speak now purely on the individual who is being attacked here, and that's the Judge. One of the things that I found most important when this thing began was the fact that Judge Del Sole was involved. As a lawyer I had practiced before him, some I got, some I didn't, but nevertheless, always got a fair determination. And if you take the reputation of the Bar relative to their performance with this particular court, you will find that he stands at the top of the regard for good deliberations. But above all, his ability to have everyone in a nice way, arrive at what's the best solution to a problem.

As I've indicated, he's one of the best, but to show you the kind of individual he is, he accepted a case the perhaps most courts would not accept, because it was a tough position. He spent fourteen months on it trying to work out something, with all the parties involved, with everyone pushing and shoving for their particular selfish interest, and that should be. But after fourteen months of working on it, all we can have said today, for someone as talented as he, someone as dedicated as he, and someone who accepts the total responsibility as he, is to now attack him personally. Can we ever hope that any other judge, in the best interest of this City, is ever going to take a case when you have this kind of irresponsible attack when a man is doing a good job in a judicial way.

I would caution that this kind of action is wrong. I think that if we're going to talk about a fair delivery that it would appear to me that it might be best to wait until after the hearing to hear from everyone and then be able to determine it. But I think, as I've indicated earlier, the attack on the Court is out of place.

And secondly, the one thing that the Court did not do. He did not make any public announcements prior to the time that everybody else was permitted to do it. And that shows quality of manhood.

Mr. Given:

Mr. President, I think Mr. Flaherty has all the right in the world to raise some of these questions. In fact, some of them I raised myself in the Chambers of the Mayor with Judge Del Sole himself, wherein they gave me what happened during this thirteen and fourteen month deliberation. From what I was told, there were instruments picked up and thrown around the room. The discussion got that hot and the issues were debated. Even to the fact that the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh would not stay in that same area where they were doing the negotiations. It was that hot.

I think that added emphasis as to how serious the arguments went back and forth during these thirteen and fourteen months; why it took so long for all parties to come to some type of a compromise. And that's exactly what it is. It's a compromise.

I asked the Judge, in all his wisdom, and other attorneys that have been very close and familiar with the case, including our own Solicitor, what our chances would have been if this thing had gone to court. In all cases, both Judge Del Sole and other attorneys and our own Solicitor indicated that we are going in in a weak position. The City of Pittsburgh had an obligation and that original forty year contract to provide road system to the Stadium, to and from. We have not done so. To provide a marina. We did not do so. And also to provide hotel or something of that, and to develop that site. From the date that the Stadium was built, there was no development other than one service station and maybe an addition of the Clemente Park. They were the only two developments.

So the City of Pittsburgh was going in and could still possibly go in if this Council does not approve it. And we have to look at the long range effect of what this will mean to the taxbase of the City of Pittsburgh.

However, if there were minutes taken, and if those minutes can be divulged to this Council, I think it would give us greater insight as to what is going on, and I would hope that they would come forward with this information to let us know and have greater understanding of what happened during these last thirteen and fourteen months.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I'm going to be quite brief. I don't necessarily hold with Councilman Flaherty's critique and opinion of the Judge. I would like to point out that all of us have voted for and against various issues that have come before Council, various projects, for example, the Dravo site. Mr. Stone single-handedly led the charge in opposition to the building of the Dravo building and the zoning, and we could then turn around and turn the tables and say, "Well, with that kind of action, what entrepreneur is going to want to come into Pittsburgh and build a building?" I think the position that Mr. Stone has taken in response to Mr. Flaherty, what judge will want to take a case, it's really not proper argument and one that doesn't hold water.

I would like to go record as saying that when I went to the Judge's Chambers with the Mayor, Marv Fein, myself, and Mr. Matter, and was given a briefing on what was happening with the Stadium with the full understanding that it would come before this Council and I was under a gag order, I obeyed the gag order. However, and I did say that my feelings, I've been bombarded by the public wherever I go as to what I'm going to do about this and why I've already stated that I am in support of the position, or the Mayor's position and the negotiations as a compromise, my feelings, initially, were that it is a contract that wasn't a matter of being good or bad, it's a matter of bad or worse. And that indeed some of the points that Councilman Givens has made, it might be that we really don't have a choice.

But this is one Councilmember that is not going to vote on that issue based on emotionalism of people coming here, and I bump into these people where

I swim at a public pool, and saying to me, "How can we vote for that? We taxpayers are going to pay for it?" I think the overwhelming sentiment, perhaps misunderstood, or perhaps, understood better than we understand it, of the public, is that they are opposed to this agreement. And we are representatives of the public. True, we have to look at all sides and we have to make judgmental values that maybe they don't have, information they don't have access to. But this Council today went on record as saying, "Listen, baby, you're not going to get that input. If you want it, you go get it." Well, I'm going to go get that information and I'm going to have someone look at the original contract. I'm going to have some expert go over that contract, and then I'm going to vote. And right now, let the Administration know that I have not made my decision.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I would just care to respond to what Councilman Givens has said. In regard to his saying that the Administration said that they were extremely pessimistic, that we could win in court, that's the exact opposite of the letter that I believe every member of this Council received the day the Mayor had his press conference to publicly announce the details of the agreement, and the letter was from the Mayor's executive secretary in which he very succinctly says that in the Administration's mind, the Pirates' lawsuit had no merit. I don't have the letter in front of me, but I will be glad to show that to anyone in this room after the meeting.

As far as the point I was trying to make, I believe we got a little sidetracked. It's very simple. It's this: A judge now is coming out publicly and he is trying to tell this Council that if we do not support this agreement, then it will be through with. Then uncalled for or terrors and fears will take hold of the City.

I also believe this is an attempt to spoon-feed the public about how tough negotiations were and people were throwing papers up in the air, and the Mayor was adamant, and really pressed his point about in the eleventh year, we will get something if the medallions don't come through.

All I am saying is that if they are going to spoon-feed what they want to to us, and to the public, then I think they should come out with the whole story and if they're not prepared to give minutes or to give a detailed report to this Council as to what happened in those negotiations, then I think all the principles, well not all the principles, but most importantly the Judge, should be quiet on it.

My first responsibility is to the taxpayers. And if that may be selfish, then so be it. But I am not an apologist to the Courts of this County. I don't practice in front of Courts and I'm not going to apologize. The only people I owe a commitment to in this deal is the public, and I think they're being romanced real nice on the whole deal, and it's unfortunate that a judge is playing one of the main roles.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I'd like to just add one word if I could to that. Three Rivers Management sent letters to each Councilpeople a year or so back, asking us to review some of the problems that they were having down there. Well, when Three Rivers Management is before us in that public hearing, I'm going to ask them how many Councilmen were concerned about the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh at that particular time and went down to try to resolve some of the problems and differences that we had. When the Mayor was to the point that he was not even going to sit down and negotiate, which Councilmen went forward and asked the Mayor to try to sit down and do some negotiating, looking for the betterment of the people and the taxpayers, especially, underlying everything, the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh. And I want those facts to be brought out at this public hearing and I think that some of those people that are shouting from the rafters right now didn't even give a hoot two or three years ago when this thing really got started.

Michelle Madoff:

Because we didn't have accurate information and we need some advisors.

The Chair:

If I may take the prerogative as Chairman, or President of City Council, there are two observations I'd like to make. Number one is that in the negotiations, nobody had any expertise with the exception of the Pirates and the Steelers. In effect, we sent out the Christian to be slaughtered by the lions. Whoever was negotiating knew nothing whatsoever about Stadiums, including Judge Del Sole, and I don't mean to malign Judge Del Sole or anybody on the negotiating table. They were sent there and they thought they had a job to do. In all reality, they were dealing with men, and they were just boys. They didn't know what they were getting into and when it finalized, they were tied in a knot.

Very simply, the Pirates, in the 60's told the City of Pittsburgh, "Build us a stadium or we're leaving." Now they're saying, "Get us out of a bona fide negotiation or we're leaving." It's blackmail, pure and simple. Don't submit to it. If you do then shame on all of you.

Michelle Madoff:

But you still don't want any expert advice for this Council. You voted against expert advice for this Council.

The Chair:

What's that?

Michelle Madoff:

I said, nevertheless, you voted against having an expert advise this Council.

Mr. Givens moved to approved the minutes of Monday, June 28, 1982.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Givens

Council adjourned.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Michelle Madoff:

Point of clarification. We have a hearing this Thursday on the Capital Budget and I'm a little bit confused. I have asked the department heads to prepare some graphs and charts to present to us on the Capital Budget which tie into the bond issue. You were to schedule that hearing. Are they both going to take place the same day? My understanding is that they would.

The Chair:

I'm not going to be here and I haven't heard back from those other people.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, are you familiar with that?

Mr. Stone:

We called, because this Council wanted it, a public hearing on the Capital Budget. That's what we're going to have on Thursday.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I would assume that the graphs from the various departments on the Capital Budget would be in order, then, and how it ties into the bond.

Mr. Stone:

If that's what they need to demonstrate what they want to tell us, it's up to them.

Michelle Madoff:

No, it isn't up to them because I requested it. And Mr. President said he would schedule a hearing for that and I think it's silly to do it twice when it's exactly the same subject matter. You certainly have no objections to their presenting some graphs on what has been

Mr. Stone:

I haven't seen them and I can't tell you. All I know is we requested a Capital Budget discussion as we generally have them and that's what we set.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, are you going to stay for the — Will Councilmembers be available to stay for the graphs and the demonstrations, it will be very brief, I'm sure, by the Public Works, Water and Parks and Recreation. They're going to show us what projects they committed under the $70 million, what were deferred, and when they must go ahead with them and when they plan to start them. And I think that would certainly tie into what Mr. Givens has requested as part of his information. We're not just here to hear a lot of noises without some substantive understanding of what's going on. You have no objections to that, do you, Mr. Stone?

Mr. Stone:

I have no objection to being informed. All I can tell you is that you're asking me to present something before I know what it is and I'm not capable of doing that.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not asking you to present anything. I'm asking you to be open to having them present their data, which they prepared in detail. And I'm sure you have no objection to that. Am I correct?

Mr. Stone:

I've already indicated to you that I haven't seen what we're talking about. Until I see it, I can't tell you whether I'm going to accept it or reject it.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I don't want to go through this in fighting. Why don't we just schedule another day to have these people show their graphs and let the media and everybody — I would like the public to be notified. Mr. Perry, did you notify the public that they can come to see these graphs as well? I think that's terribly important. I'm really not interested in anything on the Capital Budget until I understand what's happening, and I'm trying to get a breakdown. I'm meeting with — I have hired an expert, folks. I don't know if he's going to charge me or not, but I meet with him tomorrow or Thursday. He's able to read budgets, he's an economist, look at all the Steelers' contracts and to look at the kind of information that's going to be supplied, and then I will be able to talk with a little bit more knowledge. I would also like him to review some of this material.

I think it's silly to do it two days, Mr. President. This Council is in session so often now that we don't get much time to address the complaints in our offices, and I see no reason why we can't do both on the same day. Do you? Will you do them both this Thursday?

The Chair:

It's alright with me, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Would we have time to notify the citizens' groups by Thursday, Mike?

Mr. Perry:

I advertise the hearing in the paper.

Michelle Madoff:

There is a hearing advertised? So then that's covered. So there's no reason — it's up to the discretion of the President of Council. Can we have them both on the same day since it's both the same subject matter?

The Chair:

You're going to have to have one in the afternoon, Michelle, because that meeting's going to run —

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, they're both the same things. They're going to come and tell us what they're doing with the Capital Funds and show us a graph. Now what's wrong with the showing of a graph?

The Chair:

Well, why don't you have them appear as witnesses at the hearing?

Michelle Madoff:

What hearing?

The Chair:

We're having a hearing Thursday.

Michelle Madoff:

That's right. That's what I said.

The Chair:

So have these people come up and present their —

Michelle Madoff:

That's what I asked Mr. Stone, politely and graciously, and I got double talk.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. President, I'm sure that if they have these charts that Michelle wants, when they make their presentation on the Capital Budget they'll be showing us the charts also. It will be all one meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you, Mr. Woods. I appreciate that. Thank you very much.

The Chair:

I don't think there's any harm in their giving their presentation as witnesses.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm a little confused as to how to vote, if you're for or against.

The Chair:

Very simply. If you're for the Whale's Tale continuing as it is now, you vote aye.

Michelle Madoff:

But it was a negative recommendation.

The Chair:

If it's negative you vote aye for the home, nay not to have the house.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay.

Mr. Flaherty:

Aye, and incidentally, could I have my remarks from the Committee Meeting included in the record.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I'd like also that my minutes be brought forward from the Wednesday session. And I'd like to indicate that two of those homes, the three homes that are right next to one are the transitional homes for the mental health and mental retardation, a Board for which I sit on. And I can speak first hand for these two homes. They are excellent in a particular area. I think some other people might have some comments in regard to a comment that I had made in the Wednesday session, and that is to give some type of latitude to this home if it does not pass. If it does pass, I still feel that there are some comments that other Councilpeople would like to make on it.

I vote aye.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, Sophie Masloff, and I do not speak for her, and I have caucussed, and she's going to speak for herself, but we would like to, I'm speaking for me, and we're going to be bookends. We would like to, I want to change my vote and vote aye with the understanding that we have a report back here within six months. If the disturbance to the people continues, if the police have not -- we want a report from them and if there are continuing complaints, then I personally, and I hope others will support me, will ask that the place be shut down.

So I will vote aye with the understanding, Mr. Perry, City Clerk, that we will have a report and a letter going out to the Police Department now, saying we want documentation of the complaints and we want a letter going to the people who are here from the Shadyside Coalition, Councilman Flaherty, you have the names of the people that were here, asking them to report to the Police with a copy to Councilman Flaherty, myself for Sophie Masloff, anybody else they wish, and within six months, if there's not peace and harmony, then I personally will move to shut it down.

I have one other concern that I did not speak to Councilwoman Masloff about. The owner of that building is trying to sell it, and I would be very much opposed to that, to his selling the building to these people which would then lock them in and we'd say, "Well they own the building, they have nowhere else to go." And I would like that to be in the letter going out to the Whale's Tale; that I would not want it purchased until the time we know that there's harmony and they're good neighbors and good citizens in the community, but meanwhile, on a six month trial basis, I will change my vote to aye.

Mrs. Masloff:

I, too, did much sole-searching on this and I feel sorry for the kids. I want to go along with the understanding that in six months, not one day later, we get a report back and we contact every single one of the neighbors who protested to get their opinion. And on that basis I vote yes.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd like my comments from last week included and I vote aye.

Mr. Stone:

I on all bills and I'd like my comments relative to Bill No. 902 brought forth.

Mr. DePasquale

I'm sorry I don't have the deciding vote. I do want to say that I had some very unethical and unprofessional letters sent to me by certain judges who I think are nothing but meddling. They don't like when we meddle in their court cases, and I didn't like the idea of them sending me letters asking me to vote to approve the Whale's Tale. I was opposed from the start, and opposed after I received their letters, and will always be opposed. My vote is no.

(BEGINNING OF MR. FLAHERTY, MR. GIVENS, MR. ROBINSON AND MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 902 FROM WEDNESDAY, 7/7/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, there were some concerns expressed at the hearing on June 29th relative to the review process that is in place within the Group Home Ordinance. There were also some concerns expressed by our City officials whether or not that process was ever utilized by persons in the neighborhood who indicated that they had some difficulty with accepting this facility in their community, or this facility remaining in their community. I think that certainly that process should be utilized and should have been utilized; perhaps some of the concerns could have been addressed.

There is a process going on right now to strengthen that review process. Director Lurcott is in the process of preparing some additions or some changes in our Group Home Ordinance to address the issue of review and to address the issue of spacing requirements for these homes. There is a team prepared at this moment of persons within our Planning Department for a part of this review process to go out and work specifically on this Whale's Tale situation and work on any other situation to come up.

Mr. Stone:

Do you mean in the complaint department area?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, who would be a part of the processing of any kind of complaints and in terms of the normal review process, which is already in the ordinance.

I think that one of the things that we found is that the review process right now is probably inadequate because it only calls for the yearly review. That review probably should be at least six months. I think that would better accommodate those legitimate concerns the neighborhood residents have had. That legislation, hopefully, will be coming back to Council very quickly because there are some other group homes that will be coming before us for consideration.

Also, we are going to improve the process by which community groups and organizations are notified, relative to this ordinance, and the process that's listed in it. I would suggest very strongly that our Planning Department send out some notification, if they have not already done so, to the list of community groups and organizations that we normally work with, informing them of the legislation and specifically identifying the process that they can get into to resolve their concerns. I think this will save everybody a lot of aggravation and speak more specifically to one of the purposes of the bill, and that is to make sure the persons who live in those neighborhoods or the persons who have concerns have some sort of process in which they can put their concerns, and that we, the City of Pittsburgh, is involved in trying to resolve those problems. Having sent that, I don't see any reason why we should not approve this particular piece of legislation.

I move to approve.

Mr. Stone:

I second the motion.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

Let me respond to that, Mr. President. I don't believe that the hearings that we are holding here in Council are courtroom proceedings. I think some of the comments that were made specifically in reference to Whale's Tale probably would have been better addressed in the courtroom because of the accusatory nature and lack of any substantive evidence. That is not to take anything away from the legitimate concerns that people have in the Shadyside area, but there was no evidence that the process that was put in place by this Council was ever utilized. I don't believe anyone came before this Council and indicated that they have used that process. If people are not going to use the processes that we establish to try to resolve complaints, I think it is going to be kind of difficult for this Council to skip over our department heads, our whole administrative structure and simply deal with accusations. If there is any evidence of dope, drunkenness, etc., I didn't see it presented here at this table.

One of the things we are attempting to do, the Planning Department and myself, is to try to tighten up our review process so that people who have those kind of concerns can put it into the process. I don't believe there is any evidence that the process was ever utilized, or that anyone in the administrative capacity had an opportunity to try to address those concerns. That is part of the reason why I made that motion.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

I don't think he said that.

Mr. Robinson:

No, No. I am not saying that.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

But, Mr. President, you also had reputable people on the other side who expressed their opinion. All I am saying is that when we start talking about evidence, we start really talking about the evidence of whether something is or is not happening, we have to depend upon something other than the word of the individuals involved, and particularly when they start conducting themselves as though we are in some sort of courtroom proceeding. I didn't see any evidence of anyone being drunk or using narcotics, what have you. I went out and looked at the facility myself. And based on looking at it, I really couldn't tell you if the people inside were drunk or using narcotics. I really couldn't tell you about the supervision because I didn't meet the supervisor. I did have a chance to talk to the community groups and organizations. I did have a chance to listen to them and I did have a chance to ask our people what they have done. That is all the information that we have. I just think some of these accusations and concerns were a bit strong. I think even Mr. Stone suggested that we were getting people's concerns, but when you start making accusations about folks engaging in illegal activities — to me that is pretty strong.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Only because it is a lease rather than owned?

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Where is the crucial issue of whether it is leased or it is owned?

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Flaherty:

I also agree with Councilman Robinson that there certainly were certain accusations that were made at the public hearing, but I am not aware of any substantiation of them. I don't even feel that we, on Council, should perceive ourselves as a quasi court.

I have certain problems as to how the Whale's Tale first entered the home. I believe they could have been more up front with the City and certainly with the Shadyside community. But, I have to balance it with the fact that they have served the City and the county for three years in that home. I reside within three blocks of that area. In fact, I grew up in that area and I know it quite well, and I was not even aware of the existence of the Whale's Tale until the issue came in front of Council; so I am going to support the Whale's Tale. I sort of do this with certainly ambiguous sentiments because I feel that the Shadyside Action Coalition has its substantial criticisms. As far as their accusations go, I see them strictly as accusations. If there was one or two of the youths who were drunk or they are on drugs, and if they aren't conforming to the program, then they should be removed from the program. But, I can't endorse the idea of closing down the whole program simply because of a couple of apples that aren't seeming to pair up.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

I would agree with the comments of the previous speakers before us on this bill. However, just one thing, that's variances on the size of the side lot and the back lot. The public hearing went into other than that particular entity.

I have to greatly appreciate what Councilman Robinson had to speak of, we do have a formal type of ordinance there that gives people in the community, whether they are a community organization or not, some channel in how to address situations of this nature. This particular facility, for what it is being used for, as far as I am concerned, does not meet City standards, and I feel that there are other homes around where at least the children can have either a front yard or a back yard where they can at least meet outside the premise itself. Plus, I felt it was real, when people see something, even though it hasn't been documented and reported, I have to assume that what they are saying is to some degree valid. There have been some problems there, however the people in the home were not aware of it because it was not reported to them. However, I don't feel that that is the Whale's Tale's responsibility to know what is going on, especially at two o'clock or three o'clock in the morning when voices are loud, etc.

With this I give a conditional vote that within six months or one year, whenever they come back, hopefully that the Whale's Tale will look for another facility that will more adequately accommodate these young children that need this additional type of training, to go out into the real world and be able to adapt.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, just one other comment. With deep appreciation for everything that has been said, I think one of the things that might help us as we are confronted with these types of issues in the future, and we certainly will be confronted with them again and again. It might be appropriate for us to have the City Clerk send a letter to our Planning Director, Mr. Lurcott, and request that he hold any legislation that relates to these conditional uses or these variances until we get resolved the issue of the revised legislation. The reason I say that is, I think it is rather obvious that the law was difficult in putting together, a great deal of time and effort has gone into it, a lot of dedicated people on all sides of the issue have struggled with it. Now that we see in operation there are still some concerns, I think those concerns need to be addressed in terms of legislation.

Mr. Stone:

The only problem I have with what you are doing, it was do anything you want prior to the legislation.

Mr. Robinson:

Right.

Mr. Stone:

This legislation, while it is not the best, is the best thing we had at the time.

Mr. Robinson:

Precisely.

Mr. Stone:

Now, if you hold it so that you can't use it, I am wondering if we are not creating a problem.

Mr. Robinson:

No. What I am saying is that the current legislation that we have is in effect; I am simply indicating that all those applications that might be coming to us for variances or conditional uses be held until such time that the changes that Director Lurcott indicated needed to be made, can be presented to us. As far as I know, there are meetings going on now with persons trying to strengthen the legislation, particularly in the area of monitoring and the review process.

Mr. Stone:

The thought occurred to me, while you were talking about the monitoring, I don't think you should come here every shorter period, but the mid-year review could be done by Planning rather than Council so we don't overburden the City.

Mr. Robinson:

Precisely. The review and monitoring right now is being handled administratively, and I think that is where it should be. But, when Council members raise that concern because someone has contacted them, I think we need to have in place a pretty good review process that we know, at least, can work so that we have something to evaluate. In holding the piece of legislation, we are not jeopardizing anybody, the facilities are already in operation —

Mr. Stone:

As long as that time-frame is on.

Mr. Robinson:

Right, they were in operation prior to the law being passed. But there are also facilities that obviously have problems. When they come here we are going to address those problems, whether they are variance problems or community problems, simply because they were there, they were in operation before the law went into effect. The law has accommodated them by saying they must now go to Council to explain their concerns, and if they are not the kind of facility they want, Council has the power to vote them out; but if they are the kind of facility we'd like to keep, they can stay in, but Council has to approve their variances, their conditional use.

I have no problem with that process because if there are homes that are operating that we feel are not in the best interest of the City, we should indicate to them that we will not approve their continued use. I don't think we should, however, knock someone out simply because they use the procedures that they thought were correct initially. Sometimes that means going into a neighborhood and nobody knows you are there because you are afraid to tell them for fear they don't want your clients. I think a lot of organizations legitimately weighed the situation and thought it was better to beg forgiveness than to ask permission.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

He had no knowledge. The review

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

The review process does not require anyone in the City of Pittsburgh to go out to organizations such as the Whale's Tale that are already in operation, and say let's review the complaints --

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

No, no. All I am saying to you is, there is a normal review process that we conduct and there is a normal process into which community people can put their complaints. We do not now have any situation where we physically go out. If we should go out and check with all of them, there is no problem doing that. But, we have no process.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

I have no problem with that, that is why I said there are people ready now, we have in place teams of individuals, that can go out and do exactly what you are talking about. There is no problem there.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

If I may for a moment, just to kind of capsule what is happening here. First of all, I think there are two issues, and the first one is whether or not they should be permitted to continue. I think Mr. Robinson said it very appropriately; and that is, when someone is on a continued basis it should not be like it is a new determination whether it is yes or no, there should be some grave reasons why something should not continue.

Relative to the other matter of complaints, I think they have merit. There were some complaints that were made and were even admitted, and that was the matter of the drunkenness. As I recall, they said someone had been drinking, and the Whale's Tale said that was true, and we have moved them out of there.

Relative to these facilities, group home facilities, and particularly those where you are dealing with those coming from Juvenile Court; we are dealing, and must understand that in the initial premise of it, we are dealing with some people who have some difficulty coping. While they had some difficulties, they are not of the hard-core kind that should be confined. This program was started, not by the Whale's Tale, but rather by the Juvenile Court with then Judge Tammilia. The fact that they don't tell the community was not a sneaky process, but rather it was a program that started when there was no coverage for it. The reason I am aware of it was that I happened to be in Carrick when Judge Tammilia was explaining, and the same question was asked there, and that was how come we didn't know about it. Part of the philosophy of those group homes is that you are putting a family together and somehow it should be just like what is there already, and it shouldn't be sticking out like a sore thumb. If it does it's a problem. That was the basic idea of it.

Being an individual who runs privately one of the best ethnic sports programs in the country, dealing with some 5,000 people at a basketball tournament, I become, when you get some complaints, somewhat taken back when two people cause a problem out of 6,000 and they say we ought to scrap this program because we had some damage. I think it needs some tightening in the complaint department area, and I think we stated that at the hearing, but I think it needs to be tighter. It is true that we all must accept some responsibility for group homes, which, as I understand has been unanimously approved as a philosophy and a need for the City of Pittsburgh. At the same time, for those who live around it, they don't have to tolerate any abuse. The objects was that we would try as best we can to provide young people, but by the grace of God goes somebody close to us, we ought to be trying to pick this up to make it work. It is a good process, it has its inherent problems, but it is designed to help, and I think in the majority instance it does. But, as I indicated, I think this matter of the complaint level, and in this instance there were a lot of complaints, and regretfully, and that sometimes happens. The citizens don't know where to carry their complaint and where to go early enough, but I think that needs some help from our Planning Department to do that.

On the other hand, we've had some serious accusations here, and I think that they should be followed up, not only with Planning but the Police Department as well, if that be the case and it needs to be watched as we go on with it. But, the Whale's Tale program has been recommended here by everybody as one of the best programs, it is supported by the Juvenile Court.

Relative to a review, the Whale's Tale is now reviewed annually by the City of Pittsburgh, it is reviewed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania when they get their licensing requirements, they are just not out there loose. I don't want to minimize anyone's right to make a complaint, and I think we should address those complaints, but I don't personally see that we should just say no to one that is already in operation.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

No, I don't think they should be put to that abuse.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS.

Mr. Stone:

If someone is next to your house dealing with dope, what do you do? You call the police, and I think that is the right that they have, and the police better address the problem.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

They don't have to wait more than one day, relative to the abuse of narcotics and other things.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

No, they just call our police, and our police should react.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

The thing before us today is only on the variances. I have concern about that. When I drove by the front of the building I was very pleased. I did not, however, drive around to the back of the building. When we had the public hearing and they showed pictures there is no backyard, absolutely none. They use it for parking two or three vehicles. Period. It is a very short, short backyard. Again, they use it for parking vehicles. They have a balcony that is a natural gathering point for the young people to want to come out and sit in the evening time. But, there is no place, other than the front lawn, for those young kids to come out in the evening time.

I feel that even though the Whale's Tale is a worthy cause, I think they should try to locate into an area that they have at least the standards that are required by the City.

(END OF MR. FLAHERTY, MR. GIVENS, MR. ROBINSON AND MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 902 FROM WEDNESDAY, 7/7/82)

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Perry, would you see that the minutes also go out to all parties involved and mark off the section on the Whale's Tale vote and what was said?

Mr. Woods:

Can I interrupt? Maybe I'm out of line; I should have said when I voted that this bill, I think the law is that it has to be reviewed in one year and when you vote yes and say that we want it reviewed in six months and we'll change our vote. You can't do that. The law is one year and you have to review that in one year.

Michelle Madoff:

I think we understand that, but I think that if we get a report within six months saying that they're still a bad neighbor, we're going to say, "You get ready to be out." You can't say get out tomorrow anyway. You've got to give them six months notice. We are humanitarians. I think we care about people.

The Chair:

Those conditions won't improve if you give them five years.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1180

Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a contract or contracts including the use of existing contracts for construction in connection with renovations of the front steps and loggia, City-County Building, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill Nos. 1180, 1181 and 1185, I've been doing a little homework and I was asking what it would cost to just get advisor and we were told $12 thousand of the $75 thousand. I am friendly with a number of the people doing the Renaissance II development. It appears that we have water in the basement here and we do have that problem with the railing, etc. But it is insane to go ahead and spend this kind of money with the $12 thousand contract. My information is that you could do the job for $12 thousand. The price is way out of line, and I would like some time to look into it further and have Councilman Flaherty look into it further and I'd like to hold it for two weeks. My source is out of town for a week.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'll hold it for two weeks.

Mr. Stone:

Excuse me. If I understood his comments, he had to have that right away.

The Chair:

Who's comments?

Mr. Stone:

Darryl Smith.

Michelle Madoff:

He can't have it right away. He's only going out with a consultant for $12 thousand.

Mr. Stone:

He can't go out now to have it sealed before the winter time.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think two weeks is going to make that much difference and I'm not paying $12 thousand to a consultant when I hear the whole job can be done for $12 thousand. We're not having another Crown Wrecking for $336 thousand on top of of $60 thousand. And I got $395.00 in parking tickets to save $80 thousand for the City.

Michelle Madoff moved to recommit Bill Nos. 1180, 1181 and 1185.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Vote to recommit Nos. 1180, 1181 and 1185.

Mr. Flaherty:

Aye and I just hope that my colleagues would respect this option that I am exerting as the Chairman of the Lands and Buildings Committee.

Mr. O'Malley:

Respecting Mr. Flaherty's chairmanship of Lands and Buildings, I know he certainly respects all our chairmanships, aye

Mr. Stone:

For the same reasons the Mr. O'Malley indicated, I am joining in that.

Michelle Madoff:

Oh, peace and harmony. There must be an election coming up.

Mr. Woods:

Ditto on what Mr. O'Malley and Mr. Stone says.

The Chair:

I'm a little concerned that Mr. Smith said he needs that money immediately, but I will go along with my colleagues and vote aye.

The Chair:

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff presents

Bill No. 1304 WHEREAS, the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh join with the citizens of Pittsburgh to thank and congratulate Bernadette McDaniel and William W. McDaniel for their courage and bravery; and

WHEREAS, on February 13, 1982 they assisted and aided the victim of a cougar attack in the Convention Center; and

WHEREAS, they displayed quick thinking in assisting and giving remedial care to the victim and in aiding the police in the ensuing scuffle which followed the incident.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh, hereby recognize Mrs. Bernadette McDaniel and Deputy Sheriff William W. McDaniel for displaying the high moral standards we admire in the City of Pittsburgh.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh wish to thank Mrs. Bernadette McDaniel and Deputy Sheriff William W. McDaniel for their laudable actions.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, Bernadette McDaniel and Deputy Sheriff William W. McDaniel are here as is our Captain Manno and I wonder if they'd like to say something. I think they have some strong feelings about this. You know, we have a tendency when somebody shoots the animal to say, "Well, they did it all," and we forget the involvement of other people nearby, and I think it's very important to show exemplary action by just plain, ordinary citizens. And I wish they'd come forward.

The Chair:

Michelle had me worried at the beginning of the meeting. She said Gene Coon was coming over and I thought I wasn't dressed properly for such an astute gentleman. They got a better looking guy. They got Nick Manno.

Bernadette McDaniel:

All I can say is thank you. I really appreciate this and thank you to Miss Naughton and especially Mrs. Madoff.

William W. McDaniel:

I just want to thank you very much for this award. Thank you.

Captain Manno:

I want to thank the Members of City Council for granting this award to Bill McDaniel and his wife. I think Bill did an outstanding job and I'm thanking him personally myself.

Anna Marie Naughton:

I'd like to thank Michelle Madoff and City Council for giving this award to both of them. Thank you.

The Chair:

Congratulations.

Mr. Stone moved to approve the minutes of Tuesday, July 6, 1982.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Stone

Council adjourned.

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, July 19, 1982

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

The meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

I'd like to say that somebody broke in over the weekend and stole our gavels, but that's not going to help them because they got a couple new ones.

Michelle Madoff:

May I add to that, Mr. President. The reason I was not in this room is that our final bills were never sent to us, they were never ready, we just got them now, and we're going to be asked to vote on them. I would like to mark off what I said, the ones I abstained on, or voted against in the previous meeting, and if this takes a little longer time, it's going to take a little longer time. And I'd like to ask Mr. Mike Perry why wasn't this ready?

Mr. Perry:

My typist wasn't fast enough. Period.

Michelle Madoff:

What do you mean your typist? How many people do you have working for you and what's your budget in your department?

The Chair:

All right, Michelle. We'll get to that.

Michelle Madoff:

Why wasn't it done? There is no excuse.

The Chair:

He told you the reason why.

Michelle Madoff:

Here we are voting and we've never got a copy of our final bills. And I'm going to take my time. I'm going to look at every single one of them.

Mr. Flaherty presented

Also,

No. 1309 Resolution repealing Item A of Res. #282, appr. 4-2-82, for sale of 2 sty. brk. row hse. at 243 Wick St. designated as Block and Lot 11-E-211 to Charlene L. Erwin for the sum of $750.00. Resolution is to repeal sale and return hand money of purchaser.

Also,

No. 1310 Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain property or properties acquired at tax sale in accordance with Act No. 514 of 1947 as amended.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Lands and Buildings.

Mr. Givens presented

No. 1311 An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Six - Conduct, Article I, Regulated Rights and Actions, Chapter 601, Public Order, Section 601.12, Refuse Receptacles and Collection, subsection (d) by amending the latest time for placement from 6:00 a.m. to 7:00 a.m. and specifically including the earliest time when garbage and household rubbish receptacles can first be placed at the curbside for collection; and subsection (f) (3) by specifically including bulky wastes to be collected on regular collection days.

Mr. Givens moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry Councilman Flaherty. What is it we're doing?

Mr. Flaherty:

I moved for the suspension of Rule 8.

The Chair:

A normal waiver.

Michelle Madoff:

On what bill?

Mr. Perry:

The bill on rubbish collection.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry. Would you explain it to me? I don't want to move on it if I don't know what it is.

The Chair:

It's a mere formality.

Michelle Madoff:

I just want to know what it is. Am I allowed to know what it is?

Mr. Perry:

It's placing rubbish on a curbside. Instead of 6:00 it will be 7:00.

Michelle Madoff:

What do you mean instead of 6:00, 7:00? In the morning?

Mr. Perry:

Instead of 6:00 in the morning it will be 7:00 in the morning.

Michelle Madoff:

The men will pick it up at 7:00 instead of 6:00. Alright. Do we have a hearing scheduled? I was asking for a reason, Councilman Flaherty. Do we have a hearing scheduled for the people who requested a hearing on the Monday garbage pickup? We pushed it aside saying, "They couldn't do anything" and we were lied to. We were told there were only three Mondays in the year and then Bubbie Harriston came out and said there are six. Now I want a hearing scheduled.

Mr. Perry:

You told me after we come back from recess.

Michelle Madoff:

There's no problem about when, Mike. That's not a problem. But would you be able to notify the people now so they don't think that I've ignored them and that there will be a hearing set this fall or whenever you can schedule it at the President's convenience.

Mr. Perry:

Sure.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Stone presented

Bill No. 1346

Report of the Committee on Finance for July 14, 1982 transmitting four ordinances and sundry resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Mr. Stone moved to suspend Rule 8 on all bills providing for the mailing of printed copies of all ordinances and resolutions to each member of Council at least 48 hours previous to their consideration by Council after the return of such papers from Committee.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Could we have a little quiet here? A little order?

Michelle Madoff:

We didn't have our bills. That's the problem. We didn't have our bills.

The Chair:

The problem is you're not listening. You're talking when you're suppose to be listening.

Michelle Madoff:

You know what we're talking about? We talking about the bills.

The Chair:

The Clerk is reading out these bills.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President. The bill he is reading is Bill No. 880. Is that correct?

The Chair:

Right.

Michelle Madoff:

I have something that I need on No. 880. I did not have this today. My aide has gone to get it. That's what I was talking about.

The Chair:

We had a hearing on No. 880. You know everything about No. 880.

Michelle Madoff:

That's right, but I got some new information on No. 880.

The Chair:

What other information do you need? He's going to read out the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you mind if I get some information? I don't mind when you get information.

The Chair:

I listen and I get my information.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 880

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance directing the Allegheny County Board of Elections to place before the qualified voters of the City of Pittsburgh a referendum question as to whether or not said voters are in favor of supplementing the Home Rule Charter by requiring the Mayor to provide annual reports on the federal tax money paid from the citizens of Pittsburgh to the federal government for use by the military."

Which was read.

The Chair:

I want to caution that this is a negative recommendation. An aye vote is to vote in favor of the referendum, a nay vote is opposed to the referendum.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm waiting for the vote then I'll make my statement.

The Chair:

Okay.

Michelle Madoff:

Are we going to take this separately, Mr. President? We're on No. 880 alone? We're doing that separate? Do you want for discussion now, or as we vote?

The Chair:

I asked for discussion, Michelle. You said you wanted to do it when you voted.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, you read the bill. I assumed you were going to go through all the bills. I did not know you were going to take that separately.

The Chair:

We're taking it separately because we consider it a very important piece of legislation.

Michelle Madoff:

I couldn't agree with you more, sir. May I read a statement that I think we ought to have in the minutes?

In this weekend's Parade, which is part of the Press that goes to, I believe, all the newspapers in the Country. Just about every city. It's made up sort of uniformly. It is not for just Pittsburgh. There's an article that I would like read into the record. It says:

"Defense Spending -- Good or Bad? It may come as a surprise, but the No. 1 growth industry in the U.S. is defense. So says United Business Service of Boston, which points out that defense expenditures rose 51.8% in current dollars between fiscal years 1978 and 1981. Moreover, from 1983 to 1985, they are programmed to jump another 38.4%.

Is this good or bad? Does a constantly expanding defense budget help or hurt our economy? Many economists contend that Pentagon expenditures are basically inflationary because defense products are not sold on the domestic market. 'The recipients of defense dollars go into the non-defense markets for goods and services and compete with the rest of us for those goods and services,' says the United Business Service report.

The Council on Economic Priorities, a nonprofit organization in New York, recently compared the economic performances of 13 major industrial nations over the last 20 years. It contends that 'those countries that spent a smaller share of their economic output on the military generally experienced faster growth, greater investment and higher productivity increases.'

'Those that carried a heavier military burden, like the U.S., had poorer economic performance,' according to the council.

In the 1960s and '70s, the council study shows, the U.S. spent the highest percentage of gross Domestic Product on defense (7.4%) among the 13 nations but ranked 11th in productivity gain and last in fixed capital formation. Ranking first was Japan, which in that period devoted only 0.9% of its average Gross Domestic Product to defense.

According to Employment Research Associates of Lansing, Mich., every time the Pentagon allocates $1 billion to a defense project, the result is a loss of about 9,000 jobs, compared to spending that same $1 billion in civilian industry."

So, I think that just proves your case, Councilman Flaherty.

The Chair:

Was that in Parade Magazine? I read it too.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll give this to the record. It was in Parade Magazine. I think it's very interesting.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I wholeheartedly endorse with what Councilwoman Madoff has read from yesterday's Parade Magazine and I certainly appreciate her assist.

I'm not going to speak long in regard to this proposal. I'm aware that Council does have a very heavy agenda. I believe that the question was adequately argued last Wednesday in the Committee Meeting, but I'm just going to try to re-cap a few of the essential points and try to put them in a clearer perspective.

As I'm sure we are all aware, this is an amendment to the Home Rule Charter, and therefore, it is a question on the ballot. It's a question that I feel has great significance, especially in the year 1982 when the City is experiencing crucial set-backs and we are a city of 12% unemployment and certainly are well aware and probably will proceed more into the worst recession this City, this Country has had in forty years. But, if I had to cap this proposal, if I, suppose, had to give a title with it, I think it's most significant that the mainstay, the chief supporter of the bill, actually, the initiator of the bill, is the Jobs with Peace Campaign. And the bottom line in the bill is jobs. It's a jobs bill. We rehashed the study that was commissioned through Senator Kennedy's office which shows that the Pittsburgh metropolitan area with the proposed military spending increase of President Reagan, that this will cost us thirty-five thousand jobs.

What we're talking about, President Reagan is talking about spending a trillion and a half dollars over the next five years. And in real dollars, in considering inflation, that is triple, triple, what this Country appropriated during the height, the five year height, of the conflict in South East Asia, specifically in the Viet Nam area.

It's at the breaking point. And it's falling upon the backs of those who are most in need, those who look to the Government for a good life for some of the few guarantees that the Government should be able to give to everyone. Every day in this Council, we're aware from one community group or another that is complaining because of the lack of capital projects in their area or they have health care problems or crime or, once again, unemployment. And it's also important to keep in mind, I think this Council, as a whole, tries to address those problems, but there is a price to trying to give those needs, and one of the results of that price, in this Council and this City, trying to be fair and equitable with these people, is we had to eat the largest tax increase in this City's history last year. And there's certainly the possibility that we are going to have another substantial increase come Christmastime.

Just in closing, I would want to say that the criticism that I have heard in regard to the proposal were costs. And that we shouldn't clutter up the ballot. This is one question. I don't know how it's going to clutter the ballot up that much. I think it's a very simple question, and most of the people will be able to understand it.

As far as costs, granted, we're talking in the range of perhaps one thousand dollars. The benefits of this could be a thousand fold coming back.

If we don't get anything else for our thousand dollars but some good debate and dialogue and some information for the public, then I think it's money well worth spent. What the bottom line of the bill is, is making the public, or giving the public some information where that hopefully will make them more aware, and when they're more aware they can more effectively lobby their Government and City Council.

This Council was the first Council in the Country to pass a resolution concerning the nuclear arms race. There have been other cities, if you go to Detroit, to Boston, to Baltimore, that have passed questions very similar to this resolution. I would just urge my colleagues, also, to support this because it certainly is in the spirit of the Charter. Professor James Cunningham, who was Executive Director of the Home Rule Study Commission, spoke at the public hearing, along with a real cross section of influential people in our society, including community organizers and union presidents. Professor Cunningham related this question to the Preamble of the Charter and also to Section 204, which specifies the powers and the duties of the Mayor.

So, I would just hope that all of us on Council would take into consideration the four hour hearing that we had. I don't see any harm whatsoever coming out of this being on the ballot, and instead of always crying the blues when we have a public hearing and we say, "Well, take your complaints to the Reagan White House, they're cutting us back," I think it's about time that we start to do something more substantial than offer excuses.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I had discussed and argued this particular, I guess, since the inception of this particular ordinance. My first impulse, when it was first presented to this Council was that it's garbage. Garbage in, garbage out. Otherwise, how can a Mayor tell the federal tax money paid from the citizens of Pittsburgh to the Federal Government for the use of military. I think it's asking, this Government, asking the City of Pittsburgh to come up with a set of figures that's going to almost be possible. And even if they do get them, how to digest them, how does this apply, to the overall picture of unemployment. I think one would have to realize that when you tie the defense budget into the federal budget and into our unemployment problems within this Country, it comes to my mind that unemployment is just not federal spending. It's caused by many ills within our society. Possibly the federal military budget is an ill that we have within this world, and one must look at that very scrutinously.

But, first of all, I feel that this information is not going to tell us anything. Either the Mayor or this Council. Even if we get bottom line figures, you have to assume that there's a lot of things going on, military defense secrecy, etc., that cannot even be divulged. I think, maybe, a lot of this might be going on around the Pittsburgh area. I'd hate to see the whole Country as a whole come up and target ourselves as to what defense contracts are being lit in what areas of the Country. Leave the Russians and other enemies of this Country try to work on that a little bit harder themselves.

We talk about the tax revenues and I am more keenly aware of that than probably anyone here, and the fact that I was one of the few votes against that particular outrageous budget of $41 million that we had last year, and a 21% increase. It was buried back, I think, on pages 5 and 6 of the local media and, I think, only received one quick blurb on the television media. But there is a policy change at the federal level, and needlessly so, because if one would look at that military expenditures of our friends and foes, we'd find out that the U.S.S.R., in the last ten years, have out spent us to the tune of some $500 billion. I'm not going to sit here and argue all the pros and cons of military defense and military spending, but I have to say to the people who are in this Council today, and the people who are listening to what's being said here today and what's going to be written here today, that maybe I looked a little bit further down the line than Mr. Flaherty looked. I look at what's going to happen at the Stadium if we lose those particular teams, those National League teams.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, let's not get into the Stadium, okay?

Mr. Givens:

Excuse me. I didn't interrupt anyone else and I don't want anyone to interrupt me.

The Chair:

Well then stay on the issue.

Mr. Givens:

Let me continue. It's a fight that I feel this whole issue is a federal issue. Coming into the Council of the City of Pittsburgh is taken up our time, as it will, it's going to take up the voters' time. I feel that the federal government is the area that this thing should be exploited in. I cannot change the federal government as far as defense can go. I have only one budget that I can control and that is that of the City of Pittsburgh. I would suggest that this group, or whoever it is, go to these particular federal elected officials from the Pittsburgh area and try to get this information. If one is to look at that long range possibility and what's happening in the real world out there. If we look at the Mid East, if we look at Afghanistan, if we look at South America, Central America, Asia, and see the encroachment that's happening in this Country; I don't know if we have blinders on or not. If they out spend us by a tune of over $500 billion in the last ten years, I suggest to myself I have a little bit of fear what's going to happen to this nation of ours. I gave a particular equasion, and I'll give it again and with that I will end up my summation on this particular bill.

Encirclement plus demoralization plus thermal nuclear blackmail equals surrender. And I say to you and this Council, when you vote for this, it's not voting for this little referendum that the people of the City of Pittsburgh are going to know a little bit more about their federal budget. See what's going to come down the road from this particular piece of legislation. See what demands are going to be put on this Council and other governments of the United States and what's happening in this Country. There's a movement afoot. And I want to separate myself from that particular movement at this particular time by voting no on this particular referendum. Thank you.

The Chair:

In regard to the information, the Mayor has a very good Republican over there named George Whitmer. Perhaps he can get us the information.

Michelle Madoff:

Does he do a house count on Communists every week under the beds?

The Chair:

I just hope nobody brought a bomb with him.

Michelle Madoff:

Are we voting, sir?

The Chair:

We're discussing, Michelle. It's under discussion. Do you care to discuss it?

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd just like to speak in support of the people that were here that spoke in support of the legislation pending. I don't think these people were advocated that we tear down our military machine and that we leave the American people defenseless. I think that their greatest concern was with unemployment now. The problems we're having in housing for all the American people and especially housing for the moderate and low income. I think they're very concerned with the social programs and the cutback in social programs. And I think all they were asking for is to balance our military needs with the social needs of the American people. I personally feel that the American economy has suffered tremendously because of excess military spending. I feel that the American people have a right to know where their tax dollars are being spent, and the total effect that this is having on the American people and on the American economy. And I think this piece of legislation is a good place to start and I would urge my colleagues to support it.

Mr. Givens:

I vote no and I want my remarks from the Wednesday session to be brought forward.

(BEGINNING OF MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 880 FROM 7/14/82)

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

I would like to make some comments to that. For those of you who sat at that four hour meeting, 99 and 100 percent -- there were two people who spoke at that particular hearing who did not say, let's reduce our military spending with no unilateral spending cuts in other countries that are "our enemy." And I don't want to get into this particular thing because that's a very hot issue. You want to debate the military budget up and down the line, but sticking right to the facts, what in the hell are we going to get out of this thing once we get it. Once we get the facts, and No. 1, who is going to get these facts. I think all of us are well aware what the extent of our federal government and what the Pentagon is, and what our social programs are, and our health and welfare programs are, and we have people trying to analyze on a daily, monthly, and yearly basis what impact this is going to have. Here we have the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh that has his own budget to worry about, his own problems, own streets, and everything else, and our own problems in the welfare area. How is he to sit down, with what staff is he going to sit down with and digest a $230 billion or $250 billion federal budget just for the military alone. Forget about the $1 trillion of all of the programs that are there and what programs are being cut. I feel, Mr. Chairman, that this should be directed, and these people should be directed to the federal representatives that they have within this City, mainly our Congressmen and mainly our U.S. Senators.

If this Council is to sit down and get involved in the federal budget, then I think that we are not going to do the task at hand, and that is to run this City.

Again, I feel that we have the separation of powers, as we say in this Council, between the legislative and the executive and the judicial body. Also, we have by the Constitution of the United States, separation of the federal government, the state government, the county government, and this local government, our, the City of Pittsburgh. When one tries to leap frog from one government to another, I think we are going to get ourselves some problems. Yes, analyze if you can, but no, where is the cost going to come? Who is going to pay the bill for this tremendous evaluation. I think it's time to bite off too much. I feel, however, that our federal representatives have the staff and have the personnel to maybe do some type of analysis. I would like for one thing to see that federal contracts, especially those in military would be shared with the northeastern area of this Country as well as the City of Pittsburgh. And just trying to assemble the information of how much tax is going out to the federal government. Just look at everything we do. Gasoline federal tax. Automobile federal tax, clothing, food, all the necessities of life, building, construction material, everything we do we are paying for and the federal government is receiving. Are we just talking about the salary that put in? What about the corporate taxes going to the federal dollar? Where are these divide lines at? The resolution itself is very vague. In order to be specific, I think we would come out with a document of probably a couple thousand pages to explain what we want in this information that Mr. Flaherty is looking for.

One thing that I would like to end up on and is brought out at that particular meeting, and I have to say it because of the type of people who attend that meeting, the type of people who spoke at that meeting, 99 percent of them, and I gave him this little equation. I said "Weapons versus freedom, equal sacrifice." And that's what we have to do.

Another thing in my readings and everything else as Mr. Flaherty said that there is a movement going on in this Country. I would suggest to recommend very highly to this full Council that you look in behind the scenes of this particular movement as I have, and you'll find a very scary situation. When Breshnev said that we'll have -- let's have a nuclear freeze, within 30 days, 80 piece groups met in Washington D.C. 80 of them. And within that 80 there is definite infiltration by the Communist Party. That's all I'll say in regards to that.

One other equation -- that's a reality -- read any intelligence report, and read any of your local magazines, and you'll find that that is a fact.

The other equation I would like to bring out is called an equation of what's happening in this world today and some of these movements that are before us. And it's encirclement plus demoralization of our own people plus the thermal nuclear blackmail, and that equals, in my books gentlemen, surrender. And no way am I going to sit here and listen to four hours of testimony where people are saying destroy our capability to defend our people. That is the oath of office that I have taken for the City of Pittsburgh so indicates that if we are to have good flourishing social programs in this Country, we better best be able to protect our hind end, or we won't have anything.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

Well, Ben, you're saying that goes to the corporate community, but the corporate community - take J & L for example, they started out in --

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTS

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

You know, that report that Mr. Flaherty so indicated about the Kennedy report has been also looked at from various eyes within the federal government, and what Senator Kennedy favors on the one side, other people will dispute that particular thing. The one thing that was brought out at the public hearing was if you have high technology as has been so indicated here, and one would have to look at our aerospace industry today, both the NASA efforts, and both in our military in order to get the technology that we need in order to keep ahead. One has to look at the Soviet Union and where we're coming from. You know, I think all of us in this Council are very sympathetic to the social problems of our community. Don't go away denying. It takes nine votes on this Council, five in order to pass any resolutions, and I think that you are well aware that we have been very sympathetic to all the causes of all the people who come in here. And we so budget for them. But when you think of these industries, and I think of them, and where you're trying to get apples and oranges and put them together, and how can you address this particular thing. We have because of some of this high technology — we have an aerospace industry. We have a new computer industry. We have a synthetic industry. We have a new energy industry, and naturally we have a communication industry that's far beyond any the world has ever known to this date. All of this speaks to one phrase. Diversification.

If you read your papers over the last couple of days, and one editorial in one of the major newspapers, it so spelled out that all the Nation has a great unemployment. And that's the thing that's hitting us right now. It's unemployment. Give a person a job, and you don't have to worry about having a house. You don't have to worry about getting the food in the cupboard and all that. Give a person a job. That's the main thing. Those diversifications are such that in the City of Pittsburgh had we been a steel town as we have been in the '40's, and the '30's and the '20's, our employment would be like that of Detroit and other areas that have been attacked very seriously. But the wisdoms of our fathers, the wisdoms of our corporate leaders, solve within our community here, and working through the government, the local government, and the state government, and the county government have thought to diversify the industries within the City of Pittsburgh. And because of that, we are just a wee little bit above the national level in unemployment. So, there is great spinoffs from what we're talking about.

But let's get down to the real hard core of things. Does one want to leave their guard down and have someone else come in? We worry about our security within our City streets. We also, then, have to worry about our national security to the point that if we don't have that, we don't have to worry about anything else. And when you look at the other side of the coin, and why I'm so critical about this possibly, and why I'm so alarmed about it is the fact that what is happening on the other side.

You know, we speak of the Kremlin and breaking their pledges. They have been known for lying and double dealers for years and years to come. And I have a little periodical here before me that I picked out in my researching. It's just very interesting to know. On June 11, 1942, you know, we lent, during that war, almost $11 billion. There's $11 billion out there that the Russians have never even paid us. We gave them 85 ocean ships to carry their cargos. They turned around and used those various ships that we gave them to carry arms to Viet Nam. We talked about the divided City of Berlin. Only one has to look over and that particular region, and the reunification of even East Germany. What is this other side doing to us? We have to look at that. The other point is, do we move the missiles from Cuba. We had our missile crisis down in Cuba. You know the Russians never removed one damn missile. They're still down there, and they're looking right down our throats, only five minutes away.

The other thing, we talked about the Salt. The Salt I we signed in May of 1972. You know on October 21st, 1974, issues of aviation and space technology detailed numerous violation. We talk about Salt II that we're in right today. Salt II has never been signed by the Senate of this United States. I wonder why? Do you think the Senate of the United States who has to appropriate the money for the defense, and in the Constitution of the United States, that is their primary responsibility; the defense of the Country. Primary responsibility. They have not signed the Salt II. During this Salt II, although the Russians have signed it and everything else, they put out 200, 200 SS16 ICBM missiles in violation of the Salt II. Each one of these missiles carry 12 warheads. You talk about technology. My people, from what I know of my life experience in this world, if we don't keep our security, we don't have to worry about sitting in this particular Council right here or doing anything else about it. Tom mentioned about that one helicopter that cost several highrises, and we know we need those, too, do you know that over 3,000 helicopters were shot down in Viet Nam? I ask you how many of your brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, fathers were in that particular war? We have lost 50,000 casualties. We had more men with dismembered legs and arms than any other war in this nation. Had we not had helicopters to go in and do the job, I would imagine that death toll in those jungles, ant ridden, and mosquito ridden, would have been astronomical in our deaths. We have to look at the Falkland War that just happned right down there now. And the will for people to live. Mr. Flaherty mentioned about that will. If you people in this room do not have that will, if you go out thinking that the social programs are the only thing that affects your daily lives, then I submit to you that you must go in and do some real serious reading. Because without our security, without this, we'll never go anywhere. And if you look at the federal budget, and my final word, the federal budget has not grown. In fact, the federal budget has remained almost the same since 1942. The difference being inflation. If you look at the social budget, that's all of our health, education, welfare and everything else, it has climbed almost 70 percent to, say, 30 percent for the federal budget. It has increased that much. So, one must ask the question, are we asking too much for the amount of money that we have? And that is some of the problems that I have to bring about, and within this ordinance itself, I think we have deep problems with it because we are not going to get the information that we really need. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

(END OF MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON
BILL NO. 880 FROM WEDNESDAY,
7/14/82)

Michelle Madoff:

I would just like to point out that Pennsylvania is a donor state. We give more money than we receive for our community and I think that even if we are going to have someone saying we should not have an adequate defense for our Country, there's no reason why, as Councilman Flaherty point out, that those powerful Senators, Legislators, etc. get that kind of work for their states and we don't get any of it to keep some of our steelworkers employed. Of course I'm going to vote for the bill.

Mrs. Masloff:

I can't see why we need any more information. It seems to me that defense spending is already a matter of public information. By putting this on the ballot, and bringing to the attention this defense spending, is that going to produce jobs, Tom?

Mr. Flaherty:

I don't think it's going to cause any jobs. I feel it's going to produce jobs.

Mrs. Masloff:

How?

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, because on either side of the coin, I believe there is a strong possibility that, perhaps, the Mayor may start, as indicated approximately a half a year ago, he may start to continue on his course to push for more spending in this area for the military, which would create jobs. I certainly am not in agreement with that, but that's up to the alternative that the Mayor wishes to invoke. I would just want to add that this bill, the language in it is very bland, it's very open, we could have a Mayor who is very hawkish on the issue or a Mayor that is a dove on the issue. Regardless, it is not going to straight-jacket any Mayor in the future. And I think, Sophie, that the important thing is, it's the old saying that the squeaky wheel receives the grease. And if we just sit back, believe me, the Pentagon is aware of this vote here today, incidentally. They are very much aware of this, and if this should pass, they are certainly going to be aware of the frustration here because we are saying, for example, that we are paying $600 million more into military spending than military contracts coming back into this area.

This is going to be official. This is coming from the official mouth of the Government. And that certainly carries a lot more weight in a pragmatic way, and certainly more weight in a symbolic way. This just isn't a few protestors carrying a sign or what have you. This is an official stand that the Mayor of this City, and I hope the majority of the Members of this Council would support him in, and I think common sense, common sense tells me that if we close some of the gap of that $600 million that now exists, that certainly is going to create jobs. And if we cut back on the military spending, there is a myth that military spending creates jobs. It's important to keep in mind military spending is capital intensive. That the bulk of the spending has to go for expensive raw materials for the exorbitant costs of the technology, and it's not going into the individual, into the person, such as jobs in our social services produce. You're able to hire a lot more people if your money is going to social services rather than military spending. And incidentally, you get a by-product from social services.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, point of order. With all due respect to Sophie and to Tom, we've already started voting. The time for debate is over. Could we continue with the voting, please?

The Chair:

Point well taken.

Michelle Madoff:

I think we have to allow Sophie the courtesy we all have.

Mr. Stone:

I'm voting no, and I'm not doing it for the same reason that Mr. Givens is speaking. I do however notice, and I would be wrong at not making this comment. From what I hear here today as explanations, we are saying in one breath, more jobs. If there are more jobs in defense here, aren't we really talking against that of reduction of military expenditure? Are we really not saying we don't want the military expenditure dropped, we just want the military jobs here?

There seems to be a contradiction. But my reason for voting against it is not the principle or the idea of the resolution thought, but rather because of the method it's being done. I don't think we should be cluttering up our Charter with something like this. As far as the report, if that's what we want, let's get it, and for the remarks, I'd like to have those remarks that I make on Wednesday brought forward. My answer is no.

(BEGINNING OF MR. STONE'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 880 FROM
WEDNESDAY, 7/14/82)

The Chair:

As far as I am personally concerned, referendum should not be used in any ordinary sense, but rather in the exceptional sense. As far as referendums, they cost money to this County, and they should not be just used at the whim of some individuals. Thirdly, amendments to the Charter, Home Rule Charter, the City of Pittsburgh, should be done in rare instances. I question this particular question as to its value to our City Charter and more importantly its value to the City Charter in the overall permanent instances. This particular proposal, likewise, is vague in implementation. It could be thwarted to the point that it doesn't even give the result that's intended, and in that particular light, I think seeking the source here is not the proper source, but rather I think it ought to be done on the federal level. If we have concerns about our balance of budget and where the monies are being spent, it ought to be done there.

(END OF MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON

BILL NO. 880 FROM WEDNESDAY,
7/14/82)

The Chair:

I just want to say that I'm curious as to where our defense priorities are. We spend $10 million on one space shuttle shot, and $4 billion on a cure for cancer over a period of ten years.

And of a more personal nature, I had a son wounded critically in Viet Nam. He was in the hospital in Tokyo for three weeks in a coma. Nobody in the federal government had the courtesy to inform me or my family that he was in that condition. Nobody had the courtesy to call us and tell us. Only when he made a collect call from Tokyo, Japan, when he came out of the coma, was I allowed to talk to him.

I just wonder if they can't afford a stinking collect from a man who was injured critically in Viet Nam, what the hell are we doing in this business at all. I vote aye.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

This is the Public Safety Building, Michelle. We said this three times.

Michelle Madoff:

I know, but I was using that as leverage to make sure that they get the elevators fixed. Do you know whether it's been done?

Mr. Stone:

All I can tell you is that it's the Public Safety Building, and to my knowledge —

Michelle Madoff:

I understand it's the Public Safety Building. I don't care if it was the Zoo. Somewhere you've got to say no to get some leverage to make him do what he's supposed to do. You don't know, then, whether this elevator has been repaired or not?

Bill No. 1292

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Two, Fiscal, Article VII, Business Related Taxes, Chapter 246, Home Rule Earned Income Tax, Section 3, Declaration and Payment of Taxes, by adding subsection (c) requiring the annual filing of a return by every taxpayer."

Bill No. 1293

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Two, Fiscal, Article VII, Business Related Taxes, Chapter 245, Earned Income Tax, Section 3, Declaration and Payment of Taxes, by adding subsection (c) requiring the annual filing of a return by every taxpayer."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

On the two tax bills, Nos. 1292 and 1293, although it was discussed in the Wednesday session as to what earned income meant, as described by our Finance Director, it was, however, never relayed in the news media. I had concerns and I raised those concerns in the Wednesday session. I would like if and when the tax bills go out to the people of the City of Pittsburgh, that there be some stipulation of determination of what is earned income in the eyes of the City Administration. And I think if this is forthcoming, it will subdue a lot of fears that people have. People on disability, pensions or earned income. I challenged that with the Finance Director. There's nothing in our ordinance specifically relieving some of these concerns of mine, but, however, he said if it was exonerated at the federal or state level, it could also be at the city level. But I would like, however, to have something when those tax forms go out to explain what earned income is so when the people do submit the forms, they know what we're talking about.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. Givens, first of all, every time they send out returns, they send information with it. But over and above that, everyone who is subject to this tax is doing the very thing we're asking them to do already for the State. It's almost a duplication, but we need the requirement that they do it for the City. But they're doing it now for the State.

Mr. Givens:

We're looking at those people that haven't been doing it then, and possibly many of them. And I would think that even the people who are doing it for the State and the people who are doing it for the Federal, are, in some cases, not informed of what their responsibilities are, especially to those people that are small independent business people that aren't really into the — they know they have to make a Federal and a State, but, in some cases, they do not seriously know that they have to make a Pittsburgh tax out. I'm talking about a company that doesn't even have a company's name. It's a family-run grocery store. It's a family real estate business. It's a little store out there where they might have to file mercantile tax, or something like that, to tie them into the mainstream of the information that would be normally flowing out from our Treasury Department.

That's the only reason I would like for something to go into that thing indicating what is earned income. Even when I looked at it, I know they take it out of my wages, but there are other major questions that people have asked me about it. And to be truthful, I didn't have the answers until last Wednesday.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I indicated last Wednesday that for me I don't like another form to file in the year. But I would like it very, very clear — there are many people who are small family businesses who are filing their taxes. And we have to tax every year every one whenever we need to service our needs. For those people who are not paying them now, and that's what this is designed to get, I don't think we should be handling them with kid gloves. Everybody is obligated to pay and they should be paying, and for some years they've haven't paid it already. This bill is designed to help the present taxpayer who's been carrying his load and the role of that scofflaw who has not been paying his taxes. I don't think we should be trying to give them honey and cream at this point. It's about time we brought the damn message back that they have to pay their taxes too.

Mr. Givens:

Bob, I have to say that when you make your federal returns, you're talking about interest, you're talking about dividends. When you do your state form, you're talking about interest, you're talking about dividends, you're talking about pensions. If you're not exonerated, at the federal level or at the state level for those items, then you are taxed on those items. The people of the City of Pittsburgh are confused. If you don't want to cooperate on a simple suggestion that I had just recommended, then I have concern about voting for these bills until the people of the City of Pittsburgh are so informed.

Mr. Stone:

On the back of every bill it tells you what it is. There's always that information that goes out. Again, I want to make it real damn clear — I'm getting sick and tired of us taking care of those people that don't pay their taxes when we don't have the kind of compassion for those that are paying them. Let's give them some help so we don't have to keep raising the taxes on those.

Mr. Givens:

I haven't seen this form. I was interested to take a look at the form. Do you say there are things on the back of that form that explain how to fill it out and what incomes are supposed to be put down? Income is income.

Mr. Stone:

When those forms go out, they always tell you what that is. And anyone who has it knows it. They're just not paying it. This is the first time we're in the position to force them to pay what they already know they're obligated to pay.

Mr. Givens:

I'm saying it goes beyond that, Robert. I'm saying that if people would have, when they think of income, they're thinking of all their incomes that they earn. That is not what the Finance Director of the City of Pittsburgh so indicated. I still have concerns in this area. I have concerns right now.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I ask Mr. Stone a couple of questions? Mr. Stone, is there a penalty for violation of this bill?

Mr. Stone:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

What is the penalty?

Mr. Givens:

I just wanted to say, if we could get Ron Schmeiser up here, possibly before these particular two bills are voted on, maybe again by looking at the form that they're sending out, my curiosity would be satisfied. Not my curiosity, but a very dear concern of many people in the City of Pittsburgh that do not know how to fill this out. If the form so indicates it, I'm happy. If it doesn't indicate it, then I think it's going to put the City Administration into a lot of unnecessary bookwork. And if people declare their other incomes, earned incomes as they might call it, into other areas of their investment, then I would think we're going to have one hell of a problem untangling it in a year or two when the people actually find out what the story is. If the media had covered it, I would have been somewhat resolved. But the fact that it was not, I have deep concern. Even concerned to the point that if I don't hear something from the Finance Director and Councilman Stone doesn't indicate that he wants to put anything in this particular envelope, I think he has, and this Council has that prerogative to ask the Administration. If we don't want to do that then I have reservations on voting for this bill right now.

If I could ask, Mr. President, that we hold these two until the end of the session.

The Chair:

Councilman Stone made it rather clear. The information will be on the back of the form and they'll be able to read it before they --

Mr. Givens:

Then I'll ask the Councilman, did he see the form?

Mr. Stone:

I have not seen the form. Every time we send out tax forms, that information is supplied. Look at anything you get. If you want some additional thing to, all we said to the Finance Officer was to include some information. What's wrong with that?

Michelle Madoff:

Nothing.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, could we hold these two bills until the end of the session?

The Chair:

Do you want to make a motion to commit, Mr. Chairman?

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, what is the penalty, sir?

Mr. Stone:

It's under the other regulations on the tax form. I think that's three hundred dollars, if my memory serves me correctly. Somewhere in there.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry, I can't hear you.

Mr. Stone:

It's in with the general provisions. I think that's three or five. I'm not sure. But in addition to that, there's a penalty provision, the interest rate.

Michelle Madoff:

Same as on a federal government when you're charged an interest rate for not paying. And it's compounded?

Mr. Stone:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay. My next question is, I did raise a question and I must confess I've forgotten the answer and perhaps you can help me. My concern was that in order to generate the revenue which will be substantive, we're still going to have to put out a substantive outlay, I think it was five hundred thousand dollars. Is that correct?

Mr. Stone:

Yes, that's the point. You bring up a good point. To show you how abusive this situation is, we can spend a half a million dollars and still collect more than we spent. Is it worth going after that money? It is obvious we should have been getting it. Not only now, but before.

Michelle Madoff:

Now that you've answered the question of penalty which is substantive and you think there's not only a penalty, but a compounded interest penalty, and that, indeed, there is a five hundred thousand dollars, which is, I think, a half million dollars, is it not, to generate this information, to catch the scofflaws. Why can we not just get the printout from the State. For five hundred thousand dollars or less, I'm pretty sure they will give us that printout. For a very small amount I'm sure they will give us the printout. And that five hundred thousand dollars could be used to compare every taxpayer that pays salary to the City against that list to see who the scofflaws are because I think that the only valid argument against doing this, Mr. Stone, and I don't know what kind of calls you've had at your office, but at my office, the kind of calls we're getting is "What? Another form? We don't need another form. We're filling out too many forms." I have absolutely no objections, and I think you're one hundred thousand percent correct that we should go after those who don't pay that put the burden on those of us who do pay. But I'm wondering if we could do it in a much simpler form. The city of New York works with the state and they have a little box where they've made an arranged amount where they will fill out that amount. But I don't think we need it. Mr. Schmeiser did say that there's a computer printout of all taxpayers from the City. There is one already. I asked him that question publicly. It's on the record. Why can't we take everybody that pays us taxes, compare it against that list, and subsequently -- it's always alphabetized or could be very easily, and not have to force people to make out another form. That's my only concern.

Mr. Stone:

As far as reducing that load of an extra form, as I told you, I'm totally opposed to an extra form. But on the other hand, the good that comes out of it, even I'll suffer for the extra form.

The idea of a photostat copy, if it's possible, yes. But the Finance Director indicated that there are instances where on those print forms, they're not getting the accurate information. Secondly, there's some that are not there, so you're not getting that person.

What you need, and that's what this is attempting to do, is to make it a requirement, everybody has to do it, and now you have the teeth and the muscle and the push to make everybody do what they have to do.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I'm just a little confused and I need some clarification. If I fill out a wage tax, my wages come from the City of Pittsburgh. So they deduct my money and I get a form at the end of the year, a W-2 form, and that's submitted to the Government. And it's certainly submitted to the City of Pittsburgh. They know what I've taken out. Why couldn't they just compare -- I don't have another job. I don't have any other income. If I did I'd be reporting it. If I don't report it to the City and I'm a scofflaw, I'm certainly not going to report it to the State. And so I can't see why we can't compare the two lists and why we are calling on people to fill out another form. Particularly the elderly feel it's a great problem that they have to go out and hire someone to do it. It's a little extra dollars to get it done and they're very disturbed about it.

I'd like to attempt to do it without the extra form. It must be done. There's no question. We've got to catch the scofflaws, but I think there's an easier way of doing it. Even Schmeiser said that yes, he could look into that.

What can we do? Should we vote on the bill and ask him to look into doing it a simpler way?

Mr. Stone:

You've got to get something done. Let's get it done so we can get it collected. As far as simplifications afterward --

Michelle Madoff:

Why can't we amend the bill to say that Mr. Schmeiser, our Fiscal Officer, would get a copy of the printout, find out what the price would be, and then compare the City taxpayers to that list without having to have another form.

Mr. Stone:

It is not that simple, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Why isn't it simple? When I started the environmental movement, everybody said, "You're not going to get industry to clean up." And they did. Nobody said it would happen. And everybody says it can't happen. That's ridiculous. Let's talk about how things can happen, not how they can't.

If Mr. Schmeiser is a good Fiscal Officer, and I want us to assume that he is because he has the job, he seems to know what he's doing, then I've got to assume that he can easily get a printout of the state, and he has what people pay in the City, and just compare the two and not force the third form on people.

The Chair:

Okay. Mr. Stone, you don't want to recommit?

Michelle Madoff:

Do you want to hold it so we can check that out?

Mr. Stone:

No. Move the bill.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I'd like to abstain until I get the information that's coming forth right this minute from the Treasurer's Office and I'll give my vote a little later.

The Chair:

You're abstaining on Nos. 1292 and 1293?

Mr. Givens:

Well, I would like not to vote right now.

The Chair:

You don't want to vote on any bill?

Mr. Givens:

Aye on all other bills with the exception of Nos. 1292 and 1293. I'd like to hold until I get this piece of paper and then I'll give my vote.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to hold my vote until the end. On all bills. Not until the end of the meeting, just until the end of this vote.

The Chair:

What do you mean the end of the vote?

Michelle Madoff:

I want to see how the others vote.

The Chair:

No. You have to vote now.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't have to vote now. I can vote any time before we —

The Chair:

You've got to vote now, Michelle. You can change your vote if you want to, but you've got to vote now.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll abstain temporarily. Aye on all bills except Nos. 1292 and 1293 and I'll abstain on them.

Mr. President, for the record. The reason I abstained is because I wanted to be sure there would be some mechanism for collecting the scofflaws. But I still maintain there's another way of doing it, and I'm going to stay with my abstention.

Mr. Perry, would you send a letter to Mr. Schmeiser to get a response to the fact that he said yes, indeed, he would look into seeing if the State could provide us with that information, what he found out. Even though we voted for it, we may not have to do it. Would you ask him whether it could be possible if he could come back with an amendment saying yes, he could get the information.

Mr. Stone:

Michelle, he's already told you he's getting the information and it's inaccurate.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. Robinson	(Pres't)

AYES 7 NOES none

(MICHELLE MADOFF AND MR. GIVENS ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. Givens:

Excuse me, Mr. President. Could I have a reading on those bills again? You said two abstain?

The Chair:

Two abstentions.

Mr. Givens:

I did not abstain. I am not voting on the bill.

The Chair:

You're abstaining then, Dick.

Mr. Givens:

I am not abstaining.

The Chair:

You're not voting, Dick. So you're abstaining.

Mr. Givens:

I'm not abstaining. I'm reserving my right to give the vote before this meeting adjourns.

The Chair:

Dick, when you do not vote aye or no, you are abstaining. Regardless of how you say it.

Mr. Givens:

Abstaining means you're not voting either yes or no.

The Chair:

Which you're not doing.

Mr. Givens:

I am not abstaining. I want the records to so reflect that.

The Chair:

Please do so. Can we move on?

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, Mr. Stone just said something that might change my vote. Mr. Stone, did you say that the information of the State is not accurate?

Mr. Stone:

That's what he said.

Michelle Madoff:

If that is so then I will change my vote to yes.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

AYES 8 NOES none

(MR. GIVENS NOT VOTING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like to go back to that bill that I had not voted on before this particular vote. There is one confusing thing in here. It says compensation on such as all wages, salaries, fees, commissions, bonuses, and incentive pay, received for services rendered. Net profit, that net income from the operation of business or professions after deduction costs and expenses incurred and it's conduct except taxes based on income.

Mr. President, I have before me the general instructions on the 1981 City of Pittsburgh individual income tax form, where in it states that most of them are from compensational wages, salaries and fees and commissions which are considered earned income, net profit from your business, net gains on income derived from or in the form of rents, royalties, patents and corporate. Just what I'm saying; it gets fairly well detailed. Four is net gains or incomes passing through in a state or trust may be taxable to these people. A lot of people will not consider income derived from some other source and here we have one. Net gain from an estate. That is not considered earned income by a lot of people so a lot of people are going to be submitting this form, unless when they read this they'll finally understand it. But looking at it on its surface, I didn't consider that as an earned income thing. They have some confusions; they make reference to federal tax forms here which I do not have at my disposal, but they ask the people to add a lot of these. I just wondered with all of those attachments of the federal schedule CDE 1065 and K1. I hope they don't get into something that the Finance Chairman said differently at the Wednesday session.

With this in hand, Mr. President, I vote aye on that bill.

The Chair:

Bill No. 1348

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for July 14, 1982 transmitting one ordinance and sundry resolutions to Council.

Bill No. 1098

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Four - Public Places and Property, Article VII, City Realty, by adding a new Chapter 453, Urban Homesteading to establish a program for the disposition of publicly owned property for rehabilitation." (AS AMENDED BY SUBSTITUTE)

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, on Bill No. 1098, I'd like to amend that bill be deleting, in Section 453.01, by deleting that portion that reads, "all agreements relative to Urban Homesteading shall be reviewed by the Planning, Housing and Development Committee of City Council and approved by City Council."

Michelle Madoff:

What do you want to put instead? Just leave it blank?

Mr. Robinson:

Leave it go as previously read.

I'm just removing that section.

Mr. Stone:

Good point, Bill.

Mr. Robinson moved to amend by No. 1098.

Mr. Stone seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

I just have one question to ask you. The ACORN people have been showing the Philadelphia bill that they were so interested in and would like Pittsburgh to have the same type bill. I was away. Does this bill read similar to the one in Philadelphia?

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, Bill No. 1098, as it was originally introduced, was similar to the bill that was passed in Philadelphia. One distinction should be made clear that has not been made clear. In Philadelphia, the city of Philadelphia represents the three taxing bodies. They do not have the same situation that we have here where we have the City of Pittsburgh, the County of Allegheny and the School District of the City of Pittsburgh. That is one distinction in the two bills which relates to administering the particular program. But in all other respects it was similar to the bill that was introduced and passed in Philadelphia.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, the ACORN people stopped me and told me that they had spoken to most members of Council and that they were very unhappy with this present bill and that they wanted to have the initial bill that was submitted. And they asked whether we would be willing to support the initial bill. I was willing to support it in the beginning. Mr. Robinson felt that he could not get five votes from this Council to support the initial bill. I would like to take a shot at getting the initial bill because I don't think this really goes strong enough. I realize that we can have, correct me Mr. Robinson if I'm wrong, but your position, as I understand it, is that you feel the first one, you can't get five votes or you feel it won't hold water, and if we pass this bill, we can make amendments almost immediately to strengthen it.

I'm a little confused. Why can't we go with the initial bill similar to the Philadelphia bill? Other than the one argument you have about the three taxing bodies, because the facts of life are, the City is a taxing body, the conduit for the three taxing bodies; we have the power to act for all three bodies, and I don't think that's a valid argument. I think a more valid argument might be if you could show me why it would not hold up. I don't see any reason why we can't be more stringent and finally get a good, strong homesteading bill.

Mr. DePasquale, there are twenty-one hundred boarded up houses in this Community. We could introduce a bill very quickly. We could get ACORN incorporated; get them into a tax exempt entity. It doesn't have to be ACORN, but any body of people. We would get lumber people donating. We'd encourage people who own property, those twenty-one hundred boarded up homes, to donate them because they would be tax write-offs. And we could be doing a lot of meaningful things. And perhaps Bill's argument, if he can convince me, I will go with him that we ought to at least start with something. But I don't know wh/ we can't go with a tougher bill. I think we have five votes here.

Mr. Robinson:

I think first of all, we have to be clear as to what bill is being discussed presently. The bill that is presently being discussed is a substitute bill for the original No. 1098. The bill before it, is No. 1098. This is the new No. 1098. This is the bill we're discussing. The only bill that I know of that we can take action on today is the bill before it, which is the bill that I recommended in Committee last Wednesday, that this Council take action on, and I made some specific comments as to why I thought we should take action on that bill.

First, let me say that my original proposal, the original No. 1098, is the exact bill that this Councilman wanted. Otherwise, I would not have submitted it.

Michelle Madoff:

Bill, why do they think it's different?

Mr. Robinson:

If you will please let me finish. I think that there's two ways to view this, and I've shared this with ACORN, and I've shared it with a number of people. It's up to each individual to accept it in whatever fashion that they deem appropriate. It's going to be up to this Council as the legislative body of the City to determine whether or not we want the Legislative Urban Homesteading Program and in what context.

One, we can approach this problem solely from a legislative standpoint, and legislate each and every aspect of the program. We can approach it from an administrative aspect and allow the administrators to set up each and every portion of the program.

The City of Pittsburgh presently has an Urban Homesteading Program, as inadequate or adequate as some persons might think it is. The main problem with that Urban Homesteading has been that numerous people in the Housing feel that it has not truly served the interest of low and moderate income people. I have been one of those persons who has felt that it has not served the interest of low and moderate income people. I have shared that with the Mayor. I've shared that with Mr. Brophy, Miss Reilly, and anyone else who would listen. I've shared it with all my colleagues on Council.

Also, I've indicated on several occasions that I thought it was essential that this City have two things in Housing. One, a housing policy that was legislated, and two, an Urban Homesteading Program that was legislated. I think that certainly, the issue of Urban Homesteading is being joined today after at least two and a half years of conflict, sometimes bitter conflict, and that we are at a point where we can take some action to make sure that an Urban Homesteading Program is legislated in the City of Pittsburgh. We do not now have any legislation on the books that mandates an Urban Homesteading Program.

Also, I think that when we look at those sections of the original bill that were removed, I think we have to take them in the concept of what is the best way to make sure that the Urban Homesteading Program is going to work. I was very candid last Wednesday about why I thought the original bill could not pass. And I still stand on those comments. Beyond that, I think that we have to take into consideration that a great deal of time and effort has gone into trying to make the Urban Homesteading Program more effective.

Part of the difficulty is that some people do not have any confidence in the administrators of the program. Part of the problem, then, is that some people don't even know who is actually administering the program. Part of the difficulty is understanding what this City legally can do and what this City legally cannot do. Another part of the problem is making sure that this Council has a significant voice in making sure that housing opportunities for low and moderate income people are provided, and specifically, for the Urban Homesteading Program.

I hope that members of Council will take all that into consideration as they view this legislation that is before you.

I spoke extensively to the Mayor on this matter. I have talked to numerous attorneys, both in and outside of government, and my own personal attorney on this matter. I have talked with the administrators of our Urban Homesteading Program, I've talked with people who have participated in that program. I am convinced that the legislation I am suggesting to Council is a giant step. It does one specific thing. It mandates an Urban Homesteading Program in the City of Pittsburgh. Legislation is not intended to cover the laundry list of complaints. The people in and outside of government have relative to our Urban Homesteading Program. What it does is it's won, for the first time, the Mayor of the City on the side of legislation for Urban Homesteading. That's one. Two, it resolves the hassle between some community groups and people who represent the City of Pittsburgh around whether or not we are servicing the interest of low and moderate people because very specifically in the bill, it indicates that we are going to service low and moderate income people with this piece of legislation.

Also, I think the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh has expressed on several occasions his unwillingness to meet with certain leaders of certain organizations. He's said that publicly. Thank God I am able to talk to the Mayor, and I'm able to talk to the leaders of those organizations. That is part of that giant step. No legislation that is passed in the City of Pittsburgh can be considered etched in stone to the extent that it cannot be amended or cannot be changed. Certainly this bill, by no stretch of the imagination, is perfect. Just as the administration of our present program is not perfect. But I think we have to look at this in terms of how far legislation can go and what we can do administratively to make this kind of effort work. One of the things that many of you are probably unaware of is that sometime the City, with my urging, has been attempting to work out an Urban Homesteading Program with the Urban League of Pittsburgh. We have, presently, a proposal from the Urban League which was forwarded to our URA that outlines a Comprehensive Urban League Homesteading Program. The Urban League is a non-profit organization and would be able to receive donations of property directly. It would not have to be given to the City first. The City of Pittsburgh will provide the Urban League with the necessary funding, and persons who want to go into the Urban Homesteading Program would be counseled, trained and educated, as well as assisted with financing to make sure that these structures can be put back on the tax roles and that low income people can have an opportunity to participate in the Renaissance.

I don't think anyone should take lightly this kind of effort because it has required a lot of people sitting down and compromising around a lot of things.

None of us in this City can get everything that we want. None of us in this City, perhaps, are completely happy with the way the City is run. But when I think people make a good faith effort to try and resolve a problem and try to make the machinery of government work along with those in the private sector, that we ought to accept that. We ought to give this Urban Homesteading Program the same kind of support, the same kind of opportunities that we've given to other programs in this City. There are those people who say this program won't work. They have not given it a chance to go into operation. And I say, give this program a chance to go into operation and hold this Council and the Mayor accountable to make it work. The Mayor has indicated that he is more than willing to work with me and Council to see that the Urban Homesteading Program works, and I've indicated that I'm going to hold the Mayor to that.

Michelle Madoff:

Councilman Robinson, do I understand you that the laundry list of the imperfections that ACORN and other groups have expressed will be addressed to the Urban League and through another mechanism, that of amending the bill, —

Mr. Robinson:

I think that we should indicate that we are taking a positive step to resolve these problems and that the process of trying to make this program work is open and available to all sincerely interested persons who want to have an Urban Homesteading Program in the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

Bill, you've just said the same thing I said in another way. So we're in agreement. Let's get on with the vote.

Call the vote.

I vote aye with the understanding that amendments will be submitted by me in the immediate future.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mrs. Masloff and Mr. Woods presents:

Bill No. 1351 WHEREAS, Lisa Pietropaoli has been crowned Miss Pennsylvania National Teen-Ager 1982 and will represent the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at the Miss National Teen-Ager of America Pageant in Fort Meyers, Florida on August 5, 1982; and

WHEREAS, Lisa Pietropaoli is a resident of Westmorland County and represents Western Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, the Miss National Teen-Ager of America contest seeks to present the finest in young American womanhood; and Lisa Pietropaoli has the qualities of character, intelligence, talent and beauty.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh wishes her good luck and God speed as she represents the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the final competition for the title of Miss National Teen-Ager of America.

Mr. Woods moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Stone seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Is she a nice Italian girl?

Mr. Stone:

Her mother is Serbian.

The Chair:

Oh my.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, very quickly. I don't want to delay Council. I think we're all running a little overtime. Many of us read this morning's paper. I was appalled to find out that we, as Council members, we are always the ones in the firing line, who's heads are under the guillotine, will be having a public hearing tomorrow to determine, presumably, whether we're going to vote for or against the Stadium.

I've been trying to do as much homework as I can. I've had three people committed to me who said they would review the material and copped out at the last minute because of commitments or conflict of interest. It is very hard to get, even paying somebody, a consultant.

Tomorrow we are going to have a hearing, with Mr. Roderick out of town, did you hear me? He is not here because I called his office, Mr. Roderick is away, he will not be present. Mr. Roderick is spearheading getting the medallions and Mayor of this City, the Judge, Marvin Fein and Dave Matter told me when we were briefed, I don't know whether he told you the same thing, that if the ducks weren't in order it was no go.

Why are we having a public hearing tomorrow before the ducks are in order? Why don't we find out if, indeed, those medallions will be sold when Gulf is saying we have commitments, we cannot raise the money? Do you understand what I'm saying?

The Chair:

First of all, a hearing was requested on a transfer of that Stadium's lease from Three Rivers Management of the City of Pittsburgh. There was no discussion about the medallions being the prime interest. We just said that it was part of the deal, that they had some of them in the bag and some they hoped to get. It has no bearing, really, on the hearing tomorrow.

Michelle Madoff:

From my perspective it has a great deal of bearing.

The Chair:

If they say they can't do it without the medallions then shame on them for asking for a hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm in agreement with you. What I'm saying to you is if they can't the medallions, why are we having a hearing? Because they don't have to put up one cent for the medallions or the commitment for those boxes; they can put it in escrow. Or they can make a verbal commitment that if Council approves it that, indeed, the money is there. How can I even vote for Wednesday when I don't know if that money is going to be there. And I've been told by the Mayor that it is our responsibility, again, it is Council's responsibility, that we have to pick up the deficit and we're liable. Well I can't be liable unless I know there's going to be funds from another source. Why are we having that hearing tomorrow? Why don't we postpone it until we have the ducks in a row? The commitment from the industries.

The Chair:

In all fairness to Mr. Roderick who left town because he's a dog, no doubt, he's had his way with U.S. Steel for years. He's closed all of his factories here and put everybody out of work and now in good conscience he's going to give us a medallion every year of $120,000.00. It's blood money and he can keep it.

Michelle Madoff:

The issue is, can we afford the Stadium or can we not? And the Mayor says, and he said he will say this tomorrow, too, that if the medallion money, and I don't care if it's medallions or whether it's dog tags, if that money doesn't come from the private sector, this is a no go deal.

Well, how can I even address it or vote on it when we don't have that commitment? And I think as a President, and I support you as a President and Chairman --

The Chair:

Michelle, in all fairness you're not voting tomorrow. You're only hearing the facts.

Michelle Madoff:

Sir, we're going to hear the facts tomorrow and I understand we're going to move on Wednesday.

The Chair:

You'll determine from those facts what you're going to do.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not going to be here tomorrow if I don't know those ducks are in a row. I'm not going to be used.

The Chair:

They complied with the law, they asked for a hearing and we've got to give them a hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

I know, but why have the hearing before the facts?

The Chair:

That's their problem.

Michelle Madoff:

Then why are you holding a hearing before the facts?

The Chair:

Nobody said anything about the medallions. They asked for a hearing to transfer the lease.

Michelle Madoff:

How can you transfer it without the medallions?

The Chair:

That's there problem.

Mr. Woods:

It's a hearing, it's not a vote. We don't have to vote on it yet.

The Chair:

I understand that. Tell Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

How can you hold a hearing if you don't know if you're getting the medallions?

Mr. Woods:

There's no difference. Remember the Pact vote? We didn't have percentages but we had to have the hearing. It's the same thing, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll tell you what, Mr. Stone, I will go out on the limb for one hundred dollars to your favority charity or to Mr. Woods' favority charity if Pact doesn't fly.

Mr. Woods:

That's not the issue.

Michelle Madoff:

It's going to go because I sat on that for two years.

Mr. Stone moved to approve the minutes from Monday, July 12, 1982.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Stone

Council adjourned.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

Before we have the presentation of papers we do have a resolution that Michelle Madoff will present.

Michelle Madoff presents

Bill No. 1375 WHEREAS, the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh join with the Citizens of Pittsburgh to thank and congratulate Mr. Anthony Patak for rescuing a rape victim; and

WHEREAS, on July 17, he went to the aid of a victim of a rape even though he was also threatened with a knife; and

WHEREAS, he showed great bravery in getting involved, coming to the victim's aid, and perhaps saving her life.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the Citizens of Pittsburgh hereby recognizes Mr. Anthony Patak for displaying dedication to the high social and moral standards that we want in the City of Pittsburgh.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh wishes to thank Mr. Anthony Patak for his willingness to become involved and for making Pittsburgh a "safer place to live."

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

You know, when you pick up the newspaper and they have the little summary of crime that takes place in the street, last week I picked up the paper and there were three rapes listed in a row. It said a woman in Squirrel Hill. I did not know that that woman is a very close friend of mine. Someone broke into her house, her daughter was at camp, her child was in the next room, and she submitted because she was afraid he might kill the child. That was at night and nobody was around. But so often we see, I read yesterday's paper that a woman was abducted just waiting for a bus coming from work at 12:35. Somebody came up behind her with a knife, forced her into a car, and only through, and we ought to give an award to the policeman who saved her life, found her beaten body in the car.

It's only because of citizens like yourself are willing to get involved and care and I personally want to thank you. On behalf of all women and on behalf of all people, you're a wonderful man.

The Chair:

Congratulations Mr. Patak. Would you say a few words?

Mr. Anthony Patak:

We should all try to make a safer place to live in, and our neighbors all try to stick together to make a better neighborhood in the future. Thank you.

The Chair:

On behalf of all of Council I would like to congratulate Mr. Patak and all of his family. Thank you very much.

Mr. Givens presented

Bill No. 1376 WHEREAS, the reconstruction of Warrington Avenue by the City of Pittsburgh will begin shortly; and

WHEREAS, the reconstruction of Arlington Avenue is scheduled for 1984; and

WHEREAS, the Port Authority has stated its intention to construct, as part of its Stage I Light Rail Transit System, a revenue producing rail service line in Warrington and Arlington Avenues; and

WHEREAS, simultaneously with the City's reconstruction of both Warrington and Arlington Avenues, the Port Authority, as part of its Light Rail Transit System, must reconstruct its present rail system located in said avenues; and

WHEREAS, for the Light Rail Transit System to operate in Warrington and Arlington Avenues, the City of Pittsburgh must proceed with its reconstruction of said avenues; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh and Port Authority have agreed that the City's contractors under their contracts with the City for the reconstruction of Warrington and Arlington avenues will also perform, at the Port Authority's cost and expense, construction of the Light Rail Transit System located in said avenues; and

WHEREAS, the parties have reached agreement as to those items of cost which pertain to the construction of the Light Rail Transit System within Warrington and Arlington Avenues for which the Port Authority shall be responsible; and

WHEREAS, Federal Highway

Works Administration grants are being requested by the City for both Warrington and Arlington Avenues; and

WHEREAS, a Federal grant has been approved for the reconstruction of Warrington Avenue but, while expected, has not at this time been approved for Arlington Avenue; and

WHEREAS, the Port Authority must be assured that both projects will be completed even if federal funds are not available to the City of Pittsburgh for reconstruction of Arlington Avenue.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh will take necessary action and use its best efforts to fund the reconstruction of Arlington Avenue in order to assure the start of construction of Arlington Avenue by early 1984 in the event federal funds are not available.

Mr. Givens moved to approve the resolution.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, if I might. This, in fact, is a legal agreement between ourselves and the Port Authority pursuing from the meeting that I had with the Chairman of the Port Authority and also ensuing with the resolution of intent that this Council had passed back on June 30th almost stating the same thing that we wanted to go through with it. But underlying here in this particular resolution is that the federal money, and that was the big hangup with the Port Authority, would not come through, and as all of us might know, as of this September that proportionate share of federal money will change from 70-30 to 50-50. Otherwise the City of Pittsburgh will have to put up fifty percent of the money rather than just thirty percent. And as things are going up at the federal level, hopefully this 50-50 money will be available. If not, we're saying here for the Port Authority to go into their some thirteen million dollars worth of track in that particular area, that they want the City to go forward with this. And I think, by the vote here today, this Council is willing to do that. Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may on this issue. I'd be remiss if I didn't indicate that this issue is one that has been Council for some six years. If you will recall, we retained the two million dollars without permitting it to be transferred under the Flaherty administration. In addition to that, Council has been steadfast in its belief that these two highways should be completed and that the Port Authority should be cooperating along the lines that they had manifested to us.

But I, as a Councilman, would be remiss if I didn't mention the great dedication and devotion of the Arlington-Warrington Civic Council Improvement Council, Southside Community Council and in this recent year those individuals living on Arlington Avenue who contributed to this cause. They've been chasing it on almost a monthly basis, and in recent times, into a daily basis. They're to be comended for their stamina.

The Chair:

Thank you Mr. Givens and Mr. Stone.

Michelle Madoff:

We have microfiche readers. We don't have the stuff to condense them, but we have readers. You don't need a lot of readers. Readers can be borrowed from one department to the next. Will somebody check that out? Mr. Woods would you look into that because I asked that question and I was told —

Mr. Stone:

It's just being introduced today. When it comes up in Council —

Michelle Madoff:

I understand that, but unfortunately, the day it comes out you're ruled out of order and there's not enough time. And time is what is causing a lot of problems in the City. Mr. Woods, I would respectfully ask if you would look into seeing how many readers there are in the City, and whether they can be interchanged, because you can use one reader to read any microfiche.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presented

Bill No. 1369

July 23, 1982

President and Members of Council
510 City-County Building
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Dear President and Members:

I am returning herewith, as vetoed, Council Bill 902 of 1982 which grants a conditional use to use the property located at 814 S. Negley Avenue, 7th Ward, as a group residence facility for eight adolescents, adjudicated as dependent/delinquents.

My objection to the enactment of this Bill is that within one-half mile of this facility there are located three other group type residences or institutions. The group home amendment to the Zoning Code enacted a comprehensive set of regulations which balanced both the need of having these types of facilities and the need for maintenance of the residential character of our neighborhoods. The addition of this group residence facility to an area which already has three other facilities within one-half mile would be detrimental to the residential character of that neighborhood and its future development.

This particular neighborhood has been receptive to having their fair share of these facilities located within their respective boundaries.

For the above reason I therefore veto Council Bill 902 of 1982.

Very truly yours,

Richard S. Caliguiri

RSC:fk

Which was read, received and filed.

Mrs. Masloff moved to sustain the Mayor's veto.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I know this comes at the last hour for the Mayor and his right to veto the Council. I have a deep concern of what's going to happen to the children who are in this particular house if they have to vacate in a very short period of time. If you can recall, during our deliberations on this particular bill, I had asked that there be some concessions made for phasing out the Whale's Tale present residency. I would hope, and I know that this Council does not have the power on the Whale's Tale itself, however, looking at some technicalities that this Council can do, we can table this bill and leave it die a normal course. If we do not act upon it, by the time the first of the year rolls around it will be automatically dead, thus giving the Whale's Tale a six month period of time to relocate to another facility. I'd ask that to be put in a form of a motion.

Mr. Stone:

We have to act on it at this meeting. If we're going to override, we have to override today.

Mr. Givens:

We could override and then table it.

Parliamentarian:

This is a motion to sustain the veto. We look to how many are against. In other words, if six are against, the veto is not sustained. You're either sustaining the veto or not.

The Chair:

But Mr. Givens is talking about tabling it rather than action today.

Mr. Givens:

Is the bill still before us? Does not the Mayor bring the bill forward to this Council again?

Mr. Stone:

No. It's coming from the Mayor right now. It comes back to the next Council meeting. It must be, if you're going to override it, you must override it at this meeting.

Mr. Flaherty:

Could we have a ruling from the Parliamentarian on that? That we have to override right now?

Parliamentarian:

What's before this Council is a motion, the Mayor's veto of the bill. Council has to decide whether or not it's going to sustain it or override it.

The Chair:

Therefore, we can't take a tabling motion at this time?

Mr. Flaherty:

Do we have to act today on the matter? Can we put it on the table?

The Chair:

Excuse me. Are you saying to table the veto?

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm trying to get an answer as to what the alternatives of Council may be. And, as Councilman Stone is saying, we have to act today. And I am asking for the Parliamentarian simply to state statute to substantiate the Councilman's claim.

Mr. Givens:

My point, if it's legally possible, and that is to recommit this bill back to Committee and then once it gets in Committee, to table it.

Parliamentarian:

The City Solicitor agrees that the action here is either to sustain or override the veto. It cannot be recommitted.

Michelle Madoff:

Is there some mechanism to address the issue that Councilman Givens, as humanitarians on this Council, that we don't shut them down tomorrow? How much time do they have as leeway?

Mr. Flaherty:

Could you cite the statute? I asked for the statute in my question. You came back and said that the Solicitor says that we have to act today. I'm asking for substantiation of the Solicitor's opinion.

The Chair:

In all fairness, if Mr. Flaherty wants that in writing, you're not going to get it today.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm not asking for it in writing. I am just asking the City Solicitor orally to say where the statute is and if the Parliamentarian could just read that statute.

Michelle Madoff:

And while he's at it, Mr. President, could he find out, because we are human beings, we care about the public, I don't think one member of this Council, no matter how they would vote, would want that facility shut down tomorrow. We have to allow them some mechanism to relocate, if that's how the vote goes, and how do you address that. Would you ask that at the same time? What is the ruling? Do they get six months, three months, four months? How much time do they get?

The Chair:

I see our Solicitor, Mr. Pellegrini is here. Mr. Pellegrini, I think you've been informed by Mr. St. Johns that Mr. Flaherty wanted that statute read as to why we can't table the Whale's Tale ordinance instead of acting on the veto.

Mr. Pellegrini:

My understanding was whether the bill could be recommitted to Committee. Section 321 of the Home Rule Charter provides —

Michelle Madoff:

That was not the question.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Okay, what's the question?

Michelle Madoff:

The question was, a humanitarian one that Mr. Givens raised, that we do not close them down immediately. What mechanism do you have to hold on the veto?

The Chair:

No, no, no. The question was, could we recommit —

Michelle Madoff:

I know, but he would cite the section that says we have to vote for it today.

The Chair:

That's something else, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

It's the same thing. That's why he wants it. He doesn't want it because he wants to dance with it.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, can we let the Parliamentarian continue?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Section 321 of the Home Rule Charter states: "The Mayor shall sign the legislation within ten days if approved. But if not, shall return to Council stating his objections. Council, at it's next meeting, shall reconsider any legislation disapproved by the Mayor and may pass it in spite of the Mayor's disapproval by two-thirds vote of all members."

If you don't consider it today, the Mayor's veto is sustained.

The Chair:

You're saying that if we don't take action on it today, within ten days it becomes law anyway?

Mr. Pellegrini:

If you don't take action today the Mayor's veto is sustained.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask a question, Mr. President? I want to know how we can give them some time so they don't have to move out tomorrow. What is the law?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Well, that would be an Administrative decision, and I'm sure BBI would be —

Michelle Madoff:

Could that be the will of Council? Could there be a resolution to give them enough time to move out? Say three months or whatever?

Mr. Pellegrini:

You can always pass a will of Council resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you. That answers the question.

Mr. Flaherty:

I think that it's mandatory upon me to explain how I'm going to vote today. And I'm going to vote to sustain the Mayor's veto of the Whale's Tale. My primary objections to the Whale's Tale were that I don't feel that the opponents of the Whale's Tale, in any stretch of the imagination, substantiated their criticisms as far as there were people who were drunk going into the house, the smoking of marijuana, etc. I think a lot of those thoughts stem strictly out of fear since they could not be substantiated.

But all along, there was also the other issue of, was that area actually impacted with transitional homes. And I know I spoke to Jim Brown, and he maintained that there was only one actual, legal, transitional home in the area. I know the opponents of the Whale's Tale always maintained that there were three.

So, since it is coming from the Mayor of this City, and I take it, I hope, that he talked this over with the Director of Planning, Robert Lurcott, and with Jim Brown, and actually ascertained that in the legal sense there are three, then I will support the veto. But on the other hand, I am a little upset now, and it's certainly within the prerogative of the Mayor to veto the bill, but it seems as if it's playing some Monday morning quarterback because he had the Director of Planning appearing in front of this Council who works at his pleasure, saying that the Whale's Tale was a good facility and was certainly within the parameters of the Group Home Ordinance that this Council has passed.

So, I resent that a little bit, a member of Council, that I was not given the proper information when this bill was in front of me, and then once it leaves Council's hand, then indeed, the proper information is given to the Mayor's Office.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I'd just like to add some comments. I'd hope that, you know, when you set a precedence, and we must set it for all residents of these residential institutions that will come before us, if we look at that one half mile very critical without grandfathering, I just wonder how many other institutions of group homes and care institutions do we have that fall into the same type of category.

I have to appreciate whe we had that particular hearing, I'd looked at those other group homes per se, some of them were within the half mile, but they were almost like bordering line on the half mile premises. I can't see how that totally impacted on the area.

My deepest concern, and for those neighbors that are here, is the fact, I guess we all have to look at the children. They're the by products of our society and what's going to happen to them. The only thing I was trying to do here today was to give the Whale's Tale an opportunity to speak to the Mayor. It's interesting to note that there was no communications between the Mayor's Office and the Whale's Tale Board of Directors. And that's sad. I think when the Mayor uses his veto power, it's a very strong weapon. That not to hear both sides of the story, I just wonder where compassion is. Thank you, Mr. President.

Michelle Madoff:

Very briefly. I will personally have my aide, Carmen Guenther, send a letter to the Mayor. I think it's time that the Mayor, he told me when I talked to him originally about some of the staff directors who have since departed the City, that he needed some time to make changes. I think Mr. Lurcott is a very charming, clean-cut, nice young man who is a daydreamer who floats in the air. He belongs back on a university. He was a disaster on the group home in the Point Breeze area. I think he's a disaster when he presents stuff before Council. He never has his facts. He doesn't know what he's presenting us with. And I think the Mayor, and I agree with Councilman Flaherty, he should not be a Monday morning quarterback, and if he had a good staff, person, director, it would not have happened. And I think it's time that he looked at that position. And I say that in a very ladylike way, but I think that it's time that he review whether it's the right person in the right job, whether we've got a round hole and a square peg. And I'm going to vote to sustain the Mayor's veto.

The Chair:

Call the vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

Aye, unfortunately, because, to reiterate Councilman Givens, I do feel a strong pang of compassion for these people and I just hope, that's about all I can do, I'm not going to try to tell the people from the Whale's Tale I'm going to work all kinds of miracles and get the community together with them. I hope and I pray that they are able to find another site.

Michelle Madoff:

I think it's imperative that we have a resolution before Council, or just a letter to the Mayor from Council. The will of Council, that we give people enough time to get out. I think that that would be, an oral resolution that I don't think anybody here would disagree with. Do you think, Mr. President? Is that in order, that we have just a letter go from Council that we give them at least three months to move so that we don't put anybody in the street? Legal counsel said we can have a letter with the will of Council. The public will know and the community will know that they're going. I vote to sustain the Mayor's veto.

Mr. Stone:

A comment, if I may. It was known that this was a group home. It was known that there were other facilities there. It was known, by us at least, that it was under and supported by the juvenile court. I don't know that there was any information withheld. I question, however, whether the Mayor was aware that the juvenile court's involvement in this case, but I believe in the concept of the group homes, and I believe it enough to put my vote behind the compassion, and from the facts we have, they were there first. From the facts that we have, they were under the auspices, in fact told to do it by juvenile court judges. Juvenile court authorities were overseeing the facility as a better alternative than confinement at Shuman Center and other centers across this Western Pennsylvania. They went there when there was no ordinance covering the matter, and now there's an ordinance. I think it is wrong, now, to work this legislation against them at this time. I vote no.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the veto be sustained?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff moved to recommit Bill No. 1196 for one week.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to explain why I want it held. My reason for asking to hold this vote, and I want to share with this Council, that on my way to Council today, I stopped at a shop to buy a hairdryer and I was really pounced on as most of the people in this Council are being pounced on by the public saying, "You're selling us out, we don't want to pick up these tax dollars." The public doesn't understand. We haven't given them enough time to digest and chew on the issue and to absorb the facts.

We in Council are faced with a tough decision based on facts. The public has not had that opportunity. When I spoke to this woman, she agree. She said, "Now go back and vote for it because I don't want to pay the $40 million extra or the $30 million extra in taxes."

I came to the back of the building where I entered the building today, and someone practically slugged me. And he said, "You used to be okay. There's only one hero on Council and you might as well leave town because you voted against us and we're going to have to pay for these taxes." The public doesn't understand that the Galbreaths do not own the Stadium Authority and that the City taxpayers are responsible for the Stadium Authority. And I think they need some time to digest that.

That's my reason for asking that we hold the issue for a week. There have been some suggestions made by the Bloomfield/Garfield Corporation whereby on the medallions they could raise the amount by a small percentage to help the communities. We could be discussing that with the Mayor. Bringing it to Council at zero hour is not enough time. We need a week. We need that time for the public to be better informed.

Mr. Flaherty:

I would just want to support what Councilwoman Michelle Madoff has said. I'm sure that we are all, well I haven't been hit all that much since I am not in support of the agreement, but I am certainly aware that my colleagues have been lobbied in a most extensive manner. In fact, the lobbying that I have witnessed is the most intense that I have ever seen in my career as a public official. I think it's obvious to the people of the City of Pittsburgh that Council had a nine hour public hearing and then the following day, within sixteen hours, they rushed to judgment on this issue. And this is undoubtedly, probably the most complex, the most intricate, and the bottom line, the most important issue, I believe that this Council has acted upon in a few years.

I find it ironic that the day that Council gave preliminary approval, last Wednesday in Committee Meeting for passage, there was a front page story in the Pittsburgh Press which subsequently caused more stories in the television, radio and print media concerning the facility management group. I'm sure everybody on this Council would agree. I don't think anyone will deny that, in virtually every utterance that the Mayor or someone from the Administration had in support of this proposed agreement, that the facility management group was mentioned. It was a major tenant. It was a major argument as to why this Council should support this agreement. Simply because this "miracle firm" has worked wonders in Nassau Collisium in New Orleans and in other cities. Subsequently, these articles have started to generate, that the exact contrary has happened. In fact, the firm is even mentioned in the memorandum of understanding.

Granted, we have not entered into an agreement with this firm. How could we enter into an agreement when the proposed agreement has not even been passed yet by this Council. This is just one of the points that has been of a very speculative nature. And before we get further down the line on this issue, before some of these other speculative points perhaps start to take an unfavorable tone to them, I think it's only judicious and responsible for this Council to scrutinize this proposal further. We have not given ourselves enough time; we have not given the people of the City of Pittsburgh adequate time to effectively and truthfully lobby their Government.

In closing, I'm going to put the same question that I put at the Committee Meeting and that I also raised at the hearing. What is the pressing matter that we have to approve this agreement today? What is the pressing legal, technical, financial matter? There is none. And I dare anyone in this Council to tell me there is one. But I'll tell you what is the pressing matter, and it's a political pressing matter. It's the old saying of Washington and Harrisburg and this City Council and the Mayor's Office. And that old adage is, "When you have the votes you run with them". And that's what we are doing here; they have the votes, they're running with them and the public be damned. This Council is afraid to wait for one week in fear that you will give the public adequate time to do what they are constitutionally entitled to and what we should, out of generosity and respect and out of our sworn commitment to office let them do, lobby their Government.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, the applause is exactly what I'm talking about. I'm not necessarily in agreement with Councilman Flaherty. As a matter of fact, if pressured to vote, I'm going to vote in the opposite direction. But I would like to remind this Council of a vote that appeared on the referendum. The choice being, shall we keep a raise to eight percent or should we let Council take any raise it wants. What did the people understand? The understanding was, shall we give them a raise or shouldn't give them a raise, and they voted it down. They voted the raise down. What did it mean? It means we can go and take anything we want.

One of the things we ought to be doing, talking about this issue, is as our good faith, particularly those of us who are going to vote for the Stadium contract, trying to keep taxes down ought to, on the record, commit themselves that when we come to vote for tax raise next year, unless the economy has had a drastic turn about, and I don't see that happening in a long time, that we, indeed, are not going to take a penny raise.

And that is not separate and apart, Mr. President, because it's all tied to how we see our responsibility to the public. They think we're trying to raise their taxes; what they don't understand is that what we want to do is save them tax money. But they misunderstand. Simply, they haven't had enough time. The public is not stupid; let them get the facts. When I spoke to this woman today who let me talk, she said, "Well, I changed my mind, go in and vote for it. I understand now." They need some time to digest this problem.

Mr. Givens:

Maybe, Mr. President, that that's why the people elected us to be Councilpeople here at this table. For two and a half years, my folder has been getting larger and larger on the Stadium deal. I think they asked us to look into this, and I have been looking into it. We did have this public hearing wherein forty people, forty people, came in and testified before this Council. One of the longest sessions that we've had. To have any more public hearings would just be rhetoric. Anyone who wanted to speak to this Council, to the Mayor, to the teams that are here in the City of Pittsburgh, had their day in court that particular day, to come on in and so testify. I didn't hear anyone leaving displeased, saying that they were not heard. Even after everyone was heard on that particular meeting day, the President of the Council had asked if there was anybody else in the audience that wanted to be heard. And there was one or two people that weren't even on the regular agenda that had come on up.

We say we passed this in a sixteen hour period. I would submit to Mr. Flaherty that we had passed the $41 million budget increase last year of which it took about five minutes on that side of the floor, we crossed over the line right here and it took us exactly another five minutes to pass that twenty-one percent increase to the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh. $41 million, not $600,000.00 that we're appropriating extra money for the particular Stadium Authority. I asked him to consider that when he voted on that last year, and he voted yes to the increase, that taxation of $41 million.

We talk about the Long Beach or the FMG Management Group that's coming before us, possibly to run that particular stadium. That is not a prerogative of this Council. That is strictly, not even the Mayor. That rests with the Stadium Authority as to who they hire, and I note in the audience today is Executive Director, Mr. Jim Lally, is here with us to hear what goes on here. That group is not cast in concrete. In a contractual agreement, I asked why this company was put in there. It was used as an example. An example only. There has been nothing contractually done with that.

I say to everyone that's here today and to the fellow Councilmembers that we must make this judgment. Prolonging it, as far as I'm concerned, as far as this Councilman is concerned, is just prolonging the agony of uncertainty of what's happening out there in the real world. This contract must go underway. If one were to look at that contract, you have to get the effective date. This contract goes back some months from now. The longer we wait, the more revenue this City might be losing because we have not initiated this particular contract.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I would just want to add one more aspect of this. Approximately an hour ago, the Bloomfield/Garfield Corporation had a press conference in which they urged the corporations that are going to purchase medallions if they would consider also piggy-backing a sum for the revitalization, residential and commercial revitalization of our neighborhoods. And I am speaking today in behalf and in support of this, not because, as some of my colleagues, I understand, have suspected that it was my idea and the Bloomfield/Garfield Corporation would even let themselves be used by me in that fashion, which is far from the truth. It is strictly their idea and I wish I would have come up with that idea. I think it's a most commendable idea.

But I would also hope that we would hold it for examples from our neighborhoods and from our communities, good substantial, well thought out proposal such as the one the Bloomfield/Garfield Corporation has, and we have a lot of brain trust of talent in our communities among grass roots community organizers and people who have resided for years in this City. And I think we should give them the opportunity, perhaps, to piggy-back some ideas onto this proposal.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, just one comment along that same line. The Bloomfield/Garfield did come in here at 1:15 this afternoon and had presented this to those members of Council who had received their mail early this morning. Two of us were out here. I don't think this particular group would want this Council to act today on their proposal. This was handed to a couple of the Councilpeople an hour or so before this meeting. I think reason and judgment must come in here and the fact that that's the neighborhood that I live in, this will be dealt with, letters will go to the Mayor, letters will go to the Allegheny Conference to get their input. In fact, the Allegheny Conference, if you can recall, in their report to the people, indicated that we need this type of working relationship between the corporate community and government and the people and their neighborhoods. And I think their idea is a well established idea and well worth the while of going into it. I think it needs some good exploration and some good spade work and ground work before it's finally presented.

The Chair:

I also think it's a capital idea and I think we should take action on it, but I don't think today is the time to do it.

Let's now vote to recommit No. 1196 for a week.

Michelle Madoff:

Just to hold it for a week and give the people a chance to digest the issue. They're changing their minds as they understand the problem. That's what I'm finding.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the recommittal?"

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mr. Flaherty
Michelle Madoff

AYES 2

NOES 7

(MR. GIVENS, MRS. MASLOFF, MR. O'MALLEY, MR. ROBINSON, MR. STONE, MR. WOODS, AND MR. DEPASQUALE VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

The Chair:

And now on the bill itself?

Mr. Givens moved to move Bill No. 1196.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to make some comments. I have had ninety phone calls. They've come in my home, they come to my office. I probably have about forty letters. We have tremendous input from the public, and every time you get a letter from the public, that means there are at least a factor of one hundred or two hundred people who don't take the time, they say, "You can't fight City Hall."

One of the things that I am personally being accused of is that I am currying the favor of the Mayor. Nothing could be further from the truth because the facts speak for themselves. I would like to remind my colleagues that they forget why I was persona nongrata with this Council. When I came to Council, Council was diametrically opposed to the Mayor who said, "I will not run" and then said "I didn't say I wouldn't run in the general, I just said I wouldn't run in the primary." And every time a bill came up before this Council, nobody voted on its merits. And or one year, I remind this Council, for one year, the vote was always 8-1. And the one vote for the Mayor was me. And when the Mayor was asked what he would do to help me when I ran, he said he was going to work harder.

The Chair:

Michelle, stick to the Stadium.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm answering an issue on the Stadium, Mr. President. The fact that I would be currying the Mayor's favor -- the Mayor has not done one thing to help me. I run in May and he runs in November.

In three years, this will be forgotten. For those of us who run in May, and that's only seven months away, the likelihood of our having the public support is very slim and very grim. It is not in my interest to vote my conscience. It would be in my personal interest to vote with the public who doesn't understand the issue, that doesn't understand that there's a $30 million or $40 million tax deficit. And I resent the implication from the public, and I'm answering the public that has been in touch with my office and attacked me in the street, that I am voting in support of the Mayor. I'm voting because I don't think we have a choice.

I would like to share with this Council, but not mention the name of the person, that someone in the leage of the Galbreaths left this room and I said, "Well, what do you think of the contrat?" And he said, "You said it all." He said it isn't the choice of a good contract and a bad contract. It's a choice of a bad contract or a worse contract. And I guess I feel we don't have another choice because the public does not understand that if we go into court, if we have another team and we lose, if another team comes to this City -- first of all, the Pirates can go anywhere and have much better contracts. Anybody else coming into this City is going to ask that we repair the Stadium. They're going to ask, perhaps, for a contract that's more binding on us.

The deficit is there. We, the taxpayers, own that Stadium and we have to pick up that deficit in any event. And the public, again, does not understand that we don't have a choice.

One of the suggestions that I have come up with and that I have presented to the Mayor and has been looked on favorably, to my surprise, is that we have those of us, and I'm not amongst them, as you know, I stated earlier I'm not a jock fan, those of use who are in favor, and really support the Pirates, do something about getting some season tickets. In a television show that I saw while I was out of town this weekend, I think it's called, I don't remember the name of the team, it's an ice team in Baltimore, I think, or in Washington, has a Mr. Poland who owns the team. They're going to drop a ten percent amusement tax to one half percent to keep the team there. And what they're doing is they've set up the same thing WQED does, or the Children's Hospital. They have Pirate, in their case it's their team, but we would have Pirate fans, whether they live in the County or the City, at telephone banks getting season commitments so that we, indeed, can show the public that this is really going to be in their best interest.

On the issue of the medallions, you know, I don't often agree with the guru, with the Mayor's guru, Mr. Dave Matter, but it's strictly a matter of, is industry going to take one hundred thousand dollars they've spent for thirty seconds in advertising and switch it to a medallion where maybe they get more than thirty seconds because maybe every time a game is played, there may be a hundred games between the Pirates and the Steelers, they may get exposure on their medallion. So they're probably going to get a bigger bank for their buck. And that is the money that we're going to use, hopefully, not put the burden on the taxpayer's back, but to repair the Stadium and to maintain that Stadium.

The difference is very small. It's a six hundred thousand dollar difference, and one very easy way of saving that kind of money and making up the deficit which will be forthcoming in the near future, is a mechanism for, buying slightly used, worn in, heavy equipment. We spend $85 million a year in supplies for this City. We can easily make up that seven hundred thousand dollars.

Again, when you see a cartoon by one of the greatest cartoonists in the world, Tim Meneses is, to me, a genius. But he came up with a very funny cartoon today which said in essence, we, the City taxpayers are going to pick up that deficit. And that isn't the truth. And if it is indeed the truth later on, better it should happen later than now. At least try to save this and not have that tax on our backs.

I don't think I can add anything to that. I think I've said it all pretty close by saying that if the people do not understand that if we do not go with this, we're going to be paying for a dead horse, it is not a bail out for the Galbreaths. It's a bail out for the City. And really, the fault is not with this Council. I don't know what happened many years ago when the Stadium came into being.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I cannot agree with my colleague, Michelle Madoff, on this. Michelle Madoff.

Well can you respect me?

Mr. Flaherty:

I do respect you. I didn't say I didn't respect you. In fact, often times, we're allies. But I can't agree because I think that the public understands perfectly what is going on here and the public understands that they don't have enough information to understand this whole agreement. And the public, understandably, is confused, and I think the public will be the first ones to tell you that they are confused. But that is a foregone issue, and point of debate because we are on the bottom line. We're down to brass tacks here today.

I have opposed this agreement since its release and I will oppose it also here today. And just to try to be as concise as possible, just in the past year since the Galbreaths unilaterally went ahead and dropped the bond service charge, the City subsidy has increased. Six hundred thousand dollars in one year. From six hundred thousand to 1.2 million, simply because Three Rivers Management thought that twelve cents or fifteen cents, whatever it is exactly, there were two figures given at the hearing, that was too much for the public to pay on top of their ticket. And since Three Rivers Management did not want to have the public pay an extra twelve or fifteen cents, then they threw it back in the lap of the City taxpayer so we paid an increase of six hundred thousand. Even though, at the average Pirate game, the Pirates' home market study shows that only twenty percent of those in attendance are City residents.

I also have problems with the surreptitious manner in which the negotiations were conducted. And subsequently, no record or no minutes, nor even an approximation of how many meetings occurred, or where those meetings did occur. What I am saying is, how can the public, how can this Council have a point of reference as to if this is a good agreement or a bad agreement when we don't know what the points of contention were. The Mayor did not provide any of that information at the hearing. But I suppose what the most important aspect that we are facing here today is that we are going to increase that subsidy from 1.2 million to 1.8 million. And anyone on this Council, including the Mayor who says this isn't going to cost the taxpayers a penny, is not telling it the way it is. It's going to be increased from 1.2 million to 1.8 million. It's not going to cost the taxpayers a penny if we can get a miracle firm in here to book prestigious, worthwhile extra events. If we can develop the area surrounding the Stadium, which even the study, the joint Carnegie Mellon University and Pitt study says, will not be done until there is a new road system put in there. Until crime is cleaned up in that area. Until we have more participation from the County on this. This is all speculative thought. And even if all that gingerbread did come through, then even then would it be debatable if it would cost the taxpayers anything.

But the bottom line is now, it's going to cost. Because why this issue is having such trouble with the public is that nobody can answer the public's simple question. And that is, if there was money to be made there, then why aren't the Galbreaths making it? Nobody can answer that question.

Another important aspect, since there is no cap on this 1.8 million, there is no cap, is, all throughout this memorandum of understanding, it's really curious, when I was in Harrisburg as a State Representative, there was what was called a may bill, that means that gives the parties that are liable in the legislation the option of doing something, and there was what was called a shall bill or a will bill. And that mandates that the action must be done that's included in the bill. Going through this memorandum of understanding, it fascinates me that may language is used any time that the Pirates or the Steelers are going to be liable for anything, the language is may. That gives an option to the Stadium Authority. But wherever the Stadium Authority is liable, or is committed to doing something, it is iron clad shell. And I can point references out in this if anyone wishes to question me on it.

What I am saying, even down to the legal language of this bill, this memorandum of understanding, there are loopholes involved. And they scare me very much, and I think they scare the City taxpayer very much, simply because it is not iron clad. There is no cap on this agreement.

We keep hearing about what happens if there's a strike this year. There's a strong possibility, it's pending that there will be a football strike. All I have heard is about the restaurants and the eateries and the hotels and the bars, and how much they're going to be hurt. Well if there's a strike, it's going to be the City taxpayer that's going to pay those cash installments. And I dare anybody in this hall to tell me otherwise. If there's a strike, or if anything goes haywire, it's going to be the City taxpayers that are going to hurt. And they're going to hurt a lot more than restaurants and hotels who are at the top of that trickle down theory. That's all it is, this talk of $37 million, it's a trickle down theory that they've been propagating for the past two years in Washington and we see the wreck its left this Country in. The Mayor at the public hearing, he said, "What is good for the Pirates is good for the City." Well we had a Secretary of Defense names Wilson during the Eisenhower administration and he came from General Motors and he said, "What is good for General Motors is good for this Country." And there was such a public outroar against Wilson, he only lasted approximately a half a year. Even thirty years ago the people in this Country weren't buying that philosophy. And I don't think, as evident by the lobbying today, the public, the City taxpayer, is buying it today.

In closing, we are a City of four hundred twenty thousand people. We are not a Cleveland of seven hundred sixty thousand. We are not an Indiannapolis which has just been combined with metropolitanism, which is now 1.3 million people. We are four hundred twenty thousand people. And we are stuck with that entire burden of that Stadium. We are the smallest city populous in this country, as far as population, as far as tax base, which is carrying the entire load of a stadium on its back.

In closing I just have this one more point. This is Council's last opportunity today to have any input. And this is the most crucial part of my argument. Our last opportunity before this is forever out of our hands. From now on, all primary, most importantly financial decisions, are going to be made by the Stadium Authority. And the Executive Director of the Stadium Authority, Jim Lally, is here today. Jim is trustworthy to the utmost. His reputation speaks for itself. As does the reputation of people on that Stadium Authority.

But the point is, the City taxpayer will have no direct input to those people. They are appointed by the Mayor and they will have no input. They will be able to decide, to weigh matters regardless of the decisions without, without, impunity. Something that we would have to consider since we are elected public officials.

In closing, and this is the bottom line, I would hate to see us lose this opportunity forever because as witness just the day we approved it, the Hyatt Management Firm comes back and I predict, unfortunately, and I hope this doesn't happen, that I think the headaches are going to start to roll within no time on this speculative game of win cards.

Mr. Givens:

It was brought out in Mr. Flaherty's deliberation that of the Bloomfield/Garfield people who were here earlier and still probably are, on the police issue, and the police in the Stadium, and it was brought out at our public hearing that there is no additional increase in police force over there. And when I got back to that $40 million and why I didn't vote for it last year and what Garfield and Bloomfield was asking about, and that was to have additional police officers to patrol their streets.

Knowing that security is their No. 1 problem, or so they stated here, we had a little question and answer period along with their proposal. But primarily police.

The only thing how to answer Mr. Flaherty's remarks is kind of hard, but I have to say this. He talks about gingerbread. I think of the Disney Lands and the Disney Worlds. There's a dream out there. And that dream then must be brought down to reality. That reality then was brought forward in this City when we talk about our Renaissance I. That Mayor previously, David Lawrence dreamed about it. The people in our community had dreamed about it. And they put it to reality. Also, with Renaissance II, they did likewise. And I'd have to say that that is something that if you don't dream and put that dream to reality, we have nothing.

It's surprising that Mr. Flaherty brought up some of the points about the contract itself, which I think all of us went over very diligently. I have, as I said, for two and a half years been collecting this file. And in that file it so states some of the costs of tickets and the revenues generated from them. And I'd just like to elaborate a little bit on that one particular point. Yes, the Pirates did increase their ticket fees from generally a small amount when the 25¢ surcharge went off. However, within that, the City of Pittsburgh had collected almost some nine cents on all tickets that were sold. Yes, the Pittsburgh Pirates have youth admitted to the club for 78¢. Ladies and senior citizens for 78¢. Three dollars for a reserved seat up to $4.37. For boxes and terrace $5.28 and the lounge boxes up to $7.00.

When you put this on a scale, it's nice to note, and this is a letter that I received from the Stadium Authority of the City of Pittsburgh, and it was from the Pittsburgh Pirate Management dated October 21, 1981, while this contract was still underway. Box seats alone, for box seats, there are eleven higher ball clubs than the City of Pittsburgh. There are fourteen lower. For reserved seats, there are twelve teams that are higher than us, thirteen lower. For general admission, this is where we get the young people in and the adults and the senior citizens, etc., seventeen higher than the City of Pittsburgh, eight lower than the old Buccos.

When we look at the Steelers, and I can only tell about their total gate over there, and the Steelers dropped their ticket price by 25¢. They have dropped it. And even with that, the Steelers, having four Super Bowls in their hand, looking for that fifth on the thumb, have received on an average per game, net games per tickets. And if you think of us being the champions as many years as we have, and I'm taking a scale here and looking at the national average for ticket sales per game — the average team in the NFL gets somewhere just a little under seven hundred thousand dollars per game. Our Pittsburgh Steelers, the Champs and everything else, because of the smallness of that stadium out there, and why we want to increase the seating, only receives a little over five hundred and about twenty-five thousand dollars per game. We're almost two hundred thousand dollars below the average.

And the Pittsburgh Pirates were, if anything, were lower than the average ticket sale. And any increase, if you can recall, on those ticket sales, will come back into the public hopper in the way of taxes.

So I say, the fans want this club and the fans want what's going out there and all of us at this table indicate that we want tax dollars for people outside the City of Pittsburgh. Herein, if it's so, the facts are so, eighty percent of the people that are contributing to this ballpark, to the erection of that particular place, eighty percent of them live outside the City of Pittsburgh. Exactly what this Councilman wants, I want more people to come from outside the City of Pittsburgh and support our activities right here. We are going on a forty year contract, twelve of it's under way. We don't own that stadium. Mellon Bank owns that stadium. Have you ever known of a banker that's not going to look over the shoulders of any agreement? If they don't think this agreement can come through, they'll be asking the City of Pittsburgh to pay up, and pay up right away. I think they'll look at it very hard and give their stamp of approval. We only have twenty-eight more years to go on that lease of forty years. After that, this is money into our copper for long-term financing of the City debt service. Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, as I listen to all the rhetoric here today with four conclusions and this about the thirtieth time we've heard the same tape, it reminds me, as they say in the law when you're arguing, argue the law and the facts. When the law is against you, argue the facts. When the facts are against you, argue the law. And when the law and the facts are both against you, then just argue. And that just seems to be where we are here today. I here in one breath, when the final issue was asked, whether or not we want the Pirates to leave and then we get through some tongue and cheek comment, we don't want them to go, we just want to kick the hell out of them while we're doing it. This apparently seems to be the impression.

If this issue weren't one in which we were playing politics, I don't think we would have all the rhetoric we have here today. I very clearly said at that meeting that I was not announcing my vote until after I heard the public hearing, giving all parties an opportunity to participate, and after that was over, some things are coming through very clearly. First of all, there is no question that the Pirates alone have brought in some $37 million, not including the Steelers. There is no question from the facts that were presented here that if the Pirates were to go, that would likewise mean the demise of the Steelers as far as participation. So we are faced with a rather large economic problem in this City.

There is no question that the Pirates and Steelers, if we're looking in a glory atmosphere, offer a great deal to the City of Pittsburgh and this region, and perhaps, it has kind of benefits that can't even be measured in economic results such as Stan Letterman and the Little League. What it means in that multitude of development as it dwindles out further and further.

Relative to a matter before us here, we have a contract, and as everybody has heard me say two and a half years ago to the Galbreaths, I was insulted when they brought me to the Three Rivers Stadium and showed me three out of four alternatives which indicated they were leaving. I said they were wrong then; I say they were wrong again to use that approach. But in fairness to Mr. Galbreath, I think the finest thing he had to say when he was at this table, after having been punched in the belly for the now two and a half years, and after being subject to all of the abuse that he was subjected to during the course of that hearing. He then got down to what I think is a substantial thing and I think it should not be passed just without question. It's not easy for a businessman to sit here and take the kind of abuse that he did. It's not easy for a businessman to not take monies when he should. There is no question and it is a greed fact to which no one has said otherwise that the Pirates, in fact, the Three Rivers Management, are losing money. And if Mr. Galbreath as any other businessman is a businessman, they can only afford to do that so long. You don't make money losing money.

So I think we go back to that question. Do we or do we not want the Pirates here? And I think someone would have to be, as far as I see it, financially, emotionally, economically, any other sense, idiotic to want to get the Pirates and the Steelers out of this town. But it is true, we must have concerns about this City of Pittsburgh. And that's what we attempted to do. And in order to cloud the picture, we attempted to do a lot of what I call below the belt attacks, we tried to bring someone here to say that they're going to take the policemen out of their neighborhood under the new agreement and put them there. We're not taking any more police out of any neighborhood than we are right now. That was just a red hearing trying to find some excuse in attempting to appeal falsely to the community and the neighborhoods rather than in their best interest.

It wasn't bad enough after we attacked the Galbreaths, Judge Del Sole spent some fourteen months on this deal. He didn't get paid any extra. It took a lot of effort. He spend a lot of time. And all he tried to do, as I see it, was to arrive at an agreement, the best compromising agreement that those people could offer, which eventually became Agreement 2. And all we can say for him today is, "He's a bum." Well, I don't subscribe to that theory. We want to attack and say it's secret, it was gagged, surreptitious. All those kind of adjectives ought to speak for the speaker rather than the person about whom they are talking about.

Then we attacked the corporations. Then when that's not sufficient, we start attacking the Mayor.

Michelle Madoff:

I wish you wouldn't say "we".

Mr. Stone:

Then we start attacking the Mayor. As far as the Mayor is concerned, the Mayor, politically if you want to take that end of it, is as concerned about how this affects the citizens as anyone else. I give the Mayor a great deal of credit on this one because he was out front on the issue, as the Mayor and the leader of the City ought to be. So he reserves our respect and not our attack and the kind of demean quality that's happened here.

But as I look at this thing from a financial end, regretfully, because of all the smoke screens that have been thrown aground here, we tend to make it complicated and complex. I see the issue as rather simple. And when we simplify it, it's easier to understand. Did I, two and a half years ago, attack the Galbreaths? Yes. Right now, I'm looking at an agreement and I'm worried about the City of Pittsburgh's interest and not how it affects the Galbreaths. I have an Agreement A that has twenty-nine more years to go, where we're bound for some $1.2 million without any possibility of offsetting it. Even when the Pirates are riding high and the Steelers are riding high, we still had to subsidize the $1.2 million, without any ability to offset it. The agreement being offered to us does not change the amount of amusement tax, but perhaps, increases it. The business privilege tax will be the same. The wage tax will be the same and maybe more. The mercantile tax will be the same. The parking tax will be the same. So then we get down to look at it. Under Agreement A, are the Pirates bound to stay here for twenty-nine more years? The answer is yes. Under Agreement B, are the Pirates bound to be here for twenty-nine years? The answer is yes. And in fairness to everybody, if the Pirates were to go bankrupt under Agreement A, could they go bankrupt under Agreement B? The answer is yes. But it's less likely under Agreement B.

Relative to these two agreements, as I've indicated earlier, our obligation is $1.2 million in debt service. Again, with no opportunity to offset, under the new agreement, and we'd be wrong not to set it out out front as I did at the public hearing. In addition to the $1.2 million debt service that we owe, we are picking up an additional six hundred thousand dollars, now making it $1.8 million. But, there is a very substantial material difference that anyone who is being responsible must look at. Is there an opportunity for us to get back any of that money? In rentals we can offset the six hundred thousand dollars, and we're well on our way to shooting into the $1.2 million. That's the potential that it comes under Agreement B. In addition, under Agreement A, we have no possibility, we ourselves, to institute development. Under Agreement B, the new agreement, we now have the opportunity to develop. It's our opportunity to develop. In addition to that, if you're going to mention the highway system, it's now on movement, although I didn't add as much weight to the access problem as others might. But in the development area, there is sufficient grounds there for which we can now develop. We can't hold it against the Three Rivers Management for not doing it. It will be within our movement and within our power, within our jurisdiction to do it. But in addition, as I pointed out last Wednesday, everyone has always envisioned a motel on that site and to just show what a small motel can do, I gave you some statistics on a hotel in this City that has not been operating at full level, has not been operating a full year, and they've been able to give to the City and school two hundred thousand dollars already.

We're asked to be judicious and to be responsible. At that public hearing I told everyone early that what I wanted to hear before the meeting was over was where the City of Pittsburgh is going to have to pay. No one for the balance of that meeting came forward and said, "Financially, this City was going to lose." In that sense, the merits of the case before us, whether the City of Pittsburgh stays with Agreement A or goes to Agreement B, there is no question that we have to go to B because it's better than we now have. And in view of that, we have already prolonged this too long. We've already tolerated rhetoric too long. It's time we get down to the business at hand, and financially help this City better than we're helping it right now.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, I think you stated the case very eloquently. And I must say that I agree with everything you've said. I agree that the Mayor has as much riding politically as any of us. The only difference being that those of us who run in seven months, the public will not be as forgiving or loss of memory as they will be in three years when you and the Mayor and others run. And that's just a fact of life.

I also think that you've stated, better than I probably could, that when you talk about out of city people coming in, if indeed it is true, that only twenty percent of the City people are using the Stadium, then at least we're getting some money and that $30 million is being generated a great deal in part from non-City residents, and Lord knows, they certainly owe us something.

I agree with Councilman Flaherty that if we have a strike, indeed, the City is going to pick that deficit up as we did last year, but that would happen under, as you stated Councilman Stone, under Contract A or B. Is that not right? And under A or B we have to pick up the losses. And the deficit, as even Councilman Flaherty said, is merely, and I say merely in the overall scheme of things, a six hundred thousand dollars difference going from 1.2 to 1.8, and while I personally would never go to hear the Rolling Stones, I don't like rock concerts, I will tell you a fact of life, that the Neil Diamond concert was sold out for two nights and it could have been sold out for six nights, and if we had a larger facility, one shot with Neil Diamond, Frank Sinatra, would probably make up that six hundred thousand dollar difference, or a Sinatra or a Liberace, and Liberace has a great affinity and a deep feeling for our city because they saved his life here, and I'm sure that he would come, and I think we could get that difference made up. And I think, as you stated, we really don't have a choice.

But I would like to ask, if I have your permission Mr. President, Mr. Stone a question if he's willing to answer it. Well, I think that you said it very eloquently. Don't you also agree, Mr. Stone, that the public in general, and you've probably been subjected to what I've been subjected to, you weigh a little bit more than I and they're more inclined to take a whack at me than they would at you, don't you really feel that the people are really up in arms? Are really distressed? Perhaps because, I believe, because they don't understand the facts? And why would you object to waiting one week? What difference would it make to give the public one week to absorb exactly what you said as opposed to making it look like we railroaded them? You have the hearing on a Tuesday, we move on a Wednesday, and we vote final vote on a Monday. Now why would you object, as a Finance Chairman, to let the people not feel they're being railroaded even though I feel that you are right in what you've said? Could you answer that, please?

Mr. Stone:

First of all, I think you're out of order because that issue was already debated and already ruled on and voted on.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think I'm out of order. I think we're colleagues. I think I'm treating you with respect, that I would like to think you would treat me with, and other members of Council. I merely asked you a question, as a lady to a gentleman. As a member of this Council, I would like to ask you why we cannot wait one week and give the public a chance to really have some of us get out there in the public media and explain the facts, because I find when I talk to the people and I explain the facts, they say, "Well, I don't want anymore taxes, but go vote for it." When they understand it.

The Chair:

Michelle, regardless of Mr. Stone's answer, we already voted on the issue. What's the difference.

Michelle Madoff:

But I would like to know why Mr. Stone won't answer the question.

Mr. Stone:

I think this issue, based on the merits at a public hearing, was aired well. There is no reason to hold it any longer so that additional obstacles of rhetoric can participate in this debate.

Michelle Madoff:

Why is it rhetoric when I ask you a polite question and it's not rhetoric when you're rude? I think he was. He said it was out of order for me to ask a question and that's rude.

Mr. Flaherty:

I would just want to respond to Councilman Stone, and that's to tell Councilman Stone that I am going to be consistent and I am going to stick by what I have said here today and the past few months, even up to election eve, and even on election day, but I'll never be a hypocrite and before an election, as some Councilmembers do, come out with a lot of tough talk and go, "A contract is a contract, and I'm not going to put a nickel in this Stadium." And then after election day, they sell the taxpayer out.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Givens and I voted against last year's budget.

The Chair:

Question called for.

Mr. Givens:

Aye, and I'd like all my remarks from Wednesday to be brought forward.

(BEGINNING OF MR. GIVENS'
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1196 FROM
WEDNESDAY, 7/21/82)

Mr. Givens:

Sometimes we hear things as to how we are going to pre-judge our vote on this particular bill. It is said it's going to be seven-two or eight-one, whatever combination. I might have to say I think all of us on this Council at one time or another have been on the one-vote side, and especially this Council on many occasions has been the one only vote, so if Mr. Flaherty is feeling bad out there on this particular one vote, then he has company on this Council.

As I have indicated, Mr. Chairman, one had to go to the Stadium, watch the ballgame in the wintertime, slip on the ice from the broken pipes where they have to put salt and sand in order to keep it safe. If we went to the same ballpark in the summertime, one would be slipping on the slime that was created by the pipes still broken and leaking. One had to look at the caulking around the whole Stadium, to sit and try to watch a ballgame when it was raining when, if you were under cover, it did not guarantee you were not going to get wet, and many people did.

I had a concern when I went into the Stadium and watched those first couple ball games some eight years ago. When I got onto Council, I very actively got involved in what was going on in there. If I vote to have Mr. Smith, who was then the Stadium Authority's Chairman, before this Council today, he would assure you that he and I had many long discussions on what was going on over there. It is too bad that our ex-Councilperson, Jim Lally, who is now the Executive Director of the Stadium Authority, could not come up and speak to some of the issues that were going on over there. There was an impasse. I exerted my influence over these people and other members of the Board for the last several years. About two and a half years ago I said get tough policy. It was only then, about two and a half to three years ago, did the Stadium Authority really knuckle under and try to force, through legal harassments and other means, the Three Rivers Management to do something to repair that particular stadium.

I think if anything the Three Rivers Management beat the Stadium Authority to the punch of who was going to get legal counsel. I think when they looked at that arbitration agreement that was there, they felt, Three Rivers Management probably felt that they had a better course if they went through the courts versus going into arbitration, because it was almost beyond the arbitration point.

Two and a half years ago, I really looked into the contractual agreements on Three Rivers Stadium. It was at that time that I really became convinced that the Stadium was not turned over in the proper condition, that the Stadium road system was something that should have been completed long ago, that the $11 million-plus, that is $11 million in the hole, that the Three Rivers Management proved to me in the sit-down discussions with them over and above the normal maintenance they still went $11 million in the hole, and no business, regardless of how much money or what millionaires they might be, is going to continue with that type of a loss.

I asked the Mayor about that two and a half year period to intercede. I felt it was so, the impasse was so great at that particular time that if Mayor Caliguiri did not do something, I feared very definitely that we would lose a major league franchise within the City.

We talk about the type of seating arrangements that we have within the Stadium, and I am not going to sit here and pre-judge and say whether it should be a box seat, whether it should be 35 seats in the particular area. I leave that to the experts, the consultants, and the Stadium people that run that Stadium. They know better than anybody what is going to sell.

It was interesting at yesterday's hearing and today it was brought up, the County versus the City in regards to both of us working together on this particular stadium. The County, from day one, never wanted to come in, and the City asked them to come in on this last go-around. When the City asked them to come in on this last go-around, what they were giving us, they were talking, and the City Administration rightfully so decided if you're not going to help in another way, then why should we do this, and I have to agree with them on that.

We think of the long-range benefits of this stadium. It will be in the 28 years from this date after the 40-year bond issue that we will own that stadium, lock, stock, and barrel. Today, we do not own it. It is not ours. It is the Mellon Bank's until we pay that mortgage off.

We talk about bringing income into the City. It is unusual that one would say that 80 percent of the people at the Stadium are from out of town, and I love it all, even if it was 95 percent from out of town, because they are bringing money into our hopper. This is what we want. In those 28 years those people coming into the City of Pittsburgh will generate revenue for this City, reducing the tax burden, so it is a long-range program. One of the Councilpeople said about $60 million this is going to cost us in the long run or even reducing it down to fifty-some million. I have to look at that and say that, as the Chamber of Commerce so indicated yesterday, if there is a $37 million spinoff and you just times that by 28, you come up to a little over some $1.1 million. Now, hypothetically, even if we just took ten percent of that, we're coming up with over a hundred and some million dollars, a hundred-some million dollars; and we know that $37 million figure, according to all the economists you can times four times five that of the circulation in the community, taxes that will be eventually brought back to the City of Pittsburgh. That reduces the $60 million, as far as I am concerned.

You talk about land value, and I think that is something that is of a great asset to the City of Pittsburgh. We had a gentleman speak yesterday of some $2 million that, taxes that we are losing on that barren land over there. It was under the Pirates' administration. Now, after this vote today, hopefully, it will be under the City of Pittsburgh administration, the Stadium Authority, of which we have a Councilperson sitting on that particular Authority, and I am sure that land development will go forward. If we can look at the track record of Renaissance II in the City, I think if the Mayor says he is going to do something in a particular Renaissance development area, I think he will do it. That is proven by everything that happened in the downtown development area, North Side, Manchester area, and other.

We heard yesterday and we talk about the Pirates not wanting to leave or because of substantial investments within the City, but yet, yesterday we heard Art Rooney speak out to the fact that he knew before even Galbreath knew, and he never even told Dan Galbreath and John Galbreath that the Pittsburgh Pirates were going to go to the New York franchise, not to the City of Pittsburgh, not to the City of Pittsburgh, then, and I think that is something that we must realize. We also heard yesterday that there were ten or twelve cities looking for these teams and would bring them in there at no cost to the particular team itself.

I feel, in summation, that the bottom line is to have a national league team, both football and baseball, here in the City of Pittsburgh. The bottom line is jobs, as was discussed yesterday also, and that equals money, and money, ladies and gentlemen, equals taxes. It is the tax burden that the City will not have. This in itself equals to keep the ball clubs here in the City of Pittsburgh, equals prestige to all of Pittsburgh. They are the best ambassadors of all, and we see Franco and Willie Stargell sit up here and say in their travels, as all of us traveled throughout this country, we know what it means to be the City of Champions.

(END OF MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON
BILL NO. 1196 FROM WEDNESDAY,
7/21/82)

Michelle Madoff:

I regret deeply that we are not giving the public another week to understand the ramifications, that indeed, they are the ones that own the Stadium and that they will be paying the deficits, whether it's Contract A or B, but in the best interests of the public, because they will pick up that tax deficit, I must vote yye.

Mr. O'Malley:

Aye and I'd like my remarks from Wednesday's hearing brought forward.

(BEGINNING OF MR. O'MALLEY'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1196 FROM
WEDNESDAY, 7/21/82)

Mr. O'Malley:

I would like to take the other side of that issue. I support the contract because it was shown that it would be completely paid for by a users' tax, but when I think of the consequences of the other side of the issue that Mr. Flaherty proposes, that if we force the Galbreaths and we force the Pirates into court for the next three or four years, the consequences, the effect it would have on this City.

Now, I asked Mr. Galbreath at this table here that if he was held to the old contract, would that financial liability possibly force the Pirates into bankruptcy. Mr. Galbreath stated right here at this table that it would.

Now, the consequences of the Pirates going bankrupt would mean that the City would have to assume all the additional bond expenses. There would be a possible 1,000 jobs lost, and there would be a $37 million ripple effect in the economy in the City of Pittsburgh also lost if we lose the Pirates.

I asked Mayor Caliguiri if the City could sustain Three Rivers Stadium with tax dollars if we lose the Pirates, and he emphatically said no, which leads to a real possibility that if we lose the Pirates, we would also lose the Steelers. Now, if we lose the Steelers, we lose an additional 500 jobs, we lose an additional $12 million in the Pittsburgh economy, which gives us now a total loss of $49 million in Pittsburgh's economy. The City ends up with a responsibility of a $2.2 million bond issue debt that we will have to pay for out of taxpayers' dollars, and we end up with a white elephant stadium over there not used for anything but maybe a large bird's nest.

There is another good point that was brought up, and Mr. Flaherty suggested it here, that many people in the City of Pittsburgh have never been in Three Rivers Stadium, and it's true. It was brought up by a speaker yesterday. There are many people on unemployment and fixed incomes that cannot afford a ticket, but they enjoy sitting home and watching the games on the television set with their friends. They enjoy staying home and listening to the games on the radio, and this is a free source of entertainment for these people to watch the Steelers and to watch the Pirates play on television. I think these things take into consideration that this Council has no choice but to support the new lease arrangements with the Pirates and the Galbreaths, and I think it is in the best interests of the City of Pittsburgh.

Again, I just want to emphasize that it is going to be supported completely by a users' tax, so I would urge my colleagues to support the new lease arrangement.

(END OF MR. O'MALLEY'S REMARKS
ON BILL NO. 1196 FROM WEDNESDAY,
7/21/82)

Mr. Stone:

Aye, and I'd like the closing remarks of the Wednesday's meeting of mine brought forward.

(BEGINNING OF MR. STONE'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1196 FROM
WEDNESDAY, 7/21/82)

Mr. Stone:

I think the citizens have a right to complain, and they had an opportunity to complain; and the issue should be, as everybody is trying to say, there have been a lot of accusations that our tax base is too high; this is going to cause it to go higher; our citizens are going to have to pay for this and they are going to have to pay for that; and that's good noise. Some people may call it politics, but let us, for the moment, look at the merit and the substance of the circumstance that is before us, and if it turns out that after the merits point to a direction, that might be better politics, because that is good politics, because you are doing what the substance and the merit of the issue determines. Forget for a moment anything else and look before you. You have two agreements. One is a choice you can ignore and stay right where you are, and the other is to look at the second one to see if you can gain anything from it. First of all, under both of them we have the Pirates for 29 years, at least legally. Whether they go bankrupt under one or the other, it would be the same consequences. Relative to agreement one, we have an obligation to pick up on debt service $1.2 million with no possibility of offsetting that other than a prayer and hope that they are champions again; and even being champions, by the way, and I might say this — even with both teams being champions, we still had to put a subsidy in there, which means that is not enough.

Agreement number two increases our obligation by six thousand dollars and the $1.2 million and the six thousand dollars takes us to $1.8 million with one major substantive difference. For the first time we can now do something about bringing not only the six hundred thousand dollars down but reducing materially the $1.2 million; and as has been indicated, the University of Pittsburgh is to play there and, as I understand it, that one is somewhere between seventy-five thousand dollars and one hundred thousand dollars for one or two games. I am not sure. The possibility of rock shows or others, that can offset and bring the whole thing down.

The field is now, contrary to agreement one, as far as the Pittsburgh Steelers are concerned, there is an auxiliary field, which makes the Three Rivers Stadium open for more rental purposes.

Secondly, under agreement one, all development potential is under the Three Rivers Management. Under agreement two, all development facilities are under the City of Pittsburgh.

One of the things that everybody has complained about is whether or not there should be a motel there. I gave you figures yesterday of a motel operation, not in full force, and for one year that has rendered to the City of Pittsburgh in its reduced-level early start-up $120,000 a year, also, some $50,000 to $60,000 to the school district, a total of a hundred seventy-some thousand dollars, showing us from the development we can get moneys from it. The idea of a development, and we, for our own selfish interests, have to develop it, we now have the right to develop. We can't blame anybody else for the lack of development, and that not only brings us real estate taxes; that brings us amusement tax; that brings us the occupation tax; that brings us the wage tax.

It would appear to me that all of the cards on the second agreement is not, while it comes off as a compromise from the parties with Judge Del Sole as the best they could give, it at least is an agreement better than what we now have. It does not cost the City of Pittsburgh residents any money. I telegraphed very clearly yesterday. At that time there were four people who had announced their decisions, and I indicated, unless I had facts to the contrary, that my vote, at least, would be number five if the other one was not there. At that particular time the facts support the fact that we can come out of this thing not costing the City of Pittsburgh as much money as the present agreement. It would be folly for us to reject something that is going to cost us less than the thing we have now. I have nothing further.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I think, if we could have the City Clerk look into the air conditioning in this particular building. We almost as well off is we just opened up the windows and get the fresh air. It's a seventy-five degree temperature in here and with the humidity as high as it is, I don't think it's working or that lock box is not doing what it's supposed to be doing. Either one of the two.

Also, Mike, the staff back here need some air they need it very quickly. If they're to do an efficient job, then I think we should get replacement air conditioners in here while they're repairing the other ones; not that we sit here for a week and swelter. I think it's unfair to the staff and I'd like both of those to be looked into and by this Wednesday, if you could please come back with a report on this particular air conditioner and get replacements for these other ones.

Mr. Givens moved to approve the minutes of Monday, July 19, 1982.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Givens

Council adjourned.

The Chair:

Before the regular Order of Business, Mr. Robinson has a resolution he would like to present. Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson presented

No. 1419 WHEREAS, the Black Solidarity Fair has recently concluded its 11th Annual Fair at the David Leo Lawrence Convention Center; and

WHEREAS, the Black Solidarity Fair has been a positive vehicle for the protection and appreciation of Afro-American and African heritage in the Pittsburgh community; and

WHEREAS, 1982 marks the first year that a queen and court were selected to represent the Black Solidarity Fair and the Beauty/Talent Pageant was a first for young ladies between the ages of 18 and 29; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lindsay Hargrove, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee and Mrs. Brenda J. Simons, Production Manager of the Pageant developed and presented a quality pageant and in doing so have brought honor and praise to the City of Pittsburgh.

NOW THEREFORE

BE IT RESOLVED that the Council and the Mayor, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh does honor and recognize the Black Solidarity Fair 1982 Queen, Miss Renee Haynes, the First Runner Up, Miss Kim Phillips, and the Second Runner Up, Miss Marlese Robinson and wishes them well in their future endeavors.

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson moved for adoption.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, the Queen and her Court are here, as well as the consignments and Mr. Hargrove, and they would like to say a few words and receive these gold seal copies of the resolution.

The Chair:

Would the Queen and her Court come up here now?

Renee Haynes:

I am Renee Haynes, the first Miss Black Solidarity of the Solidarity Fair. Part of the preliminary requirements for entrance into the pageant was to write an essay describing why we felt we should be Miss Black Solidarity; and if you would be tolerant, I would like to share with you my essay.

Fashion modeling is not the only opportunity I look forward to being Miss Black Solidarity, 1982. Role modeling is be another opportunity. By way of public appearances on radio and television, and speaking in the community, I hope to help blacks and other minorities in a very positive way.

I have been involved in civic and community activities for many years. For the past five years I have been active on the Governor's Juvenile Justice Advisory Committee. This Committee is very concerned with providing services for the prevention of juvenile delinquency in Pennsylvania.

This July I became involved in a national multi-cultural drug prevention symposium sponsored by NIDA, National Institute on Drug and Alcohol Prevention through the Center for Multi-cultural Awareness (CMA). We believe that substance abuse is not a culture specific problem.

Since 1980 I have been involved with academically underprepared and economically disadvantaged young adults at Wheeler School as director of the Act 101 program there. I am disappointed with the continued lack of preparation when proper training could open the doors of opportunity for tomorrow.

This year I will begin graduate studies for a degree in Public Administration at the University of Pittsburgh. I rose from the ranks of the struggling underprepared and struggling student to have received an undergraduate degree in Sociology in 1976. Through the support and encouragement of role models in local communities, and the progressive statements of national black leaders, I maintain a high motivation and take pride in my achievements in spite of difficulties.

Maintaining a positive attitude along with the drive to prepare for tomorrow is a basic philosophy of mine. This approach can also work for others.

Being Miss Black Solidarity would help me share this drive and motivation. I would hope my activities as a role model would serve as my contribution towards the solidarity of blacks and other minorities through a positive and goal oriented approach.

Thank you very much.

Brenda J. Simons:

Good afternoon, I am Brenda J.

Simons, I was a production manager for the pageant and it was just beautiful. I would like to extend warm thanks to Mr. Robinson for having us here today.

Councilman Robinson, we would like to ask you if you would please come up and have a picture taken with us. Thank you.

I would now like to introduce Mr. Lindsay Hargrove who was responsible for the entertainment part of the pageant. Mr. Hargrove.

Mr. Lindsay Hargrove:

Thank you. I would just like to say that I thank the public for their fantastic support and encouragement for the Fair, this is the Eleventh Annual Solidarity Fair this year, but it is the first Annual Miss Black Solidarity Pageant. The public response was fantastic and I hope this can be the beginning of many more to come. Thank you.

The Chair:

We would certainly like to add our congratulations to the Black Solidarity Fair and to the Queen and her Court, and to the good looking Councilman Bill Robinson. I don't know how he got in there.

Now to get back to the regular order of business, Presentation of Papers, Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, while you are on resolutions, may I present one please?

Mr. Stone presented

WHEREAS, the impact of the military budget on the City's economy has a direct relation to jobs and social services; and

WHEREAS, it would be in the best interest of the citizens of Pittsburgh to be informed of the monies spent on the military; and

WHEREAS, taxpayers have the right to be informed of the federal tax money paid from the citizens of Pittsburgh to the federal government for use by the military,

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby urges the Mayor to present an annual report on the tax monies paid per capita and the total by the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh to the federal government that is allocated to military spending. The report shall include an analysis of the impact of the military budget on the City's economy in relation to jobs and social services. The Mayor shall advertise this analysis in two prominent daily newspapers in the City.

Mr. Stone moved for adoption.

The Chair seconded the motion.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may explain for a moment. Being mindful that the Mayor has vetoed the Ordinance which went to him relative to the military spending aspect of it, and being mindful that if the Mayor's veto were sustained, then there would be no possibility of having a resolution or anything for the balance of the year on this subject; I indicated when I voted against the prior referendum rule, that I, in thought, supported it, but did not feel that it was a proper matter to be a Charter amendment — to go on a referendum, and then likewise to go in as a Charter amendment.

The Mayor has indicated in his veto that he agreed in principle, he also indicated that he would comply with the request of it, and I thought this issue might best be served at least, if we were able to have a resolution giving the consensus of this Council relative to that matter.

The language here, in fairness, is directly from the original, but handled in a resolution, a regular Monday resolution form, rather than a request for a referendum. I did this in hopes that we somehow can get a compromise on this issue and get the consensus, as I have indicated, on the regular Ordinance which calls for a referendum, which I think is improper, and secondly calls for a Charter amendment on this matter, I think is improper, I would then have to vote no. But I think with this kind of consensus and the Mayor's written statement that he will comply, this would be more in line and I would be willing to support it. But the language, in fairness, comes from the other and I don't claim any authorship of it.

The Chair:

I only wonder if we are not putting the horse before the cart.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes we are.

The Chair:

We have a veto up here today, if the veto is not sustained, then the resolution was not necessary.

Mr. Stone:

You can't bring it up after, that is the reason I am trying to do it this way. I don't care either way, okay? I am suggesting that we get a consensus and have it done by resolution. If you wait until after that vote is taken and if the Mayor's veto is not sustained, then you would be prohibited from coming in with any other matter on that same matter for the balance of the year, as I understand it, Parliamentary Procedure-wise. I am only trying to give it some saving factor in the event that the votes don't hold.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, could we have a ruling from the Parliamentarian, as far as to the legitimacy of this resolution, since the wording is exactly the same as the proposed amendment to the Home Rule Charter; I believe that this is unprecedented, I believe that there is very, very similar — I can't see how you could get any more similar — the word is not similar, the word is exactly the same — identical bill is in front of this Council, and I have never seen a precedent, or I have never seen a member of Council that would not extend the courtesy to another member of Council, to let that person's measure be acted on, and not come in and try to usurp someone else's idea, or someone else's legislation. This bill was introduced a month ago, we had a public hearing, in fact we had at least a four hour public hearing on it, we had extensive debate, this measure passed Council by a vote of seven to two. I think this measure should take priority, and as far as Councilman Stone's arguments that we would close the door on this measure, if my proposed amendment to the Charter should fail, I don't agree with that because this is strictly a superfluous resolution.

The Mayor has already agreed to submit an annual report on military spending. The Mayor says in his veto message: "I will, however, satisfy the objective of this bill by using all readily available information to submit annually to Council, a report stating that the amount of money paid by the citizens of Pittsburgh toward the national defense, including an analysis of the military budget on the City's economy in relation to jobs and social services". The Mayor has already agreed in writing. There is no reading between the lines, it is to the point, he says I will, not that I shall. This bill is completely superfluous and it has no meaning, and I want a ruling from the Parliamentarian if it even has a right to be acted upon now.

The Chair:

Young lady, you have heard the Councilman's request.

Mr. Flaherty:

And I just want to add, because it is a law of Council also, that a bill cannot be introduced — a similar bill cannot be introduced during a term of the session. And what we are doing is introducing an identical bill after a bill has not even been finally acted upon and has been in this Council for four weeks.

The Chair:

Well, that is my concern also Mr. Flaherty, and I think I have to agree with you, but at the same time if we could have a formal opinion — do you understand what the Councilman has said? A resolution has been proposed and it deals with the veto today, almost completely. Can we act on the resolution?

Parliamentarian:

Do you want a determination on that immediately?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes.

Mr. Stone:

Do you understand the issue?

Parliamentarian:

Yes I do.

Mr. Stone:

Before you leave, let's make sure. If after voting on the Mayor's veto, and the Mayor's veto is not sustained, the issue is whether you can bring a resolution up afterwards, it is my contention you can't.

Relative to this resolution, this is a matter of doing it before time, and this is a resolution rather than an ordinance, okay?

Mr. Flaherty:

Then wait — wait. Hold on one second. Because if that thought holds true, then the next step is going to be, if Council acts on this resolution, then Councilman Stone, if he is consistent in his logic, he is going to come back and argue that the proposed amendment that was introduced a month ago is superfluous and cannot be acted upon because we have already acted on a similar resolution.

Mr. Stone:

No, that is not my intent at all. Whether you like it or not, my intent is well meaning at this point. I am saying that if the veto is sustained, then you have nothing and you can't bring anything up for the rest of the year. The only thing I am suggesting here is, and I told you this going in — this is an exact copy from the other one and all it gets is a consensus from this Council in line with the Mayor's desire to comply. I think that makes some sense. Now if you don't want it, fine.

Mr. Flaherty:

No, I think --

The Chair:

Wait, the first part we have to do first, and find out if this resolution can be entered before we act on the veto.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, with an identical bill that is on the veto; and could you also check to see if a veto takes precedent on the agenda over any other matter.

The Chair:

Okay, do you have that clear? Now, we will get back to that when the young lady comes back up and we will get back on with the regular Order of Business, Presentation of Papers.

The Chair presented

No. 1411 Petition from citizens of Pittsburgh requesting City Council to hold public hearings on the attempt to assign monies from the $300,000 originally allocated to renovate Kingsley House to a project to erect a fire station on the Northside of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Now we will go on to the Reports of Standing Committees, Finance, Mr. Stone.

Mr. Flaherty:

Could we have the vote, Mr. President, on the veto? I mean, the veto, it is my understanding that a veto message takes priority over any other pertinent matters.

The Chair:

Its quite alright with me.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, hold up. I just want to very clearly say it. I am well meaning at this point, if it is not done before, it can't be done afterwards.

Mr. Flaherty:

And that means it is going to kill the veto question because we won't even have a vote on it. The veto --

Mr. Stone:

Just a minute Tom --

Mr. Flaherty:

No, no, Bob. You're playing games. You're playing games.

Mr. Stone:

Let me finish talking. I don't interrupt you, don't interrupt me.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay.

Mr. Stone:

As I said before, its well meaning. This will give us an opportunity to say what we want to say no matter what the other one is. If the other one fails, then we can't even put a resolution after that. I am only trying to do something here to play an insurance program, whereby as far as this bill is concerned, since everyone agrees with the principle, but not the method in which it is being handled. As I indicated, where I part company on it is the matter of whether it is a referendum issue and whether it is an amendment to the Charter. As far as the principle involved in the resolution, I am supporting that, and I indicated I don't want to claim any authorship of it, all I did was try to pick up the same thing so there is no game play here. It is a sincere effort and I want everybody to know in front.

The Chair:

Everybody agrees with everybody, so therefore, we will go ahead with the Unfinished Business and have a vote on the veto.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, may I respond? If need be, I think we are going to have to hold this meeting until we receive an opinion on the two questions that were asked of the City Solicitor, because I feel very strongly and I resent, being author of this legislation, that someone takes my exact legislation and puts their name on it. My identical legislation, and I don't consider that well meaning, I take that personally and professionally, and it is a blow to every member's extended right to courtesy on this City Council. And as far as it being well meaning, I believe it is a surreptitious play to stymie the will of the public and I don't think this Council should be a part of it. It is in the tradition of that three-headed monster we put on in regard to district elections, and it is ironic that the same person sponsored that is sponsoring this.

The Chair:

I don't think there is any problem there, under Unfinished Business Linda.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I think we have a ruling that we have to wait for, the ruling is, how can we act if we don't have an opinion as to if a veto resolution takes precedent over all other pertinent matters, and we don't --

The Chair:

I was only following your request in saying that we had to act on the Unfinished Business. Now you are saying to go back to doing what we were doing before, waiting for this opinion.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, Mr. President, I am of the belief that a veto takes precedent over all Unfinished Business. That is why it is first on the agenda and I think if this Council is going to act in accordance with the laws that govern it that we will have to take a brief recess until we have an opinion from the City Solicitor's office.

Mr. Stone:

Hold on a second -- let me just ask Councilman Flaherty a question. Do you want me to withdraw the resolution?

Mr. Flaherty:

Do I want you to withdraw the resolution?

Mr. Stone:

I'll give you your choice today. If you want me to withdraw it I will. I'm telling you this is in the best interest of what should be done, but if you tell me to withdraw it, I will withdraw it.

Mr. Flaherty:

I would appreciate it if you withdraw the resolution.

Mr. Stone:

I withdraw the resolution at the request of Councilman Flaherty. I want that understood, that I am withdrawing it because he has asked me to do it.

The Chair:

I withdraw the second.

Mr. Flaherty:

Wait, I have another question for the Solicitor's Office, as far as the withdrawal of the resolution goes. Because if a member — I think we are getting into some legalise and we are going to be splitting some hairs in our next breath on this issue.

If a member withdraws a resolution, is that the same as this resolution having never been introduced?

Mr. Stone:

That's right.

Mr. Flaherty:

It is?

Mr. Stone:

Yes. It is put in and I am taking it out only because you asked me to take it out. Therefore, it will have no effect at all.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. I appreciate that Councilman Stone.

Mr. Stone:

Allright. I want it understood that I am doing it only because you asked me.

The Chair:

The resolution and the second have been withdrawn, now on to Unfinished Business.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presented

Bill No. 1412

City of Pittsburgh
Richard S. Caliguiri, Mayor

July 29, 1982

President and Members of Council
510 City-County Building
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Dear President and Members:

I am returning, as vetoed, Council Bill No. 880 of 1982 which authorizes a referendum question be placed on the ballot to supplement the Home Rule Charter to provide that I issue an annual report on federal tax money paid from the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh for use by the military.

While I am in support of the concept that the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh should be aware of what they contribute toward the cost of national defense and the impact it has on this City, I do not believe the best or proper method to achieve this result is by an amendment to the Home Rule Charter. The Home Rule Charter is a document that provides for the structure of City government and the management of affairs of the City. Council Bill No. 880 would place on the ballot for approval a provision that is not germane either to the structure of City government or the management of City affairs.

I will, however, satisfy the objective of this Bill by using all readily available information to submit annually to Council a report stating the amount of money paid by the citizens of Pittsburgh toward the national defense, including an analysis of the military budget on the City's economy in relation to jobs and social services.

America needs a strong national defense but this country is presently spending more than is needed to meet any real or perceived threat to our national security. Many of our nation's mayors approved a nuclear weapons freeze resolution which I co-sponsored at the recent U.S. Conference of Mayors in Minneapolis and joined me in expressing concern over the drain military spending puts on the federal budget while consequently placing a critical financial burden on our cities.

This extensive defense spending is coming at a time when many vital city improvement and social service programs are being curtailed or eliminated entirely by the federal government's economic policies causing hardships to all our citizens, most particularly the poor, the elderly and the needy.

I share Council's concern over the impact of military spending on our City's future economic growth and stability and will comply with the substance of Bill No. 880. My objection, as I have indicated, is with the method of processing the legislation.

I would ask that you reconsider your past action on this bill and sustain my veto.

Very truly yours,

Richard S. Caliguiri

RSC:fk

Which was read, received and filed.

Also,

Bill No. 880

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution directing the Allegheny County Board of Elections to place before the qualified voters of the City of Pittsburgh a referendum question as to whether or not said voters are in favor of supplementing the Home Rule Charter by requiring the Mayor to provide annual reports on the federal tax money paid from the citizens of Pittsburgh to the federal government for use by the military."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Do I hear a motion to sustain the Mayor's veto? Motion to sustain the Mayor's veto?

Mr. Stone:

I think it is a motion to override the Mayor's veto.

The Chair:

A motion to override then.

Mr. Flaherty:

I move to override the Mayor's veto.

The Chair:

Is there a second to override the Mayor's veto?

There is no second?

Mr. Flaherty:

Isn't anyone going to second this? I thought we had some commitments.

The Chair:

I will second the motion.

Mr. Flaherty:

Thank you very much Mr. President.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the veto?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, I wish to state my reasons why I feel that we should override the Mayor's veto, and I am going to try to restrict my comments to the veto itself, and as to the reasons why.

As I am sure we are all aware, the Mayor says that he believes in the intent of the legislation, and he has offered to submit an annual report to Council in regard to military spending, and its effects on the budget. Why I feel that it should be included in the Home Rule Charter, and I am going to reiterate the comments of Professor James Cunningham of the Graduate School of Social Work at the University of Pittsburgh, who was the Executive Director of the Home Rule Charter Study Commission, and who undoubtedly, if there is a father or a mother of this Home Rule Charter, or if there is an author, we would probably have to put the laurels to Professor Jim Cunningham — extend the laurels to him.

In the Preamble of the Charter it says, "the purpose of this Charter is a responsible City. A responsible City is one which seeks to insure that all of its citizens' needs are met, whether from public or private, city, county, state or national sources". I think everyone on Council, including the Mayor, would agree that all of our citizens' needs aren't being met and that we regularly pass resolutions urging Congress to address those needs in one category or the other, and that we have a Mayor who is active in going to Washington on a regular basis, who is testifying in an official sense in front of various federal committees and sub-committees. And I also think that we all agree that military spending is impairing the needs of many of the citizenry of Pittsburgh.

I would also want to quote the second Section where I feel this resolution has a license to be in this Charter, and that is under Section 204, The Powers and Duties of the Mayor: "The Mayor shall have the following additional powers and duties". A, is to provide leadership for the advancement of City and achievement of the goals set forth in the Preamble of the Charter. That is the first duty and power that the Mayor has. That is A. Subsection A.

Under Subsection I, we have, "to promote intergovernmental relations; generally and specifically", by one, "initiating as well as cooperating in working relationships with other governments, public and quasi-public agencies for the promotion of public services, economic development and cultural activities of mutual benefit to all concerned". I believe that is relevant.

Second of all, "aggressively seeking funds for City programs from federal, state and county sources", that is relevant.

Third of all, "making periodic", I repeat this, "making periodic, public reports on the current status of the City's present and prespective relations with other governments; public and quasi-public agencies". I believe that is relevant.

Now, I believe that everything that I have stated in the Preamble and in Section 204 under The Powers and Duties of the Mayor are relevant. But I also agree that they are debatable, and I agree that Councilman Stone could debate them, and I agree that the Mayor could debat them. And since they are debatable, I think this Council should allow the public to debate this issue, because I believe the issue has a license, a strong license to legitimacy as far as being a question that the public should be entitled to vote on. I think there are strong arguments in favor of that legitimacy in the Preamble and The Powers and Duties of the Mayor, where this proposed amendment, if passed, would be implemented under the powers and duties of the Mayor.

So, I think this isn't a frivolous question. It is far from a frivolous question, and up to this stage I have not heard anyone say that this is a frivolous question. It seems to me though, that there are certain critics of the resolution who seem to be splitting some hairs. I maintain a proposed referendum question should not live or die on parliamentary maneuvering, on legalese, and on the splitting of hairs. And I think the people of this City are entitled to debate this issue and to vote their conscience. Because it is the people of the City that all of us maintain are suffering. Are suffering in a very real, essential sense, as far as housing, as far as food and as far as health care and as far as crime, and as far as the need to be mobile. Because of military spending.

So, let us -- let us go to the people that are suffering, and the people that are unemployed, and the people that are experiencing the anguish, the regional anguish, of increased military spending, and let them be the judge, let them decide as to if this should be a part of the Charter or not.

This is a working Charter. To reiterate Jim Cunningham, and I think we would all agree. It is like the Constitution, it is like the state Constitution. It is working, it was made to be amended, just like records were made to be broken. A governing set of laws was made to be amended, and it is legitimate when the government puts it to their people there is no purer form of democracy than letting the people vote on legitimate issue. I don't believe this issue clutters the ballot. This is an issue that certainly deserves the wisdom and the insights in the debate of the citizenry of the people of Pittsburgh.

I should just want to add also that this Charter belongs to the people. This Charter does not belong to the Mayor, this Charter does not belong to the City Solicitor, this Charter does not belong to City Council. This Charter belongs to the people. And I would hope that this Council would act in a fashion to extend this Charter to put this Charter into the hands of the people by letting them cast their vote on a very crucial issue that effects the majority of the people.

Mr. O'Malley:

I think that was very good Mr. Flaherty. You talked for ten minutes on something that is not relevant. There is no debate. To have a debate there must be two sides of an issue. There are not two sides of an issue here. I don't think it is important how this information gets out to the public, I think it is important that the information gets out to the public and I think that is what we are losing sight of here in this Council. I don't think there is any question of a debate. The Mayor agrees that he will relay this information. You want the informatin put out on a referendum and I really don't see the difference. I think that the issue is not how the people are informed of what percentage of the tax dollars go to support the military establishment, but that the people are informed is what is important. It is immaterial how they are informed.

I think once we make the information available, and they find out what percentage of their tax dollars are going to what we all consider a bloated military establishment, and that the cuts that were taken in their social programs, the cuts that were taken in their food stamps, the money that is being diverted to the military instead of rebuilding our cities, the money is being diverted to the military instead of providing decent housing for our people. I think this is the real issue that the people have to know and have to understand, what they are losing. I really think it is immaterial and if you can explain why you feel it is material that we put on a referendum instead of just having the Mayor voluntarily put this information out to the people.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. I will attempt to answer that. This proposed amendment was not my original idea. I was sought out by a strong coalition of individuals of community organizations of labor leaders, of concerned individuals, of people that are activist in the peace movement. These people feel very strongly that this City can be made aware through a campaign of public debate, of public initiative. That is what a referendum is, it is a public initiative, and I will be through in one minute Councilman O'Malley — and it is just as anyone who is seeking public office, who wants to be an elected public official, the process they have to go through, and it is the best process, is the process of a campaign, and the process of debate and give and take. To see if they, and what they stand for, are worthy of public service and public confidence, and that is —

Mr. O'Malley:

See, that is what I asked you Tom. There is no debate here.

Mr. Flaherty:

No it is a debate, because people took precious time out of their schedules and sat through a very long public hearing. There were 20 or 25 speakers and they were all in favor of putting this question on the ballot as an amendment to the Home Rule Charter. They weren't interested in having an unofficial report from the Mayor, and God forbid, but the Mayor who is in office now may not be in office tomorrow, and we may have another Mayor that may not feel the way that this Mayor feels. That is why this has to be part of the working Charter. It is not a temporary phenonema, just in relation to this Mayor, regardless of who is Mayor or who are the Mayors in the future, this will be a responsibility and a duty of those Mayors. And if a military issue of spending is not relevant 20 years from now, then it can be removed from the Charter just as it is added. And perhaps in 20 years it may not be relevant. Perhaps in 20 years we will have experienced a great peacemaker and we will not have a need for exhorbitant military spending. But today it is the most relevant issue in this country. It is ripping this country apart and it is an issue that this Council can show its belief in by just letting the people decide it. Have consideration for the proponents of measure and let the measure live or die as to whether it is going to receive the official imprimatur of the Mayor of this City. Let the people decide if this should be included in the Charter or not. Let the people weigh that argument, let the people weigh the argument of military spending, let the people weigh arguments that are not even in our imagination now. Just let them decide.

Mr. O'Malley:

So what you are saying is, how this information is arrived at, that is part of the Home Rule Charter, is important.

Mr. Flaherty:

Right, it is the process Jim, and also, it is going to be official and it is going to be a guarantee that regardless of who the Mayor of this City is, that he is going to fulfill a basic commitment to tell the people where close to half of their tax dollars are going. This is the most overriding issue in this country now, and I think Pittsburgh is taking the lead on it and I think we should stay in the race and we should be one of the first cities, be a leader in this nation and send something hard to Washington, that we are tired of our tax dollars not coming back, we are tired of our tax dollars going to regional economies, and California and Texas, we are tired of our tax dollars subsidizing Japan and Germany and they are putting their tax dollars into technology and putting our people out of work in the Steel Valley of this nation. Its about time we send something official.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, Mr. O'Malley I think has caught on to a point and that is, I thought the issue of the resolution were the key thing, whether or not we should have a reporting device or not. The Mayor has agreed to do it, it seems yes is not enough. There must be some ulterior motive as to why it has to be done in a different way. When you are asking for something and someone is giving it to you, then why complain?

If I want to be critical, and anyone who knows when you are amending a constitution or a charter, you don't do it with specific language. What you do is do it in a general way so that any other changes come under that elastic form so that you can change or do those multitude of things under some general language. Here we are asking for some report on tax monies relative to military spending. No one has any problem with that; but if we want to say later we want to know how much is going to men, how much to women, then we need another Charter change? Where some general language should have said that the Mayor be obligated to make reports which from time to time are requested by Council, could have done it. But I am not trying to be as critical as some people may think. I told you originally, my intent was well meaning. And if the Mayor has agreed to do it, then why is it necessary to go out on a referendum? Why should we spend money on a referendum. And if it is that important, what if it failed on a referendum? Are we not losing sight of what we really want to do, or is there some other ulterior motive that is not coming through? And why a Charter change? This is not a matter for the Charter. What is proposed here, as a legal interpretation, number one, is not from a legal person. And secondly, it is a stretch of the interpretation of the Charter at best.

I said before and I will say again, that I agree in principle with everything that is involved in the resolution. But a loose Charter change results in loose government. And to me, it is a matter of substance and materiality. I think it is wrong, and indicative of, again, where you talk too much and you find out the truth, that is, if you put it in by Charter referendum change, then to take it out, you then have to go back by a referendum and a Charter change. I think that is playing with the Charter too much. I think it is a material issue when you change the Charter. We should not change it on individual issues, we should change it on general issues so that we can bring everything into line.

As I indicated again, I just want to say very carefully — loose Charter changes result eventually in loose government, and I don't support that.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I would like to respond to what Councilman Stone has said. This amendment is a technical bland legal amendment. It is perfect for this Charter. There is no policy statement in this amendment and there is no course of action mandated in this amendment other than for the Mayor to make a report. As to how that Mayor wishes to make that report, that is entitled, up to the Mayor who the people of this City put their wisdom into. As far as to whether or not this belongs in the Charter, I stated four good reasons right out of this 25 page Charter — approximately 25 pages — as to why it should be in the Charter. As to the cost, granted, it will cost a thousand dollars to let the people speak. Just like it would cost a thousand dollars for all of us on Council, or anyone who wishes to run for office, the public will pay a thousand dollars to let you put your name on that ballot. That is not a great expense. I think if this question, I think, will return thousand times fold, services in the long run in this area if this Charter is enacted.

And as to why is it necessary to put it in the Charter, well, I am going to reiterate it one more time. Because 25 to 30 concerned citizens came. Took vital time out and lobbied this Council at the public hearing. Countless others have been lobbying this Council for the past month on this issue. There is no one, outside of one member of City Council, and the Mayor, that have argued against this not being in the Charter. It is about 50 to one on the ratio that this should be in the Charter. Now a vital segment of the public came forward and they want the rest of the public to vote on this, and I don't think this Council should stymie influential concerned public citizens that feel strongly in their hearts and their consciences on this matter. Let the people decide all the merits or demerits or criticism of this issue.

Mr. O'Malley:

You know I still find it hard to believe that the referendum calls for the Mayor to make the report. The Mayor has voluntarily agreed to make the same report. But there again, in speaking with Father O'Malley and feeling that the public should have a floor, and maybe it will make the public realize exactly what sacrifices we are making to have a ratio to kill everybody on this planet at ten to one, I will vote aye.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the veto?

And on the question, "Shall the veto be overridden?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale
	Pres't)

AYES 6 NOES 1
(MR. STONE VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the veto was overridden.

Mr. Flaherty:

I owe a heartfelt debt of gratitude to my colleagues and I believe the people that supported this will also always feel that gratitude.

MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS FROM THE MEETING OF THURSDAY, AUGUST 5, 1982:

Mr. Robinson:

Are those all projects to be started next year?

Mr. Schmeiser:

Yes, the first half of next year.

Mr. Robinson:

Did I understand you Ron, to say that these projects that are listed here, we are not totally committed to them?

Mr. Schmeiser:

No. I mean others may be substituted.

Mr. Robinson:

Now does that mean that no other projects will probably be included for whatever reason?

Mr. Stone:

There has been some reprogramming, but I think you have to stay close to the projects because what you are doing here is borrowing for the improvement of the City.

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's right. What I am saying is that we are going to have another bond issue next June to fund from July, 1983 to June, 1984.

Mr. Robinson:

Let me follow up on the point that Mr. Stone made. If we had another project that was going to be, for example, $5,149,316.00, could it be substituted for the Pittsburgh Zoo, Phase III Project. Does that speak to what you mentioned about staying close? Is it dollars that you are talking about?

Mr. Schmeiser:

No, I think generally, we would have to stay by department.

Mr. Robinson:

By department? Or does it have to be another project for that particular department? It roughly is the same amount of money.

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's right.

Mr. Stone:

Ron, I don't think that is the basis. The basis is that you are borrowing money but you are putting it into an improvement in the City, so it is still the same dollars.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay.

Mr. Stone:

You know, it is going from liquid cash into an asset so to speak. You are not really losing money, you have the value there.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, just one other concern and it relates to what Mr. O'Malley said. I am not going to argue the process that arrived at these particular projects, that is kind of senseless at this point. But it seems to me that what this points out is that there are probably some other capital projects, that for a variety of reasons have become issues that are not listed here that probably need to be addressed, and that at some future date, perhaps when the next bond issue goes out, I would hope we would have enough foresight to try to find out what some of those issues are.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. Robinson, as the end of this year we are going to go through all of the Capital projects that have been project in that five year plan.

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, let me just give you an example of what I am talking about. We have a very serious slide problem on Blessing Street which in part relates to some property that Mr. Kossman owns. His land is sliding out onto our street. I suggested on several occasions that we try to include --

Mr. Stone:

Is that below this?

Mr. Robinson:

No, this is another part of the City. But that we make some attempt to get that slide situation corrected. Okay, we have done a couple studies. It seems to me that that kind of project should have at least been included in this bond issue given the fact that we have eminent danger of a whole hillside coming down, a problem similar to Rural Street and something that has existed for 14 years.

Mr. Stone:

If they're not that heavy, maybe we'll pick up on CD.

Mr. Robinson:

Well, it may cost a quarter of a million dollars, at least, to do it. And I am saying the question is, is it sliding from the top, is it sliding from the bottom? It seems to me it is obviously sliding from the bottom because it is coming out on the bottom. But then we turn around and we make $4.5 million to Mr. Kossman to put in some ramps. Now I am not questioning whether or not we should give him an assist because certainly I supported that effort. I'm just saying that some of these other projects that have been mentioned, whether it be the fire house, or -- because I think the fire house should have been included, between me and you, I think there are a lot of projects that probably should have been included and I'm not even quite sure they ever got any consideration whatsoever and when I look down this list I just have some real concerns about what is not here, and I would hope that whatever process is utilized next time, that some of the projects that have been bounced back and forth across this table show up on this list of projects that are likely to be funded. We have talked on several occasions about our capital projects; we had a big controversy around our Capital Budget hearing last year and I think this bond issue keeps pointing up to that problem, that whatever process we are utilizing, it would appear that some of us here at this table are not privy to it because the projects that we would like to be at least included, they never come up.

Mr. Stone:

No, I think what is developing, and it is a good point you are bringing up. We are getting closer -- a good example is the Unspecified Local Option. We had roughly about thirty thousand left. We only have a request for two hundred and fifty to try to fit into that.

No matter how it gets there, there is now in excess of two hundred thousand, and what is happening now with where we are, we should be careful of this because it is going to be more difficult. You are going to end out with something like $5 million to $10 million in requests and all you've got is a million. I'm setting a hypo rather than an exact figure. But this is what we are going to get to which is regretful.

I think what they are doing here on this bond issue is trying to get those things that have to be done of the moment that are very important to us now. If you notice, some of the things in the exhibit, the downtown thing can't wait because you are holding up the whole subway thing and they want to finish that by a year this Christmas, if my memory serves me correctly, the Kossman thing I think, is more helping Greentree out of their problem rather than Kossman so much, because they are really getting the brunt of a hell of a problem with no tax interests.

MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

The final budget is the budget of this Council, we make the budget.

Mr. Stone:

That is my point.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Robinson presented

No. 1438 WHEREAS, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was formed in 1909 seeking decency and humane race relations for all Americans; and

WHEREAS, while striving for racial justice, the NAACP has won many victories in the courts, legislative halls, in the arena of public opinion, and through direct action in its unflinching struggle against race hate, bigotry and violence; and

WHEREAS, millions of members of this beneficial organization come from all races and religions, and are organized into more than 1,800 branches, youth councils and college chapters, some of the most active here in the City of Pittsburgh and throughout Western Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, these dedicated persons have been leading the civil rights movement, and have been responsible for lowering many of the barriers depriving black Americans of equality of opportunity; and

WHEREAS, the 25 chapters of the NAACP of Western Pennsylvania have planned a day of activities at Kennywood Park on August 27th, at which time they will demonstrate a unity of purpose and goals in an atmosphere of cordiality and coexistence.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of its citizens does hereby commend the leaders and members of the NAACP Chapters of Western Pennsylvania for participating in this meaningful conclave in our community, and recognizes August 27, 1982 as "NAACP DAY".

Mr. Robinson moved for adoption.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, Mr. Harvey Adams, President of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the NAACP, and a board member of the State NAACP, is here to accept this good seal resolution along with Mr. Raymond Rucker who is a Board Member of the Pittsburgh Branch NAACP. And with your consent, I'd like to have them come forward to accept this and make a few comments.

The Chair:

I'd just like to say that on behalf of City Council I'd like to congratulate the NAACP on the 73rd year of their existence. It's been a great organization, great leaders and we're very proud to have the local chapter president here today, Mr. Harvey Adams and Mr. Ray Rucker. If you please, gentlemen?

Mr. Harvey Adams:

I just want to thank you on behalf of the NAACP for the courageous stand Council has taken in the past, certainly flying in the wind of reason sometimes, to stand by the side of right, and we're extremely grateful for that. And we're extremely and eternally grateful for the thing that you've done today which certainly commemorates a very worthwhile effort on the part of the Pittsburgh Chapter NAACP and all the Western Pennsylvania Chapters of NAACP.

We welcome you out to spend the day of fellowship with us. We'll get you the exact times of the events and affairs, but we'd certainly like you to be there when the Western Pennsylvania NAACP queen is crowned. And we'll certainly share that honor with you as you've shared yourselves with us today. Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Again, congratulations, Harvey, and to all the NAACP. Harvey said he's a quiet and ascending guy like myself.

Also,

No. 1439 WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh is obligated to provide for the protection of the general public of the City of Pittsburgh and to address issues of public safety; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh is experiencing an increase in crime, and also an increase in the utilization of handguns in the commission of crimes;

and

WHEREAS, Citizens' organizations and average citizens have become incensed and alarmed at the crime and lack of safety in their communities; and

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Bureau of Police and Federal Bureau of Investigation statistics reflect the increased use of handguns in the City of Pittsburgh and the United States; and

WHEREAS, the average law-abiding citizen has become incensed at the increase in crime and lack of general public safety.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh on behalf of its citizens, does petition the Pennsylvania General Assembly to consider additional regulations on the sale, possession, distribution, manufacturing, and use of handguns. We further petition that the General Assembly consider prohibiting the manufacturing, distribution and sale of handguns with barrel lengths less than eight (8) inches and to permit local municipalities some additional regulation of firearms within their jurisdiction.

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson moved for adoption.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Under discussion Mr. Robinson, am I to assume that the last paragraph means that the City of Pittsburgh does not have the legal right to pass such a resolution or ordinance? We are petitioning the State to strengthen that law because we can't do it ourselves?

Mr. Robinson:

In response to your question, the City of Pittsburgh already has the jurisdiction to regulate firearms and that jurisdiction is found in Title Six, Chapter 607 of our City Code, Fire Arms and Other Weapons.

Mr. President, if I might, by way of discussing and giving some clarification to the resolution that I introduced, I'd like to indicate that I think that there's public interest on this matter, not only here in this City, but across the Country, and I'm sure that most members of Council are aware of the situation in Morton Grove, Illinois, where an ordinance was passed where everyone in that town who had a handgun was told that they were no longer welcome in that community, and certainly, their handguns were no longer welcome.

In Georgia, where the Council there passed a resolution indicating that a person should have handguns.

These are two opposite situations, and I think they simply highlight the interest that has been sparked across this Country in the utilization of handguns, either handguns that are used in the commission of crimes, or handguns that are used for the protection of the public. Certainly the handgun has become an issue and certainly is an issue here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I think beyond that kind of national exposure that many of us have become aware of the increasing use of handguns in the commission of crimes here in our own community and the City of Pittsburgh. On several occasions I have been questioned by community groups and organizations and individuals relative to what they perceive to be a wild west mentality in many of our neighborhoods. They have pointed out, to me at least, some situations that they felt that I as a Councilman should address. Far be it for me to assume that as a Councilman I can address the total issue of potential criminal activity in this City or that every community concern can be handled by one person. But it would seem to me that if we look at the statistics, if we look at the facts, we talk to community people, we will find that pride is a big issue, we will find that there are many possible solutions, and I think that we'll find it more and more a solution to that problem for the average citizen to arm themselves and literally beg to do battle with the criminal element.

I think Mr. O'Malley's efforts to organize block watches and the efforts of other members on this Council to give support to our police establishment are to be commended.

There are people in this community who have a great deal of difficulty understanding why they can't walk to church without being intimidated. They can't understand why they run the risk of having someone pull a gun on them if they get into an argument with them. And they can't understand why we cannot do more in the City of Pittsburgh to ease their fear about people carrying these kinds of weapons. I don't think that banning handguns or encouraging people to carry handguns is a solution to the problem. I think we have to get the situation into perspective and recognize that much of what is going on is a fear of potential crime, and people reacting to that. I think it would be foolish to assume that the possession of handguns is not an issue that sparks a great deal of emotionalism and that there aren't pros and cons on both sides because obviously, there are.

Many of the people who I have talked with have given me instances in which they themselves have been victims of intimidation with handguns, and have pointed out to me various parts of our community where they think activities are going on where handguns are very much involved. I think that it goes without saying that there are many people in this City who feel that it necessary to carry a gun or have a gun in their home for their self-protection. I won't argue that point with them. They feel that is what they need. What I will argue with them is whether or not it is in the public interest to have a proliferation of handguns in our City and whether or not it does any public good to have handguns in our City. Regardless of the individual, I think it is a public safety issue and I think it is one that this Council legitimately needs to address. Unfortunately, it is a tough issue and I am not going to back away from it simply because it is tough. I think that if we are truly concerned about what goes on in our City, and concerned about public safety, then we have to take this issue as serious as any other that we have in this whole regard.

There are obviously some legal issue which have been raised, and I think, Mr. President, your concern as to whether or not the City of Pittsburgh is presently operating within the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania speaks to my point. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as you know, does have a uniform firearms act and there is a prime code. There is some regulation at the State level of firearms and of those people who legally should operate and utilize firearms. The City of Pittsburgh, under the laws of the Commonwealth and particularly under the police power of the Commonwealth, does have the obligation and responsibility to provide for the public protection. Our Legislature, in their infinite wisdom, has taken some action to control handguns, controll all firearms in this Commonwealth. Fortunately, the Legislature decided that it was in our best interest that anyone who was caught in the commission of a crime with a handgun, if found guilty, would have five additional years added to their sentence. I think that that is indeed indicative of the kind of action that our legislature needs to take because I think they see the seriousness of the handgun situation.

I think also that the Legislature never intended that a municipality such as Pittsburgh would not have any control over firearms in their community and I think that's why Title Six, Chapter 607, is in our City Code. If the Legislature did intend that the City of Pittsburgh and other municipalities should not have control over firearms, then Title Six, Chapter 607, is obviously in violation of State law and if it is, this is a matter that I think should be resolved by the Courts.

It's rather obvious to me that the City of Pittsburgh does have the jurisdiction in the area of possession, not only Title Six of our City Code speaks of that, but also our Superintendent of Police has the ability to issue gun permits. I think that the Superintendent of Police ought to have the power to make sure that persons who have guns have the proper training and that those persons are retrained periodically.

So the issue of whether or not the City of Pittsburgh in any way might be in violation of state law if we enact some sort of legislation which deals with firearms control, I think, can be answered very quickly by looking at the kinds of things that we're doing now and I don't think there's anything in the uniform firearms act, the crime code, or the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that prohibits us from exercising our police powers and our public safety powers.

As far as protection of the public is concerned, I think the primary responsibility for protecting the public in this City belongs with our police establishment and I think we ought to do any additional things that we can to make sure that our police department is doing their job, and that they feel that they have the confidence of public officials.

Again, I don't think that we ought to duck away from this issue simply because there are so many advocates of firearms, of using them, of selling them. I don't think we should duck this issue simply because there are so many gun clubs, or antique dealers, or collectors. I think we need to meet this issue head on and be honest about a great community concern.

I have had occasion to talk with representative of the National Rifle Association, which is perhaps one of the foremost groups in terms of proposing any kind of ban on weapons and in many instances, control of weapons. I have found those persons that I have talked to to be very much concerned about controlling weapons and making sure only those authorized people and those people who have a legitimate reason to have a weapon, that those are the people who would have a weapon on their possession, whether it be in the City of Pittsburgh or anywhere else, and certainly, my conversations with them have been fruitful, and I think that we both agree that there needs to be some control on handguns and some control on weapons in general.

I don't think there's any doubt that there must be training for people who own weapons, whether those persons are police officers, or whether it's the average citizen. In the City of Pittsburgh, to my knowledge, we do not have any mandatory training or any kind of certification for those individuals. I think we'd be well within our rights to require it, and I think our Superintendent of Police has that power. When I say mandatory, that's exactly what I'm talking about. If people who are going to be utilizing weapons or possessing weapons in our City should be certified, those persons should be trained, and we should know who they are.

I guess one good way to sum this situation up is to indicate that if we're going to protect ourselves we should protect ourselves with a shield, not a sword, or not a gun. There are many things that we can do to make our community safer that do not require us to give any kind of false sense of hope to people by not squarely addressing this issue of handguns and not squarely addressing the issue that there must be some control.

I has occasion to view the National Crime and Violence Test yesterday on television. It was originated from California and was hosted by Jane Kennedy and Art Linkletter. If any of you had an opportunity, or Mr. President, if you had an opportunity to watch that show, you'd recognize the national concern about crime. You'd recognize the national concern about the utilization of handguns and other types of weapons. And I would hope that in this City, that as we begin to struggle with this issue, that we recognize that our City is in a position to move into the next century, the 21st century, as one of this Country's leading cities. And I think one of the things we ought to do in that area of moving into the next century is to deal with some of these tough questions before the situation gets out of hand.

When the current Mayor of Detroit, Coleman Young, first was sworn into office, he issued an ultimatum to those persons in his community who he considered to be engaged in illegal activities. And that was to leave town. Obey the law or leave town. Fortunately, our Mayor has not had to issue that ultimatum, and hopefully, he never will. But I think it is time for public officials to stand up and look the problem squarely in the eye and indicate that we do not want, in our City, those persons who are bent on breaking the law, those persons who are bent on conducting themselves that is a fashion that is against the laws of the City, and we don't want people in this community who are going about intimidating our citizens. We don't need the criminal element in the City of Pittsburgh. And I think we ought to do what we can to see to it that they understand that. That the Renaissance City is not big enough for them and law abiding citizens.

Just in closing, I'd like to indicate that often times these kinds of issues are highlighted by tragedy that strikes close to home. I had occasion to speak to Inspector Moore from our No. 2 Police Station on Friday concerning this issue of handguns. And as I was talking to him, some individuals were riding through a portion of the Hill District firing into one of our local business establishments. I think if we're honest with ourselves, we all know areas of the City where people wantonly and recklessly discharge weapons with no regard to life or limb, no regard to who you are or what you are. That has got to stop. And public officials have got to stand up and say, "Enough is enough."

Also, one of our leading citizens, Mrs. Ruth Pitrell, is a member of our Housing Authority Board, lost her son on August 6, 1982, at 3:00 a.m., in a handgun shooting in one of our communities. This situation could touch anybody in this room. It could touch anybody on this Council. It could touch anybody in this City. And I would hope that this Council would consider very seriously, this resolution, and consider very seriously the problem of crime and the problem of handguns in the commission of crimes in our City.

I am in no way attempting to restrict the right of law abiding citizens to belong to gun clubs, to be collectors, or to engage in those kinds of business activities which require them to use a handgun for their protection. But I am saying that we cannot, in this City, afford to become an armed camp in an attempt to fight crime. We cannot allow the average citizen to take it upon himself or herself to become a vigilante or police officer. And I don't believe that it is responsible for a government to, in any way, encourage the citizens of any city to arm themselves to do battle with criminals, or to do battle on behalf of the police establishment.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, if I may. I want to commend you for taking a courageous stand. I do want to say, as a former Marine and one who has handled guns, my gut reaction is to throw all guns into the ocean. But it doesn't work that simple, and I realize that. But more importantly, and especially for the concerns of the press, most of the mail I received or most of the calls I received since your article first appeared in the paper, are stating that you want to ban all handguns and this is our great concern. I think there's a misunderstanding here. Your resolution doesn't say that, but it's coming out, through calls and letters to the press, that you're asking for a complete ban on handguns, and I think that should be rectified in the resolution and the public should be made aware of that.

Mrs. Masloff:

It seems to me that most of the calls I've gotten, by far, are in opposition to this resolution because the people contend that the criminals won't give up their handguns. They'll have them all the time. The law abiding citizens who get a certain feeling of security and protection with the possession of a handgun, it seems to me, that there are more of those than those who are for this handgun resolution. I vote no.

The Chair:

Sophie, if I may, again. The resolution doesn't call for banning of handguns. Like yourself, it was a great concern of mine and --

Mrs. Masloff:

Yes, but it says "additional regulations on the sale, possession, distribution, manufacturing and use of handguns". They feel that this will hinder them.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm going to abstain until I get some clarification on what the additional regulations will be.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. President, just in addressing the concern of Mrs. Masloff and Mr. O'Malley. First of all, I have also received numerous calls and by far, most of the calls that I have received, or letters, have indicated that persons are against a ban on handguns. As you indicated, Mr. President, I have not proposed to this Council a ban. I personally believe that there ought to be a ban, that it ought to be initiated at at least the state level, possibly the nation level. That is my own personal opinion. The resolution that is before us, I think it reflects not only the persons who called in and said they were against a ban, those persons who called in and wrote in and said they were in favor of a ban, and those persons who sincerely discussed the issue of controlling handguns. Control of handguns and control to the extent that we could begin to zero in on the criminal element in this community, I think, are the keys to this situation.

One of the concerns, unfortunately, many of the people who write and call, don't live in the City of Pittsburgh. And while I respect their opinions and I respect all of their suggestions, I think the only way for us to determine what the people of the City of Pittsburgh would like to have, the only perhaps legitimate way, is to go the route of a referendum. Rather than try to take that action with two referendum issues initiated already by this Council already being on the ballot, and without getting bogged down as to whether or not an advisory question would be appropriate, I decided I would defer that kind of action until perhaps the fall when, not only additional research be done, but also, we can begin to get some of the additional issues teased out on this thing.

I feel that, as far as Mr. O'Malley's concern is raised, that obviously, the State Legislature has already taken some actions relative to the control of weapons in our commonwealth and all of their actions are well documented and public information. Whatever actions that the State Legislature thinks would be appropriate would be the actions that we would request them to take. Obviously, we would have to have them review the situation and we are asking them from a standpoint of what's going on in our community, to review everything that they have done to date, and to consider additional actions that they might think would be appropriate. As I've talked with people around the Commonwealth about this issue, I have found that there are a number of communities that are struggling with this problem. Philadelphia, New York, there are many others that have some concerns about the proliferation of handguns and the proliferation of crime in their community. And all these communities are attempting to do different things. It seems to me that we should at least request from the Legislature that they review what they have already done and that we at least request from them some additional powers at the local level to deal with our particular problem here in the City of Pittsburgh.

Hopefully, those comments at least address the concerns that Mrs. Masloff and Councilman O'Malley have. I am not suggesting that my response to them would change their vote, but I think in terms of clarifying what my position is that it was appropriate for me to say those things.

The Chair:

So often, those who want guns the most tragically kill one of their own or an innocent victim, but there are people out there that can handle guns and can control and probably need them. It's a very hot issue.

Mr. O'Malley:

Just to clarify what the additional regulations I was speaking of -- I had a very personal experience in my own home. When I was out and my wife was home alone, and I have a window air conditioner like many houses have, but fortunately I had the window screwed down on the air conditioner. It happened about 11:00 at night when two arms came through the sliding portion and grabbed the air conditioner and tried to rip it out of the window. Now, I have a gun in my house that I keep in the drawer. But, unfortunately, the gun was between the intruder and my wife. And there's no doubt in my mind that if he could have gotten that air conditioner out fast enough and my wife couldn't have gotten to the gun or to the telephone to call the police, she either would have been beaten, killed or raped. I just want clarification on what rights I have and my family has as individuals to protect themselves, because this gentleman coming in through the window is not going to be concerned whether he's allowed to carry a gun or not. If he choice is between shooting him or having my wife raped or killed, he has to go. So this is where I want the clarification on exactly what regulations are we talking about for private citizens.

Mr. Stone:

Relative to the point Mr. Robinson is advancing, I think it's laudible. The only problem I have is in what's proposed here.

First of all, it is illegal to have a firearm on your possession in this state.

Secondly, as Mr. Robinson has accurately stated, anyone who is found in the commission of a crime carrying a weapon, there is an added five years. That seems to me to be very severe, and for someone not to be impressed with that kind of a sentence, it would appear to me you're talking to someone that doesn't want to listen.

The other one is that I find problems in legislating against everybody in order to get at a few. There's no question that we have problems. I am seriously — this issue bounces close because as far as I am concerned, I think we need controls. I'm not so sure that legislating against those who are not crime violators, in order to get at violators, is the way it should be done. I think we need more enforcement of that which we now have on the books already rather than additional legislation. I would vote no.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, I feel that any more regulations or controls put on the honest citizen, he will obey. But the criminal is already breaking the law so it doesn't matter how many controls you put on or how many regulations. He's going to disobey it. So I vote no.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. President, comment on what Mr. Stone and Mr. Woods said. I think that certainly, no one is naive enough to believe that a control on handguns is going to control crime. But I don't believe anyone can deny the fact that some control on handguns will, indeed, have an adverse impact on gun related crimes. I also don't believe that anyone is naive enough to believe that if we simply indicate that we will not stand up on behalf of those good, private citizens who have gone out and purchased a gun because they do not feel that government and the police establishment will protect them, that we have done our job. We have not. And I would hope it would not take a personal tragedy as the one the Mr. O'Malley suggested, before many of us realize that simply having a gun on your possession or in your home, is not going to prevent a crime. Mr. O'Malley, very vividly, indicated that the weapon was not accessible. I think most of us who understand anything at all about the fear, the real fear, that many people have who have weapons know that many people feel that they are secure simply by having that weapon. The statistics don't prove that and I think the facts don't prove that. And the statistics are part of the facts.

Most of us know that those of us who have hand guns, who keep them at home, keep them out of sight, and the average burglar, rapist, mugger, whatever that person might be, doesn't know you have it and doesn't care that you have it. You obviously will be in a far better position if there was some visible sign outside that home or nearby that will let that person know that that community is involved in some effort to protect themselves. Or that home was somehow protected by an alarm system or something of the sort.

I think the issue of whether or not we have too much regulation or not enough regulation is something we probably could debate forever. Whether there are too many laws or not enough laws. I think the issue is whether or not, in the City of Pittsburgh, our local government officials are going to stand up to crime. And I'm not talking about saying that we're against crime. Whether or not we're going to acknowledge the kinds of things that are going on in our neighborhood where people are wantonly and recklessly discharging firearms, and I can take you to three places right now and show you what's going on. Maybe you don't live in those neighborhoods or maybe you don't think it affects you. But be sure that if we sit here and we do nothing to address those concerns, we are going to be affected. For every woman who is afraid of being robbed, mugged, raped, who carries a gun in her purse, there are thousands of others who live in fear every single day in neighborhoods we they figure we don't give a damn, and that we are not going to stand up, back our police, that we are not going to stand up and say that we do not want criminal activity going on in these neighborhoods. And we don't want people discharging weapons. Come with me some evening and I'll take you to these places. I'll show you where this kind of activity goes on. I see it each and every day. These people are not going to be protected by the laws that are on the books. These people need their government officials to come forward and say that they are sick and tired of crime and they are sick and tired of people carrying guns on their hips like this is the wild west.

With all due respect to those who feel that we have too many laws, to all those who feel that we're not specific enough, when we're called to go out to community meetings, when people are raising issue that are crime related, you can sense the fear, the frustration. And I'm saying that we ought to stand up and for once talk to the criminal element instead of talking to the law abiding citizens. We tell the law abiding citizens that it's not our responsibility that they don't have more police. That it's the Mayor's responsibility. Or we tell them something about the budget. Or we tell them we're concerned. We never talk to the criminal element. We have never once said in this City, to the criminal element, "Goodbye". We have never once said to people that we don't want our citizens intimidated. And I think that unless we do, we are fooling ourselves. The situation,adies and gentlemen, is out of hand. I am simply trying to bring you a message: that it is out of hand and there are thousands of people out there who are begging us to stand up and do something. That is what I am presenting to you. I am not in any way trying to be naive about one law, one regulation ridding this community of crime. In no sense of the word. But I think there's a lot that we can do to address the concerns, the real legitimate concerns that people have in this community.

Just one other comment, if I might, on this particular point. On several occasions, I suggested that there are things that we can do to better support our police establishment in trying to do their job. Particularly in the area of trying to deal with the psychological impact of crime. In several cities around this country, they have considered making their police more visible by giving every police officer who is supposed to have access to a car, their own individual car to take home, to take the wife to church, to take the kids to school. As long as it's within the city limits, they're on duty 24 hours a day anyway, give them the car. It's cheaper from a dollar and cents stand point, and I'll guarantee you, that there's more psychological impact of a police car being parked in the neighborhood than all the handguns in the world. If you give everybody in the City a handgun, and I guarantee you, psychologically, they'd be no better off, they'd be worse off, than if we had every police officer in this City who is authorized to drive a vehicle with their own personal vehicle. And the unfortunate situation that Mrs. O'Malley faced, perhaps, could have been avoided altogether. She would have been better off with a police car outside than that handgun that was in the drawer that she could not reach. And thank God nothing happened to her so that he's not telling us a real horror story here today.

The story you told, there are thousands of them. Since I raised this issue, I talked to numerous people who said guns have been pulled on them. Law abiding citizens, most of whom don't have any guns. And those guns were pulled on them by law abiding citizens who felt they were going to solve their problems by pulling out a weapon. I am the first person to indicate that everybody in this City has a right to defend themselves and protect themselves. I just question whether or not we should sit idly by and suggest that the utilization of handguns and the possession of handguns is okay if someone is in fear of their life. Most of the statistics will show you that most of the people who get hurt with those guns are the people who have them if they're not trained.

What are we going to do to say that we want people trained who use those guns? What are we going to do to put some restrictions on people in this City who have handguns? Or do we have to have everyone in this City armed to the teeth before people can feel secure? And if that's the way they have to feel, I guarantee you, this is not going to be a Renaissance city, and I guarantee you, we are not going to be able to govern it. I hear a lot about law and order. We need some order and then some law. And the order needs to come from this Council as a representative of the people of this City and we need to speak loud and clear that we want order and then law. Many people see the law aspect. But where is the order? Let's put the order first and then the law. One more time, travel with me one day and I'll show you these neighborhoods where these people are in fear. I'll show you. I'll show you a place where things are going on that directly relate to my concern about these handguns. Ask any of our police inspectors the number of handguns they pick up all the time. You go in some of the business establishments and you ask one question and all these guns hit the floor. No one owns them. They're just all on the floor. Where are these guns coming from? Who are we fooling? Come with me one evening and I'll take you some places and you sit there and put your life in jeopardy and then tell me that the people who live in those neighborhoods should put their lives in jeopardy every day while we sit here and talk about how we've got too many laws, we've got enough laws, someone called in and they're not sure about banning handguns. I'm simply saying let's face the issue.

With due respect to everyone's comments, I'm simply saying let's face the issue. I'm simply bringing a message.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. It was not my intent to debate this issue and I don't want to go too far with it, but I would not like to have how you vote on this issue determine whether or not you're for law and order or not because I don't think that's the issue here. I think what Mr. Robinson is pointing out is a valid point. I don't dispute that. Having served the District Attorney's Office for seven years, I am aware of some of the problems that he's indicated. It's true. Certain areas of our City of Pittsburgh haven't changed from the time I was in the District Attorney's Office until now. There's still crime areas that need some help. But I think presently, if we're looking for some enforcement, and as you put it, we need order, and that is true, I think we need some order. If it needs some teeth put into it to our police to indicate that there are laws there that have to be enforced, and we want everybody to understand, you've got a gun, we want you arrested. I'm for that. But I would not like to have it seem as though this is a vote for or against crime so much as a choice of which way and which method to do it.

Mr. DePasquale:

Sadly, a lot of nice, well meaning people will misunderstand Mr. Robinson's resolution and even though I've never been in favor of a complete ban on handguns, my feelings and sentiments have been that some limit has to be put on them and I think the resolution, to that extent, is a good resolution. I'll vote aye.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, on Bill No. 1066 I'd just like to make a few quick comments for the record if I might. There is a copy of a petition that each member of Council has and was forwarded to members of Council by way of a memorandum from our Assistant City Clerk, Mrs. Linda Johnson, dated August 13, 1982. This petition requests a hearing on Bill No. 1066 prior to us taking any action on that bill.

The Chair:

We had a hearing, Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson:

I want the record to reflect this, Mr. President. We did have one public hearing that was requested by petition prior to Council taking any action. Even if we were to give this petition serious consideration, we would have to note that there are only eleven signatures on this petition and I believe the City Charter requires a minimum of twenty five. But the record should reflect that another petition was forwarded to us on this matter.

Also, I would like to have a copy of the letter from Friends of the Green and Seldom Seen, dated August 8, 1982 included in the record. This letter does reflect some concerns persons living in that area have, namely, Mr. Charles J. McCollester forwarded this letter to us and I think the record should reflect his concern.

(LETTER FROM FRIENDS OF THE GREEN AND SELDOM SEEN, 8/8/82)

August 8, 1982

Dear Members of Pittsburgh City Council,

At the recent public hearing concerning Seldom Seen which some of you attended, Councilman Robert Rade Stone suggested that perhaps the best idea would be to grant tentative permission to Seldom Seen Associates, but make them return to City Council for final approval after they obtain necessary permission from the State Department of Environmental Resources and others.

I strongly urge you to withhold final approval on Wednesday for two reasons:

- 1.) to examine more closely the nature of their proposal;
- 2.) to give full and fair consideration to our proposal to preserve the site as a nature study center for the South Hills area of the City.

Contrary to the misinformed allegations of Seldom Seen Associates' lawyer, the site called Seldom Seen would not require 100 garbage truck loads to remove the debris; rather, aside from the litter tossed up by the creek, the site is the most pristine and richest woodland in the City with an extraordinary variety of plants, birds and small game.

Before you condemn this jewel-like remnant of "God's Country", only one-and-a-half miles (as a hawk flies) from the Golden Triangle, to the bulldozer, give us a chance to show you what your decision means and what we and especially our children will lose.

Charles J. McCollester

381-0882

(END OF LETTER FROM FRIENDS OF THE GREEN AND SELDOM SEEN, 8/8/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Also, as Council will remember, we did have a hearing and at that time, I believe all relevant issues were raised. One point that I would like to bring out is that the issue of whether or not the Department of Environmental Resources, at the State level, will allow this project to proceed I think, has to be answered by DER, and it's my understanding that they are in the process of reviewing the application. Councilman Stone has suggested that Council give some tentative approval to this particular project pending DER certification. I would like to suggest that rather than give tentative approval, which I don't believe we can do in the form that Councilman Stone suggested, I think that Council should forward a letter to both our Planning Department and our Urban Redevelopment Authority indicating that prior to any final contract being signed relative to the development of this parcel of land, Council would like to review all relative information, particularly in a report from the Department of Environmental Resources.

I think that will let the Departments know how we feel about this and by the same token will not prejudice our judgment on the project, which I believe is a good one.

If possible, I would like to have a motion to the effect of sending that letter to the appropriate parties and also a copy of that letter should go to Seldom Seen Associates, the potential developers. If I could have a vote on that then I have one other comment.

Mr. Robinson moved to send a letter to Seldom Seen Associates.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

The only other thing, Mr. President, I'd like to have my comments from last Wednesday, my original comments on Bill No. 1066 included in the record if I might. Thank you.

(MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1066 FROM WEDNESDAY, 8/11/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, if I might. Council knows we had a hearing on this matter on August 3, and at that time, the objections that were raised were properly noted, and my understanding that the Seldom Seen Associates, as well as our Planning Department, attempted to address those concerns. I did receive a copy of a letter which I'm sure all members of Council received, dated August 8, 1982. In that letter, they asked, or Mr. Charles J. McCollester asked, that we hold this bill for these reasons. One, he would like us to more closely examine the proposal he submitted for creating a nature preserve on the site for Seldom Seen, and also, he would like us to give more serious consideration to the construction of a nature study center, South Hills, in that area.

First of all, I think that there is no need to weigh one project against the other. I don't think it's fair to either. It would seem to me no propelling reason for us not to improve the development. I think it's positive for the City. One of the best developments that we could initiate. I think the concerns that Mr. McCollester raised about a nature preserve in South Hills is appropriate. I believe that there are some lands in the South Hills, either the City owns or has control of, to address this issue. If Mr. Flaherty and Mrs. Masloff, Chairman of Lands and Buildings and Chairwoman of Parks and Recreation, would be willing to explore the possibility, perhaps we could work out something that will not allow this project to go forward, but allow Mr. McCollester's concerns to be given fair consideration.

MR. DEPASQUALE COMMENTS

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

His concerns relate to 1066, which specifically deals with the transfer of the parcel of property that is commonly known as Seldom Seen. It seems to me the exhibits made at the hearing and the letters all members of Council received related to some type of park or nature reserve in South Hills, and they thought the Seldom Seen site was the best suitable. I believe Seldom Seen is used for the kind of development that is proposed, but I think the issue of nature preserve or some sorts of park area in the South Hills is appropriate. It's long overdue. They have hit on the right issue, but I don't think they found the right place. It seems to me we have lands in the South Hills area that we could designate for nature preserve, and Parks and Recreation, Lands and Buildings working on that, I think we could bring back something for this Council to consider.

(END OF MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS
ON BILL NO. 1066 FROM WEDNESDAY,
8/11/82)

The Chair:

The only comment I have to make, however that area is developed, whatever reason, there are a lot of hurdles to overcome there and it's going to be very costly either way. But I think something should be done.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question for Councilman Robinson. How soon should we have the completed report from the DER, Bill?

Mr. Robinson:

It's my understanding that the Seldom Seen Associates are ready to proceed immediately. I would assume that by the time we return from recess that we should have some written information from either URA or the Planning Department relative to the position of DER.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay, if they aren't able to receive approval from the DER, then they will not be able to go about with their proposal?

Mr. Robinson:

It would seem to me that if the approval of the Department of Environmental Resources is essential for this project to work that one, it would not be practical or economically feasible to proceed. As was stated to us at our public hearing, the creek that runs behind this property has been a source of a lot of controversy, Saw Mill Run Creek. It seems to me that if DER would indicate that the project could not be build, that there would be no way for Seldom Seen Associates to move forward, and I would think that the Solicitor for both the City and the Urban Redevelopment Authority would take the appropriate actions to stop any development in that area.

Mr. Flaherty:

But who would own the property? The Seldom Seen Associates would, right? The question that I'm getting to is even if the DER, if they should not approve the plot plan, Seldom Seen would own it, and if I'm correct, that would probably foreclose the City trying to do anything with that property along the lines of preserving it for esthetics or the sake of the the environment.

Mr. Robinson:

Well, I think basically you're correct in saying that the property would belong to Seldom Seen Associates. But I think there's a couple other things that have to be considered. One, I think Seldom Seen Associates are obviously in this situation as a business deal, to make money as well as to put a valuable piece of real estate in our City. It seems to me that it would be inconceivable that they would simply hold on to that property if it could not be developed for the purpose for which they originally intended it.

Also, I think the record should reflect that the City encouraged Seldom Seen Associates to develop that particular piece of property. It was not the kind of situation where they came dashing in and said, "Here's the best piece of City property that can be found and we want to develop it." I think that reasonable people will act in a reasonable fashion, and it seems to me that if Seldom Seen Associates cannot develop this particular parcel of land that the City would be one of the individuals that will be able to acquire that land. We will be able to re-acquire it. I don't see Seldom Seen Associates wanting to do anything with that land except develop the project that they brought here, and if for any reasons they cannot develop it, I don't think we'd have any difficulty negotiating with them for the return of that land.

Mr. Flaherty:

I don't know, though. We own the property now and I don't know if that would be economically advisable to give it to Seldom Seen for ten dollars and then they're not going to develop it and they sell it back to us for one hundred. I'm wondering about the economics involved in that if we wanted to take the property back. I'm just using ten and one hundred just for the sake of imagery.

The Chair:

You make a good point, but at the same time, obviously they're not going to be able to develop it and they're going to have to sell it back and I think they probably would at about the same price.

Mr. Stone:

Pardon me. I think we're losing sight of the end of that Section 1. "It being in conformity with the terms and conditions of the Neighborhood Housing Fund Cooperation Agreement." Part of that was conditions. You've got a hold on it and they're not going to get it unless they have that —

Mr. Robinson:

I think the one thing that Mr. Stone pointed out that's very important is that the project itself is being developed in conjunction with ongoing City programs. If, for whatever reasons, Seldom Seen Associates are barred by State or Federal action from developing that land, then obviously they would not be eligible for the City program. The City program, the Neighborhood Housing Program is essential in terms of the financing of this project. A great deal of time, effort and money has already been put into the project. I would say that it's very likely that the project will go if given Council's approval. If for some reason the Department of Environmental Resources indicates that area should not be developed, Seldom Seen Associates would basically be out of the ballgame in terms of developing housing in that area and would not be eligible for any of our financial assistance programs.

On your comment about the costs to the City. There's no doubt that if the project doesn't work and the City tries to acquire the property back, that Seldom Seen Associates more than likely would want to make some sort of profit on the deal. I think that's understandable. But by the same token —

The Chair:

Wouldn't they also, in effect, be stuck with the property?

Mr. Robinson:

Right. But the point I'm raising is the time, the effort and the money that's gone into this project already, it's well worth our support. It is pretty unlikely that Seldom Seen Associates would be stuck with the property and it's pretty unlikely that we would be in a position where they say, "Okay, now give us a hundred and fifty thousand dollars for land we only paid seventy five thousand for." We have been working in a cooperative fashion with a number of the principles in Seldom Seen on other projects. And I think that continuing a relationship will have a great bearing on how we move forward. But I don't think we'll get stuck with the property and I don't think Seldom Seen Associates will try to take advantage of us financially.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have one more question, Bill. Is there any pressing reason, as you said earlier, the DER hopefully will have their report when Council returns from it's break, is there any pressing reason as to why it can't be held for a couple weeks?

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Flaherty, if you remember, when this bill originally came into Council, I indicated that there were some letters that I had received from residents in that area who had some complaints, and I asked to have the bill held for two weeks until we could get some perspective on what the situation was and get a report from the Department. Subsequent to that time, a petition came in from residents requesting a public hearing. So there has been a good deal of delay on this project. There has been an opportunity, I think, to air every question and every concern. And it would seem to me that there's no good reason for us at this point to hold up on this, even taking into consideration your concerns about DER.

I think there are enough checks and balances and that Council should move forward and approve this project.

Mr. Flaherty:

I appreciate your response.

I would just want to speak on the bill. I would urge my colleagues to hold the bill or not to approve the bill today. I have a real concern in regard to the approval from the DER and I think that it is rare and I don't know about the URA or the Department of City Planning as to how much emphasis they do put on the environment, and conserving and preserving the environment in the City. And I think we have seen an earnest and a considerable request from individuals to put a hold on the bill until we receive that report from the DER.

I'm also hesitant because the idea if we give this property which we now have in our jurisdiction, or is we sell this property to Seldom Seen Associates, and there should be some foul up that is on the line, it seems to me to quote the letter that we had from Friends of the Green and Seldom Seen, that there would be a strong possibility that we would condemn the jewel-like property and I'm aware of the property and it seems to be as Friends of the Green have also said, one of the few pristine areas that we have in this City.

So I would ask my colleagues to keep that in consideration. It seems to me that there isn't any real pressing reason, and I commend you, Councilman Robinson, you have held the bill, but all members of Council received the petition from individuals and I think they have a legitimate request. And I think usually when anyone has a legitimate request, I think it has to be pretty overpowering as to why we on Council should not try to respect that request.

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I'd like to make two amendments to Council Bill No. 1425. In the heading, I'd like to amend this bill to read "by adding Section 607.07". Right now it reads "by adding Section 607.06". That's the first amendment.

Mr. Robinson moved to amend Bill No. 1425.

Mr. Stone seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

And the other one?

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, in the active body of the bill, it reads, "any person upon a finding of guilty by a magistrate of discharging a firearm or airgun anywhere within the City of Pittsburgh" right after the word Pittsburgh should read "other than provided for in Section 607.02. 607.02 provides for exceptions where firearms are allowed to be discharged in the City". That's the second amendment.

Mr. Robinson moved to amend Bill No. 1425.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Basically, what's being changed is the fine and the possible jail sentence.

I'd just like to make a couple very quick comments. One, I would think it would be appropriate for this Council to consider at some later date, some mandatory testing and certification for persons who are authorized by our Superintendent of Police to carry weapons. I think it is essential that we seriously consider that. And also that we look at the possibility of having periodic testing so that those persons who are carrying firearms are properly trained and properly certified, and that this Council also give some serious consideration to encouraging our Superintendent to set some strict guidelines so that business people, particularly tavern owners and others, might be able to have weapons on their premises for the protection of the businesses.

Also, the issue of unlicensed weapons in our City, I think, is going to have to be addressed in terms of trying to provide our police establishment with some authority to deal with the issue of persons who are carrying unlicensed weapons on our street.

I hope to follow up on these issues in September and hopefully Council will give them due consideration.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I think it is appropriate for Council to recognize the accomplishments of the Pittsburgh Uptown Little League which recently won the State Little League Championship. There are several reasons why I think it is appropriate. One, this Council, over the last five years, has supported financially and with our spirit, the Uptown Little League program, and it's one of the finest programs in this City to prepare our young people to go on to careers, not only in sports, but other walks of life.

Also, this is the first time that a City team, inner City team in particular, has gone all the way to the State Championship and has won that Championship. So the Uptown Little League All Stars, I think, should be congratulated in their 3-1 victory over Middletown-Levittown in the Little League Pennsylvania Championship game. They are going on now to face New Hampshire in the opening round of the Eastern Regionals on Tuesday in Newburg, New York, and this is one of four regionals leading up to the Little League World Series in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, later this month.

Also, I think that it is significant that we honor them in that they have brought back to our City another championship, and we remain the City of Champions.

Mr. Stone moved to excuse Mr. Givens and Michelle Madoff for absence from the meeting.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson moved to approve the minutes from Monday, August 9, 1982.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mrs. Masloff moved to adjourn this meeting and meet again on Tuesday, September 7, 1982 at 2:00 p.m.

And on the motion of Mrs. Masloff

Council adjourned.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 1545 WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh has demonstrated its commitment to neighborhood development by way of verbal and written support for programs and projects; and

WHEREAS, millions of dollars of both local and federal funding have been made available for capital projects in the neighborhoods of Pittsburgh over the past ten years; and

WHEREAS, our neighborhoods are actively involved in the revitalization of Pittsburgh, and the commitment of City Government to strengthen the economic, social and cultural base of all of Pittsburgh's neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, several neighborhoods, as represented by civic organizations, have presented and supported bold plans to revitalize and rebuild their communities; and

WHEREAS, the Homewood-Brushton community has demonstrated a special determination to work cooperatively with the City of Pittsburgh in the rebuilding process, and to support whole-heartedly the Homewood-South Plan recently approved by City Council; and

WHEREAS, the Homewood-Brushton community has launched an effort to also improve the community by organizing a "March Against Dope" on Saturday, September 11, 1982 to protest the open and illegal sale of drugs and narcotics on the streets of Homewood-Brushton.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of its citizens, does support the "March Against Dope", and commends the Homewood-Brushton community for its determination and hard work to eradicate illegal drug sales in their community and to focus attention on circumstances that improve progressive neighborhood development.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Stone:

Before you do that, Mr. Robinson, on Homewood-Brushton, I think we ought to give a touch to that somehow. This is a situation that has been left alone for a long time and I think the community has had their fill and decided here today to do something about it, and I would like to see some letter going to the Superintendent of Police indicating that City Council desires to work with these people and give them all the assistance they need. And in addition to that, report back to us within two weeks so we know what constructive additional supplemental effort was made by the Police Department to give them that effort.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, I appreciate Mr. Stone's comments. I think they are well taken. I think it's not only special for Council to pass this resolution, but I think it also addresses our basic concerns of no one community could grant open violation of the law and conduct themselves in a fashion that is redundant and disrespectful of any community. I think in respecting everyone's right to conduct themselves in a free society, we have to also consider the rights and privileges of other citizens who might not appreciate those kinds of activities. And I think that if members of Council were to go into the Homewood-Brushton Community and particularly participate, I think you would all agree that the situation there, in many instances, is out of hand, and very specific, locations where, unfortunately, our City police and other law enforcement agencies have not been able to completely eradicate traffic of drugs. I think now, the community is coming forward, and it intends to fight this battle. I think that the City of Pittsburgh is going to be much better off, and I think our police are going to be in a better position to remove the illegal sale of drugs from the streets of Homewood-Brushton.

Michelle Madoff:

I think that what everyone said here today is, indeed, something that those of us who carry an interest in observed personally. It is a very serious problem. The only thing I'm concerned about and I would hope when Councilman Stone was talking about reporting back to us, he also is willing to put this Council's support on the line. I think we all support this effort.

If it takes dollars, we should find dollars and make it a priority. I think what we need is a special drug enforcement body within the police. Obviously, we have one, but it isn't doing the job.

The sale of drugs are open in broad daylight, and people have had it up to here. Like, "Gee, wouldn't it be nice if we didn't cut taxes and didn't cut the rich and help the poor." That's all good and well to talk about it. Now, what are we going to do? Is Council going to make it happen? I think we have to get a message to the Mayor and to the Police Department that whatever it takes, that's what we're going to take. Whatever it takes. If it means coming out with additional funds, this Council has already appropriated for additional police, to have undercover drug enforcement policemen, whatever, but I find it offensive, and I didn't mean any put downs to members of Council. We're concerned, and we voice it repeatedly, but nothing happens. If we had to live in our community with what these people are subjected to, we would be storming the steps of this Council. So, what I'm saying, and I'm asking Councilman Stone, once you get a report back, we at Council especially, have got to find some dollars that will pay for — and convince the Mayor we need, perhaps, undercover special police so we can eliminate it in this particular area. It's going to move somewhere else —

Mr. Robinson:

It's already everywhere else. I can take you into several communities right now and show you.

Michelle Madoff:

I agree with you, but I'm saying it isn't as blatant and as devastating and, I think threatening, as in the streets of Homewood-Brushton. I think you would agree with that.

What about the law dealing with paraphernalia and the shops that sell paraphernalia? Whatever happened to that? Do you know?

The Chair:

You hit the nail on the head in regards to money. More specific, we have expertise in the Narcotics Department. If we designate more money for the Police Department, we should specify it's for those drug control people there.

Mr. O'Malley:

With respect to my colleagues, I know their intentions are good. I've worked with Homewood-Brushton Coalition, Northpoint Coalition, and the J.P., Dennis Schatzman, for the last seven months. We had an inspector out there in that area. The increased drug related issues — 10 fold since the last six months. My opinion is they're doing an excellent job with the limit of manpower that's available to them. I have all the statistics in my office, and I'll see that Mr. Stone gets a copy of it this afternoon. It's on ongoing problems. The police are well aware of it, and it's a problem and I don't see an end in sight. It's not our Police Department. It's a job for the Courts to make sure that repeated offenders are not on the street the next day. I have said for the past years that this is where the problem lies. Our police make arrests over and over again and they turn them loose.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. O'Malley, I think your point is well taken. I think you have done a commendable job. We're redefining the problem over and over again. We know the problem exists. Maybe we need more police to do the enforcement. Maybe you hit the nail right on the head. Maybe this Council, as a body, has got to say that we're not going to tolerate — maybe some kind of legislation and act on it. Didn't Pennsylvania have a law that says anybody caught with or anyone who commits a crime with a gun gets a mandatory gun sentence. They have it in South Carolina, Georgia. Why don't we do something in the nature of that law? Do we have to go to Harrisburg to get repeated drug offenders who are selling on the corner repeatedly? Have some kind of fine where they go to jail for maybe ten years.

That's a hideous crime. I think you're on target. What I'm saying is that I don't want to hear what the problem is. I want to do something about the problem. And what I'm saying is, I want action, and I think you do too.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might make a suggestion. Mr. Stone has requested that we get some kind of verbal report from our Superintendent. The problem is not only Homewood-Brushton, but in all of our communities. I think we should find out, for the best interest of Council, by way of a post agenda or something or a meeting, all of the agencies operating in our City, federal, state and local to address this Council. I think it's a problem beyond our Police Department for many reasons. I think we need to find out what the F.B.I. and others might be doing in our City to get this problem under control.

In this instance, we have a community that is willing to stand up and willing to come forward and put money where their mouths are in reference to the kinds of activities and things going on in their community in broad daylight, and I think we owe it to them to find out for ourselves what is going on in our community to eradicate this particular problem. I think for those who had any idea of the problems, we should be particularly concerned on what impact there might be on young people in the community, particularly those of school age, all the way to elementary school. I plan to trace this issue with our School Board in terms of what, if anything, they are going to do. So, I'll encourage us to have some sort of meeting with the appropriate law enforcement agencies to determine what, if anything, we're able to do in our City to get control of this problem, particularly Homewood-Brushton.

Mr. O'Malley:

May I relate to my colleagues. There was a big drug related a rest, and murder. A number of people got off because the Judge required that the Police Department produce the informer. No police department, no police officer, in their right mind would turn in the informer on drug-related arrests. Most of our information comes from this type of a source, an informer, and a number of people, to my knowledge, were let off because the Judge, for one reason or another, would not enter into evidence the drugs that were confiscated in the raid because the police would not say who the informer was. So, this is the real problem here. Not the Police Department. We can use more police, but the problem, I feel, is with our courts.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you think we could take a tour of this community and go in and see for ourselves? We have a list of these agencies and get the judges here and let them know and hear so it is a joint effort for the police and this Council to do something and perhaps with the help of the judges, we could get some kind of legislation. Maybe they have to really see what the impact is. I think they're aware of the devastation and what it does to the human body. We could ask the courts to bring the judges and let them hear what is being said. I want to do some legislation. I would like the City Clerk to make a note. Would he set this meeting up? Mr. Stone, would it be Judge O'Malley or his aide or his clerk?

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, —

Michelle Madoff:

It isn't a laughing matter.

Mr. Stone:

I'm not laughing. The only thing I see, we have a community here who is working at it now with probably the best force they put into it. And I don't think it par for the City not to give them help now. They don't want to wait for budget time. I'm sure we can spare some expert police. They ought to get immediate help. They ought to get help today, if not yesterday, to try to get this problem over with or at least to alleviate it. They take their share of this junk. It's about time to get some relief. Mr. Robinson accurately answers it. Maybe it needs an attack upon the whole situation of dope in the City of Pittsburgh. We don't want it in Homewood, and I think everyone on Council doesn't want it in their neighborhood, and I don't think they have to tolerate it in Brushton either, and that's the spirit in which I'm speaking about this thing. Let's handle the things which we can motivate within matters of seconds, and let's have the Superintendent of Police move some men around so they can get them over there. They need to clean up for the good of the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, let's not only move police around. Hire some. I think Councilman O'Malley is on target. He knows a lot about Homewood. That's his committee, and you would agree we've got to take action. Mr. Stone is not out of line. Mr. Robinson's bill is a today bill, but look at today and tomorrow.

Mr. Clerk, you have all those thoughts written down, so, if you can, work something out.

The Chair presents

Bill No. 1546 WHEREAS, the Mayor and the Members of Pittsburgh City Council join the thousands of friends and associates in mourning the death of former Mayor Joseph M. Barr, which occurred on Thursday, August 26, 1982; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Barr served as Mayor of our City from 1959 to 1969, successfully leading and guiding this City through ten difficult years marked by frustrating economic conditions and nationwide social upheavals; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Barr began his magnificent political career in 1933 when he helped form the county's first formal association of Young Democrats. From 1936 to 1954 he served as secretary of the Democratic Party County Committee. In 1939 he was elected president of the Young Democratic Clubs of Pennsylvania and vice president of the Convention Association of Young Democratic Clubs of America. From 1954 to 1959 he served as Democratic State Chairman; and

WHEREAS, in 1940 Mr. Barr became the youngest man elected to the Pennsylvania Senate, where he served for almost 20 years fighting gallantly for social reform. During this time he spearheaded the battle to enact the "Pittsburgh Package", a series of bills that were the beginning of the Pittsburgh Renaissance program; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Barr has received local and national recognition for his success in establishing social justice, which has enriched the lives of many and has added to the dignity and pride of our City.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of Pittsburgh City Council, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh and thousands of friends and associates, hereby express grief and sorrow over the death of former Mayor Joseph M. Barr, and realize that although he will be greatly missed, the spirit of his goodness will remain with us always.

Mr. Stone moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Ladies and gentlemen, I realize that most of us were out of town at the time of this great man's death and did not attend his wake or the funeral. What we could do is stand and have a moment of silent prayer.

Thank you.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, one other concern, as most members of Council might be aware, is that the housing relocation, which is operated by our Housing Authority, has been experiencing difficulty the last year. Unfortunately, those difficulties spilled over into the media, and I think it's more appropriate for Council to try to get a handle on the situation to determine what is the status of relocation agency, whether or not they're needed in the City of Pittsburgh, and what if anything, we can do. I would like to request a public hearing on this matter so that not only those community people who are concerned but appropriate City officials can put their concerns on official record and we can try to find some official resolution of this issue before it becomes a political poll and kicked around in the media. Schedule a public hearing to discuss the issue of relocation in the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I have a few short items for this Council's attention. You recall they put off having a hearing where people are concerned about Monday garbage pickup; and I understand someone came to Council and said we have three days a year, or four days a year, that we have Monday pickup. An article was in the paper where Mr. Bubbie Hairston said it wasn't true, that there were six to eight. Of course, we ran into bad weather. Look what happened last year. If we would have foul weather and miss a Monday, if my memory serves me well, it was — does anybody remember how many Mondays or holiday; we do not work? Do you know? Let's say six. Six legal holidays and you take two acts of God with weather. You got eight. Eight times two is sixteen. Four into four is one. I don't think that citizens who pay taxes should go four months without garbage pickup.

Maybe we're going to have to go to a private hauler or overtime or something, but I do not see four months without pickup for people who pay taxes. I would respectfully like to request Mr. Hairston back here and Director Norman Walker give us the number of days that he — and educated guess — would guess would prevail for this coming year and the number of days that garbage was actually not picked up, and if then we did not have curb-side garbage, we could sort of figure out for the coming year and also give us an idea for next year what we're going to run into. I want to —

Mr. Stone:

How did you get four months?

Michelle Madoff:

Maybe my figures are wrong. If you don't get pickup — that's why I'm confused because I saw an article by Bubbie Hairston.

Mr. Woods:

But that doesn't mean it's not picked up in four months.

Michelle Madoff:

Sever weather when they don't pick up — I'm not saying it's always the people on Mondays. The holidays are always on Mondays.

Mr. Woods:

It just happens to be this year.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you think tax payers should go months just because their day falls on Monday?

Mr. Woods:

Michelle, you can't say that rubbish isn't going to be picked up for two months because it's not sitting there, and they come around.

Michelle Madoff:

A total amount —

Mr. Woods:

It's every other week.

Michelle Madoff:

I know that. I'm bright enough. Over in your office, do you get calls? I presume you do. I get them, and I'm sure they don't select me only. How many calls do you get saying that they don't want smelly garbage? How many letters? Did you see the article in the paper by Bubbie Hairston? That's a joke. It's not three times. It's a lot more than that. I want Bubbie here to say it personally. And I want to know from our City Clerk how many days it's going to be and whether they're spread over the year. I think taxpayers should, everybody should have some pickup, everybody equally. If I have to miss and I'm a Monday pickup and you're a Tuesday, we should share that time when we don't get picked up.

Mrs. Masloff:

I get a lot of calls, Michelle. I pursued this with Kennedy because that seems to be the problem. I have an appointment with Mr. Kennedy to discuss this very thing. Now, if the union thinks there are others like, some Wednesdays, some Thursdays. I believe what they can do is eliminate all minor holidays, if you can call them minor, like Lincoln's Birthday, Washington's Birthday, any other days. Now that is three holidays. Not New Years, Christmas, and perhaps the Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, major holidays. Now, if we can get, not on major holidays, though, drivers to work on those days and instead of being paid triple time, perhaps they could be paid double time.

I'm pursuing this because I, too, have had calls. Now, the problem with the City is not with the drivers working on these days. The union won't permit it. So, that's the problem, and I, too, hope we'll have a report next week.

Michelle Madoff:

You know, Mr. Robinson raised the issue of the drug scene, and it's a very important issue. The reason some youths are into drugs is that they don't have any employment. The way things are today is terrible. When I was on vacation, I saw someone with a tee-shirt and it said "One Percent". I asked what that meant, and she said that they have a voluntary dollar tax in the city where people can contribute on their tax forms, and now we have City tax forms. And they can designate, if they want, that it would be used for employment for summer jobs for those who need them and they even tried programs all year round.

I would like the City Clerk, if it's all right with my colleagues, to look into the legal ramifications rule if we could, and see if we need an enable act to do that or not. It's strictly voluntary. Those who would like to allocate one or two dollars or more, whatever, because we have a scraped bottom. Councilman Stone worked hard to try to find some dollars. This might be one way to approach the problem. Does that meet with your approval?

The Chair:

That's all well and good. But how do we account for the large amount of dope in professional sports and show business?

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not questioning that. I'm talking about —

The Chair:

Maybe they have too much money.

Michelle Madoff:

I have one more item. All members of Council received the agenda from this morning's meeting which I did not attend. And under Director Cosentino, which is my department, there is an item, Bill No. 1203. A resolution providing for the issuance of $4,000.00 to repair a backhoe and another resolution is for equipment for repairs of a backhoe. I want to see those backhoes purchased that are not ten years old, by repossessions. The Mayor has agreed to it. Larry Yatch has agreed to it. It's a good idea. I'm very distressed that we went out and bought new backhoes this year when we could have had some repossessions, and we can pick them up, $40,000.00 for $13,000.00.

I have talked with the Director. I don't feel I'm getting the type of copy I want, and I'm very concerned about it. I just wanted to bring it to your attention. My office has prepared kits for all members of Council of all repossession sites. We will be giving them to all the Departments, Parks and Recreation, Public Works, Supplies.

There is no reason why outfitting a law office with brand new, fairly decent equipment — you could not equip it with the kind of elegant furniture — for pennies on the dollar — out of a law office or some corporation where you have a repossession. I find it's most distressing. You know how I feel.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I would like to have a post agenda item on Northgate Pool and Bathhouse for a week tomorrow, Mike. If I just may shorten here on the bids of August 27 of 1981, it then took sixty days to okay. Then not countersigned until March. Altogether, its 189 days for some reason or another we have not acted. It's come to us now because, under Act 317, it's exceeding that period of ninety days and therefore, we need this approval. The contractor asked for an extension of contract time which results in an increase of $400,000.00. The thing most distressing is the time was to be June 1st for the Northgate Pool. It will now be August 31st. So, for that summer, we don't have use of that pool, and I think we ought to have some response on that. So, Mike, relative to Parks and Recreation and any other department involved. And I would like to have this a week tomorrow.

Mr. Stone moved to approve the minutes of Monday, August 2, 1982.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Robinson

Council adjourned.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Michelle Madoff:

I understand there was an energy conservation meeting that Mr. Robinson attended and we just had a little quick caucus. You know, you appointed me about two years ago to head an Energy Committee, but it doesn't really do much good when you say you have an Energy Committee. Committee over what? I was on the Steam Heat Plant Committee for a couple of years and maybe something will happen with that. This whole building is going to have to have an energy impact of some sort. I don't know about your office, but in my office I have a thermostat. I don't have to turn my radiator on and off, I don't break the valve, I get the right temperature. I know in the winter I go into most offices of Councilmembers and they're running their air-conditioning. Nobody's ever done an evaluation of whether you should run the air-conditioning because of the heat because it's too expensive to put a thermostat in.

There are many areas we could be looking at in this room. There's no reason right now why we have the thermostat at 68°. I'm sitting in a draft. I just turned off the fan because the room is cool enough at this point, and we're not going to be here that long, and I'm out of a draft. I don't want to be out ill. It's not necessary. And we ought to be doing something about having some kind of energy representation. Mr. Robinson, would mention what you just said to me about the meeting?

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I had an opportunity to attend an Energy Conference in Knoxville, Tenn. about two or three weeks ago, and one of the things that was rather obvious to me at that conference was that across the Country, many cities are very seriously considering establishing energy policies, not only because of the high cost of energy, but because of the importance of energy. We in the city of Pittsburgh have been making some attempts to audit some of our buildings and become a little bit more aware of energy conservation. But I think it would do us well to seriously consider establishing an energy policy in this City and to make sure the appropriate people are on the board at the administration level who can implement a policy.

Some communities have gone the route of regulations first. Other communities have gone the route of setting up some sort of mechanism or procedure that would let them better monitor their energy requirements and needs. But I think it would do us well to seriously consider an overall energy policy for the City of Pittsburgh, and the effort that is presently being launched to better inform our city employees is a step in the right direction.

Michelle Madoff:

One of the issues is that a very simple thing like a sun rights bill. That if you put in a solar collector, nobody can build, or put a tree up or build a property ninety feet, I can't recall whether it's seventy or ninety feet from your collector.

What good is it if you go out and put a fifteen thousand dollar collector on your house and somebody puts in something that obstructs your sun rights. It's a very simple thing that most states already have. Our state was supposed to do it; they never did it. We could do it in the City. We've spend city monies doing pilots, you know, demonstrations, and we have a couple of solar entities. They should have sun right protection. Very simple things.

But it's like our clean up bill. Forward Avenue, you know where the Squirrel Hill Theater is? There a bunch of new fast food places that have gone in from Taylor-Alderdice High School down to Murray Avenue. And I want to tell you, Mr. Robinson and Mr. O'Malley, we were over at the Hazelwood March Against Drugs the other day, it's dirtier than what we saw in that playground.

Unless we start to have a policy, I'm using that as an example, we're mixing apples and oranges, but I'm talking about, you know, you pass all the rules in the world, but if you don't enforce them it doesn't mean anything. Unless we really have a commitment to go back and put tags up and say on Tuesday of this date we're going to clean, and you fine somebody if you see them putting it down, and you start enforcing the law, nothing's going to happen. I serve on that committee, I've never gone to a meeting because they hold them at 8:00 in the morning, they're supposed to come up with regulations. We have enough regulations on the books. Just start enforcing them. Somebody has got to show some leadership in that area.

The same thing on energy. Somebody has got to say "Yes, we want to do something about not having our thermostats in the buildings at 68°. Yes, we don't want to run air-conditioning in the winter." I don't call the shots, I can talk until I'm blue in the face. But if the Administration doesn't want to do it, nothing will happen.

(BEGINNING OF MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 997 FROM WEDNESDAY, 9/8/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, as you remember, when we had the original hearing, there seemed to be some concern on the part of some of the residents of that area about whether or not they were properly notified and properly informed. At that time, we instructed our Planning Department to re-schedule the meeting so that all of the persons in the area —

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

No, I'm not confused. They asked to have another meeting or hearing in the community so that other parties could have an opportunity —

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

Right, to present themselves. That meeting was held and the Board was notified and it is my understanding from the Planning Department that a vast majority of the people who came to the meeting and live in the community were surveyed and would like us to go forward with the zone change and I'd like to make a motion that we approve this zone change.

(END OF MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS
ON BILL NO. 997 FROM WEDNESDAY,
9/8/82)

Also,

Bill No. 1364

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Section 11 of Resolution No. 1267 of 1977, as amended, entitled, 'Providing for the filing of an application by the City of Pittsburgh with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development for a grant in connection with the 1978 Community Development Block Grant Program', so as to decrease line item PW-78-37, 'Bloomfield Bridge' from $650,000 to $0 (-$650,000) and further to increase line item CC-78-01 'Unspecified Local Option' from $2,125,011.51 to $2,175,011.51 (+$650,000)."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like, Mike, if I could, my remarks on this subject to be brought forward. I'm happy that we found the $650,000.00 and other money so we could go forward with the particular fire house over there in the Northside of Pittsburgh. And I commend those Councilpeople who endeavored never to let the thing go until they got the money. The thing that concerns me is that we had $650,000.00 sitting in a particular account in my committee and that particular department did not tell the Controller of the City of Pittsburgh or this Council that that money was no longer needed to be used.

If this is the case on this particular one, I just wonder how many others are sitting down there and when this Council comes up for money for especially Unspecified Local Option, we were told by the Administration and by our own Finance Department that there is no money available. We were on a search for this money for many, many months and finally it came down to this analysis. I submit, and I will submit to my own department, and Mike, Chief Clerk, I would like you to send a letter down that I want a complete review on all monies that have not been spent.

It is the Administration's responsibility to let the Controller know about this. And it's done by letter form. Until that's down, we sit up here in this Council now knowing if there is more money needed. I know the abutements at both ends of that Bloomfield Bridge had to be torn down and there was some additional demolition. I assume that this money here was going to be used for that. Apparently the contract had been let and other monies were used. So even I set an unbalance here not knowing if this money was free or not. I think as soon as a particular contract has been completed, that upon the completion of the physical work of that contract, then the payment by the Controller of the City of Pittsburgh, any excess money should be released back to Council's funds so we can use it for whatever we deem appropriate.

(BEGINNING OF MR. GIVENS'
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1364 FROM
WEDNESDAY, 9/8/82)

Mr. Givens:

Discussion. I have concerns on this. We have to appreciate that the Bloomfield Bridge is going to be $26 million as we know it now. We know, also, that the highways and sewers and public works at the federal level has been very restrictive in this last year and it appears that it will continue. I have concerns that this $650,000.00 which was on the books since 1977 under Unspecified Local Option or under this public works 78-37 was not indicated that it was ever spent, otherwise, we had $650,000.00 that, to me, it looked like that was money that could have been used and we've been told at this Council that we didn't have any unspecified local option money, that it was all earmarked and spent. It's double bookkeeping is what this boils down to. It should have been taken off the books back in 1978 or at the latest. Now we have a problem here, a problem of bookkeeping with this Administration to my knowledge. We came up with an $11 million shortage after last year's budget and now here's a figure coming of $650,000.00 in money that we didn't think we actually had, but it was found for this project for the Northside firehouse.

I have a concern in this particular area. We can't sit here as a responsible Council and come up with $650,000.00 that should have been taken off the books or should have been spent or was spent but it was under a different code account. That is not a good bookkeeping process, and I have reservations with using $650,000.00 of Bloomfield Bridge money regardless of what the Administration says or anyone else says, until that project is completed or near completion.

(END OF MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1364 FROM WEDNESDAY, 9/8/82)

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, you know, I introduced a resolution before this Council that we have our own fiscal advisor. If we'd had our own fiscal advisor, you can be sure, Mr. Givens, that the person reviewing it who had that kind of background would have found what monies are sitting around in what accounts. It's impossible for myself to do that. I don't know what pressures our Budget Office, if they're under any at all, but obviously, they didn't tell us about, suddenly when we need money we don't have it, suddenly money appears. They work for nine people. It's a tough situation to be in. I don't know why our Finance Chairman did not know that that $650,000.00 was around. Maybe he did know and thought it was going to be changed to something else. I don't know. But it seems to me that Council is treated in the same way of keeping us in the dark, like you grow mushrooms in the dark and you feed them a lot of bs. Horse manure. That's how we're treated. We're kept in the dark and when they want information they let us know and meanwhile we're fed a lot of horse manure.

I think your point is extremely well taken and I'm very disappointed in you that you didn't vote to support a fiscal officer or a fiscal advisor for the Council. You can't blame anybody but yourself because you don't really care.

Mr. Givens:

That's your opinion, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

That is my opinion.

Mr. Givens:

In answering you, if I might, I would have to say that a fiscal officer, as well as our own Council fiscal staff, until the Administration says that there is no more contractual agreements going out there, we'd have to have a staff of engineers and controllers and everyone to be looking over the Administration's shoulder to say when a contract is completed. If we raise the monies in this Council and the Administration must perform the work. When the work is performed on that contract, the Administration then, must say what money is left over in that particular account. In many cases, they must come back to this Council and ask us for additional money, additional overruns.

If it continues as it has continued, then I think this Council must take appropriate action wherein we'll give them the money as the contracts are drawn down. In this way, we will have all the money and when they need some, we'll give it to them. If that's the way government has to be worked, then I think it will have to be worked that way. I'm hoping that the Administration will take heed to this one particular $650,000.00, and know where we're coming from. If we have to, I'll suggest that type of legislation so we can run this government in such a fashion that we know exactly how much money is there and now being used.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. First of all, relative to the Bloomfield Bridge, this is a major item that everyone wanted to have accelerated because they thought 1) that main artery needed to be completed, and 2) we didn't know exactly whether we were going to go with that by-pass line or not. This is one in which, when they finally found out that they were not going to do it, they didn't release the money. In don't know where the problem is. In addition to that, there has been an ongoing program this year to release funds and that's why our Unspecified Local Option got up to where it was, because they were reprogramming. By virtue of the instructions that we gave them this year, that any time a project is finished to move it into Unspecified Local Option and we've been spending that Unspecified Local Option all year. Even more than we started off with on January 1.

I don't see the problem here and I don't see that there seems to be any mystery with it. This is a major project which we wanted to have all the money necessary to go. We had acquisition costs; we had some difficulties there we weren't sure we were going to experience initially. We were there ready to go because that was a major artery. Now at this particular time, because of some funding possibilities that have come up, there are some changes. This is the time they have to make the change. Up to that time they could not have made a judgement in advance. I don't see anything wrong with it, frankly.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, we're talking apples and oranges. Nobody on this Council is say that we don't want to go ahead with the Bloomfield Bridge and no one is even arguing that it's an appropriate expenditure. What I think I hear Mr. Givens saying is that there are monies available in Unspecified Local Option. I don't know whether those monies could have been used for summer employment, for example. I don't know if those monies could have been used —

Mr. Stone:

Michelle, that's not in Unspecified Local Option.

Michelle Madoff:

I said I didn't know. I just said —

Mr. Stone:

Well, I'm telling you it's not. It's going from that project, Bloomfield Bridge, to Unspecified Local Option, and then it's going back out to the firehouse. We did not have the funds in Unspecified Local Option.

Michelle Madoff:

May I continue? There are projects that come up all the time over the year and we say that we just don't have the money. Like the bridge. How long have they waited for that bridge, Mr. Robinson?

Mr. Robinson:

Fourteen years.

Michelle Madoff:

Fourteen years. Maybe that $650,000.00 could have been put into the bridge that's been waiting for fourteen years. All I'm saying is that we don't know and when I bring up the concept of having an independent fiscal advisor for this Council, the reason it's shot down, the reason it was given, is that we can use the Mayor's staff, we don't need to duplicate efforts.

The Chair:

Michelle, we voted it down and you're going on and on --

Michelle Madoff:

But I think it's important. The point is that when a member of this Council says, "We don't have to create another body because, after all, we can use the Mayor's staff", that's like say we might as well disband, we don't need a City Council. You either have an administrative and a legislative branch of government or you don't have it. And maybe we should disband and rely entirely on the Administration because we're not suppose to have a say so.

The Chair:

Don't put that on the referendum, they'll probably vote us out.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I don't think either you or I or a number of people sitting here at this Council were fully knowledgeable in fiscal matters to make sound judgments for example on the Stadium and on bond issues. We are not experts and we need the help of experts. And why this body would fight getting any expert help and they talk about what it's going to run. I'll tell you the price. The price is $25,000.00 to hire one person who is a graduate of the universities of either Pitt or Mellon. I don't want to choose them. Mr. Stone can choose the person. I don't care who you choose. But somebody who is an advisor to all of us when we come to very pertinent matters and we don't rely on the Administration who is presenting us with a budget we have to evaluate. We are not evaluating. What are we bothering to evaluate for? We have all their advice. They tell us what they want. Why do we even go over the budget? It is only because Michelle Madoff introduced the bill and because there's personality conflicts and we don't care about the welfare of the public. And very good proof of that, Mr. President, is that three years ago, I introduced a bill to this Council for third party payees and you recall I said to you, "Do you remember Mr. McGrady's son being here from Blue Cross and Blue Shield?" and you said yes you did, and I was told that I had never introduced it and I said I rest my case. Fortunately, Mr. O'Malley had the support of other members of this Council, and that good bill passed. But for two years the public was denied those funds because of personality conflicts on this Council. And that really is a very sad story.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd like to have my comments from Wednesday on Bill No. 1364 brought forward.

(BEGINNING OF MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1364 FROM WEDNESDAY, 9/8/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I think the record will reflect that at the hearing that we had on both Bill No 1364 and Bill No. 1363, that the Director of Public Works indicated that the $650,000.00 transferred here was no longer needed to complete or initiate any portions of the Bloomfield Bridge project and that he had no objections to this money being transferred. There seemed to be some concern on the part of the people in the Bloomfield community as to whether or not the bridge, in any way, was going to be stopped or delayed based on this transfer. We have assurances from the Mayor's Office and assurances from our fiance people, as well as Public Works, that this $650,000.00 transfer is money that was left over and it is not needed, in any way, for that project and I move for approval.

(END OF MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1364 FROM WEDNESDAY, 9/8/82)

WHEREAS, in recent years, Mr. Cooper became affiliated with the Allegheny County Mental Health and Mental Retardation Services, where he worked with emotionally handicapped young people and adults; and

WHEREAS, on September 19, 1982, the Homewood Library will be the site of "An Evening with Cornell Cooper", where he will be honored for his great contributions.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh, hereby join the many friends and admirers of Cornell Cooper in saluting him for a lifetime of achievement.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that September 19, 1982, shall be designated as "Cornell Cooper Day" in the City of Pittsburgh, in honor of his distinguished contributions to our City.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

I might add that Mr. Cooper is a long time friend of mine, going back forty some years. He's also the brother of Charlie Cooper, the well known basketball player who you're all familiar with who was formerly the Parks Director in the City of Pittsburgh. He now is without both legs, he's a paraplegic, he has diabetes, he has a heart condition, and strangely enough, I've been to see him and his mood, you wouldn't believe, is such a great one, like there's nothing wrong. He was a great athlete and a great entertainer.

Mrs. Masloff:

Did he go to Schenley High School?

The Chair:

No, he went to Westinghouse.

Mr. Given:

Mr. President, I would like to call in, not this Wednesday, but the following Wednesday, the 22nd of September, for a post agenda, I would like the Mayor's Office, the Director of the Department of Public Works or someone who is involved in this particular subject, and the Police Department also. It has to do with our truck by-pass routes within the City of Pittsburgh. I think all of us have seen the signs up there and the trucks are not using the by-pass route that has been designated by the City of Pittsburgh. I want to know what is going to be done about it. I'd like these people to come, Mike, prepared with charts, as they briefed this Council some year, year and a half ago, as to where these truck routes were going to go in, and how many of them have gone in. Are we completed with that and what are we doing to enforce it?

If other cities can do it, I see no reason why the City of Pittsburgh cannot do it. If any truck comes into the City of Pittsburgh and does not have a delivery within the City, then they are in violation of our ordinance.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, a few days ago, I had attended a meeting of the East Carnegie Community Council, and there were approximately one hundred individuals in attendance and they seemed extremely frustrated because included in the upcoming year, there wasn't an appropriation for the start of the fire station on the Noblestown Road site. They have become aware that the project now has been put off for three more years, not to be included until the '86 appropriations. Now, they receive word from the Mayor's Office that the appropriation for the fire station may be completely shelved. For years, any time that they have had problems in regards to fire, often times they have had to rely on assistance from the Carnegie Station.

They asked me if I would ask Council if they could have a hearing in regard to where they project stands. From the indication at the meeting, it seems to me that there were quite a few individuals concerned and would be interested in attending a hearing.

The Chair:

It seems to me that we had a hearing on that about three years ago and the problem was that they didn't want to close the old one, but they were going to build a new one. Now you say that they're not even building a new one?

Mr. Flaherty:

No, they're not going to build the new one.

The Chair:

Then they're not closing the old one?

Mr. Flaherty:

It is closed already.

Mr. Stone:

The question was whether they were going to move that one out further, and if you'll recall, it was a question of whether it would be closer to the town or farther out. And they were being serviced by the Carnegie or Scott Township Fire-Police, and we tried to investigate and I don't know where that is now. The possibility of some working agreement where you're close to the edge —

The Chair:

I might say that I find it strange that I thought the only objection from those people was that they didn't want the old one closed and that it was a forgone conclusion that they were going to build a new one. Now I'm being told they're not even planning it in '86, if at all.

Well set the hearing up.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I would like to schedule a hearing, an update of the Stadium situation. I can tell you that, because we didn't have that one week to even let people digest it, they felt they were railroaded. I have never had such vehement comments made to me, and people being so hostile in my life. I think it would be very important that we keep the people updated on what is happening. Not just what is happening that the media has been able to find out, but the Mayor and Mr. Matter or whoever is responsible, come back and tell us what is happening with the medallions, but more important, what is happening with the boxes because I read, and I presume it's accurate, that the Mayor feels that there's enough hope that it's going to happen, that he's going ahead anyway. My understanding is we don't go ahead unless all the items have been attended to. And I would like that as soon as possible. So how about speaking to the Mayor and seeing how fast he can come back for a hearing with us.

Mrs. Masloff:

I don't believe they have anything to tell us yet.

Michelle Madoff:

Then how can you go ahead and hire anybody and make a firm commitment?

Mrs. Masloff:

Well, they're not going to hire anybody.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes they did. It says so in the paper today.

Mrs. Masloff:

No, they just got bids, but they are not going to hire anybody. There's a meeting this afternoon with the Stadium Authority and they're just soliciting goods to be ready. But they're not going to hire a firm yet.

Mr. Flaherty:

I believe that my colleague has an excellent idea, and I feel, now, that we on Council, especially, considering that six weeks have elapsed since approval was given to the Stadium pact and it seems to me that we on Council are kept pretty much in the dark. Just today I read in the Post Gazette that a travel receipt has been put in from the Director for the Department of Public Works that was travelling to see Astro-turf in another city. So, it seems to me that if we are not formally entered yet into contracts, the City is assuming a responsibility for travelling and I agree with what Michelle Madoff has said. I believe it was made extremely clear at the hearing that the pact would not be finalized without those contingent items of the lounges and the medallions being sold. So, here we are now, in the position on Wednesday, we are supposed to pay for some travelling for the City Director of Public Works in regard to Astro-turf. It seems to me that until that pact is finalized, this Council should not be paying for anything. It seems to me that that should still be the responsibility of the Stadium Authority. I think we're getting very close to comfort. We're reading constantly that they're on the verge of signing contracts, and I think that since we are that close, this Council is entitled to an update.

The Chair:

I agree with you in regards to an update, but I don't think a hearing is necessary. Why don't we talk about a post agenda a week from Wednesday so we can give enough notice to get their facts and figures in here.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine. No problem.

Mr. Givens:

You received the order of the post agenda, Mr. Chief Clerk. I was the first one on their, right?

Michelle Madoff:

I have some left over from June. Do you want to wait until after mine are on?

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, on the same subject. I would be remiss if I didn't mention this point. From what I gather, if we're going to start relying on what we read in the paper, we're trying to get this thing accomplished so that beginning in 1983, and I understand the Pirates are delaying some of their original games to be out of town so that in case there is some delay, we can be ready, I'm wondering how some people on this Council expect everything to happen. Come April 15, 1983, they go out looking for turf, come April 15, 1983, they start looking for what they have to do, or should they do that pre-planning along the lines that they're doing. I'm at a loss to understand. This seems to be heads up and should be encouraged rather than discouraged for doing that.

Michelle Madoff:

That's not what he said.

Mr. Flaherty:

I don't think we should assume the responsibilities until the pact has been finalized. They haven't sold their twelve medallions or the lounges. So I don't think City taxpayers should be assuming the responsibility until the Mayor comes through on his part of the agreement.

Mr. Stone:

I know you're opposed to it. That's been quite obvious. Then some other times you say, "Well, maybe we ought to have the baseball team and the other stuff", but nevertheless, I think now you've lost the vote and it was the decision of this body that we go forward. It would appear to me that we should operate with a heads up fashion to try to get the thing accomplished now.

Mr. Flaherty:

I don't think we should have any heads up until the contingency plan of that agreement is heads up.

Mr. Stone:

You may have a difference of opinion, Tom, and that seems to be how it goes, but sometime the vote should end something rather than perpetually continue.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, you're perpetually continuing in support of it.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think that one vote on this Council would change if we voted on it again. I do think, though, and all I'm saying is that we would like an update. And the reason we really need an update more than anything else, is because we didn't wait a week and the people felt that they were being railroaded. People do not understand this was not a bail out for the Galbreaths, that the citizens, the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh, indeed, own that Stadium and have to pay those deficits. And, from my point of view, we really did not have a choice.

I spoke to Mr. Dan Rooney as we were leaving this room, and I would like to share with my colleagues, and I said, "Dan, you're the Steelers, why don't you take over that contract?" And he said, "Well, you said it all, Michelle." And I said, "What did I say?" He said, "It isn't a choice between a good contract and a bad contract. It's a choice between a bad and a worse." And that's how I voted. The least damage to the community because we couldn't afford anymore increase in taxes because of losses that could take place. And I think it's most appropriate and all I raised the issue for is to have an update. I'm not criticizing, I'm not critical. But I don't think this Council should be paying for business for Astro-turf; the Stadium Authority should be paying for that. And if they're going out looking at contractual people, the Stadium Authority should be paying for that. And I agree with Mr. Stone, we should be ready because you can't do it overnight. It's like stars aren't discovered overnight. They've been out there for twenty years.

Mr. Givens:

I just have one other comment. It's very obvious to anyone who goes to the ballfield there that the City is involved in doing certain maintenance within the field. I have no problem with that whatsoever. I do know, there's been authority though, that's been created to where that money should be handled. I think if the City does it, then we should be reimbursed and from the Authority. I don't know if anybody is keeping a track record on this. It was just last Wednesday when that legislation came through to send the Director of Public Works to go forward looking to see what type of turf we can put on that particular field. I have no problem with that. In fact, it was in this Council this Wednesday; those who were present voted on it. And if you're not here to vote on a particular subject then you can't criticize it after the vote was already completed.

Mr. Flaherty:

I agree wholeheartedly. I think you bring up an excellent point, Councilman Givens.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, very quickly. I'd like a briefing from the Chairpeople of the Keep Pittsburgh Clean Committee because it's getting dirtier. I do not see a truck going by with a tarpaulin on. I do not see the trucks coming out of all these new developments with their wheels hosed down. In New York, if you did that, boy they'd be fined instantly. The dirt on the streets when the trucks go over, you get as much dirt, I presume, as you did back in the '40's. You're just covered with it. I have just had a $350.00 repair on my automobile for the paint being eaten off my car parking under the school here. Please, let's have an update —

The Chair:

May I ask you what's the paint got to do with litter?

Michelle Madoff:

Water leaking from the bridge onto my car. My issue is really irrelevant. The issue is, for example, in the areas that I see all the time, I told you from Alderdice down to Murray Avenue, it is dirtier than that playground in Homewood. We talk about meeting and we're coming up with regulations, I've asked the chairman of my committee to please have one in the afternoon, he's free to use my office, he said he would. I haven't heard anything. They schedule them for eight in the morning. Well at seven thirty and eight in the morning I'm on the phone with somebody who says their garbage hasn't been picked up on Monday. Or why am I not paying my tickets and screaming at me like a madman.

I'm constantly working for the public and I'd like to see something happening. Let's stop writing laws and let's start enforcing existing laws. And I would like to see the Mayor of a representative of the Mayor's Office on that committee be here. What and when are we going to stop writing the laws and when are we going to start doing something about the problem?

The Chair:

Speaking of tarps, somebody sent me a cartoon from the Pittsburgh Press that someone said that what we should do with City Council is put a tarp over it.

Mr. Robinson:

On a matter that, in many respects, I think, is going to become more important to us, and I would hope that Council would take it upon itself to get some information and be prepared for the time when we may have to make some decisions relative to this issue. The issue that I am referring to is the current controversy between the National Football League and the cities of Los Angeles and Oakland, California, specifically in reference to the movement of two football franchises, the Los Angeles Rams to Anaheim and the Oakland Raiders to Los Angeles.

As Council may be aware, there are two bills presently in Congress. One is a House Bill, 6467, the other is a Senate Bill 2784. There is also another bill sponsored by Senator Spector deals with the issue of whether or not the National Football League should be exempt from the anti-trust laws. The reason I think that this is an issue that this Council needs to address, just recently, we went through an exhaustive discussion as to whether or not the City of Pittsburgh should operate our stadium. One of the key questions was whether or not a major league baseball franchise, the Pittsburgh Pirates, will remain in our community. The issue of whether or not the Steelers will remain here was resolved in part when Mr. Dan Rooney, the President, indicated that the Steelers have no intentions of leaving the City of Pittsburgh. While I have great confidence in Mr. Rooney's word and, I think, the family has proven their loyalty to the City, the overwhelming impact of major league sports in this town, whether it be the Penguins, the Spirit, the Steelers, or the Pirates, was brought home to us during those discussions. The entertainment industry, the sports industry, is a multi-billion dollar industry, and it's impact on any metropolitan area is obvious. I believe it was Mr. Horran from the Chamber of Commerce who indicated that he felt that between the Pirates and the Steelers, they generated something like $50 million in our community.

The case of the Oakland Raiders, I think, just highlights the concern that many communities have around the country about the movement major industry. And while it is a problem that is much like the Gordian knot, I think that it behooves us here in Pittsburgh to be mindful that we are also in a major sports market, that we have major teams here, and if, from time to time, we are reminded of the value of these teams, and we are asked to do certain things for them, to give them certain concessions to keep them here. I think our first obligation is to protect the people of the City and to protect our economy. We did what we thought was right in reference to the Stadium. I supported that and I believe we made the right decision. But I would hope that the Chairman of our Stadium Authority, Mr. Whitmer, and also, our City Solicitor, Mr. Pellegrini, would be available at sometime in the near future to give us some briefing as to what impact these two pieces of legislation might have on our sports situation here in the City of Pittsburgh.

Also, I think it behooves every member of Council to take a look at House Bill 6467 and Senate Bill 2784, because, in the not too distant future, we may be faced with the prospects of a major sports franchise moving from our community, perhaps for good reasons as far as the sports franchise is concerned, but maybe not for good reasons as far as this Council is concerned.

I received a letter on August 16th from a Councilmember in Los Angeles, the Honorable Dave Cunningham, from the Tenth District, in which he requests that persons who are concerned about this issue become a bit more familiar with it, and also, where he indicates that many people are of the mistaken opinion, and this is Mr. Cunningham's opinion, that both these bills will, indeed, prohibit sports teams from moving at will. It is his understanding of the two pieces of legislation that these sports teams can still move at their own discretion even if these two bills are passed, and he introduced into the Council in Los Angeles a motion which was unanimously passed which basically indicates that the City of Los Angeles opposes these two bills and opposes any legislation that would have the same effect and instructs their legislation representatives in the Congress and in the Senate to work against passage of House Bill 6467 and also, the Senate Bill.

I would like to have a copy of this letter entered into our record as well as a copy of the motion and, as I said, at the appropriate time, Mr. President, I think it would be wise for us to have Mr. Whitmer and our City Solicitor give us some perspective on these two bills and on our situation relative to our sports franchises.

(LETTER AND ENCLOSURE FROM COUNCILMAN DAVID CUNNINGHAM, LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA)

August 16, 1982

Dear Friend:

I am enclosing, for you information, a copy of a motion which was unanimously passed by the Los Angeles City Council.

This motion, as you can see, puts the City on record in opposition to Rep. Fortney P. Stark's bill HR 6467, exempting the National Football League from federal anti-trust laws.

I thought you would want to know of this action on the part of the City of Los Angeles since it has come to my attention that the National Football League is putting a considerable amount of pressure on the Congress, not only with regard to HR 6467, but also in support of S 2784 by Senator DeConcini of Arizona, which would retroactively remove the Federal Court judgment in favor of the Raiders. Many concerned citizens and city officials are of the impression that adoption of either of these pieces of legislation would protect their cities from losing an NFL team. However, I wish to point out these bills would not, in fact, provide any such protection. The League will have full power to allow a franchise to move, and the local municipality will have no recourse to criteria that would limit League action. Without court review, any decisions the League chose to make regarding the moving of a franchise would be totally at their own discretion. The League would be immune from intervention by local municipalities.

I urge you to analyze these bills very carefully and would be happy to provide you with any further information you may wish.

Sincerely yours,

Dave Cunningham
Councilman, Tenth District

DC/LSW:jmg

Enclosure

MOTION

A large number of people in Los Angeles County are in favor of the move of the Oakland Raiders to Los Angeles. A federal court has decided that actions by the National Football League to prevent that move violates anti-trust laws.

On May 21, 1982, Representative Fortney (PETE) Stark of Alameda County introduced HR 6467, which explicitly allows the NFL to prevent the move by providing an exemption from Federal anti-trust laws. The bill has a retroactive effect, and would thus reverse the effect of the federal court decision allowing the Raiders to move to Los Angeles. A similar measure has been introduced in the Senate by Senator DeConcini.

I therefore move that the City's Legislative Program include opposition to HR 6467 and any other legislation having the same effect and; 2) instruct the City's legislative representatives in Washington, D.C. to work against passage of HR 6467 and any other legislation having the same effect.

PRESENTED BY:
DAVE CUNNINGHAM
COUNCILMAN, TENTH DISTRICT

(END OF LETTER AND ENCLOSURE)

The Chair:

You know, Bill, there's always the danger of a sports team leaving. I don't think there's any way you can stop them from going to another city. I don't care what laws they pass. A few years back, I forget the city, they sued to let them honor their lease. I believe they pulled out and didn't even honor the lease. Now we're being told under this present leasing system that they're going to have to stay in or pay that lease for a period of, what, thirty years, the remainder of a forty year contract I think was twenty eight years.

That is a possibility, but, on top of that, I think they could pay that off and still leave. I don't think there's any way in the world you can stop a sports team or any other enterprise, any other business, from leaving town.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, let me just comment on that. My concern is not so much whether or not we could stop a team from leaving. My concern is that this issue has gone to the Courts and is now in the Congress and might possibly have some impact, positive or negative, on the City of Pittsburgh. And it seems to me, since we've put so much time and effort into emphasizing the importance of our sports teams to this community and what they mean to the economy, that it's in our best interest to get on top of this issue now because there may be future decisions that we have to make. And I think it's best for us to make those decisions being informed.

In the case of Los Angeles and Oakland, they had real live situations. The House Bill that was introduced was introduced by a Congressman from Alameda County, which is the county in which the Oakland Coliseum sits. Mr. Cunningham, from Los Angeles, I'm sure, offered his motion in light of the fact that the Los Angeles Rams packed up and went to Anaheim leaving the Los Angeles Coliseum empty. And while we might not face those specific situations, I don't think it's too far fetched to suggest that major sports in Pittsburgh are a major issue and a major part of our community. And I think we would do well to be on the positive end of this situation and sometimes I think we're threatened by our sports teams, by the owners. That they'll pack their bags and leave if we don't do certain things for them. And I don't think we should be put in a position of perhaps being blackmailed. I think we need to get a proper perspective of the situation, and I think that if we do that, that we'll all be able to live in mutual harmony.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, in Washington, D.C., I'm not sure if it's Washington where the stadium is located, the Capitols, the basketball team, confronted their City Council with an ultimatum. And the ultimatum was, we cannot afford to pay a ten percent amusement tax. You drop it to one half or one percent, or we're leaving. We just can't afford it.

Not only did they drop it to one half or one percent, meaning that cities feel that it is important teams, whether they're basketball, football or baseball, but they also set up a telephone bank, and I talked to Sophie about it and she's going to discuss it today with the Stadium Authority at her meeting, where those people who wanted to keep the Capitols, and in our case, it would be those people who want to keep the Pirates, would use telephone banks, I know of a source where we can use sixty telephones which are on a pay by the month, there would be no charge, and those people who live in the suburbs and who live in the City who think it's very important to keep the Pirates, sell season tickets. I talked to the Mayor about it and he thinks it's a very good idea. When I leave this meeting, the first person I'm going to talk to is the Galbreaths. I would like to see something like that happening that becomes very productive because then they become so profitable, they don't leave.

But in keeping with what Mr. Robinsor has said, Bill, don't you think it would be a good idea for this Council to have before it the same bills to encourage the House on those particular bills to support the same position? I mean, why should we wait until we get an idea of what the teams can do? Essentially we're saying, "Hey, we want to have some ties, if you have a contract you have to honor it."

Mr. Robinson:

Well, I think that Mr. DePasquale's comment about not being able to pass legislation that keeps sports teams from moving is well taken. I think the fact that this issue is in the Congress has raised a lot of concerns by people who don't believe that's where it should be, that the issue should not be in Congress, if it's going to be resolved, it should be resolved in the Courts. The thrust of the House legislation is to make retroactive this exemption to the extent that the Los Angeles Raiders would have to move back to Oakland. It seems to me that we need to inform ourselves, definitely, on this issue before we go one direction or the other regardless of our personal preferences. I think Mr. Cunningham's comments, that people are proceeding under the mistaken impression that both these bills will, indeed, prevent teams from moving, suggests that there is still some uncertainty. I think all the Senators and Representatives who are involved in this effort are sincere, but I think they are trying to find a political solution to perhaps something that is not political. And I think that if we're going to make a decision on it one way or the other, I think it would be wise for us to talk to the Chairman of our Stadium Authority, and also our City Solicitor who spend some time in sports related matters, particularly in this turnover of the Stadium Authority operation to the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Thank you, Bill.

Mr. Stone moved to approve the minutes from Tuesday, September 7, 1982.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Robinson

Council adjourned.

Proceedings of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh

VOL. CXVI

Monday, September 20, 1982

No. 36

Municipal Record

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, September 20, 1982

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

The meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Flaherty presented

An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Four - Public Places and Property, Article VII, City Realty, Chapter 453, Urban Homesteading, Sections 453.02, Definitions, 453.03, Homesteading Program Inventory, and 453.05, Transfer of Title, by defining abandoned property, by setting forth new procedures relative to the acquisition of property, and by requiring the City to set aside Home Improvement Loan Funds for use in the Homesteading Program.

Mr. Robinson:

I think we need some clarification prior to Mr. Flaherty introducing it. I believe it's a technical problem. When I introduced the original Homesteading bill, after some discussion and debate, that bill was substituted. We put in a substitute bill. We need to be careful that we don't run into a problem of ending up considering a bill at this time that technically has to wait for two years until Council is reorganized. I believe the rules state that if a bill is substituted, that the original bill cannot be re-introduced into Council until Council is re-organized. I don't know the full content of Mr. Flaherty's bill, but from what I just heard, it appears that it is the original or a facimile of the original Homesteading bill that I introduced into Council. That bill was substituted.

The Chair:

The one that you were told was illegal?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes. I think that we might not be on safe ground having this bill introduced at this time. We might be precluded from considering it.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. My understanding is that as long as the bill is not identical and is amended, then it is not the same bill in the same year. And I think at least we can have it introduced and we can look at it and see if it is the same bill, and at that point, if there is a conflict we can discuss what we want to do at that point.

Mr. Flaherty:

It is the same bill, but --

Mr. Robinson:

I think we need to get some clarification from the City Solicitor because my point is I don't believe that we can entertain it at all, that it can even be introduced. And I don't think it's fair to Mr. Flaherty to have his bill put into Committee and considered and then to have a technical question come up later on. What I'm saying is that we should not even discuss the merits of this bill until we're sure that we're on firm legal ground for it to go into Committee.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am certainly aware of your concern, Bill, and the reason why I had introduced it is that there were quite a few organizations, specifically ACORN, who felt that the proposal had not had a fair airing in the first place and I went and checked and I somewhat agree with their assessment and Council had not acted in any regard under the first proposal and so my intent in introducing it now is to try to satisfy the strong proponents of Urban Homesteading.

Mr. Robinson:

Well, Tom, as I've said on several occasions, I think that the original bill was something that was needed. Otherwise, I wouldn't have supported it. But by the same token, regardless of the meritorious nature of legislation, I don't think that we should do anything that's going to violate either our own rules here in Council, or violate the laws of the City of Pittsburgh. Regardless of the worthiness of that particular piece of legislation, the rules are the rules. I still support the concept of homesteading; I think the original bill was a good bill, I still believe it is the bill that should have been passed by this Council. The votes weren't there and the support was not there for it. I don't think, at this time, we ought to try to force that kind of issue in the face of what is, to me, an obvious legal problem.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, if I may. Under the present set up, there are two problems. One is quite lengthy to acquire property, as we all know. I believe I read a statement that by the time the property is acquired, it would be completely dilapidated and beyond redeeming.

The other is, once the property is acquired, if only for a dollar bill, there's quite a bit of money that has to be put up to fix these buildings, and where this money is coming from is something else. I don't think the people we're talking about have that kind of money, unfortunately.

Mr. Robinson:

The record should also reflect that there is already passed, by this Council, a Homesteading bill. I won't argue the adequacy or inadequacy of that legislation. But I think it's incumbent upon us prior to attempting to come up with new legislation to request that the appropriate people in the Administration come before Council and give us an update as to what they have done. We put quite a bit of burden on our Housing Department and our Lands and Buildings Department to develop an Urban Homesteading program. We gave them some leeway to address some of the legal problems. We asked our City Solicitor, Mr. Pelligrini, to also address some of the problems and work along with them. I think prior to us considering any additional kinds of legislation, that we ought to, at least, give them an opportunity to do that.

I believe today, in Council, we do have an amendment to the original bill which does require that we establish a gift property program. I don't want to argue the merits of one approach or the other, but certainly this Council and the Administration have made a giant step towards establishing some kind of substitutive program, and I think we should at least give them an opportunity to be evaluated on that program prior to, perhaps, getting into an extended debate as to another approach.

The Chair:

On the other hand we certainly should have some kind of program with short cuts. I mean, the delay and length is sort of ridiculous, but legally, --

Michelle Madoff:

I've been saying that for four years.

The Chair:

Legally, I doubt if the that Mr. Flaherty suggested is the way to do it. I wish it was, but I don't think legally we can do it that way.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, you talk about an amendment coming before us today. I just got a copy of that opinion from Mr. Pelligrini. You ask about apples and you get answers on oranges. I think we're going have to start making use of the legal counsel we have available to Council.

The question that I asked in the amendment, and you were so kind to follow up on, was how could we encourage, or was it possible to encourage, private owners of delinquent homes to donate them to a legal body that would give them a tax exemption. Well, he begs that question completely.

Mr. Stone:

Point of order. We are arguing the merits of a bill and that's not the issue at stake. What he's saying is that the bill has no right being introduced.

Michelle Madoff:

You're not President of Council yet.

Mr. Stone:

Point of order. This issue is whether or not the bill should be introduced because there was prior legislation discussed this year. That issue is the only issue now and he's asked that it go to the Solicitor. That issue should go to the Solicitor for an opinion; if he's correct, then the bill can't be introduced, period. We should not now be trying to talk about the merits of the actual bill which he is saying can't even be introduced.

The Chair:

Actually it should be introduced this Wednesday. Correct? If it's legal? Now we have two days to get an opinion from the Law Department. Okay?

Mrs. Masloff:

Mike is shaking his head.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, the bill was introduced, now if we can have an opinion as to the legality.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Flaherty, what I'm saying to you is, I don't believe you are on firm, legal ground to even have the bill introduced. The bill should never have been read by the City Clerk. The bill should never have been typed. That's exactly what I'm saying. We can't vote on it, we can't consider it. I think we need to get a legal opinion.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, that's your opinion.

Mr. Robinson:

That's not my opinion, that's the law.

Mr. Flaherty:

All I am asking for is that we have an opinion from the Solicitor's Office because if a bill is not introduced, how can we have an opinion?

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Flaherty, I think one of the points that you're missing is, if we have a rule or regulation that prohibits us from doing something, you can't then do that and then challenge the rules. I'm saying, what is your purpose? If we can get some clarification as to whether or not you can introduce that bill, why would it be necessary for you to introduce it and then get an opinion?

The Chair:

What's your opinion, Vince?

Parliamentarian:

I think the matter has been well defined by Councilman Robinson. I think it is out of order to introduce it now. If you want the Solicitor's opinion on whether that is so, Council can request it.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of clarification. Mr. Robinson, would you clarify something for me? There was a bill that you and I and a number of us felt would be a better bill, but we didn't have the votes for it. So you amended the bill and you introduced something entirely different. Is that correct?

Mr. Robinson:

Correct.

Michelle Madoff:

So, according to Councilman Flaherty, the original bill wasn't ever introduced.

Mr. Robinson:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

That's why I'm confused.

Mr. Robinson:

Mrs. Madoff, let me try one more time. Mr. President, with your indulgence. After this, I won't make another comment on this issue.

The original bill, which I believe was No. 1098, was introduced by Councilman Robinson on a Monday. That bill went into Committee, Committee on Planning, Housing and Development. Councilman Robinson asked to have Rule 8 waived. The following Wednesday, Councilman Robinson made a long speech which is in the record, and I will not repeat the speech, but part of that speech said, "I would like to have the bill held for a couple of weeks so that I could talk to the Mayor, Congressman Coyne, and some legal people." The bill, when it came up again two weeks later, I asked to have it held again for the same reasons. The bill was in Committee. The bill had been introduced. I subsequently came back with a substitute for No. 1098, a substitute, and explained the reasons why I was introducing the substitute. That substitute bill was subsequently passed by this Council in Committee and in full Council on a Monday. That bill is now the law of the City of Pittsburgh. That is a far different process than the one that Mr. Flaherty is attempting to start here.

The original bill was introduced and it was considered. We simply substituted it. What Mr. Flaherty, I think, is attempting to do is to now introduce into this Council, a bill that cannot be introduced into this Council, cannot even be considered, for two more years, until this Council is re-organized.

The Chair:

Bill, I think most of us share your sentiment, but at the same time, if the Councilman elects to do it whether it's illegal or not, and its going into Committee, I say before it gets into Committee, we get an opinion from the

Legal Department

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, can I ask Councilman Flaherty something? Tom, why not just take it back off the table? If you can legally introduce it next week, then introduce it next week. You yourself said that there's no pressing time to introduce this today or to have it discussed today. Why don't you just to that and it will save all the argument and we can move on with our business and you can get an opinion tomorrow or the next day and re-introduce it on Monday, if it's legally proper.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. Yes, I will withdraw that, but I would also want to inquire of the Solicitor that also in his opinion, is he can make some suggestions to this Council as to what kind of parameters we have. Can we then introduce amendments that are not exactly the same as the first proposal, or do we have to wait, for example, for two years before we can even broach this subject again.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Flaherty, let me give you a suggestion as to how, perhaps, you can resolve your problem. And I say that with all due respect when I say problem.

Certainly the legislation that is on the books right now for the Urban Homesteading Program can be amended. I have an amendment that, hopefully, Council will approve today. Any of the ideas that you have can be made as amendments to the legislation that is already on the books. My objection is to the process that you are utilizing. That's all. And I think Mr. Stone is correct. We're only talking about the procedure here, the process. Not the merit to what you're trying to do. And I'm saying there's already Urban Homesteading legislation on the books, and if you think that legislation should be changed, the amending process, I believe, is the proper route for you to take.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, I'm somewhat confused, Bill, because that's what I'm trying to do now. I'm trying to amend the Homesteading Act.

Michelle Madoff:

Give it another number.

Mr. Flaherty:

You don't consider these amendments?

Mr. Robinson:

No. I consider this entirely new legislation. If you simply want to make amendments, then amend the legislation that is already on the books. You don't have to come up with the legislation that you're attempting to introduce. I just think your process is wrong. Completely wrong.

Michelle Madoff:

It's the same thing, you're just giving it another name, Councilman Flaherty. All you're doing is saying, instead of introducing the bill, which has already been introduced, you're just going to say you're going to amend the existing bill.

Mr. Flaherty:

Right.

Mr. Robinson:

Councilman, I'm sure, with you tenacity and all the resources that you have, that if you want to try and amend the legislation or introduce some legislation, that you will be able to do it. So, I'm not, in any way, trying to thwart your efforts in that regard. I'm simply saying that I think we ought to follow the rules and regulations and we ought to stay on course and we should not let the merits, the meritorious nature or the worthiness of any project or any groups' cause lead us astray from the rules and regulations.

Mr. Flaherty:

You give me more credit than I deserve, Bill.

The Chair:

Okay, we're going to withdraw that.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, and I'm requesting an opinion from our Solicitor and, also, any suggestions as to how we can amend the Homesteading Act.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, when I --

The Chair:

Michelle, I think we ought to move on.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I want to move on, but I have something pertinent to say.

When Mr. Stone, our Finance Chairman, took the prerogative of point of order to interrupt personal preference, the reason I thought it was important to discuss this issue is not the bill itself, Mr. Robinson, or the validity of introducing the bill. It goes much beyond that. We vote in a vacuum. We vote out of context. We don't know what we're talking about and this is a perfect example of it. There's no reason why everything that was in that original bill can't be amended and now put into the bill.

One aspect of the bill that I introduced came back with a non-answer. It said that yes, we can have people give us property, but the whole concept was, can we have it as a tax write-off. You and I talked, Mr. President, about having, perhaps, some students in the building guarding the property so it isn't vandalized. We're not getting the kind of information, right at this moment, from the Law Department. And I think it's going to become very important that we can use our own resources, our own legal counsel, to have people follow up. I'm using this to explain that Council is not being given the opportunity to amend properly, in relation to procedure, I'm taling procedure now.

For example, I asked the Law Department whether we could put on our tax form, the City tax form, a slot for a voluntary, one dollar contribution, or more, to be given to unemployed youth. And I got some innocuous answer back, again, saying that all money goes in the general fund. And the Council disperses money. Well, there's nothing to say that Council can't take those additional funds and disperse them to the needy, unemployed youth. We need to get our own Council.

It seems to me that as the old story, when Davy Lawrence took a question out of his right pocket he got a no answer, and if he took it out of his left pocket he got a yes answer, and the role of the present Law Department is essentially to protect, and their vested interest is the Administration. I'm not saying that's bad. But that's why this body, long before I came to Council, had established its own source of legal counsel. I think you might want to avail yourself of that, Mr. Flaherty. And I certainly know on the two issues that I just mentioned, I'm going to come before Council and ask you, and I don't know if Mr. Stone introduced an amendment to your way of handling things, he didn't think you should have that right anymore, that we should now have five members of Council okaying it.

But, in any event, I need to get some outside legal counsel on some of the procedures of this body.

Mr. Flaherty withdrew this Ordinance from the table.

Also,

I have no problem with them, but I think we discussed this before of extra payments —

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

I don't care what it was for. It makes no difference what it was for. I just want a report back from the Controller's Office. So, if we can hold it for a week, I don't know how quickly they can get a report back.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

Three, 61, 62, and 63 — even though 62 was approved by Council previously, I would still —

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

Well, that's my question. I mean this is something that came in. I don't know if it had interim approval or not.

And they come in for a course. Something like that should be a planned operation. If they have a course they shouldn't be coming in with extra work or emergency work on a course of this nature. So, I just want the Controller to give us a report back as to the work accomplished, how it was accomplished, and —

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Louis Gaetano:

The extra work is not really extra work. The extra would have been done in the next phase of Bloomfield Bridge. The demolition of the buildings came too close to the piers. We weren't going to take the buildings down until the next contract, okay? But the ballfield and the buildings there was too close and had to remove the building immediately. It's all refundable by the Federal Government. We still have our 75, 25 funding. If it wasn't in this contract, it would have been in the next contract.

Mr. Givens:

Well, again, all I want is a report from the Controller's Office.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Ray Johnson:

I can't give it to you until I get it, and I don't get it until after you pass legislation.

Mr. Givens:

That's why I'm asking the Controller to look at —

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

I would like, and I think it's very appropriate, this Council, when we have emergency work or extra work that is accomplished, I, as Chairman of this particular committee, I would like to have a report from the Controller. That's all I ask.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

Wait a minute, Mr. Chairman. This Council is asking the Controller for a report on this particular piece of legislation. It's not because we passed it or have not passed it, we're asking for a report. I think we're in our privy to pass that.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

I don't want that type of report. That is a verbal report. I want a written report from the Controller on that. And I think this is appropriate. I think all members of Council have criticized extra work and emergency work within this — I think —

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

That's my problem. I was only going to hold it for one week.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Depasquale moved to approve.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

Opposed. And I would still like a report from the Controller's Office at any rate. I say this because we're acting in the blind as far as I'm concerned on this. The Controller does approve this, but I would like to see when we have anything out of the ordinary that we get a report from the Controller's Office on it before we make payment.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

I think all of us are very well aware of what the Controller's Office is.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

I still have asked for a report, and Ray indicates here that until it's passed by Council or something, that he can't take any appropriate action on it. I think one body of Government can ask another body --

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

Okay.

ON BILL NO. 1462

Mr. Givens:

They should be separate, I don't know why they aren't. Each bill should be a separate entity unto itself.

(END OF MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NOS. 1461 AND 1462, 9/15/82)

Mr. Givens:

I can only say that the consultant, not these particular contractors that did the demolition, but the consultant for the City of Pittsburgh, who told us what buildings had to be condemned, what land had to be acquired in order for the new Bloomfield Bridge structure to go up, gave us a plan. Within that plan there was $1 million that he had to take out in insurance to say that if he advised the City wrongfully on any of his determinations of what was needed, that the City could then go back and get this consultant for misleading the City of Pittsburgh. In this particular case, these are two demolitions, one for $6,900.00 and the other for $4,790.00.

The bond that that consultant was exactly for this purpose. If we were to be in the business world out there and a consultant do this work for our company and we were to find that the consultant wronged in his estimates of what land needed to be acquired, that company that we would have then would go after this consultant and go after that $1 million bond fund money.

I so asked the City of Pittsburgh to do this in this particular case. Therein, possibly, we'll get better type of consulting work. We send it out to consultants so we get the experts. But when they boo boo, I expect that the City Solicitor should go after them and collect the money for this demolition and the acquisition of this particular property.

For No. 1461 and No. 1462, I would like my votes to be registered as no in that particular case.

Mike, I'd like a letter to go to our Solicitor to so indicate it, asking that our Solicitor look into this and can we receive any monies from that $1 million bond issue that the consultant had to put up.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd just like to say as Chairman of this Committee, are you recommending a negative vote for these two bills?

Mr. Givens:

Well, these gentlemen, I think, should be paid for the work done right here, but I am abstaining from this vote. If you can recall, Mr. O'Malley, I asked that these votes be held for a week or two until the Solicitor could look into it to find out whether or not the City could be reimbursed for this expense. If so, it wouldn't come out of this particular code account, it would come out of another code account, the one that we paid the consultant on.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, it's my understanding, and Mr. Woods and myself have shown great concern, when a job is an overrun, we want to know why. But if it's work that was not initially included in the scope of work sent out to the engineer but something they find as they go along is extra work, an act of God, something they did not know, that is a different issue.

Now, I have asked all department heads to clarify, and I thanked our City Clerk on occasion now when they've marked side lot so we don't have to go back and review, we're not human computers. I think it would be helpful when we get these bills and it says extra work, that there is a little small paragraph at the bottom that says that this was not in the initial scope of work, it is not an overrun. That would help eliminate a lot of time and energy in this Council. I think there's a little misunderstanding here. Do you have any feeling on that Councilman O'Malley?

Mr. O'Malley:

Well, I think what Mr. Givens is say is that we hire professional consultants to give us an idea of what a project will cost. And if there's an overrun in those projects, then we should be reimbursed by the consultants.

Michelle Madoff:

I think we all agree on that. Mr. Woods and you and I agree on that. But if you tell the consultant that you want to build four playgrounds and you build six, you decide later to put two in, you can't blame the consultant for coming up with a plan for four. And I think you need definition and clarification from department heads.

But the policy has always been to treat this Council that when we want your opinion, you'll give it to us.

Mr. O'Malley:

I don't think that's the case.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I don't know. I didn't say they were or they were not. I don't know. But we get them all the time, all the time, all the time. You've been concerned. Mr. Woods has shown his concern. I've shown my concern. Councilman Flaherty. Councilman Givens. But nobody takes the leadership role to say that we are going to be told. And when we ask questions, we don't get it.

Mr. O'Malley:

That's what Mr. Givens is doing right now.

The Chair:

You know, you can talk until you're blue in the face, but when you have construction there's always some unforeseen things that happen that nobody can predict.

Michelle Madoff:

But we should be told that.

The Chair:

And you're going to have overruns on jobs from now until the end of time, such as hitting into hard rock that they didn't expect to hit, and stuff like that. Stuff that you can prove is unnecessary is something else.

Michelle Madoff:

I just said that. But we need to know if it's unnecessary.

The Chair:

Most of the stuff is apparently justified by the Department when they okay the payment.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, on this particular one, I have very much difficulty. They knew exactly where the piers were going. These two, actually three, structures were in the constructional plane where the piers were going into. If we have a consultant telling us what land we must acquire to put those piers in, then they come up and say, "Well, we made a mistake." I'm saying to you that they have to bond themselves $1 million to this City that if they make an error, and the error is on their side of the ledger, not on our side of the ledger, that this City should go after them for their deficiencies.

I will abstain for the reasons so indicated on Bill Nos. 1461 and 1462, and I want a report from the Solicitor of the City of Pittsburgh if we can reclaim any of this money and I'd like to hold those bills until such a report would be forthcoming.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 1462 I will vote no. I think that the fiasco that Crown performed in the work on the subterranean caverns does not warrant the vote of this Council.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 1474 and Bill No. 1472, today the Water Department presented me with a sheet of paper of numbers showing the amount of rentals and repairs to seventeen year old equipment. Our Director says that he would like to buy used equipment that is gently worn or repossessed when suitable and when desirable. Our Supplies Director says that within the City we have people equipped to make that judgmental value. The Mayor says it's a good idea, but at the moment there is no mechanism.

I sent the data back to the Director, his budget office. I said that not only do I want the numbers, but I want a one page explanation that, indeed, this equipment is over seventeen years old, hows many times you rented, what the amount of the rental was, what the amount of the repairs was. And I want to show, and need, because I guess invention is the mother of necessity or something like that, and perhaps if we can show the need, we can get somebody moving. I plan to take somebody who is an expert in the field and go out to some of these repossessing companies and look at some of that equipment and see if it's suitable for our City so that nobody can tell me later that we didn't buy it because it's not in good shape.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 1529, we have a $2,800.00 payment because of damage from a refuse truck. History has shown, historically, that the major accidents we have in the City are with refuse trucks, for whatever reason. We instituted a program at the instigation of this Council that would train the refuse men to operate more efficiently and better. We now have curb service. We're supposed to have a post agenda update on the dollars under $750.00, Mr. Perry, and over $750.00, total dollars, from the Department, of what, if any, improvement has been made because of this program. Is it getting worse or is it getting better? We asked that question and you were supposed to set up a post agenda. Has that been done? I asked that before and now it's on the record, because Wednesday's do not get into the record. And I want that done as soon as possible. That would be, I understand, Larry Yatch and Mr. Walker. Has the training program been, in any way, effective in cutting down the amount of claims against the City since we're self insured. I think Mr. Givens also asked for that post agenda. I have his name on the bill.

Mr. Perry:

An update on the training program?

Michelle Madoff:

An update on the training program, but specifically included, what dollars have we had incurred. How many more accidents, how many less accidents, and has it actually saved any dollars? Is it getting worse or is it getting better? I don't want just rhetoric. I want some hard numbers. Some stats. Okay?

thereof,' by providing for a Reimbursement Agreement or Agreements with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, on a communication that came before this Council in my Committee last Wednesday, Bill No. 1469, which had to do with $3,500.00 for a fence. I voted against that particular bill last Wednesday. This will come back again before this Council in the form of a Wallace Act and this is the thing that I am somewhat discouraged about.

An example on that particular 1469 was that a contractor bid to build the structure of the piers of the Bloomfield Bridge. Bid outright. Now that his equipment is being tampered with and its right next to a recreational facility, the contractor comes back and tells the City of Pittsburgh that he wants a double fence built on this particular site to protect his equipment.

Now, I ask any person, in bidding on any job, that if you're next to a recreational facility, who's responsibility is it to protect the equipment and materials of a contractor doing a particular job in behalf of the City of Pittsburgh. It's surely not the City of Pittsburgh's responsibility.

There's a fence for $3,500.00. If we look a little bit different, I think the City of Pittsburgh, to some degree, is being ripped off by various contractors who do work with the City. I can point to McArde Roadway wherein Conn Construction up there did demolition of that particular McArde Roadway Bridge. Unbeknownst to some of the City people, they also got a permit to dump that heavy reinforced concrete right next to the bridge itself. Now, in the bidding process, it indicated that that stuff would be hauled away. It was not hauled away. It was dumped, in fact, right on City ground, by a City permit, all nice and legal. But somehow or another, the City has to get its head out of the sand and look at what's going around them in the big world out there.

There was also, as I indicated, a sizemograph that was used in the Bloomfield Bridge out there to record noise level and vibrations to the various residential structures around there. The contractor came in and this Council approved the bill, apparently, which no one really looked at, for the tune of $150.00 a day to use this sizemograph in various locations. It cost the company $400.00 just to rent the sizemograph per week and yet they turned around and charged the City $150.00 per day.

These are the type of things that I think we must look into and we must stop. We cannot approve payment in such cases where contracts are, in fact, ripping off the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. O'Malley:

Are you asking for a negative recommendation on these bills?

Mr. Givens:

No. 1469 was a form of communication we voted on on Wednesday, but I want to bring it to the attention and also, Mike, I would like my comments on that particular bill be brought forward to this meeting today.

(BEGINNING OF MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1469, 9/15/82)

Mr. Givens:

I'm also requesting that this particular bill will be deferred until I receive a report from the Controller's Office. I'm going to obtain.

(END OF MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1469, 9/15/82)

Mr. Givens:

I'm saying, Jim, I have a concern. I think all members of Council have a concern. I think it's about time that each of us, within our own departments, take a very concerted interest in these cost overruns and where are they really coming from. You know, if you bid on a contract and we in the City try to get the lowest bidders for economic reasons, and then that bid has overruns and a person does not bid on the overruns at the same cost for material and labor as he did the initial bid, then I think something is wrong. We have to appreciate in some cases it's very small and in others it's very large. If you look at the City total contract as a whole, I'd have to say it's running somewhere between twenty and thirty percent cost overruns from whatever reason, or for whatever reason. This must be stopped.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, you're talking about this fence that they're going to protect their own property with. I can't find a bill like that.

Mr. Givens:

It's not. I said, Ben, it was a communication that we already voted on, not final, but we approved it Wednesday. It does not come forward, but I wanted my remarks to come forward on this, and I want to emphasize to this Council where I'm coming from. I think we have a responsibility, a financial, fiscal responsibility to really tighten up on these particular cost overruns. I intend to do it in my committee. I would hope that each of you would do it in your own committees to really investigate. I also asked on the Wednesday session on those bills that I voted against that the Controller does a complete audit on these reports and that that be submitted, which is not normally so, to this Council. But we have to make final approval before that can be done. And I'm hoping that the Controller, I'm sure, is doing his job to be sure and in many cases he's not making payment. And I commend him for that. But it's a last link in the chain when the Controller denies payment. And if someone would go down there and look at all the payments that the Controller had denied, I think you'll realize that we have somewhat of a problem in this City.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Givens, I think your approach is a very good one in that if we all start watching our own departments. I discovered last week in the Water Department that we contract out to engineers to design water lines. Then the plan comes back to the Water Department engineers, is all inaccurate, the Water Department actually draws up the design, goes back to the consultant, the consultant gets paid, and I asked why this is going on and they said, "Because we have to give approval." Well we certainly don't have to do their work for them. And if we're going to do the work for them they ought to give us a kickback in the amount of work that we're doing in the City. Maybe kickback is a bad word, but certainly, they subcontract for ten thousand dollars and they don't do the job and we do the job and all they do is retrace it, why are we paying them the ten thousand dollars. And that's very small, it's more like fifty, or sixty or one hundred thousand dollars. And when I asked the question, the answer was, "Well, we've always done it that way." Well, I might remind this Council that until 1975 the ballot said vote for five or vote for ten, the ballot no longer says that, because I took them to court. It says vote for up to or no more than. And maybe we ought to start changing the process of how we put our bids out.

If, indeed, what you said, Mr. Givens, is that that material was dumped, and it was done in-house without this Council knowing, bring it before this Council and let's take it up with the Administration. As far as I'm concerned, the Water Department better be on notice that I don't want any contracts going out where the men in our department do the work and the consultant gets paid.

The Chair:

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

On Council Bill No. 1589, last Wednesday, Council asked the Solicitor to give an opinion as to whether or not Council Bill No. 1589, which deals with our Urban Homesteading Program, met all the legal requirements for the City of Pittsburgh.

I spoke with the Solicitor this afternoon and each member of Council has a copy of a letter that he forwarded on September 20th. The only correction that the Solicitor would like to make, and it's in writing, is that he feels that we must have an agreement with the Urban Redevelopment Authority for us to carry out any kind of gift property program.

I would like to read the proposed amendment to the bill. It would be in Section E of 1589 which should read, and this is the amendment, "Gifts and donations of property for the Urban Homesteading Program established in conjunction with the Vacant Property Review Committee, a program with the Urban Redevelopment Authority for the Authority to accept donations and gifts of property for inclusion in the Urban Homesteading Program."

Mr. Robinson moved for approval of the amendment.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, on the Companion Bills, on the McNaugher Reservoir, this gets back, again, to what Councilman Givens and Councilman O'Malley and many others of us are concerned about, Mr. Woods, Mr. Flaherty and myself. When I got to Council, that money was appropriated for a liner. It was going to be $150,000.00. We're now at $300,000.00. They didn't know what they ran into until they started doing the work. I don't believe the liner has gone up that much. As a matter of fact, the liner has actually come down in cost. I don't know that the liner should be put up, and I had asked that we do not pass on this bill unless, and everybody on Council agreed, unless we have signs posted that say that violation of the Drinking Water Act under federal statute would be a mandatory sentence because you're contaminating potable water. Now I want to see that included in this bill. I'm not passing on this bill. So I want it held a week until that is included in the bill.

Mr. Robinson:

You want to send it back to Committee?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes.

Mr. Robinson:

I'll second that.

Mr. Woods:

I'd like to make a comment on that also, Michelle. I think she's right. Something is confusing about this bill. You're decreasing, but you're adding $500,000.00 on that.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll explain that. What happened is that before I got to Council, Mr. Miller who was head of the Water Department, had had appropriated, I believe the figure was, and don't hold me to it, I think it was $125,000.00 or $150,000.00 to put a liner on another reservoir. They decided that wasn't a good reservoir because the people in the area, not just youngsters, adults, were going into the pool and swimming in that pool and leaving e coli in that pool, which is a very, very dangerous contaminant. That's from human feces. Children were swimming in that pool. So they put up a fence. The people in the area took the gates off and threw the gates into the reservoir.

We talked about having a burglar alarm put up around that fence. There were a lot of thoughts put up but there was no follow through because budgeting money was short and you didn't really want to spend that money anyway. But the federal law has come down on the Clean Water Act saying you've got to cover reservoirs, you've got to stop because of bird droppings. We cleaned out the Highland Park Reservoir and we found dead animals in it.

So, we've got to cover them. The thing is how do you cover them. They are going ahead with a plastic cover, which we decided was not really a good way to do it. It's easily penetrated, easily damaged. But we've got to do something. And this is probably the least expensive way to do it.

When they went to do the cover, they also found that the retaining walls of the reservoir were in very poor condition. Somewhere along the line, some consultant had to have seen that. Mr. Givens isn't here, but Mr. Givens would concur that maybe we should have been notified before the fact. Not like today I get a bill for $85,000.00 that our Water Department is putting through without asking the head of the Committee. So now we've gone to $300,000.00, but be that as it may, I still don't want anything put there unless people know and the police know and everybody in that area knows that if you violate and contaminate water, we've seen what happened in various parts of this County when water is contaminated how serious that can be. You can look at the Board of Health Stats that come out every year, the little brochures, a very small brochure, about twenty pages, in double size print, and it talks about the dollars to the community, hundreds of thousands of dollars that it costs us in health care because of contaminated water. I'm not passing on this bill until they incorporate that the signs will be put in.

They've got to understand that when Council says something, we're not just kidding.

Michelle Madoff moved to recommit Bill No. 1479 and 1480.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

Bill No. 1578

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the granting to the William Penn Association an option to purchase for six months, upon payment of a non-refundable option fee of $10,000.00, certain property in the 12th Ward, City of Pittsburgh, at or near Delafield Avenue and designated as Parcels numbered 1 and 2, for the sum of $180,000.00, and providing for the conveyance of same." WHEREAS, the National Democratic Party, in convention on June 30, 1982, strongly repledged its support for the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) to the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, we the members of City Council recognize that the ERA is not an abstract constitutional issue for our nation, but a fundamental necessity to achieve true economic and political equality for all our citizens; and

WHEREAS, this Council also recognizes that despite the progress made in the past decade to expand equal opportunity on the job, working women still receive only 59¢ for every $1.00 earned by men and that the average female college graduate, on the average, earns less than a male high school graduate; and

WHEREAS, we, the members of Pittsburgh City Council, recognize that in a single step, the ERA would erase hundreds of state and federal laws which discriminate against women.

NOW, THEREFORE

BE IT RESOLVED, that City Council joins in supporting this Resolution through the passage of ERA so that someday soon all women will be treated as equals in the job market.

Michelle Madoff moved for approval.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

I'll second but as a point of clarification, I don't know if Michelle is aware or not, but Council is on record by way of two resolutions in support of the ERA and extentions.

Michelle Madoff:

I introduced one.

Mr. Robinson:

Right. And the second thing is, I'm not quite sure whether or not Council should be endorsing the partisan actions of one of our Commissioners taken in a partisan political process. I'm not quite sure that is doing justice to ERA and I'm not quite sure that we want to give the impression that we're endorsing a partisan political action relative to ERA.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think we are. We thought about that very carefully. As a matter of fact, we re-worded the original resolution so that we closed with "that City Council joins in supporting this Resolution through the passage of ERA". We're just joining. I don't care if the Heinz' submitted it. I don't care who it's submitted by. Anything that would support ERA. We just felt that the wording was good, the facts were accurate. What we picked up was a record of public record history in the newspapers and we changed the end. Instead of saying that the Democratic party supported it, we eliminated any political overtones by saying "Be it therefore resolved that the City Council joins in supporting this resolution". I don't care who had come up with it through the passage of ERA so that all women will be treated as equals in the job market. And I eliminate a lot of other problems that are bones of contention.

We have Marilyn Ryan here today who wants to make a couple of comments on behalf of —

Mr. Woods:

What we're talking about is the job market, right?

Michelle Madoff:

Right. I deliberately kept to the job market.

Mr. Woods:

I want it kept clear because I don't understand the full issues of the ERA.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I'd be happy to sit down and talk to you about them.

Mr. Woods:

I understand equal pay for equal work and I don't want to get into a debate. I'm one hundred percent in favor of that. I want that for the record. You might understand it, and all you other people might understand it, but I don't.

Michelle Madoff:

Ben, you have the resolution in front of you, does it say in the job market only?

Mr. Woods:

That's right and I agree with that.

Michelle Madoff:

And you know why I did that? You know exactly that I knew what I was doing?

Marilyn Ryan, would you like to step up to the mike, please?

Marilyn Ryan:

Thank you, Michelle, for moving forward to introduce this resolution, and to you members of City Council who voted for it. You demonstrate that you are, indeed, a caring governmental body. Despite the callousness that is being brought forth by the Administration in so far as women and minorities in the job market is being demonstrated, the cuts and the social programs, the projected cuts and social security are all going to impact on women. And by passage of the re-introduced ERA, you can help insure that women will get their fair share in the job market for the fair day's pay the same as their male counterparts. We thank you very much.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you for coming.

Mr. O'Malley and Mr. DePasquale present

Bill No. 1667 WHEREAS, full Home Rule powers were conferred upon the City in 1975 in accordance with the Home Rule Charter and Optional Plans Law of 1972 (Act 62 of 1972, as amended, 53 P.S. 1-101, et seq.); and

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh recognizes the important contribution of the Community Advisory Board in making our City a better place to live and urge all neighborhoods to establish Community Advisory Boards.

Mr. O'Malley moved for approval.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 1668 WHEREAS, the population of our City and nation has matured rapidly over the past twenty years; and

WHEREAS, the need to address the concerns of our elderly is more important now than ever before; and

WHEREAS, the total commitment and involvement in the City's Renaissance and progress by our elderly has been great and should be recognized; and

WHEREAS, in honor of this total commitment and involvement in Pittsburgh's progress by our City's Senior Citizens, the Community Action Pittsburgh, Inc., will host its 5th City-Wide Conference on Aging.

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that Council and the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh on behalf of the Citizens of the City of Pittsburgh does recognize September 27, 1982 as Senior Citizens Day in the City of Pittsburgh and commends Community Action Pittsburgh, Inc., on its efforts on behalf of the Senior Citizens of this City.

Mr. Robinson moved for approval.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I just have a few more items, I know we had a very long agenda today and I'll be very brief.

I had a call yesterday at my home about one o'clock at night, one of the Monday morning pick-up people was trying to work something out and we're putting off having a public hearing. When we know people on Mondays are upset that if they have four, three vacation days this year, three acts of God with weather, we're talking about three months total out of twelve months were garbage is not going to be picked up, and yes, Mr. Woods, it will not be consecutive. But if they're taxpayers, they should have the same pickup as everybody else in the overall for the year.

This woman had a raccoon in her garbage. She called the Animal Control, Bill, and I think you've been concerned about this before, and could not get anyone to do anyone to do anything. She called the Police, she called the Fire Department, she called me. I don't go out and catch raccoons. I don't have a cage.

Mr. Flaherty:

My mother does.

Michelle Madoff:

Your mother does? Well get your mother to do it.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, she catches cats.

Michelle Madoff:

We can have them skinned and make a coat. I have a raccoon coat. I skinned him.

Anyway, the point being, if we're going to have Monday pickup, we're going to have to have some hotline number for raccoons. I would like to have a memo sent by the City Clerk --

The Chair:

Michelle, I don't think that's the issue. That lady, Mrs. Parris I believe, called everybody on Council if she could get them. The problem she is saying is that since the remodeling of the Zoo and the renovation, that animals have been coming from the Zoo such as rats, raccoons, what have you, into East Liberty. I haven't heard any other complaints. In fact, that's the first I've heard.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I get complaints all the time about dogs and cats --

The Chair:

She says her problem is that these animals are inundating the East Liberty area. I don't know if it has to do with garbage.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I just thing we need to have a non-emergency line for the Police Department. Not a 911, but a listed non-emergency line. It could be anything else. So that when you have a call such as a raccoon that could be rabid, when you've got somebody's car that's been towed from some lot but it's too inexpensive to put up a sign and the car is being towed, they can call it in to this non-emergency number. You can find out where your car is, and incidentally, it is done in almost every community but ours. And I want to look into the viability of having a non-advertised, highly publicized, non-emergency community phone line, instead of 911 to be 022 or 008. Is that the right number for James Bond? 007? I'm one number off. Something so the people can call in.

Would you look into that and see what we can do about making that procedural.

One last thing, Mr. President. Do you know that there's a new telephone service available that I just purchased for my home, and I made the call from the office. I always bill my long distance calls that are personal, because my daughter is now in Tampa, she was in Boston, my family are elsewhere, to my home line. I did not know, incidentally, that if you make business calls, long distance business calls, I get consulting firms on water occasionally, calling from Philly or New York, or when I was being attacked by Mr. Schmeiser that I'm manipulating Wall Street with my magic wand, from Washington, that when you make those calls you should make them on the City line, not on our private lines because there is a charge. So I have now reimbursed the City for those calls made on my private line. They have to be made on the service line, even though they were business calls.

But there is a new service, there are several of them, five or six. The one I use is in every city, and you can cut your bills fifty percent on long distance calls. But the rub is that you need a push-button telephone. Mike, would you check into the viability of having our lines changed to push-buttons so that we can call long distance and cut our bills in half?

Mr. O'Malley:

Michelle, I've been working on that —

Michelle Madoff:

So how come we don't know what's happening?

Mr. O'Malley:

The phones are coming in when? January?

Michelle Madoff:

What's the secret?

Mr. Perry:

There's no secret. Mr. O'Malley and I have been working on that.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. O'Malley, let us in on these things.

Mr. Robinson:

Michelle, I think you raised a good point. I found out about our new telephone system in Philadelphia at a meeting of the Pennsylvania League of Cities because I walked up to the Bell Telephone booth and started discussing with them communications and telephone systems, etc., because I felt that we needed to renovate our system and I was informed that a study was going on in the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

I told you, they keep City Council like mushrooms. They keep us in the dark and they feed us horse manure. When they want our opinion, they'll let us know.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might. I know this has been a long day, but there are some persons here who represent the Pittsburgh Catholic Head Start Program. They have a pressing issue, at least one pressing issue, that I think Council needs to address. Unfortunately, given some of the difficulties that our Community Action Pittsburgh has had and some of the problems that the Head Start Program has had, there are at least 230 students at this time who are in the Pittsburgh Catholic Head Start Program who are unable to participate. In effect, the program is not operating. While this Council does not have any direct control of the operation of the Head Start Program, certainly every member on this Council is a board member of Community Action Pittsburgh —

Michelle Madoff:

No we're not. I'm not.

Mr. Robinson:

The vast majority of the members of this Council are board members of Community Action Pittsburgh or have a representative on the Board. I am the secretary of the CAP Board and did sign originally a contract or an agreement which I thought would help resolve this particular problem by getting our Head Start Program moving. Evidently, because of a number of problems that CAP is experiencing, we are back to square one in terms of getting all of our Head Start Programs moving.

There is a letter and a packet of information that was given to every member of Council. It was presented to us by Miss Sondra Frank who is the president of the parents' group of the Pittsburgh Catholic Head Start Program. I would ask all members of Council to read this, not at your leisure, but as soon as possible because I think the issues that are raised in here are vital and important.

I'd just like to make a couple of comments, if I might, in this regard. One, I think first and foremost, we need to be concerned about the students in this Head Start Program. The students are not now being served and, unfortunately, the students in the future will probably not be served unless we get this resolved. And I hope that whatever actions this Council takes or whatever consideration it gives, that the first consideration will be to the students who are not in the program, and right now it's 230.

The second concern that I have speaks to not only the operation of the Head Start Program but the operation of CAP itself. In Miss Frank's letter, she makes some suggestions and to some extent, some accusations, that I think this Council needs to consider in serious fashion.

First of all, I think this Council has an obligation as part of the governing body of the City of Pittsburgh which designated Community Action Pittsburgh as the organization to receive the Federal Poverty Funds. To make sure that that program is fiscally sound and is operating in the best interest of all the persons it's supposed to serve, primarily low-income people in eight targeted neighborhoods. Miss Frank's letter suggests that we need to have an audit of all of our programs and put our books in order. We have heard this before. This Council has heard it before and the fact that this problem is still with us, I think, suggests that we need to make sure that, legally, we are on firm ground as far as CAP is concerned, and also, financially, that we are responsible.

Also, I think that in regards to any kinds of investigations that this Council might either sanction or prove or suggest, that it would do us well to forward a letter to our City Controller asking him to lend the services of his good office to Community Action Pittsburgh to make sure that the City of Pittsburgh's interest is protected. It is the City of Pittsburgh that is responsible for all the monies to go to Community Action Pittsburgh from the Federal Government. Community Action Pittsburgh is a corporate body under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the City of Pittsburgh, the Mayor and this Council have designated Community Action Pittsburgh to receive those monies that we're entitled to, to operate poverty programs. And I would hope that our City Clerk would forward that letter to Mr. McGrady.

Also, I think, that Council needs to talk with the Mayor concerning the whole issue of designation. I say this with all due respect to the Administrators and Board of CAP which are struggling diligently to try to deal with budget cuts, trying to deal with community problems, and trying to deal with just staying afloat as a corporate entity. But again, I think our first obligation is to the people of the City of Pittsburgh that CAP is attempting to serve, and that is low-income people.

As this Council may be aware, we have already in place, a mechanism to service low and moderate income people through our Planning Department, through our Community Development Block Grant Funds. In addressing the issue of designation, I think City government ought to seriously raise the question as to whether or not we shouldn't fund some of the delegate agencies directly, either out of our Community Development Block Grant Funds or fund them out of those monies that are allocated to us by the federal government. This would ease some of the burden on Community Action Pittsburgh, leave it free to search for other sources of income. I think also we will begin to come up with a realistic role for this City in the CAP process. I don't believe that there's any member of Council or anyone in the Administration that's had any association with CAP over the last six months who can say that they have whole heartedly, whole heartedly, attempted to involve the City of Pittsburgh in operations of Community Action Pittsburgh. I say that we need to seriously look at our legal responsibility and the legal liability that we have as members of Council, in reference to the monies that are given to Community Action Pittsburgh, and I think it would do us well to very seriously reassess our association with CAP and very seriously consider either bring that total CAP operation up under the City of Pittsburgh or working out some arrangement where our responsibilities are clear and where we recognize them, and where we take the care with the money that goes to CAP as those tax dollars that come into our coppers.

Again, I would hope that we would address very seriously Miss Frank's letter. I would hope that we would give CAP whatever assistance we can, and I would like to have a copy of this letter entered into our public record.

(BEGINNING OF MISS FRANK'S LETTER)

CITY COUNCIL MEMBERS

We, the parents of the Pittsburgh

Catholic Head Start Program come before you today to request your assistance in resolving the problem that exists between the Pittsburgh Catholic Head Start Program and Community Action Pittsburgh, Inc.

We feel that CAPI has not acted fairly with our agency. You have chronological documentation before you which demonstrates the efforts on the part of our agency to resolve this problem. CAPI is contending that our agency has not accounted for its expenditures and that the audit must be completed in order to release any money to the agency for the period of July and August 1982. To date, the agency has not received in writing from CAPI as to why or when July and August expenses will be reimbursed. However, this is what they have told the media. You have a letter in your packet dated August 31, 1982 from James Mullenax, Grants Officer and Phyl Grieco, Program Specialist at the Department of Health and Human Services, which states that the audit can begin but must encompass the entire program year. CAPI has also reported to the media that the agency books were stolen. That statement is not true as reported. The only financial book stolen was a General Ledger constructed from information that the agency had and has on file at its Administrative Office. Our Director has informed the external auditor, Mr. Sirmons, that as of last week, he could begin the audit.

It seems to us that CAPI is using every excuse they can to prevent funding our agency.

Our agency is not the first delegate to refuse signing a contract to operate Head Start. In December 1980 to be exact, the Pittsburgh Board of Education notified CAPI and Regional Office of their decision not to operate the Head Start Program. CAPI was quite willing to negotiate with the Board to keep their program. Many of the City Council members present today attended that CAP Board meeting and were instrumental in forcing through the motion to reinstate the Board of Education.

As taxpayers, registered voters and residents of the City of Pittsburgh, we are demanding that the City Council and City Government assist us in getting our program opened and operating.

We are also demanding that a full financial investigation be conducted of all CAPI programs. This investigation should be conducted by an independent third party, particularly the General Office of Accounting.

(END OF MISS FRANK'S LETTER)

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, in regard to the controversy, or actually, I feel that it is a crisis situation that CAP is inundated with now, it seems every day my office is receiving a call, for example, from the Catholic Head Start Program, parents or from one of the presidents of the neighborhood. There seems to be a real lack of communication between the Executive Director's office in town, and the neighborhoods and many of the grantees of CAP.

First of all, I just want to address the issue that Councilman Robinson has started to in regard to the concerns of the Pittsburgh Catholic Head Start Program. They seem to have some very serious criticisms in regard to CAP's, in their words, CAP's not willing to reimburse them and also to get their program off of the ground.

Mike, I would wish you to send a letter to Joe Jackson, the Executive Director of CAP, on Council's stationery as long as I don't hear any objections from any of my colleagues, asking him to respond to Council in a written fashion as to what the problem is concerning the lack of cash flow from CAP to the Pittsburgh Catholic Head Start Program which, it's my understanding, has received approval from the DCA to be a grantee. And the money, it's my understanding, has arrived at CAP, but CAP is not allowing the flow to go to the Catholic Head Start Program. Now, I'm asking that this appear in writing because I am somewhat confused, I have made phone calls and I hear one story from one individual and another story from another one. So I think it's imperative that Joe Jackson, as soon as possible, respond to Council, as a whole, in regard to this problem.

Also, concerning the crisis that now exists in CAP, I'm sure that probably all my colleagues are aware that all eight neighborhood presidents are in unison in their strong criticisms of CAP's central office in town. They are experiencing serious cut backs that they are challenging on moral grounds and also on the legal grounds. And to reiterate what Councilman Robinson said, I think it's imperative that we, with the exception of one member of Council, are on the CAP Board, we were requested to be on the CAP Board a year and a half ago, to give some accountability and some leadership to CAP. I personally am under the firm opinion that CAP has not shown accountability and has certainly not shown leadership.

But on the other hand, I, along with my colleagues, have to be blamed for that. And I think it's at the stage where all of us on Council better start taking an active role in what is happening with CAP. They are having a board meeting on September 29th. Mike,

I would also wish that in the letter to Joe Jackson, that you ask him to have all future board meetings in Council Chambers, not in a room that is about eight by twelve in CAP's offices. It deters public participation. It's crowded just with the board members in there. How can you adequately have a meeting in a room the size of a bathroom stall. It's a joke. So I would hope that the September 29th meeting and all future CAP public board meetings be held in this spacious Council Chamber. I know some of them have, and it seems to me that the most sensitive meetings are not held in Council's Chambers, but in a very cramped, hot room in the Fulton Building.

In closing, the eight presidents are requesting a meeting this week with the Mayor's Office. And they are asking the Mayor to take the lead on this issue. I don't think that we should sit back as board members, the Mayor is not a board member, we are board members, and we should be out there, out front, and show an interest and not be shuffling the responsibility around where these people now are so frustrated that they have requested a meeting with the Mayor to get the Mayor's support in not having CAP as the grantee for the money in this area. This is a very serious issue.

So, in closing, the only suggestion I have is that all of us attend, if at all possible, that meeting on the 29th, and that we encourage in any conversations that we do have with the eight presidents or agencies such as Catholic Head Start that are experiencing deep frustration, actually beyond frustration, are not able to serve their function and children and the elderly and the needy and the poor of this City are suffering, that we, in our conversations with those people, try to express confidence and urge them to come on the 29th and that we will be here on the 29th and that we will start to get some sort of resolve to these many serious questions.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. President, for the record, I want everyone here to know that I am one of the Councilmembers that is not on the CAP board. I believe the appointments were made October 20, 1980. I didn't become a Councilmember until 1981 of last year. So I'm not on the board and that's why I don't attend the meetings.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, the reason I am not on the board of CAP was that, as you know, I have served for two years on that steam heat plant, Mr. Woods, and we had meetings that were continuous, eight o'clock in the morning, seven thirty in the morning, many evenings, afternoons, and it was an all consuming, very major issue, and I felt there was a lot of things that I was doing in the Water Department, things that will shortly become into fruition, that physically, there are only twenty-four hours in a day, and it couldn't be Xeroxed, and I couldn't do justice to the job.

But in all fairness, when I was appointed, I asked to have an alternate. My alternate was a top notch person, Mr. Robison, who had great experience on the CAP board. If memory serves me well, and correct me if I'm wrong, Mr. Robinson, CAP has gone through three directors in four years.

Mr. Robinson:

At least.

Michelle Madoff:

At least. Mr. Ben Hayllar, who represents the Mayor's Office, in conversations with me, has gone from being absolutely down on CAP to being very up on CAP. And that leads me right back to where we start. I think if I hear you correctly, tell me if I'm misunderstanding you, you're saying that you don't care if it's CAP, oranges, xyz, or wxz, you want somebody to help the people that are needy with these funds allocated to this community. Is that correct? You want somebody to handle the money? They should get it.

Mr. Robinson:

I think it goes without saying that I am committed to helping low income people. I think that the issue is whether or not Community Action Pittsburgh can do this job without more substantive help from the City. I personally do not see how Community Action Pittsburgh can continue to serve the eight neighborhoods that it is serving without the full cooperation of the Mayor's Office. But I think this Council has a responsibility as the other part of the governing body which designated CAP. The other part of the governing body which is responsible for the money. Those monies are given to the City of Pittsburgh, that we have responsibility --

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry I asked the question because that's exactly what I wanted to hear.

Mr. Robinson:

Wait. We have the responsibility to make CAP work. We have that responsibility. I think we can make CAP work.

Michelle Madoff:

Unless we change it it's never going to work. One of the reasons I dropped out was in utter frustration. I would come to meetings --

Mr. Robinson:

Michelle, you can't make an agency work when you have thirty-three board members and you only have about nine or ten who have either the time, ability or interest to participate. Many of the people who attempted to serve on the CAP board have been totally frustrated, not only by the operation of CAP --

Michelle Madoff:

Including Councilmembers.

Mr. Robinson:

Including Councilmembers. But the enormity of the problem, and I think the lack of substantive participation on the part of the City of Pittsburgh. Five or ten years ago, we could have tolerated this situation. But with the cut backs from Washington, the dire economic straits, this is not time for the City of Pittsburgh to back away from Community Action Pittsburgh. We need to be helping them, we need to make that agency work.

Michelle Madoff:

Bill, what I was saying is, I just wanted you to reaffirm what you said in the first place, and you did. You're saying that the people need to be helped. And I'm saying that the way to do that, Mr. Flaherty, is before the meeting on the 29th, between all of us being there to sit there in utter frustration again and hear the eight community leaders screaming at each other, and that's what goes on, and disarray and just non-productive meetings, that maybe, we as Councilmembers, should call the Mayor to task on his word that he would, indeed, meet with the members of Council on vital issue, and we ought to have a meeting with him first of all, and we ought to say to the Administration, "There are dollars allocated to Pittsburgh. How do you propose helping Council, as a legislative body, work with the Administration, not against each other, but work in harmony so that the people can get what they need?" Because that's the end result. Not who gets the glory and who's fighting, but what are going to be the results and how are these children going to be serviced and how are the groups going to be serviced?

So my recommendation is to take it just one step further and before we do anything, let's set up a meeting with the Mayor and the Administration. That would be a motion. Would someone second that?

Michelle Madoff moved to set up a meeting with the Mayor and the Administration.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Alright. Who is going to speak to the Administration about setting up that meeting?

Mr. Robinson:

Michelle, I think, so that we don't start stumbling over one another, the President of Council is already authorized by this Council to speak on our behalf, and I think that in matters of this type, with the Mayor, that certainly, the President of Council should use his discretion in broaching this issue with the Mayor and trying to set up some reasonable time for us to discuss this.

Michelle Madoff:

Would you be willing to do that,
Mr. President?

The Chair:

Certainly.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you very much.

Mr. Robinson moved to approve the minutes of Monday, September 13, 1982.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a motion to adjourn this meeting and meet again next Tuesday, September 28, 1982 at 2:00 p.m. in honor of Yom Kippur which is the high holiday of two of the members of Council.

And on the motion of Michelle Madoff

Council adjourned.

ABSENT:

The meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

For our first order of business, we're going to take Mr. O'Malley's resolution.

Mr. O'Malley:

Some of my colleagues, three or four weeks ago, expressed some concern about the drug profit trafficking and the problems we've been having in the Homewood-Brushton area. It's a problem that I've been well aware of and a problem that certainly the residents of the Homewood-Brushton area have been well aware of. And I think we all know that they had a march on September 12th on a Saturday afternoon where we had three or four hundred people in the Homewood-Brushton area come out and march to protest drug sales in their neighborhood. And what this does is show a unified approach that the people in that neighborhood want to eradicate this problem to make these streets safer for their families and for their children. I also feel at this time we have a unified approach between the Police Department and the residents of the Homewood area. Everybody is aware of the statistics. Michelle is aware of it, and Sophie is aware of it, and Mr. Robinson is aware of the arrests that we had in the No. 5 Precinct in the last eight months, since January. And it shows that we had 1,400 arrests by the officers of the No. 5 Precinct, and we had 107 narcotics arrests in an eight month period. Unfortunately, these numbers do not make the Press so the people of the Homewood-Brushton were not aware of it. I talked to the head of the Homewood-Brushton Coalition, and she noticed a notable improvement in the neighborhood, but they weren't quite sure why the improvement occurred. So, I furnished her with the numbers of arrests, the efforts that were being made by the Pittsburgh Police Department.

In the two years and eight months that I have been Chairman of Public Safety, I've been saying that the police officers of the City of Pittsburgh have been doing an excellent job. The problems we're having are with the Courts. The Courts are operating a turnstyle operation down there. The police officers are arresting them and the Courts are turning them out back on the streets again. The police officers are arresting them and the Courts are putting them back on the streets.

Well, finally, our police officers are getting some help. State Legislator put through and passed legislation that mandates a five year jail sentence for any crime used with a gun. Over this weekend, Bob Colville has a new get tough police which begins tomorrow and includes a new drive on persons convicted of narcotics and related offenses. I think this type of get tough policy is long past due.

But then, it goes on to the next couple of paragraphs and we're going to have some trouble again. It says that Administrative Judge Dauer warned that mandatory sentences and sentencing guidelines might increase a major backlog in cases. Well, I think it's time that Judge Dauer and some of the other judges that hear these narcotic cases, come out on the streets and work with my police officers. I think it wouldn't hurt them to get down off their benches and come back out in the streets and march with some of the Homewood-Brushton areas and see some of the results that the drug traffic in that neighborhood creates.

It's not our problem that the Courts are going to be backlogged. It's my job as Chairman of Public Safety and Inspector Howard's job and 120 police officer that work out of No. 5 Police Station to arrest this garbage and to get them off the streets.

What I want, and what Inspector Howard wants, and what the residents want is that we want these people kept off the streets. I would suggest that the Courts increase their budget, go with the mandatory sentences, and expand the jail capacity that they need instead of putting these people back on the streets to sell drugs to our youth. I've been saying this for almost three years. The problem is not with the Pittsburgh Police Department, the problem is with the Courts.

I'm glad to see that the officers are finally getting some help. I think it's long past due.

Mr. O'Malley presents

No. 1700 WHEREAS, the Homewood-Brushton area has had a large increase in crime in drug traffic; and

WHEREAS, the sale of illegal drugs in the Homewood-Brushton area has become a serious problem and concern to the community; and

WHEREAS, the community is to be commended for the united approach and stand that they have taken, demonstrated by the "March Against Dope" held on Saturday, September 11, 1982; and

WHEREAS, Inspector Chester Howard and the police officers of No. 5 Police Station have joined the community effort to put a stop to illegal drug traffic in the Homewood-Brushton area; and

WHEREAS, 1,495 arrests have been made from January to August, 1982 including 107 narcotic arrests. Inspector Howard and the officers of No. 5 Police Station have displayed unparalleled tenacity and valor in their efforts to make the Homewood-Brushton Community a safe place to live.

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh wishes to recognize INSPECTOR HOWARD and the police officers of No. 5 Police Station for their dedication and professionalism in performing their duties.

Mr. O'Malley moved for adoption.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. O'Malley, before Inspector Howard comes forward, I'd just like to indicate to Council that on October 2nd there's going to be another march against dope and this one is going to be in the Hill District. For those members of Council who were kind enough to come out to the last march, I hope you come out this Saturday because I think that the people in Homewood-Brushton and the people in the Hill and the people of a number of other communities in this City are indeed fed up with the open and illegal sale of drugs in their community. Marching obviously will not solve that problem, but it certainly shows community support and I think those people who believe that we can rebuild this City, particularly our inner-city neighborhoods, and not seriously address the issue of crime, are fooling themselves. My concern about these drugs other than its terrible impact on the people who use them and the devastating impact on the community by the people that sell them, is that from an economic standpoint and a business standpoint, you cannot encourage business, you cannot encourage industry, you cannot encourage job-training programs in neighborhoods where there is high rates of crime and criminal activity going on in broad daylight. And I think it would behoove our City to, not only support our police officers in their efforts, but to seriously begin to work with our business community on anti-crime programs so that our inner-city neighborhoods, particularly our black neighborhoods, will have a fair opportunity to grow economically as Pittsburgh grows. And I would hope that those people who are concerned about developments in the Hill or the North Side or the South Side, would come out and support this march against dope because it's not simply a march against dope. It's a march for the development of these neighborhoods and it's a march to give our City an opportunity to grow economically. The march will begin at 11:00 at the corner of Herron and Milwaukee Street and I might mention that I was born and raised on Milwaukee Street and I have to go past this corner every single day, and it's a disgrace. It's a disgrace to the community. There are churches within walking distance and it's a disgrace to those people who have to go to that every day, and I think if you check the police record from the No. 2 Station, you will see that they are doing the best that they can to control this situation. I would hope that in the future that we would also bring in the Inspectors from the various districts where we have these marches and, indeed, congratulate them as we are Inspector Howard and his staff for doing the best possible job they can. And wherever we can help them, I would hope that this Council and the Mayor would do that for the sake of our City. Thank you.

Mr. Givens:

I'd just like to make one comment, Jim. You made a remark of Judge Dauer and the Criminal Court System here within Allegheny County. If I can recall, it was within the last year that this Court System had received an award, I think, from the various groups in this United States of ours as to what type of a court Judge Dauer is having running that particular division, and if I can recall, they had one of the finest records in the Country as far as keeping their criminal time from the time a person is arrested until he's brought before the Court and sentenced if found guilty —

Mr. O'Malley:

Sentenced or plea bargained back out on the streets. They were noted for expediency in resolving cases. That's not saying that the number of drug cases brought before them —

Mr. Givens:

Well the District Attorney does the plea bargaining. That's a three way triangle one has to appreciate, the Courts, the District Attorney and the offender or the person that was offended, either one of the two. But, I think our Courts have a fine tradition and a good record right here and I wouldn't want to say that we would say anything different than what has been published in regard to that court system.

Secondly, you mentioned about the criminals going back out on the streets, and it was interesting to note that the Governor of this state has appropriated, according to his political advertisements, some two thousand new thoughts in the various state correctional institution for residents there. It's interesting to note, of that two thousand some new jail cells that are being built to house these people, not one of them has gone to a County jail or to a local municipality. They were all state instituted. I think our problem is not so much at the state level as it is our own County jail over here who's exceeding the maximum number of inmates that we have over there. They're sleeping on the gym floor right now, and some of these kids are ones who are in there for very minor offenses. That jail goes through the most hardened criminals, from the murderers, to the rapists, right on down, and I can't see mixing some kid who has a traffic violation in with that kind.

I'd like to point that out, and I think you're right that we need some more detention room within this County of ours to house the people that should be housed.

You said something else. You said, "Get the garbage off the street." What did you mean by that phrase, Jim?

Mr. O'Malley:

I meant to get the repeated dope pushers who are selling the hard narcotics to our children. The ones that I think are responsible for a large percentage of our burglaries so they can feed their habit.

Mr. Givens:

My only comment there, Jim, would be that if they're a pusher, that's one thing. —

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, let's present the resolution to Mr. Howard. If you have any further remarks, we'll take them after.

Mr. Givens:

Well, I'm just making a comment.

The Chair:

Inspector Howard is here to get a resolution. Let's give him the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley:

Inspector Howard, we have 107 narcotics arrests. I'd like to offer a challenge to the reporters of the Press and Post Gazette. And that is to find out what happened to those 107 narcotics arrests. Were they let out on parole? Were they first time offenders? Second time offenders? Are they serving time? The police are doing they're job. I would like to know what happens to these 107 people once they're out of our jurisdiction.

Thank you Inspector Howard, for a job well done.

Inspector Howard:

Mr. President of Council, honorable Councilman O'Malley, and other honorable Councilpersons, it's gratifying to be here to accept this award, but I'd like to accept this in the name of 120 specific persons. The reason I say 120, is because I think the profile I've exhibited to them, meaning that they can go out here and make the proper arrests and try to help clean up our neighborhood. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Before you leave, sir, I want to ask you a question, if I may. I think Councilman O'Malley was very cogent and I think he's put his finger right on the pulse of the problem. Do you agree with me?

Inspector Howard:

Partially. Yes ma'am.

Michelle Madoff:

I realize that you're in a very awkward situation, but the fact remains that you go out and arrest them, you put your lives on the line every day, and they're right back out on the street. It's got to be the most demoralizing situation a policeman can find himself in.

Inspector Howard:

That's why I said it's gratifying to accept this, especially for the personnel. When they see their efforts down the drain, they appreciate this. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

One more question. Inspector Howard, do you feel that you have enough men to do the job? Because this Council has budgeted more police than we have on the force. It is the will of this Council, repeatedly every year, from the President of Council, Mr. DePasquale, Mr. Stone, the Finance Chairman, has allocated the money to the Administration. The Administration has chosen not to use those people for the various reasons that population loss, etc., etc. But we're living in different times today, are we not?

Inspector Howard:

Yes, ma'am.

Michelle Madoff:

Alright. If you had more police, could you put them in undercover work permanently so that instead of having -- 1,400 arrests sounds like a lot of arrests, doesn't it? Couldn't you really almost do 1,400 a month if you had the police because you arrest them and they're right back out doing it again.

Inspector Howard:

That is true.

Michelle Madoff:

I think Mr. Robinson brought out a point. Mr. Robinson was the one who brought this to Council initially, incidentally. It was his resolution. And the point that he made was that it is not just the Hazelwood, Homewood-Brushton. They do it in Squirrel Hill. They do it in the Hill. All you do is push the problem from one area to the other. It isn't solving the problem. We need a conservative leadership effort to do it. Somebody like yourself taking over a program for the whole City working under Superintendent Coll, I don't know whether it would be you or whether you'd want to do it, but I'm just throwing out a thought.

Do you agree, my question originally was, do we need more police to do the job?

Inspector Howard:

Well I'd have to agree with you that if we had more police officers I imagine it would be more effective. I'd like to explain that I whole heartedly think that a saturation will move the problem but not cure the problem.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you sir. And I think that what we need to remember at budget time is that we have to override the Mayor's veto and we've got to have more police.

Mr. Givens:

Jim, I have one more comment that I'd like to bring to your attention. You did make reference to garbage and I have to appreciate that that's very strong language to use when we talk about a human being, even if that human being is out there destroying our community. But I would like for this Council, at least this Councilman, to be on record that I don't think there's any human being that I consider as garbage. If he has a problem, I think it's up to society to, hopefully, correct that problem and make that person a productive person within our society.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, before Inspector Howard leaves. Inspector Howard, in this last month, have you had any extra police that have come over to help you with the cause or have you been using your same manpower?

Inspector Howard:

The same manpower. The same company.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. First of all, I would like to, again, commend the Homewood-Brushton area community for starting this project to get themselves out of a dilemma. I would like to commend Inspector Howard and his police force there. I would like to commend Mr. Robinson and Mr. O'Malley for bringing this issue to us. But I don't think that we should leave this issue as it is right now. Too often when we give a resolution or a plaque of some sort, we tend to assume that the issue is over. And I think that Inspector Howard ought to know that this Council stand ready, willing and able to stand behind you to give it all the kind of attention that it needs.

I would like a letter to go to Superintendent Coll indicating that Inspector Howard and his present manpower in that district have done a good job with the force that they have. It's obvious that the crime is greater than they've even been able to accomplish and then they try to redeploy some police officers to give them some extra assist saying that we have to do this through some legislation or that. It seems to me we ignore the present ability of just giving help. I would like to see an answer from Superintendent Coll where we could get some police over there now. I don't care if we chase them, let's give this particular area some relief for a while. Hopefully, I don't want it anywhere else, but at least these people have tolerated it long enough.

The idea of the Hill District, Mr. Robinson, I totally agree with you. And to show you the kind of problem that exists there, I was in the District Attorney's office in 1956 until 1962, and I'm telling you it never changed in the Hill. And I think those people and this whole generation have tolerated enough and it's about time we give them some help. We don't want it in the white areas and we don't want it in the black areas either and it's about time we face the damn issue.

But I'd like a letter, Mike, going out to Superintendent Coll. Bring him over here in two weeks on a Wednesday. That's ten days roughly. Eight days. A week tomorrow. I want to know what we're doing in that area and you may as well pick up the Hill District. Once and for all, we don't want it in ours and they're not going to get it in theirs as well. Let's clean it up.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, a couple quick comments on Bill No. 1602. I don't want to belabor the point that I've raised on several occasions relative to an energy policy, but I think it would be wise for Council to forward a letter to the Mayor requesting that the City of Pittsburgh seriously consider developing an energy policy and that we also, if we have not done it, become more active with the conference of local energy officials. The reason I raise this concern is that it's rather obvious to most people that the energy issue is still with us and it is going to be a problem that local government is going to have to seriously address if for no other reason our energy costs are outstripping our ability to pay. There is an effort nationally which the Administration may be aware of called the conference of local energy officials. Also there is an effort throughout the country to get cities, both large and small, to put someone on staff as an energy coordinator. To my knowledge, we do not have anyone in the City who has that designation or who has that particular function. And, hopefully, the letter that we send will encourage the Administration to 1) begin to develop a comprehensive energy policy, 2) to become more active in a conference of local energy officials and 3) during the coming budget year to put in the budget a position for a local energy coordinator.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I answer? Mr. Robinson, we had a post agenda the other day and we had the hidden female who works for the Mayor's staff. I think it's the first time I've seen her. She replaced Mr. Richard Cohen, I believe. The same question was discussed. I had asked Mr. Perry, and I think my aide is preparing the letter for him so that it would be covered saying that there should be no energy meetings which I'm not invited since I am head of the subcommittee on energy for this Council and I have an extensive background. I built and coordinated the first total energy conservation house in Allegheny County. It is still functioning for Bernhardt Realty in the North Hills. It is doing extremely well. Some twenty-five thousand people went through it and they're having good payoffs on it. It is a combination of solar and other energy conservation methods.

There are things that we could be doing in this building. I'm going to ask that my comments from Wednesday be brought forward from the post agenda into the record. But there are things, simple, simple things, such as, there's a magnetic window being made. It's made of some kind of plastic that you can put right in over our windows in the winter right now, and they're relatively inexpensive. The post offices in the United States all over Washington are putting them in all the suburban areas of Washington. They seal very well and they are for windows that do not have double pane. I'm not saying that's the way to go, but that's a possibility. I think the thing that offends me more than anything else, Mr. Robinson, is to go into, and I don't want to mention names, offices of our Council in the winter and it's so hot that everybody's running their air conditioner. And you all know who I'm talking about, half of this Council. I have a thermostat in my office. I don't have that problem. We have to find out whether the cost of the thermostat will balance out running an air conditioner. I think, possibly, it might if you do it in volume on installation. Those are the kind of things we ought to, as you say, have an energy policy for this City.

I have tried, and the kind of double talk and the kind of rhetoric I get, is that the only woman who represents the Mayor's staff, and there is somebody on energy, I've forgotten her name. She's going on the trip for us. She is a degreed engineer and presumably has all kinds of knowledge, certainly as much knowledge, perhaps not in the same area. But, this is an Administrative issue. And, as you say, unless we take the lead in it because nobody else is, maybe we will be overruled. However, Mr. Smith did say that the purpose of this grant was to go out and find out what our needs really are and then we will take it from there. That sounds sort of logical. I just want to know how they picked this particular consultant because there are consultants and consultants, and we've had some consultants come into this Council representing various interests who I know are not qualified. They'll say anything they're paid to say. I'm not saying that about this particular consultant. I don't think it's even gone to bid yet. But I'm sitting on top of it, Mike, and I want to be sure that Carmen and you get together today to make sure that letter gets out on the energy policy.

(BEGINNING OF MICHELLE MADOFF'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1602, 9/22/82)

Michelle Madoff:

About the Consortium. Who are they?

Mina Gerall
Assistant Executive Secretary
Mayor's Office:

It is an arm of PTI, Public Technology Institute.

Michelle Madoff:

Who do they represent?

Ms. Gerall:

They are an organization of research -- an academic municipal organization.

Michelle Madoff:

Where are they based?

Ms. Gerall:

They are from the national energy advisory group. The task force on energy is one arm of this non-profit energy conservation group. It is involved in government research and so on.

Michelle Madoff:

Who are they?

Ms. Gerall:

They are a private, non-profit research organization who does work as well as in the area of energy.

Michelle Madoff:

I know there are a group of consumers and many other groups that could use the $60,000.00 Who made the decision?

Ms. Gerall:

The Department of Energy gave them some large amount of money to do research around energy at the municipal level of government. They are providing grants to local government such as Pittsburgh and they are giving it to us.

Michelle Madoff:

We are going to loan them money?

Ms. Gerall:

Basically at this point we are hoping. We have from the Mayor's Office, Elaine Sadowski. She has tried to get working on the radiator system. She works with me on the energy issues.

Michelle Madoff:

Who is she responsible to?

Ms. Gerall:

Daryl Smith.

Michelle Madoff:

Daryl, Councilman Robinson and I were trying to determine the other day what the energy policy of the City is.

Director Smith:

I'm not sure.

Michelle Madoff:

So we are going to accept $60,000.00 from a group that we don't even know what their function is and they are going to come in and determine what our needs are?

Director Smith:

Mina has been working with our department and with Elaine Sadowski who works in the department. I have not been very close with the situation. It has been handled through the Mayor's Office. It has to come down through the Mayor's Office first.

Michelle Madoff:

It is going through the Mayor's Office?

Director Smith:

Yes.

Ms. Gerall:

Can I answer your question? The Mayor felt that, indeed, there was no policy. Hopefully, what this grant will help do is make all of the departments, Council and the Mayor's Office, much more knowledgeable to how energy affects all of our operators, especially in our budget and to use it as a tool to develop the policy which we have not done at this point. It would give you the tools inhouse to develop in a very short period of time for the next year's budget process.

Michelle Madoff:

Who are the consultants you are looking at?

Ms. Gerall:

We have not made any decision.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you have a proposal?

Ms. Gerall:

Absolutely. We are looking for someone with a very strong financial background and a commitment to energy. We are looking for someone with strong writing research so they can articulate for us a program that we have come up with.

Michelle Madoff:

Somebody will be hired as an energy expert on waste?

Ms. Gerall:

No. Somebody will be hired who would be working with the financial end of the energy budgeting. We have somebody on staff who already does that.

Michelle Madoff:

How?

Ms. Gerall:

Elaine is working on it on a part-time basis.

Michelle Madoff:

You mean we don't have anybody right now?

Ms. Gerall:

We have one on staff, but we don't always make our decisions on how we spend it along energy lines.

Michelle Madoff:

There is a building in the City which was designed for putting in a computerized energy system which will control the lights and the elevators, etc. I want to see somebody knowledgeable in that field.

Ms. Gerall:

Elaine is qualified. Our problem is that we just don't have the monies available to do that. We are looking into preventative type programs and we will prioritize on how we will spend our money.

Michelle Madoff:

I have not objections.

Ms. Gerall:

Thank you.

(END OF MICHELLE MADOFF'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1602, 9/2/82)

Mr. Givens:

On that bill that Mr. Robinson was so addressing to, in that bill itself is the letter that he asked to go over from this Council, that there be one more sentence added, and I make reference to the Pittsburgh Sunday newspaper wherein the computer company in Bloomfield along with our Carnegie Mellon Institute and Carnegie Mellon University have made a great contribution that I think, as the article so indicated, is very applicable to industry, especially this government in the City and the fact that this thing is so located right in our own City, I think we should capitalize upon it. Only this be for energy conservation its total conservation on all of our resources.

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

I received a petition from the resident of the Bloomfield, Lawrenceville, Garfield and surrounding communities in regard to Bill No. 1563. That's to construction the garage doors there on those buildings of the old Don Allen garage that was located underneath the old Bloomfield Bridge. The petitioners, close to five hundred of them, are saying that we, the undersigned residents of Bloomfield and surrounding neighborhoods respectfully petition the Mayor and the City Council to use a large parcel of land adjacent to the Bloomfield Community Recreational Center in order to develop a modern, multi-purpose recreational complex that could adequately satisfy the City's growing recreational needs of the area. This adjoining parcel of land and the buildings on it, together with the existing recreational buildings, pool, playground and field, would provide the space and facilities needed to develop such a complex.

They're saying this particular area has become a regional recreational center and I'd almost have to agree with them. I indicated that I didn't even know this petition was under way —

The Chair:

Excuse me. They're saying to tear down the old Don Allen building and put a recreational center there?

Mr. Givens:

Right. I didn't even know that this petition was under way when I cautioned Council that we should first find out what the intent of the people of the neighborhood. Living in that particular area I heard people saying that they wanted to do certain things down there and the major organizations apparently were never approached, or if so, the people who use that facility were not approached and they would like to have their day in Council here to explain to us what they want in this particular neighborhood. If we're to go and put some $16,000.00 worth of doors on and then use that building for some other purpose, I think it would be just using money in the wrong sense.

On the other side of that coin, I think the Department of Public Works needs some type of facility out in that particular area, but I don't know if this is the exact facility. So I ask that Bill No. 1563 be sent back to Committee and at such time, Mr. President, you can have a public hearing on this matter.

Mr. Givens: moved to recommit Bill No. 1563.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. O'Malley:

I agree with Mr. Givens in the respect that the citizens in the Garfield-Bloomfield area certainly deserve a hearing. I'd be the first on in favor of that. But there's a number of neighborhoods including Armour Avenue and the 12th Ward that have been after this Council to appropriate funds for a recreation facility. It's been held up for four or five years. We just don't have the dollars to allocate. If our Public Works needs sixteen hundred dollars to put doors on so -- they're not going to furnish a recreation facility this year and probably not next year. So to hold up this bill for sixteen hundred dollars, I think it might be a detriment to the storage of our vehicles in the cold weather in the middle of winter if they don't have these doors.

It's Mr. Givens' committee, but what I'm saying is that there's no reason to hold this bill up. We could pass this bill, put the garage doors on, we can have the hearing for the Garfield-Bloomfield residents let them come in and express their concerns to us, and if their idea is feasible of converting that building into a recreational facility, and then step two would be finding and appropriating the appropriate funds for it.

Mr. Givens:

Jim, they have appropriated some sixteen thousand six hundred and some dollars. As I'm reading the bill right here --

Mr. O'Malley:

I have $1,669.00.

Mr. Givens:

From that particular budget, there was some $15,000.00 already allocated for that area and another $1,600.00. Total allocation $16,069.00.

I don't think they want any money in those particular two or three garages until it's determined in that particular neighborhood what's done.

My main legitimate concern is that the five hundred names on that petition will indicate that they don't want to put any money into it until we know what we are going to do.

I'd like my comments on this subject from last week brought forward.

(BEGINNING OF MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1563, 9/22/82)

Mr. Givens:

Has this work been approved yet?

Director Gaetano:

We advertised twice and both times we got one bidder and both times we got practically the same price and I can't get another bidder on the doors.

Mr. Givens:

How many doors are we talking about?

Director Gaetano:

There's three or four of them out there. They are huge doors.

Mr. Givens:

You are replacing the whole door?

Director Gaetano:

Yes. It's a bigger door than there is now to get my trucks through it. We've advertised it twice and was unable to get a lower bidder.

Mr. Givens:

My second question concerning this, before we want to put any money into this, this is going to be kind of a sub-station for the Department of Public Works.

Director Gaetano:

Not a sub-station.

Mr. Givens:

You are not going to be storing vehicles out there?

Director Gaetano:

It will be my whole total second division building. I'm moving the second division from Smallman Street out to there.

Mr. Givens:

What about the neighborhood concern in the Bloomfield neighborhood? Do they not object having trucks? They've been living with that all their lives down there and I think there were some objections from the community and also that that particular land which is abutting the Bloomfield recreational facility. Has that been resolved with the community?

Director Gaetano:

The community has talked on and off to me. They have not made any really formal objections to me about it other than hearsay and what I've received from the community out there. Some of them didn't like the idea of noise out there.

As to the particular ballfield, the Public Works Department has donated to Louise Brown to extend their fields and everything else to get a 100-yard football field out there now and replace portions of the turf that they have there.

I do need the building something fierce. Most of my equipment and my asphalt equipment and the pavers have been sitting out all winter long down at the heavy equipment place that I share with the Second Division and I've got to get those pieces of equipment inside.

Mr. Givens:

I appreciate your concern and everything there but I have a deeper concern and I have to assume which one is going to override if the people there are objecting to us and I know that you have a regional problem with your second division. I have concerns -- has this been resolved?

Director Gaetano:

I haven't resolved anything else with the people. They have not come to me formally at all.

Mr. Givens:

Louise, could you come to the microphone there please?

What input have you heard from the residents of the Bloomfield area there in regards to this particular assignment of the second division as a permanent location?

Louise Brown
Director
Dept. of Parks & Recreation

We have not received anything formally but our department has received informally some concerns regarding the change to the second division there. They expressed to us that they would like that to be recreational, whether it be court games or perhaps even have the building remain and have it redone.

Mr. Givens:

Could I hold this for one week? I would like to double check this.

Director Gaetano:

We have already started to remodel inside. I've put quite a bit of money inside it already. The place is being continuously vandalized and the heating system has been vandalized, the plumbing system has been vandalized and I've got to close the building off.

The Chair:

How long is your lease?

Director Gaetano:

It's mine.

Mr. Givens:

The City acquired it for the demolition of a new Bloomfield Bridge and then the Director had seen the application of using some of that building for the second division and I have no problems with that although the community is objecting to it, then I think they should be heard. I don't want them coming back later on asking for a public hearing as the Director so indicated after we put a couple of hundred-thousand dollars remodeling a building that they don't want this. They want it for a recreational purpose and --

MRS. MASLOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

It was under the old bridge but the new configuration will be somewhat different. This building would have been spared.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

This is what raised the fur on the backs of the people out there, Bob. The fact that they were not aware of it and, again, government has to be more responsible.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

I don't want to move on this bill temporarily and Linda, give it to Bloomfield people and if they have any objections on this particular garage going in here, then I want them to ask for a public hearing and come down here and express their concerns to the Council of the City of Pittsburgh and as of Monday, depending upon what they say, then I'll either recommend that this bill go back into Committee or pass it.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

Are there not doors on but they're not operating, right Lou? Do we have vehicles out there already?

Director Gaetano:

No, I have nothing out there.

Mr. Givens:

To my knowledge there was nothing in our budget that approved appropriations for this particular building.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Director Gaetano:

We passed the initial legislation.

Mr. Givens:

While that was being done, there was still a dispute in a particular neighborhood at that particular time.

Director Gaetano:

The people from the neighborhood have never formally at all come to me, other than one person saying I heard this person doesn't like it or this person doesn't like it and that's the only thing I've heard from the neighborhood.

Mr. Givens:

Maybe because I live out there I've heard about it and when this thing came up I don't think there was much qualm about it but since the people have been informed what is going on out there, and I think you've bent over backwards to accommodate the Parks and Recreation Department by using some of this ground that you had thought would be totally your department into recreational purposes.

Director Gaetano:

Correct. Three-fourths of the Don Allen property went to the Bloomfield Bridge. This was a portion that was left over. Now we had our choice to either demolish it and I needed another building and this building was funded 70 percent by the federal government. So I got a building for practically nothing and now if I do give the building up I'm looking for approximately $1 million to put another building up. I have to put that equipment inside.

Mr. Givens:

These are points that should be brought out in discussion. I'm glad you mentioned that because it's something that's worthy of note in this Council and I said I recommend approval on this pending a notification from the citizens of that particular area. You know, it's the citizens that pay for it and I think they have a say in their particular community of what governmental —

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

I'm not going to appropriate one penny then, Mr. Chairman, for this building until I find that the people who live abutting this particular property in that neighborhood want this facility there; is that correct?

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

That was just a story. There were not a lot of vehicles coming in and out of there. There was not a lot of noise in that particular area. It was kind of a quiet storage area.

Director Gaetano:

It had high-lifts and everything else. It was also used by the cab company to repair buildings.

(END OF MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1563, 9/22/82)

Mr. Givens moved to recommit Bill No. 1563.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants for Engineering Services in connection with various City projects; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like my comments from last Wednesday to be brought forward.

Mr. Givens:

I, also, would like my remarks on Bill No. 1568 to be brought forward.

(BEGINNING OF MICHELLE MADOFF'S AND MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1568, 9/22/82)

Mr. Givens:

The only thing I saw on that particular resolution was, again, the facility. What is happening there?

Director Gaetano:

The City Law Department has won its appeal and the federal government has taken it away from the people and the private concern who was using Central City as an alias and has given it to the City of Pittsburgh. So now the City has the preliminary permit for the hydro-electric plant. The next step now is to get into the preliminary type of a design. We have 24 months to be able to do this design and turn it back into the federal government.

Mr. Givens:

We have appropriated, have we not, x amount of dollars for that particular hydro-electric plant for consultants to do what I thought you were describing to us.

Director Gaetano:

No. There are three phases. The first phase is more than a report requesting us to get the preliminary permit. The second phase puts it down in black and white as to the amount of dollars that we can receive from the particular plant. They actually do core borings into the river to tell you exactly how much your particular power plant is going to cost. They put it in black and white to determine really if it is feasible or not to do this.

Mr. Givens:

What I need from you then Director, is a report as to what we have done so far and what we are going to do with cost up to this date and what the cost would be for the total project.

Director Gaetano:

Absolutely. The total I can't give you until I get this particular report.

Michelle Madoff:

Director, I was very pleased to read about this and I understand that we can, if this is successful, generate a lot of hydro-electric if this proves to be a feasible, economical way to go. You are going to use the energy for your asphalt plant; is that correct?

Director Gaetano:

I'll use it for the pumping station, etc.

Michelle Madoff:

So this could be the beginning of something very tremendous as we have a lot of locks and dams and riverways, so this is one of the best things that has ever happened.

Director Gaetano:

I think it's tremendous. I think it will cut down the energy costs.

(END OF MICHELLE MADOFF'S AND

MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1568, 9/22/82)

Also,

Bill No. 1590

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the letting of a contract or contracts or the use of existing contracts for the construction of a 10 inch curb along the north side of Joncaire Street in Oakland, at a cost not to exceed $25,000.00."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

The first letter to Mr. Coll from Mr. Cosentino says:

TO: Robert J. Coll, Jr.
Department of Police

FROM: Richard M. Cosentino,
Director
Department of Water

DATE: September 7, 1982

SUBJECT: McNAUGHER RESERVOIR
SECURITY

At the September 22, 1982, Council Meeting, Michelle Madoff raised a question about enhancing security at the subject reservoir to protect the recently installed synthetic covers.

Specifically, Ms. Madoff requests that the Department of Police step up its patrols of the area in light of these recent improvements. There is a concern that vandals may attempt to rip the covers and expose the treated water.

For your information, it is our intention to post additional warning signs, making the public aware of the applicable Federal statute governing trespassing and wanton destruction of a vital resource. (Copy of letter to City Solicitor attached)

TO: Dante R. Pellegrini

FROM: Richard M. Cosentino
Director
Department of Water

DATE: September 27, 1982

SUBJECT: McNAUGHER RESERVOIR
SECURITY

At the September 22, 1982, Council Meeting, Michelle Madoff raised a question about enhancing security at the subject reservoir to protect the recently installed synthetic covers.

Specifically, Ms. Madoff requests that signs be erected warning the public of the severity of penalties to individuals involved in vandalism or any untoward activities at the reservoir site. She is desirous of having the applicable Federal statute cited to make potential violators aware of the consequences. Ms. Madoff also asked that the pertinent law be incorporated in the legislation preliminarily approved by Council for additional costs associated with contract work relating to the subject project (Bill No. 1479, Committee on Water).

We would appreciate your review of this matter and your reaction to the concerns expressed by this Councilwoman.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, would you tell me how we can increase the cost on a bill after we voted on the bill today and how we vote on the bill — when this Council decided that we didn't want to go that route unless we had, indeed, the appropriate signs which cite the significance of tampering with water which is not a misdemeanor, I don't want to hold up payment, the work's done.

My concern is that I want to have a follow-up. Since we can't amend the bill, and he's asking for payment, and there's going to have to be some dollars appropriated to pay for these signs, I presume, why don't we have a follow-up, since the cover is not there, the work on the exterior which had to be done has been done.

Mr. President, may I request of the City Clerk that we have an update thirty days from now telling us that the signs are up and a letter to Mr. Cosentino that we have those signs with appropriate warnings in the area and perhaps some letters that could go out either with telephone bills or water bills in that area. Would you note particularly water bills in that particular community? People who might be tempted to use that water for swimming, as they have in the past.

Also,

Bill No. 1579

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 740, approved August 6, 1980, amended by Resolution No. 686, approved July 9, 1982, entitled, 'Providing for a contract or contracts for the Relay of Undersized Water Lines Serving Fire Hydrants on Various Streets; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by decreasing the appropriation."

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Two quick items. As the manipulator of Wall Street, I would like to have the toast of Wall Street, Mr. Schmeiser, present himself before Council on a post agenda this coming Wednesday and present to this Council the dollars of the $70 million that have not been used yet, because the projects were not ready to go, how that money was invested, what they money actually earned, whether it was legal or illegal arbitrage, and what the going rate is today in today's market and what we could have saved.

I realize that nobody has a magic glass that we could look into the future and there were pros and cons on both sides and it's indeed possible that the rates could have gone up. But many people felt that it was at such a high level it had nowhere to go but down. The Reaganomics had indicated that things were getting pretty bad, still were shutting down. I think we had all the indicators that it was going to go down. My feelings, and I expressed them at the time, were that we should have gone out for, perhaps, forty-five million of the seventy million at the time, and gone out at a later time. It couldn't get any worse and it was worth the gamble.

I would like to have that information before next Wednesday, Mr. Perry, so that I can have my resource people look at the legalities and what kind of dollars. It may turn out that Mr. Schmeiser was indeed perfectly correct, that the dollars that were invested, indeed, offset what we would have gone out to take the bond money, to get money in interest rates today. For those who may not know, I think the Government Treasury Bonds are down to, is it eight now, Mr. Stone, money market is about nine, mortgages are practically two months behind, and we're going to see a lowering, hopefully, of mortgage rates, and certainly a leveling off. I pleaded that we wait for this and I was made to be ludicrous. Perhaps I am not as experienced, but I think one thing that I do on this Council in serving my constituency well is at least I ask the question. And if I can do nothing more than that I serve a function. So, by next Wednesday, I would like to have those statistics in a very simple form so I can discuss them with my resource people who have now made themselves available to me in the private sector. And if necessary, Mr. President, I would like to hire a fiscal person who would be from out of town, who would have no bearing on, you know, nothing to gain or lose by making a statement. The problem in this community is that the people in the bonding business have told me personally, repeatedly, "You're right on target, but we're not going to say so because we want a piece of the action or a piece of the pie, or we already have a piece of the pie." And nobody is going to come forward. I've been asked to say where tickets are fixed. I'm not going to do that. I'm not going to put myself in jeopardy. Everybody knows who fixes tickets.

Mrs. Masloff:

I don't.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, Sophie, you're the only person I know who doesn't know anybody. I never said that Mr. Penkower or — it was done at a high level, it's done at a lower level, and I don't plan to name names.

The Chair:

Is anybody fixing tickets in here?

Michelle Madoff:

I know nobody on this Council has ever had a ticket fixed. I know we're all so lilly white.

The Chair:

I never drove so I couldn't have it fixed.

Michelle Madoff:

One other item, Mr. President. Mr. O'Malley, I want to ask you a question. Do you know the non-emergency number for the City of Pittsburgh? Do you know it?

Mr. O'Malley:

I didn't even know we had a non-emergency number.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, do you know the non-emergency number for the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. Stone:

I have a book at home and I can always get what I want to get.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, on the inside cover of the Greater Pittsburgh Telephone Book, there is a telephone number called the Police Non-Emergency Number. Now, I wanted that non-emergency number, similar to a 911 as opposed to what we now have which is 765-1212. I don't mind if it stays at 765-1212. I personally did not know it existed. My purpose in requesting such a number is that people who had their cars towed and do not know where their car is towed, could call this non-emergency number and anyone who arranges a car to be towed, a private contract between themselves and a tower, particularly people in to visit a sick child, somebody in over the weekend, would have someplace to call and there are other such non-emergency items. I'm sure that all of us could think of what some of them are. And that number should be listed.

It is interesting to me to know that I got a very snide letter from Mr. Coll, who I respect and have always had a good relationship with, and he was very testy with me the other day, and it's in response to my letter to Mike Perry. It says, "In regard to Councilwoman's request for a non-emergency community hotline, I do not understand that request." He doesn't even know that we have one himself. "The term non-emergency and hotline seems contradictory."

I think that it would be in order, since the letter was addressed to you, Mike, that you call him and tell him that this contradictory line already exists. And I would like to have it simplified and I would like to have it publicized through public service entities and perhaps Mr. Coll will come up with some ideas of other items that tie up that 911 line. I have had numerous complaints that 911, and I've called 911, and it takes a long time to get through sometimes because they are swamped on certain days with true emergencies. And I would like to have Mr. Coll here again. Well, we'll get the letters and correspondence going and then we'll schedule him for a post agenda.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, on that post agenda I requested last Wednesday, that we have one on that fire in Sheraden, in fact, I'll get with you so we can get some information on it.

Secondly, I want Director Walker up here from Environmental Services. They're apparently taking people's fifty gallon drums and throwing them in the back of the garbage truck. I don't know if the City has the right to do that or not and I'd like to go over that particular policy.

Mr. Stone moved to excuse Mr. Woods for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Stone

Council adjourned.

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON Asst. City Clerk

Monday, October 4, 1982

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

The meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 1750 WHEREAS, disabled veterans and handicapped employees have made important contributions to the economic health of this nation and the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, enlightened employers recognize that selectively placed disabled workers have fewer disabling on-the-job injuries than the able-bodied, and have job performance and attendance records as good as or better than unimpaired workers, according to studies conducted by the U.S. Department of Labor; and

WHEREAS, the United States Congress has initiated the passage of significant legislation for disabled veterans and handicapped individuals in the area of employment and expressed that qualified disabled veterans and handicapped workers should be accorded affirmative action in employment or advancement therein, by United States Government agencies or departments and federal contractors.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that this Council, the Mayor, and the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh, do hereby recognize the week of October 3-9, 1982 as NATIONAL EMPLOY THE HANDICAPPED WEEK, and all citizens are urged to support programs to advance the cause of the handicapped, particularly employers who are requested to give special consideration to the employment and training of qualified veterans and handicapped workers.

Mr. Robinson moved for adoption.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, Mr. Michael Mastrean, who is the National Service Officer of the Disabled American Veterans is here today. And with your approval, I'd like to have him come forward to accept the gold seal copy of this resolution and say a few words.

Mr. Mastrean:

Thank you. As you know, National Employ the Handicapped Week, October 3-9 of this year, marks the thirty-seventh year of this nation's observing National Employ the Handicapped Week. Another recent enactment of affirmative action program for disabled veterans and federal employment have been published in the federal register by the office of personnel and management, which is effective October 1, 1982. The new regulation will require all federal agencies and departments to develop annual plans for recruiting, hiring and advancing disabled veterans. The DAV, Disabled American Veterans, believes that federal agencies and departments will be far more aware of their obligation to not only hire, but also advance disabled veterans if the annual affirmative action plans required by this regulation are properly implemented, properly assessed and reviewed.

In summary, ladies and gentlemen, National Employ the Handicapped Week is an excellent time to focus our efforts on the elimination of stereotypes and prejudices against disabled veterans and handicapped people as well as to renew our emphasis on affirmative action programs. Thank you.

The Chair:

Congratulations and good luck to your National Employ the Handicapped Week.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Michelle Madoff:

I have some unfinished business. I don't know about anybody else on this Council, but this is the first I'd seen of this today. The bills. We take our bills, mark off what we've done on Wednesday, made any notations. Is there some reason why we didn't have them? Would the Clerk care to explain?

Mr. Perry:

I just received them about twenty minutes ago.

Michelle Madoff:

Who did you get them from, Mr. Perry?

Mr. Perry:

The print shop.

Michelle Madoff:

Where is the print shop?

Mr. Perry:

Right down the other end of the hall.

Michelle Madoff:

Didn't we change our system because it would be cheaper and better and more efficient? I'm not trying to call you to task. I realize you don't print them yourself.

Mr. Perry:

I have a problem here. I'd like to meet with Mr. DePasquale on it and I think we can solve it.

Michelle Madoff:

Is it a problem you want to discuss with him privately?

Mr. Perry:

I'd rather not discuss it here.

Michelle Madoff:

That's okay. Is it something I know about or something I don't know about? Is there some printing breakdown with the machinery?

Mr. Perry:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay. I just wanted to know. But you know, this has happened, for the record, not once but how many times in the last few months? Three or four?

Mr. Perry:

Four times.

Michelle Madoff:

Four times in the last couple of months we're asked to vote on bills that we don't have the final copy of, that we'd want to mark off and review items. Thank you.

Mr. O'Malley:

Mr. Perry, isn't this what we got two weeks ago?

Mr. Stone:

The bills came in two weeks ago, and last Wednesday you went over them and this is just a copy of what we did on Wednesday.

Mr. Perry:

They should have been mailed out Thursday afternoon so that the members of Council receive them within 48 hours prior to the meeting.

Mr. O'Malley:

Are you talking about what's on the agenda for final vote this afternoon?

Mr. Perry:

That is correct.

The Chair:

They should have been received over the weekend.

Mr. Stone:

Just straighten it out.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEE

Mr. Stone moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for the mailing of printed copies of all ordinances and resolutions to each member of Council at least 48 hours previous to their consideration by Council after the return of such papers from Committee.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, was that on the issue I just raised?

Mr. Stone:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

You say 48 hours. That is Sunday. There's no mail delivery. I find that most of the time, the reason I raised the issue, sir, I find that when I get here Monday morning, my mail comes at 2:00 and it arrives in my Monday mail, I don't get it at all. We are here on Thursdays and we like to go over it. You use to have it Thursday, you used to have it on Wednesday sometimes. Am I right or wrong? Would you care to comment?

Mr. Perry:

Thursday morning.

Michelle Madoff:

For the record. Thursday morning is when we had it. So if there was a question or a problem or we wanted to make some notations, we had a chance to check through because sometimes some other information comes along. I don't quite understand. If you're going to have it ready on Thursday, if somebody is away on Thursday and it doesn't get to their house until Monday afternoon, I'm a little concerned.

Mr. Perry:

I'll straighten it out.

Mr. Stone:

That applies for today. What I just read.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think that will entirely solve the problem. That's what I'm worried about. Even on Thursdays when it was ready I didn't get it until Monday afternoon.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, in light of the fact that budget hearings have far reaching implications on each and every taxpayer in the City, I believe that it is a matter of urgency that we move with haste to permit public viewing of our upcoming budget hearings on Cable TV.

In addition, public notification, perhaps in the form of press releases or public service spots, should go out to the public notifying them through the printed media and through newspapers and television, etc., of the opportunity that we give everybody every year to come and voice their opinions at the regularly scheduled open public forums. They don't know when they take place, they don't know what days they are. There's just not enough information. They go out to mostly the groups that are on our mailing lists. And they need to know what days they take place.

We're all indeed aware of a severe recession that is taking place right now with more than a ten percent unemployment rate. Thousands and thousands of Pittsburghers are out of work. All taxpayers are concerned with, not only keeping taxes at present levels without a cut in service, but with the possibility of even lowering tax levels because they're struggling so hard to maintain their present — just putting bread and butter and milk on the table.

Working together, the public, along with Council and the Administration, may be able to come up with some innovative concepts for alternative sources of revenue. I would hope Council, and I make this as a motion, would support an open forum and move expeditiously to arrange for gavel to gavel coverage of the budget hearings. This Council should let the sun shine in. So, I'm making a motion that we do what we did during the hearings on the Stadium. I think the budget is just as important as the Stadium. I spoke with Brother Emenecker. It would not be the same kind of coverage that we would have in 1983, but this Council would endorse having gavel to gavel coverage, notifying the public that it is on cable for those who already have it, and letting them know what actually happens.

Michelle Madoff moved to have the budget hearings televised on Cable TV.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

The Chair:

There's a motion and a second, but I don't really understand the motion because nobody has stopped anybody from coming in here and televising a Council session, the entire session or part of it.

Mr. Givens:

I think she's asking that Cable TV that we have in the City of Pittsburgh that has the capability now of doing this from gavel to gavel, then come into this Council. However, I think Michelle has to realize, and all of us within this Council, have to realize that there are certain limitations that would have to be imposed if we have gavel to gavel coverage. For example, if any of us look at C-Span on cable today and look at Congress and how it's conducted, it's a set camera only going to, for example, where Mike Perry would be, Mr. President, and that's where the camera is locked. That's the only person that speaks when that happens. In the Committee hearings, as with what Michelle is talking about on the Committee system right here, up in Congress it's acted a little bit differently. Even in the House in Harrisburg it's done on a set kind of procedure. We'd have to sit down and, I think Brother Richard Emenecker is here, and I think he could add some dimension to this. But some things that come to my mind is that the Chairman of this committee, that I also second this motion. I think it should be —

Michelle Madoff:

Sophie is Chairwoman of this committee.

Mr. Givens:

No she is not.

Mrs. Masloff:

I was never relieved of that chairmanship.

Mr. Givens:

The Chairman of the Cable Bureau of the City of Pittsburgh comes under the Department of Public Works.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, who is Chairman of the Cable Committee?

The Chair:

Sophie Masloff is Chairman of the Cable Committee.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I have the floor and I haven't relinquished it at this time.

Some of my concerns, and I hope some of you might voice the same, are the cameras. Where are they going to be? The positions, are they going to be set or are they going to be roving? What type of lighting are we going to have? Is it going to be permanent lighting or portable?

The Chair:

Dick, I've got to interrupt you for a second. If they're going to come in and TV this and we're going to tell them where to station the cameras and who to show. I mean, this is not our prerogative.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, we had a motion on this floor, there's a resolution to pass before this Council, it was seconded and we are now in discussion. Do I have the floor? That's all I ask.

The Chair:

You have the floor but I'm saying I don't quite understand your comments.

Mr. Givens:

We're in discussion.

The Chair:

We can't determine where they're going to put the cameras and whose pictures they're going to take. Hopefully, they'll stay on the Chairman or the President.

Mr. Givens:

Michelle did mention at the Stadium when we had the debate in here in regards to the Stadium and if anyone looked at that coverage, almost some eight hours of it, you will have to note that some people, the backs of their heads or the sides of their face was the only thing that was seen. Other people, because of their strategic locations or the roving cameras, the cameras were at one angle at one time. They went over to this side of the room and as a result, yourself and Bob Stone, we're getting the backs of your head very good, Michelle and Sophie or someone down that line were getting it fairly well and the people at the far end of the table weren't even recognized because the camera angle was such that they couldn't be seen. That is a problem that is a technical problem, I think one that can be worked out depending upon what is the physical set up of the cameras. I think looking at the physical side --

The Chair:

Excuse me. Brother Emenecker, could you see that that problem is corrected if they're in here, so they don't show the backs of our heads. It may be an improvement but --

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I still have the floor, I haven't relinquished it. Let me get over with my points and you can say what you want to. We have a physical set up here on the Wednesday session and on the Monday session. The Monday session is not too bad. The Wednesday session we have a square rectangular table right there and unless the camera is roving then we have problems of trying to pick up those people that are trying to speak at that particular time. That, I think, can be worked out by changing possibly this arrangement right here.

We have another greater problem, I think, in this Council. And that is our Parliamentary procedure. And that is who is chairing the meeting and only one person speaking at a time. The voice recorders can't pick up three people speaking, they can't pick up five conversations going off on the side when one person is trying to speak and at the same time only one person speaking at a particular time. It is evident right here and the fact if I had the floor that I could speak until I relinquished the floor. I think these procedures must be gotten clear.

If we're going to do the 1983 budget, should we do other hearings that are related to the '83 budget, not in Committee, but those public hearings where people want to have a say, or some Councilpeople want to introduce something that will affect the 1983 budget. Will they be covered? Will the Wednesday sessions be covered? Will the Monday sessions be covered during the same deliberation?

These are some of the concerns that I had, Mr. President. Thank you.

The Chair:

In effect, would you say this is a substitute for pro football?

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, personally I think if the soaps are on the same time as the budget hearings are on, everybody will be watching the soaps. However, I think what we ought to do is ask for a full report from Brother Richard Emenecker as to the mechanics, how it can be handled, what we can do, and when it can be done, and then we'll be in a better position to decide. But I think we should get a full report from him.

The Chair:

Can you do that this Wednesday, Brother Richard?

Brother Richard Emenecker:

I wouldn't be able to give you a full report by Wednesday. We could start to discuss it if you want, but I would prefer to have it a week from Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I introduced the motion with the concept of opening up these hearings so that everybody could see what happens during budget hearings. They're very concerned. They accuse us of all kinds of things that I believe are not true and I think the public should have the opportunity to witness how we interact, who is concerned with what, and not hearsay.

How we achieve those, or how we come to the goal of the mechanics of it are really a moot issue. I'm not concerned whether they show my profile or whether I look bad that day or whether I look my age, which is twenty-two. I think vanity should not be a part of this and I think that the media, when it covers an issue and somebody is speaking to a budget issue or somebody is speaking to a Stadium issue, they cover the person talking on the issue. If anybody is going to be talking on the subject, I am sure the camera will swing to the person and I think that issue of working out the mechanics is absolutely a valid point that Sophie raises and I concur with her completely. But that is not my motion. My motion today is that we agree in Council that we will have the budget hearings on Cable open to the public. We had a second to that motion from Mr. Robinson and I call for a vote on that limited motion subject to the mechanics being worked out and we should vote on it now.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, it seems to me that for the most part, the majority of us and certainly, it seems to me, our audience, is enjoying the debate in regard to as to how the cameras will be placed and the specific mechanics of a set up. But I think it's important that this Council keep in mind that only because the Cable Bureau is under the jurisdiction of the City, especially in the early stages of planning for Cable, I think it's imperative that this Council keep in the spirit of what is a free press and I think it's very serious for this Council to request the head of the Cable Bureau, Brother Emenecker, a report which would even infer that he tell us as to what the camera angles are going to be and trying to put some kind of subtle ideas in his head that we all want excellent coverage. I think that's a very serious issue and I think it's an issue that this Council has no right trying to impose upon the Director of the Cable Bureau. I believe that the Cable Bureau should have the same freedom to report

Council's proceedings as all other outlets of the media. And I think it would a very serious mistake just because it's under the jurisdiction of this Council that we would even put ourselves in the suspicious category of, perhaps, trying to have reign or control over the Cable Bureau since we control the purse strings on that Bureau.

So, I would request that in that report that there is not any addressing of how camera angles are going to be set up or the mechanics or how often they're going to be here or any restraints as far as the coverage. I think it is imperative that they have free reign. It seems to me, I know myself and I think all of my colleagues at one time or another, we have a hard enough time just trying to concentrate on our own work without worrying about trying to tell skilled technicians how to run their show.

The Chair:

I agree with you, but I do believe if they're going to give better coverage and more elaborate coverage, they're going to have to put up some stands and take it from above. That doesn't concern me whether they do or they don't, but I'm just saying that I feel like you do. We can't tell them where to put the camera or when to put the camera.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, that goes to the issue of my motion, how the mechanics are worked out. If there's a will, there's a way. Or we can stall on this motion today and we can say we'll stall to see what the mechanics are going to be. Let's not stall. Let's not worry about our vanity and our egos and who's going to be caught scratching their nose. Let's get going and I make this motion and we had a second from Mr. Robinson, let's have a vote.

The Chair:

Instead of getting in to a seesaw thing, as Mr. Flaherty said, let's vote on the motion and let the people from Warner Cable worrying about how this will be worked out.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm with you.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, there is a motion on the floor and it was seconded. On the discussion this particular bill, Sophie made a motion that this go to staff and that the staff come back with a report to this Council as to how they can do it, can they do it, is there time enough to do it in? And the location of the cameras is something that is very strategical. The courts of this state so said it would be done a certain way. The Legislative bodies of both the state of Pennsylvania and the Congress of the United States said it would be done a certain way. And I think this Council, where this is going to be reported from within, should have some say as to how those cameras should be set up. You know as well as I do, as the roving cameras go, they can only pick out certain people. I think that person that's speaking should be the one where the camera should be focused, and are all the Councilpeople going to be treated fairly?

There is that motion that Sophie made. Sophie, I will second your motion

The Chair:

Michelle made the motion.

Mr. Givens:

I will second Sophie's motion which is the last motion that was made

The Chair:

Wait a minute. The only motion we have on the floor is Michelle Madoff's motion.

Michelle Madoff:

One motion at a time. Sophie can make that as a separate motion and we can vote on that secondly. If you're asking me to recall my motion, I'm not.

Mr. Givens:

Sophie's is one that would table this issue pending — Sophie, could you state your motion?

Michelle Madoff:

She doesn't want me to recall it. She's not against people being seen. She's only concerned that they can do it.

Mrs. Masloff:

I can speak for myself.

The Chair:

Sophie, do you want to table Michelle's motion? You have the prerogative. Do you want to table it?

Michelle Madoff:

No she doesn't have the prerogative to table it.

The Chair:

Yes she does.

Michelle Madoff:

Parliamentarian, does she? But I won't withdraw.

Mrs. Masloff:

No. My motion was only to have a complete report before we do anything. That was my motion. So that we know where we're going and what's involved.

The Chair:

To that respect, we already stated we're going to have Brother Emenecker in next Wednesday. There were no further comments, let's call for a question on the motion and vote on Michelle's motion.

Michelle Madoff:

We're voting on the my motion which is open up the hearings, gavel to gavel, for the budget hearings. How the mechanics are set up would be a separate motion and we can worry about the mechanics later.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I put a motion, and I think my motion then, will be a preceeding motion of all of these, and that is to recommit this particular motion back into Committee until we get a report from the Director of the Bureau of Cable Communications. I think as Chairman of that particular committee, I want a report on this as to can it be done and how it can be done before I would want to vote on this particular motion.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, there's no second on your recom nital.

Mr. Givens:

Don't get me wrong. I am for it, but pending a report from the Director of the Bureau of Cable Communications. I am not against this bill, I am for this bill, but I will not vote on this bill until we get a Committee report first.

The Chair:

Okay. There's a motion and a second. Question called for on the motion.

Mrs. Masloff:

What's the motion?

Mr. Givens:

The motion is the last one to recommit. We must vote on that first.

The Chair:

The motion is strictly to allow the cameras to come in, Warner Cable, to televise all the budget sessions.

Mrs. Masloff:

What happened to my motion?

The Chair:

You withdrew your motion to recommit. Brother Emenecker is coming in with the informtion that you requested, Sophie.

Mr Givens:

Mr. President.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, what now?

Mr. Givens:

I asked to recommit. That must be considered first.

The Chair:

You didn't get a second, Mr. Givens.

Mr. Givens:

I put it in a form of a motion. I did not hear you call for a second.

The Chair:

There's been a motion to recommit. I'll ask again, is there a second? There being no second the motion dies. Now, we're voting on Michelle Madoff's motion to allow the sunshine to come in.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'll vote aye, but I agree with our Council President in that the Cable Bureau, as well as any other media outlet, can cover any session of Council whenever they please. I'm supporting the resolution, I believe that it's superfluous.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I am for the concept of having gavel to gavel coverage in the City of Pittsburgh Council. However, this given to me minutes before I come out here, as Chairman of that Committee, I did not have the opportunity to study it, I put a motion on the floor and that motion was defeated. I will bring up one other rule of parliamentary procedure. All resolutions introduced before the Council of the City of Pittsburgh must be in our hands twenty four hours before any session. For that reason, I cannot vote and I vote no on this because it was not given in such timely fashion. I vote no for those reasons. All of us are in error of our own Council's rules if we vote on this today.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I asked the Parliamentarian whether it was proper for another Councilmember to table my motion and he, I believe, indicated that it was not proper.

Parliamentarian:

The only motion on the floor right now is your motion that you're voting up or down.

Michelle Madoff:

But he cannot table my motion. Am I correct? Thank you. But even if there was a second, could it be tabled?

Parliamentarian:

I won't speak to that. It is only hypothetical.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay. I want to learn the proper procedure and the only way I will learn is by asking questions politely and getting polite answers, and treating each other courteously.

I agree with Sophie that we ought to find out the mechanism. I have talked to Sophie about this and I don't believe she has any objections to it. I don't think she's taking the position that Councilman Givens is taking, which is, shoot me and make me look pretty. She's saying, let's see how it can be done. The mechanics were already done during the Stadium hearings. I think this is equally as important and, of course it's my motion, and I vote aye.

Mrs. Masloff:

As Chairman of the Cable Committee —

The Chair:

That's an established fact. You are the Chairman of the Cable TV Committee.

Mrs. Masloff:

Thank you, Mr. President. I was never relieved of that.

The concept is fine, but before we move ahead, I want to know what's involved. I want a report first. I vote no.

Mr. Stone:

It's my understanding that our proceedings were to be cabled at some future time at any rate. I don't know that doing one at a time, as long as the Cable people are ready to do it, it was my understanding it was to be done. In that light, this is only part of the whole thing and I vote aye.

The Chair:

Can I have a stand-in when they have this?

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Michelle Madoff
Mr. O'Malley

Mr. Robinson
Mr. Stone
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

AYES 6

NOES 3

(MR. GIVENS, MRS. MASLOFF AND MR. WOODS VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion passed finally.

Mr. Givens:

Excuse me, Mr. President. I want a ruling from the Parliamentarian as to whether this resolution that was introduced to the Council of the City of Pittsburgh at the 2:00 session was, in fact, in violation of our own Council rules. I ask for a report from the Solicitor's Office.

The Chair:

Are you saying all resolutions must be in our hands twenty four hours before we vote on them?

Mr. Givens:

That's right. Mike Perry, the Chief Clerk, would you stand up and affirm or disaffirm that position.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Givens, this is a motion. It isn't a resolution.

Mr. Givens:

Then what's a motion carry?

Mr. Perry:

It's not a resolution like that's the intent of Council.

Mr. Given:

Mr. President, could you read just what you said up there. What are we talking in this moment of Council? Is it resolutions and motions?

The Chair:

Under motions and resolutions, Michelle Madoff made a motion.

The Chair:

Fine. And I think you will see that within our Council's rules of order, our Council's rules that are passed out to every Councilperson when they are sworn into office, I would ask then that our President, our Chief Clerk and our Solicitor look at those and see if we are not, in fact, in violation of our own rules.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, before I introduced this motion, I spoke to Mike Perry and it was not enough time because this issue arose as I was coming into Council today. Some people asked me if the budget hearings would be on Cable and also asked if they could come to the hearing, and I said that's a very good idea and I will ask about that. I spoke to Mike and asked if there was time to do a resolution and he said no but introduce it as a motion. I followed the directions of the City Clerk. If I was in error, I apologize, but I thought I was in order.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, what about my motion to have a full report?

The Chair:

Brother Emenecker is coming in and is going to give the full report.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I have some comments in regard to the opinion that was submitted on September 27th from our City Solicitor in which he feels that I could not introduce proposed amendments to the City's Homesteading Act. That's Chapter 453 of the Code.

I am really starting to be of the firm opinion that often times there are issues of great importance to the public that are not receiving a true airing because they are being squashed in a very sophisticated form through the Solicitor's Office. And I am extremely upset over his ruling in regard to my proposed amendments to the Homesteading Act.

This issue was researched and in reviewing the Roberts Rules of Order, our City Solicitor conveniently left out a very important word and also some very important sentences that could completely change his opinion around. I have very serious problems in regard to that the even extend beyond the issue of homesteading, but I wonder just how politicized the Solicitor's Office has become and I am starting to question the integrity of his opinions.

Specifically, in regard to the Homesteading Act, the Solicitor concludes that I was incorrect in offering amendments. He goes on to state Council Rule 13 as to the applicability of the Roberts Rules of Order. And he states Section 12 of the Roberts Rules of Order which says, "It should be noted that a vote in favor of substituting an entire resolution or main motion is" and he deletes the word "ordinarily". Ordinarily has three dots, wherein Roberts Rules of Order it has ordinarily. So he leaves out the word ordinarily and continues and says, "a vote to kill any provisions of the original version that are not included in the substitute".

I'm greatly disturbed that he leaves out that one word. In my mind, that completely changes his ruling because to the extend that this provision is not a hard and fast rule, it should not be in the present case for two reasons. First, in my reviewing the transcript, the sponsor of the Homestead Act, Councilman Robinson, before he offered a motion to substitute, he stated to Council that portions that were left out in the substitute could and probably would be introduced afterwards. The portions left out are not at all inconsistent with the substitute as contemplated by the segment quoted by our City Solicitor.

Secondly, it is clear that Roberts Rules were not properly followed in the present case. Once introduced, and I assume it was for the City Solicitor's comments to have any bearing at all, there must be an opportunity for the original proposal to be amended to make improvements on it before a substitute can be considered. Following the opportunity to amend the original proposal, and an opportunity to amend the substitute, a vote should be taken to determine whether the original or the substitute should be acted upon. Then a separate vote is taken on the original or the substitute if the substitution was approved.

I have a copy of the relevant portion of Section 12 and I feel very strongly that if Roberts Rules are to be followed in a strict case, they should be followed completely. In the present ruling they certainly were not.

But, of even more significance, the Solicitor quotes from Section 37 of Roberts Rules and again leaves out an extremely important portion. "An assembly can decide the same or substantially the same question twice during one session." That's a quote taken from Section 37. However, Section 37 follows with, "except through a motion to reconsider a vote or a motion to rescind an action or in connection with amending something already adopted". The latter is precisely what we have done in this case. Again, it was convenient for the Solicitor to leave this out of his opinions.

Lastly, Roberts Rules provides for a vote to be taken by this Council to suspend any of its rules for any particular purpose it chooses. Again, I think Council should have been reminded of this most primary, elementary rule.

In those considerations, next week at this time, I am once again going to offer amendments to this City Homesteading Act. And I'm going to ask this Council, if need be, to waive rules. Then we are finally going to see who is for a strong homesteading act and who is not for a strong homesteading act.

Mike, I request that you ask of our City Solicitor if there is anything within the legal jurisdiction of his office that can keep a member from offering any measure that may not be compatible with his rulings.

I have searched high and low, the City Solicitor's opinion is strictly an opinion. And I think for far too long this Council has been accepting it as if it's a decree of the highest court of the land. I think, with this attitude, extremely important public issues are being effectively squashed and silenced. And I think it's long overdue that this Council start to reinforce itself and not take everything our City Solicitor says at strictest face value.

In closing, I just want to say I find it so ironic when I was in Harrisburg as a State Representative, whenever there was a question, the rallying cry was always, "Let the Courts decide it". And that's what our courts are there for and I'm a firm believer in that. I have yet to hear that ever uttered in my third year on City Council and I think it's about time that we start to weight that alternative on serious issues.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Flaherty, I'm glad you brought up this particular position, etc. Had you been on this Council in previous years, you would have found out this Council, in fact, have overridden many of the positions of the Solicitor of the City of Pittsburgh, in fact, even though the Mayor vetoed many of those positions, and I can name a few of them as I sit here today. Two of them were on pornography, where the Solicitor both came up and said no, we could not do it. The Mayor vetoed it, but we still went forward with it because it was the will of the people and the will of this Council.

So, there have been examples in the past. I have to appreciate within the last eighteen months or two years that you've been on the Council right here that there hasn't been anything of magnitude that has come before us and I think you're right in pursuing the issues that you're discussing here today.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, don't we have available to members of Council paid legal advisors, counselors, that are not City counselors that Mr. Flaherty can avail himself of? I think the problem only becomes political if it is a political issue. If he wants to get an opinion and hire one of these attorneys, he needs five votes according to Mr. Stone's resolution. It used to be at your discretion. It used to be that if somebody wanted an opinion on something, they would go to the President, Mr. Jeep DePasquale, and say, may I get advice from an attorney on an issue. And you would say yes or no. Generally, you've been very gracious and have said, sure, go ahead and get the information.

The Chair:

Michelle, there's an exception here. In regards to a decision or an opinion that's handed down by the City Solicitor, that is law and is something that we must abide by. As Mr. Flaherty said, we have access to the Courts if we feel the opinion is in error. But getting one of our own attorneys to refute the opinion, and that's what will happen, we're just where we started. It's the same old ballgame. Our attorney says yes and their attorney says no. It's been going on for the eleven years that I've been here. Mr. Flaherty's got a good point. The City Solicitor's Office has almost always leaned to the way the Mayor thought. Hardly ever have they made a decision that Council thought was the right one. I'm not trying to belittle the City Solicitor's Office, I'm just saying that's the way the decisions have come out.

Michelle Madoff:

I think Mr. Flaherty has a point, that one decision is as good as another and that, perhaps, we have to resolve them in the Courts. But I raised an issue with the City Solicitor as an amendment to the Home Rule Charter and I discussed it with Councilman Robinson first of all, and he completely concurred with me. The issue was to encourage people who owned homes that they were losing money on that were still intact, perhaps, that we wanted, or in locations that were not, perhaps, in the best condition, to donate them to the City as a tax write-off. I got an opinion from the Law Department that was gobbledegook. It said nothing. It said yes and no in the same opinion. I would have liked to have been able to go out and say to another attorney, would you decipher what this attorney said. Can we or can we not have an amendment, which incidently, the Chairman of the Committee agrees with, that we should, indeed, encourage people to donate, as a tax write-off, properties to the City. I'd have to get five people on this Council that I could go out and get attorney to get that opinion.

Mr. Flaherty:

You bring up an excellent point, Michelle, and I have weighed this problem, and I am aware from my own experiences on Council, and I can even recall the debates extend six or seven years ago in regard to Council hiring it's own attorney full time, or it's own Solicitor. For whatever reasons this Council has not put forth the necessary five votes, the majority, to do that. So, I think a much more easier way, and neater way, would be, perhaps, to explore the idea of having our City Solicitor elected. If he wants to play in politics, then let him be directly accountable to the people. I believe that the Solicitor's Office is certainly one of the most inherently powerful offices in this City. And I think it has been a sleeping dog and it's been getting away too long with stifling public issues. Perhaps if the City Solicitor were elected, then maybe it wouldn't be so convenient to play a favorite with the Mayor or with certain members of Council. At least in the theoretical sense the Solicitor then would have to play a favorite with the public, and usually, the way the cards fall, that's just offering a fair opinion.

Mr. Stone moved to approve the minutes from Monday, September 20, 1982.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Woods

Council adjourned.

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

ABSENT:

Mr. Givens

The meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

We have a few resolutions that we're going to take before we get into the regular business of Council.

Michelle Madoff and The Chair presents

Bill No. 1799 WHEREAS, the safety and welfare of all persons, regardless of sex, age, race, or economic condition, is a deep concern and responsibility of all members of our society; and violence against persons is an escalating problem which endangers the values and freedom upon which our nation is founded; and

WHEREAS, violence against a woman is a fundamental denial of her dignity, worth, and civil rights; and

WHEREAS, the FBI estimates that nation-wide, once every 18 seconds, a woman is assaulted in her own home by a household member and this violence often ends in murder, with between 20 percent and 50 percent of all murders occurring in the home and with 40 percent of all female homicide victims being murdered by their mates; and

WHEREAS, because children tend to imitate the behavior of their family members, many children who witness the abuse of their mothers grow up to become wife-abusers themselves, thus perpetuating the violent breakdown of family life.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the residents of the City of Pittsburgh, in conjunction with the Women's Center and Shelter of Greater Pittsburgh and the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence do hereby proclaim the week of October 10, 1982 as "Domestic Violence Awareness Week" ending on October 16th with a "Day of Unity" to heighten public awareness of this problem, to commemorate the victims of family violence, and to publicly commit this City to taking measures to end violence in our homes.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I'd like to make a very brief statement. Nationally, domestic violence is seriously under-reported. The National Office on Domestic Violence shockingly reports that only one in every ten cases of spousal abuse is ever reported to the authorities.

In Pittsburgh, in Allegheny County, in the first half of 1982, the Women's Center and Shelter of Greater Pittsburgh, and I've had the pleasure of working with these women and they do outstanding work, have received over 1,782 calls from women directly affected by domestic violence at the time of their calls. So they're calling in as they're being beaten on.

The shelter provide shelter to these women, support and counseling for 114 battered women and 147 of their children. This is why we're designating October 10-16, 1982, and I hope we'll have that every year, as Domestic Violence Awareness Week.

Ellen Berliner, Phyllis Majesky and Marty Friday, would you come up here and accept this gold seal copy and say a few words? Marty, would you speak for everybody?

Marty Friday:

We would like to thank the City of Pittsburgh for the support it shows us in supporting the cause of battered women. Battered women is a problem who's dimensions you've just heard about from Michelle, and there is something we can do about it and this will help. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to say one more thing, if I may. A lot of people think that Council is a three ring circus and we don't do anything productive and I think this is the kind of thing that calls attention to serious issue and I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Stone, because I think Mr. Stone, as Budget Finance Chairman, did a great deal to provide money for the Women's Shelter and really bent over backwards to locate the dollars as we promised we would do when we voted against the original zoning. I want to thank Mr. Stone personally.

The Chair:

I'm happy to have a part in the resolution even though it means, I guess, I can't batter Michelle Madoff.

Michelle Madoff:

I wonder if we could get Sanford Black, David Bernsline, and Nancy Bertram to come up.

Michelle Madoff presents

Bill No. 1800 WHEREAS, the Tri-State Chapter of the Paralyzed Veterans of America is an organization dedicated to the care of those individuals afflicted with spinal injuries; and

WHEREAS, 23 year old Nancy

Bertram, a former nurse at the Craig Rehabilitation Institute in Colorado, was so impressed and touched by the magnitude of this organization, that she devised a most unusual method of raising money for their cause; and

WHEREAS, Nancy has solicited from individuals and organizations various amounts of money for every mile that she bicycles, thus far collecting over $7,000.00 for her 4,000 mile bike trip which has taken her throughout the United States and Canada; and

WHEREAS, this money will be distributed to the National Paralyzed Veterans of America to be used for advocacy, legislation efforts, education, scholarships, nursing care, medical research, and other endeavors to help those afflicted.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh, hereby recognize and commend Nancy Bertram for her valiant display of devotion in raising money to further the ideals of the Paralyzed Veterans, thus enhancing the lives of those afflicted and inspiring us to live together in love.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I would like to take this opportunity to thank Nancy personally. And I would like to give her a check, and I think it would be very nice if the rest of my colleagues would come foward with some small contribution because we may have our own squabbles here in Council, we may go home saying it's been a tough day, but we don't have to put up with some of the problems that the handicapped who can't even get into the stores to shop. I think this young woman has shown remarkable courage and I'd like you to follow my lead if you will. Thank you.

The Chair:

I'd certainly like to congratulate Miss Bertram.

Mr. Welty, on behalf of the Mayor, would you please read the proclamation?

Mr. Welty:

I have a citation signed by Mayor Caliguiri and if I may, I'd like to read it.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh, I do hereby join the entire Pittsburgh community in extending a warm and cordial welcome to Nancy Bertram on her stop-over in the City of Pittsburgh on a bicycling tour throughout the United States and Canada; to offer public recognition for her humanitarian interest in the needs and concerns of the physically handicapped and particularly for the financial assistance she is affording paralyzed patients through her bike tour, already having collected approximately $7,000.00 for the Tri-State Chapter of the Paralyzed Veterans of America and the National Paralyzed Veterans organization and to wish Ms. Bertram success as she continues her biking travels for this worthy cause.

Michelle Madoff:

Is there a check attached?

Mr. Welty:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

I think there should be.

Nancy, would you like to say a few words?

The Chair:

I just want to say on behalf of the Mayor and City Council, we certainly want to congratulate Nancy on her efforts.

Nancy Bertram:

I just want to thank you all, especially the Paralyzed Veterans of America, they've been very supportive to me and I really appreciate it. I don't know what I'd do without all you guys. But, like they said, we do need pledges. I'll pedal as much as I can, but we just need a lot of pledges. Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Again, congratulations and good luck to everybody.

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 1801 WHEREAS, hunger and chronic malnutrition remain daily facts of life for hundreds of millions of people throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, over 48,000 residents of Allegheny County experience hunger annually; and

WHEREAS, although progress has been made in reducing the incidence of hunger and malnutrition in the United States, certain groups notably among native Americans, migrant workers, single parent families, elderly, women, and minorities remain vulnerable to malnutrition and related diseases; and

WHEREAS, the world hunger problem is critical to the security of the United States and the international community; and

WHEREAS, a key recommendation of the Presidential Commission on World Hunger was that efforts be undertaken to increase public awareness of the world hunger problem; and

WHEREAS, the 147 member nations of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations designated October 16, 1982 as "World Food Day" because of the need to alert the public to the increasingly dangerous world food situation; and

WHEREAS, Hunger Action Coalition and numerous civic, religious and community groups are celebrating World Food Day throughout Pittsburgh as a means to inform people of food, nutrition, and hunger issues.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh, does recognize October 16, 1982 as World Food Day in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, as Council knows, last year we also honored the Hunger Action Coalition and recognized World Food Day. Joni Rabinowitz, who represents the Hunger Action Coalition is here this after to receive the gold seal copy of this resolution, and with the indulgence of Council, I'd like her to come forward and say a few words.

Joni Rabinowitz:

Before I say a few remarks, I'd like to introduce a couple of our members who are here with me today. Barb Murock and Diane Robinson, stand up. They're staff members of Hunger Action Coalition who are working with our food pantries. And Mr. Fred Just who is a member of our Board who has asked for a few seconds to make a few remarks. Why don't you come up here, Fred.

I want to thank City Council for taking the time to recognize the criminality of a situation in which we find ourselves with respect to hunger in the world and in the United States and in Pittsburgh, and to recognize World Food Day. To us, it's insane that with the high level of technology available in the world today, hundreds of thousands of people go hungry due to unequal distribution of resources of all kinds.

As a demonstration of the concern of the Federal Government for hungry and poor people, we have lost our federal funding for 1983 and we'll have to close down unless alternative funding is forthcoming despite the fact that our work has doubled in the last year.

City Council has shown by your willingness to join with us in condemning hunger as a social problem, not only this year but as Mr. Robinson mentioned, last year as well. Any by providing assistance on two separate occasions to our program and to the Pittsburgh Community Food Bank, we're sure that you're not going to allow the people of Pittsburgh to go hungry. We're happy that you will help us publicize, educate and advocate and provide services for those caught in this horrendous economic situation, again, by providing us the opportunity to publicize World Food Day.

Again, we want to thank you for taking the time and effort to issue this proclamation on the occasion of World Food Day. Thank you very much.

I'd like to introduce Fred Just who also wants to make a few remarks.

Fred Just:

I would just like to take this time to thank you on behalf of all the people in Pittsburgh and the members of the Board of Hunger Action Coalition for your response to this concern, this need, in our community and in our country.

I'd also like to pay City Council a compliment. I just returned from a tour of the Netherlands that was sponsored by the Government of that country, and I had a chance to meet with the Mayors and many City Councils throughout that country. I was very proud of our City Council for two reasons. I was able to say to their City Councils that we have a Council who is not concerned just with the matters that revolve mainly in the City of Pittsburgh, though that's essential, but you also reach out to national and international issues as you've proven over and over throughout the years.

Second of all, of all the Councils I met, there was no Council that had women seated among the Councilmembers. So I was able to say that in Pittsburgh we have two women. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask you a question before you leave? How much money has been shut off? What kind of funding were you getting that you're not getting now?

Joni Rabinowitz:

About $70 thousand in CSA money.

Michelle Madoff:

Have you sat down with our Finance Chairman at all for some advice? He's good at locating money somewhere.

Joni Rabinowitz:

We're definitely planning to and I do appreciate your suggestion because I think we do plan to do that. Thank you very much.

The Chair:

I'd certainly like to thank Mr. Rabinowitz and Mr. Just for their comments.

Also,

Bill No. 1802 WHEREAS, the National Football League has, over the past sixty-three years, produced many outstanding players, coaches and other personnel; and

WHEREAS, many honors and acts of recognition have been initiated to give public testimony to the greatest of these great men; and

WHEREAS, the pinnacle of success and accomplishment is induction into Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio; and

WHEREAS, the people of Pittsburgh recognize the many accomplishments of John Henry Johnson, not only in Pittsburgh, but in San Francisco with the 49ers, Detroit with the Lions, Houston with the Oilers, and in Pittsburgh with the Steelers; and

WHEREAS, John Henry Johnson has been on the list of eligible inductees for several years, and has been judged on the merits of his past performance to be outstanding.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the people of Pittsburgh, encourage the Board of Selectors of the Pro Football Hall of Fame to induct John Henry Johnson into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in the year 1983.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might, I think that much has been written and said about John Henry Johnson and, unfortunately, too much has written and said about why he's not a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Hopefully, this resolution will encourage those persons on the Selection Committee to indeed induct him in 1983. He has been on the list for a number of years and at one point came one vote shy of being inducted. 1983 would be an appropriate year for John Henry to go into the Hall of Fame in as much as our own Pittsburgh Steelers will be facing the New Orleans Saints at the annual game in Canton, Ohio.

I would like to have a copy of this resolution, along with the article that appears in today's Press, written by Pat Livingston, sent to Mr. Don Smith, who is the Vice President of the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the coordinator of the Selection Committee. Hopefully, the resolution and Mr. Livingston's article, the article is on John Henry Johnson, will have some impact on the Selectors and hopefully next year, they will see fit to induct John Henry Johnson into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Chair presents

Bill No. 1803 WHEREAS, the unemployment rate in the Pittsburgh area is above the national average; and

WHEREAS, the Kroger company recently threatened to close seven stores in the Pittsburgh area and halt the opening of five additional supermarkets, leaving approximately 365 employees out of work; and

WHEREAS, the union representing these Kroger employees agreed to contract concessions to prevent these closings.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby urge the Kroger company to reconsider its plans to close these stores, and to meet with the union representing their employees in a constructive effort to come to a contract agreement which would prevent the closings and subsequent loss of jobs.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.
Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

It's the Chair's feelings that just too many businesses are closing in the Pittsburgh area and the shock of Krogers now talking about closing seven stores and five underway not being opened is just too much to bear, and I think that things can be worked out if sensible heads get down to a table and try to work them out.

More seriously, two of the larger developments in the City of Pittsburgh are jeopardized by the closing or the impending closing of these Kroger stores. In fact, the one development depends entirely on the Kroger store and was going to take up almost half of that development. If that doesn't open, that development may go under.

So, you're talking about many jobs being lost in the City of Pittsburgh besides Krogers closing and their effect on other businesses and other developments.

Michelle Madoff:

I just want to ask a little question. I'm a little bit confused. I've been getting my information from the media and I understood that the company had asked for concessions, the employees had said no. Therefore, they were going to close. Then my understanding is that the employees reconsidered. And now the company hasn't said yes. Is that where we are at this point?

The Chair:

You are certainly correct with the exception that the union has said that they would like to take another vote and the company has said at this point they don't know for sure if it's too late or not.

I was talking to some people this morning and I understand the companies will listen to the unions, especially if they take another vote to rescind those requests or raises.

Michelle Madoff:

Have you had a chance to call Kroger people yourself? I think that might be very helpful.

The Chair:

No, but I talked to people who talked to the Kroger people and they said obviously they're not ruling out talking to the union again. The first step is for them to take a vote, obviously, and to change the vote in regards to how it turned out the first time where they said no, that they wanted these so-called benefits and they would hear nothing else. It was a close vote. And now that the hammer has been dropped and there's a great threat and a danger of the stores being closed, they're reconsidering to the point where any job is better than no job at all.

Michelle Madoff:

You mean even Council, if we have to take a cut in salary.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. I think you're on the right track here, but I think to leave it only with a prayer or a wish thing would be less than, I think, the kind of action that should be taken. I think it's time that the Mayor and the Commissioners of Allegheny County meet and try to set up some sort of mediating force.

The Chair:

Mr. Stone, if I may. The Mayor is about to do that. The Commissioners, I don't know. I imagine they will too. But the Mayor has got those plans underway already.

Mr. Stone:

Well, what affects this County likewise affects the City and I think there ought to be some sort of permanent program whereby other than everyone ventilating at a time that an issue happens, that we have some constructive process whereby they carry the weight of the Government, both on the City and the County level, that this is of interest to us and we want them there. I think there ought to be some sort of mediating force on this local front over and above that which is supplies by the State and Federal Government and I'd like a letter to come from this Council to the Mayor and the Commissioners asking that they set up some sort of machinery for it and it needs some joint contribution of funds in order to save jobs. I think we ought to be prepared to do that immediately. Instead of reacting we ought to be acting and I think this is the time to do that thing which is paramount and very essential to us.

The Chair:

Another fact that they considered also, Mr. Stone, is if you recall, there were a couple of heated hearings where people were opposed to Kroger stores located in those certain areas, and Council approved those locations and now, all of a sudden, they say they're not going to open those stores. It sort of sets us up to a certain amount of ridicule too. And then they're going to be completely ignored by the people who asked us to do this.

Mr. Stone:

That's the very point I'm making. I think that it needs that personal touch in the sense that there is a give and take that's inherent in every collective bargaining agreement. There's a give and take where Government is helping them. They ought to be able to help in return to keep employment here. I think we need that and that's the reason I'm pushing for the letter.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think Mr. Stone has taken it past the point of rhetoric and sympathy into doing something constructive. I think what I hear him saying, perhaps I'm wrong, but, too often we wait until there's a situation and then we say things are getting pretty bad and we're on Council and we vote for the budget finally and we're going to get blamed so let's get involved.

I know in the situation on the arbitration of the Dravo site with Nicky Minalos, I had a letter of authorization from Maurice A. Nernberg, I had a letter of authorization from Nicky Minalos, and I dealt with Charlie Horn of U.S. Steel for some six weeks about six or seven times a day until something could be worked out where both sides were happy. And I think what we need is a mechanism in place, not just for the Dravo site or for Kroger or any other, something that may come up at the spur of the moment, but some kind of arbitrating on-going body that is part the combination of this Council and of the Administration that is available the minute the word is out, there is even an inkling that somebody is thinking of closing down because there's some dichotomy or disagreement between management and employees in this time of really depression, if you don't have a job it's certainly a recession with one out of eight people in this community not working, that we're ready to move immediately. I would volunteer to serve on that; I'm a good arbitrator. I know Mr. Stone would be good at it. I'm sure you would be good at it. And certainly the Mayor himself and his designee, perhaps Mr. Matter or Mr. Hayllar, or somebody, but have that committee available and ready the minute we get any kind of inkling that something like that is about to happen. Would you see that as a viable route to go? Certainly Mr. Ben Woods would be good at that.

Mr. Woods:

I agree whole-heartedly with Councilman Stone and Michelle Madoff, but I think it should go one step further. I think that if this committee or commission, whatever, could be set up, that it also ought to go out and look for new industry to come back and replace the industry we lost or maybe, perhaps, try to bring some of the people back. I think that's really essential if we're going to get the City and the County going again.

Michelle Madoff:

There is a group called Penn Southwest that does an outstanding job in that area. Unfortunately, their charter and their restrictions do not let them concentrate in our community alone. They have to go to Western Pennsylvania, not just in this area. About five years ago, with one of the legislators from the North Hills, I proposed legislation which he brought before the House, and I've since talked to several other legislators who have a ten year, one shot tax write-off to all head of householders for energy items, anything, storm doors, solar windows, solar systems. You won't put in a solar system if you're in your right mind. If it's going to cost you $15 thousand and all you're getting is a $2 thousand write-off. But if you're getting a write-off over ten years at one thousand a year, and you put in a $15 thousand technology, we create a completely new industry in this area. And what happens from that is we put people back to work in the kind of skills that they're trained to do. We're not going to turn steel workers into brain surgeons. But we can certainly turn them into people who could be very easily adaptable to doing energy systems. And the only union I was ever endorsed by was your union because they did the work.

Mr. Woods:

I hate to keep belating this thing, but you talk about solar energy — under national union, a few years ago, was going to finance any of our people that wanted to go into business and help them train to be solar energy contractors throughout the country and in this city also.

Michelle Madoff:

Ben, you know, the fact of life on that is that until this year, gas was go cheap, we knew natural gas was going up and it's going up fourteen percent this year and it's anticipated a seventeen percent increase next year, the steam heat plant is going to eventually, I hope, go to solid waste - I like to give you a little stick there, but you know it's only friendly - and the point being that solar collectors work but there's no good in having people train to put them in if people can't afford to buy them. It's a Catch-22 and in order to make it viable, Mr. Reagan should stop worrying about subsidizing the tobacco industry and maybe coming up with a ten year tax credit to create a whole new industry where he generates the same taxes from people working.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Flaherty presented

No. 1751 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Pitt Chemical and Sanitary Supply Co., in the amount of $457.35 in payment for services furnished for the benefit of the City of Pittsburgh in connection with repairs to the Clark Floor Machine; and providing for the payment thereof. Payable from Code Account 1364, Repairs, Department of Lands and Buildings.

Also,

No. 1752 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Craft Products Company, in the amount of $366.25 in payment for chemicals furnished for the benefit of the City in connection with the water cooling tower for the air conditioner at the Public Safety Building; and providing for the payment thereof. Payable from C.A. 1362, Supplies, Department of Lands and Buildings.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Also,

No. 1753 Resolution repealing Res. No. 1089, effective November 12, 1981, entitled, "Providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Chadwick Civic League, Inc. located in the Lincoln-Lemington area of the City and the Urban Redevelopment Authority, so as to provide insulation for the center which is owned and operated by the City and providing for the payment and cost thereof."

Also,

No. 1754 Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements for architectural/engineering services and/or a contract or contracts including the use of existing contracts for design and construction of roof insulation at Chadwick Civic Center and providing for the payment of the cost thereof, not to exceed $10,000.00, payable from 1981 Community Development Block Grant Program Trust Fund, Unspecified Local Options.

Also,

No. 1755 Resolution providing for a Cooperation Agreement or Agreements with Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh in connection with miscellaneous renovations at various locations, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof, not to exceed $68,948.46, payable from LB 79-06, LB 81-14 and LB 82-04.

Also,

No. 1756 Resolution authorizing the sale of City owned property in O'Hara Township, Allegheny County, known as Lots 1 and 2 of the Village of Montrose Plan, designated as Block 292 H, Lot 50, to the Allegheny County Sanitary Authority for the sum of $2,000.00.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Lands and Buildings.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'd like to discuss a piece of legislation that was introduced. It is amendments to the recently enacted City Homesteading Act. As I'm sure all my colleagues are aware, there has been some controversy as to if those amendments can be introduced prior to 1984. Subsequently, I believe that we all received an opinion on October 7th from the City Solicitor's Office in which he states in the second paragraph that in issuing an opinion, I was acting as a parliamentarian to Council and in such capacity cannot and will not make the rulings. In parliamentary matters, the Solicitor can only give opinions or advise the presiding officer who makes the parliamentary rulings.

As set forth in the Roberts Rules of Order, on page 389, "After the Parliamentarian has expressed an opinion, the Chair has the duty to make the ruling, and in doing so, has the right to follow the advice of the Parliamentarian or to disregard it. However, any two members of Council can appeal the presiding officer's decision on such a question by one member appealing the decision of the presiding officer and another seconding it."

So, it seems to me that it's in order for the President of Council to rule and to reiterate what is stated in the opinion. The President of Council would not have to rule in compliance with the ruling from the Solicitor's Office. So, I believe it would be in order now to have a ruling from the President.

The Chair:

In that respect, to follow protocol, I'm going to have no alternative but to uphold the opinion of the Law Department or the Solicitor. So, in effect, your motion is out of order, Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question, Mr. President. You say that you don't have an alternative other than to uphold the opinion from the Solicitor. --

The Chair:

I have the alternative, but I'm saying that I'm going to uphold the Solicitor's opinion. Whether it's the right one or wrong one, I have no choice at this point. We have nobody else to rely upon. If that's the law of the City, I've got to follow it.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, in the opinion of October 7th, the Solicitor says that you don't have to uphold his opinion.

Michelle Madoff:

It's your decision.

The Chair:

I understand that fully, but I am still going to go with the Solicitor's opinion.

Mr. Flaherty:

Would you be kind enough to tell the Council why you are upholding the Solicitor's opinion?

Mr. Stone:

The Chair has ruled, point of order, let's move on with the business.

The Chair:

No, I think I owe him an explanation. Other than what I just said, Tom, I feel that if we ask for an opinion from the Solicitor and the Solicitor gives us an opinion, we have no choice but to abide by that decision or else to go to court. I know of no other opinion that I can rely upon other than the City Solicitor.

Mr. Flaherty:

Alright then, I move to appeal the ruling of the Chair and to introduce the proposed amendment to the City Urban Homesteading Act.

Michelle Madoff:

I would second it, but I must point out that the final line on this paragraph says "a majority vote of Council would be required to reverse the decision of the presiding officer".

So, while I second it, and I second it in the interest of I think everybody's voice should be heard for whatever reason and then we still have the prerogative to overrule. And by seconding it, we then have discussion. Is that correct, Mr. Parliamentarian?

Parliamentarian:

Actually, this motion is not debatable.

Michelle Madoff:

You mean it says that we can overrule it, but we can't even have discussion on it?

The Chair:

Wait a minute. You're asking the Solicitor and he said it's not debatable. Do you want to elaborate, Vince?

Parliamentarian:

In Robert's Rules of Order, page 389, pertaining to the opinion as to whether a Councilperson can re-introduce a bill identical to one that was already defeated violates the rules of Council.

The Chair has the duty to make the final ruling, and in doing so, he has the right to follow the advice of the Solicitor or disregard it. Therefore, it would be the final ruling of the President.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, in the interest of public information and the interest of sharing our concerns with the public, may I be heard?

I don't think that anyone of us —

Mr. Stone:

Point of order.

The Chair:

Wait a minute. We got a decision from the Solicitor and now you're going to completely refute his decision.

Michelle Madoff:

Then I will wait until after the meeting and I will discuss it at that point, sir, if I'm out of order.

The Chair:

Okay.

Mr. Flaherty:

Could I withdraw my motion? The reason why is because I consider this an extremely important issue of policy for the City and I would wish to hold this for a week and since it is of great importance, and since we have had rulings from the Solicitor in the past, written rulings, that in my mind, can be challenged and can be argued, and since I don't have the Roberts Rule of Order in front of me, I wish to withdraw my motion and ask the Solicitor that he give us a written opinion as to why we cannot have the debate on this issue.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you wish me to withdraw my second?

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, I want to know, Tom, debate on what issue? Whether you can debate the rule of the Chair, whether you're going to overrule him? Is that what you're asking?

Mr. Flaherty:

No, no.

The Chair:

Debate the ruling of the Solicitor, whether it's a legal ruling —

Mr. Woods:

It's not a ruling. If you rule something and we want to overrule you, we can't debate it. We've got to vote on it. That's in the Roberts Rules of Order. Is that what you're asking the Solicitor for? I just want it clarified. Is that what you're asking, Tom?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes.

Mr. Woods:

Fine. Just so we know.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am asking the Solicitor and I don't see any harm that can happen to this Council in having a written opinion that each of us can have proper time to study. If the opinion is correct, then we don't have anything to worry about. So I wish to withdraw my motion and in the meantime, if we could have a written opinion.

Michelle Madoff:

I withdraw my second.

The Chair:

Okay.

Mr. Flaherty for Mr. Givens presented

No. 1757 Resolution transferring the amount of eleven thousand nine hundred dollars ($11,900.00) from Code Account 1660, Salaries, Regular Employees, to Code Account 1661, Misc. Services, Supplies, Repairs, Materials and Equip., both accounts within the Bureau of Cable Communications, Department of Public Works.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Flaherty moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, as you know, the City does not run on a profit and loss bookkeeping system. Therefore, many of us vote in a vacuum because we don't really understand some of the things we're voting for. We're not apple computers or any other kind of computers, and anyone who says we don't do our homework isn't really being very fair because it would be humanly impossible for each of us to have our own budget people and I can't even get a fiscal officer appointed to Council at large.

But I did speak to Mr. Buckley, asking him for documentation and figures as to whether we have "a deficit or loss in three things, the Aviary, the Conservatory and the Zoo". And he pointed out to me that the records are not set up in such a manner that show deficits or profits or loss. I think in the case of the Zoo, the Aviary and the Conservatory, I would respectfully suggest that we do set up exactly that kind of accounting.

I think if we were to ask Mr.
Eddie Albert, and I've already asked Louise Brown, I've not asked Mr. Albert, how much money is put into the Capital Budget, or from the Capital Budget, appropriations and bonding money, into those entities, particularly the Zoo, not covered by foundations the future generations and the City pays back on our bond debt service. We would find pretty soon that the amount of money that I talked about, the $4 million over three years, was really not the total picture. And at future meeting with the media, I'm going to have that documentation, I'm going to present it, and I'm going to research it. I have someone from the University of Pittsburgh who's going to be helping, who is an expert in some fiscal matters, and I think we're going to show unequivocally that, again, since two thirds of the people in the City that use these facilities are non-City residents and Commissioner's Foerster's response to me in the media is, "Well, after all, the County is funding Kane Hospital and a lot of City residents use it". I think Commissioner Foerster forgets that City residents also pay County taxes. I pay County taxes if I ever have to go to Kane Hospital. But he's using my zoo and he's not paying a penny towards it. And I think that ought to be put forward. I don't want to see him at the Zoo until he comes up with some bucks.

Mr. Woods:

Michelle, Commissioner Foerster personally lives in the City, so you don't mean him.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I understand that he lives in the City, but he is a Voting Commissioner. I don't vote in his place and it isn't a group of nine and it isn't a weak Council system and a strong Mayor system. They make the decisions and they have promised.

I have talked to Louise Brown. I'm glad you raised that, Mr. Woods. I spoke to Louise this weekend. And she said she has asked the County. The County has given their word they're going to do it. But we haven't seen dollar one.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I think the crucial issue here is what you're voting on at the moment. To say that you want the County to contribute may be something you want in the future. The question before us is whether we put seven hundred thousand dollars into Phipps Conservatory. And dealing with that single, narrow, specific issue, the question is whether we do it or we don't. And I hope that this City Council is not of the mind that we would not keep up that which we presently own. Otherwise, we'd end up someday probably triple or ten fold in responsibility and debt in picking it up. And I think it borders on fiscal irresponsibility not to carry those things we presently have.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think it borders on fiscal irresponsibility when everybody knows that the City houses the poor. And people live in their beautiful bedroom communities because we offer these amenities. We give these facilities to the County. If they don't want them, let them phase them out. It is not our responsibility to pick up those debt services. It is fiscally irresponsible for the County to put the burden on the one out of eight people unemployed in this City. I'm sorry.

Mr. Flaherty:

I agree for the most part with Councilwoman Madoff. We've been hearing now for years how the State is going to assist us. I even recall some echoing of that sentiment from the County. And I think we are in the worst straights that this City has ever seen itself in and I think it's going to continue to get worse. We have a population that is continually dwindling. We have a percentage of tax-exempt land that is constantly increasing. And I think it's about time that we start to play a little bit of hard ball. And if that means starting out with some tough talk as far as our County Commissioners go, then so be it. I think the bed of roses is getting a little bit too cozy and the City taxpayer is starting to suffer because of it. As Councilman Woods said, there are County Commissioners, two of them, who reside in this City. And if that means anything, I think we should have some inherent empathy for the problems that we, the City taxpayers, are now experiencing. I think it's about time that this Council start to be more concerned about this City and not so much concerned about what the County Commissioners as saying.

Mr. Stone:

I'd like the comments from the Wednesday meeting brought forward to this meeting.

(BEGINNING OF MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1681 AND 1682, 10/6/82)

Mr. Stone

Michelle, you're voting against giving $700,000.00 to fix our Phipps Conservatory?

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

The Chair:

Then my understanding is because the County won't pay, you don't want to repair those things that are ours —

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

The Chair:

You're recommending we abandon our Phipps Conservatory and our zoo?

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Okay. I just want to make sure —

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the appointment was approved.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I just have three quick things, if I might. One concerns the bill that is being held in the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development relative to Mr. Lehman's video arcade proposed for Market Square.

In order that Council might be fully apprised of some of the surrounding circumstances and can vote intelligently on Wednesday, I'd like to ask the City Clerk to forward a letter to Mr. Mistick, who is Chairperson of the Zoning Board, to secure from him the ruling of the Zoning Board on this matter. This video arcade had to be approved by the Zoning Board and it's my understanding that some action was going to be taken last Thursday and that by this Monday there will be some sort of written opinion. And if we could have that on Wednesday, we could discuss that along with a fruitful discussion on the video arcade itself.

The Chair:

Did the Zoning Board approve of the application?

Mr. Robinson:

I would like to get some official notification for this Council prior to us taking final action.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, may I address that issue? I know you have three things you want to talk about. May I address this particular one?

Mr. Robinson:

You have to ask the Chair.

Michelle Madoff:

But since you have two other items, do you mind if I address this one? Then I'll ask the Chair.

The Chair:

I don't think we should debate the reason behind their decision or whether we're going to approve or disapprove. That's going to be done Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think we're debating it. I think it's important to discuss.

Mr. Robinson:

Well, I'm asking for this information so that Wednesday, when the bill is back in Committee, that we can discuss all the matters, since we asked the Zoning Board to consider the petition that was forwarded to us, and also we indicated we were going to hold any decision until they had an opportunity to make a decision.

The Chair:

I'm only saying that if we move to discuss the situation now rather than wait until Wednesday when we'll have that information that you're referring to.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to discuss that matter.

The Chair:

To what extent, Michelle?

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to quibble with the concept of waiting until Wednesday. The unfortunate thing is that what happens is that we wait until it's after the fact. And it is already after the fact and I want to share that with Council.

The Chair:

We can't vote until Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't want to vote. I just want to discuss it.

Mr. Woods:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman. We're going to discuss it on Wednesday when it comes up for a preliminary vote, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I think there needs to be some action taken between now and Wednesday and I would like to discuss that. May I? Does anyone have any objection to hearing me out? You can always rule me out of order or you can say that my point is invalid.

The Chair:

I honestly think you're out of order in regards to that specific --

Michelle Madoff:

Well, why don't you hear what I have to say first of all. Then you can decide whether it's appropriate or inappropriate.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, if I could finish my two items.

Michelle Madoff:

Go ahead.

Mr. Robinson:

Number two, on our Urban Homesteading Program, I think it would be appropriate and informative if both Mr. Brophy and Mr. Smith were asked to come in for a post agenda next Wednesday to discuss 1) what process and procedures they have established for our Urban Homesteading Program pursuant to Council Bill 1098 which authorized that program, and 2) what provisions have been made for the Gift Property Program which Council approved, I believe, two weeks ago.

Also, we need to have information relative to the persons who are responsible for carrying out this Urban Homesteading Program and also, what, if any, publicity they have developed to let people know that the program does exist and how they can participate.

The third item relates to Community Action Pittsburgh. Several weeks ago, I made some comments relative to CAP and what appears to be some recurring problems. I think that it would be wise for this Council and for the Mayor to meet to discuss current operations of Community Action Pittsburgh and its future operation. I say this in light of the continuing controversy and also in light of what probably is going to become a worse situation. I think it would only be responsible for both the Mayor and Council to discuss this matter together and to be prepared to address whatever kind of problems are ultimately becoming into our laps.

Michelle Madoff:

We suggested that before. Mr. President was supposed to set up a meeting with Council and the Mayor for us to have a private meeting to discuss it. We've already discussed that. I think it's a very valid point.

The Chair:

Okay.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, with reference with the Market Square issue that we're going to be discussing in depth on Wednesday. Point of information, there has been a voice vote, same as we do in Council on Wednesday and we vote final vote on Monday that indeed the Historic Landmark Society is going to permit the arcade to exist and it's already hit the media so it's no big secret. I spoke to Mr. Joe Mistick himself, the head of the Zoning Board, and he has exactly the same concerns that I have. He feels that it is inappropriate to have certain facilities in certain areas. And the only way we can change it is by introducing new legislation. So, I had Mike Perry contact the appropriate agencies with a note that says, "Please prepare an ordinance amending the appropriate zoning code to prohibit amusement arcades in designated historic areas. After conferring with various departments involved in this issue, they believe this is the correct procedural route to take. Please see that Mr. Danny Pellegrini addresses this with dispatch as we are faced with a horrendous situation of an arcade going into Market Square."

The information is that we cannot stop them. I called Mr. Stone at his office and said that we have an emergency. It appears that this arcade is going in and we cannot stop them. He said, "That's right. Under present law, we cannot stop them." And we cannot make the law if we change it, and I hope this Council will change it so that no other arcades can come in, we cannot be retro-active.

Unfortunately, there are twenty-seven who signed the petition, as you know. They are PPG, who are very distressed. The Market Square people are very, very distressed about this and I would like, Mike, that you notify the twenty-seven people on the list, or their leadership, that they are hear for that post agenda on Wednesday so that they can be heard or at least hear what's going on.

Mr. Perry:

It's not a post agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

But they're allowed to come and hear. And they don't know it's going to take place unless somebody lets them know, do they? They may not be heard, but they can certainly come and hear.

The Chair:

I don't follow your reasoning. Wednesday, City Council is going to vote whether to approve or disapprove the action of the Zoning Board.

Michelle Madoff:

And you don't think the people from Market Square should be here to hear that?

The Chair:

You say we have to change the law to stop that if we want to stop the arcade from coming in.

Michelle Madoff:

That's right. And we can't stop it. We cannot stop it.

The Chair:

If we get five votes against it Wednesday, then it's stopped.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm glad you raised that. What Mr. Mistick tells me is that in previous hearings where they have ruled against an arcade or a facility of that nature, an inappropriate facility, when it's been appealed they've lost one hundred percent of the time. And the reason they're going for it is that that gives them control over the hours. Instead of being open 24 hours, they will be limited in the hours of operation. But so what? PPG doesn't care if they're open 24 hours. But I think you and I should care whether we have an inappropriate arcade going into the Market Square area.

We could vote, perhaps, against permitting them to have the outside remodeled to meet the historic designation, and I don't know whether, then, Mr. Lehman would come up with $160 thousand from his own pocket. My own feeling would be if we vote against it, it would be a bottle-neck and we ought to at least throw that bottle-neck in.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order. Mrs. Madoff, with all due respect to you, I think that you're definitely out of order discussing this matter, a matter that is before Committee, when we have a process in which that should be discussed. To discuss it here on Monday, it's completely out of order to do that. I think not only is it a violation of the rules, I think it's totally disrespectful of this Council and totally disrespectful of the process. If we're going to discuss our bills on Monday that are in Committee, we have no need for the Wednesday session.

Michelle Madoff:

I sometimes wonder if we have a need for Council since everything is done under the Mayor's Office anyway.

The Chair:

In all fairness, Michelle, I said earlier that your remarks were going to out of order because we are going to vote Wednesday and it's really moot what you're saying now because --

Michelle Madoff:

May I just respond to Mr. Robinson. It was not my intention to be out of order or to pre-empt anyone. What I wanted to do was to make sure that the people who are most affected will not find out about it on Wednesday in the newspapers that there was a hearing. I want them to know to be here Wednesday. And I want Mr. Perry to let them know that.

The Chair:

There is no hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

We're going to be discussing it, are we not. Do you think they ought to be here to hear our discussion?

Mr. Robinson:

That's their right to be here. It's public information.

Michelle Madoff:

Right. How do they know it's going to be discussed?

Mr. Robinson:

The same way anyone else is informed of what goes on here.

Michelle Madoff:

Right. They're not informed. You're absolutely right. They're not informed. They don't know.

Mr. Robinson:

Sure they're informed. Mrs. Madoff, you're out of order as far as that's concerned.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I'm not. I'm sorry.

The Chair:

Alright, let's close off the discussion on the arcade.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I would want to schedule a post agenda for this coming Wednesday in regard to construction on the Seldom Seen site. I would request that the Director of City Planning attend the post agenda.

I believe it was last Wednesday there was a meeting held in the Brookline area and it's my understand there's approximately two hundred in attendance and there seemed to be a great uproar in regard to construction that has started at the Seldom Seen site because there were a few residents of the immediate area that said that the constant flow of traffic was infringing upon the safety area around the Tropical Street area. It seems to me that they had quite a few questions that are of great interest to the immediate community and also as my colleagues may be aware, it was promised to this Council that before any construction was to start, that the Ram Contractors would receive approval from the State Department of Environmental Resources.

So, I have quite a few questions in regard to what is happening at Seldom Seen and I'm sure that the Director of Planning should be able to answer them.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might. Mr. Flaherty, I think one of the things we might also want to do is to forward another copy of the appropriate communication from this body to the Director of Planning, because certainly the comments you made about us being informed are well taken. I did indicate at the time that I asked to have that bill approved, that it would be approved with the understanding that the Department of Environmental Resources have no problems with Seldom Seen Associates moving forward. If they are moving forward and they have not received any kind of clearance from DER, then I think there's some serious questions we need to raise with our Planning Department, etc., and also we need to find out why this Council was not informed that DER had given the go ahead.

Mr. Flaherty:

I agree. And I just want to add one other important aspect. Apparently, there was no one in the area that was informed of the impending development of the Seldom Seen site. I imagine there were some people informed, but as I said earlier, the construction, from my understanding of the meeting, seemed to take quite a few of the residents in a surprise and there's great uproar and there is a lot of confusion as to what was going on.

Mike, if you could also ask the Director of Planning if he has had any communication with the immediate residents of the Seldom Seen site area.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, was there ever a hearing? I was out ill at the time when we voted. I came in and did not know that we had voted on Seldom Seen, as you recall, and you informed me that we had already voted on it, because I had repeatedly, on Mondays, when I may have been out of order, I say that with a smile, had mentioned that my office has been swamped with correspondence because I'm known as having an environmental interest opposing the Seldom Seen site being used for what it is going to be used for. I understood there would be a public hearing before we voted on it.

Mr. Robinson:

There was a public hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

That's what I want to know. Was there a public hearing? I don't know. That's my question.

The Chair:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Now, in the same light, --

The Chair:

In all fairness, there was only one or two people that showed up.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay. And why did they not show up?

Mr. Flaherty:

I don't know that. I was not at the meeting --

Michelle Madoff:

That's not what I said. You said a lot of people seemed to be taken by surprise.

Mr. Flaherty:

From the report that I received from the meeting, there were two hundred in attendance and there seemed to be a lot of anxiety.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay. And my point being that I don't want a lot of anxiety from the people in Market Square thinking that we're going to, not only allow this arcade in because we don't have any alternative, but we're going to have others. My only point was, let's let them know to come and listen on Wednesday.

Mr. Robinson moved to excuse Mr. Givens for absence from the meeting.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Woods moved to approve the minutes from Monday, October 4, 1982.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Robinson

Council adjourned.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

For our first order of business, let's take these two resolutions and then the rest of the bills.

Michelle Madoff presents

Bill No. 1840 WHEREAS, herpes virus infections, particularly genital herpes, are receiving extensive nationwide publicity; and

WHEREAS, both persons with genital herpes and people who may be at risk need to understand the implications of this problem; and

WHEREAS, the population of Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania needs to be better informed so as not to perpetuate misinformation; and

WHEREAS, investigators at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine and the Graduate School of Public Health are actively engaged in research in this area (Oral herpes since 1976, genital herpes since 1980).

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh declare October 17-23 "Herpes Awareness Week" in Pittsburgh and encourage co-operation between government, the news media, medical scientist, and the Citizens of Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania so that all the people may acquire an indepth, working knowledge of herpes virus infections based on information, understanding and insight.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, we have with us today, Dr. George Pazin, the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine and from the Graduate School of Public Health, and I think we ought to hear from him.

You know, when I told some of the reporters that I was going to introduce Herpes Awareness Week, there were all kinds of jokes going around -- The way to cure herpes is to take two Extra Strength Tylenol. I had to reassure everybody that I'd be happy to present my doctor's letter that I personally do not have herpes because I seem to be the subject of these kind of jokes by the media. But, I think the reason you ought to know why I brought this to the attention of Council in conjunction with Dr. Pazin is that when we find new born children dying, having been given birth to by women who, either knowingly or unknowingly, have the herpes virus, then we're talking about something that is even beyond an awareness and responsibility of the individual, and I think we ought to, at this time, hear from Dr. Pazin if he would please take the mike.

Dr. Pazin:

On behalf of my colleagues at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine and Graduate School of Public Health and myself as well, I want to express our appreciation for this resolution. I think that there's a great deal of adverse publicity regarding genital herpes in the newspapers, magazines, on television, and we're trying to rectify some of this to provide some understanding that is not usually given in these rapid presentations. Over the course of the next week and beyond, we plan to address this topic in a number of different fashions in order to try to improve the awareness of herpes virus infections.

We have two particular goals at the moment. One is to help through understanding so that patients who have genital herpes will not be considered someone who one has to be afraid of necessarily. We want to make the public aware that transmission of this virus through inanimate objects is a very rare occurrence and essentially doesn't happen for all practical purposes.

The second thing we want to make the public aware of is that in Pittsburgh we have a very active research program going on in genital herpes and that if they would call us at the Graduate School of Public Health at the first sign of this illness, we may be able to enroll them in one of our projects and help them, counsel them, give them insight into this illness.

Again, let me express my appreciation and hopefully, through this resolution and through the talks that we'll be giving on the radio and at the University, both in the Medical School and in the Undergraduate School, we'll be able to improve the understanding and awareness of this problem.

Michelle Madoff:

Doctor, would you tell us how rampant is this disease at this point?

Dr. Pazin:

It's estimated from five to twenty million cases may be patients that may have genital herpes in the United States. I think these numbers are, perhaps, gross estimates, and I suspect that they may be a little bit inflated.

Most people refer to the twenty million. But clearly, anytime I give a lecture on genital herpes, I'm always surprised by someone who comes up to see me a couple days later who wants to discuss this problem. So, there are plenty of patients in the Pittsburgh area, I would think probably there's several thousands in Pittsburgh that have genital herpes. I'm aware of at least several hundred of these patients.

Michelle Madoff:

I've heard that fifty percent of the population has it. That is not true then?

Dr. Pazin:

I think that is not true regarding genital herpes. One of the major problems is that people do not distinguish between oral herpes and genital herpes.

Michelle Madoff:

That's Herpes Simplex?

Dr. Pazin:

Well they're both caused by Herpes Simplex virus. Oral Herpes Simplex virus is a relatively common infection, perhaps twenty five percent of young adults have it, fifty to seventy five percent of older adults of oral Herpes Simplex virus infections. However, the number of patients who have genital herpes is considerable smaller and we really don't know precisely. One of the projects that we're looking forward to trying to do is a survey in the Pittsburgh and Allegheny County area to determine through a random survey what is the prevalence of genital herpes in this community.

I think information, accurate information like this, is very much in need because we tend to banter around these numbers that are very difficult to deal with.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you have people helping you with this project this week? You won't be one person out there fighting it yourself or getting the message out alone?

Dr. Pazin:

Well, most of the sessions for this week I'm going to be carrying out. My colleagues, Dr. Ho, is the chief of our group and he's involved more in the administrative aspect of the study and he combines the biologist and immunologist and clinician standpoint. Dr. Hagger, my obstetrical colleague, who deals with pregnant women who have genital herpes, happens to be at a convention in Las Vegas this week. My two virologists colleagues, Dr. Armstrong and Dr. Breinig, their time is basically consumed by the biology laboratory activities. So, most of the PR is under my guidance.

Michelle Madoff:

I thank you very much for being concerned and taking the time. I think you do outstanding work.

Dr. :

Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Thank you, Doctor.

Mr. O'Malley presents

Bill No. 1841 WHEREAS, the Pennsylvania Lupus Foundation, Incorporated has a long distinguished record of public service since being chartered in October of 1973; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of the Foundation is to promote and encourage research, enlighten the general public, to render voluntary aid and assistance for research relative to lupus erythematosus; and

WHEREAS, more than five thousand persons have been serviced by the Foundation; and

WHEREAS, thousands of women across this great nation are the major victims of this devastating, chronic disease that attacks the connective tissues and the body's immunity system.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh, do recognize the week of October 17 through October 24, 1982 as Lupus Awareness Week throughout the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. O'Malley:

Mr. Chairman, at this time I'd like to have Dan Pietragallo come up to say a few words. Mr. Pietragallo is the co-chairman of the Lupus Awareness Week in Allegheny County.

Mr. Pietragallo:

Mr. President and Members of Council, I wish to personally thank you and on behalf of the Lupus Foundation of America, the Western Pennsylvania

Chapter, let me extend to you their greetings and also their gratitude for this proclamation.

Often times you find organizations seeking funding. Well, I'm sure that the Lupus Foundation is also seeking funding, but one of their driving forces is really to bring about the awareness of this dreaded disease. In the period of time that I have personally been involved, I have found a great deal of improvement and we have found some insights into this disease. For example, many years ago, a member of my family was inflicted with it, nineteen to be exact, and it was quite a tragic thing, quite a trauma, and generally associated with death. But over the years, we have found that the awareness and some of the preventions and some of the necessary precautions that doctors have prescribed have helped immensely for people, predominantly women. That is no longer true. Men are being afflicted also by this disease. It was an unknown disease, a rare disease, and now it just comes into something that is not as common as some of the other diseases.

So, I want to thank you very kindly for making this Awareness Week. That's what we need. Members of Council, I thank you personally for the help that you've given me in my drives for these contributions. Thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you very much, Mr. Pietragallo. Congratulations.

Mr. Flaherty presented

An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title IV, - Public Places and Property, Article VII, City Realty, Chapter 453, Urban Homesteading, Sections 453.02, Definitions, 453.03, Homesteading

Program Inventory, and 453.05, Transfer of Title, by defining abandoned property, by setting forth new procedures relative to the acquisition of property, and by requiring the City to set aside Home Improvement Loan Funds for use in the Homesteading Program.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, as I'm sure my colleagues recall, a week ago I decided to hold off on having a vote from Council as to if the re-introduction of these amendments was in order until I had the opportunity to review the opinion from the Solicitor's Office. In the meeting a week ago, we received an oral opinion. I'm sure that we have all received a written opinion from the Solicitor's Office. I have certain criticisms of it. I feel that it is askew and I have certain questions to ask of the representative from the Solicitor's Office in regard to the opinion.

Michelle Madoff:

Could you give me clarifications? Are you saying we shouldn't vote on it today?

Mr. Flaherty:

No. I hope to vote on it today and have it out of the way. I don't agree with the opinion from the Solicitor's Office unless he, perhaps, can clarify some of my criticisms.

The Chair:

Mr. Flaherty, you're specifically referring to the non-debatable portion of it?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes. I'll go through the opinion real quick. It just says, "You have inquired as to whether an appeal of the presiding officer's ruling that under Council's rules, a bill may not be introduced is debatable." Robert's Rules of Order, Section 24, provides an appeal, is debatable unless it, a) relates to indecorum or transgression of the rules of speaking, or b) relates to the priority of business, or c) is made while the immediately pending question is undebatable.

The Solicitor seems to hang his opinion that it is undebatable on C. I repeat, "is made while the immediately pending question is undebatable". I maintain that there was no immediately pending question, that there was no point of order, and there was no reaction from Council as far as a roll call vote on any point of order because I withdrew introducing the bill and there never was a point of order. Now, unless I'm confused on the matter, I maintain that there was no point of order question, ergo, there was no pending question. I was wondering if the Solicitor's Office could tell me what the pending question is that he refers to.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, point of order, if I may. If the bill is not introduced or it's not going to be introduced, there's no subject upon which we can talk about. If you're going to put the bill in, the bill is non-debatable and that's it.

Mr. Flaherty:

No it isn't it.

Mr. Stone:

You can't argue about what you're not going to introduce. If you're going to introduce it, then put it in.

The Chair:

I agree with you, Mr. Stone, with the exception that he has the right to ask for the opinion from the Solicitor.

Mr. Flaherty:

I want clarification on this opinion, Mr. Stone.

Mr. Stone:

Yes, but on what bill are you asking the question? If you're not introducing the bill, it's not a subject on the schedule at this time.

Mr. Flaherty:

The bill was just read.

Mr. Stone:

Is it going to be introduced or not? It needs, at this point, a non-debatable vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

That's your opinion. That's not my opinion.

Mr. Stone:

That's what the City Solicitor is trying to tell you.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, the City Solicitor isn't the highest court in the land and I'm asking for clarification on this vote.

Mr. Stone:

Well, when you get a decision from the United States Supreme Court, bring it down here.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm just asking for clarification and you're trying to stifle my right to ask for clarification.

The Chair:

Mr. St. Johns, give us the clarification and we'll go on with our regular order of business.

Parliamentarian:

As secondary motion was placed before the assembly at the time that a point of order was raised by Mr. Robinson objecting to the introduction of the legislation as being in violation of the rules of Council. The Chair rules that the point of order was well taken and that it would be in violation of Council to introduce this legislation.

Let me categorize this. The point of order is an incidental motion. It is one of a secondary motion and according to Robert's, a secondary motion placed before the assembly becomes an immediately pending question.

The fact that the Chair did not refer the point of whether or not to introduce the rule by itself, in other words, did not get a vote of the assembly on the point, but it exercised prerogative and rule, it became non-debatable. Had he asked the assembly to vote on that point, that would have become a debatable motion and hence, this particular situation would not have arisen. But it was not referred. He ruled, it became an immediately pending question, and an appeal is not debatable. It may draw the immediately pending question as undebatable.

Mr. Flaherty:

Then what you're saying is the appeal and the point of order are synonymous. That they are the same question. I'm maintaining there was no point of order. There was not a vote in this Council on a point of order. The only ruling we had was the Chair's ruling on whether or not this could be introduced. I am appealing the Chair's ruling. If you're logic were to hold true, you could never debate an appeal of the Chair. Robert's Rules specifies that there are times, the majority of times, you can debate the appeal of the Chair.

Parliamentarian:

The three that are listed in the Solicitor's opinion are situations where you cannot. But there are fields that are debatable, sir.

Mr. Flaherty:

What I am saying is that there was no pending question that was voted on in this Council.

Parliamentarian:

The only appeal we could have had was the Chairman's ruling that the introduction was out of order reacting to a question from the floor on a point.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask a question? Mr. President, I'd like to address this to Mr. Robinson in particular. I am very confused and I would like some clarification. Somebody introduces a bill, I don't care what the bill is, whether it's on paramedic service or any other issue before Council. We get the bill through, like we have one now on arcades and I'm amending it. I got Danny Pellegrini to draw up an amendment to that bill so we won't have any other arcades going into the PPG, Market Square, Renaissance II area —

The Chair:

Michelle, please.

Michelle Madoff:

Just one moment. I'm just giving you an example.

What I'm saying is that I've amended the bill. Why can't Councilman Flaherty amend an existing bill? I don't understand that. Isn't that the issue? You want to amend an existing bill.

Mr. Flaherty:

It's more specific than that now, Michelle. We're splitting hairs on this.

The Chair:

He wants to change it, not amend it.

Michelle Madoff:

What I'm saying is that I think I hear Councilman Flaherty saying that procedure wasn't followed and he's trying to establish procedures that are within Robert's Rules and a format to follow by Council that we don't change when it suits our convenience. I understand that, but I think that's a battle that's lost because we're outnumbered.

So, what I'm saying now is, as an alternative, can't any member of Council amend any existing bill? Mr. Robinson, would you answer that for me? Particularly on the Homesteading bill.

Mr. Robinson:

I believe that's a question that should be addressed to the Chair.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, isn't it a matter of Robert's Rules or a matter of the way we operate in Council or any government body that you can amend any bill that's before Council?

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson had a bill prepared that he was told was illegal by the Law Department Solicitor and he more or less watered down that bill and it's still, I thought, a workable bill but at the same time it's not the bill he wanted to put through before and he abided by the decision of the Solicitor. Mr. Flaherty now wants to change that bill.

Michelle Madoff:

It's his prerogative. If he wants to amend the bill, we vote it up or down.

The Chair:

We're telling Mr. Flaherty we introduced it and have a vote here in Council.

Michelle Madoff:

But why all the hassle? Tom, would you explain why the hassle? I realize that you're trying to say we should have some existing rules and I'm with you on that.

Mr. Flaherty:

Michelle, you have been here for the past three weeks —

Michelle Madoff:

Oh, I know what goes on. But I'm saying, confronted with this stonewalling, what will you do in its place?

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm going to get to that eventually. Hopefully, we will have this whole thing resolved in two minutes.

Michelle Madoff:

That was not an idle choice of words incidentally. Stonewalling.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have one more question, Vince. A point of order is non-debatable, right? Okay. Can anyone appeal a point of order to the Chair?

Parliamentarian:

You can appeal it to put it to a vote. Certainly.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay, then can Council appeal that ruling of the Chair? I mean, where does it end?

Parliamentarian:

If the Chair rules and an appeal is made, Council overrules the Chair.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm of the firm belief that there was not a pending question. A point of order and an appeal to the Chair are two alternatives. I could have asked for a point of order and asked this Council to vote as to whether or not I could introduce this bill, which I did not do, or I could have the choice to appeal to the Chair, which I did do. Appeal to the Chair was my only action, my primary action, and therefore there was not an immediately pending question prior to that. If there is not an immediately pending question prior to the Chair's ruling on an appeal, I say that we can debate an appeal to the Chair. We can debate the ruling. For the sake of brevity, I'm going to move that Council overrule the Solicitor's opinion. Is that the proper motion?

The Chair:

Overrule the Chair.

Michelle Madoff:

You need five votes. You need a second and five votes.

The Chair:

You're overruling my decision, not the Solicitor's.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, well I have problems with this opinion, too. This is getting compounded. We're on the opinion from last week and we're on this opinion too.

The Chair:

Let's do first things first. You want to make a motion to overrule my opinion?

Mr. Flaherty:

I think it would be in order, first of all, to take the second opinion because then that will decide if we are going to debate or not on the first opinion. It seems to me that the proper order would be — Mr. President, are you going to rule on the second opinion?

The Chair:

I rule the second opinion is non-debatable. First I ruled you out of order.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. I move, then, to appeal your ruling.

Michelle Madoff:

The reason I will not second it is because you will not get five votes from this Council. But I'll second for discussion.

Mr. Flaherty moved to appeal the Chair's ruling.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

The purpose of what Mr. Flaherty wants, to open discussion on this particular issue —

Mr. Stone:

The issue is non-debatable. Yes or no. That's all.

Mr. Flaherty:

But a member can explain their vote.

Mr. Stone:

You can't explain your vote on this issue. That's what he's trying to tell you.

Mr. Flaherty:

I thought a member could always explain their vote.

Mr. Stone:

To override the Chair it's non-debatable. It's a yes or no vote. That's it.

The Chair:

I thought we were voting on whether to overrule me or not. We're getting into something else. Call the question.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Mr. Givens
Michelle Madoff

AYES 3 NOES 6

VOTING NO:

Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Stone
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. Woods
Mr. Robinson	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Flaherty:

Now I move to override the Chair's ruling of a week ago which says that we cannot debate the issue of my re-introducing the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

For the point of discussion I'll second it.

Mr. Flaherty moved to override the Chair's ruling.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mr. Flaherty
Mr. Givens
Michelle Madoff

Which motion prevailed.

No. 1814 An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, Zoning, Chapter 909, Section 909.06(b) Special Exceptions in use which may be authorized by the Zoning Board of Adjustment, by providing additional restrictive provisions under Exception No. 19, amusement arcade, athletic club or social club in C3, C4 and C5 Districts.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development.

Michelle Madoff moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to state my reasons for expediting this. I understand we have very little control over the existing arcade going into the Renaissance II area and I want to make sure that somebody else doesn't stampede and get in there with this particular arcade. So, I want that moved as quickly as possible.

Also,

No. 1815 Resolution authorizing and directing the Director of the Department of Public Works to provide for the televising of the Regular Meetings and the Standing Committee Meetings of Pittsburgh City Council.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Michelle Madoff moved to withdraw Bill No. 1815.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I wish to withdraw my resolution that was put in amending the coverage of cable because my first one was done as a motion from the floor and I plan to do that again today. May I have it back, please? That is the proper format. I just discussed it with Sophie Masloff.

Mrs. Johnson:

It's being retyped.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine. But I would like to withdraw it and let's do it the way we did it initially so that we don't have the big hassle.

Michelle Madoff moved to withdraw her motion.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Perry:

The bill was introduced and received and numbered.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm taking it back. It should not have been done that way. It should have been done as a resolution after Council. I want it as a resolution and it was put in as a bill. I don't know how that happened. It was an oversight. There was an error made, it's nobody's fault. We're just taking it back and doing it as a resolution.

The Chair:

Okay.

Michelle Madoff:

On the issue of the cable, Brother Richard informs me that before he could even give us a report, he needed a request. And I would respectfully ask that Sophie Masloff, Mr. Stone and anyone they think is appropriate, perhaps the President of Council, might determine --

Mr. Givens:

What about the Chairman of the Department?

Michelle Madoff:

Well, you're Chairman of the Department but Sophie Masloff is head of the Cable Committee and I'm addressing her because she is the Chairwoman of the Cable Committee. That is her title. She's in charge.

Mr. Givens:

The place for money and appropriations for the Bureau of Cable Communications comes under the Department of Public Works which I am the Chairman of.

Michelle Madoff:

There's nothing to stop Sophie from inviting you to sit in on that Committee. And I know that she will always do the honorable thing.

Now, the subject before us is a matter of clarification. The media said this week that Madoff had a change of heart or is re-thinking her issue on having the budget hearings televised gavel to gavel. What I had really said, if you read the story, was the I am concerned that if we go through the usual boring, every day, nitty-gritty things that one has to go through in the budget hearings, the first exposure of the public to Council meetings on the budget hearings will be so boring that no one will ever tune in for the main event. I would like to suggest that Sophie, as head of the Cable Committee, and Mr. Stone, head of the Finance Committee, determine what meetings of the Finance Committee are the most pertinent that people would like to tune in to. I would assume they would be some of the public hearings and some where we make the actual decisions, but not the boring routine of going through line items which are going to turn people off.

Since Brother Richard informs me that, I don't even know if we need to hear from him when he gives his report on Wednesday on the --

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, point of order. We're introducing bill now. This is not the time to debate them. They'll come up in Committee and we'll have time to do that.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, you're out of order because I'm making a valid point. The valid point is that on Wednesday --

The Chair:

Michelle, in effect --

Michelle Madoff:

Let me finish my question then rule me out of order, okay? I'm trying to make a point. The point is that Brother --

Mr. Stone:

These bills are only to be introduced at this moment without debate.

Mr. O'Malley:

The Parliamentarian says there's no discussion on bills being introduced.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I can always do it after the meeting when we have open time to have discussions of things.

Mr. Stone:

After we adjourn this meeting you can do all the talking you want.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, based on how many public meetings you attend I would assume you wouldn't be here to hear it so that really is no problem. The point is that Brother Richard is going to give us a report --

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, there's been a point of order called.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine. I have been stonewalled again and silenced. I understand, Mr. Flaherty. I know where you're coming from. I will accept the ruling of my colleagues.

Also,

No. 1816 Communication from Richard M. Cosentino, Director, Department of Water, requesting interim approval for payment for gravel at cost not to exceed $283.55, payable from Code Account 1714, Materials.

Mr. O'Malley presented

Box 1167, Harrisburg, PA 17108, for a refund of monies not expended from the Emergency Street Phone Network Project Trust Fund (ESPNNP) in the amount of $38,982.00.

Also,

No. 1818 Resolution transferring the sum of $405,000.00 from C.A. No. 1461, Salaries-Wages/Regular and Temporary Employees, to C.A. No. 1461-1, Premium Pay, $335,000.00 and C.A. No. 1461-2, In-Grade Pay, $70,000.00 within the Department of Fire.

Also,

$22,000.00 from Code Account No. 1457, Purchase of Uniforms and Equipment, to Code Account No. 1443-6, In-Grade Pay, Department of Police.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Robinson presented

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development.

Mr. Robinson moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

No. 1821 An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Six - Conduct, Article III, Dogs and Other Animals, Chapter 633, Dogs, by providing for the regulation of breeders, maintaining kennel standards, revising licensing requirements and procedures, and prohibiting the use of dogs for the purpose of medical research.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Mr. Robinson moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

The two bills I introduced, neither of which address the concern that you just had. I think on Wednesday, if you take the time to read the bill between now and then, you'll see that it is providing for just the opposite of what you suggested. It's trying to prohibit any dog in the City of Pittsburgh being turned over to any individual or any institution for medical research.

Michelle Madoff:

What I'm saying is that I prefer to have medical research done on dogs than on people. I don't think that's contradictory, is it Mr. Robinson?

Also,

No. 1822 An Ordinance adding Title One - Administrative, Article IX - Organization, Chapter 177, Economic Development Commission.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development.

Mr. Stone presented

No. 1823 Resolution providing for the issuance of warrants in the aggregate amount of $2,692.97 to be distributed in the following manner: James Greenlee, $1,838.69; City Treasurer for transfer of funds to City of Pittsburgh employees Social Security Contribution Account, 169.10, in full settlement of grievance arbitration action and providing for the payment thereof.

Also,

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Chair presented

No. 1828 Petition from concerned citizens requesting a public hearing on unfair practices at Warner Cable Corporation.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Also,

No. 1829 Petition requesting a public hearing before City Council on the City's policy on maintaining a central relocation agency.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development.

Mr. Givens:

On that petition, you will be setting a public hearing on that and I would hope that you would try to have that hearing as soon as possible. We have X amount of people that are sitting out there today. It's required by law that the City have such a joint relocation agency and I would hope that you have this hearing as soon as possible.

The Chair:

We'll do it as fast as we can. We have to advertise it and in a very short period of time we'll do it.

Mr. Givens:

I suggest you use whatever emergency powers you have to have this hearing as soon as possible, hopefully this week.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. President, the Housing Authority did not do away with the relocation agency. They just cut the staff.

Mr. Givens:

There's supposed to be a central location for it, too, and they're dividing that responsibility up between --

Mr. Woods:

I'm just saying that they didn't do away with it. They cut the staff and there still is a central location.

The Chair:

There's a petition so there's no need for discussion. We'll have the hearing as soon as possible.

Also,

No. 1830 Communication from Richard S. Caliguiri, Mayor, advising Council of the appointment of Frank Brooks Robinson of 1414 Bennington Avenue as the joint City-County appointee to the Public Auditorium Authority Board.

Which was read, received and filed.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I believe I was detained in traffic at the Wednesday meeting when Bill No. 1721 came up. Could somebody please tell me if that is trust fund money?

The Chair:

Sophie, the money for the wooly monkeys, does that come out of the trust fund?

Mrs. Masloff:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay. I was not here. I will vote no for the purpose of making a protest that two-thirds of the City residents use the Zoo and the City taxpayers pick up the deficit. I also have in my possession from, I believe it is Louise Brown, a breakdown of the dollars that come out of the Capital Budget that come out of the taxpayers hide in the City of Pittsburgh which is well over $2 million and we know that that $2 million is repaid. When we borrow $70 million on a bond we repay it at $207 million. So that's not just $2 million, it's a great deal more. And the subsidies are far greater than just what we see out of the operating budget. I vote no as a protest vote.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

On Council Bill 1637, I'd like to have my comments brought forward from last Wednesday and also have a copy of the letter forwarded to us from the Zoning Board by Mr. Mistick included in the record.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1637 - WEDNESDAY, 10/13/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, last week I asked to have this bill held and to forward to us from the Zoning Board of Adjustment a copy of a petition that was submitted to Council opposing the application. I indicated, at that time, the Zoning Board was going to be taking some action and I thought it would be appropriate for us to give them an opportunity, a) to look at the petition and b) to see what their feeling is in this matter. As Council is aware, the issue of arcades, adult theaters, etc., has been troublesome to the Board and I think they've done a fine job in trying to resolve it.

As Council is aware, on October 7, 1982, an opinion or decision by the Board was forwarded to our City Clerk and I believe every member of Council received that. It specifically addresses the application and zoning issues and I just want to indicate that the Zoning Board of Adjustment approved the application with conditions. We have a copy of that information by our Historical Review Commission which is Bill No. 1637, which only deals with the appropriateness of fixing the outside. I say that so that, regardless of what is discussed here, the record reflects that there are two separate issues. The Zoning Board addressed the application issue and we are being asked to address the issue of making sure that whatever goes in that building meets historical standards for that area. Having said that, I would like to move that we approve Bill No. 1637.

SPECIAL EXCEPTION REQUESTED -
Under Section 909.06, so as to permit occupancy of the structure as stated above.

Appellant was advised that certain requirements of the building code must be met before an occupancy permit can be issued.

FINDINGS OF FACT. The property in question, formerly the Rhea's Bakery building, is in a C5-A zone in the Downtown area of the City. The Appellant currently operates five (5) amusement arcades at the World's Fair.
The Fair closes in October and the Appellant wants to move many of the machines from the World's Fair operation to this City location. Among the games that are being proposed at this location is a robot game which is currently at the World's Fair. The Appellant supplies photographs and an explanation of the robot game which is unique. The rest of the uses would be more traditional video game machines. There would be two entrances for the arcade, one each on the two abutting streets. It would be called the World's Fair Arcade.
Souvenirs would also be sold at this location. The Appellant proposes to restore the features of the building. The Appellant testified that he has filed with the Historic Review Commission to get permission to rehabilitate the facade of the structure. This structure is within a Historic Review area. The Board takes note of the fact that the facade of the structure is not within the Board's jurisdiction but is instead within the jurisdiction of the Historic Review Commission. The upper floors of the structure would be used for a robot repair facility and general office space.
The Appellant testified that there is no age limit for admission to the facility.

A number of business persons and their representatives appeared in opposition to the proposed use. Several witnesses opposed the establishment of this facility in a renewal area. Other concerns that were voiced at the hearing dealt with density and noise that would be generated by this facility. Others were opposed to this facility based on their belief that this facility would attract large numbers of young people. These witnesses felt that large numbers of young people would not be a desirable element in Market Square area.

With special exceptions, the Appellant must demonstrate that he meets the objective criteria of the Code. In this case, the Appellant has demonstrated that he is in compliance with the objective requirements. The two requirements within the amusement arcade ordinance that are usually most difficult to meet are the parking requirement and the spacing requirement. In the case before the Board, the property is in the Downtown area, which is a parking-exempt zone. Additionally, the facility is clearly not within 300 feet of a residential zone. The Appellant has indicated compliance with all the other requirements of the Code; therefore, the burden shifts to the opposition to demonstrate with a great degree of probability that this proposed use would have a detrimental affect on the abutting and adjacent properties and on the community in general. That burden is an extremely difficult one and it is the opinion of the Board that it has not been met by the opposition in this case. The Board, therefore, has determined that this use should be approved with reasonable conditions as permitted by law. Those conditions are as follows:

1. The hours of operation will be from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., Mondays through Sundays.
2. No school-aged children will be permitted within the facility during school hours.

3. All activities must be confined to the interior of the structure.
4. There will be no outdoor loud speakers.
5. There will be no flashing lights or flashing window signs.
6. There will be no alcoholic beverages served or consumed on the premises.
7. There will be a security officer present on the premises at all times.
8. The Appellant must strictly comply with all fire, safety and building codes.

It is the opinion of the Board that this use should be approved with the conditions as stated above.

DECISION - Appeal Granted With the Conditions as Stated Above.

Mr. Robinson:

On Bill No. 1730, I'd like to have my comments from last week included in the record.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSON'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1730 -
WEDNESDAY, 10/13/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, I'd like to move for approval and I would want the Director to come up please.

Paul, when these two bills were first introduced, I raised the question with you as to whether or not the Appalachian Regional Commission for the Brighton Road - Pennsylvania Avenue Project had any requirements or prohibitions to local residents working or benefiting from projects that they sponsored.

Paul Brophy
Director
Urban Redevelopment Authority:

We haven't been able to turn up anything so far that would indicate that there's any prohibition.

Mr. Robinson:

Do you know whether or not there are any kinds of effort at URA to get local residents employment with these various projects that we're applying for UDAG's or whatever the case may be?

Director Brophy:

In some cases we have been able to do that successfully and in other cases we have to follow the strict law in terms of bidding requirements. For example, in the Manchester neighborhood we have been able to get, when we advertise for the laying of bricks or sidewalks over there, we were able to stipulate in our bid documents that contract should hire seven local residents to train these bricklayers and that happened. We try to do that whenever the law allows it.

Mr. Robinson:

Would you see if you could work something out on 1730 and 1731? The reason I raise that is on several occasions, and particularly on the Northside, residents have raised this concern about projects, feeling that perhaps they have not been included, and if we could do something within the law to accommodate them, I think it would make the project go smooth and I think it would be in the best interest of the City. I move for approval.

BILL NO. 1730 - WEDNESDAY,

10/13/82)

Mr. Woods:

I vote aye on all bills including Bill No. 1637 which, in Committee on Wednesday, I voted against. I realized that I don't like the arcade being there, but if it's going to be there, at least the outside of the building will look like the rest of them. That's why I changed my vote.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, as you know, I withdrew my resolution which would have come up Wednesday and my original introduction the cable was as a motion which was ruled by the Parliamentarian to be in order and I will do the same as a motion from the floor.

I would like to have an expansion of the coverage of cable which takes place — This Council has ruled that we would have budget hearings covered gavel to gavel, and it was my recommendation, so that we would have the public aware of how it's money is being spent.

Originally, we were not to start covering Council until after the first of the year. But if we're going to be covering the budget hearings, I see no reason why we cannot be covering the standard meetings, the public hearings, as well as the budget hearings. I haven't talked to Brother Richard. In other words, instead of starting January, we move the whole coverage up to November 8th, which would be the day of the budget hearings. Brother Richard informs me that there may be some problems in covering everything. I think the media will be the first to concur, and I know that Mr. Nilsson and Mr. Carl Morris are not here any longer, but having discussed it with them, they are so boring, they are so dull on most of it, that people walk out. If the initial introduction to the public on our government station is a budget hearing on every single boring line item, comparison of figures with departments and with the Finance Chairman, I think we will absolutely turn off our audience before we ever have a chance to let them get involved and probably the most important media, as far as I'm concerned, interaction and involvement of the public. What is going to happen is the people who have been rude in this Council, the people who have started fights, the people who have been accused of starting fights, the public is going to watch and see who asks questions, who reads bills, who shows up, who comes to meetings and leaves, who cares. They're going to make their own evaluation. In doing that, it is apparent from Brother Richard, who says he has to give us a report and he's already preparing a report for us on just the budget hearings, I'd like him to expand that report to include how and if he can cover our regular meetings starting November 8th so we don't turn off our audience and I would like to ask the Sophie, who is in my estimation and my opinion, a valid one I believe, still the head of Cable Committee to form a committee with the Finance Chairman to determine which of those meetings in budget should be covered and which should not, and to include the major so that we can include the real business of Council including when we take our final votes and how the votes are taken. And I think for once we're going to see, I've already seen changes, ladies and gentlemen of the media. I asked Mr. Stone the other day in the hall whether he was going to change the format. As you may recall, last year I sent a note to every department head saying, "Would you please have your budget people meet with Mr. Buckley, the City Council budget people, and determine what the true figures are so we don't sit here all day and then Mr. Stone says, 'Well, the figures don't jive. Would you please get together and work them out?'" And he said he will take care of that. I think that would make our hearings a little more productive and we would be dealing in the real world and have some of the meaningful figures in advance.

I think just by having some of this on television and how we interact, would be probably the most meaningful, I'm being redundant, but I feel very strongly about it, service to the public and the only way that's going to happen is if we don't turn them off.

So, what I'm asking, as a motion from the floor, is we expand our hearings to those hearings that are practical and informative in the budget hearings to be covered and to use the balance of the time to determine, by Sophie Masloff, so that we can have the regular meetings of Council covered as well. And get a report back from Brother Richard as to which and how we can do it.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, if I might. I thought we had a committee system and I still believe we have a committee system within the Council of the City of Pittsburgh. As Chairman of that particular committee, sub-committee on Cable Bureau, I'd like to be included on any deliberations that might go in on that particular committee and I would like for my colleague to so include me, but the fact that she didn't, I would like for you, then, Mr. President, to do so.

Michelle Madoff:

Sophie said you're included.

Mr. Givens:

We must get together and discuss what we have to do. As the Chairman of this committee, I think of limitations of our funds, limitations of our personnel, the work hours that they're going to have down there. We have limited resources. We have fifteen departments that use this particular channel right now in government. It is a government channel. I don't think it would behoove Council to hog one hundred percent of that particular time. Priorities must be set as to who is going to use this and how it's going to be used.

As far as the motion, I'm sure all of Council will approve it. We also have regular sessions of Council plus we have public hearings. All of these must be considered and I enjoin Michelle and yourself, Mr. President, in selecting this group of Councilpeople to review this and come back with a recommendation to the full Council as to what programs should or should not be covered because of our limitations of time, personnel and resources.

The Chair:

I agree with Michelle that budget hearings can be boring, but I think we ought to leave it to the Cable TV people as to what meetings they want televised and which they don't. It's their prerogative.

Michelle Madoff:

That's exactly what I said, Mr. President. Priorities should be set, but I want to include some of the pertinent Council meetings and exclude some of the boring budget hearings, if indeed we can't do them all.

The Chair:

I think they're cognizant of that fact and that's what they'll do. If they don't that's their problem.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, no. At the moment my existing motion was to cover budget hearings only, gavel to gavel. That passed Council. Now I'm amending it. I'm amending my motion to say that I want priorities of things that are most important to the public.

Michelle Madoff moved to amend the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I'd just like the record to reflect that the Democratic Youth Community of Europe was here in Council and that the countries that were represented were Austria, England and Finland and they were here under the auspices of the U.S. Youth Council and the person coordinating the tour of City Council Chambers and coordinating a review of our activities was Miss Helene Kessler.

Dear Councilman Robinson,

On behalf of the Youth Institute for Peace in the Middle East, which sponsored the U.S. Youth Council tour of the leaders from the Democratic Youth Community of Europe, I would like to thank you for meeting with us in Council Chambers. The explanation of procedures made the meeting understandable and interesting for the delegates and myself.

The delegates were also very flattered to have been recognized by the full Council.

Again, thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Helene Kessler

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think I have a very important item of business I would like to discuss. In reading my Sunday paper, I found out that Mr. Stone was going to introduce a resolution on the problem of our pensions. About a year or so ago I did a guest editorial for the Post Gazette on exactly that issue. I have brought it up repeatedly at budget hearings. I have been made to look like I didn't know what I was talking about, that all these things are problems. I've had the heads of the news media, particularly the printed media, say that every north-eastern city has the same problem of the burden of unfunded pensions. I am happy that we're going to address it.

I am very unhappy that this Council is treated like when they want our opinion they'll give it to us. I repeat, we're treated like mushrooms. We grow in the dark and they feed us horse manure. I don't want to pick up my paper and find out that there's going to be a bill of that magnitude introduced to this Council and the Finance Chairman doesn't brief this body about it in advance. I think that's a disgrace and it looks like the great hero, Mr. Stonewall, is going to do something, finally, about the problems we have facing the City. But when people like Michelle Madoff raised the issue, the kind of comment that is made is, "Poor Michelle, little bit of knowledge does a lot of harm". And then I'm accused of manipulating Wall Street.

I think these problems for any intelligent person are obvious. Something should have been done about them some time ago and the question we are obviously going to address on Wednesday is is that going to mean a raise in taxes? Where is that money going to be found? And I for one, as a member of this Council, and a duly elected member, I may not be again but I am at this point, I had the highest number of votes in the City and I don't want to read about it in the paper before I know what is coming up in this session. And I hope someone else will talk to that.

The Chair:

I want to agree with you in being that on all the pension boards, there's never been a mention at any of the meetings that this was a problem. In fact, whenever I asked how the Fire and Police were funded, and this is going back years, I was always told that there was insurance connected with it and it was a solvent fund. The City obviously has funded the last seven years and they're well on their way to solving that -- well, we have something like, I think, a $300 million deficit that over a period of forty or fifty years we'll wipe it out. We're well on our way, but the Police and Fire were supposed to be solvent and now we find out they're not.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, we're going to discuss this on Wednesday, but the thing that I'm distress about is that you are still the President of this Council. You and I have had our run-ins and our disagreements and I've always maintained that on a personal level we respect each other. I think a lot of the problems caused in this Council have been a third party stirring the pot. That third party has taken upon himself to go to the media, give out this big story. I don't know how it hit from the Administration or from Mr. Stone, and I resent, more than myself not knowing about it, that you are still the President of Council. When I disagree with the Mayor I may speak out, but when the Mayor walks in this room I stand up and applaud him because I respect his office. And I respect your office as President of this Council. We should not be reading about it in the media. You should have been briefed. You should have been knowledgeable. And you should have briefed this Council and I think had you been aware, you would have. And I think Mr. Stone is obviously running for Controller.

Mr. Flaherty:

Speaking of the Controller, Mr. President, I requested either John McGrady or Ray Johnson that either or them, preferably the one that is prepared to answer questions in regard to the controversy over the computer, that we, the City, paid a hefty sum for and has not operated now for close to two years, I asked that someone from the Controller's office, preferable either of those two individuals, come in front of Council for a post agenda to answer questions on Wednesday.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, very important. Mr. Woods is not here and I'm very sorry that he is not, because you know I had requested, and it failed Council with the vote on only two people supporting it, myself and Councilman Flaherty, that this Council is a legislative body as the Administration is the administrative body. In Harrisburg, the legislative body, as in Washington, has its own advisors on fiscal matters.

Mr. Buckley is overwhelmed and does an outstanding job. However, in a matter of this magnitude, when we look at bond ratings, when we look at fiscal issues on pensions, I would like this Council to hire its own advisors so we have some input that might be more — I don't think I know everything. I don't think the Administration knows everything. I don't think their advisors know everything. But I would like this Council to go to either Parker-Hunter or somebody that this Council can agree on. We need five votes for that because Mr. Stone changed the rules. You no longer have that authority to say yes, I can go out and hire somebody. We now need five votes of this Council in order to go out and hire someone.

I'm afraid to make the motion now because it could get defeated. We have five people here, but if I had an indication that you'd support it, everybody, I would suggest that we get an advisor to the five of our, at any event, for input that we can sit down and review some of the issues that are going to come before us to vote intelligently, and not just rely on the over-burdened Budget Office that deals in the nitty-gritty and on the Administrative Office.

May I caucus and find out if I have the votes before I have the motion?

Mr. Givens:

Each Councilperson, through the appropriation that we have put into the budget has X amount of dollars.

Michelle Madoff:

No. They ruled against that.

Mr. Givens:

Oh yes there is. For legal and for advice --

Michelle Madoff:

No. You may not have been here that day. Mr. Stone changed the rules. He said you can't do it without five votes anymore.

Mr. Givens:

The President of Council is the only one that I knew that you had to go through. When the pot got down to the bottom then the Chief Clerk so advised the President and there would be no more legal advice or consultants. But each one of us have a proportion of that and until that proportion runs out, you can use it in whatever way you see fit as long as the bills are presented to this Council and the people have, in fact, done the work that you want.

Michelle Madoff:

I agree with you. But Mr. Stone changed it when you weren't here and said that no longer can a member of Council hire anybody without five votes, and it passed this Council.

So, I would like to make it as a motion that we can have our own fiscal advisor, that we all agree on, look at the fiscal situation of this financial matter so that the President of our Council can be informed by his own source, not by the Administrative source.

Mr. Givens:

Could I inject here? Mike, how much is in that appropriation? Can you recall?

Mr. Perry:

You appropriated five thousand dollars.

Mr. Givens:

And about how much of that has been expended so far this year?

Mr. Perry:

About seven hundred dollars.

Mr. Givens:

The way that fund was originally set up with the Council was that each Councilperson would, if they so desired, especially when we were getting briefs back from the Legal Department that this Council as a body didn't even agree with, so we went forward and set up this fund so we could go out and seek our own legal advice with the permission of the President. That's an unwritten one and if Mr. Stone so voted it, I would hope that we'd come back to this Council and -- If that's the case then I would suggest that this Council, on everything that we do, we must then have five votes for all of our expenditures of funds and our researchers and everything else. Where do you draw a line on that? One person could not use all five thousand dollars or greater than their proportion of the share.

Michelle Madoff:

Let's vote on it now then we can look into it.

Mr. Givens:

Michelle, the rules were set up before you came on Council. The rules would be that as long as you wanted, up to your appropriation of that money, that you and the President would decide and we had recommended certain people before the Council because if a legal opinion is coming that will affect the total Council, only the President would have to know about it. Once you expended more than your allotted share of that five thousand dollars —

Mr. Perry:

Excuse me. There was no X amount of money appropriated to each member of Council.

Mr. Givens:

It was understood, Mike, when we set up that particular fund that it would be pro rata out. Once you went beyond your pro rata share, then it would take the vote of five members of Council or the whole body of Council with five votes would have passed it. If you wanted to go over and above what was your share of that particular amount of money. Otherwise one person could not go out and spend it all without having five votes. It was a worthy cause and we felt it was a worthy cause.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Givens, until we can change it back, and I think your point is very well taken, would you support my motion that we have input as to who you want?

Mr. Givens:

I felt I always have.

Michelle Madoff:

We don't need all that money. We just need enough money to help us hire somebody who is an expert in compensation to give us some advice.

Michelle Madoff moved to hire a fiscal advisor.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the minutes of Monday, October 4, 1982.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Michelle Madoff

Council adjourned.

Municipal Record

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, October 25, 1982

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

ABSENT:

Mr. Woods

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Flaherty presented

No. 1841 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of WESCO in the amount of $520.00 in payment for electrical materials used at the Public Safety Building, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1363, Materials, Department of Lands and Buildings.

Also,

No. 1842 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of General Electric Supply Co. in the amount of $274.50 in payment for electrical materials used at the North Side Farmers Market; chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1363, Materials, Department of Lands and Buildings.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Also,

No. 1843 Resolution amending Res. 583, effective June 26, 1979, by decreasing the aggregate cost from $57,500.00 to $53,989.82 to reflect the actual purchase price and closing cost.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Lands and Buildings.

Mr. Givens presented

No. 1844 An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title One - Administrative, Article III,

Organization, Chapter 133, Department of Environmental Services, by amending subsection 133.02 by providing that the Director of Environmental Services is authorized to enforce any and all provisions in the Code relating to animals, refuse, and noxious weeds and grass.

Also,

No. 1845 Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Parking Authority, the Stadium Authority, the Urban Redevelopment Authority and other governmental agencies for the purchase of bituminous materials; and providing for the creation of a Trust Fund for receipt and payment of such materials including expenditure of funds from said Trust Fund for expenses incurred in operation of the Asphalt Plant.

Mr. Givens:

These two bills that were introduced, either they can come into Committee and when they get into Committee I'm going to ask that they be held this coming Wednesday because there's a lot of questions that have to be answered in regard to this. Or we can suspend Rule 8 right here and just leave it follow its normal course. Whatever you desire.

Mr. Stone:

I suggest you suspend Rule 8 and then if you want to hold it, you can hold it. You can't pick it up after you don't pick it up.

The Chair:

You always have that alternative, Dick.

Mr. Givens:

We're talking then, and this is my concern, about the City of Pittsburgh just not doing their own, but actually bringing in the authorities, that of the Urban Redevelopment Authority. Within our Home Rule Charter, it gives the City, if we provide such a facility as we did, a new asphalt plant that we can sell this bituminous material to other municipalities. I think we're getting into an area of concern of government and business and I don't think we can handle this all in a three day period, at least I can't as Chairman of this particular committee.

So, if you so desire to want to bring it in this coming Wednesday, there's too many questions that must be answered and research must be done before we can make an intelligent decision on this.

Mr. Stone:

Dick, that's no problem. Put it on the agenda the you pick it up on Wednesday. No problem.

Mr. Givens:

I know but the thing is that I'd like to do it in a timely fashion. Come Wednesday, people might feel a little bit different about the issue and want to pass it right on the spot for whatever reason. I don't have the time to do it and I question my own motivation as to suspending Rule 8 on both of these pieces of legislation.

Mr. Stone:

The only problem with that is there's some reason why someone wants it moved ahead. So I think you ought to move it ahead until we get to Wednesday and then you find out why they wanted to move it ahead and then why you don't want to move it ahead.

Mr. Givens:

I won't, even by Wednesday, be able to get to the tip of the iceberg on at least one of these pieces of legislation.

Mr. President, I'll just make a motion -- I'm not going to approve this particular motion. I'll leave it follow its normal course through the legislative process rather than rush it through.

Mr. Perry:

Is that both bills, Mr. Givens?

Mr. Givens:

Right. Both bills.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if he's not going to move on the other bill, then I'll move to waive Rule 8 on that bill to move it forward.

Michelle Madoff:

Would somebody tell me what the bill is? I'm sorry I was late, but I was detained.

Mr. Stone:

At least we ought to put it into motion then at that time you still have the control over it.

Mr. Givens:

No. I'm not even going to put it in motion. It's my committee and I don't want to put it in a form of a motion right now. I feel that we need deliberations. I need this extra time.

The Chair:

Make the recommendation to hold them. We'll follow your recommendation. Then you'll have all the time you need.

Mr. Givens:

I would feel much better if we would have it follow through the normal legislative process. I feel that I need this time to --

The Chair:

Then you don't want to waive Rule 8?

Mr. Givens:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I'm sorry. I have had a lot of people on the phone about bills that we're voting on today and they're very upset. I just want to know what the bill is about. I'm sorry I was late. Nobody here can tell me what the bill is about.

The Chair:

It's on the Asphalt Plant.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you. I just wanted to know what it was. Nobody knew.

Mr. Givens:

We all knew.

Also,

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Parks and Recreation.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask you a question that I'm a little confused about? I wish the rest of the Councilmembers were here. One of the tactics that's used is that if somebody wants something through, they get five signatures as an interim approval. Is that correct?

Mr. Perry:

That's incorrect.

Michelle Madoff:

Wait just a minute. We do get things that are interim approvals. Is that correct? We have interim approval bills.

Mr. Perry:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

On an interim approval bill, we do vote on Monday.

Mr. Perry:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm a little bit upset. We have a bill, 1769, and I'm looking at my bills. Carmen and I have been spending time looking and we can't find 1769. I'm informed by the City Clerk that 1769 was something that was passed by interim approval. Therefore, we will not have it here, the public will not have a record of it. Where does it go, Mike? Would you explain it?

Mr. Perry:

This is a communication from Richard Cosentino. It was Bill No. 1769. It was introduced in Council two weeks ago. Council gave an affirmative recommendation on Wednesday and it received a bill number. Council passed on it on Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

Right. And we vote final vote today.

Mr. Perry:

No. A communication from the department head does not receive final approval on Monday. It receives final approval on Wednesday whenever it is in Committee. That's the way it's been for the last hundred years.

Michelle Madoff:

Then how do we have a permanent record of it for the public to know what's happening? It may have been happening that way for a hundred years but it's the first time I've caught it.

Mr. Perry:

This bill was on the agenda, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

And we voted on it.

Mr. Perry:

That's right.

Michelle Madoff:

And I voted for it.

Mr. Perry:

That is right.

Michelle Madoff:

And I asked that my comments be carried forward until today. Nobody said anything. I assumed the bill would be up for final vote today. How do I get that bill into today's record with the comments? I want the bill and my comments put into the permanent record.

Mr. Perry:

No problem.

(BEGINNING - MICHELLE MADOFF'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1769 -
10/20/82)

Bill No. 1769

Communication from Richard M. Cosentino, Director, Department of Water, requesting interim approval for payment not to exceed $6,000.00, payable from Capital Budget Account No. WD-81-01 for change in paint used to coat the Allentown Water Storage Tanks.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Director, would you please come to the table. Is there anyone from Larry Yatch's office? Thank you. Would you hang in there for a minute? I want to inform Council so that nobody thinks that anything is going on behind their back. About a year ago, I think it was, there was a meeting held and the subject of the meeting was what are the appropriate paints to use on bridges and on water tanks, etc. They were trying to convince me, thinking I had some input in what was actually purchased, as to the validity of using their paint, and somebody I knew from Dupont said their paint was a better one. I would not make a judgment on that. I'm not qualified to do that.

There was a dog and pony show put on by Dupont, and it was attended by the engineers of Lou's department, about six or seven people, and by the County people, about 20, 30 people. The end result of that meeting was that they felt that on existing bridges -- on rehab., that Dupont paint was a better quality paint, but when you go into new construction, they should use -- from that outgrowth which was the building that was supposed to be repaired by the Supplies Department called Life Cost Cycle which the State has already passed. The greatest expense in doing the painting is not the paint but the labor. Is that correct?

Director Lurcott:

That's correct.

Michelle Madoff:

The highest cost is the labor?

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Michelle Madoff:

It will last a lot longer.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Michelle Madoff:

Right. I want to be sure that this doesn't come back and say because I knew somebody -- the $6,000.00 -- to exceed $6,000.00, doesn't mean that we're going $6,000.00 more on the paint is it?

Director Lurcott:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

It's an additional $6,000.00?

Director Lurcott:

Up to $6,000.00.

Michelle Madoff:

Up to.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Michelle Madoff:

That's what I want to be sure that nobody understands. That is not a friend of mine. Okay? He is --

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Michelle Madoff:

No. He's an acquaintance of mine. He brought this to my attention. I brought it to the Director. The Director is making the decision not based on any influence that I may have. If you want to use it, do it. If you don't, don't do it. And I understand this is a test. I'm just sort of thunderstruck to see $6,000.00. It's not going to cost me $6,000.00 to go from one paint to another is it?

Director Lurcott:

It's not to exceed $6,000.00.

Michelle Madoff:

I would be floored if you were going to $6,000.00 more on the paint.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Michelle Madoff:

We're going to use better quality paint so that we can come up with a better paint that will last 20 years as opposed to paint that might last three.

Whoever is here from the Supplies Department, I have been asking for over a year that we have a bill passed after the State Bill which is a Life Cycle Bill. Now, I asked for it a year ago. I gave you a year. If you don't, I'm going to raise the roof, and get legal counsel involved. As Councilman Stone said, the better quality is going to last better in the long run.

(END - MICHELLE MADOFF'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1769 -
10/20/82)

Michelle Madoff:

I don't like that way of doing business. I don't understand the difference between the two. I would like someone to explain to all of us, including the media, the difference between that kind of an interim vote —

Mr. Perry:

I think the media knows what's going on here, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Mike, I'm sorry. I don't.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Chief Clerk, isn't that bill to be introduced? If it was interim approval, it will come back around Council again for final vote.

Mr. Perry:

No. The department head requested interim approval so they could go ahead and pay for the job that is being done.

Mr. Givens:

And that does not come back for final approval at a later date?

Mr. Perry:

No sir, it does not.

Michelle Madoff:

So that means on my bill, if I were not here, and it was something that I objected to, a six thousand dollar additional payment, it would have gone through, it would have passed Wednesday, and it would have been paid and I would never have had any say or even known about it.

Mr. Perry:

You had your say on Wednesday's Committee Meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

What if I hadn't been here Wednesday?

Mr. Perry:

You would have been excused then.

Michelle Madoff:

I think we need to change the rules of Council.

Mr. O'Malley presented

No. 1860 Resolution providing for a cooperation agreement or agreements with the International Association of Fire Fighters for the implementation of the Life Safety System during a pilot-test phase.

Mr. O'Malley moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presents:

Bill No. 1805 Resolution approving the appointment by the Mayor of Beverlee J. DeStein of 600 S. Negley Avenue as a member of City Court for a term to expire in December, 1985.

Which was read.

Mr. Stone moved for approval.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the appointment?

And on the question, "Shall the appointment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the appointment was approved.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, as I've stated before, I'm not an apple computer and I do my very best. I got in here, I was a little late because people are calling about opposition to several of our bills, especially the one you asked for a hearing on. I asked and nobody knew what the bill was because none of us can remember, and this is not a criticism of my colleagues, it's impossible to remember all of the resolutions.

You know that frequently in our meetings, we meet on Wednesday, it says that this bill has already been approved, we're just voting on it again, it's something we had an interim approval on. I think that it's time that Council met in session and updated its rules of procedures, Council's rules of procedures. I am very, very disturbed that we have interim approval by getting five votes, and I have no criticism of Mike Perry, I hope he didn't take it as a personal criticism, because a pro forma system it's been to just vote and discuss it on Wednesday and there is no final vote that is kept in our printed records on Monday.

When we have an item such as six thousand dollars for additional paint, I want that on a final vote because it is my bill. What if it hadn't been my bill. What if it was Councilman O'Malley's bill or Councilman Stone's bill on some other item, and he wasn't here on a Wednesday, it was an interim approval and we get to a vote — maybe he hadn't even signed that interim approval, maybe he was on vacation, and there were five other votes. I think it's important that we have all interim approvals brought forward for final vote on Monday.

I understand that it's not the present procedure and I think we ought to change it.

Mr. Stone:

Every bill comes before you for a final vote.

The Chair:

Michelle, that comes back under the Wallace Act.

Mr. Givens:

That's what I said. I thought even if it was interim approval it still comes back.

Michelle Madoff:

Mike said no. We voted Wednesday as final vote. That's what he said.

The Chair:

It will come back under the Wallace Act.

Mr. Perry:

Under the Wallace Act it will come back in resolution form, Michelle.

Mr. Stone:

Correct.

Michelle Madoff:

At a future time?

Mr. Perry:

At a future time.

Mr. Stone:

When it comes in on Wednesday it even tell you on the bottom that the interim be approved on so and so date.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes. I know it was interim approved and I said I want my comments carried forward to Monday. So, I figures the interim approval would be voted final vote today. That was not illogical thinking. Now you're telling me it's a Wallace Act. There's nothing Wallace Act about this bill. I'm telling you. I know about the bill. I've known about it for six months. It was not a Wallace Act. It's nonsense.

Mr. Stone:

I don't know what your point is but

Michelle Madoff:

The point is that I think when we have an interim approval on Wednesday, we ought to be voting final vote the following Monday like we do on all bills and we ought to amend the rules of Council to do that. That's all I'm suggesting.

I'm mostly suggesting that I was not here and you introduced my bill on a resolution. I've always understood that a resolution is something we do after the bills, from the floor. An ordinance is submitted, a resolution is not. We did this last week when I called my resolution back. I wanted that from the floor as a will of Council. The consent of Council.

Mr. Perry:

I'd like to sit with you after the meeting, Michelle, and show you the procedures for what we have.

Michelle Madoff:

Mike, don't try to put me down because I want to tell you something. How often have we had a resolution from this Council in four and a half years? Hundreds of resolutions. Is that correct?

Mr. Perry:

That is correct. But did you speak to your research assistant about your resolution? I spoke to her Friday about it.

Michelle Madoff:

What was the problem?

Mr. Perry:

Did you speak to Carmen?

Michelle Madoff:

Why couldn't I introduce it at the end of today? Why did it have to go through session?

Mr. Perry:

I told her that bill was going to go in Committee on Wednesday. She said fine. I said to tell Michelle about it.

Michelle Madoff:

Perhaps she didn't understand. She's relatively new.

All I'm saying, Mike, I'm not criticizing you and I'm not criticizing my colleagues, and I think you're being unduly unreasonable. All I'm saying is that it's time Council gets together and reviews its procedure. Maybe all resolutions should be introduced through Wednesday. Maybe they should be introduced as we have been after session. I just think it's time for an update. I've been here four and a half years, I've learned a lot in that time. Maybe I think we ought to have some changes. Maybe my colleagues will disagree with me. But I have the right to suggest that, don't I?

Mr. Perry:

Whatever Council's wish is. I work for Council.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine. You work for the majority of Council.

Mr. Perry:

All members of Council.

Michelle Madoff:

But you work for the majority because the vote of the majority is what rules.

Mr. Perry:

I work for nine members.

Michelle Madoff:

In that vein, I would like my resolution so I can introduce it after. I apologize that there was a misunderstanding, but I would like to introduce it after Council.

Mr. Perry:

Your resolution was introduced under Presentations.

Michelle Madoff:

I understand that. I'd like to take it out and introduce it after Council as we did on the last one.

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

AYES 7 NOES 1

(MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Michelle Madoff:

I vote no on all Zoo bills. The County should be taking that responsibility and the City paying one-third.

Mrs. Masloff:

It's a bill for a man's wages.

Michelle Madoff:

I know that. Let the County pay two-thirds and we'll pay one-third.

Mr. Stone:

Michelle, every time you do this you're prompting me to say this so we understand it. You're saying you don't want to pay any bills that have to be paid until the County gets involved, even though it's our property.

Michelle Madoff:

You got it. Clearly. It's a Catch

22. As long as we keep perpetuating it, nothing will happen. At some point, we can see saying for the next two hundred years, it's our property, it's our property. I don't want it to be our property. I want it to be the County's property.

Mr. Stone:

Even if it's a rightful bill you don't want to pay the bill?

Michelle Madoff:

I don't want to pay a bill that the County owes us two-thirds of the money on. If we stop paying some of our bills, we pay one third, we get the message across. I realize it's a protest vote. I realize you've got to pay. But I'm hoping the message will get out to the County, that two-thirds of their citizens are using the facilities and the City taxpayers are picking up the deficits.

Mr. Stone:

You have your right to believe it. I just want you to understand what you're saying. You're saying that you not going to pay a bill, if it's a legitimate bill even now, whether it helps or hurts our Zoo at this time.

Michelle Madoff:

Right.

Mr. Stone:

I just hope that this isn't the majority view of this Council.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, we will be going on for years and years with the City taxpayers picking up the deficits of that Zoo until somebody starts, may I borrow Mr.

Flaherty's phrase, to play hardball.

Mr. Stone:

Alright. I apologize for interrupting. I just wanted to get that issue cleared up.

Also,

Bill No. 1777

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the transfer of One Hundred Forty-Three Thousand Five Hundred Twenty-Six Dollars and Fifty-Two Cents ($143,526.52) from the 1982 Community Development Block Grant Trust Fund, Code Account CDPR, Housing Authority Recreation Salaries, Project No. 4-10-10-0010-82-221-82-10 to the General Fund of the City of Pittsburgh for reimbursement of Salaries and Wages paid to employees from May 1, 1982 to September 12, 1982, in support of the City's Community Development Block Grant Program."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens
Michelle Madoff

(AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1790

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Mayor to issue, and the City Controller to countersign a duplicate warrant to the same payee and in the same amount to replace the following warrant which was lost, stolen or inadvertently destroyed."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Mr. Givens

Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Robinson

Michelle Madoff
Mrs. Masloff

Mr. Stone
Mr. DePasquale

AYES 8

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1792

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 1792, have you had chance to look into that yet?

Mr. Robinson:

The information that I can gather so far on this bill, and I think the question is whether or not the Convention Center, the David L. Lawrence Convention Center, can be utilized free of cost. There is a resolution that was passed by the Board, I believe in the year 1977, I can get you a copy of that resolution, which indicates that neither the Civic Arena, at that time was under our direct control, or the Convention Center, which is presently under our control, shall be used free of charge by any party.

Michelle Madoff:

Then why was Pitt using it free of charge?

Mr. Robinson:

I would assume that that was an error and that the appropriate bill will be forwarded to the University.

Michelle Madoff:

Could you follow up on that?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes I will.

Michelle Madoff:

If you wish me to do it, I'll be happy to help. I'll get the name of the group for you if it will help.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd appreciate that.

Also,

Bill No. 1813

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring $61,000.00 from Code Account No. 1703, Utilities, to Code Account Nos. 1704, Supplies, 1705, Repairs, 1706, Equipment, and 1709, Refund Water Rents."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Bill No. 1881

Report of the Committee on Public Works for October 20, 1982 transmitting one resolution and sundry ordinances to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1762

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution creating a special trust fund for the deposit of fees to cover costs associated with the implementation and continued maintenance of the Residential Parking Permit Program."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
	(Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1809

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Six - Conduct, Article I, Regulated Rights and Actions, Chapter 601, Public Order, by amending subsection 601.12(a) to provide that the Director of the Department of Environmental Services shall, at his discretion, exempt certain apartment buildings with six or more units from the requirement of having refuse containers with wheels; by amending subsection 601.12(d) to provide that receptacles shall not be placed for collection before 7:00 P.M. on the day preceding collection day; by amending subsection 601.12(f)(3) to provide that bulky wastes will be collected on regular collection days; by amending subsection 601.12(i) to provide that persons or corporations having commercial garbage and/or rubbish requiring disposal under subsection 601.12(g) shall provide the Director of the Department of Environmental Services a sworn statement giving the name and address of the collector; by adding subsection 601.12(j) to provide that both owners and tenants of dwellings with five or fewer rental units are responsible for compliance with the requirements of this Chapter; and by adding Subsection 601.16 to provide penalties for various violations of this Chapter."

Which was read.

Mrs. Masloff:

On Bill No. 1809, Section D. It says "receptacles" and it should be changed to "refuse".

In the next paragraph where it says "receptacles", it should be changed to "refuse". And at the end of that line, where it says, "before 7:00 p.m. on the day preceding the collection day", I want to move to have inserted, "residents whose religious beliefs prohibit them from complying with the 7:00 p.m. rule will be granted permission to place their refuse out three hours earlier on the day in question upon written notice to the Director of Environmental Services seven days in advance".

Mrs. Masloff moved to amend Bill No. 1809.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

Discussion. Sophie, are we talking about a weekly type of thing or only —

Mrs. Masloff:

No. Only when the holiday occurs on their collection day. If the holiday occurs on, let's say, Tuesday, they want permission to put it out three hours earlier on Monday. They don't want to have to wait until 7:00.

Mr. Givens:

I have no problem with that, but how are we going to administrate that?

Mr. Stone:

They have to get permission from the Environmental Director.

Mr. Givens:

I asked if this was by areas of the City or if it was going to be City-wide. I think it's a good purpose. My only question is how it's going to be administered. Are we going to have people on these routes to check out when the garbage will be picked up, when it won't be picked up? I don't think three hours ahead is going to make that much difference because most of the crews that are going to be working on this are going to be daylight-type crews so they're going to be finished probably before --

The Chair:

You have a good point. They can't very well go around to every house that has garbage out there earlier to find out if they're a certain faith or not.

Mr. Givens:

We're talking about three hours.

Michelle Madoff:

No we're not. We're talking about a day and three hours.

The Chair:

Please Michelle. Sophie's amendment was three hours before the day.

Mrs. Masloff:

The day before. A day and a half. The day before, Dick. We're not talking about the day of collection. We're talking about the evening before. Instead of being limited to putting it out at 7:00, they want to put it out before it gets dark, before the holiday begins.

Mr. Givens:

Okay. But I'm saying, general at that time, the enforcing people, and we just got a new ordinance before us, but I don't think there's going to be anybody out there between the hours of four and seven looking for people putting their garbage out. If so, that's going to be news to me.

I think the difference of the staff on Holy days, I think if our people would know if it was a religious Holy day, that they should know better. Rather than the City trying to get an administrative function that I think is going to be so botched up, we're probably going to have more problems trying to administrate this than we are trying to control those who are offenders of it.

The Chair:

I don't think there's any problem administrating it. It's up to the individuals themselves. Those of that faith who want to put it out earlier, put it out. If other people decide to take advantage of it, if you are saying take advantage of it, we have no control over it.

Mr. Givens:

I'm saying that if it's a Jewish holiday, Christian holiday, Arab holiday, whatever the holiday might be, I think our people should know what these holidays are, and on that particular day I will forgive this rather than us trying to set up a bureaucratic administrative thing that is just going to be mind-boggling to the Environmental Service people and to the enforcers of this particular ordinance.

The Chair:

You're saying that on those certain religious days, rather than having confusion, everybody put their refuse out earlier?

Mr. Givens:

I would say that Sophie would want that and just say that on religious holiday, maybe try to specify them in the orders, —

Mrs. Masloff:

You can't do it because the holidays change every year.

Mr. Givens:

Even at that, how many people are we talking about?

The Chair:

Not that many. We're probably only talking about a couple of neighborhoods in the City. You're making a mountain out of a molehill.

Mr. Givens:

I appreciate that's its the Jewish community, but the thing is if you take those who are going to ask for exemptions, then we have to have somebody that has to have this information in hand so if they're going down between the hours of four and seven, to bring justice under this new ordinance, these people will not be fined.

What I'm saying, for that three hour period, you'd be better just saying that for religious holidays, if you wanted to say Jewish religious holidays, then just put that in there and make sure that the Environmental people know which days they occur on. Period.

The Chair:

I would have to believe they would use discretion on those two days a year and I don't think there will be any clamp down on anybody or any fines or anything else. We're really making a mountain out of a molehill.

Mrs. Masloff moved to amend Bill No. 1809.

Mr. Stone seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, I have another amendment if I might, which I think will help clarify the situation or at least clarify it for those people who will be effected by this.

I'd like to offer an amendment to read "such written notice and written consent shall only be necessary relative to the initial request and shall be enforced until revoked in writing by the Director of Environmental Services". That way, an individual will only have to apply one time and the Director will only have to respond one time, and that particular approval will be in effect until the Director, in writing, revokes it. It cuts down on the paper work and I think also make it much easier for the Director of Environmental Services to make sure that the men and women on the route know which houses are affected.

Mr. Robinson moved to amend Bill No. 1809.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I'm not finished with this bill. On Bill No. 1809, part of which we've been discussing, for example, I asked about three or four somewhat legal questions on Wednesday, as to could or could we not do it, are we in violation of the health laws of Allegheny County, who is going to enforce that particular part of Bill 1809. We received another ordinance in here today in regards to that of the enforcement which I haven't had an opportunity to really look at, it's just being introduced today. Mr. Baron of the Health Department had sent a letter over to us indicating if there's no problems as far as putting it out, there's no problem on that unless there's a health problem. Health problem means rodents, dogs, raccoons getting into the garbage.

A survey done in one area of the City of Pittsburgh said about thirty percent of all their bags were being ripped open while they had them out for pick-up in these particular hours. If that's the case, then it would be a violation of the Health Department. I have the survey in hand. Sophie's amendment to this, which went down very quickly, I still have concerns about that, not on the purpose of it, but on trying to administrate that particular type of program.

My concerns on the Health Department, the legal thing that's in here, I would like Bill 1809 to go back into Committee for this reason. We can combine all these factors and points together and come up with an ordinance that's going to look like an ordinance and not like something that's been supplemented and supplemented and supplemented.

Mr. Givens moved to recommit Bill No. 1809.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Before we have a roll call vote, I'd like to ask a question. I have no objection to Sophie's amendment. I supported her amendment.

The Chair:

Sophie's amendment has passed.
Mr. Robinson's amendment has passed.

Michelle Madoff:

And I also supported the amendment that Mr. Robinson clarified. That is not what my question is about.

The Chair:

We have an amendment on the floor and a second. We're going to vote on it. Do you have another amendment you want to make?

Michelle Madoff:

I would just like to ask a question if I may.

The Chair:

We've got to vote on this amendment unless it's on the same amendment. Is it on Mr. Givens' amendment?

Michelle Madoff:

Not Mr. Givens' amendment. It's Sophie Masloff's amendment, isn't it?

The Chair:

We passed Sophie Masloff's amendment. We voted on that. Do you have a question on Mr. Givens' amendment?

Michelle Madoff:

He want to withdraw the bill, is that correct? If we vote no can we discuss it further?

The Chair:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

Can I discuss it now then?

I just wanted to ask a question if someone can answer it for me. I happen to be in the Shadyside area this weekend and the only place I could park was in an alley which was not marked no parking, and I happen to drive through the alley three times looking for a parking space, and the litter is unbelievable. —

The Chair:

Michelle, you're not on Mr. Givens' amendment. Unless you are —

Michelle Madoff:

I understand that. You said if we vote on it now I can't discuss the bill again. I asked you that.

The Chair:

You can make an amendment.

Michelle Madoff:

I asked you if you wanted to vote on the amendment and you said yes. I said can I discuss the issue on the bill afterwards.

The Chair:

Michelle, do you care to discuss Mr. Givens' recommittal?

Michelle Madoff:

No.

Mr. Stone:

Hold on a second. On this motion to recommit. This bill is in as good a frame as it can be right now as an initial thing in order to help the Pittsburgh Clean City Committee. If we're going to take it back and play with it — I'm listening here to Mr. Givens saying he wants to administer. I think he ought to legislate, not administer. We ought to get out of the daily work and try to get them something they can work with.

What this thing is saying, and he doesn't understand it, that's the problem, is saying that nobody can leave it out unless they get the o.k. from the Director, and one of the reasons is that you have a religious holiday and second, that you went to the Director and asked an exception. Just because you happen to be of any ethnic group doesn't mean you celebrate that holiday. Just because you happen to be a person on that street doesn't say that that's your holiday. What they're trying to do is not to have it wholesale, in which case they'd have to move it up for everybody. It's an exception.

Mr. Flaherty:

He's not holding it for that purpose.

Mr. Givens:

Let me restate what I'm holding the bill for. I know all you people received the letter from Mr. Baron, as I indicated, from the Health Department of Allegheny County, stating that there's probably no violation of this particular ordinance if the bags are not ripped open. I said give me a little description on that. Well, if rodents get into them, if dogs get into them, if raccoons get into them, I so indicated that then you're in violation of Allegheny County health standards, if that's the case.

I have a survey in front of me from a neighborhood within the City of Pittsburgh so indicating that about twenty-five or thirty percent of their bags are broken into in a period of time. My question to the Health Department, etc., is when are we in violation of our own Allegheny County health rules and regulations. There is a question mark unanswered and we'll have to go neighborhood by neighborhood as to whether or not a person can put their bags out. I'm assuming that in some neighborhoods you can get away with it. In others you cannot. In the survey of the Seventh Ward of the City of Pittsburgh, they could not get away with it. You look at the Seventh Ward and tell me if that's an area that's infested with a lot of dogs running loose compared to other areas of the City of Pittsburgh.

The only other thing I'd like to comment on is, can we administratively, if you want to get down to that, be able to do what Sophie is asking to be done? If so, fine and dandy. But I'd at least like to bounce that off the people down in Environmental Services. I don't want to necessarily have to put a burden on them that might have an easy solution.

Thirdly, there are problems in the containers going into apartment buildings. The cost is four hundred to six hundred dollars per. Many places you cannot get them. Others, BFI, you can only rent them at the cost of $480.00 a year. We're running into substantial cost for people and getting various containers. This again will cause problems within the City. I just ask that we recommit this so we can bring some people up and discuss this in an intelligent fashion.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am supporting the recommitment not because I have any strong sentiments for the reasons to recommit, but to extend the courtesy to the Chairman of the Public Works Committee in his desire to recommit the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to vote no, not to recommit, but I would also respectfully ask that we have Public Works and the head of the Allegheny County Health Department here for a post agenda —

Mr. Givens:

No you're not Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Don't tell me what you're going to do. I'm only talking about what I'm going to do. You do what you want to do. Mike Perry, I would like to request —

The Chair:

Michelle, you're out of order. Why don't you vote yes or no?

Michelle Madoff:

Why am I out of order? I'm voting not to recommit. I'm also saying that at the same time, I'm making a request that we have a post agenda and he's saying no because he wants to have a post agenda. I don't know what's in his mind. I don't have a crystal ball.

The Chair:

Do it under Motions and Resolutions, Michelle. Go on with the vote.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the recommittal?

And on the question, "Shall the recommittal pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Mr. Givens

AYES 2 NOES 6

VOTING NO:

Michelle Madoff	Mr. Robinson
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Stone
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the recommittal was defeated.

The Chair:

Now, discussion on the bill itself.

Mr. Givens:

I'm abstaining on this bill because I feel the nature of the pertinentcies of the evidence that was given to be by the Allegheny County Health Department and other agencies, that we're going to have some technical problem with this bill. I wanted that to be resolved. If the bill is approved, then I ask for a post agenda this coming Wednesday and I'll give Mike Perry and those people I want before us to discuss this bill — make it for a week Wednesday because the Mayor will have to sign this, and hopefully, he might review it a little bit himself and see some of the problems we might come up with.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I apologize. I did not understand at the time that you were just voting on the recommittal and I just wanted to address the issue of the bill.

I agree with Mr. Stone. The bill is a first step forward in giving the Clean City Committee a chance to get something done. Then we have to take it in the next step.

I am not a person with a crystal ball and I don't think it matters whether Mr. Givens in the past has held hearings or post agendas on Water. I am not offended. There are issues that I had raised that Mr. Givens has had post agendas on. I did not know that Mr. Givens was going to request a post agenda because I don't have a crystal ball. But I did read a very indepth article in the newspapers that said that the Health Department has great concerns over not necessarily items that pertain to this bill. As a matter of fact, they may be private haulers that are doing businesses in stores, for example in the Shadyside area alleys. I am requesting a post agenda this Wednesday with the Board of Health to find out what the problems are so we can go back through the Clean City Committee which Mr. Robinson and I are members of, and suggest some suggestions or come up with some other recommendations which do not necessarily address this bill but are just other recommendations to help the problem of cleaning up this City.

Mr. Givens:

My only comment would be that if it's on this particular bill, then this bill will not be finally approved until the Mayor signs it. So you're talking about a bill that has not followed all of its legislative process.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine. We voted not to recommit it. I'm asking to have somebody here from the Board of Health to address the overall issue of rubbish. It has nothing to do with this bill.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 7 NOES none

(MR. GIVENS ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1810

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Six, Conduct, Article I - Regulated Rights and Actions, Chapter 609, Weeds and Grass, by adding Section 609.07 to provide for a penalty of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) plus costs."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

On Bill No. 1810, which is the length of the grass and weeds for the City of Pittsburgh, some six inches, I received numerous telephone calls and discussions with people in the community again, and I feel that if we include the weeds in there that within six inches, we're talking about cutting your grass once a week.

I talked to senior citizens and other groups and they're disturbed about this particular bill, that the length is only going to be six inches. In all the communities that I have ever lived in in my life, I've never known of a six inch requirement. I would submit that this bill be recommitted or an amendment made to it that would lengthen the height of the weeds. They're saying that if you have weeds or anything out there and they grow to a height of six inches which is no higher than that pencil right there.

I would so indicate by the people who spoke to me in regard to this bill that this is almost an injustice to them to have to go out and cut it everytime it approaches that particular height. They suggested a height of ten to twelve inches. In other areas that I have lived in and visited within this country of our, it seems like the ten or twelve inches is more standard rather than the six inches.

I put that forward as a motion that the height of the weeds and grass be ten inches rather than six inches.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't care if it's ten or six. I'll second it.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens suggested that we allow the grass to grow ten inches instead of six.

Mr. Stone:

He ought to make it six feet if he's going to make it a foot.

Mr. Perry:

Excuse me. This is only the fine. It doesn't include the height.

Mr. Stone:

He wants to make the height twelve inches. I think we ought to leave it as it is.

Mr. Givens moved to amend Bill No. 1810..

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Stone:

Roll call vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I abstain because I don't care how high the grass is.

The Chair:

I think the dogs care.

Michelle Madoff:

I will vote to let them have ten inches of grass, but no more.

Mr. Stone:

No. I think senior citizens in this City would know better than anyone else because they've been accustomed to cutting their grass all these years.

The Chair:

I don't have a lawnmower, so I vote no.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the amendment?

And on the question, "Shall the amendment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Givens
Michelle Madoff

AYES 2 NOES 4

(MRS. MASLOFF, MR. ROBINSON, MR. STONE AND MR. DEPASQUALE VOTING NO)

(MR. FLAHERTY AND MR. O'MALLEY ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the amendment was defeated.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Chief Clerk, I then ask you to send a letter to the Allegheny County, to the State of Pennsylvania, primarily, and tell them that they are in violation of this ordinance and have been in violation of this ordinance along with most of the people of the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Discussion on the bill itself?

Michelle Madoff:

I don't care if we go from six to ten inches, and I said no more than that. At the corner where I live, the corner of Forward and Mount Royal, there is no way of seeing because the weeds and the grass are not six inches or ten inches, they are twenty-four and thirty-six inches. People cannot pull out without getting killed by automobiles. It is imperative that we have some bill.

Also,

Bill No. 1811

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Six, Conduct, Article III - Dogs and Other Animals by adding provisions for penalties for violations; by amending Section 633.06 to provide that dogs shall be restrained by a leash when on public property; by adding Section 635.03 to provide that ownership of more than ten animals in a dwelling place is prohibited; and by adding Sections 636.04 and 636.05 to provide that with certain exceptions, wild animals are prohibited in the City."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1821

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Six - Conduct, Article III, Dogs and Other Animals, Chapter 633, Dogs, by providing for the regulation of breeders, maintaining kennel standards, revising licensing requirements and procedures, and prohibiting the use of dogs for medical research."

Which was read.

The Chair:

I want to caution that on Bill Nos. 1811 and 1821 we have petition for a hearing on those bills and if we pass them today the hearing would be rather moot.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of information, if I might. On Bill No. 1821 if Council remembers, last Wednesday in Committee, that bill was amended and I do not see it reflected in the version we have in front of us. There's nothing in this final version we have that I see that specifically speaks to the issue of the City of Pittsburgh --

Mr. Stone:

Top of the page. Disposition of Unclaimed Dogs.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. Also on 1821, I believe the record is reflecting that both bills, 1811 and 1821, were sponsored by Mr. Robinson. Mr. Robinson only sponsored Bill No. 1821. The other bill was presented by the Administration.

Mr. Stone:

On behalf of the Pittsburgh Clean City Committee.

Mr. Robinson:

Right.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, on the last page of Bill 1821, Section Six, you've got breeders paying one hundred dollars a year, annual fee, but the kennels are paying nothing. Is that correct or am I in error?

Mr. Robinson:

That's correct.

Michelle Madoff:

Don't you think that the hundred dollar fee to a breeder is excessive? I'll tell you why.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order. I believe these two bills are going to be referred back to Committee for a hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you. I think you're absolutely right.

Mr. Givens moved to recommit Bill Nos. 1811 and 1821.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Michelle Madoff:

That's why we have a Clean City Committee and we're trying to get that off center. The way to help it is to support the bills and then go on from there.

Mr. Robinson presented

Bill No. 1882

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for October 20, 1982 transmitting one ordinance and sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1732

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 1067, effective October 29, 1981, entitled, 'Providing for a cooperation agreement or agreements with the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh in connection with the administration of the Parkway Center Shopping Mall Urban Development Action Grant Project; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof.' to increase the funds provided from $4,626,000.00 to $9,126,000.00 and to provide for the transfer to said Authority of any funds realized by the City from tap-in fees in connection with the Alpark Sewer."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 1732, while it's defined as the Shopping Mall Urban Development Action Grant for Parkway Center, it really is not. That's because of the parallel sewers for that whole area and we've got to build ramps because of the parallel sewer. We had that flooding over of waste. I don't think it's for cost. I think it's because we need the parallel sewers and the cross-overs, right?

Mr. Robinson:

I believe that the legislation is reflective of the proper legal form for us to make a loan to Mr. Kossman, Kossman Development Company to be specific, in the amount of $4.5 million to make some necessary improvement to expect that traffic in that area, namely some ramps.

But we did agree to loan Mr. Kossman $4.5 million which he will pay back to us over a twenty-seven year period. The money is not going directly to Mr. Paul Kossman himself, but it is going to the Kossman Development Corporation which is responsible for the Parkway Center Shopping Mall and also is the principal person who applied for the action grant for that facility.

Michelle Madoff:

Bill, perhaps I wasn't clear. The bill is going from $4,600.00 to $9,000.00. Is this additional monies to him? Is he going to pay it all back?

Mr. Robinson:

Only the $4.5 million which the City of Pittsburgh is loaning to him will be paid back over the twenty-seven year period.

Michelle Madoff:

If you look at the bottom of that page, it says, "Whereas, Authority has cause to be constructed a storm and sanitary sewer", I believe it's because of the parallel sewer that we've needed in that area, and therefore, he needed the ramps, and therefore, that's why we're not billing it back to him. I wouldn't vote for a glass of water in the middle of the desert for Mr. Kossman. But I will vote for this because we need the parallel sewer in the whole area.

Mr. Givens:

I just want one comment on the bill for the bypass up there in Greentree. That is the fact that all this money is coming out of the City of Pittsburgh bond fund money, some $4.7 million. At eight and one half percent interest rate being tied up for a twenty-seven year period, it's so noted, and I so raise the question, when this bill came before the Urban Redevelopment Authority that what happens to the County? Why doesn't the County participate? I then asked the question, if that is a State maintained road, what happened to the State of Pennsylvania that they do not participate in this. Why then does the City of Pittsburgh have to participate only in this? What happened to Greentree Borough, our sister municipality up there, and why weren't they more considerate of what was happening up there and putting this burden on the City of Pittsburgh taxpayers for twenty-seven some years.

Mr. Stone:

I don't think you know what you're talking about. Greentree Borough doesn't want the shopping center. The shopping center --

Mr. Givens:

I know exactly what they want. If you're going to play political football with the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh to the tune of some $4 million for twenty-seven years.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, Greentree doesn't want the shopping center. The shopping center is located within the confines of the City of Pittsburgh. Once it opens up, we will get real estate taxes, we'll get employee taxes and every other form of taxation from it. It's really our obligation to try to alleviate the problem they did not have. In fairness. That's why we agreed to make that a UDAG proposition because we wanted some additional things done to that project in order to make it viable for everybody's concern.

But to say that we should ask Greentree to contribute to our money so that we could create a problem for Greentree is ridiculous.

Mr. Givens:

What I'm trying to say is that Greentree is creating a problem then for the taxpayers and the people of the City of Pittsburgh by not wanting to cooperate in an area that already has a clover-leaf intersection tha could have been improved upon for maybe a million dollars or so, whatever the cost would have been to improve that intersection because they didn't want the traffic in their communities, fine and dandy for Greentree. I would hope that the next time when they come through the Fort Pitt Tunnels and the Liberty Bridge and down our highways and biways, that we maintain our roads and our systems to accommodate all the people in Allegheny County, all the people in our Metropolitan area. I feel sad to sit at this table and feel that we have a sister municipality abutting and bordering this City that would not want to cooperate with us when, in fact, we cooperate with them on everything that comes down the pike.

Also,

Bill No. 1784

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 1439 of 1981, as amended by Resolution No. 402, effective May 7, 1982, entitled, 'Approving the submission and budget for the 1982 Community Development Block Grant Budget'."

Which was read.

Also,

Which was read.

Which was read.

Mr. Stone:

I would like my comments from the last two Wednesdays concerning these three bills included in the minutes.

(BEGINNING - MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NOS. 1778, 1779 AND 1780 - 10/13/82)

Mr. Stone:

We didn't give interim approval for this whole project; we gave it for one game as I recall it.

Director Cannon
Executive Director
Emergency Medical Services

No, it was for an agreement or agreements with the University of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Stone:

I don't agree.

Director Cannon:

There should be a copy of the interim approval letter.

Mr. Stone:

There was one game until you got a chance to talk to them about the agreement.

Director Cannon:

No, we had no authority to enter into an agreement so it was to allow us to cover that game.

Mr. Stone:

Until this legislation was produced.

Director Cannon:

Until we were able to get authority to have an agreement, that's right.

Mr. Stone:

As I've indicated, as far as these things are concerned, I can only say to this Council again as I indicated earlier; we now have a good paramedic service. If we're going to provide services, we started off with the parochial schools, we then went to the public schools, now Pitt, tomorrow Duquesne and the next one is going to be Penn Hills on the City of Pittsburgh budget, and I think that we are doing a disservice to the City of Pittsburgh because at this point we have a quality service and we can't do more than we're capable of doing and I'm strongly urging this Council relative to these bills to vote against them. Now I'll take any motion you want to make.

MRS. MASLOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Whoever provides those facilities should provide what's necessary for that sporting event.

MRS. MASLOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

They know that there is a mass of people but inside the stadium it doesn't make sense for us to have a vehicle sitting there.

MRS. MASLOFF COMMENTS

Director Cannon:

I'm talking about paramedic teams inside the stadium which will be there in the event of an illness or sudden injury that occurs there —

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Director Cannon:

We are reimbursed. They pay us for all of the costs of us being there. We do not spend any City of Pittsburgh money to be there.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

What you just said shows that you don't understand the issue.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

He doesn't. Because as far as I'm concerned when you are dealing with a medical person who's dealing with emergency after he finishes tour duty, you don't give him another four to five hours under excessively emergency conditions.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Director Cannon:

May I make a comment? The Civic Arena and Pitt and Three Rivers contract with the City to provide police services and they are following an additional pattern that when they have a need for a service they come to the City and ask for it.

The second comment is that if they, in fact, contract with other agencies than the City, then we have a problem with the quality of medical care that is provided because the City of Pittsburgh paramedics are the finest that exist. They in turn —

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

If we are going to be thinking in a godly way, we should protect and save everybody's life, but that's where the problem develops. You only can take care of that which you can take care of. You can't take care of the world when you only have the capabilities of taking care of the City. Now I do this with the understanding that we have to protect that which we can protect.

That's the key to it.

Let me just do one thing if I may. Bill No. 1779 deals with the Arena and Bill No. 1780 deals with the school district and the motion to table is on all three of them.

MR. GIVENS COMMENTS

Director Cannon:

That's correct. Particularly at Pitt Stadium it is virtually impossible to get there when they call us from the outside and what occurs is that our response time is then delayed to the incident. Now if we are going to talk about life saving which is what our job is, and people that have heart attacks, strokes, etc., it's critical that we be on that scene within a very short period of time or after ten minutes we don't need to be on that scene if it is going to make a difference of saving lives.

Mr. Stone:

Where's the problem of getting into Pitt Stadium? You go through the gate on the left hand side.

Director Cannon:

You can't move through those stands and that crowd to get there in time so we try to work it from the inside. Three Rivers Stadium is the same example. Try to go into the stadium when everyone is leaving the stadium. It's impossible to do.

MR. GIVENS COMMENTS

MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTS

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

Director Cannon:

I would like to make another comment regarding overtime. The personnel are going to work overtime whether it's for us or someone else if they feel they need the money. A number of them will work on private ambulance services on their own off time to do that. They may work as security guards in a grocery store, they may work hopefully — somebody may want to be a bartender and I can't allow that. I would rather have them working for us and have them available in case we have a major incident than having them leave the City or working on private ambulances to earn extra income and not have them available. In this way, we have a handle on the personnel for their overtime. They're going to work overtime whether it's for us or somebody else if they feel that they need the money.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Since there are that many facilities, they ought to set up their own paramedic squad which is non-city related and I'll cover something that has been brushed off in a second.

Let me just cover this liability end of it. If our Director were to say other than what he is proposing here, I would have to think less of him because, obviously, he's in the life-saving business and I have no fault with that. On the other hand, I see what good intentions there are and sometimes even too much ice cream is no good and that's where we get into a problem. As far as moonlighting, it has been said here that we have insurance. I would not like anybody to leave this table to say that because we have insurance we're safe. I would not like anybody to say because we have only had one lawsuit on EMS that we're not going to have liability. We only had two with the City of Pittsburgh that cost us something like $3 million. We only need one from EMS to cost us in excess of the insurance policy. In addition to that, even if you have insurance policies, it doesn't say that we still don't have to go to court. Now when you stretch it from doing City work to obviously going out and doing work for someone else under the guise that we're doing our work and they're paying us, it's much like getting a cow and painting a sign and saying this is a horse. It's still a cow no matter what kind of sign you put on the side of it, so we've got a legal issue and if it's money enough involved someone is going to say when you are out there working for the University of Pittsburgh, you in fact were working with the University of Pittsburgh and not in fact doing City work. I foresee that we are at the crossroads of great danger in the Emergency Medical Services. I don't fault you for coming here and trying to do it. I fault us if we approve it because, as I see this thing, if we're going to have an Allegheny County Emergency Medical Service or a Western Pennsylvania Emergency Medical Services, fine. But we're not going to do it and I'm part of the outs as you are Glenn, with EMS beyond the City of Pittsburgh then there's a failing there. It's about time they strengthened that level and do something about it, but again we can't do any more than we're capable of doing when it has already cost us four times plus it's going to subject us to the kind of liability in an area that we're not even having precedent for saying that we are not liable.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

I don't know how the University of Pittsburgh, in good conscience, can ask us to provide people at the stadium and they have nine hospitals all around them.

(END - MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NOS. 1778, 1779 AND 1780 - 10/13/82)

(BEGINNING - MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NOS. 1778, 1779 AND 1780 - 10/20/82)

The Chair:

I would just like to make one comment. The comments I made last week, I renew today. Those comments I made from my head. Relative to my heart which is now making the decision with these conditions that we get total indemnification, and second, proper reimbursement. I will vote my heart and hope it's not the wrong decision.

Everyone else has spoken. I would just like to make these comments. First of all, as has been eluded to here, I was one of the parties that got Emergency Medical Services into the City of Pittsburgh. And after that, we gave the EMS people all the support. There has never been one bill to which this Council has ever opposed. I, as Finance Chairman, gave over and above the Mayor's recommendation, an additional $500.00 to every Emergency Medical Services person in this City of Pittsburgh. And I take with a great deal of disgust when the Emergency Medical people today because someone raises a voice feel that they are now being oppressed at this moment. I want them to understand through this Council body that my remarks made from my head were accurate then, they're accurate now, and I hope to God I am wrong. And that is, you can't take care of the whole world in your efforts to save life. You can only go within the capacity that you presently have.

Relative to this matter, there is no question in my mind we are going too damn far with our Emergency Medical Services. And anyone who puts aside his own person pocket and looks at this issue and the way it should be resolved has got to know that we're going too far. This budgetary matter started at $1 million. We're up to $4 million, and if we keep it up the way we're going, we're going to end out having a budget consideration whether or not the City of Pittsburgh can afford to provide Emergency Medical Services. So, Mr. DiMachei and to your successor as president, I'll speak to your union at any time, but I hope you hear me clear now.

Relative to this particular problem, I'm telling you we're in dangerous territory because we are deluting the quality of our service.

Secondly, I see problems. You're talking about an insurance policy. That policy is not good enough for us because obviously the policy doesn't have high enough limits to cover the eventual potential dangers. And it doesn't keep us out of Court, and that's the reason that I suggested it to Mr. Cannon. We carry another provision which I suggested by in one of our previous contracts, and that is that we must be indemnified for any liability covered by insurance or not covered by insurance.

And the other matter is the matter of upgrading that cost, not to what it is now, but what the actual cost is relative to this particular service.

I am truthfully changing it based on a vote for heart, but I'm telling you that I'm giving a danger sign to the Service as is giving now, and I hope that everyone, more particularly the paramedics, listen that when someone gives a descending vote, they are giving you the best favor you ever had in your life.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

This is going to happen, right?

Mr. Robinson:

Definitely.

Michelle Madoff:

I had requested from Mike Perry that we do the resolution in the form of -- on reflection, I think -- authorizing the Director of Public Works to install street signs on all City streets with penalty for removal. And I would like to include fire lanes. The director is to install street signs. The important thing is that you cannot find your way around this City. You cannot find your way on my street. There was a fire sign on our street. Some kid took it off, and it's not been replaced, and I think this is a very important issue. Set money aside in 1983.

Mr. Perry:

It would come under Public Works.

Michelle Madoff:

See if they can find money so they don't come to us at the end of the year.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, as I'm sure all of my colleagues are aware, a week ago I asked that the City Controller or a spokesperson for his office appear in Council at the post agenda session to shed some information in regards to the process and the selection of Software International Computer Firm for providing the computer to the Controller's Office. As we are all aware, the computer has not worked since its conception in the Controller's Office, and it seems to me this issue has started some ramifications for the public.

We are talking about a computer and consultant services which have accrued a bill of at least $600,000.00 for the City taxpayers and probably more. And whereas, I know my office has received complaints, and I imagine others have, in regard to the negative impact of a computer that is not working and how that is holding up the payments of that. It's holding up the rights to providers of City services and supplies.

I respectfully ask that the President of Council set an expeditious hearing in regard to this situation and ask either the City Controller or a knowledgeable spokesperson from his office to — I know in the letter that the Controller sent to each member of Council shortly before his scheduled appearance in front of Council that he felt that the post agenda was an unstructured form and was not conducive. He seems to feel that some members of Council in the past used the post agenda for their own personal interest. I do not necessarily agree with the Controller on his rationale for not appearing, but I also feel that it would not be proper form for him to appear at a regular Committee Meeting for two reasons.

A regular Committee Meeting has a set agenda in regard to the payment of bills weekly. I do not feel that any in-depth questioning as to the impact of the computer that isn't working, the process in which it is selected in any shape or form, would be proper during a Finance Committee Meeting.

Second of all, I feel that the Committee Meeting agenda is very tight as far as the time issue. We have a long agenda, and we don't spend a half hour to an hour trying to understand any one issue in a Committee Meeting.

Therefore, I ask that in the spirit of compromising that the Controller attend a public hearing which will be chaired through the President of Council. He need not have any concerns about anyone chairing the meeting. There will be an objective person, perhaps in his view point, that will be chairing the meeting, and it will also give an opportunity to all members of Council not to feel they're under restraints of time as far as asking what I would hope to be conscionable questions and ones which are not out to demonstrate anyone but are being asked simply for the sake of public accountability and the public's right to know. Therefore, I ask that an expeditious hearing be scheduled.

The Chair:

Mr. Flaherty, you're certainly within your right to ask for the hearing. That's your prerogative, but I would like to ask a favor. You're on the right track when you asked the Controller to come up and give an explanation, but try one more time to get a post agenda. Mr. McGrady is willing to come up for a post agenda. If not, otherwise, we'll have a hearing. Is that all right with you?

Mr. Flaherty:

I could agree to that. All I have is a few objective questions.

The Chair:

I understand. There is no argument there except I think you have — if he refuses it, okay.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think we're on the right track. The issue is one of a member of Council — this is going to be a tacky kind of thing. I've called Ray Johnson. I've spoken to him. You're on target. He will be happy to come and I don't think it necessarily has to be a public hearing. The fact that we do have tight Wednesday post agendas and we're having a zoning hearing tomorrow. Perhaps Tuesday. That's probably over by 10:00.

Mr. Perry:

I hope that's over by 10:30, the first one. The first one is short. The second should be a long one.

Michelle Madoff:

You make the decision, but if you're going to have a lengthy — how many post agendas do you have scheduled for Wednesday? You told me you're booked up for a month in advance; weeks in advance. I think you are with only one.

Mr. Perry:

I don't think I have any scheduled

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm the one that is requesting the post agenda, Michelle, and I request a post agenda for this Wednesday. Not the meeting tomorrow, after the public hearing, but on Wednesday, and I think it's a good idea as suggested through our Councilperson.

Michelle Madoff:

No problem.

Mr. Givens:

I think I read Mr. McGrady's letters accurately. He said he did not want a post agenda before. Now, you're saying —

Michelle Madoff:

It's going to be an invitation of all of Council.

Mr. Givens:

Michelle, you had the floor. Well, okay, Mr. President. I have no problem with that. I thought that Mr. McGrady did not want to come up in a post agenda type. It then would be a public hearing. I would like to say that a public hearing be limited because that public hearing, anyone can speak for the Council of the City of Pittsburgh on this particular problem. I wouldn't want to go into that type of —

The Chair:

If you have a public hearing, everyone is going to have to speak.

Mr. O'Malley:

I just want to say that I certainly think that this Council has an obligation to the taxpayers to investigate and oversee all expenditures of the taxpayers' dollars to ensure there is not discrepancies, that all expenditures are in the best interest of the public. But I also feel that this Council would do Mr. McGrady an injustice in not giving him a public hearing — Mr. McGrady, as a public servant, indebted most of his life as an elected official. In my opinion, I'm sure Mr. McGrady would welcome an opportunity to have a public hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

On the same subject. I stated that I called Ray Johnson. He had spoken to the Controller. The Controller has no objections to coming. It is an invitation of all the Council. It was just that he didn't want to —

The Chair:

Michelle, I --

Michelle Madoff:

I'm just telling you what he said.

Mr. Robinson:

As Council is aware, over the last year or so, an issue has developed here in the City of Pittsburgh which has some ramifications for not only our residents, but for residents in the County, and I think it is coming to the point where we as a Council perhaps need to get some information because certainly we are going to be confronted with a number of situations. The situation I'm referring to is the documented overcrowding of our County jail. And those issues that are related to it.

As Council is aware, the Prison Board of Allegheny County has made a recommendation which has had the basic approval of the judges of Common Pleas Court to attempt to establish some temporary facilities throughout the County, to house persons considered "not dangerous". I say this to accomplish two goals. One, to expedite speedy trials and processing, and also to alleviate crowding at the County jail.

This Council is aware, there have been a number of community groups and organizations that have raised opposition to these types of facilities being placed in their community. We had no opposition in the East End of the City of Pittsburgh and Lawrenceville, and I would suspect in most communities, where these types of facilities are proposed to citizen groups, they would have strong objections. We presently have been considered by our Zoning Board, as Zoning Chairman, that there might possibly be activated a halfway house in the East End of the City of Pittsburgh. Needless to say, there has been sizable opposition to this. That opposition has been voiced at their last meeting, and a petition with 600 names forwarded to him. I have been in contact with various community leaders in the East End and various people, social service agencies, relative to this issue. To say the least, it's a very emotional issue as well as one that I think has been -- I would suggest that Council send a letter to the Director of the Community Prison Board, Mr. William Robinson, and also a letter to Dr. Cyril Wecht, who is Chairman of the Prison Board, requesting that they forward, to this Council, a copy of their report which details the overcrowding and also a copy of any recommendations or suggestions as to how that overcrowding should be alleviated. And three, any specific proposals to place halfway houses or temporary facilities throughout the County, and specifically in the City of Pittsburgh.

I am making this request once so that Council can be aware of what the situation is in your City neighborhood, and two, so that we can become aware. And I think we need to have the fact and figures before we take action.

Thirdly, I think that it would be appropriate for Council not to entertain any bills that would permit halfway houses or temporary facilities in any neighborhood in the City of Pittsburgh until such time that we get written response from Mr. Robinson and Dr. Wecht.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the minutes from Monday, October 11, 1982.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Stone

Council adjourned.

Mr. Givens:

I have several questions that were held over from the Wednesday session where I asked for certain information. I would like to read a letter that I sent to the Mayor because I felt the urgency of this.

October 29, 1982

Dear Dick,

I am very pleased to see your proposed legislation initiation to help remedy our ailing pension system. As you are aware, I've been urging similar action for the past three years.

A couple of days ago, I received copies of the actuarial report as of July 1, 1981, from your contracted firm, William M. Mercer, Inc. My attempts to obtain more recent information from within your administration have been very unsuccessful.

In order to make the most intelligent decision on the proposed pension legislation that we have before us today, primarily Bill No. 1826, I need the weekend to study more current reports and time for Monday's vote. Please get in touch with me this afternoon.

Sincerely,

Knowing that the Mayor went to the hospital early that Friday morning, talking to his chief administrators, they said they would see what they could do. As of this date, Mr. President, I have recieved nothing. At the Wednesday session, it was told to us that there was a draft of the actuarial 1982. By resolution of this Council some four or five years ago, we requested that this Council have the actuarial no later than October 1st of the year it was due. It was due this year, to my knowledge, because last year when I asked for it, they so indicated that it was due by law every two years.

The actuarial and this Administration, if in fact they have this information, is denying it to the Council of the City of Pittsburgh where in we cannot make an intelligent decision, as far as I'm concerned, on what is happening here today on this one particular bill.

I had asked that we have our Chief Finance Chairman come up here today to answer some questions that are still dangling in my mind and to see if we can nail some of the unanswered questions of Wednesday's session down.

At this time, Mr. President, if you would so direct Ron Schmeiser to go to the microphone, possibly we can get some answers on these questions.

Ron, in looking at this actuarial study, and looking at what information I have, and in looking at the ordinance that's before us, I see no stipulation of any money that the City of Pittsburgh is obligated to pay in regards to these pension funds year by year by year.

Mr. Schmeiser:

Because that will change each year. Right now it is only a projection of what those payments will be. I believe one of the charts do indicate, however, what the payment will be.

Mr. Givens:

Are you referring to the chart that they handed out?

Mr. Schmeiser:

That plus there's a table that was given to you last Wednesday which reflects the projected payments.

Mr. Givens:

But this legislation doesn't bind the City of Pittsburgh on anything. The charts are just actuarial charts.

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's right, because each year a new study will be made to determine what the payments should be because there's so many assumptions that were used to project this over thirty years, employment assumptions, salary increase assumptions, and the investment assumption. These are only assumptions. Each year a new study will be made and the payment that was required for that year will be determined and will be given to us.

Mr. Givens:

Okay, before us, in the year 1982 right now, looking at '83 pension, wanting this to be effective January 1st, I would assume, then, and the Mayor's budget proposal to this Council next week, that there be certain monies allocated and set aside for this pension?

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's right. And I can tell you that it's $160 thousand for this purpose. It starts out very low and then it builds up.

Mr. Givens:

That's one of my concerns. It was my concern Wednesday. I'm looking downstream, not at this present Councilmatic body, not at the present Administration, but other administrations that will have to bite the bullet as the editorial so spoke where it said that no Council or Mayor wanted to bite the bullet until this time. I think that's an erroneous statement. I think this Councilman and others here have wanted to bite this bullet for some years now and, hopefully, we're getting the legislative mechanism in order to do that.

So, this particular ordinance is not binding as far as the amounts of money that will be set aside?

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's right. Only the mechanism to finance it. You're bound to do it depended on what the actuarial itself --

Mr. Givens:

That's fine. We're bound to do it, but who is going to pay and what are they going to pay and how are they going to pay it? Is it going to be heavy tax increases on the people in future years when, in fact, this thing has been steamrolling for some forty years right now?

I asked, and I make reference to this particular chart right here where we have a ballooning effect in the year 1998, some Council, some Mayor, is going to have to come up with sizeable amounts of money, some $36 or $37 million, 1982-type dollars that we're talking about. That could be $60 or $70 million if the inflation would be a normal eight, nine or ten percent.

Mr. Schmeiser:

This assumes inflation, however, of eight percent a year.

Mr. Givens:

Eight percent a year? And you're saying that they'll be paying what?

Mr. Schmeiser:

About $33 million would be required in 1998.

Mr. Givens:

I'm reading in the newspaper where they're saying 1982 dollars. So, someone was mislead here. Either you're telling us what you're actually telling us or what was briefed to the media that was a 1982 dollar that they were talking about when they said there would be some $45 million due in the year 2010.

Mr. Schmeiser:

When they say that, they're saying that the assumption was made that there would be eight percent salary escalation each year, and that our investment earnings would be eight percent as well.

Mr. Givens:

At that point, however, pensions demands would skyrocket by the year 2010, the City would need nearly $45 million (in 1982 dollars) to fund its pension system. Five years later that would jump to some $60 million.

It's a point that I have and I think anybody that deals in any type of financing is going to say, and it's not that I am in disagreement with what we're trying to do here. I'm trying to look down that tunnel of payments ten, fifteen or twenty years from now, so that the past Councils and the past Mayors did to us what they're doing today. If you're saying that we're paying only $160 thousand, how in the world can you only pay $160 thousand when you have a $350 million liability? All we're doing is rolling the snowball down the hill and when it gets ten, fifteen, twenty years down there, how are they going to pay it?

Mr. Schmeiser:

We're not paying off the $350 million. We're starting to fund the new hires in 1983 so that eventually everybody will be fully funded.

Mr. Givens:

I submit to you, Mr. Finance Chairman, that we're doing it in the wrong way then. What we should do is know what our total liability is and divide that by some thirty years if we think we can pay it off in a thirty year period if, in fact, that will be the thing that will increase our bond rating when we go to buy twenty and thirty and forty and fifty million dollars worth of bonds each year. We're not doing it the right way. If I were to get the bond people, who this is directly affecting because of our bond rating, and come down here to brief this Council on the best way to set up this particular payment so that we get the highest rating possible, do you think they would do it the same way?

Mr. Schmeiser:

With all due respect, Mr. Givens, we have talked to the bond rating agencies and they like this plan very much. They think it's the best we could possibly afford to do.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like to hear that from someone. And I'd like to see it in writing.

Mr. Schmeiser:

I don't know that they'll give it to us in writing but I'll be glad to have you talk to the bond rating agencies.

Mr. Givens:

If you could give me some of the bond agencies then I'll ask them to put that in writing. I have a hard time buying that particular hypothesis.

Secondly, there are several commissions. One is the National Council on Government Accounting where they're trying to get grips on this. When you get a bunch of bookkeepers in there and actuarials in there, they can juggle those figures around so we laypeople who have a very difficult, in fact even the bonds people up there in New York and other places like Philadelphia, have a very hard time wondering what these municipalities are coming up with. What eggs are really going to be in this basket in the year 1990 and the year 2000 and the year 2010? They're trying to bring grips to this. Are you aware of what they're trying to do as far as putting this into plain English so that everyone understands it?

Mr. Schmeiser:

You're talking about the National Council of Government Accounts? They're making a study as to how to state the pension liability and I'm not familiar with what their deliberations are. However, the net effect will be, we're told, that will reduce our liability. In other words, our liability is simply a question of theory of how it's stated and they're going to suggest another method which will reduce the $350 million.

Mr. Givens:

When are they going to come out with these —

Mr. Schmeiser:

Supposedly very soon.

Mr. Givens:

Hasn't the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania commissioned also —

Mr. Schmeiser:

He has a Pension Recovery Commission studying this problem because this problem is not one of Pittsburgh's alone, but many other municipalities in Pennsylvania have the problem.

Mr. Givens:

You have two major studies from two major institutions, one, the State of Pennsylvania, the other from the National Council of Government Accounting. Why didn't we wait for that thirty days to go by, or forty or fifty or sixty days to go by, knowing that we're going to set aside $160 thousand, why didn't we wait to get their counsel and their wisdom on how to set up one of these systems?

Mr. Schmeiser:

Neither will tell us how to set up a system.

Mr. Givens:

I agree. But I mean to get their counsel and wisdom as to the best way to do it —

Mr. Schmeiser:

They're not going to do that either. The Governor's Pension Recovery Commission should recommend a way which the State can help. That's what we're looking for there. Just as George Jacoby mentioned on Wednesday, the Governor had a tax commission which gave the report a year and a half ago and nothing has happened. It's very likely that once this commission gives their report there will be no action for a long time, if ever.

Mr. Givens:

The fact that we are speaking for some five thousand employees that are on right now, plus those that are retired, I'd have to look into the actuarial, probably another five thousand people from all walks of life, we're talking about maybe ten or twelve thousand City employees that were going into a pension plan that's going to be somewhat binding, in fact damn binding, for the next thirty some years plus. I wonder why we're rushing into it.

For example, why didn't you include language in here where we could put our contribution, that is, the employees of the City of Pittsburgh, could put their contributions into this pension fund and would be in such a fashion that it would be tax deductible to us?

Mr. Schmeiser:

We're still working on that. That's still a possibility. As we said, this legislation doesn't speak to funding. We are working on the possibility of making the employees contribution tax deductible.

Mr. Givens:

I know about the funding itself, but in the actual payment, the monies going into this particular account will be coming out of the payroll deduction from each individual --

Mr. Schmeiser:

But it has nothing to do with this legislation, Mr. Givens. This is simply to set up the trust.

Michelle Madoff:

Which is irrevocable.

Mr. Schmeiser:

Which is irrevocable.

Mr. Givens:

Yes. But in setting up the trust, you're saying that the tax exemption status comes out of the contribution and not out of how you set up the trust.

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's right.

Mr. Givens:

You can set up the trust and have no language in there --

Mr. Schmeiser:

The trust is going to receive money from both the City of Pittsburgh and the employees and the fact that we can make the employees contribution tax deductible would certainly be beneficial. And we're working on that.

Mr. Givens:

You know, Ron, when I speak to other people who have pensions, the unions, etc., and they're already doing this, I wonder what we've been doing. Why haven't we been doing this? Where is the legislation to come down to make this an instrument so our people can be protected like anyone else and gain from our own tax structure? When is this legislation going to come forth?

Mr. Schmeiser:

As I said, we're working on it. We can't do everything at one time, Mr. Givens. We're working on it. But I'm aware of that possibility and the actuary is aware of it and we're working on it.

Mr. Givens:

That is the actual money that we put in to equate that of what the City is putting in. We can get tax exempt. And also, you can set up tax exempt, like an IRA, right within our own system, right within our own pension system, that we can make contributions to that. And again, to the employers of the City of Pittsburgh, that will be tax exempt again. Otherwise we're not being hit twice. We're not being taxed on this money and then when we actually get to spend that money in our later years that we're going to be taxed on it again.

So, there's twice that we can do this and I submit to you, as our Finance Director, to give this Council a report as to where you are today and when are you going to get this in so it will be done in a timely fashion that will give our employees the benefits that other pensions plans have right now.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, in all fairness, all these questions were answered Wednesday. If you have something new, alright. But if not, we ought to move on.

Mr. Givens:

These were not answered in Wednesday's session. Some of them were and some of them were not.

The Chair:

You raised the very same questions Wednesday, Dick.

Mr. Givens:

I still have great concerns that we set up a trust and we don't say how much money we're going to put into that trust.

Mr. Schmeiser:

We can't because the facts change each year.

Mr. Givens:

I appreciate that. But the trouble is, I cannot sit here today and say that $160 thousand in 1982 is going to equate out to unfunding this liability of some $350 million that we have outstanding. I've been hearing that same figure, $350 million, for a number of years. In fact, every time we get a new actuarial, it seems to jump dramatically. I wonder if we went out and hired a new actuarial after this is over with, it will probably jump again.

I still have problems with the big ballooning effect that we have in the year 1998 and I think that should be addressed by this present Council. I don't think we're going to be putting an adequate amount of money in to do what I feel has to be done and to give the security that we need for our bond rating. I don't think this is going to change our bond rating one iota for several years to come until, like them, when they have the money in hand, when they know we have the money in hand, then and only then, will our bond rating, I feel, be effective.

Mr. Schmeiser:

I'm not projecting our bond rating will increase once we do this, but I think it will help. There are many other factors which make up our bond rating, our population decline, our debt, etc. However, I am optimistic about an eventual upgrading of our bond rating.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Schmeiser, you know I hold you in high esteem, so if I read from something that looks familiar, it is not to open up any old wounds but to address the issue. I would like to read a paragraph from an article, a guest editorial, that I want in the record, dated I, July 21, 1981. With all due respect, say that that only left you a year to come up with a plan and obviously you were working very hard on something. But what I had said at the time was the City's Municipal Police and Fire Pensions Plans are the equivalent of a Three Mile Island threat for City taxpayers. The Johnson and Higgins Actuary Report and the pension plan states that as of December 1, 1980, the three plans had an unfunded liability of $346 thousand plus. An unfunded liability is a future obligation for which no money has been set aside for eventual payment. The state of the City's pension plan is a large part of the reason for the City's high cost of borrowing per credit rating.

My questions are very simple. You can't say what is going to be put into the fund. This is merely a mechanism. You don't know how much of that $350 million will be put in over the next thirty years. Will we indeed cover all of it in the next thirty years? You don't know that. You don't know who will be Mayor.

Mr. Schmeiser:

What will happen is that the present employees who are presently unfunded will receive their pensions on a pay as you go basis. When they finally cease getting payments, they'll be replaced by new employees who will be fully funded. That's why it will take thirty years.

Michelle Madoff:

We don't know if we'll have a diminishing number of employees at the rate things are going. So you don't really know that the plan as even the premise will, indeed, cover the amount —

Mr. Schmeiser:

All we can do is make assumptions.

Michelle Madoff:

So, what we're doing is making a concerted effort.

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's right.

Michelle Madoff:

That's right. I have a couple of questions. The thing I'm really concerned about is that what we're doing, and I think you agree, is that we're putting the burden on today's taxpayers for the sins of previous neglect. The thing I'm concerned with is what happens if, and it is very likely, the way I see $160 thousand this year, that's an eyedrop in the bucket and our overall budget which is going to be over $250 million, that's really no money. With all due respect, Councilman Givens should get full credit, no one else, because I think his holdout on some votes is why that million dollars was put towards the unfunded pension.

In this article, again, I stated that, according to Mr. Schmeiser, the great panacea Renaissance will generate only $4.5 million in revenue. Have you re-evaluated that figure?

Mr. Schmeiser:

Yes. It's over $8 million.

Michelle Madoff:

So it's no longer $4.5 million. You now think it will be $8 million.

Mr. Schmeiser:

That figure was prepared by the Planning Department, if you look at it more closely. Secondly, our tax rates have increased so it's presently over $8 million.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay so it's over $8 million and also some of the things you've instituted for which you should really be patted on the back is that local tax thing which has generated more money than you thought it would generate.

But getting back to the major issue. My great concern is two-fold. If we're going to have a declining population because a tax burden becomes so great, who is going to pay it? The rest of us here like you and myself are going to be the ones picking up this tremendous burden. I've spoken to a number of people who say that if taxes continue the way they are they're just going to the suburbs. I can give you one very classic example, I won't say who but it's somebody I got an apartment for outside of the City, is not coming back. I not only lost the taxes but I lost a vote because the taxes in Wilkins Township are much less and the services are just as good.

Where do you see our taxes going after this year? Do you see any astronomical increase in taxes?

Mr. Schmeiser:

I don't want to comment right now.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not talking about this year because that would be unfair, and besides, $160 thousand is peanuts.

Mr. Schmeiser:

There's no question that the City must have some relief from commuters. Hopefully, the Mayor will finally have some success with the State Legislature to get help from the commuters. We have the tax exempt property problem that we're looking at.

Michelle Madoff:

So you think there will be some alternative innovative ways of raising some funds?

Mr. Schmeiser:

We must have it.

Michelle Madoff:

Such as buying some of the equipment for the City that is gently worn? Repossessions which would save us enough to pay all your unfunded pension. We could save ten or fifteen million a year and put it in.

One of the things that I think you didn't touch on, with all due respect, is the fact that our bond rating, of course, would be lowered if we're in better fiscal situation. You've talked to me privately, and I incidentally did talk to some actuaries out of town this weekend. I couldn't find anybody in the City willing to come forward and be heard because of the fact that they are putting their necks in the guillotine, they feel they would jeopardize their positions. I took the report to two actuaries in a major firm in Washington, went over it Saturday morning, and I must tell you that they thing it is not a bad plan. I don't think I'm qualified to make that judgment so I talked to some people that were.

However, the one thing that I really object to very strenuously is that I am a novice and in July of '81 I talked about the unfunded pensions. I've only had a year of accounting. Many people on this Council, namely Dick Givens and Mr. Stone and others, have addressed the issue of the unfunded pensions. And you've only been here a short time and you've had other major problems so you couldn't really address yourself to it. Why can Mr. Givens and the rest of Council not get the new actuary report? What's holding that up?

Mr. Schmeiser:

The fiscal year of the pension plan ends June 30 and it's not ready. It can't be ready by October 1st. They just can't get the work done by then.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay, Mr. Schmeiser, even though the work isn't done, you could probably get a letter resume that says essentially what's in it.

Mr. Schmeiser:

They have that.

Michelle Madoff:

We didn't get it. He asked for it and he's entitled to it. The thing that bothers me, and it has nothing to do with you because your's is not to wonder why. Essentially, with all due respect, you're hired help. You can't get fired by the constituents unless they don't elect you next time. You may run for office at some point.

The thing that bothers me is the same thing that happened on the vote for the Stadium. I would have voted exactly the same way. But I think the people felt, the people were extremely hostile to me, that I voted with the Administration because I wanted something. I don't vote with anybody. I vote my conscience. But I think when you push something through on a Wednesday and get a vote immediately and then on Monday you vote final vote, the public perception is that of being railroaded.

There's no doubt in everybody's mind that we've got to do something about pension funds. You said that the actual details will be worked out. But you are saying that it is irrevocable.

And that is the thing that concerns me greatly. So, I can only go with the best information that I have and the best information I have from actuaries that I've consulted with is that we just have to go because the City is going to be in such terrible trouble. But I think I would not want to be Mayor five years from now faced with the horrendous burden of unfunded pensions and the bonds that have to be paid back.

On one last note, Mr. President. There's no doubt with the deteriorating infrastructure of this City, the bond money that we're going to go out and borrow, and we're going to have to borrow, because I have been working for about five or six months on our water situation, the deteriorating water lines. That money is not going to be used to pay unfunded pensions. It's going to be used to pay our bond issues. To pay our debt service. I don't consider essentially, I'm taking this as separate and apart from our regular debt service, and it's going to be a horrendous situation. I don't know how you plan to deal with an eroding population. How are you going to woo people back into the City unless somebody, somewhere, takes a very firm stand, and I think Councilman Flaherty has said that we've got to start playing hardball. When communities want something from us, we want something from them. If we're going to wait to get enough votes in order to get the freeloaders who live in the suburbs who pay us ten dollars head tax and leave the burden of the eighty traffic police and all the deficits of the Zoo, the Aviary, the Conservatory, etc., etc., and then I have to listen to our Finance Chairman say, "You're not going to pay for something that we own, it's our property?" It's a Catch 22. At some point you have to say no. You have to play hardball. And I want to see this administration start playing hardball because the burden on the public, you're not going to have a ball to play with. You're not going to have any people here. You're not going to have anybody to lead.

Mr. Stone:

I just want to correct some things here because I think we're getting the wrong interpretation. First of all, the hundred and sixty, Ron, is to fund the present year in the uniform pensioners.

Secondly, there's $3.2 million that came from the railroad property added to it. There's also the $1 million that came from City Council's budget this year. Plus the additional thing in order to, down the line, prevent this thing from getting out of line, there is what is called the Crunch Fund or Trust No. 2 which hopefully has some investments and re-investments which hopefully when it starts going up in Trust 1, the obligation, Trust 2 will flow over and try to minimize that increase.

The other one is, are we obligated to pay and the answer is yes. By the best information that the actuaries have based on an eight percent salary increase, based on the amount of employee turnover, based on the amount of return on the monies, those figures are of good estimate as to what it is. The exact dollar no, but round figures neighborhood, they're in that requirement. The one million we put up this time was part of the tax increase of 1982. That's how we were able to put that one million in. So, we had to tax in order to get it and those who voted for the budget helped to get that $1 million there to help that pension fund.

But as far as this particular fund is concerned, as Finance Chairman, I'd be remiss if we didn't say at this point that it's been long overdue and as I said last Wednesday, this is probably one of the most responsible decisions made by the administration or administrations in these last ten years at least. This is something that should be done. It's a responsible decision and it's totally unfair to the employees to have them expect somewhere along the line that there's going to be money to pay the pension when there's not. This has to be done. We have also to face the alternatives — leave it alone and let some other administration handle it and that thing we all love, the City goes broke a much faster cycle that everyone seems to ignore while constantly the problems are increasing every time we go out on the bond issue.

I think everyone who has had anything to do with the particular matter ought to be commended for the diligence and the responsibility and, I might add, maturity in developing this thing.

Mr. Givens:

Just one question that I had omitted from my original testimony. The trust in this particular case is Pittsburgh National Bank. How did you arrive at this particular bank and become entrust? Did they have the highest returns in the last ten or fifteen years?

Mr. Schmeiser:

They have the trust that was established with the contribution of Penn Central notes. Of course, regarding investment management, they have a very good track record.

Mr. Givens:

Have you reviewed what they have done on their pension trust?

Mr. Schmeiser:

Yes.

Mr. Givens:

I would like to see some figures on that, if I might, from not only Pittsburgh National Bank, but from Mellon and Equitable, I think about four of the five major banks over the last five or ten years, to see what they have been doing in fact in this record.

Also, I think we have one of the largest insurance companies in the world right here and that's Equitable. I would like to see their figures as to how they invest on their pensions. You go into a trust because it's very hard to break.

Mr. Schmeiser:

But the investment manager can be changed. The trustee is difficult to change.

Mr. Givens:

I know. You mean Pittsburgh National Bank can be changed to another bank?

Mr. Schmeiser:

To handle the funds about the trust fee will remain Pittsburgh National Bank.

Mr. Givens:

I hope the reason we are giving it to a bank is because we don't need to bring in a financial investment company that is going to syphon off a particular percentage of the interest that is going to be made on this money. If Pittsburgh National or any other institution is doing their job, we don't have to bring in one of these financial institutions. All we need is a report from the various banking institutions in our local area, and I'd like to keep it here locally, and Equitable Life Insurance Company, etc., and see how they're are doing. But the thing is, as I can recall the last Governor of this state, Milton Shapp, had a very serious problem with Mellon Bank and he tried to pull a member, at one time the State employees' trust, away from Mellon Bank. He could not do it because it was invested for years and years and years to come. You just can't change this downstream. Its too had this information wasn't before this Council. We are making a financial commitment here to all of the employees of the City of Pittsburgh for thirty some years.

Mr. Stone:

I think the trust fund tells you you can change it. They have that clause in there.

Mr. Givens:

I didn't interrupt you, Mr. Stone. I would like to see some information here from our Finance Director as to why we are putting this money into Pittsburgh National. Is this the best firm in this area, the best firm in the nation to invest this money? I like Pittsburgh National Bank. I have my bank account with Pittsburgh National.

Mr. Schmeiser:

In our judgment, it is. We wouldn't go to Equibank because they are already handling our municipal funds. We'd want to split it up.

Mr. Givens:

I don't care if we split it up. I want to know the best return. I asked for that information. If I don't receive this like I haven't received the actuarial and other things, I'm going to be getting mighty disturbed on this Council. You made a statement saying that we can't get this actuarial on such a time. I say that's bull. We asked for it October 1, we should get it October 1. I don't give a heck if they use the calendar year, fiscal year and Egypt year. I don't care what year they use, but they can get that to us by October 1 and I want that report by October 1.

I'll tell you another thing, Mr. Schmeiser, when that bill comes before this Council, I am not going to make payment on it. I don't give a hell who they have to come to. If I can't get that information in a timely fashion, I'm not going to pay the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Schmeiser, I think something needs clarifying, certainly in my mind and I would hope in the minds of anybody that might be listening or tainted from the media. Because you are going into this venture and because we may or may not vote for it depending on how Council decides, that is not in any way going to guarantee that the money will be there, will it? If we have a recession that's worse and ends up in a depression and we lose citizens and there are no taxes and we don't have the money to put into this unfunded pension, you have no control over this, but there's no, excuse the expression, gives. You just don't know that you're going to have this money. Am I correct? You are not a soothsayer.

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's going to require a legal opinion.

Michelle Madoff:

But you're not a soothsayer. What I'm saying is you have no way of knowing, that even if we put this into operation and that's what you think is the best workable thing as of what you project at the moment with the best technical input and your calculated risk and people who have some expertise. But you still have no guarantees. Is that correct?

Mr. Schmeiser:

It doesn't guarantee it's not going to strap the City but I think we still will have to make the payments.

Michelle Madoff:

Nobody is questioning that. But you have no guarantee that the City will still not have dire fiscal problems. Is that correct?

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's for sure.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to say that because Mr. Stone spends all his time translating for everybody. You said what he had to say and he translated it. Mr. Givens spoke and he translated it. I speak and he translates it. And he says if we don't do this, the City is going to go down the tubes. Well, even if we do do it, the City can go down the tubes. Thank you. I rest my case.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of clarification, if I might. On 1826, at Wednesday's meeting we passed an amendment to amend both of the trust agreements under Article III 3-1(d), d would be added. The information I have in front of me, I guess, is a representation of what the actual agreement would look like. Only Agreement No. 1 has been amended. Agreement No. 2 has not been amended.

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's an oversight. It should have been amended.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. Also, in Agreement No. 1 where it is amended, I guess these are typographical errors but it should read "investments shall not be in initiated or concluded with corporate entities, public or private which are owned", the word are has been left out, "manage or otherwise under jurisdiction of the Republic of South Africa", and Republic should be capitalized.

The Chair:

Would you make that notation,
Mr. Clerk.

Also,

Bill No. 1827

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 58, approved February 4, 1982, entitled, 'Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements between the City of Pittsburgh along with the School District of Pittsburgh and the County of Allegheny, and Real Estate Appraisers, Certified Public Accountants and Economists, for professional and consulting services in connection with tax assessment cases, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the authorized amount from an amount not to exceed $35,000.00 to an amount not to exceed $50,000.00 and providing for the payment thereof."

Michelle Madoff:

What does it mean? Three of us are asking what it means. What are you saying? We'd all like these nice things to happen. Where's the money going to come from?

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, would you care to explain the resolution to the young lady?

Mr. Robinson:

I think that the resolution is self explanatory.

The Chair:

I also do.

Michelle Madoff:

Bill, I don't think there's anybody here that disagrees that this should obviously a course to protect the people who have not. But I think what we need to go along with this is some innovative suggestions and what we can do to make these things come about. I have one I'd like to give you after the meeting.

Mr. Stone presents

Bill No. 1918 WHEREAS, The South Side Community Council was founded in 1962 as the South Pittsburgh Development Council to serve the community needs of the residents of the 16th and 17th Wards of the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, The South Side Community Council has been instrumental in developing leadership in the neighborhood and counts among its history of presidents such dedicated men and women as: Otis C. Norton, Nicholas R. Stone, Dr. Bosanka Evosevic,

Margaret Young, Mary Jane Schmalstieg, Elaine Sadowski and Delores Mead; and

WHEREAS, The South Side Community Council has played a major role in securing for the community such important projects and programs as a highrise for the elderly at Carson Towers and a second to be built on the site of the former Morse School; a new Birmingham Bridge to replace the outdated Brady Street Bridge; improvements to numerous recreation facilities in the neighborhood, including Armstrong Playground; Ormsby Playground and Pool, South Side Park, The Mission Street Little League Field and Monongahela Parklet; and has actively supported the construction of Riverside Park; and

WHEREAS, The South Side Community Council in its active concern for the total well-being of the residents of South Side has actively planned, promoted and supported such important health-related programs as preventive health clinics, immunization clinics for pre-schoolers, a dental clinic for young children at Brashear Association, Health-O-Ramas and Heart Screenings, and the Envelope of Life Program; and

WHEREAS, The South Side Community Council has earned the respect of governmental bodies and agencies on all levels: City, County, State and National through its political awareness and concern; and

WHEREAS, The South Side Community Council will celebrate its 20th Anniversary at a dinner dance at St. John the Evangelist Hall on Saturday, November 6, 1982.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the City Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby:

1. Publicly acknowledge the great deeds and cooperation of the South Side Community Council of this City and to the South Side Community; and
2. Express their gratitude, good wishes and congratulations to the South Side Community Council on its 20th Anniversary.

Mr. Stone moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. I think very seriously, there was a whereas left out. Whereas, Mr. Robert Rade Stone is a representative who lives in the South Side.

But on a more serious note. Dr. Bosanka Evosevic, who is a very dedicated worker in this City, who has run for Council several times, has passed away and I think we ought to offer a moment of silence for her and I think a copy of this ought to be sent to her mother. I think that would be a very good idea.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I'm sure that even those of us who were talking to actuaries out of town this weekend caught up on our reading and I was absolutely delighted and thrilled to see that the gentlemen who were for the self-service stations who came into my office right after the vote, the one that Councilman O'Malley so forcefully tried to put forward and I think it's a great victory for you Councilman O'Malley, but when they came into the office I suggested that they go to court, I looked for an attorney for them, they found their own, I might add, and I think it's a great victory for those four of us who voted in favor of the self-service stations. But I must bring to your attention, if you have not read it already, that Judge Zappala postponed the effective date of this ruling for 180 days to give Council time to enact regulations governing self-service stations. He threatened to enjoin the City from interfering with self-service stations if Council fails to act within that time. Now, I know there's ten day in which Marv Fein, who is an old and dear friend of my, an old attorney with the environmental movement, is going to go back and appeal this, of course wasting taxpayers' money, which I object to very strenuously. But be that as it may, we have 180 days now, and I think Councilman O'Malley, you might want to come back with some of the suggestions you made originally for protecting the City because it's my concerted opinion that this is going to be upheld in the Courts and I think we just take what you've already done, all that in-depth work and very effective work, and let's go with it. Otherwise, this Council will be in contempt.

The Chair:

Okay.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might. Last Thursday, October 28, I had occasion to attend the Fairywood Citizens Council Second Annual Awards Dinner and Mrs. Masloff was also there. At that dinner, the organization presented to me for Council a plaque and I'd like to read the plaque if I might. It says, "Award of Appreciation to Pittsburgh City Council for community support toward revitalization of Fairywood, presented by Fairywood Citizens Council Inc., Second Annual Awards Dinner, October 28, 1982, Mildred M. Henderson, Chairwoman, Lutul M. Love, Sr., Executive Director".

This plaque is presented to all members of Council. All members of Council have their names inscribed on the plaque and I think it is an example of the kind of reward, if you want to call it that, that this Council receives from time to time when we work together in cooperation with community groups and organizations.

Our Planning Department and the Mayor's Office also received similar plaques and I think it would be appropriate to hang this somewhere in our Council Chambers so that all can see. Thank you.

Mr. Stone moved to adopt the minutes of Monday, October 25, 1982.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Stone

Council adjourned.

No. 43

Municipal Record

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON Asst. City Clerk
Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, November 8, 1982

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The Chair:

Ladies and gentlemen and Members of Council, as you all know the first order of business today will be the reading of the 1983 budget. I wonder if Mr. Woods and Sophie Masloff would escort the Mayor in and if Mr. O'Malley and Mr. Robinson would escort Mrs. Caliguiri in, please.

Ladies and gentlemen, it gives me great pleasure to introduce to you the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh to unveil his 1983 budget. Mayor Caliguiri.

THE MAYOR'S STATE OF THE CITY ADDRESS

Mayor Richard S. Caliguiri:

Mr. Council President, Members of City Council, department heads, employees and citizens of Pittsburgh.

In presenting the 1983 Operating Budget today, I do so with mixed feelings.

On the one hand, I am pleased with the encouraging results of the fiscal policies that were developed and implemented by this administration as I am sure City Council and the taxpayers of this City will be.

On the other hand, my enthusiasm is tempered by the ominous decline of industry in the Pittsburgh area and its potential impact on the enocomy.

The almost-daily reports of industrial plant closings and layoffs is not only worrisome to those directly affected but also to every public administrator in this area.

Its imminent threat to the economy - most particularly to the economic stability of this City - cannot be ignored or underestimated.

During the preparation of this budget, the plight of the steel industry, its thousands of unemployed steelworkers and their families was a recurring concern.

So much so, that this budget message will address itself not only to the immediate public economic issues facing this community - as reflected in the 1983 budget - but also to those private sector concerns over the future of the steel industry and how we might best deal with them.

For the moment, let me direct our attention to the status of the 1983 Operating Budget.

The news is good - we will be able to balance next year's budget without a tax increase.

This is no small achievement given the precarious state of the national economy and our own stagnated tax base.

It is all the more impressive in light of a recent Congressional study which disclosed that 59 per cent of the cities surveyed are operating at a deficit and that most will raise taxes next year.

Our good fortune can be attributed to several positive factors created, in the main, by revenue-enhancing fiscal policies established by this administration.

Specifically these policies involved a more deliberate and aggressive approach to tax collection procedures.

The rigid implementation of these policies has paid off in substantial new tax revenues that were most helpful in creating a much-needed $16.2 million year-end surplus and in allowing a balanced budget without a tax increase possible.

Let me review for you some of the areas where sound fiscal management was rewarded:

... several years ago, I instructed our Finance Director to step up enforcement of our tax collection procedures so that evasion of City taxes - which we knew existed - would not only be reduced, but virtually eliminated. The direct result of this was the development and processing of the mandatory income tax form PGH 40, which proved to be most successful - adding close to $1-1/2 million to the City treasury and that much or more to the school district.

... the City Law Department, in conjunction with the Finance Department, intensified its efforts to collect outstanding tax receivables - particularly in the area of business taxes resulting in additional revenue gains.

... the Finance Department stepped up its Treasurer's sales on tax-delinquent properties by increasing the frequency of the sales. This effort was not intended to assume ownership of such properties but to alert property owners of their past due balances. For those caught in the current economic squeeze - those unable to pay their taxes in full - a liberal installment pay plan was initiated.

... the City also instituted more sophisticated cash management procedures and, with the cooperation of City Council, accelerated Withholding Tax collections from employers last year. Earlier we had established a lock-box system with local banks resulting in checks being deposited in the City's favor on a one-day basis. These measures are now paying off and have contributed to higher cash balances for the City throughout the year. This and the higher interest rates prevailing during the first half of the year resulted in a significant increase in interest earnings - much more than we anticipated in our 1982 estimates.

... Traffic Court's crackdown on traffic tag scofflaws added additional revenue.

On the expenditure side of the budget, this administration has continued its effective cost controls over hiring and in other areas of municipal spending.

While we can, with justification, derive satisfaction over the success of such fiscal management, we dare not delude ourselves into believing that such fiscal magic can be worked endlessly.

This has been an admonition of mine in the past and bears constant repeating.

It is a depressing economic fact that every gain we seem to make in revenues is offset by increased costs or eroded by inflation.

The same holds true for the 1983 Operating Budget which totals $254.7 million - approximately $25.3 million above 1982 or an increase of approximately 11 per cent.

This growth can be attributed to a number of increased costs such as:

- ... $7.7 million for debt service
- ... $1 million for Workers Compensation
- ... $900,000 for anticipated court-ordered real estate tax assessment rebates
- ... $3.9 million for employees

- health insurance
- ... $650,000 for group life insurance program
- ... $5.5 million for unsettled labor contracts, specifically police, fire and school crossing guards
- ... $3.8 million for salary increases already negotiated with other city collective bargaining units - estimated at approximately 7.3 per cent.

The 1983 budget also includes the necessary funding of pensions for all new police and fire department employees in accordance with the trust agreements recently approved by City Council.

To bridge the gap between expenses and estimated income we will use the $16.2 million surplus with the balance to be provided through moderate increases in 1983 estimates of major revenue sources with which we feel are comfortable.

It should be noted that the surplus figure does not include the $3 million windfall the City realized in transfer taxes from the sale of the U.S. Steel Building.

I intend to propose that this additional revenue be used to help pay off our $3.8 million note balance relative to the real estate tax refund problem we encountered last year.

I want to stress that this is a rigid hold-the-line budget, shorn of any frills - one that does not entertain the introduction of any costly new or frivolous programs.

No, we cannot afford to assume costly social programs abandoned so callously by the Regan Administration.

Nor does it, unfortunately, allow for any consideration of tax rate reductions.

Remember that in 1984 we will be facing similar cost increases and that we may not have a budget surplus to cushion the impact.

The only substantive additions in personnel that I have made in this budget are for staff positions to direct my recently-announced Task Force on Women, for additional help in the Finance Department for administering our tax enforcement program and the addition of Basic Life Support personnel in our Emergency Medical Services Department.

We have sufficient need for our tax monies in vital areas of city-wide improvements and services without venturing beyond our financial limitations.

Not the least of these needs is our chronic infrastructure maintenance and rehabilitation problem.

With each passing year the deterioration of our bridges, roads and water lines poses greater concern which is compounded by the severe cutbacks in federal funding.

Since taking office in 1977, my administration has appropriated nearly $300 million for infrastructure improvement, including $54.5 million for 1983.

A considerable investment for sure, but one that only scratches the surface of projected needs.

Just a few months ago, I met with President Reagan to set forth the most critical needs of our cities and infrastructure-financing was near the top of the list.

I suggested the establishment of a public works job program that would serve a two-fold purpose - ease the unemployment spiral while saving our crumbling roads and bridges.

What effect my plea and those of other mayors in attendance had on the President has never been revealed, but the problem still cries out for solution. It would appear, at this point, that local government will again be left to seek its own remedy.

Certainly this administration has not ignored its responsibilities in this respect. I do not intend to pass along to succeeding administrations the kind of problems with which I have had to contend - whether they involve infrastructure, pension funding, Workers Compensation liabilities and the like without making some responsible effort to control or resolve them. I believe this Council, by its actions, shares these views.

Along these lines, I want to advise that in the near future, I will be introducing legislation to engage consultants to study the condition of our water distribution system and the feasibility of creating a Water Authority which would assume the functions of our present Water Department. The Authority would have the ability to finance needed improvements - independent of the City with the resulting possibility of lower interest rates for both the Authority and the City.

And while we all welcome the lower interest rates we have enjoyed the past few months - with the fervent hope they will continue to decline - over the short term the City will realize lower investment earnings which will put further pressure on the 1983 budget.

However, this would be more than offset by the City's ability to finance future infrastructure improvements at more reasonable rates, which will benefit budgets in later years.

Even now the Finance Department is studying the possibility of refinancing a portion of our past bond issues. If this is feasible, the City could realize considerable savings in future debt service expenditures.

I would also point out that the sound fiscal practices my administration and City Council have adopted could have a salutary effect on the City's bond ratings which we all know have experienced reductions in recent years. Because we are taking corrective action on some of the major issues having a negative impact on our bond rating, we can, at the very least, expect to prevent a further downgrading in our rating - and hopefully, if the economy of the Pittsburgh area improves, we might look forward to an upgrading in the next few years.

While the annual presentation of the budget deals primarily with the financial projections for the new year, it also provides an opportunity to assess the current progress of our on-going Renaissance II programs and what lies ahead in the year-to-year fight for economic survival.

While we have managed to produce a no-tax-increase balanced budget - and most welcome it is - the short-range accomplishment should be put in proper perspective against the City's inability to expand its tax base.

The measures taken to prevent the imposition of taxes in 1983 can be likened to so many others developed in the past, which in reality are only stop-gap, finger-in-the-dyke fiscal reprieves.

City government continues to defray the cost of vital services and expensive public facilities not only for its 400,000-plus residents, but for more than five times that number who use and rely on the central city as their place of employment, to serve their medical and educational needs as well as for social, cultural and recreational purposes.

It is totally unreasonable and unfair to expect so few to carry such an inequitable tax burden for so many.

I do not intend to relent in my efforts to get this message across and to seek some resolution of the inequity through broad-based tax legislation.

Another untenable situation is the sizeable portion of tax exempt property in the City - approximately 40 per cent. These institutions service the entire region and benefit not only from tax-free city services, but by being centrally located within the City.

They, too, should pay their share and this administration is pledged to find a method whereby some contribution for services rendered is made by these institutions.

The taxpayers of this city pay a substantial price for maintaining its traditional role as a center for commerce, culture, business and as the third largest corporate headquarters City in the nation.

In addition to the escalating costs in our Operating Budget, over $500 million has been appropriated for capital improvements over the next six years including $119.5 million for 1983 - a massive outlay of tax dollars by Pittsburgh residents not only for their own benefit, mind you, but for the benefit of the entire metropolitan area.

And to further solidify Pittsburgh's reputation as a major sports center, the City assumed the responsibility of operating and maintaining Three Rivers Stadium with the assurance that the Steelers and Pirates will remain a part of Pittsburgh and to preserve the economic benefits we derive from such sports activities.

Certainly, there is every reason to give more than lip-service support to this City - a City that maintains its fiscal integrity in a period of national economic turmoil - a City that exudes progress.

Renaissance II - initiated and implemented by this administration - continues to be the bulwark of economic stability in the Pittsburgh area. It has been the catalyst for the retention of thousands of jobs which otherwise might have been lost through the relocation of major business interests to other cities; providing additional job opportunities for thousands of workers on projects now in various stages of construction and the promise of an estimated 30,000 new jobs opening up as Renaissance II projects are completed and others begin.

All of our Renaissance II projects are moving along according to schedule as new developments are getting underway - among them, the first phases of the development of North Shore Center and Grandview Avenue in Mt. Washington, Commerce Court at Station Square, the expansion of Children's Hospital and the initial phase of the Brighton Woods development. And just last week another major office building development was announced.

Throughout our neighborhoods we strive to provide efficient and adequate public safety, emergency medical, street rehabilitation and recreational services and programs within the prevailing economic conditions and our limited financial resources.

As I had mentioned earlier, I have established a Task Force on Women to examine the social and economic impact on the lives of Pittsburgh women in the specific areas of housing, employment and safety. The Task Force will seek to expand the role of women in our Renaissance II Program - to make maximum use of their wide-range of expertise and abilities. It is also important to give public recognition to their many voluntary contributions to the community as well as their personal accomplishments. For this effort to be successful we will need the cooperation and support of the private sector, our educational institutions and other agencies in implementing the Task Force's recommendations. From past experiences, I am sure this will be forthcoming. This past year we activated the Pittsburgh Clean City Committee - an all-out community-wide effort to clear our city of litter. It's goal is to change people's attitude about litter - to stop it before it starts.

We are making progress in our commitment to assist low and moderate income households, to revitalize neighborhoods and to maintain our housing stock through an array of housing programs designed to encourage private investment and meet the needs of those who find themselves shut out of the housing market.

During the past year, the Center for Business Assistance was created within the Department of Economic Development to serve as a one-stop center to assist and service the needs of our business community. The service is indicative of this administration's concern for business already located in the City and the need to attract new businesses -- large and small.

On balance and with all the economic hazards considered, I am encouraged by the City's economic buoyancy -- by its ability to keep its head above water in a flood of economic uncertainty.

But, as I stated, at the outset of this budget message, I cannot feel overly elated with the knowledge that heavy industry is in such desperate straits with plant closings and economic hardships being suffered by thousands of steelworkers and their families.

Historically, Pittsburgh is synonymous with steel and while the industry has experienced a gradual decline in its once dominant economic role in this area, it remains a vital staple in our economy.

Back in the '40's visionary civic and government leaders foresaw this decline and began promoting and developing a more diversified labor market relating primarily to service, research and development, educational and health-related fields to offset predictable industrial losses.

No one then, or even in the recent past, could anticipate the suddenness of the decline or its extent.

Many of the once-robust neighboring communities whose livelihood was almost solely reliant on steel production are in trouble and to a great measure their trouble is also ours.

We can ill afford to see the industry and the communities and people it has supported for generations collapse.

While we believe there is much justification for seeking regional support for the City, we also recognize that the adjacent and outlying communities are an important part of our overall economy.

To lose any portion of that would only aggravate our own financial problems.

So it is important for many reasons that some definitive action be taken to relieve the human hardships and threats to the economy prevalent today.

In my 1978 budget presentations, I had already expressed my concern over the then mounting problems of the steel industry. I joined in offering proposals to alleviate the nemesis of foreign steel imports while encouraging the modernization and rehabilitation of steel production facilities.

Despite these efforts, the situation not only persisted but got progressively worse.

This country cannot afford a triage process under which the American steel industry is permitted to disappear as a viable segment of the economy.

A series of powerful public actions are necessary to prevent continuing decline and ultimate elimination of the industry.

While I recognize that certain actions will be opposed by the free market and free trade theorists who dominate the established dogma -- if not always the actions -- of the present national administration, I would nonetheless recommend that the following steps be taken to alleviate the growing national crisis in the industry:

1. a five year moratorium prohibiting the importation of subsidized basic and specialty foreign steel in the United States — from whatever source, Europe, Asia or South America.

2. creation of a national Steel Finance Corporation to support the investment needed to modernize the American steel industry and make it technologically competitive with the industry as it may exist anywhere in the world.

The Steel Finance Corporation would be empowered to guarantee loans to the industry pledging the full faith and credit of the United States and bearing interest at the federal rate plus a minimal service charge. In addition, there would be a commitment that the new investment guaranteed by the SFC would be in our present regional centers of steel production and employment.

3. that a new federal initiative be developed for the retraining of unemployed steelworkers in other fields with a guarantee that jobs will be available when the training program has been completed.

The approach I am proposing is realistic, responsible and attainable.

It is the first step in a national initiative to rebuild the steel industry and to re-industrialize America.

It is a challenge we must accept — we cannot afford to do otherwise.

Here in Pittsburgh we are uniquely situated to take full advantage of a national effort to rebuild our basic industries.

We have a wealth of human and natural resources.

The skilled workers are here — men and women who have been part of the steel industry for generations — who require no training in the rudiments of steel production.

This area abounds with natural resources — most in close proximity of existing steel plants and we remain the center of one of the nation's largest steel markets.

It is my intention to send these recommendations to members of Congress from this area requesting their support and urging them to seek implementation of the measures.

I will also present them at the National League of Cities meeting this month in Los Angeles which I will be attending.

As we look to the new year, it is with the realization that our economic fortunes will be determined on how effectively we deal with the problems I have just reviewed — on our capability to continue to provide sound fiscal management within the City and our determination to re-establish the steel industry's vital role in our economy.

Pittsburgh has always had the resiliency and strong moral fiber to meet any challenge which has always given me reason to have faith in its future.

Significantly enough, tonight is Light Up Night in the City.

For many years, this event reflected, in a most dramatic fashion, the vitality and growth of Pittsburgh — all of the positive aspects of community life that Pittsburghers cherish.

So too will it be tonight when the new Renaissance skyline will be on display.

Let us hope that this year's light-up serves yet another purpose — to generate a renewed spirit of faith and hope in the future.

Thank you.

Dick Caliguiri
MAYOR

The Chair:

Would the same escorts take the Mayor and Mrs. Caliguiri back to the Mayor's room.

On behalf of City Council and everybody here, I would like to thank the Mayor and congratulate him on that grand budget and could we have another hand for the Mayor. I think that was a great one.

Ladies and gentlemen, we're going to get into Council's regular order of business. Those of you who care to leave can and those who care to stay are certainly welcome.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Flaherty:

I as extremely pleased to stand here today to present a resolution to Head Start, which has provided an incomparable service to the residents and to the children of the City of Pittsburgh for quite a few years.

I'm sure that all my colleagues are aware of the recent problems as far as the pending funding for Head Start and Council, approximately four weeks ago, was instrumental in attaining the funds that were essential to have the program moving and to provide the essential care for the children who's parents either work or who otherwise have to utilize their time in some other fashion.

Mr. Flaherty presents

Bill No. 1950 WHEREAS, Head Start is a comprehensive, family-oriented child development program for low-income families; and

WHEREAS, since its establishment on May 18, 1965, Head Start has provided comprehensive health, education, nutritional and social services to more than eight million preschool children and their families; and

WHEREAS, major research findings document the program's lasting positive effects on children; and

WHEREAS, October had been designated as Head Start Awareness Month and the Pittsburgh Head Start Program will join more than 8,000 Head Start Centers across the country in celebrating the accomplishments of Head Start; and

WHEREAS, the support of this community has made possible the local Head Start Program.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby proclaim November 30, 1982, as Head Start Day in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Flaherty moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Flaherty:

I would like to ask Ernie Spisak to come forward to express a few words of gratitude on behalf of Head Start.

Ernie Spisak:

On behalf of the children, families and staff of the Pittsburgh Head Start Program, I wish to thank Council President DePasquale, Councilman Flaherty and the entire City Council for their interest in Head Start, as evidenced in this proclamation designating November 30, 1982 as Pittsburgh Head Start Day.

This indeed is a significant day for Head Start, the City of Pittsburgh and the field of early childhood education. This day symbolizes the collaborative efforts of governments on the federal, state and local levels in providing services to children and their families.

Head Start Day will provide a vehicle for us to share relevant information about Head Start and the field of early childhood education to the entire Pittsburgh Community. It will provide us the opportunity to reassert our claims of importance in the lives of children and families.

Some of our children who have participated in the Head Start program have grown up. With that growth comes evidence that participation in quality early childhood programs makes importance differences in the lives of these children. Differences that were important in terms of educational progress and in the terms of financial savings to society.

Currently, we have more evidence of the importance of quality early childhood education than we do about the value of any other component of the developmental educational sequence.

At this point, the history of Head Start in the field of early childhood education, we can most assuredly hold up our heads and be proud of our programs. We are so proud that we have planned a number of activities for November 30th to exemplify our accomplishments. Beginning at 8:30 a.m. on November 30th, we will sponsor an open house for elected officials of local, state and federal governments. So, you can experience first hand the comprehensiveness and the quality of early childhood education which we provide to the children and families of Pittsburgh. Around noon, we will be planting an evergreen tree on the lawn of the Epiphany Church at Washington and Colwell Streets to symbolize the strength and ever-growing importance of Head Start and early childhood education. At 7:00 p.m. that evening, we will culminate our day's activities by sponsoring a reception at the Allegheny County Bar Association meeting room in the City-County Building. Invitations will be extended to the elected officials of the City, County, State and Federal governments, leaders of business and industry in the community of Pittsburgh and representative of labor, community organizations, universities and children's agencies within the City.

We are hopeful that you will attend all or some of these activities and that you will join us in learning more about a program which provides a caring, stimulating and quality pre-school environment for America's most valuable natural resource -- its children.

Once again, a sincere thank you for your interest in Head Start.

Michelle Madoff:

One question. I thought there was a shortage of funds, that the funds had been cut off at the tap at the federal level. What is your financial situation in this program.

Mr. Spisak:

We're functioning now at the level that was appropriated for CAP.

Michelle Madoff:

Are you short of money? Would you like to be doing more? Could you be doing more?

Mr. Spisak:

Oh, yes, we could do a lot more.

Michelle Madoff:

I thought you were going to be here saying, please give us more money.

Mr. Spisak:

That will come at the reception. Presently, we only serve one out of the five eligible children nationally. We'll discuss that later.

Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Spisak. Congratulations and good luck.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presents

Bill No. 1944 Communication from Mayor Richard Caliguiri, returning with his veto, Bill No. 1820, which supplements the Pittsburgh Code by setting forth additional regulations and procedures for the Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee.

Which was read, received and filed.

Mr. Robinson moved to override the Mayor's veto.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

Procedural matter. Did that not come into Committee, then from Committee it was referred to the Mayor for his comments? If that's the case, why should we be voting on it here today?

Michelle Madoff:

Because he vetoed it. The Mayor vetoed the bill.

Mr. Givens:

How can he veto it before this Council makes any final resolution? He vetoed it before Council made an affirmative recommendation. On that Wednesday, if I can recall, did we vote positively for that bill last Wednesday?

The Chair:

It couldn't be a veto unless we had. The Mayor has vetoed our approval.

Mr. Givens:

I'm trying to recall that if the bill came before us, it was seconded, Bill Robinson went into his discussion on it, and referred it to the Mayor for a report back in accordance to our Home Rule Charter.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, the bill was approved by Council, the Mayor has vetoed that approval. Now it's up to us to sustain or overrule that veto. Aye to sustain and nay to override.

Mr. O'Malley:

In Mayor Caliguiri's letter to this Council, he stated that Section 208 of the Home Rule Charter requires that prior establishment of a new unit of government that Council give notice to the Mayor of introduction of action on a new bill can be taken until the recommendation is received from me over a thirty day period.

I think what we should do is request an opinion from the Law Department that if we override the Mayor's veto, will we, in fact, be creating a new department. And if that is true, if we override the Mayor's veto then we're in violation of the law.

I think that's one fact that has to be clarified before the vote is taken here.

The Chair:

Do you understand the question, Marv?

Marvin Fein,
Deputy Solicitor
Law Department

If I understood the question correctly, I think that Councilman O'Malley was asking whether an override would place the City in the violation of the Home Rule Charter. As the Mayor has mentioned in his message that under Section 208 of the Home Rule Charter, there must be thirty days notice to the Mayor and the Mayor must make recommendations to this Council and the reason for that is since under the establishment of the new unit of government, the Mayor's input --

Mr. O'Malley:

Marv, the question is, if we adopted these changes, would this, in fact, create a new department of government?

Marv Fein:

Yes it would.

Mr. O'Malley:

So then we would be in violation of the Home Rule Charter.

Marv Fein:

Yes, that's correct.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, as sponsor of Bill No. 1820, I'd just like to make a couple comments if I might. If Council will remember, almost two years ago, we took action to establish in the City of Pittsburgh a program whereby we could assure minority participation and participation of women in major developments.

A part of that legislation was the creation of the Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee. At that time, when it was created, all members of Council had an opportunity to meet with the Mayor in his conference room to work out what appeared to be some difficulties in structuring this committee and giving it its particular charge. All of those items relative to what that committee is supposed to do can be found in the relevant legislation.

If you remember, Mr. President, you did appoint me as a liason from Council to that committee and I can comment on my role in that regard in another context because I don't feel it is appropriate to raise that today.

Bill 1820 is an attempt to make sure that the Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee has the procedures for establishing a quorum, make sure that it has the procedure for filling vacancies, to make sure the committee has the power to initiate actions to terminate projects not in compliance with the provisions of the ordinance, and also, that it has the power, simply, to make people comply.

It would seem to me that if Council and the Administration were serious about enacting a provision for minority participation in the City of Pittsburgh and to put that into law, certainly we would be serious about making sure that it could be enforced.

I think even Mr. Fein would agree that the original bill does not take into consideration those items which I mentioned. The original bill did not create a new department. The original bill was not referred to the Mayor pursuant to Section 208. There was no legal opinion which indicated that we should do that, and certainly I think this Council acted in good faith in establishing the initial legislation.

In as much as the Mayor did not attach to his letter of November 5 a copy of any kind of legal opinion, I can only assume that Mr. Fein is reacting to Councilman O'Malley's question relative to what actions we might take and I would say that it would be more appropriate for us to take some action in this Council to make sure that we have a written, legal, opinion on Council Bill 1820, particularly in light of the fact that the Mayor vetoed it and particularly in light of the fact that the Mayor suggests that there are some legal infirmities. It goes without out saying that I don't agree with the Mayor's assesment of the bill, nor do I agree with Mr. Fein's opinion, but certainly, reasonable people can disagree.

I'd just like to make a couple other comments if I might. I think that the issue of this being referred to Section 208 or being referred to the Mayor pursuant to Section 208, doesn't hold any water. As I said before, we are not creating a new department or a new unit of government and I don't think that section of the Home Rule Charter is applicable at all and I can give numerous examples of actions we've taken in this Council that are similar to the one that I am suggesting in 1820 and certainly we have not referred them to the Mayor. Just one side not on that. I have proposed the creation of a youth commission and economic development commission. Both those bills, I believe are subject to Section 208 and both those bill have been referred to the Mayor for his consideration, and both those bills anticipate the creation of new units of government.

Also, I think that when the Mayor suggests that the language of the bill is not clear as to what powers are aactually given to the Committee, I think if Members of Council will re-read those sections, you will see this very specific as to what is being requested in terms of the powers, and if Council will bear with me, I'd just like to read them because none of the sections that were added, none of the amendments, is more than three lines and is very specific. Section C was added in 161.19 and says, "The successors of the Committee members whose terms have expired shall be appointed upon the termination fo the term. D) The Committee shall file a quarterly report with the Mayor and offer recommendations and suggestions. E) The Committee shall be empowered to initiate actions, terminate projects not in compliance with the provisions of this ordinance. F) Five members attending any meeting duly elected shall be considered a quorum. G) The Committee shall have the power to require compliance of this ordinance and shall be provided staff assistance from the City Solicitor's Office.

It seems to me that that is rather clear, and again, I take issue of the Mayor indicating that the language is not clear.

Also, the Mayor suggested that the Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee, which is made reference to in this bill, is reflective of his concern and City Council's concern for the attainment of the goal of minority participation in the City of Pittsburgh. It would seem to me that 1820 certainly is in that spirit and is not inconsistent with what was the Mayor's obvious intention some time ago when he supported the original legislation or Council's intent at that time. It just seems to me that what we are doing here is simply giving to that Committee the ability to function. If Council will remember, there was some difficulty initially for almost a year in trying to get members appointed to that Committee so it could even function. I believe that Council will have before it sometime today, the names of at least five members of that very committee whose terms expired in April of this year who are just being re-appointed in November of this year. So I think if our commitment if going to consistent that not only do we need to make sure that everybody's in place to function, but that they have the ability to function. I think that if we're going to maintain our credibility to make sure that everybody's included in the growth of the City, that the least that we can do is give to those committees that we structure some power to carry out their actions.

Just one last comment, if I might, Mr. President. In the second paragraph of the Mayor's letter to us of November 5, 1982. I think that he raises the question of whether or not present procedures are in operation to make Council Bill 1820, as the Mayor says, not necessary. Perhaps now is not the appropriate time to discuss those procedures and certainly I'd be willing to discuss them with Members of Council at a later date. But I don't think that this Council has any evidence, or the City Clerk's Office has any evidence, that the present procedures are such that Council Bill 1820 is unnecessary. I believe on several occasions, Council has requested information from the Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee and I'm unaware of anything that is documented in the City Clerk's Office. So, it just seems to me that perhaps the Mayor has some sort of misunderstanding about Council Bill 1820 and perhaps in the rush of things, preparing the budget and other matters, we did not get the proper support information for us to indeed, for those who want to, support the Mayor's veto.

Again, I urge Council to override the veto.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a few questions here, Marvin. Currently, are there any administration powers in the Enterprise Review Committee?

Mr. Fein:

Such as the powers given to it be this ordinance, which would be —

Mr. Flaherty:

No, I'm talking about the Committee presently. Are there any administrative powers to that Committee as it now stands?

Mr. Fein:

It currently only makes recommendations.

Mr. Flaherty:

Then it really has no power to make some administrative —

Mr. Fein:

It has no administrative powers at the present time.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. Could you name for us all of the departments in the City because you're saying that this would create a new department? What constitutes a department for you? I'm curious to see if a Minority Enterprise Review Committee is compatible with the departments that you're going to name.

Mr. Fein:

Department of Public Works, Department of Water, Department of Parks and Recreation, Department of Lands and Buildings, Department of Fire, Department of Supplies, Department of City Planning are the departments of the City government.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. Well I'm of the firm opinion that a Minority Enterprise Review Committee is a specific committee and is certainly not a broad department. I can't see how the Law Department could not make anything more than a strictly an arbitrary decision as to if this would be a department or not.

I whole-heartedly support Councilman's Robinson's motion to override the Mayor's veto because I feel that this is one committee that should certainly have teeth in it. I think it's a travesty to parade it as being a substantive committee without giving it appropriate powers and I feel that it is a very weak message from the Mayor. I'm surprised he didn't go one step further and say that we'd have to have a Home Rule Study Commission to study the merits of the new department or the new unit of government.

Michelle Madoff:

I need some clarification from Mr. Robinson. If I hear you correctly, I think what you're saying is that this is not a new bill, that the Mayor has had more than thirty days to review the initial bill and this is only a clarification and giving some power and some muscles?

Mr. Robinson:

Precisely.

Michelle Madoff:

Now, Bill, if you will open your Home Rule Charter, Section 222 of the Home Rule Charter, "Vacancies on Authorities, Boards and Commissions". I would assume this would be some kind of a board rather than a new department. Is that correct?

Mr. Robinson:

No. This, very specifically, is a committee.

Michelle Madoff:

A committee. Would you call that a commission or just a sub-committee?

Mr. Robinson:

No. It's a committee. Very specifically. It was designed that way.

Michelle Madoff:

As a committee, who makes the appointments to serve on a committee?

Mr. Robinson:

The law reads that the Mayor will make the appointments with Council's approval.

Michelle Madoff:

Then obviously it would fall under the same category of 222. Should the Mayor fail to nominate a person to fill the vacancies, Council could do that?

Mr. Robinson:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

You pointed out earlier that some of these appointments expired on this Committee in April and we're now just appointing people again?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

That's my point. I think that under 222 it says you've got to do so in sixty days or Council can move in and do that.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. President. I think that Section 222 of the Home Rule Charter specifically deals with vacancies on authorities, boards and commissions. It's fairly clear. One of the reasons that we established a committee is that we were not attempting to establish an authority or a board or a commission with all the legal ramifications that they have.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm still a little confused. Perhaps you can help, Bill. You've already answered one question. You say this is not new and it's not something that the Mayor didn't have his thirty days notice because he did. Is that correct?

Mr. Robinson:

No. What I'm saying is we were not required to forward to the Mayor Council Bill 1820.

Michelle Madoff:

Because there was an existing bill and all you were doing is putting teeth in the existing bill?

Mr. Robinson:

Right. And because I don't think Section 208 of the Home Rule Charter is applicable.

Michelle Madoff:

I have no quarrel with you. What I'm asking, Councilman, is how do you propose, I am sorry because there are so many bills and I'm not a computer, how did you propose in that initial bill, I just can't remember, how we were to appoint the people who serve on this Committee?

Mr. Robinson:

In the original bill, and our Assistant City Clerk, Mrs. Johnson, is getting a copy of that, and I apologize to members of Council for not having that readily available. In the original bill, the members of that Committee are designated in terms of their number which is nine. There are staggered terms, I believe five serve for two years, four for one year. The Mayor is to appoint all those members at the approval of Council. When the original persons were selected and appointed, this Council approved them. The Mayor has forwarded to each member of Council recently, the names of five new appointees. They are present members of that Committee and he wants to re-appoint them.

Michelle Madoff:

They arrived at our office today, I believe.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm not sure.

Michelle Madoff:

I have copies of them.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, for one second, Mr. President. The question was raised about whether or not the Committee, as it is presently structured, has administrative powers. Mr. Fein, I believe, and correct me if I'm wrong, Marv, suggested that it does not. I think if you read the law which puts this Committee into action so to speak, you will find that in the City Code, Title I, Article VII, Section 161.19(b) and if I might read it. It's only five sentences. "Minority Participation Plan shall be subject to the review and approval of the Minority Business Review Committee of the City which shall establish procedures for review and approval in accordance with the requirements of this section and Section 161.18. The Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee shall be composed of nine members appointed by the Mayor and approved by Council. Four members shall serve for one year and five shall serve for two years. Ordinance 1 of 1981, effective 1/22/81."

It would seem to me that this Committee does have some administrative power. Certainly in the broad sense of the word.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, if I may. Doesn't a committee exist at present to oversee that the contracts obligations are carried out? How would the new committee differ from the one that is in existence?

Mr. Robinson:

There is no new committee being proposed, Mr. President. What is being proposed is some additional powers and also some additional rules under which the Committee will operate.

The Chair:

To the present committee?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes. I think if Council were to take a quick review of boards and authorities and committees in the City of Pittsburgh, notably the Vacant Property Review Committee, on which I serve, you will see what I am suggesting is, indeed, in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and in accordance with the Home Rule Charter of the City of Pittsburgh. There's nothing here that's unusual or extraordinary. There's nothing here that need frighten anyone in the administrative capacity that any of their prerogatives are being taken away from them.

Point of clarification. The Committee shall be empowered to initiate actions to terminate projects not in compliance with the provisions of this ordinance. I understand that to mean, and it was my intention, that whatever legal actions that this Committee might take in compliance with the Home Rule Charter and all other applicable laws, that they would take the same way that this Council would take any appropriate actions to get compliance with any City ordinance. This does not say that the Committee itself will be involved in Courtroom litigation or that the Committee itself is empowered to pull anybody's permits or to stop any projects. But I think, again, it does not make good sense to have established a procedure for insuring the participation of any group or segment in our society and not give to the people who have that responsibility the authority. I would suspect that when the Mayor proposes to us formally, that we accept his proposal for a task force on women and suggest to us that we fund it to the tune of $50 thousand, that he envisions they are going to be able, as they say in the vernacular, take care of business. I'm only suggesting that this Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee be given the same opportunity to take care of business. One of the purposes of this Committee is to make sure that women, women, are involved in the development of this City. Plain and simple as that.

Again, it seems to me that there are those who might be a little bit tentative about Section E. For what reasons, I do not know. Let me just make one suggestion, if it's appropriate, and please indicate to me if I'm out of order. I think it would be appropriate for Council to override the Mayor's veto and then if there are some problems with any of these sections, I am more than willing to meet with the Mayor and Mr. Fein or other members of Council, to give some clarification to Section E or any other section of this bill because I think that unless we put some teeth into the legislation that we have, we are only fooling ourselves and we are only asking for problems as we make a serious and sincere effort to make sure that everybody's involved in the Renaissance of the City. I certainly wouldn't want anyone to interpret any of my comments to, in any way, reflect upon the Administration in a negative fashion or to suggest that the Mayor or those on his staff are not trying to do their job in this area. This legislation was designed to, not only clarify, but to make sure that the Committee was in a position to do the job that both Council and the Mayor gave to them some two years ago.

Mrs. Masloff:

The Committee shall be empowered to initiate action. By initiating action, they just initiate it. It could stop after they initiated it, couldn't it.

Mr. Robinson:

Precisely. That's my understanding.

Mrs. Masloff:

It seems to me it doesn't have all that power because they've already initiated it and it could stop there too. It's not all powerful.

Mr. Robinson:

Fortunately, someone from the City Solicitor's Office originally was on the Committee. It's my understanding that someone from that office is going to be on the Committee. I think that gives to the Committee the kind of balance that they need to do a responsible job. I don't think anyone should assume that the Committee is not going to be acting in a responsible fashion and acting well within the purview of law. I think any parties that actions are taken against are more than capable of speaking for themselves and more than capable of attempting to get the issue resolved. Certainly I don't believe that Reverend Simms or the Mayor's staff who chairs this Committee or any of the other Committee members are looking to, in any way, do things that will be outside the purview of the law or do anything that would not be consistent. We're simply trying to get their job done.

The Chair:

I think you made it rather clear,
Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. Marv, if I may with you. The Committee was already set up so all he's doing is amending it by adding paragraphs C through G.

Mr. Fein:

That's correct.

Mr. Stone:

If I'm understanding correctly what's happening, C through G, or at least some or all of those paragraphs, are creating some extra pars which, somewhere in your legal interpretation, you now say has given it a different stature.

Mr. Fein:

I don't think there's any problem with C, D, and F. It's really Sections E and G that create the problem.

Mr. Stone:

Okay. That's what I'm getting to. You're saying the E and G affect you. Frankly, E bothers me a little bit that some Committee can stop a job. I asked Mr. Robinson about that and it's my understanding from him that what he means is that they can start through the procedure action to require compliance.

If it were worded slightly different or that's the interpretation as it is, rather than to initiate, frankly the language, as it is now, would seem to indicate that they have the power to go out and shut a job down, which he says is not what he intended, but you who didn't know that up until now, does that make a difference?

Mr. Fein:

I think there's another problem with the language. The problem is when you say they shall be empowered to initiate actions —

Mr. Stone:

G modifies E. That's the problem.

Mr. Fein:

Yes. And also have the power to require compliance. What that means to me, what it meant to Dan Pellegrini and what I think it means to the Mayor, is that this committee will become like other parts of the Government that will have to have its own inspectors, that those inspectors will have to go out and review each job to see that there is a fifteen percent requirement —

Michelle Madoff:

What's wrong with that?

Mr. Fein:

There's nothing wrong with that but it's presently being done by the departments in overseeing contracts under their domain and the question is, will they, then, not do that? Will Public Works Department not inspect to make sure that the fifteen percent requirement is being complied with? And will new inspectors have to be appointed to this Committee?

Mr. Stone:

Mr. Fein, let me ask you this question. Assuming you're accurate and that's what he meant by initiation, assuming that the Department Head does not move on it, should the Civic Committee sit idly by while nothing happens?

Mr. Fein:

No. And as a matter of fact, I think that even without this language in the Review Committee's current position, it could certainly bring to Reverend Simms' attention any notice they need to the City Law Department that the fifteen percent requirement is not being complied with, that the Mayor's executive order is not being complied with, and the City Law Department could certainly do something.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of information, if I might, Mr. Stone. I think Mr. Fein is a bit confused on the application of this particular ordinance. This particular ordinance does not directly relate to the Mayor's fifteen percent program. This ordinance directly relates to all major developments of $250 thousand or above where we're using City land or City services, what have you. There are a number of people who are confused about that. There is no jurisdiction that this Committee has in that particular area. As I understand it, all the various authorities and departments that the Mayor specifically directed to initiate the fifteen percent program have established some sort of in-house procedure. So this particular committee, the Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee, has no direct relationship to the fifteen percent program at all. There are no percentages made reference to in the legislation. None. There are no goals, no percentages made reference to.

Mr. Fein:

I'm not too sure we understand what functions this Committee would have under this proposed ordinance that it does not already have or what further functions it would serve that aren't being served by some other body of the City government.

Mr. Robinson:

I think first of all, if I might, Mr. President, this particular ordinance, the original ordinance, pre-dates any actions taken by the Administration that set up the fifteen percent program. In fact, there were at least three actions taken by this Council that pre-date the fifteen percent program, and at another time, I think Council should address itself to those other ordinances and whether or not the City of Pittsburgh is in compliance with its own law.

I have no quarrel at this point with the fifteen percent program. In fact, I don't have enough information to make an evaluation of it. But I think I do have enough information to make some evaluation on the Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee, 1) as the drafter of the legislation and 2) as a liaison between Council and that committee and I would say that c, d, e, f and g certainly are areas that enhance that committee and certainly are not inconsistent with the original legislation.

Mr. Fein:

Councilman Robinson, I think that's the great problem here. The City, just substituting words, the City already has the power to initiate actions to terminate projects. —

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me. Point of clarification. Do you do it? I think that's the issue. I think that's the bottom line.

The Chair:

Michelle, let him answer Mr. Robinson, please.

Mr. Fein:

Just substituting words, the City is already empowered to initiate actions to terminate projects. The City is already empowered to require compliance with the ordinance. And that's why we think a new unit of government is being set up because what you're saying is that this committee shall now exercise those powers for the City. We'll have to be staffed to do that and there will be a whole change in the organization of one unit of government which, even though I don't want to change my answer to Mr. Flaherty, really does change the whole function of this committee that you pointed out that there is some administrative duties in that committee that, in answer to Mr. Flaherty's question, I thought he meant along the lines of e and g and not the type that you had mentioned.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, if I may. Under present conditions, if a contractor does not comply, the committee's job then is to go to the job, make sure he complies, if he doesn't then shut the job down. Correct?

Mr. Robinson:

I can't say that.

The Chair:

I'm talking about the present committee.

Mr. Robinson:

I cannot say that. I think one of the problems is, and I say this very honestly, this Council, to my knowledge, does not have in its possession a copy of any procedures or process that's being utilized by that committee even though we have requested it. And with due respect to Mr. Fein, it seems to me that, let me use an example, the Women's Commission or Women's Task Force that the Mayor is proposing, I think what you're going to find is that the opinion that you're giving us here is going to have to apply to that. And I certainly will bring it up again when the Mayor presents that to us in a formal sense to fund it. I'm going to raise the same questions that you did because in the City of Pittsburgh, we already have the power to force compliance, to make sure that women are involved we already have the power. The power is already there. There is nothing inconsistent with us more clearly defining powers and giving powers to committees, commissions and boards as long as it is not inconsistent with the Home Rule Charter and as long as it's not inconsistent with the laws of the Commonwealth.

I take serious issue with that. But I cannot say right now that the Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee has the kind of procedures that Mr. Fein has suggested or that you have suggested, Mr. President, or that they're doing any follow-up or that there's any reports. I believe Council's records will reflect that Reverend Simms came before us and indicated that we were going to get a yearly report, at least, from the Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee. I do not believe that the City Clerk has any evidence of that report ever forthcoming.

What Council ought to be aware of is that the history of this particular committee, the history of this particular legislation, the original legislation and the amendments, is such that it has all been done in the spirit of trying to get the job done cooperatively. If we cannot get the information that we need, if we can't clearly define what the procedures are, then I don't think that our credibility is going to stand the test. I'm suggesting that, in house, we need to make sure that we have in place those things that are going to carry out our policy. Otherwise, we are going to be confronted with situations where we are going to be suggesting that we can't do some things but yet we can do other things and that's going to be inconsistent with legislative action that we have taken.

The Chair:

Then would the amendment elaborate on the present powers and in effect be a watch dog on the present committee?

Mr. Robinson:

I think what the sections do that I have enumerated is make sure that the committee, regardless of the kinds of procedures it establishes, adhere to c, d, e, f and g as enumerated in the amendment. That means we do not have to depend upon the good faith or the intelligence of any Members of Council for c, d, e, f and g. By law they will have to do it. And I'm suggesting to Mr. Fein that if, in fact, there are some legal problems with Council Bill 1820, there should be attached to the Mayor's veto the necessary legal documentation and if indeed the City of Pittsburgh is already doing the job that I suggested this Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee do, there should have been attached to it sufficient documentation. Neither of which is here, neither of which is before us.

The Chair:

I think you made yourself rather clear. I think we ought to have a question called for on the vote.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, before we finish I'd like to finish my point. Mr. Fein, if e is read, let me just change one word for a moment. "Empowered to recommend action to terminate projects." I'm assuming that would eventually go through the City Law Department.

And in g, "the power to recommend required compliance". Would that change it any? I want to see where we're putting the weight in these paragraphs in the sense that they have the right to shut a job down without consultation with anyone else. I find a problem with that but the sponsor of the bill is saying he doesn't mean that.

Mr. Fein:

I think that would change it substantially.

Michelle Madoff:

What is the word you want to change?

The Chair:

Recommend instead of initiate.

Mr. Stone:

We can't change the words now. Mr. Robinson, am I still reading you right? What you're saying is that they just can't go out by themselves and shut down.

Mr. Robinson:

Precisely.

Mr. Stone:

You're saying initiate would almost be synonymous with recommend.

Mr. Robinson:

In a sense, yes.

Mr. Stone:

And the power to recommend that compliance be made.

Mr. Robinson:

The word initiate relates to the fact, as Mr. Fein said, there are already powers in the City of Pittsburgh, which I'm fully aware of. I'm simply saying that the committee, as something that is designated by the Mayor and Council to do a job, would then initiate that recommendation to the appropriate parties to be processed.

Mr. Stone:

Bill, really your language is bad here. The way I read initiation is that I can go out and shut the job down without talking to the Department Head and without talking to the Administration.

Mr. Robinson:

That's not my interpretation.

Mr. Stone:

I'm going to suggest an amendment to your motion, Mr. Robinson. You made the motion to override with the understanding that that initiate action is not to take unilateral action but rather to recommend action and to recommend compliance.

Mr. Robinson:

I think that it would not be appropriate to change the language in this bill. But if there is some motion or some other appropriate action that Council can take, I have no problem in giving some clarification to the word initiate, even though I think the word initiate, to me at least, certainly falls within the purview of what I had suggested. But I have no problems with further clarification.

Mr. Stone:

I'd like to make a motion on the motion to override with the understanding that that is in the form of recommended action rather than unilateral compliance action.

Mr. Robinson:

I think, perhaps, it might be more appropriate to indicate what initiate means. What exactly initiate means to utilize those appropriate vehicles already in place within the City government. That's exactly what I'm talking about.

Mr. Stone:

I have no problem with that.

Mr. Fein:

Then your talking, I take it, about initiation through a different department rather than initiating through the committee. That was the problem that we had with this whole concept. That once you use the word initiate, once you use power to require compliance, those are very active terms and, to us at least, meant the establishment of a separate department of government.

Mr. Woods:

Marvin, no matter how we vote here, whether we override or don't override, I think Mr. Robinson is due an explanation, a legal interpretation of why the Mayor did override, which should have been attached here, and also, what the committee has done up to this date. It's been asked for a number of times and no one's been here. I think, no matter how we vote, that should be forthcoming.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. President. I have some clarification here that might be helpful to all members of Council and perhaps allay some of the fears Mr. Fein and others might have. I'm not trying to be facetious at all.

In Webster's Dictionary, I'm willing to accept and certainly use the normal understanding of the word initiate. It reads "1) to cause or facilitate the beginning of; set going 2) instruct in the rudiments or principles of something 3) to induct into membership". So, right within the definition of the word, Marv, I think there's enough protection perhaps for those legal purists who think that the committee will go galloping off and shutting down jobs.

Mr. Fein:

That wasn't our fear, Councilman Robinson. Our whole question with this is whether this is to be a new department of government, whether there's to be manpower for doing this.

Mr. Robinson:

It's all answered in the legislation.

Mr. Fein:

It's really not answered.

The Chair:

We're not clear yet what we're voting on. We could be here all night.

Mr. Stone:

I'd like to make the motion that I started here and that is to add to his motion to override the definition of what he means by initiate action.

Michelle Madoff:

The dictionary has defined it.

Mr. O'Malley:

It says, "the committee shall be empowered to initiate". What you want to say is that the City shall be empowered to recommend that the City initiate.

Mr. Stone:

No. That's what this concept means, even though the language is different. The word used apparently came off to the legal department and to the Mayor otherwise.

Mr. O'Malley:

This gives the committee the power to initiate actions against a project. It does not say that the committee shall recommend that the City initiate action against the project. Once this passes, it gives that committee the power to recommend termination of a project.

The Chair:

There's a motion on the floor.

State the motion again.

Mr. Stone:

My motion is to amend his motion to include that understanding —

Michelle Madoff:

You can't do that. Mr. Stone, you've never permitted that with anyone else.

The Chair:

What can't you do?

Michelle Madoff:

You can't amend an amendment. Either vote it up or down.

Mr. Stone:

Wait a minute. I'm at a loss here. You can't what?

Michelle Madoff:

You're amending his amendment. You can't do that.

Mr. Stone:

You can always make an amendment.

Michelle Madoff:

What was that word? What was the word you just used?

The Chair:

There's a motion to change the wording on Section E. Is there a second? For lack of a second, the motion fails.

Now we're going to vote on the motion to override the veto. I stand corrected. To vote aye means to vote for overriding. To vote nay means to sustain.

Mr. Robinson:

My original motion, which I believe Mr. Flaherty, was to override the Mayor's veto.

The Chair:

Okay. To override the veto has to be an aye vote and to sustain has to be a nay vote and we must have six votes to override.

Mr. Flaherty:

I vote aye and the reason why is that I feel that we are on sound ground on the override of the veto and also I don't believe there's anyone on this Council or perhaps there isn't anyone in the City that can tell us now if there has been any compliance on projects or if we had not had compliance, what actions have been taken. I think that this is an essential bill and I commend the sponsor on putting teeth into the vehicle.

The Chair:

First of all, Mr. Flaherty, you're out of order. We had our chance to speak and we'll have no more speech though the voting.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, a Member of Council can always explain their vote.

The Chair:

You had your opportunity.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I'd like to make one comment and the fact that I have not commented at. I'm concerned with the fact that the Mayor indicated that he needed a thirty day period for any major changes of any committees and that no notice was given to him as was required by our own Home Rule Charter. And the fact that the committee that this Council has set up, the Minority Business Review Committee shares the Mayor's concern regarding this bill. This Administration and the City Council were responsible for the establishment of this committee to advance the goals of minority enterprises. And as indicated by that Minority Review Committee, they will participate in projects taking place within this City. I have not received any evidence before me to the contrary that the City is not fulfilling this particular role. As a result, I enjoin the Mayor in his overriding the veto. If we want to put more teeth into this particular committee, then I think we must go through the appropriate long term, thirty day notice with the deliberations and debate would go on before Council. My vote is no.

Michelle Madoff:

Having supplied the dictionary that defines the word initiate, I vote aye.

Mr. Stone:

I vote aye with the interpretation I've received from the sponsor and that is not to unilateral the initial action.

Mr. Woods:

I vote aye for the same reason. He clearly stated what he meant by initiated. It's on public record, even for future Council, it will be on public record. There's no problem with it.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Michelle Madoff
Mrs. Masloff
Mr. Robinson

Mr. Stone
Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale

Mr. Stone:

We've changed the funding source. That's what that one is.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of information. What funding source are we using now, Mr. Stone?

Mr. Stone:

What we did, they originally had it out of salaries. Code Account 1818, Bureau of Maintenance, and Code Account 1825, Maintenance, $75,000.00. This is going to Utilities.

That's the one they were short on the money. They had to get some extra money.

Which was read.

The Chair:

To vote for the bill, it's aye and to sustain the negative recommendation, it's nay.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 1874, on the negative recommendation, my concerns were that in light of the numbers of youth that come before us, and I discussed that with the Mayor this morning at the briefing on the budget, I think $43 thousand would be better spent as seed money to try to get some money from the private sector to try to find jobs and training programs for the unemployed youth.

There's no question in my mind that there's very little opportunity within the City for moving up in the executive hierarchy. If we don't have people that are doing the job now that are trained, they shouldn't be there, and I think this is ludicrous. We have never done it before and we ought not to start this kind of procedure to start training people on this level because it will go on forever and I certainly would oppose this very strenuously.

Mr. Givens:

I vote aye, Mr. President. On Wednesday I voted no on this. I think the explanation came from Melanie Smith as to what this program is about. I look at it as a continuation program in executive management and some thoughts that we had between what we can do in this City, tying it into the cable TV to our major universities right here, I think this cost could have been knocked down.

But to accelerate this particular executive management course, I vote aye.

Michelle Madoff:

In response to Councilman Givens, we have supplied many dollars to the universities. If we need that kind of input, it should be a gratis input. It should be a quid quo pro. I still say no.

Which was read.

Mr. Perry:

I'd like to inform Council we have an objection for a hearing on this particular bill.

Mr. Givens:

On Bill No. 1845, the Council is in receipt of several letters but I would like this one letter on the Pa-Pitt Pennsylvania Asphalt Payment Association.

As it's Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Asphalt Payment Association, on behalf of its member companies and the citizens of Pittsburgh, representative respectfully requests a public hearing as so noted by the Chief Clerk, Mike Perry, to discuss our opposition to this Bill No. 1845.

It is our understanding that this bill will permit the City to sell to various other agencies the asphalt, concrete, produce at the City Asphalt Plant. The asphalt, concrete industry feels that this proposal is contrary to the time honored system of free enterprise. It indicates that the City Asphalt Plant is attempting to justify its very existence by seeking outlets for its material, to give you a little bit of background.

I've received phone calls from several other contractors within the City of Pittsburgh, notably Carnegie Tar and Asphalt, Trumbull Corporation, Allegheny Asphalt, Burrell.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, we're all in receipt of all those letters so there's no need to read any more of them.

Mr. Givens:

No, I'm not going to read any more, Mr. President. But the main thing here is that they do want a public hearing. I feel personally, and I would like to make the recommendation, that this bill be defeated and that the Administration bring it back up after the first of the year and to take into concern of Council of putting other governmental agencies. I have no problem with City agencies receiving all this, but I do have concerns about the City of Pittsburgh selling to other agencies. We could sit here and debate this bill up and down. There's some other entities on the trust fund going into the Asphalt Plant rather than going back into the general fund. As a result, I feel that this should be debated and I would like to discuss this with the Administration and Director Gaetano before we finalize any more legislation on this.

I recommend a no vote on Bill No. 1845.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I called Mr. E.J. Sadlowski, who represents the Pennsylvania Asphalt Pavement Association and I said, "Sir, I had heard, but I could not get a copy of the article, I've since received a copy of the article, that your industry is being investigated for price fixing in the asphalt business. Is that true?" And he said, "Yes, it is."

I understand from speaking to our Director that the reason we went into the asphalt business in the first place is that we could not get asphalt in time for the projects and delays, as Mr. Stone has said over the years, are very costly.

It is also true that if, indeed, they prove that the asphalt industry is, indeed, guilty of anti-trust price fixing, the City will get reimbursed fifty cents per ton of the asphalt we have purchased previously.

I think, since we need twenty-five signatures for a hearing, it is most inappropriate for the Pennsylvania Asphalt Association out of Harrisburg to be requesting a hearing before this Council until their own house is clean and immaculate. And I might also add that we're talking about an infinitesimal amount of money. We're talking about, perhaps, five hundred, at the most, five thousand dollars in profits that would be generated, and I personally do not share Mr. Givens' concern as to whether we sell it only to a governmental agency or whether we sell it to Joe Doaks. Mr. DePasquale, if we've got somebody who wants to give us $20 thousand for our surplus asphalt that's worth $5 thousand, I'd be happy to sell it to him. The City could use the profit.

However, the issue that I am concerned about, and I've talked to the Director and he concurs with me, is that we do not establish a precedent of having a separate fund, and he is concerned, that is fine with him. He doesn't care if the profits are kept separate and apart provided, starting right now, we don't wait until the beginning of the year as has been suggested by my colleague, that he can draw down his expenses in producing the asphalt that is indeed being sold already. They're doing it, it's just a matter of creating a mechanism for doing it. The money would not go into the general fund. Any monies expended are going into the capital fund, the fund that was devised by this Council under the Finance Chairman where we have all our money in one kitty. It is necessary to form a mechanism for drawing down on monies to reimburse Mr. Gaetano and the Public Works Department. But the profits should go back into the capital general fund and the last I heard, Mr. Stone was going to look into that.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, there are some parts of this bill that are not in conflict and in view of that, if anything, I would recommend that it go back for some form of amendment, if that be the wish of this Council. But rather than just a rejection of it, there's some things that are necessary, as I'm indicating, and rather than the suggestion that Mr. Givens is suggesting, a negative vote, I would recommend that we refer it back to Committee.

Mr. Stone moved to recommit Bill No. 1845.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

I vote aye to recommit and I would like to make one small thing here and that is with what Michelle indicated that yes, there is an investigation going on in this particular industry, yes, this Council was investigated when it came down in a grand jury type on our own cable television and nobody was indicted. I think to say that someone is accused of a wrong doing, until an indictment comes down, is not to give justice to those people within the industry itself.

Michelle Madoff:

I think it's a very self-serving kind of motion. They want to be competitive with the City. We are not in the profit making business, we are here to save the taxpayers' dollars. It is ludicrous and my objection is strictly as I've stated.

Mr. Givens:

We'll have over surplus also in the garage down there. Maybe you want to go and have our surplus capacity in the garage to lend it out to other agencies.

The Chair:

You've both made yourselves clear. Let's get on with the voting, please.

Mr. Woods:

I agree with Dick Givens on this thing. I vote to recommit and I'd also like to call for a post agenda on the Asphalt Plant with Lou Gaetano up here. I have some information that I want to share with him and see just what we are paying for this asphalt, how much this cost us and cost overruns down on that plant.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the recommital?

And on the question, "Shall the recommital pass finally?"

The Chair:

I'd like a motion to approve all the re-appointments with the recommendation that we have one member from that Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee in here this coming Wednesday, if possible, to give us an explanation as to just how that committee works. We kicked that around for about a half hour today and I don't think any of us are fully aware or sure just what their duties are.

Mr. Robinson:

There's one gentleman there, I believe, who is not a re-appointment on that Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee. I think it would be appropriate for us to hold that —

Mr. Stone:

Anybody new we're holding for two weeks.

Mr. Robinson:

Also, if I might, on that same topic, I think it would be appropriate for the City Clerk to check with the Administration to see where there are vacancies on any of the Boards or Commissions and ask the Mayor if he would be kind enough to try and fill those at the earliest possible convenience. I think there are a couple where we might have some vacancies and we need to try to operate at full strength.

The Chair:

Very good suggestion.

Mr. Stone moved to approve the re-appointment.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, for the record. I have been on this Council for four and a half years and I didn't realize I was such a threat; I have not been appointed to any Board or Commission as yet. I'm the only member of this Council. I know I can manipulate Wall Street but I didn't know I was so threatening. On that basis, I'll abstain from all votes until I'm appointed to something.

Mr. Stone:

Call the question.

The Chair:

Remember we're going to have one in for the two week review and all the rest are up for re-appointment and affirmation.

Mr. Givens:

I'm going to join Michelle. I'm abstaining because I think she should be on one of these committees, boards or authorities and work like everybody else.

Michelle Madoff:

Right on.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the re-appointments?

And on the question, "Shall the re-appointments pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. Robinson	(Pres't)

AYES 7 NOES none

(MR. GIVENS AND MICHELLE MADOFF ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the re-appointments passed finally.

Michelle Madoff:

With instructions from our esteemed Mr. Perry, he told me to scratch the word resolution and make it a motion from the floor so that it will be all legal and proper.

Michelle Madoff presents

WHEREAS, it is vitally important to leave the Emergency Hot-Line Number 911, open for EMERGENCY CALLS, such as: murder, rape, burglary in progress, etc; and

WHEREAS, the Emergency Hot-Line Number 911, is now being used by citizens for many calls like traffic information, towing, minor disruptions in the community, and for City informational services especially after 4:30 p.m. during the weekdays and on weekends when the City is closed; and

WHEREAS, the Emergency Hot-Line Police Number 911 must presently prioritize calls which may delay response time.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh establish a separate non-emergency 24 hour, seven day a week number which the Pittsburgh Public can use so that 911 can be used to protect human life in emergency and crisis situations only, and that the Public could be educated as to the difference between emergency and non-emergency calls through public service announcements, inserted in their phone and/or water bills, etc.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that funds are allocated in the 1983 Budget.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff

We've spoken to Superintendent

Coll and I believe he has no objections to it. They already have in the front of your telephone book a non-emergency number but unfortunately it has been call forwarded and now ties into 911. It is not separate and he feels he will need some staff to answer this. He can divide his staff dollars up and it will be up to the Finance Chairman to see how that money would be allocated and presented to Council. But I think we do need that kind of thing. When your car is towed, that's an emergency to you so you automatically dial 911, but I think if we educate people not to tie up that line because the person being hurt or mugged could be the person making that call next time.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, I would like to present this to Council. The people of Addison Terrace were kind enough to present this to Council on Friday at the ribbon cutting at the second dedication of the Addison Terrace Learning Center and I'm honored that I was there to accept it on behalf of my colleagues on Council.

It says, "Pittsburgh City Council, with grateful appreciation for your contributions and service towards the Addison Terrace Learning Center, 1982".

Thank you, Mr. President.

The Chair:

Do we cut that up and all get a piece or are you going to hang it in your office next to my picture?

Mr. Woods:

Right next to your picture.

Mr. Stone moved to approve the minutes from Monday, November 1, 1982.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed

And on the motion of Mr. Robinson

Council adjourned.

Michelle Madoff:

Please clarify that. What papers are you talking about?

Mr. Stone:

The ones that are before you.

Mr. Perry:

The file copies..

Michelle Madoff:

Of what?

Mr. Perry:

They were supposed to be mailed 48 hours prior to the meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

And we didn't get them. So what are we voting on now?

Mr. Perry:

To suspend Rule 8 on them.

Michelle Madoff:

So that they didn't have to send them out.

Mr. Perry:

Right.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to know why they weren't sent. You have enough staff. What's your budget, Mike?

Mr. Perry:

They weren't completed.

Michelle Madoff:

How many times has this happened?

Mr. Stone:

We had a holiday on Thursday.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't ask you that. How many times did it happen when you didn't have a holiday? What I'm trying to get at is that Mr. Perry has a very serious problem in his department. He can't get the work out because he has no control over the people who work for him because they're patronage. He needs people that can do the job. I want to address the issue. This is not the first time its happened. It's happened many times before. Is that correct, Mike?

Mr. Perry:

It's happened before.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you, Mr. Perry.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question in regard to Bill No. 1909 which would authorize the auditing for the Revenue Sharing Program. It was my understanding that at Wednesday's Committee Meeting that an amendment was going to be offered to cover the request of Ron Schmeiser in that the audit is going to cover the City's entire expenditures. I am not aware of an amendment on the bill yet.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. Flaherty is correct. We were trying to make that broader than what it was. I have not gotten anything from the Treasurer's Office yet. Have you, Mike?

Mr. Perry:

No.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well it would seem to me that since the audit for each of the two years is going, while it can't exceed the $70 thousand, I believe it would be imperative that we should hold this until we receive that amendment.

Mr. Stone:

I have a suggestion here that I think can accomplish that. After the words "revenue sharing" that we insert "and for this City covering the years 1982 and 1983".

The Chair:

Does that sound alright to you, Mr. Flaherty?

Mr. Flaherty:

I don't know because the audit is certainly required by the Feds and —

Mr. Stone:

That's right. That's why that modifies the first part. Let me read it to you.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, but the requirement is only on the Federal received Revenue Sharing Program.

Mr. Stone:

But that's why the addition is added after, Tom.

Mr. Flaherty:

But Ron Schmeiser was saying that the audit is going to be on all City expenditures. I don't believe that by just adding "and the City" is all encompassing of all the financial transactions that we have annually.

Mr. Stone:

Let me try to read it with the correction and see if it sounds right.

"For professional accounting services now, required by the Federal regulations in connection with Revenue Sharing and for this City's expenditures", and is adding to it, "covering the years 1982 and 1983 inclusively".

Mr. Flaherty:

Could we add "add for all of this City's expenditures"?

Mr. Stone:

I don't have any problem with that.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, it was my understanding that the City Controller, by law, had the responsibility for auditing all funds coming into the City and being expended by the City. I realize that this question should have been raised on Wednesday and I apologize for not raising it then. But perhaps someone could clarify for me why it's necessary for our Finance Director to also enter into some kind of agreement to audit federal funds or audit other City funds.

Mr. Flaherty:

It's required by law that we have an outside audit for any funds that are accrued to the Revenue Sharing Program. We have to have an outside audit. But I agree with you why we have to have another audit if that's the responsibility of the City Controller to audit the other City expenditures.

Mr. Stone:

The Controller audits for himself to see that we have done it right. It's not unusual for the Administration to do its own audit of its own workings, and the Controller to check that to see that it's done right. They're two independent obligations.

Mr. Robinson:

Wouldn't it be appropriate for the Controller to be requesting the utilization of outside auditing services as opposed to our Finance Director?

Michelle Madoff:

Why don't we hold it for a week?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, could we hold it for a week because I feel they are excellent questions?

Michelle Madoff moved to recommit Bill No. 1909.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might. I'm not quite sure that holding this for a week is going to accomplish too much. Let me just briefly explain why. I think that the questions that I raised certainly are technical questions that can be resolved without going back and holding this bill for a week and I would assume that the sooner we get on with auditing our books the better off we would be. I have some real hesitancy about holding this.

The Chair:

You make a good point, Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Flaherty:

I just want to respond to that. It was the responsibility of Ron Schmeiser to have an amendment up here. We're talking about a substantial amount. Each year, we're talking about an amount of $70 thousand. If he can't be responsive enough to get a simple amendment up here, which he promised at the Committee Meeting, then I think that we should be compelled to hold the matter for a week.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, my concern is more the one you raised; that if it should have been the responsibility of the Controller, I think we ought to give him that courtesy as opposed to going over his head in light of some of the other problems in the Controller's Office. I think we ought to respect the Controller, Mr. McGrady, and ask him whether he feels that it is his jurisdiction. I think you raised a very valid issue and I don't want to bypass that issue. One week isn't going to make that much difference.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the recommittal?

(AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Stone:

On Bill No. 1845, Section 2, I would like to amend the last two lines where it says "to expend funds for supplies" add the word "materials" and "other expenses" now add "necessary to replenish", strike out "associated with"

and it would read "necessary to replenish the operation of the Asphalt Plant".

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question in regard to the amendment. Would the language include the possibility that the trust fund would be utilized for any completions that would have to be done at the Asphalt Plant?

Mr. Stone:

The key word is replenish?

Mr. Flaherty:

To me, that seems to be a broad word.

Mr. Stone:

No, no. It's supplying materials. What you're doing is creating a revolving fund.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. I also recall that Director Gaetano said that he would have language prepared for Monday --

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone said he would.

Mr. Flaherty:

No, I believe it was Director Gaetano, that would preclude the trust fund being utilized for any completion work that may have to be done at the Asphalt Plant. That amendment has not been offered.

Mr. Stone:

That's what we're doing here. He had no objections to limiting it to the supplies and materials and we're trying to stay in that light.

Mr. Flaherty:

But I don't see that language prohibiting any payment for any addition to the asphalt company being drawn from the trust fund.

Mr. Stone:

I do.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, I don't. Why don't you read your amendment again and try to point out where —

Mr. Stone:

It's authorized to expend funds for supplies and materials and other expenses necessary to replenish the operation of the Asphalt Plant.

Mr. Flaherty:

Would you be opposed to adding a sentence on saying that the payment of any completion work at the Asphalt Plant cannot be utilized from the trust fund?

Mr. Stone:

Tom, the language says what it is. Supplying material in the operation. You're limited already. It's my intent to limit it.

Mr. Woods:

Tom, I totally agree with you. I don't want to see it in there also. But I think when it says operation, that just means to operate the plant as it exists

Mr. Flaherty:

I think we really have to be very cautious on this because —

Mr. Stone:

No one wants to be more cautious than I do. This is the thing I am trying to watch so that they can't spend it.

Mr. Flaherty:

Already we have paid twice as much for the Asphalt Plant as what was earmarked a year ago. I think it's important to keep the Director accountable for anymore funds that he will need because it's my understanding that the plant still is not complete.

Mr. Stone:

That's the exact reason and restriction I put in this motion. I don't want him to do anymore than buy supplies and materials and maybe some oil. That's why I used that other modifying phrase.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay then could we add the word only in there? That the Director of the Department of Public Works is authorized to only expend funds. Only in front of expend.

Mr. Stone:

I have no problem with it if it helps you, but I think it says that now.

Mr. Stone moved to amend Bill No. 1845.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I have another amendment on the same bill. Mr. Stone, you were to put in somewhere, and as a matter of fact, we just looked at the original copy, that any profits would go into the capital general fund or that catch-all capital fund. You were to word that. Whatever profits were generated. Where is that in the bill? Mr. Gaetano only wants to recapture his expenses. He has no quarrel with where the profits go. My objections to setting up a trust fund, and the reason I plan to vote no, unless we set up a mechanism for profits going back to the either the general fund or the capital fund, since we use capital money in Public Works —

Mr. Stone:

Aren't you really answering your own question? If you can only use it for these things and you can't spend it anywhere else.

Michelle Madoff:

What are you going to do with it? Go to Hawaii?

Mr. Stone:

We do it. He can't take it out of there until he gets our permission so we have the control over it.

Michelle Madoff:

Take it out of where? He's taking it out of the capital fund to already build his plant. Now he's built his plant and he has a surplus and he's sold it as a profit. What are you doing with the money, the profit? It doesn't say that.

Mr. Stone:

He can't move it out of that account without —

Michelle Madoff:

I don't care what he can't do, I want to know what you can do. What can you do with the money? Does it go back to the general fund or does it go back to the capital, catch-all fund? Where do you want it to go back?

Mr. Stone:

It stays there until we dispose of it.

Michelle Madoff:

No. It cannot stay in the trust fund. That was what you agreed and that's what is a matter of record. Go back and get the Minutes. My aide made a verbatim note on it. You said you were going to address that issue, Mr. Stone, that you were going to put an amendment in as to where it would go, that you agreed with me.

Mr. Stone:

At budget time, whatever funds are left in those —

Michelle Madoff:

Nonsense. There's a question before this group. I personally believe that we'll have a very small amount of profit, it might be $5 thousand and I don't care if you sell it to somebody who will give you $20 thousand. If somebody needs it in a hurry and is willing to give the City $20 thousand, we accept it. I disagree with the rest of Council on that issue. That's my prerogative. But I want to know what happens to the profits. Let's address that.

Mr. Stone:

Will you let me finish?

Michelle Madoff:

Certainly.

Mr. Stone:

You're sure? Because I started twice and you interrupted me twice.

Michelle Madoff:

You didn't give me an answer twice.

Mr. Stone:

Well, if your mouth is going to run, you can't hear.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, you didn't do your homework again. It's a matter of record that you said you would write that into the bill and the bill would be amended. Don't play it on me.

The Chair:

Let him answer.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. We're setting up a trust fund to collect all of those funds for which we sell asphalt. He is to replenish the supply and materials. Those funds would then stay in the trust fund, as such, unexpended because he can't do it without us. At that point, we would have a record of all monies coming in and at budget time make the distribution to the source that it should go. It is my believe that it should go back to the Capital Budget. He indicated at that point that some of the monies that he has expended has come from Capital. If that were the case, we would make that decision at budget time as we do with all other funds.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I respond? That is inappropriate. We don't play footsie at budget time and juggle figures. You have regulations, you have ordinances, you have laws. What is the law going to be on profits that are generated from the sale of asphalt? Are they going to go back, as you yourself agreed and stated three times previously and we have a verbatim record of your statement that it would go into the capital general fund. I think that should be written into this bill. You can't change your mind, you know.

I'd like to make a motion that all profits go into the capital, general, catch-all fund.

Mr. O'Malley:

I think that's what Councilman Stone said at budget time, that all funds would revert back to the appropriate place.

Michelle Madoff moved to amend Bill No. 1845.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the amendment?

And on the question, "Shall the amendment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mr. Flaherty
Michelle Madoff

Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. Woods
Mr. Robinson	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the amendment was defeated.

Michell Madoff:

Mr. President, may I just say something for the record? Would you make a note in the record that in that event I want to see a trust fund established for the Water Department so that monies generated by the Water Department would not go into the general fund to subsidize the City but go into repairing the terrible lines and water leaks that we have in our City. We'll set up trust funds for everything. We'll do priorities and water is a priority.

The Chair:

And on the bill itself?

Mr. Flaherty:

I, unfortunately, am going to oppose this bill because I believe that the profits are going to far exceed what Director Gaetano speculates. I think it is imperative that Council always have some control over the fund and I agree very strongly with Michelle Madoff's amendment that the fund should be channeled from the trust fund into the general fund.

Mr. Givens:

I vote aye on all bills and I'd like my remarks on Bill No. 1845 to be brought forward.

Secondly, if you look at those other agencies in the City that are going to use this asphalt, I can't see where there is going to be much of anything. The Parking Authority and Stadium Authority is a one time shot and URA doesn't get that involved in the use of asphalt. I see no problem in having great surplusses under this particular bill.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS
ON BILL NO. 1845 - WEDNESDAY, 11/10/82)

Mr. Givens:

I've talked to the Director on this. I've talked to people on the asphalt thing. The only concern again, as I indicated last week, was other governmental agencies. We must move forward, though, on some of these agreements, especially with the Stadium Authority and put that new liner down of this new asphalt material as anyone that availed themselves to go out and look at it at the asphalt plant; plus the URA needs some work done, also, as well as the Parking Authority.

I would like to put a motion on the floor to amend, to take out the "other governmental agencies".

I think the other governmental agencies must be something that this Council can go into a little bit deeper deliberation on.

We're dealing with primary authorities, so we don't even have to list the authorities if you don't want to. You just say, "other City Governmental agencies".

Before we get into the roll call vote, I would like to clarify one thing. I'm not saying that we cannot go into other governmental agencies.

Mr. Chairman, we had a hearing pending on this. I think that this information on the vote of this bill, on the amendment, should be sent to the petitioners and hope that we would not have to have that public hearing.

(END - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1845 - WEDNESDAY, 11/10/82)

Michelle Madoff:

I think it's a sad day and I'm sorry that the cameras aren't here and I'm not dressed for the cameras, tonight is the Allegheny Conference Dinner. I think it's a sad day that the public are not listening to what is happening here, that whoever is Finance Chairman at this point is going to have the opportunity to diddle around with numbers during a budget hearing as opposed to having rules, because what happens when this Council is not here any longer and someone else comes in and suddenly the Asphalt Plant is enlarged and generating large sums of money, we'll say at budget hearing what we want to do with that money. It's a disgrace and of course I'm going to vote no against the bill.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

Mr. Robinson

Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

AYES 6

NOES 2

(MR. FLAHERTY AND MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Robinson presented

Bill No. 2037

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for November 10, 1982 transmitting one ordinance and two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1588

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, Zoning, providing regulations for Personal Care Residence under the Special Exception category in "R1-A", and "R1" One-Family Residence Districts by authorization of the Board of Adjustment."

Which was read.

Mr. O'Malley:

This is one of those pieces of legislation that is sensitive, very sensitive to both sides. The people who are for the legislation feel that all areas, all residential zones in the City of Pittsburgh must share the responsibility of our senior citizens. Those who are against it believe that a commercial making, profit making business does not belong in "R1" and "R1-A".

I can agree with both sides on this issue here. I think what's necessary for this Council is to work for an acceptable compromise for both sides. I've met with Councilman Robinson on Friday and we worked on this piece of legislation over the weekend. I met with Mr. Robinson this afternoon to try to come up with this compromise. I think we've come up with an acceptable compromise, certainly for myself, who voted against this bill because I do not believe that a commercial, profit making, enterprise belongs in a residential neighborhoods. A compromise, also, I feel is suitable for those people who feel that all zones in the City must share the responsibility towards our senior citizens.

What I'd like to do at this time is turn it over to Councilman Robinson so that he can go into a little further detail on the compromise that we worked out over the weekend.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might. Without taking up a lot of Council's time, I think one of the areas of concern, and many members of Council have expressed this, has been the issue of whether or not these types of facilities might be operated by corporations or individuals not living in those neighborhoods or individuals whose primary concern might not be the care of the individuals in the personal care residencies.

In light of that type of concern, and again, in the spirit of attempting to find some common ground on the issue of personal care boarding homes being allowed in all areas of our City, I'd like to amend or offer an amendment to Council Bill 1588, which would read, "All personal care facilities shall be owner operated and occupied". This would assure that the individuals operating and owning the facilities would be on sight and I think would alleviate some of the concerns of members of Council and many members the general public has, that indeed we will be opening up the zones to all types of commercial uses.

Mr. O'Malley:

I just want to add one more point to that. I think what a lot of people were afraid of is that corporations would form, possibly people coming in from Cleveland or other cities, or just a number of people getting together and buying a home anywhere in the City, especially "R1" and "R1-A" areas, turning that into "a boarding home" and staffing it and actually not living there.

My feeling and Mr. Robinson's feeling is that these type of commercial, money-making enterprises should come under a different category. A personal care boarding home should be exactly what it states. People that live in that house that take care of the people that wish to live in this type of surrounding in a home-like atmosphere. I think what this amendment does is eliminate the fear of profit making ventures coming into our neighborhoods and buying up the property, but it also will let a person who lives in a residential area, who is alone, who needs additional help with taxes and utility bills, would enable these people to open up their homes for other senior citizens. I think this amendment addresses all those concerns.

Mr. Robinson moved to amend Bill No. 1588.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Mr. Flaherty:

In regard to the amendment, I am opposed to it. We're talking about a compromise. A compromise has already been reached. We are extending the space only for "R1" and "R1-A" areas from 800 to 1,000 feet, which incidentally, was even overlooked in an editorial in regard to the issue in the Post Gazette. So already, preferential treatment is extended to "R1" and "R1-A" areas.

As far as this amendment, I think it will make the bill completely ineffectual because, once again, it is giving preferential treatment to "R1" and "R1-A" areas.

Mr. O'Malley:

Tom, could I make a correction here?

Mr. Flaherty:

You spoke twice on it. Let me finish, and then you can rebutt. Once again, we are going to say that in "R1" and "R1-A" zoning areas, that a personal care home can only exist if the owner resides in that home. But to "R2", "R3", "R4" and "R5", no, that isn't going to hold so.

I think that's unfortunate and I don't see this as a workable compromise for anyone but those that tend to gain political expediency out of it, because it isn't going to enhance personal care boarding homes in "R1" and "R1-A" areas. It isn't going to do anything to alleviate the burden of proper treatment and care and adequate housing for the elderly in this City.

I think affluence has gone far to far on this matter. Affluence is comparative. It's relative. So what.

You pay a lot of tax dollars. Well, in a relative sense, you're only paying as much tax dollars as probably the majority of the people can afford in "R2" and "R3" and "R4" and "R5". I think this Council should bite the bullet and if you're against putting the personal care boarding homes in "R1" and "R1-A" areas, then vote against it. But don't support an amendment that, in my opinion, is a masquerade and it's not going to do anything to have homes in "R1" and "R1-A" areas. I think this Council has to be socially responsible. I think we have social contract. We're talking about a social commitment. We're not talking about amenities that affluent people can buy. We're talking about a uniform, social, commitment. And uniform is the bottom line when you have a social commitment. I'm not going to buy any, actually, give-aways to the affluent in this City because that's all this second amendment is. I could buy the first one in the spirit of compromise, but I'm not going to buy one that is completely going to gut the intent of the legislation.

The Chair:

You made your point, Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. O'Malley:

Mr. Flaherty made a nice but if he would have listened closely to the amendment instead of reading what he prepared over the weekend, I think he would understand that what we're doing is finding a compromise that gives a social responsibility, that makes this Council have a commitment to social responsibility to all our people.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, with due respect to Mr. Flaherty's comments, one of the things that I should have mentioned when I was making my prepared statement was that I have requested that the City Clerk send a memo, and he did do that this afternoon, to Mr. Brown, our Zoning Administrator, and Mr. Pellegrini, our City Solicitor, asking them to prepare legislation which would reflect that personal care residences in the City of Pittsburgh shall be owner operated and occupied. That would be for all zones. Throughout the City of Pittsburgh, if Council so chooses, and I would encourage them to do so, we would be restricting personal care facilities only to the ownership of people who are going to operate them and people who are going to live in the facility.

So, what I am proposing here for "R1" and "R1-A" neighborhoods, hopefully in the near future, we will have the appropriate legislation so that all zones will have the same requirements.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, are you aware that in our group home bill that passed, I really think this is a big tempest in a teacup simply because, given a choice in any community between a group home for wayward girls or a halfway house for addicts or people recovering from alcohol problems —

The Chair:

Michelle, restrict yourself to the amendment.

Michelle Madoff:

I am addressing the issue. Given a choice of a bill that passed here a year ago or an innocuous personal care facility, those who have really raised the issue are being very foolish and very silly and I have told them that. I think they are making something out of it that doesn't exist.

I think that when you talk about the issue, and I think I hear you correctly, Mr. Robinson, you're saying that you're proposing that not only "R1" and "R2" would be owner operated but everything else would be owner operated in all the other zones. Is that correct?

Mr. Robinson:

Who are owner occupied.

Michelle Madoff:

Now, my concern, then, is what do we do with all the grandfathered existing group homes, and we had one that came before Council that we were going to evict. The people had rented it, gone in under false pretenses. We voted to keep them there and somebody owns the building and he wants somebody to buy the building, it will be for a profit, he doesn't live in the area, he doesn't live in the home, he has nothing to do with the facility. I think your amendment is unconstitutional because you'd have to change all the bills in "R1" and "R2" for every group home, not only personal care homes. I think it's inconsistent.

What I would like to ask, if my colleagues would like to answer, they don't have to if they don't want to, but I was contacted at my residence and asked who to get in touch with, who had not voted. These were people who were very concerned about having personal care facilities. They wanted to know who the people were who had not voted for it, and I couldn't remember everybody. I gave them three or four names.

The Chair:

Michelle, what bearing is that on the amendment? Would you stay on the amendment, please.

Michelle Madoff:

Did anyone receive telegrams or letters or calls saying, "If you don't vote to give us personal cares, we're going to go out and politic against you in the next election". The reason I asked the question —

The Chair:

You're out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

I am not through, Mr. President.

The Chair:

You are through because you're not on the amendment, you're out of order. You got off the amendment three times. I told you to stay on it.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry. I'm not out of order.

The Chair:

You're into patronage and everything else. Mr. Givens, you have the floor.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm interested in how this bill was approved by Mr. O'Malley and said to some people, "I will see that this bill passes". You better take the message back and has changed his mind. Now he's changing his mind again. I think that is what we should be having our cameras here for. That's why I voted, and it was my motion —

The Chair:

You would have been on time if the cameras were here, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

You better believe it. I think the people have a right to know and that's why it was my suggestion because I have nothing to hide about my behavior. I want them to know that when you rule me out of order when I'm correct, I'm going to stand up for my rights and for the people that voted for me. The fact remains that this Council has zigzagged back and forth and no matter how the vote goes on it, you realize folks, you lost it. Because even if they amend it, you're getting group homes.

The Chair:

Would you speak to the Chair, please? You're out of order again.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm always out of order when I address the public.

The Chair:

You speak to the Chair, you don't speak to the audience.

Mr. Givens:

I have concern and a point of order, if I might. At the public hearing on October 19, 1982 in regards to personal care homes and this particular bill, No. 1588. I asked the specific question that is being brought before us today. The question was, and was my second request, I want to know if a person who is living in that place, meaning the home of a personal care home, should own the home and that they live in that home while they are in the care of this personal care facility.

The reply back from the Department of City Planning, signed by Jim Brown, our Zoning Administrator, indicated yes, Council may do so, however, this type of provision would cause severe economic conditions on a number of homes. We find that some of the best maintained homes are operated by the non-resident. Staff under a sponsoring agency. Approximately twenty-five percent of the homes are agency sponsored of those some hundred and twenty-five that we know about.

The key question, and Michelle is somewhat on target, along with Tom Flaherty, is the fact of the legality of the thing. The legality of the thing is that it is, and I asked in my question E in response back from Jim Brown, what about the tax to the City. I mentioned mercantile tax and he said it does not apply. I mentioned business privilege tax and he said that would apply.

The thing is, as I indicated last Wednesday, the underscoring thing, is that if we leave this residence care facility into our "R1" area, then we're leaving a commercial entity into our "R1" entity. Commercial being designated that they have to put a business privilege tax out there. If we do this then we're going to open that gate for many other endeavors that want to come into our "R1" area.

On that, and that reason alone, and like Jim and Bill Robinson, I, too, have been looking for compromises in trying to get the elderly into our "R1" areas but if we do it, then we're opening up that gate.

You know, this "R1" area constitutes one-seventh of the surface area of the City of Pittsburgh, not as depicted on a map that we had up here when we had the public hearing. The public hearing depicted "R1" and "R2" areas. We're talking about one-seventh of the total land area of the City of Pittsburgh wherein forty percent of our total tax base does come from. That's a hard fact proven by the City Planning Commission. These people in Zoning, Zoning is nothing but protection. You say Zoning is not unified throughout and it's not supposed to be unified. We have twenty-eight --

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, if I may. I wonder if you'd limit your comments when we're voting on the bill itself. Now we're talking about the amendment and you're getting away from it.

Mr. Givens:

This is the amendment itself to include this into this "R1" area. I'm trying to explain, Mr. President, that the fact remains that the "R1" and "R1-A" area represents only one-seventh of the total area of the City of Pittsburgh. We talked about zoning. We have twenty-eight different classifications in zoning. Each of those classifications is for protection, protection of what can go in there and what not can go in there. In this particular case, what should not go in there. I think if we approve this amendment, then we are deluding the issue and also I think there are some legal problems of having some homes that are administrated by agencies and others that are not administrated by agencies.

Mr. Flaherty:

I just want to respond to what Councilman Robinson said earlier in regard to requesting that the Zoning Board report to Council on the possibilities of perhaps putting all personal care boarding homes under the restraint of being owner occupied.

I think in a practical and in a common sense way, I don't think we're ever going to see that in Council because we are just going to drag ourselves into more of a morass on this issue. We're just going to become more entwined in it because what we're doing is starting at the top with a small group and we're going to try to change the whole structure for a few people at the top and what is going to happen is the vast majority of personal care boarding homes in this City are not owner occupied.

So if you go to that extreme and say that they are going to have to be owner occupied, then you're going to put probably over half of the homes out of business and you're going to end up infringing even more on the needs of the elderly.

The Chair:

Call the question.

Mr. O'Malley:

I think the amendment was an acceptable compromise to all sides and to correct Mr. Flaherty, the vast majority of nursing homes and personal care homes in the City of Pittsburgh are owner occupied.

Mr. Flaherty:

No, they're not. Prove it.

Mr. O'Malley:

Seventy-five percent are owner occupied.

Mr. Flaherty:

We can't afford to lose one of those homes.

Mr. O'Malley:

If you would do your homework,

Mr. Flaherty, you'd realize that under this legislation —

Mr. Flaherty:

I did my homework. We can't afford to lose one of them. It's a crisis and it's turned into a political football.

Mr. O'Malley:

Under this legislation, all personal care boarding homes would be grandfathered. We wouldn't lose one of them.

Mr. Flaherty:

That's not true.

Mr. O'Malley:

Certainly it's true. I vote aye.

Mr. Stone:

I vote no and for none of the reasons previously mentioned.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the amendment?

And on the question, "Shall the amendment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. O'Malley . . . Mr. Robinson

AYES 2 . . . NOES 6

VOTING NO:

Mr. Flaherty . . . Mr. Stone
Mr. Givens . . . Mr. Woods

Michelle Madoff

Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the amendment was defeated.

The Chair:

And on the bill itself?

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I requested from Mike Perry, and I don't know if it's a matter of record, but I would like it for the record that we have Mr. Dan Pellegrini, my office has checked with him, and it appears that there is already on the books an ordinance that reviews all group homes of any nature, every year, to see if they are meeting compliance, if they are disrupting the neighborhood, if there are any records of complaints so people just can't be vindictive, that there has been some police records or so on. And that, indeed, those licenses can be lifted.

Unfortunately, laws without enforcement are futile nonsense. I want to have a post or a hearing, at your discretion, Mr. President, I think a post would be adequate, to see what we can do so this Council has a list of every group home, the time and date it will be inspected each year, and polls sent out to the neighborhood requesting some kind of input as to whether they're happy with the performance, how its fitting into the neighborhood, so that, indeed, the people who are paying taxes have really the protection they were seeking when they came here today and said we don't want personal care homes, which is ludicrous. What they really want to be concerned about, Mr. President, is that all group homes are run in compliance with the law and are not disruptive to the neighborhood and I want to see that enforcement takes place, so that we don't have an exercise in futility.

Mike, would you schedule that at the first possible moment, please?

The Chair:

I have to agree with Mr. Flaherty that we should bite the bullet and vote. We can talk until hell freezes over and it really wouldn't prove a point.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm going to try to be as concise as possible in my support for the bill. As I brought out earlier in Wednesday's Committee Meeting and I also hit upon it already today, a compromise has been offered. We are extending the space control from 800 to 1,000 feet. We're not doing that in any of the other zoning areas. I reluctantly supported that in the pragmatic hope that perhaps it would enhance the passage of the bill.

Secondly, the idea of a personal care boarding home, to have them or not to have them is not a social amenity. It's not the same as paying money to have your lawn manicured or having a capital improvement in your neighborhood or any other amenity that you can purchase through money. It's a responsibility that all of society should share in and nobody should be deleted from having to shoulder that burden.

Third of all, I think that we have tended to overlook the concerns of the elderly. This morning I had a conversation with the Director of the area agency on aging and she says we are in a crisis situation here now where we don't have enough personal care boarding homes. I'm sure we are all aware of the problems at Kane Hospital where they have a waiting line for years, and Kane Hospital is not even addressing the

No. 1333. RESOLUTION repealing: Item I of Resolution number 1435, approved December 31, 1981, which authorized the sale of property in the 27th Ward, located on Meirsch, Boston and Holbrook Streets, designated as Block 44-D, Lots 331-334-337-340 & 341. This vacant land was being sold to Thomas R. Nieman for the sum of $1,800.00.

The reason for the above Repealing resolution is that the Title Search revealed that plan lots 69 & 70, which constitute a portion of parcel - 44-D-331, were not properly acquired, and cannot be included in this sale. the purchaser, however, is not willing to continue with the balance of the sale, as the remaining property will not completely conform with his proposed usage of the property.

Therefore, the sale is hereby repealed, and the hand money of Thomas R. Nieman in the amount of $180.00 will be refunded by the Department of Lands and Buildings.

SECTION 1. Any Resolution or Ordinance or part thereof conflicting

No. 1334. RESOLUTION providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain property or properties acquired at tax sale in accordance with Act No. 514 of 1947 as amended.

SECTION 1. The Office of the Solicitor for City and School Tax Liens is hereby authorized to petition the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County for the sale of the following property or properties acquired at tax sale in accordance with Act No. 514 of 1947 as amended. The advertisement of sale and deed contain a stipulation that the property is being sold subject to all zoning, building and subdivision laws and ordinances, and the cost of the court proceedings to be paid from Code Account No. 1088, Miscellaneous Services, Supplies, Equipment, etc., Collection of Delinquent City and School Tax Liens, Department of City Treasurer, and repaid to said Code Account from the sale price:

Any and All properties contained in this Resolution may be the subject of advertising for sale by the Department of Lands and Buildings.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask, Mr. Robinson, Mr. Flaherty and Mr. O'Malley, I believe, who voted no the other day, would somebody clarify. I'm a little confused on what the bottom line of that issue was. It was not having a consultant, it was a matter that they should come to us with the name of that consultant. Am I correct on that?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes. My opposition primarily stems from the process in which Council is asked to approve an appropriation for a consultant and we are not aware of who the consultant is. It seems to me that we're just extending, in a sense, a carte blanche check that can be awarded to any consultant.

I also had a problem in that there was only one or two consultants out of the possibility of perhaps twenty-five consultants that could handle the work.

Michelle Madoff:

This was not an emergency or a Wallace Act?

Mr. Flaherty:

No, I'm not aware of it being so. There were probably only two consultants that were contacted through phone conversations in regard to doing the work out of a possibility of twenty-five.

They are my two primary reasons for opposition and I think, for the sake of accountability, in the final sense Council should be provided with more information, more documentation in a written form as to why a director is asking for a specific appropriation for a specific consultant. It just seems to be a wide open process now.

Mr. O'Malley:

I don't feel this is a consultant fee, it would be more for design. If it would be for design, we'll go out on a bid.

Michelle Madoff:

That's one understanding.

Mr. Robinson:

My objections to 2127 parallel Mr. O'Malley's concerns. It seems to me that this is indeed a contract for design. We should have gone through the same process as other contracts of that type.

The Chair:

Are we saying this is illegal to do it this way?

Michelle Madoff:

It's immoral.

Mr. O'Malley:

There's a great deal of difference between a consulting contract and a designing contract.

The Chair:

I understand, Jim, but I'm saying if they're doing it illegally, that's one thing. If they're not, that's another thing. Do they have to let it out for bids?

Mr. O'Malley:

I would image, but I'm not sure.

Michelle Madoff:

It has come to my attention, and I don't know, if it applies in the City, perhaps Mr. Givens can help me, when a contractor, an engineering firm, is bidding, they are rated one, two, three, four, and very frequently the company that is rated one, and has worked all over the country, doesn't get any work in Allegheny County. They contacted me to see how they can get some of the work. I just want to know if that is the way we do it. Do you know, Mr. Givens? Do we rate the qualifications of the engineers or the consultants as to their abilities on a one, two, three, four? I understand that they do do this in the County. And the company that is always one of the top three never gets any work. And I'm afraid that that is the kind of thing that I am concerned about. In re-thinking this, I have no problem with the Director giving a contract to an engineering or consulting firm that he thinks is qualified, providing if it's in my department that he at least have the courtesy to discuss it with me. I don't want to hear about it after the fact, such as the case of Green International. I feel that if he came to us and said it would be Green International, this is why we want to have it, these are the dollars, that I would have gone along with it because I know the qualifications of the people involved.

But I think it would be prudent in the future, and I know that frequently I get letters from Mr. Cosentino saying that the reason the contract wasn't awarded to the lowest bidder was because they didn't meet certain qualification. I could live with that. I think you're right. I get it in advance from those people, I think we should get it in advance from everybody.

I'm going to change my vote to no on this with the idea that in the future we would be notified who the person is and then we would vote.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I would like my remarks and the remarks of Director to be brought forward to this meeting.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS
ON BILL NO. 2127 - 12/8/82)

Mr. Givens:

Could you explain that a little bit?

Director Gaetano:

We had a major emergency on Fort Pitt Boulevard. The upper structure close to Smithfield Street started falling down on to the Parkway, for which we are liable. We had a consultant on the particular project who did the lower portion. He came in and looked at the top portion as an emergency basis for us and recommended what to do. We are now going out to a permanent — for a consultant for the upper portion to be constructed.

Mr. Givens:

Okay. That's been in bad shape and all.

MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

Well, one thing, if I could interject here. They cannot do anything until this Council appropriates the money. I don't think they can go out and negotiate a contract without us giving them authorization.

Mr. Gaetano:

That's right.

MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

Is that a legal point or not? I raise it as a point of discussion. They can go out and do all the bargaining, contractual agreements that they want to. It doesn't mean anything to anybody until this Council appropriates by line item a bill saying that this is what it's going to be. Now, they can go out and do all this ground work, extensive cost to the City because someone is going to have to be paid a cost to the contractors and everything else, then they give it to this Council and this Council disapproves it.

MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTS

Mr. Given:

What happens to all this preplanning, all the prework they have put into this, the contractor, all the work they have put into this, and coming up for bids for proposals. Do you think that's a pie in the sky? They go to work on each and every one of these so they don't get into something where the cost is going to be so significant they're going to lose. They're supposed to make a profit out there I would think.

Many times you'll go out hoping it's going to be $92,000 and it will come in at a higher price or a lower price, and if it comes in lower, we don't hear about it. If it comes in higher, then you —

Director Gaetano:

If it comes in lower, okay. When a consultant comes in with his agreement, that controller has that agreement. I can't go — I could have been here for $90,000, if that consultant comes in at $50,000 I'm not permitted to go to the $90,000 unless I come to this Council because once the Controller gets that contract he has a copy of it, too. He doesn't let me go back up at all unless I have a real good reason.

MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTS

Mr. Given:

Council approves and appropriates. The Administration, in my reading of the Home Rule Charter, is the contractual party. Council cannot enter into contractual agreements. If we're to sit here and look over what Lou's responsibility is on every contract or every consultant in the City of Pittsburgh, we're not going to get our work done.

Our responsibility is to say that there is Fort Pitt Boulevard out there. All of us have driven over it. We know the condition of it. The Director is saying we want to do something about that. We want to hire a consultant to do that type of work. I don't care what consultant he gets as long as that consultant has a good reputation in the community.

MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTS

Director Gaetano:

The consultant will design it. He's not going out and telling me what to do. He's designing it and saying go out to a contract.

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Given:

I would like to say one thing, Mr. Chairman. I think as this bill has been well debated, there hasn't been one consultant that has come up in my department that we didn't ask this Director everything that consultant was going to do, and how he picked him and everything else.

I have been on record, as I indicated, there are certain overtones that I'm picking up that I don't like. Like there is something wrongfully being done by the Administration. And I will have to say that if someone feels this way, then they should have to then prove their feelings and accusations. I think the City of Pittsburgh has a very good reputation in doing it's business with the business community. It's streamlined itself extremely well over this past Administration. We used to have contractors sitting out there for years before they got paid. And that is not the case right now.

Getting back to the consultants again, I think we go over each and every one, and I think you have, Tom, and I know you just picked up on it lately. I have been here for seven years, and I have been doing and scrutinizing what you are scrutinizing in the last couple months.

(END - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2127 - 12/8/82)

Mr. Givens:

I think the Director very adamantly described the process of how the Administration selects a particular consultant.

As I indicated last Wednesday, I challenge this on almost every consultant that comes forward. I go into fairly deep review. They kind of rotate it if they can. They get the consulting organization that has the best expertise in this particular area. If we're to get in to just not consultants, when you look at consultants, that's just the tip of the iceberg. You then have to get into every contractual agreement that is made in the Administration by whoever we do it with. Consultants are handled differently than some others. But as far as safeguards can go, I see no abuse of the present system at this particular time. I see them rotating through various consultants, be it engineering, water, sewers, bridges, whatever the case might be. I personally have not received one complaint from anybody in the industry saying that they have been left out. As Chairman of this particular department, I would say that there is no problem out there. If others have then they should have directed them to my department where then I could have taken their complaints through the normal process that I have set up in my office.

I see no problem with this. I think if we look back historically over what the City has accomplished with our consultants, we've had very little problems whatsoever. I can only think of one in possibly five or six years and that was on a bridge where it was either the consultant or the engineer that did a bad job. Other than that, we seem to have been getting our fair dollar. I think the system is working quite adamantly now. Until I hear differently, I would hope that we continue along with it. I don't think it's Council's position, although we appropriate the money, as the Director indicated, they know their costs, what they assume it will come in for, say $92 thousand in this particular case. If it comes in for a significant amount higher than that, and only when it comes in higher, does this Council hear about. If it comes in much lower, then we don't hear a thing about it.

I'm for leaving the Administration to going out and doing their job. We know this is an emergency situation on this particular bridge, there's concrete falling down on the Parkway below. Do we want to wait until we get a suit before we take action on it? My answer to that is no.

Mr. O'Malley:

Dick, did we go out on a bid for design of the Bloomfield Bridge?

Mr. Givens:

Jim, I have no problem of once we bring a consultant on board, if he's a consultant for a proportion of it, I'd like to see a consultant personally myself, go from the very beginning of the project to the very end of the project. You'd have continuity of the project. Continuity, I think that's very important when you're doing structural work, bridge work and things of this nature. Only through that track record can the City come back if the consultant is wrong. If he is wrong, then he has to eat his own poor judgment that he made previously to the City. He'll have to eat that. Because if he's using his basis and he goes into a design and even a constructional phase of the thing and fails, then it's his failure from day one. That's the way I would like to see the blame be put.

Mr. O'Malley:

I have no problem with that. I agree a consultant should stay on until the termination of the project. What I ask is did we have a consultant or did we go out on bid for design of the Bloomfield Bridge?

Mr. Givens:

There's no requirement to my knowledge to go out on bid for consultants within the City of Pittsburgh. It's the City's responsibility to negotiate that independently from whatever consultant they want to. I would like to give any Administration that latitude to go out and do that, wherever they might have to go.

Mr. O'Malley:

Did we go out on bid to design the Bloomfield Bridge?

Mr. Givens:

If you go out on bids for a consultant, I'll tell you what's going to happen right now because I'm not going to be a consulting firm and go in for a bid without upping my ante. So, we're going to find if we do this, and get into this type of situation, that it's going to cost the taxpayers more than what we're saving.

The Chair:

The answer to your question, Mr. O'Malley, is no.

Mr. O'Malley:

The consensus of my colleagues is that we actually did go out on bid for designing the Bloomfield Street Bridge. There's no difference between that contract and this contract that we're talking about now. This is not a consulting fee, this is a design fee. I would suggest somebody gets a legal opinion on this.

Mr. Flaherty:

I also have a request, Mike. Could you ask Director Gaetano if he would provide Council with all consultants that were awarded contracts through his department for the last two years. And if he could give a brief description of what that work was.

Mr. Givens:

You can ask that, Tom, but I don't know where you've been the last two years then.

Mr. Flaherty:

Why? Are you opposed to me asking for this information?

Mr. Givens:

No. But what do we do each week when we come in here?

Mr. Flaherty:

Then can you answer that information for me now?

The Chair:

Mr. Flaherty and Mr. Givens, if I may, the information will be received.

Mr. Flaherty:

If we could have for the last two years all consultant contracts that were let through the Department of Public Works. I'm interested in having a perspective to actually see how revolving the choices are.

Mr. O'Malley:

Let's extend that to all departments.

Mr. Flaherty:

That's a good idea. Extend that to all of the Directors for the last two years on consultant fees.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think it was about two or three years ago that a bill passed this Council, and occasionally we lapse on it, Mr. Perry, which is not your fault because you don't get the information from the Directors and the bills. I don't want to see a bill that we're dealing with XYZ Contracting Company or the delightful Cone Company, I want to know who the principles are. It was agreed that we would get the names of the principles because some of our principles operate three and four different companies and get three and four contracts. May I remind my colleague Mr. Givens when he says he could only remember one incident, he overlooked one major one. I think there was a little problem with filling in some subterranean caverns on the North Side and a $336 thousand contract was awarded without bid.

I do think that, for the record, we ought to point out that I personally think that Director Gaetano is one of the finest directors we have. It is not my intention to inhibit his operation. I think that he has agreed, he did publicly the other day, that he had no problem in coming to this Council when he's asking for dollars for a study or engineering work or consulting work, as Mr. O'Malley would say, that he will give us the name of that person. Since he's agree to do it, why is everybody fighting about it? Why don't we just agree to what you said? He's agreed to do it himself.

Mr. Flaherty:

No, because we are appropriating for consultants and we, often times, are not aware of when we vote as to what consultant is going to be let that award.

Michelle Madoff:

I agree with you. But he has agreed with us. What I'm saying Councilman Flaherty is that even the Directors are agreeing that they would be happy to give us the name --

Mr. Flaherty:

No, they're not.

Michelle Madoff:

He said that the other day. I think it's a matter of record.

Mr. Flaherty:

I don't agree with that.

Michelle Madoff:

Let's find out whether he did or not.

Mr. Flaherty:

Just last week we had Treasurer Schmeiser here and we gave a consultant award in excess of $100 thousand for auditing and we don't know to this day who is going to receive that contract.

Mr. Givens:

May I suggest to Mr. Flaherty that if he wants to find out who the consultant is after we approve it, he just has to go into our own budget office. We get invoices every week that come before us for our approval or disapproval.

Mr. Flaherty:

That's not true, Mr. Givens.

Mr. Stone:

Call the question.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am opposed to 2127 for the reasons so stated in Wednesday's Committee Meeting and I would appreciate those remarks spread on the record and I would also want to add that I, in the future, am not going to vote for any consultant fee, and I still have not received this information, unless there is a written itemization as to how the fee is going to be utilized. I can't see how anyone can appropriate amounts of $100 thousand or an excess without knowing how the money is going to be itemized without knowing anything about Green Engineering other than someone who works for them worked for the County. That's all I ever heard about Green Engineering. I don't know anything else about its twenty-four competitors and I don't think anyone on this Council knows anything about its twenty-four competitors. In the future I think it's imperative that the Directors extend that courtesy with written reports.

(BEGINNING - MR. FLAHERTY'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2127 - 12/8/82)

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question, Lou. Is any of the award going to be ear marked for the Green Engineering Company?

Director Gaetano:

It all depends on — let me give you my procedure of what we do, on all my consulting work in the City of Pittsburgh. If it's federally funded first, I must go out on an engineering manual and come out with a request for proposals from anybody that wants to bid on my projects. We then sit down and give it three requests or four requests for proposals for four consultants. What I try to do is, I do not go out to request to consultants that already have worked for me. I try to spread my work around. This is mandated by the Federal Government. I have to do this.

If we went out on the request for proposal, you may get three, four, five, consultants coming in and giving you a particular price on what they would do to fix the particular bridge. We'll sit down and discuss with the consultants — we have an estimate of what it would cost too, to fix this bridge. You don't always give it to the low bidder. Sometimes, you give it to the low bidder and there are a lot more dealings that have to be done as to how fast you can get it done, does he have a lot of work with you right now.

Mr. Flaherty:

The only problem I have, Lou, is for Council to approve or appropriate the sum without us knowing who the consultant is going to be. Because, we appropriated, then you could award the contract to anyone. You don't have to come here to receive our approval, and I can't understand the reason why we have to operate that way because I think the proper way would be, when you have your consultant, then you come and ask for the appropriation and explain to us why you selected that consultant. See, there is no accountability controls in the current process.

I have some other questions. Okay, Lou, can you substantiate asking for the $92,000?

Director Gaetano:

Yes.

Mr. Flaherty:

Do you have something?

Director Gaetano:

I don't have anything.

Mr. Flaherty:

Writing?

Director Gaetano:

I'll be happy to give you all of the proposals, what we ask for, what our estimate was, and everything on the particular --

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, have you spoken to any consultants yet?

Director Gaetano:

We've spoken to Green, to Richardson Gordon, and we have spoken to one other. There was three of them that we talked to. This was an emergency situation. When the rocks started to fall down.

Mr. Flaherty:

Lou, in your professional opinion, how many engineering firms or consultants could provide the service that you're asking?

Director Gaetano:

On this particular one? In the City of Pittsburgh there must be 20 or 25 of them.

Mr. Flaherty:

And how many have we contacted, two?

Director Gaetano:

No. I contact on all my jobs, okay. Like I spoke of before, Tom, I put it in an engineering magazine now, I'm required to do this by the Government, and ask anybody to send me something in that you want to request for a proposal on this particular issue. So, indirectly, I contact everybody and tell them to come in to me. On a case like this, I know we contacted two, because it was an emergency when it fell down. Maybe another one.

Mr. Flaherty:

Why couldn't we have contacted all of them? I mean regardless if it's an emergency or if — it takes the same period of time to send two letters out as it does for one.

Director Gaetano:

Well, you take some of your best people in the City of Pittsburgh, Richardson Gordon, Green, the better structural people are the ones that we have on the Bloomfield Bridge, but they have a contract. I don't want to talk to them right now. I try to spread all of my contracts around with all the consultants around. Tom, I must have ten or twelve consultants working for me at the same time, and I want to spread it around.

Mr. Flaherty:

When you contact them, do you contact them over the phone, or do you write to them, or —

Director Gaetano:

In this particular case, it was over the phone to get in here right away. We have pieces falling down onto the Parkway. I've got to discuss it with you right away. And my bridge people handle it from there.

Mr. Flaherty:

See, I have real problems with that, Lou. We went into this a few days ago where Directors are coming in and they are negotiating contracts in the range of at least $100,000 over the phone. I can't see how this Council can have the slightest —

Director Gaetano:

We call them in, Tom. You don't do it over the phone. You can only call him and ask him to come in.

Mr. Flaherty:

Do you have the documentation from them?

Director Gaetano:

Yes.

Mr. Flaherty:

Could you provide that, please?

Director Gaetano:

Sure.

(END - MR. FLAHERTY'S REMARKS ON
BILL NO. 2127 - 12/8/82)

Mr. Givens:

My only comment is that if Mr. Flaherty was in here and looked at, I think the Controller has some six thousand contracts that he negotiates every year. And if Mr. Flaherty wants to go in and search into all six thousand contractors that the City will hire during any one year period of time, I would suggest that he would not get any of his councilmatic duties performed. If there's anything, Tom, that you had asked of the Director and he did not provide you with — Are you saying that you asked for certain information?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, itemization. There's no itemization.

Mr. Woods:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman. The question has been called and we can't go back and forth in debate again.

Mr. Givens:

I would suggest that anytime any person asks any Director for information that he should receive that information. The fact that you did not tell me — Did you do this at last Wednesday's session?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, I don't have an itemization.

Mr. Givens:

Well, this gives me concern, Mr. President. I think that any time any Councilperson up here asks for certain information and it is not received, then I feel almost reluctant to put this thing back in Committee again. However, I have one problem with this particular bill. We have concrete falling off the underpass and the City, if we don't act on this, will block off the underpass and that's the major east-west route. I don't think we want this.

But Tom, I will be sure you will get this on this particular piece of legislation, even though I hope this Council would pass on it today. But you will get that information.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Perry, could we have a letter going to all department heads before they come to this Council asking for money for consultants or engineers or any major contract, would they please supply the name of the people they are going to award it to and why they are going to award it to them.

I don't think we're going to have a problem, but I'm just going to vote no on this bill because I think I want to be emphatic about my wishes.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

Why are you charging me a ferrule charge?" And the fee we've gone to, which I thought was fair because of the maintenance costs, turns out to be sort of our own responsibility and I think at some point, we may even want to wipe out the 450. But for the moment, I'll leave it and see what happens.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Robinson presents:

Bill No. 2205 WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh has a long established responsibility to provide adequate housing to all the people of the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh has operated its own Department of Housing for a number of years until its responsibilities were assumed by the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh has established the Housing Authority of the City of Pittsburgh and mandated the existence of a Central Relocation Agency to address semi-permanent and emergency housing needs; and

WHEREAS, the existence of abandoned housing, dilapidated housing and a shortage of rental housing, particularly for low and moderate-income people, has helped to create a near housing crises in the Pittsburgh area; and

WHEREAS, major urban cities across the United States are experiencing many of their citizens without adequate living accommodations and living in parks, on public and private lands, and in makeshift accommodations; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh is now experiencing a similar situation relative to the lack of housing for those adversely affected by the current economic conditions; and

WHEREAS, public housing and housing for low-income people is in a crisis situation, and the City of Pittsburgh wishes to address this issue.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council and the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of its citizens, does reaffirm its support for a City sponsored and maintained housing relocation effort to assist displaced persons to find adequate housing in the City of Pittsburgh, and also the Mayor and Council resolve to provide for available City owned or maintained housing and reasonable resources to achieve the purpose set forth.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Mr. Robinson, has there been any money set aside in the '83 budget to do just this?

Mr. Robinson:

I'm not aware of any money in the '83 budget for housing rehabilitation for any of the items that I have here.

Michelle Madoff:

I think your intentions are very honorable but I used to have a slogan that was going to be on my tombstone that laws without enforcement are an exercise in futility. If we don't appropriate some money, all we saying is, "Gee, it would be nice to help the Mayor, we'll do it." Wouldn't that be lovely? It's a shame to see street people but what are we really going to do about it?

The other day I had occasion to talk to Mayor Caliguiri about the concept of running the City properties on cable. As you know, Brother Richard is looking into getting one of the spare circuits, one of the spare lines to run all the properties all day long and it looks like it may be a real possibility. The Mayor, in that instance, is very supportive. He thinks it would be an excellent idea and Brother Richard has already shown that he's got results above what we normally get from selling properties.

There are some properties there, Mr. Robinson, that I think we could probably very inexpensively take and make available for multiple-dwellings. I think that I'd like to see you follow this up, and I certainly offer you my support, to find some allocation of dollars, if you'll talk to the Finance Chairman, and put some money and some teeth into this bill.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might comment, Mr. President, very quickly. Mrs. Madoff should be aware that the 1983 budget has not yet been approved so all matters, and this particular resolution, relative to money, as far as I'm concerned, can be addressed at the appropriate time.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you. I just wanted to say that I would support you.

Mr. Robinson:

That's just one comment. The other comment is that I think that there is already in existence, in the City, a relocation agency. It would seem to me that we might want to make sure that our contribution, our financial contribution to that is substantial. And certainly this resolution speaks to that. Mr. Woods, of course, is on our Housing Authority Board and I want to thank him for seconding this resolution. It seems to me that some questions had been raised about what role the Housing Authority must now operate the relocation agency is going to play in this present housing crisis can be addressed more adequately with Council's firm support.

My last comment is that I think the Vacant Property Review Committee as well as the Housing Department of the Urban Redevelopment Authority are well on their way to identifying a unit that possibly could be used to help displaced persons find temporary housing. Both Mr. Woods and I have discussed this Welfare Rights Organization in preparing a document, and again, I think this resolution speaks to that whole general issue and I'd just like to thank Council for considering it and I hope that each member of Council will find it in their hearts to support it.

Also,

Bill No. 2206 WHEREAS, the Office of the City Controller is required by law, Article 4, Section 404 a, b, c of the Home Rule Charter, City of Pittsburgh, to conduct performance audits and prescribe accountability standards for all units of Government within the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, the performance audits provide not only indications of effective government; but, area where efficiency and production can be maximized; and

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh City Council has been in the forefront of efforts to improve the quality of government in this City; and

WHEREAS, Council along with the Mayor are cognizant of the current demands of the citizenry to provide "Good Government" at all levels.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does request a performance audit of Pittsburgh City Council to include the Office of the City Clerk and said audit shall address, among other matters determined by the City Controller, the following:

- 1.) Job descriptions and classifications of personnel including Research Assistants and Administrative Assistants.
- 2.) Performance standards and their relationship to salary increases and promotions.
- 3.) Data collection and retrieval capabilities.
- 4.) Information processing and utilization.
- 5.) Applications of available technology.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

You mean to say this Council is going to approve an audit on the Office of the City Council?

The Chair:

This Council has already approved it.

Michelle Madoff:

Are we going to include merit Civil Service in that? Do you think, perhaps, the people that are hired should go through the merit Civil Service? We're the only department that doesn't have merit Civil Service.

The Chair:

Let the Controller's Office determine that.

Mr. Robinson:

I think that the Controller's Office has the authority and power to carry in the form of auditing and I think the items are listed in the resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, I couldn't agree with you more because at Monday's meeting, June 29, 1981, 2:00, I introduced almost the same bill and it was shot down. That's why I was shocked that it went through. But I extended it to every department in the City saying that we ought to have an audit by an independent consulting firm to come in and tell us how to operate efficiently by having an efficiency expert do it, and I want to commend you. I'll buy you lunch. I wish I had that kind of influence with this Council.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I also wish to commend Councilman Robinson on the resolution that we have enacted and I feel that it is long overdue, especially the priority in regard to job descriptions and classifications.

I have a question for Councilman Stone in regard to that process. I know in my three years on Council, and especially in the two previous years, when the time arrives to appropriate salaries for Council's staff, and I'm including all the members, I have heard for the past two years that there is going to be a uniform system in regard to job descriptions and classifications. I don't know if there is going to be some improvements in regard to that in the next couple of weeks or not. But what I'm concerned about, Councilman Stone, is that I know it's been the practice that we in Council, that we go into a small room and we don't allow the staff, our own staff, to see any changes that are made in the budget and then it seems we are marshalled out of that room right into this Chamber to vote on those changes. I think that we are not extending a courtesy to our own staff that we extend to everyone else in the City, and that is simply the opportunity to lobby and to speak with each member of Council if they so choose in regard to the salary that is earmarked for them.

So, my question is, are we going to use that same procedure this year, and if I may offer a recommendation that if we are going to have changes, I think they are referred to as spot raises, that they be presented a few days ahead of time to give our staff, who I feel for the most part do a very creditable job, to give them the opportunity and the time to at least speak with whatever members of Council they want, at least the opportunity to make their case.

Michelle Madoff:

How about giving us enough time so that we can vote?

Mr. Flaherty:

And if I may add, the members of Council, too, if we could receive that information a few days ahead of time instead of being sheparded into a small room and we have a pass out and we yell and scream at each other and then we come in here and we vote on it and half of our staff is angry at us throughout their entire holiday.

My question of Councilman Stone is, is he going to change the process or if he sees any merit in what I am saying.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I'm at a loss. I just heard Mr. Flaherty commend Mr.

Robinson for his bill and now he's talking about giving everybody the opportunity to lobby Council and it would appear to me that Council ought to look at itself a little bit as well. It doesn't make any difference who you lobby. It's a question of whether that person is deserving or not deserving. That's the real issue. That's the way it should be done. As far as giving these people in the last couple of years, we've been trying to get them into a category so that we don't end up with you take care of yours, that one takes care of that one. I think that's the tenure of what's been happening here with this resolution. It's leading into that. We won't have so much of this, you lobby me, I'll lobby you kind of stuff. I think that's the wrong way to do it.

Michelle Madoff:

How are you going to do it this year? That's the question.

Mr. Stone:

We will meet and at that point you'll decide what you want to do.

Michelle Madoff:

How about making sure that by the 1983 budget, when we get into the '84 budget, that this has been completed and we can vote in an intelligent manner.

Mr. Stone:

I would love to see that happen.

Michelle Madoff:

And would you give us a couple of days before we go from one room to the other to vote?

Mr. Stone:

I for one cannot see how we did last year or the year before where we're telling everybody in this City to hold the line in an attempt on a couple of people who are now talking favorable for this program, who are trying to help others individually. I think it's about time we cut that out. You have to be consistent.

Michelle Madoff:

I think that is unfair and unjust because I've already told Mike Perry that I'm going to vote against any raise for him and I can't think of anybody more deserving. It is not a time for raises. As a matter of fact, this Council might set an example and take a cut in salary.

Mr. Flaherty:

I don't see anything wrong with the word lobby. We extend that invitation to everyone else. That is in inherent right of any citizen to lobby the government, may it be over an issue or may it be over their own salary. I think we treat our own staff as second class workers in this City and apparently, Mr. Stone, from the tenure of your answer, we're going to continue to. But I'm one member of Council who is going to continue to fight for them. They're damn upset about it.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Perry functions under a tremendous handicap. The people that are hired are hired by the majority of this Council. The minority of do not have a say on who he hires. You're damn right he's complaining. He complains all the time. He complains every time we have a bill read and he's sorry that we didn't get out bills out because his people didn't do it. But he's got five bosses at least. How many of us don't carry any weight around here? Maybe five bosses. At the most, six bosses. And he takes his orders from the six who are going to get him re-appointed. He knows that I support him. I think he's wonderful. But I know that his hands are tied and he has to take orders and he can't do what he really wants to do.

And on the motion of Mr. Givens

Council adjourned.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Michelle Madoff:

There is a meeting to be held, I believe at 3:00 today, Mr. Stone?

Mr. Stone:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

That would be unfinished business of Council, I believe. I think I would call to the attention of this Council that there is a Supreme Court Ruling that was published in the paper, came out of UPI, Washington, which says that decisions conducted or transacted, even just discussed, are not allowed to be held anymore in private under the Sunshine Bill. It goes on to say that while you can have a private session, a closed session, considering the dismissal or disciplining or hearing charges against a public office holder or employee, which we are not about to do. Or you can have a hearing on a public employee labor negotiation. There's nobody representing the people we are going to be talking about for salaries. There's no labor negotiation, they're not represented, and we cannot meet behind closed doors.

I would therefore like to respectfully suggest that we comply with the law and meet in public.

Mr. Stone:

I think we ought to meet at 3:00 and find out where we're going from there.

Michelle Madoff:

I've checked with two legal counselors, two people in the Law Department. As a matter of fact, Mr. Robinson was a third one. I asked him and he agreed that we would be in violation of the law.

Mr. Stone:

They are better lawyers than I because they even know what we're going to discuss before we get to it. I would say that we ought to talk to them because if they've got the ability to fortune-tell, then we ought to pick that up. Maybe they could help us with the lottery.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, is it not true that we are going to be discussing the salaries, increases of our staff for Council? Is that true or not true?

Mr. Stone:

When we get to that meeting I'll tell you what we're going to do.

Michelle Madoff:

You know darn well that's what we're going to discuss. You've already told every member of this Council that's what we're going to discuss. I don't think we should violate the law because you want to have a private meeting. I'm not going to attend it if that's the subject matter. I want to know what the subject is. I'm a duly elected member of this Council. What is the subject matter? Do you refuse to tell us?

The Chair:

We have a meeting at 3:00, Michelle. It's your prerogative not to attend it.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, let me make something imminently clear. All the time when I hear this kind of talk, it makes it seem like everybody else wants to do something wrong and that somebody else is trying to do something right. Let me just say very, very clearly here for everybody's benefit. I don't need any private meetings. I'm prepared to stand out in front of this audience at any time to discuss anything. I told everybody last Monday that I oppose the lobbying or the ability to lobby because I think Council's staff ought to be in the same category as those employees as the rest of the City and we would get rid of those people who, behind the scenes, do the lobbying and come out here and act like they're not doing it.

So, for me, I just want it very, very clear and out front. I don't have any problems in discussing anything out front.

Michelle Madoff:

Then we're having a meeting at 3:00 out front, in public. Is that correct?

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I would just want to respond to what Councilman Stone has said. The budget was presented to this Council close to a month ago and all other City employees have had the past month to lobby this Council in regard to their salaries or any aspect of the budget. Here we are in this rut, in this tradition, of going in and treating our own staff as second rung employees. We are going in and there is favoritism played. And that's why seventy-five percent of this staff is extremely upset over the Christmas holiday because when we come out of that meeting, a few select favorites are taken care of.

The Chair:

If I may, Mr. Flaherty, you stated those very same reasons last week. You're repeating yourself.

Michelle Madoff:

Are you supporting me that we have the meeting in public, Mr. Flaherty?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes. I don't have any problem with that.

Michelle Madoff:

Could we put that to a vote, that we have the meeting in public?

Michelle Madoff moved to have the meeting public.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm voting no on this bill and my reason for voting no is consistent with the fact that the money for that Zoo is not coming from a foundation grant and you know my position is that the City pays all the deficits while two-thirds of the non-City residents are enjoying the facility.

The Chair:

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 2135, Councilman Flaherty, I'm prepared to vote on the bill today because we don't want to hold anything up, but I wonder if you would go back and do a little research or history for me. Find out if the properties originally belonged to the City of Pittsburgh. It's Lands and Buildings and I believe that they were bought from the City originally. Could you check that for me?

Mr. Flaherty:

Sure.

Michelle Madoff:

On 2135, what is the just compensation? We're authorizing somebody to purchase and we haven't come up with the figure yet? That will come back before Council?

Mr. Givens:

We're authorizing the taking of those properties. The URA is our acting agency.

Michelle Madoff:

But I'd like to know what the value is. Will we ever find out what that dollar figure was? Will that come before Council?

The Chair:

Sure. We have to approve it.

Mr. Givens:

No, I don't think it will.

The Chair:

We have to approve the final sale.

Mr. Givens:

I don't think the actual sale of property, we're authorizing the taking of that property. That's our action in Council. Then the action agency, as far as I can recall, goes back over to the URA who sends appraisers out there, they appraise it and it's fair market value. If the individual doesn't appreciate that then they go back into the County appraisers and assessors and into the courts of the County.

Michelle Madoff:

May I make an official request, Mr. Perry, that a letter go to URA informing this Council of what the price was paid for that property, and Councilman Flaherty, I would appreciate it if you would check and see if that was City-owned property originally.

Also,

Bill No. 2136

Consultants for the Inspection of Fabricated Structural Steel in connection with the Radcliffe Street Bridge; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 9

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. Robinson presented

Bill No. 2228

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for December 15, 1982 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2060

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the East Liberty Development, Inc., a non-profit corporation located at 702 Highland Building, Pittsburgh, PA 15206, for professional services related to the East Liberty Commercial Support Program."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 2060, I spoke to Director Lurcott and asked if he would rewrite the bill so that the fifty thousand matching dollars that come from the City could be allocated to bringing in new business to the boarded up business in East Liberty but not allocated to advertising for shops like Sears, etc. In other words, we give the same dollars, they still have the matching funds of $150 thousand. We don't discriminate against East Liberty. But the City does not set precedent of advertising for a corporation and that that money be allocated for the purpose of bringing industry or whatever, helping the community in general, but specifically eliminating advertising.

A number of Council people I've discussed it with have agreed with me on that. I wonder if the bill has been rewritten thusly.

The Chair:

Are you making a motion to recommit the bill?

Michelle Madoff:

No, I would just like to make a motion to amend the bill to so state that the funds coming from City Council, the $50 thousand, would be used for any purpose other than advertising.

Mr. Robinson:

It is my understanding that at the meeting we had last Wednesday that Director Lurcott indicated that the scope of work that was presented to the City did no take into consideration any kind of promotion. There is still to be signed a cooperation agreement between the City and the East Liberty Development Corporation. I think their specific concern should be addressed in that cooperation agreement. If you want to have that cooperation agreement come back to Council before its finally approved, you can make a motion to do that. That would probably be more appropriate. Within the cooperation agreement we will actually be able to see what is being contracted for.

Michelle Madoff:

Would you have any objection, Councilman Robinson, to indicate at this point that that would be the intention of this Council and therefore that would be what would come back to us? That saying right here and now that the intention of Council is not to set a precedent for advertising but to help communities that need help? If you want to reword it, I'm not married to my words.

Mr. Robinson:

What I would suggest is that your motion should reflect that the cooperation agreement should not contain any provision for the City of Pittsburgh's money to be spent for advertising or promotion.

Michelle Madoff:

Then what you're suggesting is that I reword my resolution to say that the cooperation agreement should not reflect any advertising money so that we do not set a precedent but be used to help the community and its needs to improve the community, boarded up buildings or any other needs that are necessary.

Michelle Madoff moved to amend Bill No. 2060.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Mr. Stone:

Where are we putting the amendment?

The Chair:

Just that none of it be used for advertising.

Mr. Stone:

Mike, I want all the remarks from last Wednesday and the Wednesday before relative to this subject brought forward.

Michelle Madoff:

Likewise, please.

Mr. Stone:

Not mine. Everybody's.

Mr. Givens:

You can only ask for your own.

Michelle Madoff:

That's right. You're not allowed to ask for anyone else's.

Mr. Stone:

I'm not so sure of that. I want them all.

Michelle Madoff:

Well I did that once before and I was ruled out of order by you.

(BEGINNING - REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2060 - 12/8/82)

Mr. Robinson:

I would like to hold this for one week, please.

Michelle Madoff:

Can I ask a question? On the bill you're holding, didn't we do this last year and I objected to it last year? Once we do it, are we going to have to do it for every community? We're going to have to do it for Arsenal. Well, I'm coming in for Squirrel Hill. We have a lot of — highest number of senior citizens, and I want a project — did you have a group come in — we're going to have to treat them equally.

Mr. Givens:

Let me tell you something, Michelle. East Liberty is hanging by toe nails right now. If something is not done up there with Patway East coming in in that particular community, and if it doesn't happen within the next couple of months, we can kiss them goodbye as a vibrant economic area. All indicators have indicated that this particular area has probably one of the best commercial entities in the whole region of southwestern part of Pennsylvania. They have people with cash in their pocket, and they're willing to buy, and this particular group has been struggling for a long time in that area.

What is the problem of even holding this legislation for one week? I don't know if any of you avail yourself to talk to these people to find out what the problems are.

Mr. Flaherty:

They should come to us. They should talk to us about asking for $50,000.

The Chair:

Hold on. In fairness, he was given the permission to speak, and now, you're all going after him.

Michelle Madoff:

I asked him if I may respond.

Mr. Givens:

I'm not finished yet.

Mr. Flaherty:

The bill isn't even on the table, Mr. Chairman, and we're talking about it. Why don't you run the meeting properly.

The Chair:

If I knew — if I was dealing with somebody who knew the rules —

Mr. Flaherty:

The bill isn't even on the table.

The Chair:

The bill is on the table.

Mr. Flaherty:

We're holding the bill for one week.

The Chair:

We have not voted yet to hold it, and therefore it's here for discussion and it was opened up by Michelle, and he's picking up in response, and it's far less than the tangent she would generally get.

Mr. DePasquale:

Let's discuss the whole motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Givens is speaking. We're having a discussion.

Mr. DePasquale:

You people want to play games, we'll play games with them.

Mr. Stone:

Let me say this. If you want me to carry out a strict Robert's Rules of interpretation, I'm capable of doing that, but I want you to know those of you who have abused the rule the most are the ones who will be shortchanged. So, I suggest you don't request what you can't handle.

Mr. O'Malley:

I make a motion to adopt Robert's Rules. Does anyone second it? I make a motion to enforce them.

Mr. Givens:

If I might, Bill, I'm sure that all of us have a great concern, and if the fact that you want to hold the bill for one particular week, and I feel there is an urgency to get this bill put through this Council so these people can start working out there. Come this May, the Patway is going to be opened and if these people aren't geared and ready and those stores filled and ready to accept the people that are going there through this particular community then I think for ever and ever they're going to lose it, and if there's some technical reasons, I'm going to ask you to explain it, but I need some explanation as to why we want to hold it for one week.

Mr. Robinson:

I think that the point that Mrs. Madoff raised is a relevant point, and let me pursue that without getting into an argument about it.

Last year when this very issue came up about providing $50,000 to some business people in East Liberty area who had incorporated and certainly were entitled and eligible for the money, the concern was raised as to what specifically they would use the money for. There were members of Council that felt the money was simply being used to promote advertising and shopping opportunities. And it was felt by a number of members of Council that we certainly didn't want to get into that kind of situation. Mr. Givens and a number of other people did relate the dire economic circumstances under which East Liberty was laboring and employed us to pass some kind of bill that would provide them with an opportunity for them to get on their feet. We did that, but we also did it with the understanding that it was going to be one time. The record reflects that. So, one reason I want to hold this, Mr. Givens, is that we did indicate that is going to be a one shot deal, and here we're coming for a second shot.

Two, I think a valid concern was raised last year as to whether or not this money was going to be used to simply promote Christmas buying opportunity in the store in East Liberty, and whether or not we felt that that was a proper expenditure of our community development funds. Okay, I think it was a legitimate concern last year, and I think it's a legitimate concern this year, particularly given the economic circumstances of the City.

And third, it seems to me that if indeed this is a second shot, and if indeed they're going to do the same thing they did last year, we're entitled to some documentation as to what they did last year, and also some explanation why it's necessary for us to give them another $50,000 to do it again this year. In one week's time I would hope that I would be able to get that information from, not only East Liberty Development Inc., which now has a new executive director, but also from our community development people who have worked along with them. The last thing I would like to mention is I don't think that there is anyone in this Council who is more aware of what is going on in East Liberty than myself, and I don't say that to in anyway put down Mr. Givens or Mr. O'Malley or anyone else who has been concerned about East Liberty. I'm well aware of the various difficulties and problems. I'm also aware that the City of Pittsburgh put millions of dollars into this area over the last thirty years and there is a point at which you have to say that enough is enough. Mrs. Madoff has already suggested that there are other communities that might be coming in asking for the same kind of treatment. I'm sure they deserve it, but we obviously don't have enough money to be going around.

One other quick comment, if I might. Unfortunately, when we attempt to do something good in the neighborhood, some people think it is a signal that our pockets are deep, or they think it's a signal that we are simply passing out special treatment because of some characteristics of that neighborhood, or because we just want to help our friends. I think we have to keep in mind that with the limited resources that we have, we have to help those communities that need the most help, but when it's time to say enough is enough, we ought to say enough is enough. And we shouldn't be doing anything to pit one neighborhood against another. It's not going to serve the best interest of the City. So, I'm asking to hold the bill for one week so we can get some information so that we can discuss it.

The Chair:

All right. The motion before us is to hold or not to hold.

Michelle Madoff:

I had asked to respond to Mr. Givens on that. I yielded to other people before.

My concern is that we have for example, Frankie Mae who pleaded with us during the budget hearings to provide housing for people who are unemployed. There are priorities. I think we have to get our house in order and deal with priorities, and that's why I'm asking to hold this, and for all the reasons that Mr. Robinson just said.

The Chair:

All in favor on the hold?

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

Roll call vote. I want to ask Mr. Givens a question. Was this program a success in East Liberty last year?

Mr. Givens:

Success, as you would call it, yet it was to the point that it brought some attention to East Liberty. As Bill so indicated, you know, there is a lot of money that went into East Liberty. All that was to rehabilitate East Liberty. Let me tell you. Nabisco is pulling out up there. That's 650 jobs. They tell me that Western Electric is now going out, that's another 350 jobs. There is over 1,000 jobs coming out of that one corner, East Liberty. We're trying to develop the other side. We have a housing complex in there. We have a Giant Eagle that just expanded. We got a Patway East coming out there, and the thing is the urgency of this. One week is one more week of delay.

We just passed two bills up there

The Chair:

Wait, Dick. Excuse me. To this point and question, okay, but things pass there.

Mr. DePasquale:

You answered my question. I just want to tell you that I'll agree with you, and I'll go along with the Chairperson to hold it for a week.

Mr. Robinson:

Chairman, Mr. DePasquale called for a roll call vote.

Mr. DePasquale:

No, no, no.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. Then I have a comment to make that was for the roll call vote. I would like to have Mr. Young who is our director for Community Development to talk with Miss LaFrance, Karen, who is in charge of our commercial revitalization program and get us a report on last year's program, get a copy of the request for this year, and get us a copy of the documentation of the work performed last year, whose criteria we have evaluated this program on. Someone raised the issue of success and also why it is that we are going to do this a second time when we agreed we would only do it once. There must be some rationalization — I assume Mr. Young and Miss LaFrance and the people out at East Liberty Development Inc. can put that together for us by next week.

Mr. Givens:

There is one other thing I would like to ask up there. In East Liberty when they evaluated how many stores are opened up in East Liberty, how many stores have closed in East Liberty, and if we look at the one place that I just mentioned, Nabisco, now there is 175 jobs —

Michelle Madoff:

They don't live there.

Mr. Givens:

No, no. This is part of the economic — this is the punch right here. We just spent $160 plus — $210,000 to do for two buildings in the City of Pittsburgh, and were out of the almost same code account CDBG and we're to say that an entity of this magnitude of the East Liberty shopping district —

The Chair:

Dick, I'm going to have to cut you short. The motion is over.

Mr. Givens:

No, no. You have to put things into perspective.

The Chair:

Well, I'm going to put it in perspective. You're out of order, and the bill is passed. It's tabled until one week.

Mr. Givens:

But I'm not out of order.

(END - REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2060 - 12/8/82)

(BEGINNING - REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2060 - 12/15/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, if Council will remember on Monday I indicated there were some points of reference on this particular issue and the issue I think is separate from the bill. I'd like to deal with the issue first. The issue being redevelopment in the East Liberty area. If Council will peruse their records from Monday, they can look at the relevant legislation and compensations in the public record.

It seems to me that there are only three questions to be answered on this particular bill and hopefully we can do that and get on with the business of making this money available to the East Liberty Development Incorporated.

I think every member of Council did receive some communication from Mr. Lurcott relative to this bill and relative to what this money would be spent for. Last week I asked three questions. Those questions were whether or not this money was going to be spent for Christmas promotions; two, whether or not Council had indicated only to give money to the East Liberty Development Corporation one time; three, whether or not this was an eligible C/D expense. My conversation with Director Lurcott and the people from the East Liberty Development Incorporated has satisfied me in terms of answering those questions. This money will not be used for Christmas promotion. This is an eligible expense and while Council did indicate that they only wanted to give money one time, that one shot deal was for a Christmas promotion. A promotion to which the merchants and East Liberty contributed roughly $2,600 and I believe Mr. Flaherty asked at that time to have a detailed documentation as to who was giving how much money. Again, that's all in the public record.

One of the things that I think Council should be aware of is that there was some confusion as to how many agreements the City has signed with the East Liberty Development Incorporated. There evidently was some agreement that we approved that was not consummated for whatever reasons. The Corporation is now properly structured and they are in a position to receive this $50,000 and any other money that has been forwarded to them has been forwarded to them in accordance with the law so there's no problem around that.

One other issue that Mr. DePasquale and Mr. Givens raised about success — about it being a successful program. Mr. Lurcott has indicated to me, and if he's here he can correct me if I'm wrong, that there is no criteria that the Planning Department used that could determine if the program was a success or not a success. There's no objective criteria. Mr. Lurcott did indicate that based on a three year study history of this effort to put this corporation together and help to revitalize the area, he felt they were successful because they finally had the corporation in place. There were a number of things that had been done last year and he anticipated that all of the people who were presently working were part of the process all the way through. Based on that, one could say it was a success.

The Chair:

Anything better than what we've got is an improvement.

Mr. Robinson:

I did indicate to Mr. Lurcott two things: One, I think on all of the projects that we are approving with C/D funds or Planning funds or URA funds, we need an objective criteria to measure and we need a monitoring mechanism. He indicated that was being done and I specifically indicated to him that in a cooperation agreement for this $50,000, there should be an evaluation criteria and a monitoring mechanism so that we can be fair to everybody and particularly the taxpayers of this City to make sure that their dollars are being well spent. I move to approve.

Michelle Madoff:

The issue as far as I am concerned was not whether they were organized and in a position and whether they used the money wisely. I objected last time we gave them the money on the grounds that once we give one, we're going to have people coming to us saying, "I'm just as worthy of it".

Mr. Robinson:

Michelle, there are a number of communities in the City — the Southside and some others to which we have given money for commercial revitalization in the Bloomfield area. So this is consistent with what we have been doing.

Michelle Madoff:

But do we do it to the same group over and over again?

Mr. Robinson:

No, every area of the City. Every area has been touched.

Mr. Givens:

It is a very worthy program.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, are you aware that the money last year was used for advertising, for promotion and advertising which is why I was offended. If we were giving it to the community for reconstruction, if we were giving to the community to get them organized to help them, I would have had no objections. They said the Christmas season we need to advertise to bring in business. When I said, "Let everybody in the area chip in their own fair share of advertising". Why don't we just take over running the department?

Mr. Robinson:

With the permission of the Chair, if we could have Mr. Lurcott who is the person in charge of our Planning Department who is responsible for that project come forward please. And, if there is anyone here from the Law Department that negotiated the agreement, would they come forward and your questions can be answered.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Lurcott, last year the money was used for advertising, right or wrong?

Robert Lurcott

Director

Department of City Planning

The money was used for promotion of East Liberty as a place to shop and not for individual advertising.

Michelle Madoff:

How did they use the promotion? How was it used to promote it? Did they use it by having a little dog running around with a sign on it? Did they have cats on leashes running around or did they take ads in the paper?

Director Lurcott:

They had ads in the paper about special events. It was a program designed very similar to the kind of promotion that the shopping malls use and that is the basis of why they went to us.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you have copies of the ads?

Director Lurcott:

No, I don't.

Michelle Madoff:

I saw them. The ad said, "Come and shop in East Liberty". Why are we paying for ads for stores in East Liberty that say "come and shop" when I can see people in this room who are pleading for houses for people to live in because they are in the streets, and you are making that a priority and that's what's distressing me.

Now if you were saying that the streets were torn up — How much money did we put into East Liberty taking the fountains down, etc. We've tried to work with the Police Department because people were afraid after work, etc. We've done so much for that community.

I don't have any objection to using our monies in the appropriate manner, but we're not in the commercial business. We're not entrepreneurs. How did we go into partnership with entrepreneurs?

Director Lurcott:

We went there because we have found that simply limiting our involvement to physical improvements to those shopping areas and not just to East Liberty but as Councilman Robinson said that Bloomfield, Garfield, Southside, East Ohio Street, many in the City, Hazelwood for instance, but that alone doesn't allow those kinds of shopping areas to compete in today's world with malls. And one of the things that they tend not to do is to advertise as a group —

Michelle Madoff:

That's their problem.

Director Lurcott:

We can certainly take the position that that's their problem and we should not be involved, but if our purpose is to attempt to keep those areas alive, alive certainly for the jobs that they create but also for the services they provide in their neighborhood, then we have found as cities across this country have found, that you cannot limit your involvement to physical improvements alone but you need to be involved in assisting such areas to modernize their whole approach to merchandizing, to compete effectively with places like Monroeville Mall or other malls where, as part of the rent structure, there is a promotional campaign that brings people to the mall, not necessarily to individuals themselves.

Michelle Madoff:

We're going to have carols singing, we're going to have prizes, etc.

Director Lurcott:

Those kinds of things draw people to East Liberty and the response as far as the merchants were concerned was very good. There were more people there, more people came out and shopped in East Liberty.

One of the things they were trying to do, too, was to offset the negative image that East Liberty has had where it was a place where people didn't go. The merchants there were very pleased with it. If you remember last time in the first contract of which that Christmas promotion was part, the City put in about two-thirds of the funding. As a result of the effectiveness that the merchants viewed that effort was, we now have in the bill before you, a proposal for $50,000 where twice that amount is being put in by the merchant organizations, by the people there because they see the effectiveness of operating as a group and we believe that and we can then look forward and they will be able to support their own activities in the future. But what happened is that we have worked with them and brought them up to modern standards of advertising and operating at the mall which was the notion back in the late 60's.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Lurcott, if the merchants in the area aren't smart enough to say that if we don't work together and get the biggest bang for the buck by doing our advertising collectively, we are not in the merchandising business. We are not in the advertising business and we are not in the promotion business. We can go in and build a fountain, we can have our Parks and Recreation people go in and do a concert. We can do whatever would be necessary and helpful to make that a more desirable area to come to at a certain given time of the year, whether it's Halloween or Valentine's Day or Christmas, but I think it is absolutely unseemly, and it is not in our purview to give money for advertising to the stores in that area —

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Chairman, I have a document that is before us saying where this money is going. What Michelle is talking about has nothing to do with this bill.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Lurcott, last year the money was used for advertising. Is that correct?

Director Lurcott:

It is the promotion of East Liberty.

Michelle Madoff:

What are they going to do with the money this year?

Mr. Givens:

You had the documents in your hands all week.

Michelle Madoff:

What's your general feeling that the money is going to be used for — more advertising, right?

Director Lurcott:

Part of their program is a coordinated promotional campaign, yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Which is advertising.

Director Lurcott:

A good portion of the money that we propose for this will be used in that regard. They are also going to attempt to promote and utilize existing office of retail space to try and fill up the empty stores. It's the same thing —

Michelle Madoff:

I have no objections to giving money for the same purpose that the original Planning Commission does which is to bring industries into the area, but I prefer to give it to an agency that is more qualified to do it than the East Liberty merchants who can't even get together and we had to give them money to help them get together so that they would know how to advertise together.

Director Lurcott:

I think what we have here now is an organization that is able to get together.

Michelle Madoff:

Good, then let them function on their own. Why get money from us?

Director Lurcott:

They have demonstrated their ability to do that by matching the funds that we're giving them on a two-to-one basis.

Michelle Madoff:

Let them give three and we'll take our money out and put our money where it's needed. Our priorities are out of whack. We have no moral right to give any business -- I'm going to go into Squirrel Hill and I'm going to open up a shop and I'm going to have a little problem there because business is off and I'm going to get all of our people together and say, "We can get some money from the City if we have matching funds." Are you going to give us some money? How about if we go to Brookline and do that? How about if we go to the Southside and do that? Do you know there's a street on the Southside where there is a restaurant open and it is absolutely lovely and they are in terrible, terrible straits and we should give them some money to advertise?

The Chair:

Michelle, we've gone too far now. To go back to the bill here, I have a motion.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have some questions.

The Chair:

Mr. Flaherty, after you we are going to cut it off.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. Who are the principles in the East Liberty Development?

Director Lurcott:

There are a list of people who make up the board of directors and includes presidents of banks, Chamber of Commerce and the major business in there, including Sears and non-commercial entities such as Sicle Cell Anemia Foundation, West Penn Motor Club.

Mr. Flaherty:

I see that it is a two-year agreement.

Director Lurcott:

Yes, sir, two years.

Mr. Flaherty:

For how much each year?

Director Lurcott:

Roughly $25,000 and that would be matched in each case by $45,000 of EL money.

Mr. Flaherty:

So, for '82 we are only going to extend $25,000.

Director Lurcott:

That is correct.

Mr. Flaherty:

Are you prepared to go on the record saying that the two-year contract is going to be a one shot deal? I mean, we did it last year. Are you prepared to give a commitment that this is going to be a one shot deal, because I don't want to see every year that we are going to be opening a conference for East Liberty Development.

The Chair:

There's a question before you, so just answer the question.

Director Lurcott:

At this point, I don't think I would want to say that.

The Chair:

Fine.

Director Lurcott:

I do have every intention to phase out our operation here and I think it can be done, but at the same time I'm not sure how it would progress. That piece of paper simply indicates that that is a chart which we used when we were here in November of 1980 that we asked for the additional funds and it shows that it was already in the budget that we laid out.

Mr. Flaherty:

Has ELD hired a consultant in regard to this program?

Director Lurcott:

Hired an executive director and I think they are looking for hiring consultants.

Mr. Flaherty:

How much are they paying their executive director?

Director Lurcott:

About $12,500. I don't have the exact figure.

Mr. Flaherty:

Do we have the same economic consultants?

Director Lurcott:

Yes, they were the same as back in 1978. There have been a series of people that have been hired over a period of time. They are now going to go back and get additional help to carry out each of the functions that are outlined.

Mr. Flaherty:

Have we a comparable program in any of our other communities or neighborhoods for advertising?

Director Lurcott:

The Southside program has a certain amount for planning a coordinated promotional campaign.

Mr. Givens:

I would like to interject there if I might.

Director Lurcott:

What I am saying is that in other programs similar to the Southside and Bloomfield-Garfield, there are components that deal with promotion and I'm sure that they are of a large share as they are in the others.

Mr. Flaherty:

In the ads of one year ago, were any specific stores — were there a name of specific stores or a group of stores in the advertisement?

Director Lurcott:

To my knowledge, it was the area and not the individual stores, but I can't say that for certain. It's purpose was to bring people to the East Liberty area. That was our involvement and purpose.

Mr. Flaherty:

I know that's our purpose but is that what happened?

Director Lurcott:

Yes, that was the nature of the campaign. A lot of what was done was not the newspaper advertisements but the promotional kinds of activities that took place.

The Chair:

Mr. Flaherty, are you through?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

I have some clarification —

The Chair:

Hold on. When we moved on this thing I indicated that Mr. Flaherty would be the last to speak.

Michelle Madoff:

Don't tell me no one else. I have some very important questions to ask.

The Chair:

We will call the vote right now.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to ask a question.

The Chair:

We will now move to new papers.

Michelle Madoff:

We will not move to new papers. Last year did you give us your word that we would not be back here again —

The Chair:

Mr. Lurcott, you can leave the table.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Chairman, I will have a lawsuit against this Council filed this week because I can't get information as to whether —

Mr. Flaherty:

May I have a roll call vote? Could we have a roll call vote? I don't know how anyone is voting on this.

The Chair:

Who are opposed to this bill?

Michelle Madoff:

I'm opposed to it on the grounds that I can't get information.

The Chair:

Who else wants recorded as opposed?

Michelle Madoff:

I won't vote until I get information.

The Chair:

Record Michelle Madoff as voting no.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't say no. I want information. I want information.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am opposed because I feel that my colleagues have been denied the opportunity to have information and it's not anything, even professionally against ELD, but this Council has not been form for them to present their entire proposal.

Michelle Madoff:

And according to Robert's Rules you have twenty minutes to speak on a subject per person. You better read your book.

Mr. Givens:

I think there are certain people asking for continuing dialogue in this particular bill. I asked then and I make it in a form of a motion.

The Chair:

All right, the Chair has made a decision. Do you want to overrule the Chair?

Mr. Givens:

I called for a point of order.

The Chair:

Now you are making a motion to overrule the Chair's decision. I'll entertain your motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I second the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I move to continue the dialogue of this particular bill until it is finished.

Michelle Madoff:

I seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Givens:

Michelle, that is democracy. You had your vote and I had my vote.

Michelle Madoff:

Oh no, I think the public ought to see this.

(END - REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2060 - 12/15/82)

(BEGINNING - MICHELLE MADOFF'S
AND MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL
NO. 1919 11/5/80 AND 11/12/80)

Michelle Madoff:

Could we hold this for one week?
I would like to know what kind of matching funds, and I want to know why, for the letters I get every month, why haven't we moved that fountain. People are congregating, kids after school. If you fix up the place, you're going to get people there.

Robert Lurcott
Director
Department of City Planning

We had money available to do that work separate from this.

Michelle Madoff:

But it isn't all done, is it?

Director Lurcott:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

Why don't we use the money to do this job. It will sell itself. If it's a safe place and people feel comfortable, people will go there.

Director Lurcott:

We started out to suggest that,
that we would do the public works and the merchants should chip in for the total cost of the campaign. They attempted to do that. They were unable to get the contributions. The feeling was if the City provided seed money for a beginning effort, that they could begin to generate more response on the part of the merchants.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think that is a responsible use of the taxpayers' dollars. The next group is the people from the West End or Shadyside saying, "We have street fair.
How about giving us money?"

Director Lurcott:

You have to understand, too, that it is limited in what areas can get this kind of situation, because number one, it needs to be a local development corporation, and it should be serving low-and moderate-income people, because it is a CD-funded program. What we are doing is modifying and adding a small amount to a program which was approved by Council some months ago.

Michelle Madoff:

What is the small amount?

Director Lurcott:

Eleven thousand dollars.

Michelle Madoff:

My suggestion would be that we would be happy to pay the $11,000 or more if they would make that area a better place, because, Lord knows, we ruined it. I don't mind spending necessary moneys to improve the area. I am 1,000 percent in favor of that, but I am not in favor of promoting it. That is a business expense they write off.

MR. GIVENS COMMENTS

Director Lurcott:

What we are really doing is changing an attitude on the part of the merchants there that they are not simply individual merchants in the shopping area but part of a mall situation; and what the Chamber asked of us in requesting these dollars originally, which was done some months ago, was for the City, through the local development corporation, using CD funds, to give a start to demonstrate so they could demonstrate to their members who are having a hard enough time and do not feel they have the dollars to be able to put into such a program, to demonstrate that such a thing can work, that it can make a difference in their sales, and this program is something that has been developed by the Chamber members themselves. They are getting contributions in the neighborhood of $5,000 and $10,000 contributions to this program.

Michelle Madoff:

Is it fifty-fifty matching?

Mr. Lurcott:

Not in the total program as yet.

Michelle Madoff:

On the promotinal program?

Director Lurcott:

No, it is not. What we are asking for here is $11,000 additional dollars, and they have raised something like five to ten, but we have already put fifty.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm talking about the promotional.

Mr. Lurcott:

This is all a promotional campaign.

MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTS

Director Lurcott:

It is primarily into the Christmas season. The contract that we have with the local development corporation there is due to be terminated as of April, but it started in September. Most of it is aimed at the Christmas season, but it would go through January sales and what not, all the way through April.

MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTS

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, may I add something to that? I would also like to know the work that hasn't been done that was vital that they had asked for. I would like to know, that fountain, was it ever removed?

Director Lurcott:

When you say the second fountain, do you mean the one in front of the church?

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not sure. I get letters on it that people are sitting around, that it is not working. Has it been removed? Yes or no?

Director Lurcott:

I don't know.

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

MR. GIVENS COMMENTS

The Chair:

Mr. Lurcott, if I may, just a personal note. As far as the general idea that you are setting, I think it is a good idea. I question whether it should be coming from DC funds. It seems to me that would be something in the form of economic development. The second point I have is, are we now — and if we are prepared to do that, then it would bother me less. If we are prepared to duplicate this kind of thing elsewhere in the City of Pittsburgh, fine. If we are going into one area and we are going to stop, I think we are going to create a problem for ourselves.

I think if we can help a business area to get going, whether you have a mall or a clustered neighborhood commercial area, and you generate them into a combined effort which generates them to get more business, we get more tax money, so I think there should be something done. I am a little concerned about the fund, and I am a little concerned that we are not now setting a general rule that we cannot cut off.

Director Lurcott:

We have dollars in the capital budget, again CD dollars for neighborhood commercial revitalization, and some of those dollars were anticipated on a limited basis.

The Chair:

You're saying revitalization money was intended for commercial?

Director Lurcott:

We are neighborhood commercial revitalization.

The Chair:

I thought that was capital improvements in revitalization.

Director Lurcott:

No, the particular line item I'm talking about included moneys for marketing studies, merchandising work, as well as promotional. At least the dollars were available on a limited basis where that would be most appropriate, and we are using the East Liberty experience as a potential model for other neighborhoods. We aren't simply having a special case for East Liberty.

The Chair:

Okay. Just food for thought.

REMARKS FROM DECEMBER 12, 1980

Michelle Madoff:

The issue that I raised is that there is a shopping center up on the hill and Lord knows it could use a little advertising. And there are a lot of other little shopping centers that are being formed that could use a little advertising. I don't think it is the role of this Council to provide money to promote business and shopping in an area. It is our role to provide money to take the fountain out that is causing havoc and I see the gentleman from the East Liberty Chamber of Commerce sitting here in the front row, to do all of the necessary things to help you because I think we messed it up in the first place — we, meaning our predecessors. I think somebody didn't plan properly in the East Liberty area and you are suffering the brunt of it. But I think you have to come up with your own money for advertising. I don't think it is moral or proper for our Council to do that.

The Chair:

Michelle, if it is one unique situation the answer is no and I agree with you. It was represented to us last week if I understood it that there was going to be some effort in the certain qualified areas to do it more than once.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think it should be done at all. I think it is a bad use of the public's dollars. If Mr. Mead Mulvihill is so uptight about paying people $500 for trees that do damage to their sidewalks, how could he advertise for somebody's shopping center? Let the merchants do it. It's a write-off, it's a tax deductible item as a cost of doing business. Let's give you the money to remove your fountain that's causing a havoc with students hanging around. It's the same money. We will give you the same money but use it for something that we're authorized to give you money for.

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Michelle Madoff:

I want to address the same issue. What we're talking about here today is only an $11,298.00 difference.

The Chair:

Not really. Bill Robinson has made a very valuable statement.

Michelle Madoff:

I agree with everything he said. I want to take it a step further.

The Chair:

I want to correct something. That group is not getting $11,000 extra. They are getting now $61,000. They weren't originally to get the $50,000. That's what he said. That is accurate.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I'm reading this and it says, "to increase the amount allocated and the amount not to exceed $56,600." That's what the issue was last week and we held it up today. It's roughly $11,000.

The Chair:

I'm going to try once more if you will permit me. He indicated that they didn't even have the $50,000 before.

Michelle Madoff:

How do we have a bill before us to increase something we didn't have?

The Chair:

There was some other — it was a line item otherwise and then reallocated to these people, the $50,000 plus $11,000.

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

The Chair:

I think that is an accurate statement.

Michelle Madoff:

This issue came to light because last week I asked a question. I said, "Why are we going from $50,000 to $61,000?" And Mr. Lurcott, if you would like to join us if nobody objects, said, "Because we are not going to use it on an experimental program. On that experimental program we will re-do some advertising." I said I had no objections to the $50,000 to improve that area. I think we owe it to that area, but I did not say that we should be addressing or supplying money for businesses to advertise.

Now the issue that you raise, Bill, which is very pertinent because it sounds to me like you are getting the same calls and the same mail I'm getting. It says that there is a fountain and one of the fountains have been removed. However, there is another one that hasn't been removed. The senior citizens are sitting around this fountain, there's a bus stop, and the kids coming out of school are making it impossible and joggling and jostling and they are harassing senior citizens. So your point is well taken. And I am saying what I said originally -- get the damn fountain out of there with the $11,000 and replace that area as opposed to giving them money for advertising. We will give you the money for something constructive that we are authorized, as guardians of the dollar, as opposed to giving you money to promote your businesses and I still will stand by that.

Director Lurcott:

I wonder if I might speak to the point of this $50,000.

The Chair:

You would like, at your risk, to volunteer?

Director Lurcott:

I guess so.

The Chair:

With that admonishment or word of caution offered to you, you may proceed at your own peril.

Director Lurcott:

Mr. Robinson is correct in that the dollars that were used for the $50,000 contract that we have with East Liberty Development Incorporated, which is a legally constituted local development corporation, were originally in a single line item that dealt with, that provided funds for a study which was undertaken about three years ago.

Michelle Madoff:

This is East Liberty?

Director Lurcott:

Yes. That study resulted in recommendations for some physical improvements to the area which had been completed, the opening of Penn Mall, the widening and re-instating of the two-lane road on Highland, the opening of Broad Mall plus additional improvements.

A recommendation for a coordinated promotional campaign similar to the kinds of things that occur in shopping malls and in surrounding areas. There was some effort on the part of the East Liberty Chamber to raise dollars --

Michelle Madoff:

You stated this last time.

Director Lurcott:

What I am trying to do is just saying that this has come about from a program that was started three years ago and the dollars that are allocated here are the result of recommendations that have been discussed.

Michelle Madoff:

By this Council?

Director Lurcott:

Yes, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

To advertise?

Director Lurcott:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Never.

Director Lurcott:

Subsequent to efforts by the Chamber to raise all of the dollars for this promotion themselves, there was a request made that the City help on that on an initial basis. It is not appropriate or legal for the City directly to fund for advertising. It is, however, fully appropriate and within HUD regulations to use the dollars that were allocated.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to ask a question. Is it conceivable that if we could take that difference of $11,000 and address the issues that Mr. Robinson has raised, remove the fountain and remove some of the problems, take some of the things that are causing havoc in the community and let them raise their own money for promotion?

Director Lurcott:

To my knowledge we have removed the two fountains that were in question.

Michelle Madoff:

Then there are no more problems. The only problem we have now in East Liberty is promotion.

Director Lurcott:

The issue of security has been dealt with through two means, one is expanded police coverage. Mr. Stadterman might be able to speak to the effectiveness of that, and secondly a program that they had organized themselves which is People Watching Out For People — that kind of program. So efforts have been made in that direction. I'm sure more can be done, I'm not sure that $50,000 or $11,000 is going to be able to do that. We could certainly explore that problem further and help them and continue to work with the East Liberty people.

Michelle Madoff:

I want something very clearly understood. I want somebody to make sure I'm hearing properly. All the problems now in East Liberty are resolved. We don't need any money from this Council and therefore we can start thinking about promoting it, is that what you are saying?

Director Lurcott:

I'm saying that all of the agenda items that have been developed as a result of that study have been addressed with the exception of the promotional campaign, yes. That doesn't say that every problem in East Liberty is resolved. You know that and I know that.

Michelle Madoff:

Give me something we could do.

Director Lurcott:

I suggest that perhaps you might ask Mr. Stadterman who lives out there and works out there and maybe has a better idea of some other possibilities. But I think we have done everything on the agenda that was developed. What they are asking for now is one more item of the five-point program that was outlined as a result of that study for promotion.

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

The Chair:

If I may here at this moment. I may, even at the expense of boring some of you for past history, but I think we have to look at this East Liberty mall thing with a little closer eye than glosserly here.

First of all I don't know of any business district, commercial business district, that's ever been as tramatically affected as this particular area. They uprooted everything and these people are asked to go along with it and they have been going along with it. The only thing now is that it's becoming the "East Street" of commercial development in the City of Pittsburgh. I don't know how long this damn thing is going to continue to where those people continue until the point that they get the noose around their neck and we end out choking them and killing them.

I would like to see somewhere along the line that these people get police protection. I don't think that anyone's been more faithful to the City of Pittsburgh than the East Liberty mall merchants. They've tried to maintain their stores, they've gone through this whole thing and all they've gotten is false promises.

I can remember time and time again going out Baum Boulevard, then you couldn't make a left to go into the project and it was just -- we had jams over there and the only thing is that we had an iron fence around it and you couldn't get to it. Somewhere along the line we ought to face up to the issue here and get this one cleared up so that the people can get on with doing what they were supposed to do and that is to run their establishments until the City of Pittsburgh went in there with a program that screwed up the whole program. Now I think when we deal with that basic premise that it was the City of Pittsburgh with poor planning, who gave them a bad deal, I think we owe a responsibility to right that at this point and do it as quickly as we can. It doesn't make any sense for us in one sense to be giving money and then having people come over there and have the young kids chase them away.

Is the Superintendent of Police here?

I want to do this much for East Liberty so this thing doesn't drag and become cancerous. Put it on the post agenda, Mike -- Police Protection, Environmental Resources, Public Works, Planning and any other agency relative to that particular unit. Let's get them something that can clear it up once and for all. This is not fair, you are trying to tear down a mountain by scratching with our fingernails and no way is it going to work that way.

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

The Chair:

If every person knew when he puts an ad in the paper that he is going to get "x" number of dollars, you know he would be hitting that pretty good. Now we're talking about an area that's been tramatically upset by us. It has all of these problems and we are not giving them service, namely in police protection, and we're saying that we cause a promotion and we let the kids run wild, wilder because it will be Christmas that we should expect a return. That's asking and overburdening these people just a little too much.

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

The Chair:

Tom, part of this is what you are saying but I think that the original $50,000 is not there. There is some extra monies for this portion.

You know as Michelle has indicated, you could trade dollars okay. I'll pay for this and you pay for that, but it comes out to the same kind of bucks and I think that they are going to have to do that. Nevertheless, I just don't want to put such a burden on these people that we are losing sight of the fact that we, our predecessors, caused the problem. It's wrong not for us somewhere to get them out of that. They went along with the City based on the belief that down the road was the golden rainbow and all they got was a junkyard as a result. Nowhere did they get the kind of return even though they have perpetually been giving faithful return. I think we have to recognize that and I think we have to do something to help them because, and let me come back into this second one, so long as those businesses do it, it will be an additional return to us in financing and I think we ought to help them do that.

Mr. Robinson, what is your pleasure on this bill?

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, even if we don't give them the money, can we in good conscience expect that they are going to do something for Christmas and expect with all of the problems that they have, that come Christmas is going to be aggravated okay and we are not helping them. One of the keys is police protection and we ought to be giving it.

(END - MICHELLE MADOFF'S AND MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1919 - 11/5/80 AND 11/12/80)

Mr. Stone:

Let me just make one point here. As far as this area is concerned, there is not one community in the City of Pittsburgh that has been as dramatically affected by City development as this one was. We ought to be doing everything possible to try to get them back out of the problem they're in, and whatever has to be done ought to be done without trying to create a limitation there. They are unique because we created the picture. They are unique because we shut the streets. They are unique and need help at this particular time because they've been suffering under all of these constraints and now need help. They're overdue on the money, let the money go and let them do what they have to do as they think in the best judgment needs to be done.

Michelle Madoff:

I stay with my resolution simply because we are still helping the community, we're still giving exactly the same money, but we're not setting a precedent of giving Sears Roebuck and other companies who are, incidentally I've check, doing a tremendous volume business, bringing lots of people in through the advertising, but the City taxpayers' dollars will not go for advertising.

I would also request, Mr. Perry, that you pull the comments in the minutes of last year when we discussed this item, and if memory serves me well, I believe that Mr. Stone said very forcibly that this would be a one-time only and he was very opposed to it at the time, but went along with it because of the needs, as he's just stated, of that community, and I would like his comments brought forward from last year into this year as well as my comments of last year.

Let's vote on the amendment to give them the money exactly as we were giving it but to specify that the money would be used for any needs. It's like when you give money to UJF, you can say it can go overseas or it can to go Montefiore Hospital. You can allocate where the funds will go. I think it's inappropriate for this Council to give money for advertising.

Mr. Flaherty:

Michelle, would you accept, perhaps, a redrawing of your amendment to say that it cannot be earmarked for advertisement of any individual shops? For example, I think some of the money is going to be earmarked for — For example, a sign will say "Shop or come to the stores in East Liberty". I don't think there's any way that we can prevent that. I think that was brought out that its part of the proposal on Wednesday.

What I am opposed to though is that even if they have a sign and they have Sears on it and Bolan's Candy and G.C. Murphy, just as an example, I'm opposed to any form of the naming of stores.

Michelle Madoff:

I Think that needs some discussion. I have no objections for advertising that says come to East Liberty, come to East Liberty, we're going to have games for the children. That doesn't bother me. But when they say the store's name, come and shop at these stores, and advertising for those stores, I think that's disgraceful.

The Chair:

I think Mr. Flaherty clarified that.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think we have to go into that. If we just say that our fifty thousand should be used to improve the community, to bring in industry or bring businesses into the vacant stores, there's still a hundred thousand they can use for advertising. We should not be touching advertising. I feel very strongly about that.

We're not cutting the dollars, we're not not helping East Liberty. We're saying let East Liberty get all the help they need.

The Chair:

You don't want to re-phrase your amendment then?

Michelle Madoff:

No.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of clarification, if I might. My suggestion to Mrs. Madoff was that her amendment specifically say that the money that the City of Pittsburgh was providing would not be used for promotion. There is matching money that is going to be provided. They can do whatever they want with the matching money. And I think that solves everybody's problem. This is our money, our fifty thousand should not be used for promotion.

The Chair:

How are you going to decide what our money is being used for and what their money is being used for?

Mr. Robinson:

The scope of services that they provide to us tells us how they're going to spend our fifty thousand.

The Chair:

Then let's specify the amendment to that respect, that no individual stores advertise with City money.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, this amendment that we put in, do you second it as it is? That would be when the final document is drafted it would say not to be used as advertising. Mr. Lurcott has already said it can be done.

Mr. Stone:

Call the question.

Mr. Givens:

I'm voting on the fifty thousand dollars. This Council is not in a contractual relationship that the document that's before me does not indicate it. It's talking about going into a development agreement between the City and the East Liberty Development Corporation. I would hope that our City Planners would so put any type of language in there to keep individuals from receiving anything, but I think the overall problem in East Liberty is to get people to come out there and shop and using advertisement or any other form that they have to in order to get those people to stop in and shop out there, I think would give many dollars in return for what we're giving them. It's not a one shot deal, it's development corporation, but I would hope that we would change the pace of people passing through East Liberty without coming into it. So, I want no stipulations added to it other than what's agreed upon by the City Planners and the East Liberty Development Corporation. For that reason, I vote no.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the amendment?

And on the question, "Shall the amendment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff

AYES 3	NOES 5

VOTING NO:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. Stone	(Pres't)

(MR. O'MALLEY ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the amendment was defeated.

Mr. Givens:

On Bill No. 2060 itself, I would ask that the East Liberty Development Corporation work very closely with the communities surrounding the East Liberty area, primarily that of the Sacred Heart. I've received some comment from some people in the various committees who have a responsibility for the development in this particular area. They have not in all cases been receiving the cooperation they feel that they should have. I would like that to stop and my vote here is pending that this cooperation will be much closer between the communities and the East Liberty Development Corporation.

Michelle Madoff:

We got a call at our office from the Sacred Heart Parish Development asking us to hold the bill. I think their concerns were very much my concerns. I have great confidence that Mr. Lurcott gave me his word that he will keep his word and he will amend the final draft as we've asked for even though it did not pass in this Council.

Not wishing to hurt any community that sorely needs our help, I will vote aye on all bills including 2060.

Mr. Robinson:

Just one comment, if I might, on Council Bill 2161. As I mentioned at the Wednesday session, this bill specifically relates to our relocation effort in the City. I think it would be helpful to all of us, in anticipation of a hearing on the Relocation Agency early in January, that the City Clerk would send to the petitioners who have requested the hearing, a letter asking them for more detailed information relative to their concern. That will help us prepare for the hearing.

Also, if the City Clerk could send to both the Urban Redevelopment Authority and the Housing Authority a letter asking them to please provide Council with specific information as to the number of jobs that were lost in the recent transition of positions Relocation Agency, the dollar amount for each of those jobs, and what actually happened to that money. There's money that was left over. I think that would be helpful to us in preparing for that hearing. Thank you.

I'd like to add one more thing. Could we have that hearing as soon as possible in January?

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Givens presents

Bill No. 2231 WHEREAS, Nabisco, Inc. has operated an efficient and profitable production plant in Pittsburgh for 65 years, since 1917; and

WHEREAS, Nabisco, Inc. merged with Standard Brands, Inc. on April 21, 1981 to make Nabisco Brands, Inc.; and

WHEREAS, Nabisco Brands, Inc. has recently announced plans to phase out its Pittsburgh plant and thus the jobs of 650 people, members of Bakery Confectionary and Tobacco Workers Local 12 and Operating Engineers Local 95, as well as clerical and management personnel; and

WHEREAS, Nabisco Brands, Inc. openly recognizes the industry and efficiency of its Pittsburgh workers as well as the high quality of the food products produced here; and

WHEREAS, a good tradition of cooperative labor-management relations between Nabisco and its workers has been established while maintaining a strong profit-making operation in Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, the nation and particularly our Greater Pittsburgh Metropolitan Area suffers severe unemployment problems; and

WHEREAS, labor organizations generally, and the Bakery Confectionary and Tobacco Workers Local 12 in particular, have made wage and benefit concessions in recent years in the spirit of national solidarity to combat the economic recession and save jobs.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh urges

Nabisco Brands, Inc. to reconsider the Pittsburgh plant closing in a more compassionate community spirit and with a greater sensitivity to the generations of workers and families who have given honest labor as their contribution to the successful growth and operation of a Nabisco production plant in Pittsburgh; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council declares the month of January, 1983, as "Save Nabisco Month" for the purpose of focusing attention on the problem and rallying support among the private, business and government communities in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Givens moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I would like, at this time, if we could, Mr. President, —

Mr. Flaherty:

Point of information. I was wondering if I could offer an amendment to the resolution.

The Chair:

The resolution has already passed.

Michelle Madoff:

No, it hasn't. We haven't even discussed it yet.

Mr. Woods:

We just voted on it.

Michelle Madoff:

I think we should have a chance to discuss it.

Mr. Flaherty:

Would you consider my amendment?

Mr. Givens:

The fact that it has not been presented to me, Tom, —

Mr. Flaherty:

I'll read it to you.

Mr. Givens:

I would like something like this presented to me in a timely fashion. The fact that it has not been, — well, go ahead, I'm not stopping anybody from doing anything here. We're trying to help the union out here and the workers of Nabisco. Anything that anybody wants to add to it is most appreciated.

Mr. Flaherty:

I would like to add an amendment between the two resolves. The amendment would read: Be it resolved, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh urge the URA to invoke the power of eminent domain if a measure of last resort is required.

Mr. Flaherty moved to amend Bill No. 2231.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like to make a comment on that, if I might. The ad hoc committee that has been formed to fight this particular issue has already appeared before the URA Board and has asked, in fact, such a question and the Board is now presently, through its Executive Director, is trying to get a timely answer and the Board will meet with the coalition sometime right around the first of January or thereafter. I don't think your particular motion is out of order, Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Flaherty:

I just want to explain why I am offering the amendment. To paraphrase what Franklin Roosevelt once said, "If I mistake the temper of the times, this is certainly the time where we need bold experimentation." If we are wrong, then admit we are wrong, but at least we have to do something. If we fail then we have to try again.

I think it's essential. It's not just the proposed closing of the Nabisco plant. This is a phenomena that is happening throughout the country where plants are leaving and uprooting and having drastic negative impact on entire communities. I think we in the City of Pittsburgh are in the position to be in the forefront of law that I think is going to be commonplace in this country in ten or twelve years. That will be that companies are going to have a legal responsibility to communities. I feel that with the power of eminent domain granted we may be commencing on unchartered waters. I am only aware of a few other cities that have attempted to utilize the concept of eminent domain in regard to keeping factories, football teams in their city. But I think that it's imperative that we have a will in this City and that we are going to go to the limit in showing what our will is. If need be, I think we should go to court even if the chance of success is small because some day in the courts, I believe that the spirit of this country is going to provide shelter, is going to provide a legal reasoning to protect communities from companies, corporations, that uproot the stability of communities. We have the power of eminent domain, I think we should take it to the limit and put forth a true commitment, not just to the Nabisco plant, but to all working men and women of this City.

The Chair:

All those in favor?

Mr. O'Malley:

Opposed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I had asked for discussion, but I would like to hear from my esteemed colleague, Mr. O'Malley, as to why he's opposed then I'd like to make my comments.

Mr. O'Malley:

I can clarify that. I just don't agree with Mr. Flaherty's socialist leanings in that statement. I don't believe that the Federal Government has any business invoking eminent domain on a private enterprise. Nobody here wants to lose Nabisco. I think we've all worked very hard to keep that factory here. I think we've all worked very hard to keep our steel mills operating. I don't believe the government has any right because the government cannot perform a function as well as a private industry can. I don't believe the government has the right to purchase that plant and subsidize the employment.

Michelle Madoff:

Now I would like to discuss the issue. I agree that having a resolution without teeth in it is meaningless. I think that Mr. Givens would be the first to admit that. I would like to know whether it is conceivable, my understanding of the plant is that that plant on its own is a profit making entity. When it's combined with the rest of the operation it is not profit making in the overall area. But that plant itself has been profit making. Has anything been done to look into private financing, maybe from other corporations in this area, to buy or to subsidize, or to let the workers buy the plant? Has that been looked into as a possibility?

The Chair:

If I might interject something here. There's only one reason they're closing that plant and it's a spite act because of the class action we started out here in Pittsburgh in regards to minorities and women and it was something like five or six million dollar, it spread throughout the whole Nabisco chain and I believe they're taking it out on the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

It's revenge, you mean. Well, I agree with you, Mr. President. Can we do something to take this plant, change it from Nabisco and change it to XYZ Company and let the people who work there make the product? Can we raise some money? Is it a possibility? You know, there are other cities who own hotels.

The Chair:

It worth exploring every avenue.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm just wondering if that area has been looked into. I'd just like to know.

Mr. Givens:

Michelle, I think you must have to get with the coalition.

Michelle Madoff:

Who is the coalition chaired by?

Mr. Givens:

Well, there was a public meeting this last Thursday, Sam Papa here, there's people from the coalition, all Councilpeople were invited, and I think from our group here, Bill Robinson, Ben Woods has been very active with the Mayor, Jeep and myself attended that meeting, one of the largest in the City, some seven hundred some people. What we're trying to do right now what this particular resolution is asking for is that we'll go to the Chairman of the Board and all Board Members, that we'll go to our Congressional Delegation, that we'll go to our Legislative Body in the state of Pennsylvania and hope they can pick up the ball and go from there.

We are encouraging, at this point, for Nabisco to stay here. There are a lot of other alternatives that the ad hoc committee is taking but these are steps that you go to step one first and see what happens and then you must then go to step two and step three. I think this is the first action that this Council will be taken. We said, and this resolution is addressing the problem, that the month of January, which is when the time clock starts to, if the layoffs are in fact going to be coming forth, it will start in January, then I thin the Mayor personally made a phone call to the Chairman of the Board and the first thing this morning he was waiting for a call back from him. I think our development people here wrote that the URA who have been asked to do this, as well as our Planning Department and the Mayor's staff, are looking into all kinds of alternatives. The County Commissioners were at that particular meeting and they are wanting to make some type of effort. Senator Bodack was at that particular meeting. He's going to take that along with some of our State Reps back into the State House to see what we can do.

I think all the amenities that we want to give the company are there. The ball is now in the corporate headquarters and hopefully they will come out with something prior to January 1. If they do not, then we have more serious things to look at.

We don't want, at this particular time, to say to Nabisco that we're going to use any greater restraint than what we have to, at this particular time. The comments that Mr. Flaherty made are something that this Country must address in the future. This Councilman will address them, I'm sure as all of us will here, at some time. I know Ben Woods has been very active in the labor movement. Jeep has been very active in this labor movement.

Mr. Woods:

I'd like to add something to what Michelle spoke about. Michelle, as of Friday morning when I got back to the office, I did contact some private investors and also today, I haven't discussed it with the people of Nabisco yet, but I'm trying to formulate something that can have something concrete before I can go back to the union and before we even talk to the Mayor or anybody else about it.

Michelle Madoff:

I wonder whether a foundation might want to set a precedent in line of the statement of what Mr. Flaherty has said. Maybe show that we can save an industry. Maybe one of the foundations might give seed money to let the employees buy it. It's just a thought.

I just really wanted to get some information and I would like to have it on the record that the reason that I did not attend that meeting was not because I didn't want to, but I was taping this issue of our City water and it was a very, very important taping for Sunday. That was the only reason I wasn't present.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I'd just like to appeal to this Council to leave the resolution as is without the amendment for this reason — I think that we ought to be encouraging everyone involved to do something now. The amendment, while well-meaning, creates a problem the some people are overlooking. If I own Nabisco and you're going to condemn it, then there's a time drag. You're not going to take it away from me tomorrow or the next week. —

The Chair:

Excuse me, Mr. Stone. First of all, the amendment passed and it's suggested by Mr. Flaherty as a last resort.

Mr. Stone:

Let me just finish my point, if I may. You're not going to get it that quick. As time passes, all the value in saving it is pretty much lost. I think that what we ought to do is to continue to pursue every possible effort, including those possibilities of federal funding or state funding through some mechanism where we are a conduit toward developing it and keeping it going. But I don't think that we ought to give it the pressure kind of level because, as I started to say, if I am the owner of Nabisco, go ahead and condemn me because as of now, you owe me just compensation as of today plus interest from the day of taking. He just sits there and he rides while the thing constantly drops and it's closed it will drop in value. But on the day of taking, it's worth something. I think we ought to exercise what has already been the general intent of trying to encourage all the parties to sit down so that there is no drop. There is a continuation rather than an ending and a start. I think that's most important at this time.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I feel the time is now to put pressure on. We've had Allis-Chalmers. The Mesta Machine Company is going down the drain. We have a host of companies that have left and we have fourteen percent unemployment here. This is strictly an amendment of last resort and I think pressure is in order and we certainly create a most benevolent climate for all the good of Renaissance II with tax abatements and everything else to the corporations. I think there has to be some balance and we have to also let corporations know that they owe a sacrifice to this community. I don't see anything wrong with exercising even the faintest legal remedy despite expenses if it's going to combat the brutal crush of catastrophic retaliatory capitalism.

The Chair:

I agree with Mr. Flaherty and also to that respect, I made a suggestion at the meeting the other night that also as a matter of last resort. We had a mass march in New Jersey and took our problems and quest to the management of Nabisco, perhaps they'll see the light of day. I'm talking about a real mass march with maybe hundreds and thousands of people. I think it may let them see the light of day. Hopefully. Let's hope it doesn't get to that stage. Let's hope that they keep that plant open.

Mr. Givens:

If we might, Mr. President, have Samuel J. Papa, President, and Lawrence Turner, Secretary Treasurer, to come up to receive this resolution and take it back to some of the members who are in the audience here today.

Mr. Papa:

Council President DePasquale, Councilman Givens and our other Councilmembers here, I think you are to be commended and certainly I want to extend my thanks to you and wish the vocal manner in which you've acted on this resolution today, it demonstrates once again that our City is concerned about its citizens, not only for the citizens who work at the plant in East Liberty but also the citizens who live in the outlying districts surrounding East Liberty, the merchants who would be affected by a close-down such as Nabisco. I think your action here clearly demonstrates that you are concerned about you citizens.

I think the action also is in line with the spirit of Mayor Caliguiri's and this Council's Renaissance program. It shows that your program goes beyond the inner City and I think it has to do that. It demonstrates that you're concerned about the City surrounding the downtown area. What good is it to have a downtown area that's beautified by a lot of sky-scraper buildings if the communities around it are dying from blight because we permit a company like Nabisco, a company who enjoys tremendous wealth through their business, they've admitted repeatedly that they operate an efficient and profitable business here in East Liberty and I think that if City government is going to permit companies such as this to move out and affect the lives of not only the workers, put them on unemployment lines who are going to become part of the fourteen percent unemployment in this County, as well as affect the merchants who live in those areas, as well as affect all of the citizens in Pittsburgh who are responsible for the revenue that come in here. Naturally if we lose a company like Nabisco, this has to affect the revenue coming into the City. It has to be taken up by the citizens of this City and I think it's commendable that City Council here has acted the way they have today and I would like to thank all of the Councilmembers. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me sir, may I ask a question? Have you thought of having a stock issued by one of the stock companies and selling shares to both your employees and private sources? I'll buy shares. I bet every member of Council buys shares in that company.

Mr. Papa:

Our members and employees of Nabisco are already share holders.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm just talking about forming a private company. Your shares are in the profit of the parent company. I'm talking about forming a separate entity, buying out the plant, they're going out anyway, and selling shares. Let's see if the public will get behind as they did in food for the unemployed. Let's see if we'll buy shares to keep a company here. I think people will do it. It's a profit making company. It's shown a profit. It's a good product. It sells.

Let's do that.

Mr. Papa:

We're for anything that's going to keep jobs here in Pittsburgh. This is our main concern.

Mr. O'Malley:

Sam, I'd just like to clarify my statements before. I think you realize everybody on this Council supports your efforts to keep Nabisco open. There's no doubt about that. I just think Mr. Flaherty's amendment to the resolution sets a bad precedence. I think it's up to us, as elected officials, to give you, the employees, the unions and management all the help and all the support we can, whether it's through tax rebates, whatever means we have at our disposal, to help you keep your business located here in Pittsburgh. I think government is to assist business, to assist the workers. I don't think it's government's business in this country to run private businesses. This is my personal feeling, but we should give you all the help you deserve.

Michelle Madoff:

Gentlemen, did you agree with Mr. Flaherty's amendment?

Mr. O'Malley:

Michelle, I'm talking. When I'm finished, you speak.

I think Mr. Stone hit on a very good point. If we were to condemn Nabisco, there is nothing to say that they couldn't close the plant immediately, they could leave town and now the URA and the City of Pittsburgh has an empty plant.

My only feeling is that we should give you all the help you need. Tax rebates, any means at our disposal. I really don't think it's government's business in Pittsburgh to buy private businesses.

Mr. Papa:

I think on the matter of eminent domain it's used primarily as a leverage to try to convince this company to stay in business here in Pittsburgh. But concerning that issue itself, I don't know the legal arguments that are involved in it. Some people would seem to feel that using the blight theory that there are some legal arguments that can keep this company or that plant intact in the City of Pittsburgh while the City acts, I suppose, as a broker to go out and find other buyers who will operate that bakery. I don't believe it's anybody's intent to have the City of Pittsburgh get into the baking industry.

Mr. O'Malley:

If we can clarify that as a fact then you certainly deserve all the support. But I would clarify that first to make sure.

Michelle Madoff:

Are you through, Mr. O'Malley, because I don't want to be rude and interrupt?

Mr. O'Malley:

That would be a first for you, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I think that you got caught in something and you're just trying to clarify and you didn't want me interrupting.

Mr. O'Malley:

No, I didn't get caught. I don't like Mr. Flaherty's amendment.

Michelle Madoff:

You didn't vote against it though.

Mr. O'Malley:

I voted against the amendment. I support the resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

You are familiar with a small entity in this City called PPG. Do you know how they got their land?

Mr. Papa:

Through eminent domain.

Michelle Madoff:

Right. And I see no reason why, when we've got people who need jobs in an area that are trying to preserve those jobs, to fall in line with what Councilman Flaherty has said and I think that the concept of having a stock option created with the company, a brokerage firm as a contingency in a hurry concurrently with your other plans might be a way of doing it. And I think the way that Councilman Flaherty has said as a last resort, I don't think should be a last resort. I think you should be looking at it concurrently with a possibility of eminent domain condemnation so that you can save the plant, float a bond issue and people will buy stock and keep that plant going. It isn't a plant that has shown a loss. It isn't a plant that's on its last legs. It is, as Mr. DePasquale informed me today that I was not aware of and I thank him for this, a revenge kind of thing and I think that since it is a good plant we ought to try to keep it, even by eminent domain and not wait as a last resort because by the time you get to a last resort, it may be too late.

Mr. Papa:

I would just like to answer Michelle by saying that I have to be impressed, and I'm sure some of the workers that are here are impressed, because the Council here certainly is demonstrating that they are concerned about our citizens and the workers in particular in Nabisco and it seems like Council is prepared to go and seek any avenue to try to save this plant. This makes me quite happy to see this.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I would like to recognize one other person if he could stand up. He's in the audience and that is Leon Swimer. Leon, to give you an idea, was a person, a single individual in the neighborhood that went to one community group and said he wanted to do something to help Nabisco. From that grew the meeting that was held in Riesenstein School this past Thursday. That coalition will continue to go on. The coalition is call Save Nabisco Action Coalition, or a very appropriate, SNAC.

They have five or six major points, one of which was brought out here. We're appealing number one to the stockholders of that company of which Sam Papa and Larry and his people within the union are members of that stockholders. They're appealing to the Human Relations Commission to look into some possible irregularities in that particular entity. For eminent domain, which also was covered very adamantly both at the URA board and out at that particular community meeting this past Thursday, to buy the plant by either the employees, to buy the plant by other companies that are competitive in this particular area, the resolution that was adapted here by Council and a boycott that is also a possibility. So, there's about six or seven movements going afoot, all to impress Nabisco Brands, Inc. that we mean business here in the City of Pittsburgh.

Yes, this Council, as well as the Mayor who made a very strong pronouncement at that particular Thursday meeting, will not leave this to be another Youngstown, will not leave it be another Midland. Some of the remarks that Mr. Flaherty had made were right on target. However, government has to be very responsive during this time of crisis. We cannot move too quickly if in doing so I think we will hurt the movement of the labor group that is here today, Sam Papa and the people from his particular union. We want to encourage Nabisco to stay here. If they don't take that particular advice from this Council then I think we have other steps that we must take that we cannot take these steps, or even in some cases advocate them, until the cards are put on the table.

Mr. Lawrence Turner:

President DePasquale and Councilmembers, as a new officer in Local 12, I just took office in September, prior to that I had worked thirty-one years for Nabisco, and just coming out of the plant with these people, I want to take the opportunity to thank the Council, the Mayor, the URA, the Coalition and, of course, Brother Swimer for the action that they've taken.

This is the first time I've ever been involved in a plant shut-down. I hope it's the last time I'm involved in a plant shut-down. But it's really encouraging to know that we have people like you on this Council, people out in the area like the Coalition, the Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation, the Point Breeze Association and all these people who are so interested in saving the jobs of our members. It makes taking a job like this very appreciative of my part. I would like to thank each and every one of you.

Mr. Woods:

I'd like to add one thing. It's the only plant in this City that smells good.

The Chair:

Council certainly would like to thank all of you people from Nabisco who took time out to come here today for this presentation. I think all that can be said has been said and you know where Council lies and what we'll do.

Mr. Woods and the Chair present

Bill No. 2232 WHEREAS, the American Society for Public Administration and the National Academy of Public Administration have established the National Public Service Award Program; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of the Award is to pay tribute to government managers whose careers exhibit the highest standard of dedication, ability and service; and

WHEREAS, the leadership, long hours and loyalty of service, has consistently demonstrated pride, performance and professionalism in public administration.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh, do nominate Daniel A. Pietragallo for the 1st Annual National Public Service Award.

Mr. Woods moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Stone seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Congratulations to Dan Pietragallo.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might, very quickly. The City Clerk has prepared a report on the Minority Business Development Programs that have various boards and authorities who's supposed to have on file with us, pursuant to Ordinance No. 28. I'd like the Clerk to make copies of those reports available to all members of Council if they don't have them, to all the Authorities, and that a letter accompany the reports going to the Authorities indicating that all past due reports are still due and that they should have on file in our offices a copy of the Minority Business Development Report.

Also, I'd like to have the City Clerk send to the Solicitor's Office a copy of the letter that's going to those boards and authorities and the names of the boards and authorities the letter has been forwarded to.

One other point, if I might, relative to our UDAG and Community Development Block Grant Program. I think Council should be aware that the office of management and budget at the federal level is proposing some severe cuts in both of these programs and I think it would be wise if members of Council check with the various departments that they have some responsibility for to see how many people we have operating off of CDBG funds or UDAG funds, how many programs, personnel, and to begin to work with those departments to anticipate the possibility that there may have to be some staff re-assignment or dropping of programs.

I believe Director Brophy suggested to us that next year our ability to operate a substantial Community Development Block Grant Program is going to be hampered by anticipated cuts and I think it would behoove us to begin to look at what areas we're going to have to pick up on our tax operating budget form.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Robinson.

Michelle Madoff:

This weekend in the Sunday paper, there was an article, "City Violates Own Codes In Buildings", on fire codes. I wonder, Mr. Stone, have you reviewed the article and the $150,000 that the Caliguiri Administration has earmarked for fire prevention in our buildings, and could we by any chance increase that amount? I think we certainly have to set an example.

Mr. Stone:

If he comes up to make our buildings comply, we have to do it.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, the $150,000 will not do the job.

Mr. Stone:

Until I see some contract that's more than that, I don't know we have to do anything.

Michelle Madoff:

Sir, did you read the article by any chance?

Mr. Stone:

I read the article.

Michelle Madoff:

My understanding from the article is that, and I had spoken to Mr. Soma before the article came out, --

Mr. Stone:

It doesn't cost you any more to open the door. That's one of his complaints.

Michelle Madoff:

According to the Caliguiri Administration, the dollars will only be the tip of the iceberg and will not be sufficient to do the job. They just want to get it started. But as you said, if we have to make the building safe, we've got to make them safe. I think what we need then to request from the Administration before we close the '83 budget is what dollars do you really need. I think that would be appropriate, don't you think?

Mr. Stone:

Either that or during the course of the year to find out what's being done.

Michelle Madoff:

Don't you think we ought to put into the '83 budget the money that is going to be needed? Obviously Mr. Soma knows what those figures are. Could we ask Mr. Soma before the '83 budget, by an emergency call today, what his dollar

On another matter, relating to the 1983 budget before we close. Mr. Stone, at one of the meetings, I don't know whether it was fully attended or not, I'm not sure who was here or not here, has on several occasions raised the issue which I support whole-heartedly that in order to avoid costly major repairs we're better off to patch roofs as they go along than to wait until they fall in then it becomes very costly. It's like having health prevention. If you take care of yourself and your family, you cut the number of major catastrophies by taking care of your health. I think in order to do that, while he's absolutely right, and he's mentioned it last year and this year, it will not be accomplished unless a line item it put into each department for on-going maintenance, contingency fund. We have a letter going out today to all the department heads requesting that. But I think we better have the figure before we shut the budget for 1983. I think we're going to have to have that hand delivered today. We've got it typed up, Mike. If you see that it's hand delivered with a response today signed for, we should have that before the '83 budget closes. I think the point is well taken, it is really cost effective, if we keep the facilities going than if we wait until they fall in.

Do you agree, Mr. Stone, that we get some money into the budget for this year? I think you did agree at the meeting.

Mr. Stone:

I said to you the other day that I think that we've gotten that kind of operation.

Michelle Madoff:

But you still have to have a line item because you've always told me there must be a line item for the money.

Mr. Stone:

In each one they have increased certain portions of their departments. —

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, if it came from anybody else other than maybe two or three people on this Council, maybe just two, you would have said yes, it's a great idea. We all understand it. Once we get on cable the public will understand.

The Chair:

Okay, any other items?

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd like to have Mr. Perry set a post agenda as soon as possible in January to bring in Mr. Cooper who runs our auto pound. I've been getting a lot of complaints from the public. And also whoever will be head of Supplies at that time.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Stone moved to approve the minutes from Monday, December 6, 1982.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Stone

Council adjourned.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSON'S

REMARKS - 12/27/82)

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. President. I would like to raise the issue of two projects relative to the capital budget, non-CD budget. The first is the issue of the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

Seems to me there are a couple things that ought to be clarified about this particular project. It is listed in the 1984 capital budget. It is a part of the six year plan submitted to us this year. It is not listed in '83. That is, the project will not begin in '83 and will not be completed in '83.

My concern is — and I will try to be as brief as I can. My concern is that we have a project that's been on the burner for at least ten years and that there are other projects I'm sure as worthy that have proceeded and some bridge projects, so I have some concern about this project lingering that long and our continuing commitment to it, postponing that commitment to '84. I think it is rather obvious that we only finance this bridge either with local funds, state funds, or federal funds. To date, we only have about $400,000 committed to this project, and I would assume that the design work might take the greater portion of that.

I was informed by our Public Works people this morning that 90 percent of the design work has been completed by John L. Kimball Company, and all the design work for the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge would be completed.

If we started the bridge in 1983 with whatever funding source, it would take 14 months to complete it. If we start it in '84, it's going to take 14 months to complete it, and the cost of the bridge is obviously going to be more than it is today. The cost is going to go up. We are delaying again and again.

Also, it seems to me that there are a number of problems that are going to be created if we don't start relatively immediately to build this bridge. One is the traffic congestion that is going to be caused by the new post office when it opens, and it is supposed to open early next year. That's one. It is also going to create a problem due to people coming from the northern part of the country into the City and going out that way. Ben is probably familiar with some of the problems, because he lives in the California Street area, but I am even more concerned about the manner we have approached trying to get this bridge built. Since the controversy came to this Council —

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

Let me finish first, and then everyone else can have their say. I think I have been working on this as long if not longer than anybody, and I think some of the concerns I have need to be addressed now, because I think they point up what the problem has been. I realize it is late in the year, and I realize that bridge from a practical standpoint will not be built in 1982 and probably not in 1983, but I'm willing to go to the end of the year with this budget raising the same concern, because I think we're going to be confronted with a situation next year that we have to address and need to have some things on the table.

There has been an effort to coordinate meetings between the City of Pittsburgh and community organizations and agencies of the federal government to try to get this thing resolved from a funding standpoint. I think the coordination of that information so this Council can be adequately informed has been less than adequate, to say the least. It wasn't until recently that Council was even informed of who the representatives were that the City people were talking to in the Post Office Department. I have a copy of the memo, which I'm sure every member of Council has, and my concern about that memo is that someone who is a construction manager was negotiating a loan for the Post Office Department, and I am not an expert on government, but I think I know enough about government to know that no construction manager is authorized to negotiate a loan, certainly not at the $1.4 million level.

Also, a memo reflects from Director Lurcott of the Planning Department that somebody from Washington, D.C. in the Post Office Department indicated that if we applied for a loan, we would be turned down. That person or persons still remain anonymous.

Again, I am concerned about this coordination of information and things falling through the cracks after ten years. It seems to me if we can't get it together in '82 on a project we've been working on since '72, there is no reasonable assurance in '84 we will be any better able to address this concern. The post office will be open; the traffic congestion will be there, and we will still have problems with the funding.

Let me raise the issue of the emissions controversy. Personally, I feel it's a smokescreen as it relates to the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

Yes. I think that it's a smokescreen because the issue of the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge preceded the auto emissions controversy and certainly preceded Judge Bechtel's decision.

Unfortunately, I think that there are people that might believe this has been allowed to fall through the cracks intentionally. I don't think it was ever the intent of this Council to unduly delay the building of the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge, not for one minute, but when we first were confronted with this situation in terms of taking money out of that project and any other project, we were told by Planning and Public Works that this bridge cannot start until 1984. Lo and behold, we're going to start it in 1984, and I think the process we sanctioned to get it started in 1984 was less than adequate without us dealing with the appropriate parties and without us having the appropriate information, and I think it raised questions of credibility about the City of Pittsburgh in terms of fairly and honestly addressing the community's concerns.

After ten years, if we don't believe the bridge is going to be built there, I'm the first one to go and say so. They see all around them bridges being built up. The cost of the bridge is going to continue to escalate. The bridges and projects in other communities have been completed, and I don't think I can say that enough, because we initiated a process here in good faith, and that process, it never really even got started. It broke down, and I'm going to still try to find out who these individuals are in Washington, D.C. and the Post Office Department who said, I believe, to one of the Directors that they wouldn't approve the application if we submitted it. I think the record will reflect I said we weren't going to get that loan in the first place, because I question the credibility of anybody who would go to the Post Office Department to get a $1.4 million loan and not even know who they were talking to and never make application for it. I don't think that is the way we should be doing in the City of Pittsburgh.

If we are not going to build the bridge, I'm going to be the first one to tell the people we're not going to build it. If we are going to build it, let's deal with them fairly and honestly to build the bridge and give them a reasonable timetable and let's not confuse the issue with any other issue.

Also, I would like to indicate to this Council, and I'm going to mention another project if I might when I'm finished with this one, that in the next bond issue that we have, the next bond issue which, I believe, is projected for June of 1983, that we give serious consideration to include the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge at its total cost and that the City of Pittsburgh pay to build the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge and then use a little more diligence than we have used already to get our money from the federal government. I don't think we should be held hostage by Judge Bechtle and his decision for an obligation we incurred ten years ago. There will be new projects that will be put in for the bond issue. We should be able to spring for a couple million dollars to build a bridge.

The people from the North Side came in here and made a statement to us in terms of their concerns. They gave us a lot of historical data. The least we can do is take the last step and say to them that our commitment is to build a bridge. I don't think we can use the rationalization that Judge Bechtle is holding up these things in the City of Pittsburgh. That is not true. I don't know if he was even on the bench in 1972 so let's be fair to all concerned. If we're going to be dealing with the Post Office or any other unit of government, let's make sure we establish some kind of process where we can get the names, addresses, and phone numbers of who we're dealing with, and let's not be dealing with the construction manager when we should be dealing with the Post Master General.

I make a motion that the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge be included in the 1983 capital budget.

BUDGET MESSAGE OF THE
FINANCE CHAIRMAN

CITY COUNCIL
CITY OF PITTSBURGH

Mr. Stone:

Members of Council, in our budget message today, there is some good news and some "words of caution!"

Let's start with some good news!

This council, while increasing the Mayor's proposal by 1.8 million dollars, will still be providing a NO-TAX-INCREASE balanced Budget in 1983!

In addition, there will no be any curtailment of the City's services to its citizens!

In years past, Council cut vacant positions from the Mayor's Budget proposal. This year, the Mayor, again, whether in anticipation of Council's actions or not, cut vacant positions from his proposal.

The Mayor's Budget Proposal, in fairness, while attempting some reductions, does also carry some continual increases, as though they were automatic inclusions.

The Budget itself is at best a proposal, but to view and review it in a one (1) year context, does not reveal the whole picture!

We shall attempt to address these issues in our Budget message, today.

But first - some additional "good news!"

UNFUNDED CITY PENSION FUNDS

The City of Pittsburgh's Pension Funds are actuarially out of balance - by $353 million.

In years past, little or nothing was done to control this growing problem!

Obviously, we could not "brush it under the rug" so to speak, and leave it to another future Administration and Council.

In fairness, a small attempt was made in 1975 to address this issue but very little done afterwards.

In the 1982 budget, through a joint effort of this Administration and this Council some important steps were taken.

$160,000 was placed into the 1982 Budget to fund the obligations of new employees hired in 1982. This will help prevent the fund numbers from increasing!

We still had an actuarial problem with present employees! To help alleviate the problem, Council appropriated an additional $1 million to the old unfunded pension funds.

This was a "step in the right direction" - it was a responsible recognition of the problem, and a firm commitment - to do even more!

In 1982, again, in a joint effort, the Mayor and Council, did do more!

An additional 2.3 million dollars was allocated to the Pension Trust Funds.

In the 1983 Budget, an additional $1,325,000 was appropriated to the City Pension Funds.

In this two year period - a total of $4.6 million - has now been committed. Probably the largest contribution - in the funds' history!

Under our new Pension Trust Fund plan, now instituted, more substantial, continued and regular appropriations will be made yearly. Those contributions will be mandated!

We have now set a course, which will totally eliminate the problem in 30 years!

This effort should aid our bond rating, and hopefully reduce some future interest cost in City financing.

REAL ESTATE NOTE REDUCTION

A matter that also needs mentioning, is that in 1982, we addressed the note indebtedness obligation.

In the 1982 Budget, we appropriated 1.2 million dollars to reduce this note indebtedness, and during the year, we paid off an additional $3.8 million.

With these payments of $5 million, we have paid off our note obligations on tax refunds - before the dates of maturity.

POLICE MANPOWER

Police manpower, again, is a major concern in this City!

This Council receives daily requests from its City taxpayers and community organizations for more police, and seeing a constant decline of our police manpower, understandably - want more police manpower.

The Mayor, for budgetary considerations, feels that we have more than an adequate amount of police manpower!

For budgetary consideration, this Council feels more police protection - overall - is more economical!

True this is our annual debate! This is an important issue; therefore, it is not unusual to have it come up annually. In fact, it should and must come up annually for consideration!

City Council's primary concern centers around this condition:

1. The manpower level is now down	- 44
2. By April 1983 (expected retirements - ave.)	- 50
NET LOSS	-104
3. If one (1) new police class hired (June 1983)	+ 44
NET LOSS	- 64

4. By April 1984 (Expected retirements - ave.) -
Pre 1984 police class
- June 1984 - 50

TOTAL LOSSES BY
JUNE 1984 -104

That potential loss is too much!!!

The Mayor has promised Council that he will hire at least one class of police officers by June, 1983.

If the Mayor, however, were not to hire a police class in 1983, there would be an additional loss of 40 police officers making an even greater total loss of 144 police officers.

In fairness, to the Mayor, while he is attempting a reduction of manpower, for budgetary reasons, we do not believe he wants a 104 to 144 cut in our police manpower!

Nevertheless, that potential is there!

Citing figures, based on the City's population, and comparing Pittsburgh to cities which are not comparable in terrain and other geographical considerations, is not impressive!

"Brushed aside," is the fact that the population of this City "swells" to nearly double its size during a day!

How does the ratio, of police officers to population, now compare, when the "swell" is taken into consideration? Poorly at best!

Nor does another "redeployment plan" - the 6th or 7th - add any appreciable significance to our protection. We're merely juggling an inadequate number of officers!

This Council, therefore, was faced with a need to act!

Council has provided for the hiring of a class of 40 police officers by June of 1983.

Also, it has provided the money to hire another new class in the last quarter of 1983, to avoid future late 1983 - early 1984 manpower losses, before a class could be hired in June of 1984.

The Mayor, however, does the actual hiring!

Council, in its opinion, is acting responsibly by providing the ability for the hiring of new police officers!

In addition, - to add some strength and meaning to these appropriations, - Council has provided that if a class of new officers is not hired by July 1, 1983, and the second class is not hired by November 1, 1983, then all appropriations provided for those new recruits, will automatically come out of that account and go into Council's contingency account, for some other essential need - as determined by Council.

While there is a desire of the Mayor and the Council, equally, to keep our city safe, this effort to insure it's safety is worthwhile to the City, to the City taxpayers and to the non-City resident, who works in or frequents our City.

POLICE, FIRE AND MUNICIPAL RETIREES

Relative to our City Police, Fire and Municipal Retirees, it would be an understatement to say there is a definite need! Everyone is unanimous in that thought and concern!

But anytime we have an appropriation, and particularly, one of this size, it needs watching and concern!

Over the years, we met an obligation to retirees - every other year! This method made sense, because it offered financial aid, but lessened the burden on the City taxpayer.

However, the Pensioners' plight - like everyone else's - in recent years has seen some brutal escalations.

When the increase was granted last year, it did not really meet their needs. Their needs were and are basic - medical and essential food requirements!

This year, an attempt was made to fund a plan, whereby, there could be considerable savings to the City, while at the same time, addressing the pensioners' basic needs. While that plan is not the final solution, nevertheless, it is a step in the right direction, - because it does address the need, and also lowers, considerably, the cost to the taxpayer.

Regretfully, this plan could not be instituted this year!

This Council, during Budget deliberations, preliminarily, then felt that every effort should be made to put into effect, this plan or any plan, that addressed the need, but also controlled and lessened the City taxpayers' obligations. It therefore felt that a delay - this year - was in order!

After a further review, this Council was faced with a hard decision: whether to delay the need for a possible future better alternative or provide the means now because - that need is NOW!

Since the needs are basic needs - medical and food needs, - this Council really had no choice! It had to provide

NOW - when the need was paramount and acutel

This Council therefore, decided to grant the City pensioners, 3,043 of them, a $25.00 per month pension increase in 1983 - that is $912,900 a year.

A word of caution is needed for all - the recipients, this Council and the City taxpayer. This kind of grant, cannot possibly become a built in, fixed charge, to the City's yearly Budget!

BUDGETCONSIDERATIONSAND SURPLUS

One needs to look at our 1983 Budget, with more than a cursory review!

One needs to look at our City Budget in terms of a minimum two (2) year cycle, as opposed to a one (1) year review.

In his Budget proposal, the Mayor has projected increases for employee salaries, health insurance, and pensions. Bear in mind we are talking about only increases for 1983 and not basic wage and benefits.

He listed the increases as follows:

$ 1.0	Million - for workers compensation
3.9	Million - for employees health insurance
	650,000 for group life insurance program
5.5	Million - for unsettled labor contracts, police, fire and school guards
3.8	Million - salary increases already negotiated

$14.8 Million

This is an expenditure of an additional $14.8 million dollars!

But, again, it needs to be emphasized that this is only the 1983 increase of wages, health insurance and pension needs, for one (1) year.

In 1983, we can and will be able to meet that $14.8 million obligation because we fortunately have a 1982 surplus, of $16.2 million dollars.

If we did not have the suplus, how would we have been able to raise the revenues to meet these increases, of $14.6 million dollars?

To be candid, forthright and blunt - only one (1) way - with a tax increase.

By taking a closer look at the 1982 surplus, let's see how we avoided an 1983 tax increase.

It would be grossly unfair not to say that the City has made substantial improvements in its fiscal management!

This has totally been a cooperative effort between the administration and this Council!

There has been a better working relationship between the Administration's Fiscal Department and the Fiscal Department of this Council, and this has inured to the City's overall benefit.

Many good things have happened, i.e.:

1. The institution of the "lock box" system, wherein City funds are deposited on a one day basis;
2. The institution of the landlord/tenant registration bill, - enabling the City to locate more non paying taxpayers;

3. The passage of tax filing legislation, - the mandatory income tax form PGH 40 to enforce tax collection;
4. The acceleration of the collection of withholding tax collections from larger employees, on a monthly, rather than quarterly basis;
5. The investment and reinvestment of available funds on a daily, rather than on a "delayed" receipt basis, taking full advantage of the higher interest rates in the early part of 1982;
6. Intensified efforts to collect outstanding tax receivables particularly in the area of business tax;
7. Stepped up Treasurer sales of tax delinquent properties, designed to collect delinquencies faster.

All of the above have given added considerable revenues from the same tax base - without the need of additional taxation!

This has truly helped the City's fiscal position and stature!

But inspite of the above good, sound and fiscally responsible moves made in 1982, a further look at the surplus is a must, if we want to understand how we avoided a tax increase in 1983.

The 1982 Surplus is made up of the following:

1. $ 3.8 million from the sale of the U.S. Steel Building,

2. $ 200,000 from the sale of other large buildings,

3. $ 1.5 million from the institution of the Pittsburgh 40 Tax Form (requiring the filing) which caught the Scofflaw taxpayer

4. $ 2.0 million Return on interest. (At early 1982 rates)

5. $ 2.0 million Curb side pick up.

6. 900,000 Direct garbage dumping.

7. $ 3.2 million surplus 1981.

$13.6 million

These receipts are not continuing revenues! They are one time receipts and should be understood to be just that - one time receipts!

That being so, let us project for a moment, into 1984.

Disregarding salary increases, for 1984, but knowing, at least, that the 1983 increases only of wages, and benefits is about $14.8 million, can we, expect any one time revenues in 1983, to avoid a 1984 tax increase? If so, can we expect them in substantially, the same healthy amounts as in 1982 in view of the lessening economic conditions?

At this time, I don't see it!

This is a "Red Flag" to all!!!

We must think about it in 1983, and think about it - early in 1983!

The City of Pittsburgh taxpayer is already overly burdened with taxation from the City, PLUS the school district PLUS the County, not to mention the State and Federal Governments!

This City needs help!

The Mayor is correct! The State Legislature must act responsibly and must grant, to this City the opportunity to tax non-City residents, who work in the City - more than $10.00 per year.

It would be wrong, for this City or any city, to have the ability to tax non-City resident employees at the same rate, as residents, but no one has ever asked for that!

We have and shall only ask that non-City resident employees pay only for the services they receive.

We can but repeat our remarks of last year. "We defy any non-City resident to say that they don't get more than ten ($10) dollars of value from this City."

This City receives little or no revenue from tax exempt properties such as: the schools and universities, the hospitals, and other public facilities - which serve the county, if not the region!

This Council is, therefore, supportive of the Mayor on these issues and stands ready, willing and able to address it cooperatively!

But aside from looking outside the City for help, acting responsibly, we should also look, internally, to see what this City can do for itself, to curtail expenses!

Our City taxpayers will demand no less!!!

LAND TAX

This Council has been a strong proponent of the graded land tax concept and its benefits!

Council began to place heavy emphasis on this concept in 1978. Since then, it has been beneficial in spurring development of vacant and under utilized tracts of land.

This Council earlier in its Budget deliberations, preliminarily, decreased the millage on buildings from 32 mills to 22 mills, and increased the millage on land from 133 to 168 mills.

After further review of this increase and the impact of the intended increase on businesses - in the year of 1983, it was decided to review the size of the increase.

Due to the disruption of business in the downtown area, caused by the nearly impossible traffic problems created by the subway construction, last year and to be continued in 1983 as well as the recent recession, I as Finance Chairman, recommended and this Council approved, a delay and a partial "roll back", of the full increase for the year 1983.

Council finally decided to decrease the millage on buildings from 32 mills to 27 mills, and to increase the millage on land from 132 to 151.50 mills.

This is not an increase or decrease of Revenues to the City, it is merely a "Shifting" of the tax burden! It is an equal - "dollar for dollar" - exchange of revenues on real estate!

This adjustment should assist the homeowners, who pay twenty (20%) percent of the tax.

It provides some increases to the commercial landowner and among them many non-City resident land owners.

But it's greatest value is that it serves as a disincentive to the ownership of large tracts of land, particularly those without any buildings or which are underdeveloped. With an increase of their land tax obligations -- and now paying a more proportionate share - they cannot, as heretofore, "sit on" the property and speculate, while the City loses the advantage of their reinvestment.

Development means additional tax revenues to the City, and hopefully, a lessening of the tax load to other City real estate owners.

CONCLUSION

Last year, in our Budget Message, we stated:

"As one looks at the City, one can predict that the future will be filled with a great deal of hope, and expectations!

While most cities, particularly those in the Northeast, are being traumatically impacted on by the "fiscal course of the day," they don't see that "light at the end of the tunnel."

But Pittsburgh does! There are still a few years on tight budgets for this City, but in the not too distant future -- there is renewed "financial life" ahead, as the fruits of Renaissance II come to fruition.

But in order to "weather the fiscal storm," this City must still exercise great caution!"

This Council and the Mayor did, in 1982, exercise great caution!!!

That caution and concern needs to be continued into the next few years.

If so, this City and its citizens will be better off; for the decisions made and actions taken, today, will have major consequences in the future!

Our City - the City of Pittsburgh - looks to the future with anticipation!!!

I hereby recommend that the City Council of the City of Pittsburgh adopt - our 1983 NO TAX INCREASE BALANCED BUDGET, - and I urge the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh to accept our recommendations and revisions and to approve the 1983 Budget.

Respectfully submitted,
December 27, 1982
ROBERT RADE STONE
Finance Chairman

Michelle Madoff:

Is that you motion, Mr. Stone?

Mr. Stone:

That's the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you want to vote on it now?

Mr. Stone:

Just a minute. I'd just like to add one more thing while I'm here at the podium then I can go back and sit down and be comfortable.

To our President, Mr. DePasquale, if I may, while I'm at the podium I'd like again with your permission to publicly acknowledge some thanks to the following people.

First to our Budget staff of City Council with John Buckley and Pete Vaughn for their extra and special efforts this year and for again doing an excellent job.

I'd like to thank our Capital Budget staff of Eddie Albert and Al D'Alessandro for keeping our capital budget and community development projects in line and moving under most unusual circumstances.

I would like to thank our City Clerk, Mike Perry, and Linda Johnson who has made great strides this year, and staff, who have been keeping our meetings timely and all along have listened to our load.

And to the core of secretaries and typists for their fine services.

To Paul Krall and the staff of our City Information System Center for his patience, understanding and excellent services.

To our Printing Department under the ever dependable Bob Murphy who, every year, is always cooperative and always patient and performs under most unusual circumstances.

A special thanks this year to all of the Department Heads and the Directors who were most cooperative.

A special thanks to the Treasurer, Ron Schmeiser, George Jacoby and Steve Schillo for their cooperation and input in the 1983 Budget deliberations. As well, their full cooperation and understanding during the year.

We would like to thank the Mayor, publicly at this time, would like to thank the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh and his staff who have been most cooperative in these deliberations.

Last but not least, I'd like to thank each and every Councilperson who, by their participation, support and input, have contributed to shaping the 1983 Budget.

Thank you all.

Mr. Stone moved to adopt the 1983 Budget.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Since I was rudely cut off at the table while we were discussing the budget earlier, I wanted to make a statement. I think it's probably worked out for the best because we had a chance to hear some eloquent words from our Finance Chairman and it gives some of us a chance to comment on them.

It seems to me, in the four and a half years I've been here, I've heard almost the same thing, just a change of numbers. Such as, we need more police and the City Council has appropriated the funds and we really want to have them and when the influx of suburbanites descends on the City, are we really having our fair numbers compared to other cities and the answer is obviously no, but we've not had an answer as to how to go about it other than we're standing squarely behind the Mayor.

Then the issue was addressed again by our Finance Chairman of the suburbanites and how they are not paying their fair share and he defies, and I agree with him, any resident of the suburbs to say they don't get ten dollars worth of services out of this City, and he stands four square behind the Mayor in his support of trying to do something about it. But nothing has been done and it's been four and a half years.

I wonder whether, in the coming year, it might not be appropriate, to bring together all the leaders of our great City, our Allegheny Conference, Gulf, Coppers, Alcoa, Westinghouse, as they have done in other cities. That is the pioneering, that is where the ground work and that is where the sales job has been done. Where the corporations who hire the people have said, "Hey, you earn your living in this City and $10 isn't a fair share to keep this City functioning and alive so that you can have a place to work." That, perhaps, is where something can be done by this Council.

On the issue of police, I think this Council cannot just say as the Finance Chairman has said, "Well, we're taking care of the matter. If the Mayor doesn't put a class in, you know what we're going to do? We're going to take the money back." So what! How is that going to get us police? And I tell you that this Councilwoman will do something about it in the coming year.

I think I've said enough. Thank you.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. Stone moved to suspend Rule 8 providing for the mailing of printed copies of all ordinances and resolutions to each member of Council at least 48 hours previous to their consideration by Council after the return of such papers from Committee.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Stone presented

Bill No. 2234

Report of the Committee on Finance for December 22, 1982 transmitting sundry ordinances and resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 1729

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance repealing Chapter 249 of the Pittsburgh Code, entitled, 'Mercantile License Fees and Tax'."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Bear in mind that an affirmative vote means we eliminate the Mercantile Tax and a negative vote means we retain it.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS, MICHELLE MADOFF, MR. O'MALLEY, MR. ROBINSON AND MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1729 - 12/22/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, if I might, as I mentioned on previous occasions, and I will try to be brief today, I think it is rather obvious, or at least obvious to me and I think people who have studied the issue, that the mercantile tax is regressive, outdated, and certainly a burden on the small business community as well as on the larger business community. Members of Council may have received a letter from a Mr. Joseph Katz, who is the owner of Mervis Datsun, Inc., which I think sums up the concern that businesspeople have relative to the mercantile tax in the City of Pittsburgh. If members of Council did not receive this — it was dated December 17, 1982 — I will be more than happy to provide you with a copy. It was sent to the City Clerk's Office, and I assume he made a copy available to everyone, because I have a copy of the original letter.

I would think that it would be in our best interests at this time to move expeditiously to drop this particular tax, and I would make a motion that we approve this bill.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Mr. Robinson, the mercantile tax if I'm correct — please make sure that I am — is levied whether you make a profit or not, is that correct?

Mr. Robinson:

On the gross receipts.

Michelle Madoff:

And you would be really in dire problems, especially in today's dire problems, and still have to pay that tax. I could put you out of business — could make the difference between staying in business and going out of business.

You have one letter that exemplifies. How many hundreds of people over the years have talked to you about it?

Mr. Robinson:

Most of the small businesspeople that I have talked to have indicated for some time they have been opposed to the mercantile tax and felt that as times get worse economically, their particular condition lessens. I don't think it is fair to suggest that the mercantile tax is the only reason small businesses are suffering or that the elimination of the mercantile tax is going to turn the economy around in the City, but I think there are a number of good reasons, most of which I have already mentioned, for us to take the bold step to remove those taxes that at this point are oppressive, particularly in light of the $16.2 million surplus that Mr. Jacoby and Mr. Schmeiser were kind enough to calculate for us; and I think in anticipation that we're going to have probably a bigger surplus next year, that now is the time to eliminate the mercantile tax.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, may I suggest respectfully that we have two members of Council that aren't here, and I think it's going to be such a close vote that may I ask that we hold that until the other two members of Council get here and we would have a better chance of getting it through?

Mr. Robinson:

It's up to the Chairman.

The Chair:

It's on the agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

We have asked before. You've asked to hold votes until the end of the meeting. I am respectfully asking — we have three members of Council missing. I think they'll be here momentarily.

Mr. Robinson:

I am requesting the Chair hold the vote on this bill until a later point on the agenda.

The Chair:

Okay.

The Chair:

Do you want to go back to 1729 now?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, if I might.

The Chair:

For those of you who were absent, we waited until you got here. On 1729, Mr. Robinson has moved and it was seconded to repeal Chapter 249 of the Code, Mercantile License Fees and Tax. We opened up the discussion, and if I may, let me make a couple of comments.

This bill involves somewhere between five and six million dollars. In addition, there is a sister tax, and that is the business privilege tax, which is the same kind of tax but for service. It involves something like $16 million. They are similar taxes but to different groups.

In addition, on this particular tax, and I'm not saying that I'm a proponent of the tax, because I think all of us have already stated that it's one of those you'd like somewhere along the line to unload, but relative to an owner tenant, someone who doesn't own property or own the building, on that individual, if he is not incorporated and he doesn't live here, we get nothing. Ten bucks, that's all. If he has a corporation, then he doesn't even pay the ten dollars. This is our opportunity to get that.

Relative to this surplus thing, and I would hope that we still don't address this as $16 million. That's going to be part of my budget message, but I'd just like to say at this point, because I think it's very important, in 1982 for employee salary increases and benefits only, not counting their base salary, we are up to about $14.3 million. The moneys that came in in '83 were not continual moneys, and roughly about thirteen or fourteen million, roughly what made that money were what I call one-shot deals that came in in the year of '82.

In 1983 looking to '84, if we just held the line, we would be adding to that somewhere between seven-one and seven-five of the increases — I'm sorry. If you don't add any more, it would be another fourteen-three, and if we don't end out with fourteen-something in one-shot deals in 1983, it may be a problem.

I think we are making a very serious mistake to remove this tax at this time, and as Finance Chairman, I'm telling all of you that we cannot afford it, although as far as the tax is concerned, it doesn't have a glamorous image.

Mr. O'Malley:

Can I have Ron up at the table? Ron, this tax, is this tax on the estimated gross revenue for the year?

Mr. Schmeiser:

The actual gross.

Mr. O'Malley:

The actual gross. Payable what? Quarterly? Monthly?

Mr. Schmeiser:

Payable once a year, April 15, following the year.

Mr. O'Malley:

Is this tax paid for the previous year's receipts or estimated gross of the following year?

Mr. Schmeiser:

No, it's paid based upon the preceding year's receipts.

Mr. O'Malley:

Collected quarterly. Would it be beneficial for the City of Pittsburgh and in our interests if it was collected quarterly instead of on a yearly basis?

Mr. Schmeiser:

I proposed that several years ago, and I think there was a legal problem with it.

Mr. O'Malley:

Could you furnish me with a copy of that?

Mr. Schmeiser:

I don't know that there was an opinion. It was just a discussion I had with the Law Department. It's a good idea, and perhaps it's something we ought to look at again.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Schmeiser, is it not true as Mr. Robinson has stated and I stated earlier that if you're in business and you're paying your mercantile tax, you pay it whether you make a profit or not?

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's true.

Michelle Madoff:

Did you hear that, Mr. O'Malley? I will repeat that again. Isn't it true that if you're in business and you're paying a mercantile tax on your gross, you pay it whether you have a profit or not?

Mr. Schmeiser:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

And isn't it true in today's economic situation that that can make the difference between someone staying in business and going out of business?

Mr. Schmeiser:

I suppose in some cases it could be.

Michelle Madoff:

And isn't it true that over the years you've had many, many requests in your office, certainly the Mayor has. I know I've had hundreds, and I know Councilman Robinson has had many, that that is indeed a fact, that people are really hurting, and they feel that is a most regressive tax, because you pay it whether you make a profit or not. Isn't it true, Mr. Stone, that yesterday you said you didn't know what the surplus in the budget was, but last year we had a $16 million surplus, and it wasn't a one-shot thing, and I can give you a perfect example of that, because I asked to have five percent of the salaries discounted and not figured into the budget simply because we had done it the year before and it worked. It is humanly impossible to fill all jobs, and we already know of some buildings that are pending for sale. I've talked to some informed people. It appears we'll have between 20 and 25 million next year, and if we're ever going to do it, Mr. Robinson is absolutely right; this is our best shot at doing it. We may never have an opportunity like this again.

Mr. O'Malley:

Most of your taxes are paid on your gross receipts or your gross revenues. Most of your taxes are based on that.

Mr. Schmeiser:

That's right. The business privilege tax is --

Michelle Madoff:

I understand that, but we can't get rid of the business privilege tax, because it's $16 million.

Mr. Schmeiser:

I think it's even more harmful to our interests, the business privilege tax, than the mercantile tax.

Michelle Madoff:

I agree, and we're not touching the business privilege tax. We're touching the mercantile. It's only five million something, whereas --

The Chair:

Five or six million dollars, which we don't have.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, you say we don't have it, and you were very demeaning and degrading to me last year when you said we were going to have a surplus, and we had a $16 million surplus.

The Chair:

Michelle, you've been predicting surpluses, and you still don't know what page Water is on.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, you're so full of it, it's coming out of your ears. This is a very unfortunate, sad situation, that we are boring the public to death with televising the numbers on budget hearings, but the most important budget that we've ever had this year, today, you made sure we were not covered, and everybody should be seeing you at your best, because you certainly are at your best.

Mr. Robinson came up with a very responsible resolution, that if any time we ought to be now. You know, and I'll make you a $1000 bet, Mr. Stone, that we're going to have a surplus substantive next year. Do you want to put your money in escrow? I'll bet you your favorite charity, because you're full of it, and you know we're going to have a surplus, and this is the time to do it, and you're lying as usual.

The Chair:

We'll get back to the bill.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd just like to make one other comment for those members of Council who were not here at the outset of the session. I think I have explained adequately my concerns and certainly don't want to belabor the point, but with respect to Mr. Schmeiser's comments and all of you concerned about our tax situation, I certainly am aware that there are other taxes in the City of Pittsburgh that each of us could identify that we would like to repeal. I'm very appreciative of that. The amusement tax, the business privilege tax, the mercantile tax perhaps all fall in the same category as being wrong taxes. I think they were good for their time, but I do think that we can take some positive step by eliminating the mercantile tax.

I do not agree with Mr. Stone that the money is not available. Now is not the time to debate that issue, but I don't believe that the five or six million dollars, if we were to eliminate this tax, would leave us short, and I still feel that the overriding concern should be to remove this oppressive tax, and that indeed there will be more than enough money. That's the issue. There will be more than enough money to cover the five or six million dollars.

The Chair:

Call the question, Mike. Roll call vote.

Ayes:	Noes:

The Chair:

The bill fails.

(END - REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1729 - 12/22/82)

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff

AYES 3	NOES 6
--------	--------

VOTING NO:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale
	(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the bill was defeated.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2006

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Two, Fiscal, Article IX, Property Taxes, Chapter 263, Real Property Tax, Section 1, Levy and Rate on Lands and Buildings, by imposing the Real Property Tax for 1983." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like to make a few comments on this, if I might. I think members of Council received telegrams and a few letters assuming that when Council adopted the Land Use, switching of our tax burden from one to another, that we only received a couple phone calls and just a few letters. However, I feel that there are many people out there that are enjoying the holiday season and will not know the full impact of this until they receive their tax bills come January 1, 1983.

Again, I submit to this Council, on Bill 2006, that we hold this over or do something with it so that we can have a public hearing on it. A proper hearing is to allow everyone adequate time to evaluate the effect of this change on their own operations.

You know, we just had Nabisco Corporation here trying to save 650 jobs. We're talking about land usage and the land be more productive. However, on the other side of that coin, if companies are to come in here and invest in the City of Pittsburgh and build, are we not possibly hurting those particular people, and I'm talking about the small business. The only people that are going to get a significant change or a significant increase are the large buildings in downtown Pittsburgh. The smaller ones are not. I think the smaller buildings throughout the City of Pittsburgh where we house much of our light industrial manufacturing companies. These are the people that even the President of the United States asked, hire just one more person.

Now we're shifting this bill. If you look at the magnitude of it, it's not as simple as a nice balanced budget. For example, in the five mill increase on the buildings, reducing it by five mills, each mill is $1.2 million. So, we're talking about a $6 million reduction on our building and a $6 million increase on our land usage. I think to make a magnitude of that, a change of that great, we're talking about a budget with no increase, but here's $12 million that we're reversing on the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh without giving them the opportunity to come in and have us hear them out. I don't think this is fair on any of the parties and it affects everybody who lives in this City or lives without the City that owns a building, has land or whatever the situation might be.

I think we're making a grave error in judgment in not hearing these people out. As they so indicated in their letters to me, the few that we received over this holiday season, that they want to have a hearing. I know the Committee vote on it was 8-2 and as a result I would like to say at the first part of the year 1983, Mr. President, I would like for you, if not, we'll be receiving petitions in this Council, to have a public hearing on this very issue as to which direction are we going in. If we put any taxation on any individual or individual groups within the City of Pittsburgh, and I think without a timely plan, without a timely plan execution over a number of years, that we are going to hurt certain people in this City. And I don't think anyone sitting on this Council wants to hurt anyone.

So, because of that reason, the changes that were made at today's and Wednesday's meeting, that I cannot vote, in all consciousness, on 2006. That, however, Mr. Chairman, does not indicate that I am not for land reform in the City of Pittsburgh. I think we must have a plan and that plan must be executed over a number of years.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, I share a lot of your reservations. In talking to Councilman Stone on Christmas Day, I think I reiterate just about what you had said. He had talked to the Golden Triangle Association and I get the impression that they don't want any increase at all, that they're more than willing to go along with that compromise of fifty percent or what have you, from 168 to 151.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. We amended it earlier, but I'd like to make sure that this bill is amended. I would like to amend the rate. Decreasing the millage on building from what it says in there, 32, make that 27. And where it says, 168, make that 151.50.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

That, Mr. President, is a twin $12 million change.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think the issue goes beyond this budget. I think next year, as Mr. Givens has said, we must hold a public hearing. But not a public hearing where you run notices in the legal columns which are in fine, fine print. I can't even read them with a magnifying glass. You do not have people come to a hearing and just ventilate. You give them a proposal, a resolution, a regulation, a law, that is proposed and say how do you feel about it. You don't hear from them and then write the bill afterwards. They have nothing to comment on. I think since there is a movement to go to a higher land tax and a lower property tax for next year, early in the year we ought to hold a hearing saying this is what's proposed, how do you feel about it, as opposed to just come and talk to us, we'd like to visit with you.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd like to again emphasize that we did have a legal tax hearing on December 14, 1982. The public was notified. Unfortunately, more of the public did not show up. But this Council does have the authorization given to us by the State Constitution to make decisions relative to tax matters. We are the only individuals in the City who can do that, increase the taxes or eliminate taxes, and while it is always appropriate to have as much information as you can have, we certainly have exercised our prerogative, I think, in a legal fashion well within the law and we should not forget that. Regardless of the information that we received or the comments received from the public, the final responsibility is on this Council to either raise the taxes, eliminate taxes or to adjust them. I don't think anyone should leave this Council Chamber today under the impression that we have not given the public an opportunity. By the same token, as I've mentioned before, I wouldn't want anyone to think that I am suggesting that our procedures are without points that need to be corrected. The timing of the meetings, the information that can go out, we can always improve in those areas. And I would hope that this Council would be vigorous next year in trying to make sure that everyone who wants to come in for the tax hearing comes in, and understands that it is probably the most important hearing we have in the City.

Just two other comments, if I might, Mr. Chairman. I'd like to congratulate Mr. Schmeiser, our Finance Director, and Mr. Jacoby, our Treasurer, for working so diligently in attempting to work out some kind of rate relative to the Land Tax and relative to the Building Tax.

I'd also like to congratulate Mr.

Dan Sullivan who is with the Incentive Tax League and Mr. Steven Cord who is with the Center for the Study of Economics who did a lot of work in raising the consciousness level of this Council and also a lot of footwork, if you will, in trying to convince us and people around this state, really around this country, that a significant shift to the Land Tax on the part of local municipalities is in their best interest. And those four individuals did a lot of the work along with Mr. Stone that reflects this final compromise. I just want to congratulate them.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I don't know if members of Council are aware, but Mr. Schmeiser has been named Man of the Year in Finance.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2006 - 12/22/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Discussion. As one who advocates a substantial increase in the land tax as a means of addressing our fiscal problems, I think this particular motion is well in order. I would hope that we would move in the future to more dependency on the land tax and less dependency on other taxes, and I think this is a continuation of a step we made back in 1979 under the leadership of then-Councilman Coyne, and I fully endorse this. As I said, I hope that Council will seriously consider a bolder move next year.

(END - MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2006 - 12/22/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I have an unreadiness around the other tax bills that we did not consider here. Maybe the Parliamentarian can clear it up.

If I'm correct, when we tabled the other tax bills, the original tax bills that were presented to us for enactment in 1983, our tabling meant that the tax rates would stay in effect at their present level.

Mr. Stone:

Correct.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. Shouldn't those bills have been brought forward to today's session so we could take some official action? It's my understanding that only at a Monday session would we be able to take action to institute or re-institute taxes or eliminate taxes.

Mr. Stone:

For some reason it's never been done in the ten years that I've been here.

Mr. Perry:

The way I understand it, Bill, is that if there's substantial change in those Act 511 tax or the Home Rule Charter, then they must come before Council and final action. Otherwise, Council takes no action on them.

Mr. Robinson:

If we don't change them, they stay?

Mr. Perry:

Right.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, then my question is, if, for example, the Administration submitted all the taxes from 1982 as the taxes they wanted in 1983. Am I correct?

Mr. Stone:

I did that.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. Should you have not submitted anything?

Mr. Stone:

I had a choice of doing nothing or, when you're coming to the end of the year you want to find out that you have all the potential, to get to any tax, if that be necessary. So, you bring them all up and at that point, if you don't change them, it's a renewal of the same rate.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, but shouldn't all Committee actions, all actions taken in Committee, be finally acted upon at a Monday session?

Mr. Perry:

No, not if a motion is made to table the bill in Committee. It dies in Committee then. It's tabled in Committee.

Mr. Stone:

Therefore, you haven't changed it. Therefore, it's a renewal.

Mr. Robinson:

Maybe the Parliamentarian can give me some clarification. If these bills were tabled, does that mean that they can be untabled?

Parliamentarian:

Certainly.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. What period of time do we have to untangle them?

Mr. Stone:

The Committee Meeting. The one that just passed.

Mr. Robinson:

We could untangle them next Wednesday?

Mr. Stone:

No.

Mr. Robinson:

Why not?

Mr. Stone:

They die at the end of the year.

Mr. O'Malley:

No, a Council year is two years long. In other words, we can untangle them any time until the end of 1983.

Mr. Stone:

The taxing has to be done before the year is up. You don't change taxes --

Mr. O'Malley:

Councilman Robinson is right on this.

The Chair:

Excuse me, Mr. O'Malley, the question has been asked of the Parliamentarian. No one is allowed to answer it.

Parliamentarian:

I would like to have the tax lawyer rule on that because as far as tabling or untabling is concerned, that's done in Committee. Whether or not it is a tax resolution, you should present that to Ms. Harris.

Mr. Robinson:

My point is, if these tax bills are like any other bills which are tabled, they can be removed from the table and we can take action on it. If we take an action that is contrary to the action we've already taken on the budget, then we have some serious problems because we voted on Mr. Stone's resolution with the understanding that the taxes that were tabled would remain in effect. But if this Council has the power to take those tax bills off the table and take some action on it contrary to what Mr. Stone produced, we have a problem.

If I might, I would think that in the future, instead of tabling those bills, that we need to call for a vote, a motion to either approve or disapprove, and then have those bills finally come here. If we approve all those bills, then take final action on them right here because as far as I'm concerned, those bills are semi-dead. They can be untabled and we can take action on them.

Mr. O'Malley:

Councilman Robinson is right.

Mr. Givens:

I feel almost similar, Mike. Have we been doing this historically? Traditionally?

Mr. Robinson:

That doesn't make it right, Dick.

Mr. Givens:

I know. And I go along with you questioning the matter.

The Chair:

If I may, we have passed the budget. If I'm hearing correctly, you want to take a bill off the table that might change the budget?

Mr. Robinson:

I'm saying if we take the bill off the table, any of those bills off the table, and reconsider them, we could change the tax rate. We still have that power. If we were to make any changes other than what those bills say right now, this would be a contradiction of our approval of Mr. Stone's resolution. I'm not suggesting that anyone did anything in bad faith or anything of that sort. I'm saying that it seems to be a procedural problem that we need to correct kind of soon.

Mr. Stone:

That was brought up as part of the budgetary considerations. Since we tabled it, it has a deadline like everything else. It comes in and it's culminated, codified, into one document, the budget. If that thing does not become part of the budget, then the tax that is there, which you must change to change, if you did not change it, it's renewed at the rate as it was before. Once it is tabled, it is not part of the final document which is the budget document and therefore dies.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. My question again is procedural. There's no way in the world that we can raise any revenues from taxes in the City of Pittsburgh without taking final action on it. We have not taken final action on those bills that have been tabled which suggest some revenues coming into the City of Pittsburgh. The only revenues that we have, they'll be coming in from '83, will be from outside sources or if we've passed the bill here on a Monday. The state law is explicit. We can only raise taxes or reduce taxes or eliminate taxes by having a final vote in public. And we have not done that. The only, the two tax bills we voted on today, the elimination of mercantile tax and some changes in the real estate tax. Those other tax bills have been tabled and those bills are still in committee and no final action has been taken on them and as far as I'm concerned, come 1983, there aren't any taxes in those categories. I believe I'm on good legal ground. You can't do that automatically. You cannot take away from this Council its power to tax. We're the only people in the City of Pittsburgh who have the power to tax. Not the Mayor. The Mayor submitted the original budget, not the Finance Chairman. This Council is the only body in the City of Pittsburgh that has the power to tax.

Mr. Stone:

Hold on. When we had the City Solicitor sitting there, that was the specific question I asked and that was, if we table these bills, the thing is re-enacted at the same rate. In other words, it's the continuing tax until you remove it. And that was her statement and based on that legal opinion, we moved.

Mr. Robinson:

That's no legal opinion, Mr. Stone. That was her verbal --

Mr. Stone:

It's the best one I heard yet.

Mr. Robinson:

No, it's not. That's her verbalization. If I'm not mistaken, I raised the whole question. I had an unreadiness and I still have an unreadiness. I have not seen anything in writing that says to me that those bills, once they're tabled, means that the taxes remain in effect. I believe that every year we have to raise money to pay our bills and the only way to do that is for this Council to take action, not inaction. What you're suggesting is inaction.

Mr. Stone:

If I may, Mr. Robinson, that's not the first time it happened. She's been there four or five times since I've been Finance Chairman. She was there before that. You seem to have gotten a hard position on it and no way I'm going to change it this moment, but we had the benefit of legal help for each year doing it that way and that's the way it's done.

The Chair:

I don't believe the tremor is to change those bills. You just want to take them off the table and approve them. Am I correct?

Mr. Robinson:

I want to make sure that we're proceeding in the proper fashion and if indeed we have the power --

The Chair:

Are you asking to eliminate some of those taxes?

Mr. Robinson:

I'm not asking for anybody to change their vote.

The Chair:

You're saying legally to take them off the table and approve them?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes. I think those bills should be before us. That's all I'm saying. My vote is going to be the same. I'm still going to vote against the amusement tax.

Mr. Stone:

She told us that. The legal solicitor who's done it every time.

Mr. Robinson:

That doesn't make it right and that's what I'm trying to suggest now.

Mr. Stone:

But it doesn't make it wrong either.

Mr. Robinson:

No. Then let's get some clarification before we close out this year. I'm saying that if we don't approve taxes for '83, there aren't any taxes.

Mr. Stone:

Call Grace up. I don't care what you do.

Parliamentarian:

I discussed the matter with the Solicitor and the reasoning is as follows. The tax bills were tabled at the time of the Committee Meeting which caused the then existing tax rates in effect. By doing that, the tax rate stayed in effect.

Mr. Robinson:

Did the Solicitor site you any case law to substantiate what he told you verbally?

Parliamentarian:

The Solicitor that was here on the tax at the time indicated that was so. That was orally stated. If you want that in writing from the Solicitor, it will be no problem.

Mr. Robinson:

Let me say this. I believe you're wrong. I'm not saying that to try to embarrass you but I believe the procedure is wrong. But it would seem to me that it would be in interest of this Council to vote on all tax bills just as we vote on mercantile tax or any other. There's nothing wrong with that procedure. It makes good consistent sense in terms of us having to take a vote in public on tax matters just like any other matter. If we proceed without doing that, then Wednesday when we meet again, I want to make a motion to try to untable those bills so that we can take some action on them. As long as they're tabled and as long as I can legally make a motion to untable, I will continue to try to make that motion to untable those bills because I think we should have some action in this Council. If they are negatively recommended or affirmatively recommended, all I'm saying is that they should be in front of us. That's all I'm saying. I recognize that over the last five years we've done it that way because, and in being fair to everybody, I have voted in the past. Under that assumption, this year I raised the question in Committee because it appeared to me that that was not the proper way to proceed and I was somewhat surprised at Mrs. Harris' comments and I wanted to make sure I was on a little firmer ground. I've got to say it today and let's get it clarified today.

I have no problems is that's what they want to proceed on, but I think you also ought to ask them whether or not those bills could be untabled Wednesday and I would dare say yes. But a motion to untable is appropriate without discussion. If there is a second, those bills are untabled and then we'll have to take action on them. That would be subsequent to us closing out this budget. And I think you have some legal problems. That's all.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think Mr. Robinson would like to vote, we've just discussed it, say for example, on —

The Chair:

Vote on what?

Michelle Madoff:

Vote no for the record. You can't do that unless the bill is brought out. Why don't we just quickly —

The Chair:

You can't untable it until the Committee Meeting and that will be Wednesday. If he wants to vote no, he can vote no. If he wants to vote yes, he can vote yes.

Michelle Madoff:

But we can't close off the year.

The Chair:

Is there further any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

I'll abstain on that motion then.

It's already passed.

Fine. But mark me as abstaining.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Givens:

I'd like my remarks on Bill No. 2186 in Parks and Recreation to be brought forward.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2186 - 12/22/82)

Mr. Givens:

I possibly might have an amendment, and I am only addressing myself to the Zoo and to the children in the Zoo. What was that increase? From what to one dollar?

Louise R. Brown
Director
Department of Parks and Recreation

Forty cents.

Mr. Givens:

From 40 cents, and what is the rationale behind that?

Director Brown:

The admission fees at the Zoo have not been changed since they were first instituted about 15 years ago, so that's a long time for not having any increase. We felt that was a fair rate for children to pay. We researched almost every zoo in the country and found this to be very similar to or maybe even in some cases a little less than other rates for both adults and children at their zoos.

Mr. Givens:

It used to be a free zoo when I was a young child, and all children could get in under 18, I assume, or 21 at that particular time.

Director Brown:

The Zoo Commission, which is not included in this because it's not a part of the fee structure, voted that we will implement a free day a month, so that there will be opportunities for people, children and adults, who can't pay or don't want to pay to come to the Zoo for free.

Mr. Givens:

How many days a month did you say?

Director Brown:

One.

Mr. Givens:

Just one day? I'm just thinking about what she just indicated to me. There's only one day a month. Could you increase that to two days?

Director Brown:

Well, again, that's a lot more than none ever, which was the original proposal, and again, most zoos don't have any free days because it's servicing a select group.

Mr. Givens:

I'm concerned, because some people don't have 40 cents.

Director Brown:

A dollar.

Mr. Givens:

I know it's a dollar now, but I mean, I'm looking at the children getting in free at one point someplace where those who are interested and want to —

Director Brown:

Well, that would mean that they could come 12 days to the Zoo, which is a lot of times to go to the Zoo. You don't have people coming every day.

Mr. Givens:

I think one day a month — you take the whole summer. A child would only have possibly two opportunities, three at the most, and taking any vacations that they might have.

Director Brown:

In addition, when we have promotional days at the Zoo usually that are co-sponsored with radio stations — we have a KDKA Day — those are normally free also.

Mr. Givens:

Through our public school systems, private school systems in the City of Pittsburgh when they go to the Zoo as a group during any time of the year are they charged?

Director Brown:

Yes.

Mr. Givens:

Who pays for that?

Director Brown:

The children, school district, whatever arrangements they make. Sometimes the schools pay for it out of their activities fees, sometimes the children, depending on the school.

Mr. Givens:

Well, it's an administrative suggestion. I'll make an amendment to keep the fee for children at the Zoo at 40 cents.

I would like Louise or Mike to please write a letter to the Zoology Commission — I think they're the ones that control the entrance to the Zoo — and see if they can increase from one free day, especially during the summer months, June, July, August, and September, from one day a month to two days a month. That's an administrative procedure. Hopefully, you could do that.

Director Brown:

I'll take that back.

(END - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, first, I'd like to have my comments on the Police Budget which was the issue of the police which came up at our Wednesday session on the 22nd and possibly on the 21st. I'd like my comments relative to the police budget brought forward.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON POLICE BUDGET - 12/21/82)

Mr. Robinson:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I have a couple comments directly to the issue before us and in the couple issues that I think indirectly relate but have been part of the continuing controversy around whether or not we have enough police in the City. It seems to me that the issue is whether or not the Council of the City of Pittsburgh has the power to make the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh fill the number of slots that we appropriate for police officers in any given budget.

One solution to that problem, of course, is to follow Mr. Flaherty's suggestion that we take this matter to the courts to determine if, indeed, we have that power. Another way to do that is to reduce the appropriation. That is, instead of appropriating for the number of police officers that we believe are necessary, we could take the number back to either the number that the Mayor says he will hire or to its present level, and then the Mayor would not be able to do any more than that; but I still say the issue is whether or not we have the power to have the Mayor fill any position in the budget that we appropriate, and I think this police issue is a prime example.

I, like Mr. Flaherty, do not believe that Council is prepared at this time to address this issue in the court and that unless we address it in terms of taking the money out of the budget, that we will be back here next year going over this issue time and time again.

With all due respect to Mr. Woods' attempt to get the Mayor to make a commitment to us, I don't believe that commitment is going to be any better commitment than the Mayor gave us last year. I think the Mayor understands the issue. In a very nice way, he has suggested to us that he has the power to fill up to the level we appropriated, so I would suggest to Council either consider going to court, reducing the level, or simply taking this issue off the table so that we don't continue to haggle and discuss an issue that obviously we mutually cannot resolve, that is mutually between the Mayor and Council.

The other issue is that I think that it is very appropriate for us to seriously encourage the Administration to conduct a police study, to do a current study of our Police Department which I think would give us more relevant data upon which to base our projections and I think also would give the Mayor some relevant data to base his projections on. I don't think we can scoff at the whole notion that perhaps we are working with inadequate data. I think we are all sincere in attempting to bring the Police Department up to a level acceptable to the general public, but I think it is also wise to recognize that there is expertise outside the City that would begin to pursue with the Mayor contracting for a qualified police consultant to come in and give us some updated information on our Police Department.

I believe that the last study was done under the Flaherty Administration, and as all of us know, that was many years ago, and I think that the data is still being used today, but I think it is irrelevant.

Another issue which I think has a couple of components is an issue that Mr. Stone and Mr. O'Malley spent some time discussing at previous sessions, and that is the whole issue of whether or not in our recruiting and hiring of police officers we are going to be bound by Judge Weber's decisions, and it relates to the hiring of minorities and women.

If Council has been paying attention to the news lately, the U.S. Supreme Court made a ruling in the case of the City of Boston where the F.O.P. went to court with the assistance of the city and the Reagan Administration to, in fact, declare the minority hiring and promotion program to be unconstitutional.

I think there are ramifications that are going to be national in scope in terms of cities under court order to improve the status of minority men and women. I would hope this Council would instruct our City Solicitor not to act in conjunction with the F.O.P. or any other group to overturn any decisions of the courts that relate to improving the number of minorities and women on our police force. I think, one, it is not the proper thing to do. Two, I think it is inconsistent with the City's commitment to minorities and women. Three, I think the situation in Boston has some uniqueness to it, and we need not try to use that perhaps as a rationale to solve a problem that does not necessarily relate to Judge Weber's decision but perhaps relates to our eagerness to see that everyone is treated fairly, and I certainly believe that everyone should be treated fairly.

The third thing in that regard is that commitment to minorities and women, as far as our Police Department is concerned, even in terms of our Fire Department, the Mayor has said on several occasions that we are meeting that commitment. Again, I think if we use the standard established by Judge Weber, we get one result. If we use a standard used by Council, we get another, perhaps. If we use a standard used by those aggrieved parties, minorities and women, we're going to get another result. I would just hope in our attempt to make sure we have adequate police officers that we do not lose sight of the fact that we have an overriding commitment to fairness and equality in the City to everyone, and Judge Weber's decision is an attempt to reach that.

(END - MR. ROBINSON'S COMMENTS ON POLICE BUDGET)

Mr. Robinson:

Also, on this matter of whether or not we have instituted taxes for next year, I'm very serious about this. I believe we've used the wrong procedure and I plan to pursue this matter so that we are consistent with the law.

In that regard, for Wednesday I'd like the City Clerk to ask the Law Department, whoever is down at the Law Department is a tax expert, please find the person who is the expert, and I'd like to have a legal opinion from them as to what authority does the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania give to this Council, or anybody in this City, the power to tax, also, what powers does Council or any member of City government have to tax and remove taxes and under what legislation. Also, whether or not in effect the tax bills that were submitted, and that the City Clerk needs to give her the exact numbers, whether or not our actions to table those bills last Wednesday legally, and I need the citation, means that those bills at the tax rates are still in effect.

I'd like to have that information by Wednesday because, as I said, I think it's important that we follow the proper procedure.

Also, would you please send a letter to the Solicitor request clarification as to whether or not a bill that is tabled, a bill that is in Committee and is tabled, can be brought up during that particular session of Council or if it has to wait for another session of Council, can specifically make reference to those tax bills that have been tabled and ask whether or not Council is in its right to take those bills off the table, take action on them, and what would be the impact of our taking any action on those bills next Wednesday if they can be untabled.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I'd like to bring to the attention of this Council that over the weekend Mr. Gaetano and Mr. Gigliotti spent their whole Christmas out at three homes that had sewage in their basement five feet high, did not have their Christmas dinners because of problems indirectly connected with the Saw Mill Run. In this instance it was a sewer contractor hired by Whitehall and we're going to institute law suit. It was a horrendous situation as the people had their Christmas ruined, no heat, and feces five feet high in the basement. It is unsanitary and they cannot clean out their basement and there will be a major lawsuit. I think we should send an letter of congratulations to Mr. Lou Gaetano and Frank Gigliotti for giving up their Christmas and spending their whole day there.

I was called by Channel 2 Radio saying, "What can we do?" The answer appeared to be, "Well, it's only Saw Mill Run, what can we do, it's been going on since Dave Lawrence's days." But it turned out not to be that.

The Chair:

That was not my remark. I said it was Dave Lawrence as Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh that refused Alcosan the permission to take it over. He wanted the City's domain and that's the way it is until it's legally clarified. We wanted to take it over but we don't have the choice.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not criticizing you. Mr. Heinz, Senator Heinz, said that he had raised money for this community and there's a letter to that effect in Mr. Gaetano's office, to do something about Saw Mill Run. Nothing has happened. Other cities have boondoggles that they get the money, they get the attention. This is a serious, serious problem that must be addressed. It was not a criticism of you, I hope you didn't take it that way. I agree with you. It's been a long-standing problem.

The Chair:

I just thought you took my remark out of context. I didn't say it that way.

Michelle Madoff:

Not at all. I'm saying it's been a long time and we must address it.

One other item, Mr. President. It is my understanding that we voted in this Council that all meetings would be televised. Not only budget hearings but all regular sessions of Council, finance meetings on Wednesday and Monday meetings, and all public hearings. The only reason we didn't go ahead and do it was that there are so many hours that could be covered by the cable communications people and that starting the first of January, we would now be televising Monday afternoon meetings, Wednesday morning meetings —

Mr. Givens:

Michelle, the fact that that's my particular chairmanship, I'm going to make a resolution to Council on Monday and all Councilpeople will have the right to vote on it and I think it's rightfully so that each one of us should have that right to decide as to whether all the meetings, including public hearings, should be addressed. I think it should be with no exceptions.

The Chair:

Who notifies these people?

Michelle Madoff:

You're interrupting and I don't interrupt you on issues like this.

The reason I'm raising the issue is that I spoke to Brother Richard —

The Chair:

Well, I think if we can find out who is to notify when there will be TV it will clarify the matter. Why it wasn't done, I don't know and personally I don't care. But at the same time, Mike, who's responsibility is it?

Michelle Madoff:

I care because I think the public has the right to know and the only reason they know is when they tune in and watch the shenanigans. I'm suggesting that starting the first of the year, as we voted, all regular meetings of Council, Finance, Monday meetings and public hearings, be televised on public television.

Mr. Givens:

That resolution will be before us on Monday.

The Chair:

The only reason we didn't go ahead and do it was that there are so many hours that could be covered by the cable communications people and that starting the first of January, we would now be televising Monday afternoon meetings, Wednesday morning meetings —

Mr. Givens:

Michelle, the fact that that's my particular chairmanship, I'm going to make a resolution to Council on Monday and all Councilpeople will have the right to vote on it and I think it's rightfully so that each one of us should have that right to decide as to whether all the meetings, including public hearings, should be addressed. I think it should be with no exceptions.

The Chair:

Who notifies these people?

Michelle Madoff:

You're interrupting and I don't interrupt you on issues like this.

The reason I'm raising the issue is that I spoke to Brother Richard —

The Chair:

Well, I think if we can find out who is to notify when there will be TV it will clarify the matter. Why it wasn't done, I don't know and personally I don't care. But at the same time, Mike, who's responsibility is it?

Michelle Madoff:

I care because I think the public has the right to know and the only reason they know is when they tune in and watch the shenanigans. I'm suggesting that starting the first of the year, as we voted, all regular meetings of Council, Finance, Monday meetings and public hearings, be televised on public television.

Mr. Givens:

That resolution will be before us on Monday.

The Chair:

I thought we already passed that.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes it did pass.

The Chair:

Then what's the problem.

Michelle Madoff:

I just want to be sure because Brother Richard said that is not his understanding. If Mike will dig up that bill where we voted on it and sent it to Brother Richard that will take care of the problem.

Mr. Perry:

I'll never find it.

Michelle Madoff:

Why won't you find it?

Mr. Perry:

It wasn't there. It's not there.

Michelle Madoff:

What do you mean it wasn't there?

Mr. Perry:

Your resolution was just for budget hearings, budget only. Then there was a motion made --

Michelle Madoff:

That's right. To expand it and we voted yes, it's in the tape, you can go back and listen to your tape, we voted yes to include all of it. But then it was determined after we all voted yes to do all of it, that there wasn't enough cable time so we would only do budget until the end of the year and starting the first of the year we would do regular meetings. If you will listen to your tapes you will find it.

I also asked for comments from you. I asked you to find me last year's comments by Mr. Stone on the budget wherein he says, "We barely were going to make it through the year", and I would like those comments and I would like all my comments on the budget this year brought forward. I would strongly recommend that you type up the regular meetings and attach them to the final Minutes. That's how you would do it. The Wednesday meeting which was not televised which was entitled Voting on the Budget should be a part of these Minutes. Then we don't have to have everybody saying, "Bring my comments forward".

The Chair:

They'll say it anyway.

Michelle Madoff:

Wednesday meeting's budget, this last Wednesday, must be incorporated in the final Minutes of today because they're meaningless without.

Mr. Robinson:

Two matters, Mr. Chairman. One, I have letters relative to the Mercantile Tax which I'd like to have included into the public record.

Councilman William Russell Robinson
Chairperson of Planning, Housing and Development

Dear Councilman Robinson:

Although I was out of town for the holidays last weekend, I was pleased to read in the newspaper that the Council had reconsidered the magnitude of the shift in land taxes for the City of Pittsburgh. We appreciate your taking a second look at this tax change and the more conservative approach you finally adopted.

Of course, we still feel that the property tax increase should have been deferred for some time and hope that Council will do everything possible to look for productivity improvements and cost savings that might be effected in the administration throughout 1983.

As a major business in the City of Pittsburgh, we look forward to working with you and the administration in improving the efficiency of the City of Pittsburgh and participating on a more joint basis in the future when question of taxes arise. Thank you for your consideration on the above issue and we hope you have the very best of holidays and successful new year.

Sincerely,

Councilman Bill Robinson

Dear Councilman Robinson,

I couldn't agree more with your stand regarding the city's obvious miscalculations of revenues. The $16.2 million is indeed, "One hell of a miscalculation."

I am also in favor of the abolishment of the Merchantile Tax. It has always been my opinion that merchantile taxes have boardered on being unconstitutional as well as immoral. The fact that the taxpaid on gross sales and not gross profits means, that even in years where there are no profits, there are still revenues due the city. This can catastrophically alter the cash position of the small business, at a time when these funds are desperately needed just to try and keep the business afloat.

The current administration is concerned with keeping a population of both people and businesses. If the tax is dropped it will go a long way towards both of these goals. If the tax burden is lifted from the businesses it will encourage both new and existing businessmen to employ new people, to obtain a greater sales volume, and bring more shoppers into our fine city. If more people are employed in the city, then it follows that more people will live in the city.

It is in the city's best interest to have a prosperous business community. I urge you to continue to push for abolishment of this tax and would welcome the opportunity to discuss my views with you at any time. If there is anything I can do to help strengthen your position please feel free to contact the undersigned.

Very Truly Yours,

City Council of Pittsburgh
City-County Building

Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Gentlemen:

I strongly urge City Council to adopt Councilman Robinson's bill to drop the Merchantile Tax in view of the city's 16 million dollar surplus. My firm and many other Pittsburgh Companies have been losing money in these recessionary times yet we are obligated to make a huge mercantile tax because the tax is calculated on dollar volume of sales and is collectable even if the firm has been operating in the red. To avoid failure we too like other local merchants have had to lay off people, delay expansion plans, and cancel much-needed renovations and improvements. Retrenchment may delay business failures, but it cannot prevent them. In these recessionary times the mercantile tax can be deadly as everyone can see by the growing list of business failures and the consequent lengthening lines of unemployed.

I am convinced that Mr. Robinson's proposal would be a great relief to thousands of businesses struggling for survival. What a life-saving assist this would be for the merchants and workers of Pittsburgh! What better investment can Council make with the 16 million dollar surplus? By abating the mercantile tax, the city will be priming the local business pump in a huge way, which will reverse the growth of bankruptcies and thereby start up re-employment that is so badly needed; and guarantee future tax revenues for Pittsburgh many times over.

God bless Mr. Robinson for his insight in these critical times. I'm sure careful consideration will convince Council of the wisdom of this bill.

Very truly yours,

STATEMENT OF SUPPORT OF COUNCILMAN STONE'S COMPROMISE
TAX PROPOSAL FOR FISCAL YEAR
1983

It is our understanding that Councilman Stone and other Members of Council have received pleas from owners of valuable downtown land, particularly from downtown merchants, to delay implementation of the land tax shift proposed for this year.

These merchants, we are told, have not argued against the fairness or economic wisdom of the land tax itself, but have expressed concern that the loss of business due to the depressed retail economy and to the disruption of downtown business caused by the various construction projects has put merchants in a position where it will be difficult to adjust to sudden increases in property taxes.

We believe that the land tax is a fundamentally fair tax, and that its advantages to the local economy are too important to be delayed. We believe it is necessary for the City of Pittsburgh to send a clear message to owners of valuable land that is underutilized and underdeveloped—a message that every effort must be made to bring these properties into fuller use. It must be clear that, as long as we have idle and blighted properties and we have citizens who cannot find either jobs or housing, there will be further shifts to land value taxation.

We also recognize that, while the land value tax reform is too important to be delayed, it is also too important to be rushed. The unanimous preliminary vote of Council in favor of a land tax shift clearly indicates that this reform will not be stopped in its tracks. The realization that a shift to land tax is inevitable should convince most large landowners that it is not in their best interest to pass up development opportunities.

We view the implementation of land tax is inevitable, not only because of the solid support for it on City Council, but because of growing acclaim for this reform on the state and national level, and because of the fundamental fairness of the land tax itself.

Since Pittsburgh's enactment of the land tax shift for 1979, four other Pennsylvania cities have likewise shifted to land tax. This year, over 10 municipalities in Pennsylvania are considering land tax shifts for either 1983 or 1984, and at least two other states have introduced enabling legislation for land tax shifts in their cities.

The shift to land value taxation is more than a device for stimulating construction and for saving homeowners money. It is a recognition of fundamental principles of both taxation and private property. Specifically, land tax recognizes that:

1. Land was originally common property.

2. The legitimate purpose in making land private property was to bring that land into use by giving security to private users.

3. It is contrary to that purpose to tax those who use their land, as intended, more heavily than those who hold land back from use for speculative gain.

4. Because all land titles originated as grants from the government, and because the unimproved value of land is created by the community and by government services, it is fundamentally fair to collect a portion of that land's rental value to maintain the government and to serve the community.

Basing taxation on such principles is a fundamental departure from the current practice of taxing "anything that moves." It is partly this depth of justice in the land tax that has led so many people to work for its implementation.

It is important to note that our support of the land tax reform is based on a desire to see land put into productive use and to see Pittsburgh's economy function freely and fairly for the benefit of all. We are not motivated by feelings of jealousy or hostility toward large landowners. On the contrary, we hope these landowners find greater prosperity in fully utilizing their land than they currently find in holding back this valuable resource.

Our confidence that the land tax reform will continue to have solid support in Pittsburgh's city government allows us to focus our energy on finding ways to make the shift to land tax smoothly, and to minimize losses for those caught with land they can't quickly develop. We believe that those who hold underdeveloped land should be taxed more heavily than they are today, but that they should be helped in every practical way to either sell or develop their holdings.

On the other hand, Pittsburgh cannot afford to delay this reform while investors wait for better economic times. Until the people who hold land and resources decide to put those resources to work, there will be not better economic times.

When the economy was dynamic and the demand for developable property was high, a much greater millage shift than the one proposed for 1983 would have been fairly easy for landowners to handle. It is unfortunate that reforms of this kind become most vitally necessary at times when their implementation is most delicate. Such is the state of the present economy that we must to whatever it takes to keep the city healthy and at the same time be understanding of those who would hold us back to protect themselves.

Many of Pittsburgh's merchants occupy small buildings on valuable downtown sites—sites that should be more fully developed. However, we recognize that these merchants are a valuable component of Pittsburgh's economy. There is logic to their plea that 1983 will be a relatively difficult year for them to adjust to increased property taxes, and that land tax should not be rushed at their expense. While it is necessary for the city to exert pressure to have these sites improved, such pressure may be best exerted gently and gradually.

It is also best if such a change has the full support of council and is acceptable to most large landowners. While we believe our original proposal, which was tentatively adopted by council, to be a modest and calculated shift, we can see advantages of making a smaller shift with the full support of council over passing the proposed shift by a narrow margin.

We therefore recognize Councilman Stone's compromise proposal—to increase the land tax to 150 mills and to decrease the building tax to 27 mills—as a move which is both progressive for the city and compassionate to the landowner.

We would also recommend that council pass a resolution to the effect that council intends to pursue further shifts to the land tax upon completion of the subway, and that owners of valuable land be advised to put that land to use in ways that will benefit the people of Pittsburgh.

Respectfully submitted by Dan Sullivan

There's hope yet!
William Coyne

Pennsylvania's experience with land value taxation offers a message of hope in these times of economic recession, according the William J. Coyne, Pittsburgh's Democratic Representative in Congress.

Pittsburgh won the legal right to tax land at twice the rate of the tax on buildings in 1914.

"A long line of mayors credited our differential tax with helping homeowners and businesses," says Mr. Coyne, who served in the state legislature and Pittsburgh City Council before election to Congress in 1980.

"During the Depression, the mayors said it helped us weather those bad times better than comparable cities."

with whom I have been in discussion have indicated the unwillingness of the Postal Service to proceed with the funding of costs for early construction of the bridge structure. As you know, the project is listed on our Regional Transportation Improvement Program for federal funding and has more recently been included in the state accelerated bridge program. The design of the bridge is nearing completion by the Department of Public Works. The funding problem has been our local inability in 1983 to provide the local share of the bridge costs and to front the federal share under the reimbursement system used by the Federal Highway Administration on the projects they assist. That restriction would cause the bridge construction to be delayed until 1984.

Our negotiations with the Postal Service would have provided the opportunity to advance the project construction to 1983. The Mayor's Six Year Development Program proposal submitted last month shows the project construction phase to take place in 1984. It was so scheduled because we were beginning to get negative readings from the Postal Service and wanted to be conservative about scheduling. An additional problem has arisen which relates to the automobile emissions issue. I am told that PennDOT has informed DPW that they will not review plans for projects requiring federal funds until the emissions problem has been resolved. This means that the review process which should be ready to begin by the first of the year could delay construction.

As you know, I have met with members of the Manchester Community to apprise them of the Postal Service's position and the implications for scheduling.

If the auto emissions issue is resolved, the likelihood of the bridge proceeding in 1984 is substantially enhanced due to the additional funding represented by the state bridge legislation and the federal 5 cent gas tax legislation.

If you have any additional questions, please let me know.

Additional Information

This is a follow-up to my memo of 16 December and is in response to the request made at the Capital Budget hearings that day.

Communications I have had with the Postal Service have been in the form of phone conversations and one meeting in Pittsburgh with several representatives of their real estate and buildings department.

My contact person has been Richard L. Monnett, General Manager, Construction Management Division, Real Estate and Buildings Department, Washington, D.C. 20260 (Phone: 202-245-4342).

Monnett informed me by phone of the Postal Service's position that they were no longer willing to consider funding the bridge project. He did so by reading an internal memo indicating that the Real Estate and Building Department would answer negatively if the City formally requested funding assistance. I have now made such a formal request for the record, and will forward you a copy of the response, when received.

(END OF INSERTIONS - MR.
ROBINSON)

Mr. Robinson:

Another issue which gets back to this tax thing again. I need a ruling from the Parliamentarian. If I change my vote on Mr. Stone's motion from aye to abstain, pending some clarification come Wednesday, can I make that conditional upon the fact that if indeed the procedure that we utilized was correct that my vote can be changed back to aye?

Parliamentarian:

Which vote are you talking about?

Mr. Robinson:

The vote approving Mr. Stone's resolution that we accept the budget.

Parliamentarian:

I think the majority would have to vote on permitting you to reconsider that vote.

Mr. Robinson:

Right now?

Parliamentarian:

Right now.

Mr. Robinson:

One other question, if I might, in this regard. If in fact the right procedure was not followed, would it then be appropriate for us to reconsider our vote on Mr. Stone's resolution? If we didn't use the proper procedure last Wednesday?

Parliamentarian:

That is a hypothetical question. I would prefer the real facts before making that recommendation, Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, I also want the record to reflect that my concern about the manner in which we voted on these taxes is not a reflection on Mr. Stone. My concern is that, I think, we simply have used the wrong procedure. This is not an attempt to embarrass Mr. Stone or anyone on this Council. It's a serious attempt to try to see if, in fact, we should vote on those bills.

I'm talking about abstaing today until I get some clarification on Wednesday concerning these tax bills.

The Chair:

There's a motion to give Mr. Robinson permission to change his vote.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.
